REFUSE NEGRO YOUTH

Los Angeles.—No Negroes need answer the "commercial," read over KFWB every day, calling for young men to receive training in aviation from the Curtis-Wright Aviation school.

Eighteen-year-old Warrick Miles Jr. of 9431 Pace avenue, knows that this week, and the humiliation suffered by him is an object lesson in "democracy."

Warrick, like a number of alert youngsters, is interested in aviation, has a yen to fly in the service of his country, or in his country's aviation industry. But he might as well not have such a yen. He doesn't stand much chance of getting it satisfied.

"I'm just as sorry as you are," a white man told his mother last Saturday, "but we just aren't training Negroes."

WHITE OWNERS FIGHT

Chicago.—Aid to Chicago's South-side colored residents who long have fought for abolishment of the restrictive "covenant" in real estate deeds came from an unexpected source last week when it was learned that the Small Property Owners Association, Inc., a white neighborhood organization, has been formed to eliminate the Jim Crow restriction from transfers and sales of property in the West Woodlawn district.

TO DRAFT BOARD

Washington, (ANP)—The first Negro to be appointed to a state draft registration board is S. E. Hall, prominent business man of St. Paul, Minnesota, and a nephew of Charles Hall, former statistician in the department of census.

Mr. Hall's appointment came through Governor Harold E. Stassen, youthful and progressive Republican governor of Minnesota. According to information, there are about 2,000 colored men in the state who will be required to register and of this number only 9% will be chosen for service in the first draft group.

IN HIGHWAY PATROL OFFICE

HARRY E. WILSON

A Negro appointee in the patrol department of the state of Iowa is Harry Wilson who began his duty as supply sergeant in March 1939, receiving his appointment from Earl Miller, secretary of state.

In the above picture Mr. Wilson is seated at his desk in the office of the highway patrol department which is located at 104 of the State house. His file cabinets, stationary and supply files aid him in carrying out his duties, dispensing first aid supplies, uniforms and other needed equipment to the patrolman of the state.

The highway department is a part of the public safety department which is under the supervision of Carl Fisher and Chief C. A. Kneeb. Mr. Wilson, a native of San Diego, Cal., has resided in Des Moines for 26 years. He received his education in the elementary, high school and commercial college of San Diego, where he completed his course in accounting. While residing in Des Moines he has been active in civic, religious, fraternal and political organizations. He is a former exalted ruler of the Hawkeye lodge of I. B. P. O. E. W., a member of the Committee of Eight, the Des Moines Branch N. A. A. C. P., chairman of the East Des Moines Republican club, a member of the advisory committee of the Republican State Central Committee.

Officer Webb Three Insurance Groups Suspended Hold Out Against Agents

Patrolman Robert Webb was suspended from duty on the Des Moines police force Monday, Sept. 23, by Inspector Roger West, pending the return of Chief of Police Tom Watson from a four-day leave.

Patrolman Webb, in uniform, was alleged to have been found asleep in his personal car early Monday on his beat in the vicinity of Twelfth and Center streets, according to Lieutenant Charles Torrance and Sergeant Ralph Brophy.

They reported that, seeking Webb on other police business, they found him asleep in his car and that they were forced to knock on the car window to awaken him.

Webb has denied he was asleep.

New Orleans, (By Leon Lewis for ANP)—When more than 200 insurance agents of four local Negro companies walked out last week in a general strike because the company officials refused to negotiate with the agents' selected bargaining agent, the CIO, for increased wages and better working conditions, it was the first time in history of labor that insurance companies have been so affected.

The Good Citizens Insurance Company withdrew from the local insurance executives council and effected a compromise with the agents' representative, the CIO. The other three, The Louisiana Industrial, the Douglas and the Unity refused to bargain with any union relative to working conditions of their respective agents, and have placed a definite stamp of rejection upon the hopes for bargaining in this direction.

These three companies have replaced the striking agents and have called in their field representative to carry on the business. Special notices have been directed to policy holders informing them of the decision of the executives and warning that the premiums will have to be made as required in the insurance contracts, but only to the newly hired agents or at the company's offices.

Mammoth Patriotic Festival to Feature Negro Talent at Coliseum October 19th

The Negro Citizens of Polk County will have a patriotic jubilee at the Coliseum on Saturday night, October 19. This is an effort on the part of the good citizens of both races to get acquainted and thus be of mutual assistance.

Committees have been named to take care of the many features in art, music, oratory and dancing which will be presented to the public in contested forum, the winners of each to receive a valuable prize.

The program will begin at 7:30 o'clock and will continue until 10:15 p. m. Prizes will be presented and the dance will begin at 10:30 p. m.

"We hope to give to the public a program that will demonstrate and reveal the Negro talent in Iowa, showing the potential possibilities of the race if given their just proportion in the distribution of labor, especially among the industries," J. G. Browne, publicity chairman commented.

The admission is free and all are invited to attend this patriotic festival. Watch the columns of this paper for further announcements.

Fined $100 For Jim Crow Sandwich

Monday, Sept. 23, Judge Charles S. Cooter of the Municipal court, assessed a $100 fine against Mr. and Mrs. Paul Welty, white operators of the Rose and Paul cafe, 1225 Keosauqua Way, after finding them guilty of discriminating against a Negro in serving food in their cafe.

The trial was held last week but Judge Cooter had reserved his decision. Charges were brought by Chauncey Bailey, 1023 Thirteenth st. who said he was sold a smaller sandwich than was sold to white persons.

Mr. Welty said the waiter who sold the sandwich had been discharged. Judge Cooter gave the Welty's until Oct. 15 to pay.

In 1937 Judge Cooter united in marriage in a beer tavern, Rose Frye, tavern owner, and Paul Welty, bartender.

F. Hawkins Speaks To Perry, Ia. Rally

Fred Hawkins in a speech at the City Club Park in Perry Tuesday evening, September 24, told 300 Dallas and Webster County voters that "President Roosevelt is a triple threat to the security of America and Wendell Willkie is the answer to it."

Mr. Hawkins said that the state administration headed by Governor Wilson had carried out its pledges to the voters and if re-elected would continue that policy.

Other speakers on the program were Paul Cunningham, candidate for Congress from the sixth district, Whitehead, of the Perry Chief, J. G. Browne, 6th District Committeeman, Rev. E. N. Warren, W. H. Elmore, Polk County chairman, Mrs. Mabel Mason, Co-chairman, Miss Evelyn Brooks and Jas. B. Morris. Following the meeting the crowd enjoyed barbecue and dance.

W. H. Harrison presided. The meeting was under the direction of the young republicans of which Calvin Pruitt is chairman.

Polk GOP Tea Oct. 3

The Negro Republican Women's club, the East Side Women's Republican club the Booker T. Washington Club and the Young Negro Republicans are sponsoring a tea Friday, October 4, from 2 to 4 o'clock, at the headquarters of the Polk County Republican Central Committee, located at Eighth and Locust streets. A political film will be shown. All candidates will be given an opportunity to speak.

The meeting is open to the public. William H. Elmore is Polk County chairman; Mrs. Mabel M. Mason, Polk County co-chairman.

SPEAK ON NAACP AT MARSHALLTOWN

Mesdames Georgine C. Morris and Gladys Carr gave a report of the NAACP convention at Philadelphia for the Marshalltown branch, Sunday, September 22. They were accompanied by Atty. James B. Morris.

Variety of Features to Appear When Curtain Is Raised at 8:15 O'clock

Time in on the Bystander Talent Show broadcast over station KSO, Sunday afternoon, Sept. 29, at 8:15 o'clock.

The stage of the Jewish Community Center, Eighth and Locust street, the auditorium, the ushers, the members of the Bystander staff, the musicians, and above all, the amateurs and the guest artists, are all in readiness for the curtain to rise at 8:15 o'clock next Monday evening presenting the Bystanders fifth annual talent show.

The entertainment of the evening will be under the able direction of Toussaint "Speck" Howard who has kept the shows "moving fast" since the first Talent Show began.

New Crop
There will be a new crop of amateurs plus a generous portion of the former ones who will bring to the public a 1940 version of what they like best to do.

Some will get off in a big way with their interpretations of songs of the old; others, of course, will choose the current hits.

Those who have talent for dancing will bring everything from ballet to barn dancing with the jitterbug, toe and tap thrown in for good measure.

Since talents vary and cover a multitude of ambitions, something new this year will be a ten-minute skit, to show what those with desires to be "great" actors and actresses can dish out in the rough.

Other Talents

This little playlet—timed to the minute—and known as "The Eyes of the Old," will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Gertrude North, whose players have been rehearsing since late summer to put over their production.

Another feature to display the ability of lads has been promised by the Crocker YMCA at which time a young Joe Louis in his satin attire will knock out or be knocked out in one of the typical breath-taking, brief bouts of the world champion.

Judges will be on hand to select the winner in each of the groups and present prizes to them. Among them will be Mrs. Maybell Wagner Shank, Mr. John S. Coleman, and Miss Ruth M. Rickards.

Jerry Hayes and his Swingsters will play for the show. Miss Roberta Maupin will be special accompanist. Get your ticket early for the show. Admission price is 25 cents for adults; 10 cents for children. Phone 3-2822 for further information.

Chamber of Commerce to Hold Business Week Dinner

In observing its second annual Negro Business Week celebration the Des Moines Negro Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a dinner meeting Saturday night, Sept. 28, at the Blue Triangle Branch Y. W. C. A., at 8 o'clock.

Special guests for this occasion will be the Omaha Negro Chamber of Commerce, headed by Editor S. Gilbert of the Omaha Star, who will bring a delegation as he did at the first celebration held last September.

Features of the program of the evening will be an address by Dr. E. T. Scales; a short talk by Madam

Pauline Brown Humphrey, owner of the Crescent School of Beauty Culture.

Special music for the dinner will be played by William Eaves and Miss QuanaJanice McElroy, two advanced students of Miss Sarah Steele.

Reservations for the dinner may be made by calling the Blue Triangle Branch Y. W. C. A., at 1407 Center, 3-4012.

Following the dinner meeting the body will go to Billiken Ballroom where a floor show, "Vine Street Varieties," of Kansas City, Mo., will be the highlight of the entertainment. Dancing will follow.

Well-Baby Clinic in 16th Year Observance Oct. 3

The sixteenth anniversary of the Well-Baby Clinic of the Negro Community Center, 907 Fifteenth street, will be observed on Thursday afternoon, October 3, at the center, with a special program arranged by Dr. C. R. Bradford, clinic director.

The Well-Baby Clinics, both at this and the East Side Community Center, were founded by the late Dr. J. Alvin Jefferson who died last year shortly after the celebration of the fifteenth anniversary of this center.

Since the death of the founder and during his illness, both clinics have been under the direction of Dr. Bradford, who each week examines hundreds of infants and children and holds consultation with their mothers in carrying out the idea of the Well-Baby Clinics.

Refreshments will be served by a committee of the Community Center which is under the direction of Mrs. Lillian Edmunds whose sincere interest in the community and constant contacts with the parents have been largely responsible for the continued growth of this clinic since the organization of this health program at the center sixteen years ago.

DENY THAT JOE LOUIS TO VOTE FOR THIRD TERM

Washington, D. C.—Julian Black, co-manager of Joe Louis, heavy weight champion of the world, from Chicago Monday of this week, authorized Republican National Headquarters to deny the statement contained in a release sent out by the colored division of the Democratic National Committee, New York City, to the effect that the champion will cast his first vote this year for the Democratic third term candidate.

NOBODY WILL SUFFER

Speaking before a Negro audience recently, Wendell Wilkie stated that he did not believe the WPA should be made a reservoir to catch any unequal shares of surplus Negro labor; in other words, that the Negro should not be forced to seek WPA or relief out of proportion to his population.

It is generally known that in every community the Negro is on relief far out of proportion to his population due to the fact that he is the first hired and the last hired. This has increased in larger proportions during this administration and will continue until more jobs are created in industry.

Speaking before a large audience in Seattle Monday, Mr. Wilkie reiterated his stand that relief nor the WPA would be discontinued when he is elected but that the natural increase in employment that would come as a result of more confidence would level them off so as to reduce the number dependent upon the government for support.

The Bystander knows this is the correct position that must be taken. It is the only one which will get America on a safe road in years to come. But, unfortunately, it is not easy to convince those people who receive their livelihood from government subsidizers. Many realize the danger involved in living the lives of government dependents, many realize that such a policy inevitably will lead to chaos and confusion.

To those people, Mr. Wilkie can but say that America grew great with such a system, it can grow greater if the reins of state are entrusted to a man who knows how these things can be done and has courage to tackle the problems.

OUR TALENT SHOW

Monday evening, the Bystander is conducting its fifth annual Talent Show. A project of the advertising department designed to give amateur performers a chance to demonstrate their ability on the stage, the show has become a popular affair in Des Moines.

Too often people with ability never have an opportunity to let the public know about it and as a result a star career is lost to society. This show tends to fill that gap and has enabled many youngsters to go on to bigger things in the past.

From the beginning fine cooperation has been given not only by the performers but also by those who see the show, the Iowa Broadcasting system and the advertisements of the merchants who help sponsor it. The success of the venture could not possibly be achieved without the help of all these forces and the Bystander appreciates them all.

These shows will be continued by the Bystander with the aid of these groups who join so wholeheartedly in their promotion.

WHO AM I?

(By H. M. Wilcox)

A GREAT SOPRANO

I was born in Mount Vernon, Iowa. Graduated from the Atlantic high school.

During and prior to my high school course, I was a member of the Congregation church of that city, of which Dr. E. S. Hill was pastor for many years.

I was with this choir for more than five years and finally sang as first soprano.

I was given much encouragement and inspiration by Dr. Hill, the church members and the fine people of Atlantic.

One of my most glorious mementos was when I sang soprano to Whitney Mackridge's tenor.

Later, I came to Des Moines and entered Highland Park Conservatory of Music. I appeared in many recitals of that beautiful institution, and a number of the old Tabernacle and Forester's opera house, given by some of the best talent.

I recall one of the most inviting churches of Des Moines, "The Plymouth Congregational", when it was located where the Chamberlain Hotel now stands.

After graduating from the Highland Park institution I went to Indianapolis, Indiana, where I continued my study of music with some of the best instructors of the country. And here, in the old "Hoosier" state I established a very fine reputation in the musical circles.

In 1907 I joined the Southland Sextette Concert Company at Buffalo, N. Y., one of the best concert companies of that day, as soprano soloist.

My father who was for more than fifty years a resident of Iowa and later of Des Moines was James M. Ruff.

WHO AM I?

Answer: Mrs. Mary Ruff-Johnson.

CONGRESS TO ADJOURN OCT. 1; STILL NO ANTI-LYNCH BILL.

Washington, (ANP)—With the major business of this session disposed of, the Senate stands ready to adjourn, if it can, on October 1. A record for peacetime appropriations with a figure set at $15,000,000 marks this as one of the most "liberal" congresses in history.

Yet legislation against lynching, to outlaw the great American national crime, was not considered important enough to reach the floor of the United States senate, although there had been some sort of understanding or promise made whereby the anti-lynch bill would get consideration during this session.

Passed by the house after the most harrowing debates and harassing of witnesses at public hearings, the bill had the approval of the majority of the house members, excepting those from the Solid South, who say in it an effort on the part of the northern members to use the bill as a vote getting football, and so expressed themselves on the floor.

But it was in the senate that the most difficulty was experienced, where some 30 members of that body were up for reelection and couldn't afford to have their opinions spread on the Congressional Record for public inspection. Their opposition to the bill was open and hostility to the measure expressed itself in re-iterations and denials of statements.

WENDELL WILKIE

Wendell Wilkie, Republican nominee for presidency, will be heard over the coast to coast Blue Network of the National Broadcasting Company, Thursday, Oct. 3, 8 p. m. central standard time.

Health Hints

By Dr. C. R. Bradford

FOOD PREJUDICES

Dislike for food may appear early in childhood or may have been encouraged over a period of time as a result of physical or psychological cause. The most common basis for the child's refusing certain foods is allergy, usually inherited from both sides of the family. Any attempts to force the food, even in small amounts, invariably induce some disturbance to the allergic state of the child—nausea, vomiting, abdominal pain, diarrhea, urticaria, etc.

There are many physical basis for disturbed or diminished appetites. The child may begin to refuse when enlarged adenoids obstruct his nasal breathing. The anaemic child lacks the normal stimulus for food. The child, who is constipated is deprived of normal intestinal function with consequent loss of appetite. The child who suffers from fatigue lacks the desire for taking the necessary amount of food. There is no advantage in forcing food under these conditions.

Dislike for certain foods must be respected, therefore if the child's appetite and well-being is not to be impaired.

The psychologic basis is the most common cause of the development of pronounced and unjustifiable dislike for certain foods. It may be due to serving an unpalatable food on a previous occasion and the child becomes conditioned to its refusal when served again. An emotional upset occurring during a meal may be the reason for refusing similar dishes when served again, finally, imitation of adult likes and dislikes may be the cause of his refusal of specific foods.

Members of the family should appreciate the indirect influence they exert upon children at mealtime, and must, if necessary, re-educate themselves to enjoy wholesome dishes of the needed foods. If they are offered with the attitude that they are to be consumed without question, this fact will permeate the child without discussion. If, however, he learns he can create a tense situation, and gain an undue share of attention by making an issue about a food the situation centering about himself tends to recur with each meal. The meal becomes the scene of coaxing, threatening, promising and bribing of the child and parent. Under the circumstances it is preferable to omit a meal or two and reduce the child to semi-starvation rather than submit to such emotional outbursts.

The more effective is the calm parental example where the child learns it is to his advantage to eat food offered him without ceremony or parental concern. Once he is made to sense that his desires are being catered to, his purpose in eating is to please his palate rather than to fulfill body needs.

BOMBERS TIE COMETS

The Chicago Brown Bombers came to town again and this time went away claiming a moral victory. They battled the Des Moines Comets to a scoreless tie in a game that had not much color. The Comets depended upon the good right foot of Bernie Jefferson, former Northwestern Ace, and he gave a right classy exhibition of hog hide booting, keeping the locals away from the goal line all day. The Bombers never had much in the way of offers and their only scoring threat came in the last quarter when Ox Anderson got in the way of a Comet pass. He grabbed the ball and lit out. After running about ninety yards, the Ox was just too tired to make it and was tackled as he fell over the goal line. However, the officials ruled that Anderson had stepped out of bounds on the five yard line, but we didn't think he got near the sideline. On the next play Silliot of the Bombers fumbled while crossing the last line and the Comets recovered. That was the last chance for the Bombers and they content to hold the scoreless with a stout defense mingled with a few fists tossed in a carefree manner by both teams. In two weeks the Chicago Panthers will be here and we will have a chance to see Bob Vandevere and Ozzie Simmons in the same backfield.

HIGH SCHOOLS

Joe Howard went the route and turned in a nice game at end in spite of North's going under to Ames. Young Howard did some pretty good blocking and took fair care of his end on defense. He never got a chance to do much pass catching as the tosser couldn't find him. Bob White got into the scuffle for a couple of plays. Bob can't handle himself well enough to beat out the white boys for a starting position a half. He needs a lot of work on handling his feet on end runs.

REPUBLICANS IN CONGRESS AID DEFENSE

McNary and Martin Blocked Adjournment Effort Before Program Was Complete.

PREVENTED LONG DELAY

Two Leaders Paved Way for Needed Action Providing Arms.

New Deal efforts again to force an adjournment of Congress recall to mind that last June President Roosevelt brought pressure to send the national legislative body home. He declared he could see no good reason why Congress should not adjourn "except for the no doubt laudable purpose of making speeches."

This move was fought and blocked by House Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin, Jr., and Senate Leader Charles L. McNary, now the Republican nominee for Vice-President. With other Republicans in Congress they believed it was the duty of Congress to be on the job in such critical times.

To the far-sighted statesmanship of these two Republican leaders now can go much of the credit for the legislation setting in motion the long delayed national defense machinery. Had Congress adjourned in June when Mr. Roosevelt wanted to get rid of the legislators, there would have been a further delay of months in getting national defense preparations going and the country would be in a far more difficult situation.

For since that time Congress has enacted most of the legislation authorizing and appropriating money for the war ships, tanks, guns, and airplanes which Mr. Roosevelt now boasts are "on order." In addition Congress enacted the Conscription Act and the bill authorizing the President to mobilize the National Guard. It also passed the Alien Registration law and a bill taxing excess profits and liberalizing certain laws necessary for the expansion of industry.

Martin and McNary remain opposed to the adjournment of Congress because they believe the legislators, under our system of representative, republican government, should stay on the job when there is business to be done. They do not believe in "one man government" here any more than they approve of it in Europe.

For instance, the two Republican leaders contend that Congress should complete passage by the National Labor Relations Act, already adopted by the House. This, they assert, would be a real contribution to economic recovery at home. The New Dealers, however, want to end the Congressional session in order to carry on their political campaigns. Their attitude is that recovery and national defense can wait until next year—and that is what they have been saying for seven years.

'NO WAR' IS WILLKIE PLEDGE TO NATION

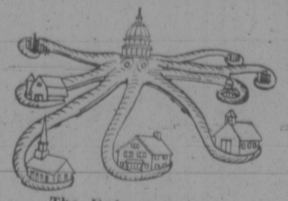

Addressing an audience of his fellow townsmen at Rushville, Indiana, Wendell Willkie made the following unequivocal declaration:

"I shall never lead the United States into any European war. I believe completely that the United States should help Great Britain short of war, but when I say short of war, I mean SHORT OF WAR."

Commenting on the charge of Henry A. Wallace that the Republican Party is "the party of appeasement," Mr. Willkie said: "If appeasement means working out compromises with dictators; if Mr. Wallace intended to apply that to the Republican Party, he was 100 percent wrong, because if I am elected President of the United States there will be no appeasement with any dictator. "But if Wallace meant to say the Republican Party is the party of peace, then he spoke the truth, because I shall never lead the United States into any European war."

"The time has now come to reassert the principles of a limited federal government, because if this trend is not stopped the people will lose the powers that the Constitution gave them. They will lose them to an all-powerful central government."

POOR METHODIST GIVES TENTH OF INCOME TO CATHOLIC MISSIONS

For the past 15 years the national office of the Society for the Propagation of Faith has been the regular recipient of an offering which constitutes one-tenth of the weekly income of a Methodist Negro in Arkansas. That income must be small since the regular remittances vary from $1.50 to $2.50 but they never fail to come and have totalled well over $700. They have made possible the foundation of a scholarship for the complete education of one seminarian to the priesthood and created the nucleus for another similar foundation. "I want the Lord to be known and loved by everyone" is the simple reason expressed for this generosity. Republished from "Il Crociato" (the Crusader) Catholic newspaper.

DRIBBLES

Is it Teke M. engagement ring that Margaret Wms. is wearing now? (Shhh!—supposed to be a secret—but I ain't dancing). Kenny H. strolled calmly up the hill with one chic went into the drug store—talked 20 minutes to another one (a regular night call to O. Bibbs)—and to top it all strolled away with still another one in the person of M. Steele. Lu Burrih is going to be lonesome now that her running mate, Sue, has returned to school. Could a certain teacher be the reason why Brice D. is going to West Virginia instead of returning to Tennessee? Albertha Bolderidge, from Bode, Iowa, is back in D. M. to stay awhile. The cool gent at Drake (B. Ransom) looked over the ladies and finally decided on Joyce D. N. as the lady of his choice—he's a killer. Maxine B. was sitting so close to Gerald B. you could hardly distinguish her from the steering wheel. Alice S. has a birthday September 29. "Happy birthday pal!" Charles H. igned three young ladies when he came out of a certain house—just as they were passing by—he dashed down the steps—looked the other way (beautiful scenery). "Hello!" they chirped. "Ugh!" he grunted. Evidently they took it as a form of greeting.

Wonder how Orville E. felt when entering a filling station and ordering two quarts of oil and found he had lost six dollars. Vailly, he searched; upon returning home he discovered the lost erbs upon the table. Good things come to those who wait.

The Drip.

P. S.—(This note was left at the office by a young singer. Buddy Jones of New York, who has been breezing about the city this week). He visited the Bystander office—and then wrote his impressions.

Since most of the male end of the staff were busy, here's about the chicks. I was very much impressed with Miss Ross, "chief boss and floor mopper." Very hospitable indeed! I say, comrades, there is a little chick answering to the name of "Flo." I think she would give Gracie Allen some competition. A very modest and cute little "t-h-u-g" made me wis I had known her all my life—"Clara." Last, but far from least, one petite, and smiling lassie, Mrs. Robinson's little girl Nadine—when she isn't busy asking questions, she's busy thinking of something to ask. But after all, this is a "Woman's World." Pardon m e, please. Miss Drip.

H. M. L.—Dear Friend, I have been hurt by what you have done, but daughter who has finished high he will look elsewhere when he wants school. Do you think that it would be best to send her to college this fall? It seems like she is much in love with a boy here.

Ans. Pack her off to college right away. The training would be excellent and put the finishing touches to her. Money spent on educational purposes is mighty important and you can't go wrong giving her the best education you can afford.

G. C. D.—Should we try to redeem the old homestead or would it be best to buy land elsewhere?

Ans. I suggest that you buy land elsewhere and do not waste money and time on trying to get the old homestead back again. The chances and it would mean endless worry that you couldn't if you tried . . . and expense on your part. Forget it altogether and buy in a more desirable location.

W. R. W.—I have been in a hard stream of luck and I feel that I need your help. My husband is old and fate seems to be against us. Tell me what I should do?

Ans. The only thing that you can do is to look for a regular job and go to work. Your husband is getting entirely too old to work . . . and you can't sit down and wait for relief help. If you were to get a job your problem would be solved.

L. K.—I am living with an aunt and I want to know if she wants me to get out? Do you think I should make a trip to California to visit my other aunt?

Ans. No, I don't. You should take a little different attitude around the house and try to be a comfort to your aunt. She is a bit disgusted with the way you act . . . but she doesn't want you to leave. Make up your mind to help her more and try to be more courteous, for after all you are dependent upon her for your living.

M. S.—Last summer I went off and was misled by a man. Now everything is over and I am back home. Now the boy I used to love don't pay me any attention at all. He used to say he loved me. Will he ever change his mind and forgive me?

Ans. He never will. Don't you think that you are asking a heck of a lot to expect him to take you with open arms and support your child? He has dominating some of our major cities. I am proud that these machines will do their best to defeat me. "America, in order to be strong, must be clean. America, in order to be strong, must have the full functioning of the democratic process, free from the control of corrupt political machines."

Less Than Half

In 1930 the sale of American farm products to foreign countries amounted to $1,496,000,000. With New Deal reciprocal trade treaties with sixteen countries in force in 1933, our sale of American farm products had dropped to $633,000,000—less than half of the 1930 figure.

Farm Imports Increase

In 1937 this country imported 68,277,000 pounds more meat than we exported, while in 1932 we exported 146,192,000 more than we imported. In 1932 our markets for American farm products were protected.

Government Guaranteed

Six government corporations have outstanding bonds amounting to $5,416,800,000, all of which is guaranteed by the government, but is not considered by the New Deal as a part of the government debt.

Typical of New Deal

An insurance inquiry in Massachusetts revealed that relief was being given to some families having incomes up to $4,500.

McNary's Views On Farm Problem

American Market and Parity Price for Farm Products Will Be Party Goal.

A promise to the farmer that he will be assured of the American market for his products was made in an address delivered at Aurora, Illinois, by Senator Charles L. McNary, Republican candidate for Vice-President, and co-author of the McNary-Haugen bill. With Miss Marion E. Martin, women's division director, Republican National Committee as their leader, Republican women workers were lined up for an intensive October "doorstep drive" to carry the plea for Republican Party candidates to every household in the country. "Get every vote in the ballot box" is the rallying slogan, adopted by over one million workers in the "Women for Willkie" campaign. In that Detroit meeting was the nucleus of the great army of workers, none of whose names evinced more interest and acclaim than a group of five distinguished wives—Mrs. Wendell Willkie, Mrs. Charles L. McNary, Mrs. Robert A. Taft, Mrs. Arthur H. Vandenberg and Mrs. Frank Gannett.

At the assessed valuation, it would take all the property of Illinois, Indiana and two-thirds of Wisconsin—farms, buildings, mines, crops, railroads, utilities, automobiles, stocks, everything that has value—to have paid the cost of the New Deal government for 1939. Little Left Out of each dollar earned in America, 54c is spent for food, shelter and clothing. Taxes, either hidden, direct or both, take another 27c. The remaining you may spend for church contributions, recreation, or what you will. In 1910 taxes took only 5c of each dollar.

His direct statement giving his view on the relative merits of the New Deal administration and the Republican policy was as follows: "The New Deal, satisfied with its farm program, sees the aggregate improvement it has been able to make in the farmers' lot a maximum aim. I see it as a minimum. I accept that program only as a stopgap substitute for something better, until something better can be provided. And I assert, in full confidence, that the next administration will be able to provide something better."

In further explanation of the difference between the New Deal accomplishments and the aggressive Republican policy on the farm problem Senator McNary declared, "An administration worth its salt will strive for parity prices—not parity payments. It will seek to make our surpluses a blessing and not a curse."

Regarding the results of the New Deal farm program, the candidate said, "Surrounded by mountainous surpluses, or reserves, the farmer has been frozen into a dependence on the government. The New Deal, as everyone knows, did not invent the farm problem, its offense lies in the fact that, finding agriculture ill of a functional disorder, it made the disorder chronic.

He continued, "Secretary Wallace has renamed the agricultural surpluses. You will, of course, recall that the great glut of wheat, corn and cotton that still plague the New Deal began as plain surpluses. Then, in 1938, Mr. Wallace changed the name, but not the substance, to the 'ever-normal granary'—a condition which if not checked, seems on the way to providing ever-normal poverty for the farmer."

WOMEN ENLIST IN VOTE DRIVE FOR WILLKIE

Twenty years ago American women were preparing for their first vote in a presidential election.

Miss Martin

In Detroit, two thousand women voters from 40 states, representative of 3,000 clubs under the banner of the National Federation of Women's Republican Clubs, gave testimony to their 1940 political preparedness, and their enthusiasm for the 1940 magnet Republican standard-bearer, Wendell Willkie.

With Miss Marion E. International News Photo. MRS. WENDELL WILLKIE Mrs. Willkie's blue eyes are friendly, her manner warm and sincere. Her reserve has a practical basis—she is safeguarding her husband's interests. So she speaks carefully, choosing her words thoughtfully. She has never made a speech in her life and hopes she won't have to.

Her world revolves around her husband, her son, Philip, now 20 years old, and her home, a cheerful New York City apartment where the family has lived for eleven years. Bookcases fill every available space in the apartment. Her husband's pet name for her is "Billy."

Some call Wendell Willkie "Win"—a happy omen for another home address for Mrs. Wendell Willkie, at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C.

What would Your telephone say? If you were to make a check you probably would find that you are making many more calls a year now than you were 10 years ago. On the average, our customers are making 165 more calls a year now than they did in 1930. And the more calls you make at the same monthly rate, the less you pay for each call. You can reach many more persons by telephone now than ever before and service is faster, clearer, more accurate and more nearly trouble-free. NORTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY
