Talent Show Tryouts at Jewish Center Monday

All Entrants Must Appear at the Elimination Contest

Tryouts for the fourth annual Bystander's Talent Show will be held on next Monday evening, 8 o'clock, at the Jewish Community Center, Eighth street and Locust, instead of the Billiken Ballroom, as was previously published.

Up to date many of the local amateur musicians, dance teams and vocal groups have entered the show and will have an opportunity to demonstrate their acts and novelty numbers in the elimination contest on Monday night.

Many tiny youngsters are getting an early start before the public and bright lights these days. The list of entry blanks received this week reveals dancers as well as blues singers as young as four years of age.

If you have a number, whether you can sing it or swing it—just sign an entry blank and see that it gets into one of the Bystander Talent Show boxes which are located in many of the business places on Center street, the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. and the East and West side Community Centers.

Prizes

The Talent Show is divided into dancing, blue singing, folk songs and classical, and the children's division. First prize in each adult division is five dollars; second in each division adult division is two dollars and fifty cents; and third prize in each adult division is one dollar and fifty cents. First prize in the children's division is two dollars; second, one dollar; third, fifty cents.

All contestants are selling tickets, twenty-five cents, children's fifteen cents, to swell the crowd to the final show which will be held on Monday night, October 2, at the Jewish Community Center.

Contestants whose numbers go over in a big way at the tryouts on Monday night will appear over radio station KSO on a fifteen-minute program, Sunday afternoon, October 1. Assisting with the staging of the Talent Show will be Miss Roberta Maupin, pianist.

Directors

T. L. Howard is in charge of the show with Miss Annabelle Payne and Miss Clara Fant on the entrants committee.

Pushing the ticket sale this week is Nathaniel Harvey, ace Bystander newsboy, who would be blowing his own bugle in the Talent Show if he were not an employee at the Bystander office. Make your reservations early by having Nathaniel to deliver them to you.

To Speak on War Monday

John Munn, Post commander and chairman of the military affairs committee of Lincoln Post 126, American Legion, will speak on "Horrors of War" and "Why We Should Remain Neutral," Monday evening, September 25, for the Lincoln Auxiliary Unit.

Miss Sarah Steele will be in charge of the musical program. The Mesdames Mildred Page and Beulah Noah and Miss Georgine Mason will be soloists and Mrs. William Fields will give a reading.

The meeting will be held at the East Side Community Center, East Fifteenth and Buchanan streets, and will honor Gold Star Mother and sister of the unit, Hattie Campbell and Frances Hall.

Louis-Pastor to 11 Rounds

LOUIS STAKES OUT PASTOR

Bob Pastor got his shot at Joe Louis for the heavy crown, and finished a bad second in the eleventh round. Pastor fought the kind of a fight that was calculated to eventually win the title from Joe, but just didn't have the stuff. He proved dead game, surviving three knockdowns in the opening round and three more a little later.

Pastor depended a lot on his "superior" brain and speed, but as your humble servant once pointed out, you just can't out-think a crack on the whiskers. Louis' opponents have all found some weakness and have all tried to capitalize on it and the result has always been the same. They have pounded away at his supposedly fragile jaw. They have pounded his mid-section, and they have tried to slug Joe, even butt him and now Pastor boxes him. No matter what the boys have tried they have always wound up on their backs.

Joe Louis can't take a punch. Galento, an admittedly terrific puncher, lands his Sunday punch twice, and Joe gets up and nearly annihilates him. Louis gets befuddled easily and can't think. Bob Pastor deliberately starts a campaign to take advantage of that and Louis not only out-boxes him, but finally catches Pastor and knocks him flatter than stale beer.

Who is next and what will be his line? After Louis has retired whether he is defeated or not, the sports writers will begin to look back, and he will be rated as the greatest heavyweight of them all. A man who defended his title against anybody and everybody at any time.

A final word. The most startling thing about this champion is that the same entourage that started him on his way to the top is still with him to a man. Look back over your other heavyweight champs and see if you can tie that mark.

AFRICAN NEGRO CHIEFTAIN HELPS TO GREAT BRITAIN

Washington, (ANP)—Discovery of a native African Negro chief who speaks 13 languages, including three European tongues, was reported several days ago here.

In a report prepared before he was recalled to England at the outbreak of the war, Brigadier H. S. Winterbotham of London, general secretary of the union, said he found the Negro chieftain, apparently an Oxford university graduate, in a small village in Uganda.

He owned a library ranging from Shakespeare to Mark Twain, the Navy Wants Negroes-as Stewards

Washington, (ANP)—In reply to a wire sent the secretary of the navy, Capt. Ollendorf of the personnel department, told the Associated Negro Press last week that "The president's recommendation increasing the enlistment of navy personnel will affect Negroes."

Previously, the monthly quota of Negro enlistments was held down to 50, but in September (this month) the quota jumped to 250," he said. "And the same proportion will hold during the entire limited emergency with Negroes being enlisted in the same ratio for the navy. They will not be admitted to any other branch of the service excepting the stewards' department, where they will be enlisted as mess attendants only."

Count Basie Is Stricken

New York—Count Basie, famous band leader was stricken last Tuesday and for three days no one was allowed to visit with him. This caused an alarm that had all Harlem worried about his condition.

The Count had just opened a limited engagement at the swanky Roseland ballroom in Brooklyn when illness set in.

During the musician's illness, Mary Lou Williams is carrying on in his stead at the head of the Basie aggregation. She is directing the Count's band in its radio broadcasts and appearance at the Roseland.

Serum rushed from Chicago by plane arrived Friday and the patient immediately began showing improvement. Sunday morning physicians announced that the musician was much improved and was showing signs of recuperation for the first time.

RESIGNS POST

Mrs. Guy E. Greene has resigned her office as treasurer of the American Legion Auxiliary, Lincoln Post, 126, she announced this week. The resignation will become effective October 3.

English scientist said, and helped train natives to run survey lines through different jungle areas, even teaching them to use telescopes to fix the positions of such lines by star positions. His name was not given.

Says City Attorney Made Untrue Statement in Court

In order that the public might know the "truth" regarding statements which were made in the district court during the trial in which Mrs. Bessie Griffith, 1656 Maple street, was suing the city of Des Moines for $1,000, Mrs. Griffith gave facts of the case to a Bystander representative this week.

In regards to a statement made by Frank Davis, a city attorney, who told the jury that Mrs. Griffith had brought 14 previous personal injury suits in the last 11 years under the names of Tate, Wood and Hart, Mrs. Griffith said that this statement was not true and that during the court proceedings she had it stricken from the testimony.

"Frank Davis lied," Mrs. Griffith told the Bystander representative. "I never did have 14 previous personal injury suits," she informed so that the public might know the truth.

Mrs. Griffith who was much upset over the misstatement of facts by the city's attorney, recalled all of her personal injuries she had received and listed five.

"Only one personal injury suit did I take to court, and that was the last one—which was held last week," she stated.

Hurt at Store

"I got hurt on an elevator at Sears and Roebuck in 1928. They paid me compensation. There was no law suit," Mrs. Griffith said.

"I was injured the second time in 1934 when I stepped on a loose brick on East Sixteenth street between Walker and Buchanan streets. There was no street light. I was thrown and injured and laid up six weeks. The city settled out of court for my injuries," Mrs. Griffith continued.

"The third time—I fell backward seven feet and ten inches into a trap hole at a house at 1450 Buchanan street, on the evening of March 11, 1935. I had moved into the house that morning and had notified the water company to turn on the water. When I got there about 7:30 that

FUNERAL RITES FOR MRS. LESLIE ANDERSON

Mrs. Leslie Anderson, 32, 421 S. E. Fourth street, was buried on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 21, from the Union Baptist church, with the L. Fowler and Son funeral directors in charge of the body.

Mrs. Anderson died on Monday, September 18, at the Broadlawn Tuberculosis hospital after an illness of a year. She had been a resident of Des Moines 15 years.

Surviving are her husband, two sons, three sisters and two brothers.

evening the water man was down in the basement turning on the water and at the time had no light on the porch to show me he had the trap hole open.

"This was settled out of court," Mrs. Griffith explained to the reporter.

"The fourth time I was injured I was on a street car going to work, April 23, 1936. The street car hit a truck at East First and Locust and I was thrown against an iron rail and injured. I went to Iowa City for treatment. The street car company settled. There was no suit," she recalled.

"The fifth time Mrs. Griffith was injured occurred in December 1938. I stepped back into a hole, getting out of the way of an auto as I was on my way to work. This happened at Second and Locust street," she said.

Clears Up Names

Regarding the names of "Hart, Tate and Wood," to which the city attorney said in court that Mrs. Griffith had used in previous suits, Mrs. Griffith told the reporter that "as far as the name of Hart—I never used that name—I was never a Hart."

She explained that "Tate was my maiden name. When I was at Sears and Roebuck I used the name of Bessie Tate Wood."

Mrs. Griffith pointed out names of B. F. Wood, Bessie Wood, listed in the telephone book to prove her statement that there are other people in Des Moines whose names were similar to hers.

"I only want credit for those that are mine," she smiled.

Mrs. Griffin stated she was in New Jersey one year and Fairmount, W. Virginia another, during the past eleven years.

A jury in Judge Russell Jordan's court last week denied her damages. She was represented in court by H. H. Sawyer.

WHERE DO WE STAND?

Even though Hitler has announced a peace proposal since the capture of Poland, the war in Europe will continue for some time to come. The allies cannot afford to quit now that Germany has overrun Poland when they declared war when the Germans commenced that job.

However, the big question from now on is the position the United States will take. Congress convenes today. Momentous debate will be forthcoming immediately over the policy this country will pursue toward the warring nations.

Our neutrality law forbids the sale of war supplies to warring nations. President Roosevelt wants to change this law permitting any nation to come to our shores, buy and pay for what they want and take it away with them.

The Bystander is inclined to favor President Roosevelt's proposal. We do so because International law means nothing to Hitler; our ships are going to be sunk if they travel on the high seas; even though Hitler gives his word that he will observe the rights of neutrals it means nothing the same as was done when he said bombs would not be dropped on innocent civilians but they are being rained down every day. So we had just as well sell what we can to the fellow who can pay for and carry the supplies away.

Developments come rapidly. Policies must be evolved to meet these changes. It will pay America to keep a level head and remember that while most people are opposed to joining up to fight these wars propaganda is a mighty force and can change opinions and policies quickly.

HOW COME?

A strange situation with respect to living conditions among Negro students exists at the University of Iowa. A recent bulletin explaining self-help for students states that in the cooperative dormitories under the supervision of the school students secure room and board for seventeen dollars every four weeks. However, no Negroes live in the dormitories and neither are any operated for Negro students.

There are few Negro students at the University who would not like some arrangement of this kind. Their financial status would best be served by it, and yet it is costing Negro students from twenty-five to thirty dollars per month for accommodations far less desirable than the cooperative dormitories.

This situation ought not exist. Surely Negro students ought not be penalized financially in order to go to the University of Iowa. But that is just what is happening.

Something ought to be done about this. The Bystander would gladly print any suggestions from its readers on the subject.

WE PRINT THE NEWS

Often a newspaper finds itself in hot water when it prints the news. The Bystander is no exception to the rule; and often all that's just what a paper is for.

A newspaper cannot afford to discriminate between poor and rich or high or low people, and while we don't get all the news our policy is to print whatever we find as it is not long scandalous.

It is not our policy to libel any one maliciously and whenever an error occurs we gladly make corrections, but we shall continue to print the news without favoritism.

BIBLE THOUGHT

"Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man sows, that shall he also reap." Galatians 6:7.

The Bible thought of the week was selected by Mrs. O. L. Howard, 701 S. E. Eleventh street; Bible teacher of the Missionary Society of the Shiloh Baptist church Des Moines.

BOOKS

AT PUBLIC LIBRARY
 Beginning Sunday the reference department and the telephone information service of the Des Moines public library will be open every Sunday during the winter from 2 until 6 p. m., according to word received by Forrest Spaulding, city librarian.

"We Painted Them North," by E. C. Abbott is one of the new books received at the Des Moines Public Library. The book is the recollections of an eighty-year old cow-puncher whose life is a history of the cattle trail and the open range.

Dorothy Thompson's "Let the Record Speak" is a selection of some of her best recent columns.

"I Believe," edited by Clifton Fadiman is a collection of papers presenting the personal philosophies of some eminent men and women of our times. Among the contributors are Thomas Mann, George Santayana, Pearl Buck, Lin Yutang, and Havelock Ellis.

"The Secret of Childhood," by Maria Montessori is a book intended for all parents of children of pre-school age. This is the first book by this famous educator, written for the general public rather than for teachers.

"Magic Dials," by Lowell Thomas is a brief account of the development and extent of the radio industry. It includes some account of television and contains an unusual number of unusual photographs.

"Johnny Got His Gun," the novel by Dalton Trumba is a terrible indictment of war. The chief character is horribly mutilated. As he lies in a hospital bed, scenes from his earlier life come back to him. The reader feels, with him, the horror and desperation of his plight and the dawning hope of a tiny interest in life.

The above described books are new titles recently added to the shelves at the Des Moines public library and may be borrowed from your local neighborhood library as well as from the main library. Ask the branch librarian for particulars enabling you to secure these books.

West Beats East Negroes

Behind the stellar turning of Jamar Allen, who struck out 11 men in the seven-innings he toiled on the mound, the West-side drew first blood in the first All Star East-West game for the Negro city baseball championship at Western league park Thursday night before 500 enthusiastic fans.

With the Lee township crew leading 2 to 1 going into the third stanza, Allen relieved Eddie Saunders with two men on the paths and one down and proceeded to retire the side with three straight strikeouts. The West-side pitcher then held the opposition in check the remainder of the route blanking them the seven-innings he worked.

Besides the pitching of Allen, the hitting of A. and F. Brown and Ray, and Wilson stood out for the chamption. Wilson also turned in the fielding gem of the evening retrieving May's long double off the wall to stifle an impending rally. C. May, Guy Jackson and Hogue Thompson led the attack of the losing aggregation with the defensive work of the latter two featuring along with their clouting.

Fitch Shampoo re-asserted their supremacy over the Negro Center softball team in the first game of the evening by coming out on the long end of a 4 to 3 count. With two down in the last of the seventh, Johnson and Anderson clouted safeties to place the tying and winning markers on the bases, but Manager Carr raised a high infield fly to end the contest.

CROCKER "Y" LEAGUE STANDING

St. Paul A. M. E. baseball team won the Crocker "Y" baseball championship, which was reinstated this summer after successfully finding a suitable playing ground, that had hampered the play in recent years.

Although the entire season of play was not completed due to rainy weather and wet ground, the winners collected five victories with one defeat to walk off with high honors. The lone set-back came at the expense of Kyles A. M. E. Zion, whom received runner-up position with Union Baptist in third place and Burns M. E. bringing up the rear.

The champs, managed by Clark Yaeger, exhibited fine ball playing throughout the playing season.

In the Crocker "Y" softball league, championship honors were bestowed upon the Negro Community Center. After losing their initial encounter, the went roving in championship style to win eight straight victories. East Des Moines Center was a close second with only a half a game behind. St. Paul A. M. E., Estes-Van Ginkel, Fowler Funeral Home and Corinthian Baptist followed in this order.

CARBON MONOXIDE GAS POISONING

With the coming of winter carbon monoxide poisoning is a frequent occurrence due either to accidental or deliberate inhalation of concentrated fumes of artificial illuminating gas or the exhaust of an automobile. Do not allow your motor to run while in a closed garage unless the windows are up. Have your automobile checked for carbon monoxide leaks.

One should always have one car window down enough to permit circulation of fresh air when driving. The onset of carbon monoxide poison is slow and the patient is usually quite ignorant of any ill effects approaching; unconsciousness may develop with alarming rapidity.

If the poisoning is mild, headache and dizziness may be noticed with difficulty of vision and mental confusion. Those who are constantly exposed to small amounts of the gas (garage workers, miners, etc.) are supposed to develop a form of chronic poisoning, characterized by headache, palpitation, dizziness and dyspepsia.

The treatment should be preventive, avoid closed places where the gas is present unless sufficient oxygen can enter.

The majority of patients recover without any after-effects, but if the blood has been saturated to 75 percent, and the patient has been unconscious for more than one-half hour, death usually occurs. When you discover one whom you suspect as having been overcome by gas remove him immediately to the open air and call a physician at once.

Brown Bombers Play Comets

The Chicago Brown Bombers, a Negro team from the Windy City, will play the local professional team, Daniels Comets at Dowling field, Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

The Bombers, who have been here twice and never made a bad showing, have a better team, they say than any the have brought here. They will have their usual heavy line and a backfield built around Bennie Jefferson, former youth Western ace and probably Jesse Babbs, the old stand-by from Indiana.

This will be the opening game of the season for the local team whose attack will feature Bob Vanderveer, left-footed ace for three seasons.

Local High Schools

The local high school season gets under way this week end with North playing at Ames, East at Valley and Lincoln resting. Just a hint. Watch the Tribune high school section for pictures of week end heroes and see how many Negroes will be pictured there. Last week Harold Briggs of Cedar Rapids made the honor roll, but no picture.

In our college gridiron survey last week we forgot to mention that Willard Cushingberry is engaged in a hot fight for a tackle berth. The odds are rather heavy against him though because of Drake's schedule.

ARMSTRONG-AMBERS BOUT
 NOV. 1 SAYS MEAD

New York, (ANP)—Eddie Meade, pilot of Henry Armstrong, welter title holder, emphatically stated this week that Hank will meet Lou Ambers in the third and rubber bout for the welterweight title in Madison Square garden on Nov. 1.

Incensed at the attempt of Al Weill, manager of Ambers, to get out of the match by offering as a substitute a battle between another Weill battler, Sammy Luftspring, and Pedro Montanez, Meade said, "Ambers is signed to meet Henry on Nov. 1, and I intend to hold him to that contract. Henry will be ready on that date, and there should be no reason why Ambers should not be.

"There will be no discussion as to the referee. I am not worried about that now. There is too much at stake for another blunder to be pulled. I have the champ of the welters and Weill will have to do as I suggest while Armstrong is champion. Ambers is the fight we want, and the date suits us perfectly."

Entrenous

Swing and jam were the main topics at the session with Don Albert's orchestra Monday evening.

Those cats really did swing out. Noted Everett Wadsworth and Dorothy Simms doing a jitterbug step all of their own. The sharp bent from Philadelphia, a student at Ames, will be coming to town quite often, so girls you may try your luck. . . that is . . . if Martha M. hasn't beat you to the draw.

Seen strolling down Center quite nonchalantly were "Kate Smith" and "Cutie Do" Doyle. . . Don't tell me that combination has started again or am I behind time? . . . Someone ask who was the little fellow with dark eyes that accidentally meets the new "Y" secretary on parpase every morning at breakfast? . . . Johnnie L. you have dark eyes. . . Zeko, where are you hiding? . . . Wonder what Geraldine Black's boy friend was planning while gazing at the household-furnishings in Davidson's display window? . . . The columnist hears that gas mask, machine guns and cannons are already for the Anti-Clera Fant war rumored to start soon. . . We're ready to fight like mad.

The Sepia Tattler

The Sue M. Brown club met Thursday at the E. D. M. Center with a social meeting. Miss Enola Craddock had charge of the meeting.

TO FISK

Now Is the Time to Get Early Start on Gifts for Coming Holiday Season

"I am going to make my gifts early to avoid the last minute rush," said and added "I left them all over to mother's. Ask Miss Smith at Apartment 2, she might have one."

To Miss Smith's apartment went searching for a needle.

"Do you have a crochet needle Miss Smith? Sadie thought you might have one. I've just got to get started this afternoon on my needlework—you know—for my gifts."

Miss Smith, frowned and asked, "what is a crochet needle—I don't believe I have ever seen one. I have some sewing needles."

"Oh, don't bother. I see you are busy making jelly," the housewife commented as she glanced about the small kitchenette at a table which held half-pint jars of fruit and tiny jars of jellies.

"I make these small jars of fruits and jellies to give to my friends during the gift season. They make nice packages when wrapped in cellophane or tinfoil," Mrs. Smith explained.

"I'll go right home," the housewife declared. "I've got a basket of grapes I can use for jelly," she began to plan. She had forgotten the crochet needle.

She searched boxes, bags, drawers, trunks and was unable to unearth one of her many steel hooks.

She went to her nearest apartment neighbors and this was what she found.

"Do you have a crochet needle Mrs. Brown?" the housewife asked. "No, I don't. If you had seen me 21 years ago when I was making my hope chest, I could have given you all kinds of needles."

The housewife thought of her little classmate who lived on the flood below.

"Sadie, let me use one of your crochet needles?"

"I don't have mine here," Sadie

GET SET TO GO—TO COLLEGE

(By Hazel L. Griggs for ANP)

Exciting days ahead! And many of you are busy assembling college wardrobes for that most important first year on the campus. Many others returning to school, and are equally enthusiastic about the fashion end of it. Of course, you know that sweaters and skirts are the order of the day on most campuses, that a hooded coat is a "must" for 1939 football games, that you will wear lots of socks, and that barrettes and hair bows are perky and popular. In planning your wardrobe, however, don't slip on the little details, which are so important.

Remember to include plenty of hose of different degrees of sheer-ness for your varied activities. Four-threat weight are best for campus wear. Your potential best beau may be trailing you, you know. Crooked stocking seams can mar the most carefully selected ensemble. This also goes for down-trodden shoe heels.

Gloves, too, are important. The fabric and doekin washables are nice because they can be kept fresh, and your fuzzy rabbit's hair or angora mittens, also, will need frequent tubbings, especially if they are the perennially popular white.

The Fortnightly club will meet Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Carter, 3425 Grand.

The Merced club met this week with Mrs. Orea Bulce.

S. M.—There is a young man in my neighborhood who likes me very much. His mother is strict on him and deprives him from talking with me, since lies have been told on us, he has run away from home and I just wonder if it would be best for me to run away too, cause she is going to find out sooner or later?

Ans: Running away from home wouldn't help matters any. You aren't responsible for what this boy does. . . you two are merely friends. Stay right there and conduct yourself as a young lady should, and the gossip will stop. The boy and his mother will settle their problems between them and you won't be involved.

B. B.—Should I take the trip I have planned to take or would I have success or fail?

Ans: There is no need for you to prepare to leave now. . . you need to GO TO SCHOOL. School boys should look for work immediately after school closes, and not a few days before it opens.

A. A.—Tell me if I am going to get the job that I want and will this girl marry me that I am in love with?

Ans: A better job and a raise in salary will come your way around the last of October. It is indicated to me that you will take this young lady for your wife sometime during the Christmas holidays.

C. L.—Is there anything wrong with my father?

Ans: Yes. . . he's terribly worried over business affairs right now and just doesn't act like himself. Things aren't as bad for him as he imagines, and he will cheer up a little later on.

L. M. F.—Tell me if the man I'm going to fix up the house we are living in anytime soon?

Ans: Yes. . . he's making plans to repair the house before the cold weather begins. Although I might add, that you will not get the place repaired the way you want it. . . only the absolute necessities will be attended to this fall.

N. F.—I am a married lady and I wish to know if there is anyone between my husband and I?

Ans: No one. He's lived absolutely true to you for the past NINETEEN YEARS and he isn't going to mar this record at this late date. You are worrying about nothing. . . give him more credit than you are giving him now.

C. O.—I married 5 years ago, and to the wrong man. I have studied voice and I wish to make it my profession but my husband is a pull back. Tell me what to do?

Ans: Well. . . what husband in this world wants his wife to travel around over the country as you wish to do and leave him at home? There is no need to be married if you live apart. Why not talk your husband into moving to New York City where you can put your talent to use, but don't try talking him into allowing you to travel around, for he won't agree to it. You married the right man, but don't appreciate him.

C. B.—Will I make the trip that I have planned for next month?

Ans: No, there is going to be a delay in regards to this trip. It will be for the better, as conditions aren't as favorable for you right now as they could be a little later on.

The Dilettante club met last Tuesday with Mrs. Gertrude Wilkerson. Plans were made for an exhibit during November. A poker party will be held at Hardyck hall of the La Marguerite hotel on Oct. 3.

Y Workers to Membership Conference at Boone

With shorts, slacks and swimming suits a group of the members of the Central and Blue Triangle
Y. W. C. A.'s started off Saturday afternoon for a week-end conference at the Girls Boone "Y" camp.
Reaching the Y. W. C. A. camp approximately at 4:45 p. m., the campers were carried to the Y. W. C. A. camp in a truck. After dinner the first conference was held in the lodge. Short addresses were given by Mrs. E. C. Lyton, vice-president of the Central "Y" and a member of the Board of Directors; Mrs.
Rosa E. Cunningham, a member of the Board of Directors; and O. L.
Madison of the Community Chest.
The most impressive part of the evening's meeting was the Fellowship Service held on the river front immediately after. Each camper was supplied with a lighted candle that had been melted into an egg shell.
After a short talk given by the president, Mrs. Charles Henshaw, these lighted shells were set afloat on the water, while the group sang "Follow the Glean," the theme of the service.
Sunday began with breakfast out-of-doors followed with a discussion at the lodge on the present day war situation in Europe. The topic was "What can we as Young People do to prevent too much Emotional anxiety about this situation."

The call to worship in the afternoon was presided over by Mrs. Korrine Jackson of the Blue Triangle
"Y", and also a member of the board of directors. Miss Sarah Steele was selected as singing director for the camp period and Miss Clara
Fant, pianist.
Representatives of the Blue Triangle Branch were Miss Marie Mayberry, executive secretary; Mrs. Korrine Jackson, a member of the board of directors; Miss Clara Fant, president of the Thorobred club; and Miss Sarah Steele.
The La Fleur De Les Club met
September 15, at the home of Stella Greer. Pokeno prizes were won by Dorothy Morris and Frances Bonwell. Dolly Harris will be the next hostess.
The M. Y. O. B. met at the home of Flora Mae Carter, Monday night, 1042 Fourth street place.
The Senior Usher Board of St.
Paul A. M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. Susie Goodlowe, 1107 Twelfth Street. Maude Mash is president.

TO NASHVILLE

Brice Dixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Baker Dixon, 2529 Easton boulevard, and a recent graduate of East high school, left Sunday morning for Nashville to attend the A. and M. Tennessee State College.

Entrenous

Last Thursday Arthur J. E. Lee, W. H. and Guy W. S., gave an exhibition for the staff on just how the new ultra modern "finger" tip suits should be worn—Suits on exhibition—Art John's new tweed—Brice Dixon intends to major in two original subjects at Tennessee State this year—Loveology and Campusology—Sounds interesting... Do you think he'll pass with M. E. so near... There are a certain few girls who would like to know just what E. Ware plans to make out of life... They say there are other girls to dance with while they occupy your one and only time... They don't like to be glared at... Who was the certain young lady recently dubbed "Miss Sleepy Head" because she enjoys the comforts of a boys shoulder while dancing... What's between Betty W. of Ottumwa and V. Cheston... Saw them Monday night after Don Albert's dance... Can't quite determine whether they are friends or enemies... Congratulations and best wishes to Catherine and James Anderson, and Jaunita and Charles Edward Watkins... The tall, dark and handsome gentleman from Omaha made quite a hit last week at the Business Week banquet and later at the dance. His "instinct" for telling correctly the birthdates of strangers stupefied many of the banquet ladies. He was popped so many questions that he raised his hands in despair saying "I'm not Houdini!"

Jitter Bugs swarmed all around the young senator from Omaha at the Business Week dance but did not disturb his graceful style or rhythm. "Where E'er You Go" was not the name of the music but was more accurately the motto of a little gent from Omaha who stuck like a twin to one of the local flames at the dance.

"Oh, she's fainted!" someone whispered about the thin lady who had collared her local dance partner during a jitter-bug number.

"Aw, no—that's her style of dancing," was an unsolicited reply from a listener. Well she "fainted" all evening—on one neck and then another—but never the same again.

When is the next dance in Omaha? There are several interested.

CANNING

(By the Sampler)
One housewife in Des Moines who spends most of her leisure time canning is Mrs. Robert Tunley, 2503 Cleveland avenue, who has to her credit for the summer 500 jars of foodstuffs including fruits, vegetables, pickles, jellies, jams, preserves and even meats.

Just last week Mrs. Tunley "put up in jars" 27 spring fryers and six big hens which she raised in her chicken yard.

During the cold days she will have plenty of fried or stewed chicken to serve from her pantry shelves.

"This is the first time I have tried canning chickens but my neighbors and some of my friends have been doing it for years," Mrs. Tunley told the Sampler.

There are two or three different ways to prepare chicken for canning she revealed. She said she had fried some and poured the grease over it in the jar. Then it is put in a pressure cooker and you should get the rest of the recipe from her—to be on the safe side.

This housewife has canned from her garden 58 quarts of tomatoes.
