W. G. PEARSON, EDUCATOR, RETIRES AT 81

Durham, N. C., (ANP)—Citizens of both races here last week joined in expressing words of congratulation to William G. Pearson, school principal, philanthropist and business leader who has resigned after a half a century of service to the people of his race and the public school system of the City of Durham.

He is credited with having taught and directing the education of more pupils than any other man in the city's history. Beginning his career as instructor in a three-teacher school which taught through the sixth grade, Dr. Pearson finished as principal of Hillside High school, one of the largest of its kind in the State and to which are assigned a large number of Durham's 140 Negro teachers.

He was one of the six men who headed the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance company, he was a former cashier of the Mechanics and Farmers Bank, and organized the Fraternal Bank and Trust company, of which he was the president, and which later merged with Mechanics and Farmers.

Night School for Adults Begins on October 7th

The evening school for adults will open its fall term Monday, October 7, for those who are young in heart. The classes will be held in the four senior high schools and include a variety of subjects ranging from Adventures in Listening, a course designed to preview the best musical features to appear on the radio this fall, through Arc Welding, Book-keeping, Swimming, to Shorthand and Typing. There is a total of over sixty different courses offered. For a two dollar enrollment fee you may take as many courses as you can fit in. Complete schedules will be sent upon request. Phone 4-2105 and ask for the Adult Education Office.

Pierre Van Passen, author of "Days of Our Years" and famous foreign correspondent, will lecture here on Wednesday, October 9, as the first speaker on the fall program of the Des Moines Public Forums. His subject will be "Democracy's Last Stand" and the meeting will be held at Roosevelt High School at 8:00 o'clock.

NAACP Offers to Take Legal Action Against War-Navy Department Heads

New York—Court action against the Secretaries of War and Navy to compel the acceptance of all who volunteer for service in either of these branches of the country's defense forces, regardless of race or color, is promised by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, according to an announcement made here today.

The announcement followed passage of the following resolution by a unanimous vote of the Association's board of directors at its monthly meeting held here at 69 Fifth Avenue, September 9:

"That the N. A. A. C. P. Legal Defense Committee give aid to any American citizen desiring to enlist in the Army or Navy, who is refused the privilege of enlisting on account of race or color, to the extent that it will institute appropriate, affirmative legal action against the Secretary of War or the Secretary of Navy as the case may be, to compel the Army or Navy to accept such volunteer into the armed or naval forces."

The resolution was passed following a report on an exchange of correspondence between the War and Navy Departments in which the Association asked that there be no discrimination against Negroes in the new defense program, and that colored citizens be integrated into the armed forces without segregation because of race or color.

Secretary of War Stimson made the following statement to the N. A. C. P. in a letter about the matter:

"The success of the National Defense Program can best be established by united support of the War Department plans, which have been worked out after years of study by those who have devoted their lives to these questions. Unity can be destroyed by attempting to establish a program which is contrary to the War Department's plans, by those who are not familiar either with the principles involved or the requirements of such plans.

"In the augmentation of the Army now under way, additional colored units have been authorized. These include one Field Artillery Regiment, two Coast Artillery Anti-aircraft Battalions, one Engineer Regiment for general service, twelve Quartermaster Truck Companies and one Chemical decontamination company."

C. W. Nimitz, Navy Department Bureau chief made the following statement setting forth the Navy's policy of regulating Negroes to the service of messmen only: "After many years of experience, the policy of not enlisting men of the colored race for any branch of the naval service except the mess man branch, was adopted to meet the best interests of general ship efficiency."

Announce Titles for Oratorical Contest In Patriotic Jubilee to Be October 19th

Subjects for the oratorical contest, one of the features of the all-state Negro Patriotic Jubilee which will be held on October 19, at the Coliseum here, are announced this week by Mrs. Helen Dameron Beshears, who is in charge of the contest.

They are: "Can the Initiative of Negro Youth Be Developed in the Present Day Democracy?" "Negro Youth and Conscription," and, "What the Negro Youth Expects As a Voter." Persons interested in competing in the oratorical contest are urged to send a copy of their orations to the oratorical chairman, not later than October 12. The oration must not be more than 500 words. Participants are to write Mrs. Beshears, in care of the Iowa Bystander, Des Moines, Iowa.

According to J. G. Browne, publicity chairman of the jubilee, all of the committees are working toward a mammoth crowd of from 7,000 to 8,000 persons. Everything will be free to the public and there will be attendance tickets with valuable coupons.

"Although it being held in the midst of a great campaign, the Patriotic Jubilee is absolutely non-political and is being given for the benefit of all of the Negro citizens of Iowa," Mr. Brown commented.

The program will begin with the preliminaries at 7:30 p. m. and the regular program at 7:45 p. m. At 10:30 p. m. dancing will be free to all of the public.

AUXILIARY MEMBERS ATTEND COUNCIL MEETING

Monday September 30, the president, Mrs. F. Stone and members of the American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 126, attended a council meeting at the juvenile home. Mrs. W. H. Cay, president of the council, presided.

Luncheon was served and immediately following a program and business meeting was opened. The National Anthem was led by the president and invocation was given by the president and charter member, Mrs. D. McGuire. Introduction of all juvenile home officers was made by Mrs. Turner. A musical number, "I An American," was offered by Mrs. Stone.

The speaker for the afternoon was Mr. Paul Cunningham and subject was "Selling America." The city-wide council officers were elected as follows: Mrs. E. Fessl, city-wide poppy chairman; Mrs. Gillespie, legislation; Mrs. Oval Carter, Americanism; Mrs. V. St. John, education.

October 1 was the regular business meeting for the unit. At this meeting the delegates were elected to attend the sixth district fall conference in Ames, Iowa, which will convene October 14. They are: Mrs. Oval Carter, past president; Mrs. A. Manuel, Mrs. A. Hamilton, Mrs. Stone, president.

October 15 is social night. All members and friends are invited to be attendance. One ton of coal will be given away. Mrs. Bessye Grae is publicity and poppy chairman.

With the loss of his right arm which was amputated following a shooting episode Monday night, September 30, 18-year old Edward Patten, 821 Fourteenth street, was in a fairly good condition Thursday at Broadlawn General hospital.

Patten was shot in the right shoulder and arm about 7 o'clock Monday evening by Harold Crutcher, 46-year-old roomer at 815 Fourteenth street.

A charge of assault with intent to kill was filed against Crutcher who was released on $10,000 bond. A preliminary hearing will be held at 2 P. M. Oct. 8.

The shooting followed an alleged attack by Crutcher on Hazel Mayberry, 17-year-old daughter of Mrs. Earla Williams, at whose home Crutcher rooms.

Witnesses said Crutcher has complained considerably recently about his contribution to the household expenses and when he found Hazel working on a little neighbor girl's hair, in preparation of the latter's amateur play, Crutcher, through or under them, or any other person, be forever barred, stopped and enjoined from having, claiming or asserting any right, title or interest adverse to plaintiff's title in and to said real estate, or any part thereof, either by reason of said building restrictions or for any other reasons; that all clouds against plaintiff's said estate, including the cloud of said building restrictions, be removed; that said building restrictions be expressly cancelled, annulled and held for naught; that plaintiff's title in and to said property be quieted in plaintiff; and that plaintiff be given such other and further relief as may be equitable in the premises.

For further particulars see the petition when filed.

And unless you appear thereto and defend on or before noon of the second day of the next term, being the November, 1940 Term of said court, which will commence at the Court House in Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa, on the 4th day of November, 1940, default will be entered against you and judgment and decree rendered thereon.

Dated at Des Moines, Iowa, this 12th day of September, A. D. 1940.

R. D. B. CLUB MET

The R. D. B. club met Tuesday, Sept. 25. The new deal had none of its fundamental principles. His farm program is a half dozen shreds and patches; settling, drain cherries, merely putting off the reckoning. If I did not believe in the New Deal's 'success' I should be enormously better off. Add lemon rind. Cover and let as a farmer and a friend for twenty-four hours at room farmer—be standing before yperature. Drain. Boil syrup for day. If I thought that the Government of the United States to offer the farmer was regis subsistence and a permanent of disparity, then I should be for my country."

Less Than Half

In 1930 the sale of American farm products to foreign countries amounted to $1,496,000,000. With New Deal reciprocal trade treaties with sixteen countries in force in 1939, our sale of American farm products had dropped to $623,000,000—less than half of the 1930 figure.

Farm Imports Increase

In 1937 this country imported 68,277,000 pounds more meat than we exported, while in 1932 we exported 146,192,000 more than we imported. In 1932 our markets for American farm products were protected.

Government Guaranteed

Six government corporations have outstanding bonds amounting to $5,416,800,000, all of which is guaranteed by the government, but is not considered by the New Deal as a part of the government debt.

Typical of New Deal

An insurance inquiry in Massachusetts revealed that relief was being given to some families having incomes up to $4,000.

Reason for Surplus

From July 1, 1937, through June 30, 1939, the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation spent $30,479,000 in disposing of surpluses of 20 American farm commodities which were subject to tariff concessions under New Deal reciprocal trade agreements. During the same period we imported from foreign countries these same commodities to the value of $92,298,000.

Loss in Pork Products

America sold to foreign countries 84,175,000 pounds of hams, shoulders, bacon and sides in 1932. For 1939 our foreign sale of these products of American farms was only 63,559,000 pounds, despite New Deal trade agreements.

A. D. S.—I would appreciate an answer right away. I wish to know if I will get my old jolly back?

Ans. Not a chance . . . when you were let off it was a permanent change. Don't waste any more of your time waiting to get back on this job, but get out and hunt work elsewhere. Register at the agencies and you will get work sooner.

E. J. M.—This boy I am going with says he wants to get married as soon as I finish school and I want to know if I should or not?

Ans. Well . . . there is no need of worrying your brain about it now . . . for you have eight more months of school. I do think that you should take into consideration that you MIGHT NOT MARRY HIM and not allow him too much of your time for he is inclined to talk of marriage in order to get his way. Don't be fooled by him.

H. E.—I have been in business for 3 years and no one ever made the flop that I have. Is there anything that I could do to make other than eat?

Ans. Get out of the TAILORING BUSINESS before you starve to death. Try to sell your equipment. It is my suggestion that you take a course in barbering if you want to run your own little business . . . you certainly would make more at this than you have made tailoring.

Crowds Greet Amateurs at Bystander's Talent Show

The 1940 edition of the Bystander's Talent Show jammed hundreds of patrons and spectators to the Jewish Community Center, Monday night, September 30, to applaud the amateurs in their song and dance and dramatic acts.

With Toussaint Speck Howard at the mike and Jerry Hayes and his musicians offering the rhythms, the show started off at a fast pace with jive songs contesting for honors.

First place went to Bob White and Dorothy Avant; second to Leonard Lomas and Jean Brewer; and third, to Lawrence Davis and Juanita Stewart.

Children's Group

Then came the children's group, "before they go to sleep," the M. C. commented.

Helen and Henrietta, introducing the McDonald family, sang a duet and did some fast steps that won for them the second and third prizes in their group.

First prize in this group was won by little Rowena Mayfield who had her audience swinging with her tune "What's the Matter With Me?" She was one of the 1939 Talent Show winners.

Representing Mrs. Gertrude North who is charge of WPA dramatics at the Blue Triangle branch Y. W. C. A., little Phyllis Lighon sang "Playmates."

Attractive costumes and nice team work were displayed by Irene White, Kitty Allen and Doris Mayberry in a dance chorus.

With the stride of a comedian Betty McDonald bounced off a comedy number that brought down the house with laughter.

The Martin sisters returned this year with a quartet spiritual number, "In My Saviour's Care." Bernice and Skelly Kelly gave their interpretation of "Angels Drooped their Wings."

Everett Mays, one of the promising baritone, sang "God Bless America."

Mrs. Mildred Page, one of the favorite contraltos in the city, won second prize in the classical and spiritual group with her rendition of "My Lindy Lou."

First prize in this group was won by Miss Dana Herndon, pupil of Miss Sarah Steele, who sang "Homing." Lorraine Jones, who won third prize in this group, sang "City Called Heaven."

Popular Group

In the popular number and blues group prizes were won by Miss Blanch Manuel who won the favor of the audience with her interpretation of "Sierra Sue," and took the first prize. Mary Martin who won second prize with "I'll Never Smile Again."

Third prize in this group was awarded to Miss Mildred Griffin whose number, a sacred one, was classified in the wrong group.

Other singers in this group were Kathryn Walker who offered "When You Wish Upon A Star," Eugene Wilson who offered "Body and Soul," and Miss Ruby Rowe who sang "What Else Can I Do?"

Piano solos were played by Miss Quananjane McElroy, pupil of Miss Steele, whose selection was "Rustle of Spring," and Miss Betty Jean McDonald who played an arrangement of a popular number.

Costumes were attractive and colorful in the dance group. Katherine Cranshaw tripped the light and fantastic in a ballet dance. Louise Murray and Bernice Kelly tapped to their tune of "Practice Makes Perfect."

The Barber Sisters won second prize in this group, displayed some team work that brought hearty applause from the audience.

As the show reached the final number and Frank Massey appeared in his white satin top hat and blue and white dance outfit, the audience cheered him as he went through many difficult tapping routines.

The Talent Show this year presented as on of the special features, a ten-minute playlet, "Eyes of the God," which was under the direction of Mrs. North.

The cast got an appreciative hand from the audience for the dramatic ability shown by the players, who put over their rural story.

In the cast were: Lorraine Jones who played the part of the blind grandmother, who missed very little of what was happening in her household. Her daughter, Lillian, was played by Idella Reeves. The granddaughter, Carrie, who was late every day returning home from school and who eloped with a boy friend, was taken by Jane Hollingsworth, Tempey, the neighbor girl, who kept the grandmother informed of the news in the neighborhood, was Mary Moore. Jeffrey, the neighbor boy, who spread the news of the elopement, was played by Clinton Marshall.

Serving as judges this year were: Mr. John Coleman, Miss Ruth Richards and Mr. Jerry Hayes.

Cotton to Corn
Through regulation, Secretary Wallace has reduced the corn acreage of the North by 5,139,000 acres. But the farmers of cotton producing states of the South have been encouraged to raise corn instead of cotton, and increased their corn acreage by 5,814,000 acres.

Did Not Work
That New Deal reciprocal trade agreements did not attract buyers is shown by the purchase, by countries with which these agreements were made, of meat products to the value of 17,644,000 pounds in 1935, before the agreements were made, and only 15,175,000 pounds in 1939, when all agreements were in effect.

Wallace Wrong Again!

Democratic Vice-Presidential Candidate Henry Wallace in his Acceptance speech asserted that during the seven years that President Roosevelt has been in office farm incomes "have been more than doubled." Like so many New Deal statements, that one simply is not true.

Figures supplied by the United States Agricultural Department show that cash income from farm marketings in 1933, the year in which Mr. Roosevelt became President, totaled $5,278,000,000 and that in 1939, the last full year for which we have a report, they were $7,625,000,000. This is an increase, to be sure, but it is NOT MORE THAN DOUBLE.

Of course, it is never fair to compare one year against another unless account is taken of all circumstances. A fair basis of comparison is that of the full seven years of the New Deal and the seven previous years. What does that show in the case of farm income?

Cash farm income for the seven Republican years preceding the New Deal—including the worst years of the depression—averaged $9,046,000,000 a year. The average annual total for the New Deal seven-year period was $7,247,000,000. Annual average income per farm for the 1926-32 period was $1,432 compared with $1,062 for the 1933-39 period. Average annual income per farm person for the Republican period was $298 compared with $228 for the New Deal years. The figures for the New Deal years include benefit payments from the Federal Government.

It is no wonder Henry Wallace devoted most of his speech to the foreign situation!

McNARY OFFERS SOUND PROGRESSIVE IDEAS

Senator Charles L. McNary, the Republican nominee for Vice President, demonstrated in his Acceptance Speech that he remains a symbol of the pioneering West, believing in progressive but sound ideas of government.

The Oregonian gave the New Deal credit for trying—but, as he pointed out so forcefully, he has failed to achieve its objectives because of a lack of capacity to govern and because of its "political and economic heresies which have deflected us from our course."

Speaking of the farm problem, Senator McNary asserted that "the prosperity of agriculture should be the first charge on the attention of any administration." Those who have followed his career as a battler for the farmer during the last 23 years in the Senate know that Charles McNary speaks with sincerity on that subject.

"The New Deal has administered the farm problem for more than seven years," Senator McNary asserted. "What is the present state of the American farmer, who, with his dependents, makes up a quarter of our population? In the year 1939 his share of the national income was the lowest since statistics have been kept."

Senator McNary strongly advocates preserving the American market for the American farmer, believing it is "far and away the greatest market" and the "only one we can hope to control."

Indirect Taxes
The Northwestern National Life Insurance Company finds that families with a monthly income of $80 pay an average of $116.04 a year in indirect or so-called hidden taxes. This is about 12 per cent of the average income. Who said only the big fellows pay taxes?

REPUBLICANS IN CONGRESS AID DEFENSE

McNary and Martin Blocked Adjournment Effort Before Program Was Complete.

PREVENTED LONG DELAY

Two Leaders Paved Way for Needed Action Providing Arms.

New Deal efforts again to force an adjournment of Congress recall to mind that last June President Roosevelt brought pressure to send the national legislative body home. He declared he could see no good reason why Congress should not adjourn "except for the no doubt laudable purpose of making speeches."

This move was fought and blocked by House Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin, Jr., and Senate Leader Charles L. McNary, now the Republican nominee for Vice-President. With other Republicans in Congress they believed it was the duty of Congress to be on the job in such critical times.

To the far-sighted statesmanship of these two Republican leaders now can go much of the credit for the legislation setting in motion the long delayed national defense machinery. Had Congress adjourned in June when Mr. Roosevelt wanted to get rid of the legislators, there would have been a further delay of months in getting national defense preparations going and the country would be in a far more difficult situation.

For since that time Congress has enacted most of the legislation authorizing and appropriating money for the war ships, tanks, guns, and airplanes which Mr. Roosevelt now boasts are "on order." In addition Congress enacted the Conscription Act and the bill authorizing the President to mobilize the National Guard. It also passed the Alien Registration law and a bill taxing excess profits and liberalizing certain laws necessary for the expansion of industry.

Martin and McNary remain opposed to the adjournment of Congress because they believe the legislators, under our system of representative, republican government, should stay on the job when there is business to be done. They do not believe in "one man government" here any more than they approve of it in Europe.

For instance, the two Republican leaders contend that Congress should complete passage by the Senate of legislation amending the National Labor Relations Act, already adopted by the House. This, they assert, would be a real contribution to economic recovery at home. The New Dealers, however, want to end the Congressional session in order to carry on their political campaigns. Their attitude is that recovery and national defense can wait until next year—and that is what they have been saying for seven years.

'NO WAR' IS WILLKIE PLEDGE TO NATION

Addressing an audience of his fellow townsmen at Rushville, Indiana, Wendell Willkie made the following unequivocal declaration: "I shall never lead the United States into any European war."

"I believe completely that the United States should help Great Britain short of war, but when I say short of war, I mean SHORT OF WAR."

Commenting on the charge of Henry A. Wallace that the Republican Party is "the party of appeasement," Mr. Willkie said: "If appeasement means working out compromises with dictators; if Mr. Wallace intended to apply that to the Republican Party, he was 100 percent wrong, because if I am elected President of the United States there will be no appeasement with any dictator."

"But if Wallace meant to say the Republican Party is the party of peace, then he spoke the truth, because I shall never lead the United States into any European war."

WENDELL WILLKIE SAYS:

"The time has now come to reassert the principles of a limited federal government, because if this

A Sympathetic Visitor

Six-year-old Marion Lester won't soon forget the visit of Wendell Willkie, Republican candidate for President, to the Shrine hospital, Portland, Ore. Having come up "the hard way" to his present, eminent position of leadership, Mr. Willkie registers his deep sympathy for the less fortunate.

WENDELL WILLKIE SAYS:

"Government employment has increased nearly 100 per cent. Government expenditures have increased nearly 200 per cent, now amounting to over nine billion dollars. Government borrowing has increased over 150 per cent. Here is a real political boom. Here is activity in which the enterpriser has become both rich and powerful. But all this has been accomplished at the expense of the people, who have paid for it not only in taxes but in the losses which their enterprises have suffered as a result of this government activity."

Hidden Taxes

More than 22 per cent of the total national income is taken by Federal, State and local tax collectors. Even though a taxpayer does not pay taxes directly, taxes nevertheless are passed on to him hidden in higher prices for the things he has to buy. A person with an income of $80 a month pays indirect taxes of $9.67 a month, or 12 per cent of his income. One with an income of $150 a month pays $19.10 monthly in hidden taxes, or 12.7 per cent of his income. This is in addition to taxes paid directly.

Reduced Farm Tariffs

Reciprocal trade agreements made by the New Deal reduced the tariff on 152 agricultural products, despite candidate Roosevelt's statement in 1932: "I know of no excessively high tariff duties on farm products that should be lowered."

The Farm Share

On a per capita basis, the farm population of America must carry about one-fourth, approximately $1,000,000,000, of the national debt. It would take the value of all farm crops for two years to pay the farmers' share.

A Record

Franklin Roosevelt is the only president to serve eight years without balancing the budget in any one year. We have been at peace throughout the eight years.

Your Share $452.00

Total New Deal expenditures from 1933 to 1940, according to the President's report to Congress, were $58,773,000,000. That is $452.00 for each man, woman and child in the nation.

Council Bluffs, Ia.—A chicken dinner and fish fry was given by Usherettes of Tabernacle Baptist church at the home of Mrs. Nathan Turner, 1529 Avenue A, Saturday, Sept. 28. The Deaconess Board of Tabernacle Baptist church sponsored a 25c rally at the church Sunday, Sept. 29. Rev. W. L. Anderson of Missouri preached a sermon and a crowd heard him.

Motor to Des Moines

Mr. D. M. Mixon, superintendent of Tabernacle Baptist Sunday school was absent from the Sunday school, Sept. 29. Mrs. Ollie Duncan, his assistant was on hand to carry on in his stead. Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Mixon and Mrs. Charles Banks motored to Des Moines Sept. 28.

The American Legion of Post No. 655 had their grand opening Saturday, Sept. 28, at 1408 West Broadway. A large crowd was in attendance and free lunch was served. The Bible Class of Tabernacle Baptist church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Mixon, 13322 Avenue A., Oct 1, with the president Mr. D. M. Mixon.

The "Melody Hour" at the Community Center, Sept. 30, was given by Mrs. Geraldine Haynes, Junior director, with Mr. James Merton as master of ceremonies. The immense audience sang "America," the "Star Spangled Banner," as a pep stimulant to the program. Mrs. Juanita White was pianist. The program a piano solo; Mr. Donald Spires, whistling "South of the Border;" and featured Mr. Verle Reeves playing "Cherokee;" Mr. Luther White singing the "Cradle Song."

Members of the Laf-A-Lot club sang "Wham." The boys sextet rendered "Old Black Joe." As the program progresses someone disclosed the fact that the room contained "sisters" enough to make a quartet, which sang "There's A Long, Long Trail." The result of not participating in the group singing was a fine which was to sing a solo. One person was caught, Mr. Stovall, one of the directors. Mr. James Herndon is to be commended on his ability of seeking the right person for a particular talent. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Gossip of C. B.

W. Oliphant's kisses will not be so sweet to Rueben of Omaha if she keeps up her present rate. J. Herndon keeps one eye on G. Dorsett and the other on the door when he visits her. J. H. watches the door for the "cat" C. M. It seems as if though M. Akers is not going to jar a loose of E. W.'s valuables. J. Skillman and M. Harris are having a swell time wooing. As E. W. was going out the back of Akers' house C. R. was coming in the front but J. M. beat C. R. by coming in the side door. What girl has the crush to kill on L. Deamons?

Mason City, Iowa—Sunday was the beautiful scene of the dedication of the new and magnificent St. John's Baptist Church. Three services were held during the day and were well attended. The church was filled to its capacity at each service.

The church was decorated with numerous varieties of flowers; and had signs of gladness in the hearts of all.

The guest speakers for the day were the Rev. Brent of the Des Moines Maple St. Baptist Church with its choir of nine voices, and the Rev. Keith Scofield of Little Cedar, Iowa. Rev. Scofield preached in the afternoon and brought an inspirational sermon. He said "So as God meant for Jeremiah to do a definite thing when he said, 'Go down and watch the potter at work,' he also wants St. John's Baptist church to do a definite thing. Rev. Brent's said as he inspired all.

The choir for the day were splendid and furnished fine music. The songs and singing were sermons in themselves.

The devices which were dedicated were in order; the church keys presented by Deacon Martin, cleaning utensils by Deacon Burrough, song booklets by Choir President B. F. Parker, church records by Mrs. Ruby Maer, dishes by Mrs. Burrough and last but certainly not least the Bible prayer was presented by Rev. J. M. Eaves, the pastor. The dedicatory prayer was offered by Rev. J. Lee. Also Mrs. Reed Allen presented the church with a beautiful communion set, from the Zion Builders Club.

Other ministers who participated in the program were the Reverends J.

C. McGinty, Paul Scott, J. A. Ashford, and J. Lee Lewis.

Out of town visitors were from Des Moines, Ventura, Manly, Algona, Little Cedar, Marshalltown, Garner, Iowa, St. Paul, Minnesota and Chicago, Illinois.

The ushers were, V. P. Stephen, head usher, and assistant ushers, the Misses Lola Cheatdon and Leatrice Jefferies.

A free dinner was also served to the visitors.

Friday night the Union Memorial church presented the Passion Play. It was sponsored by the trustees and stewards of the church. Rev. Reynolds of Omaha, Nebraska, was the dinner guest. Rev. and Mrs. J. C. McGinty Thursday.

Mrs. Maude M. Brewton has returned after a few days visit to Des Moines. Miss Jesse E. Walker of Dubuque was the week end guest of Mrs. M. M. Brewton. The installation of officers of the new church Women's organization and setup was held at the Union Memorial church Wednesday night with a social hour following. Mr. Buddy Lewis and friends of St. Paul were visitors of Mr. Buddy Johnson Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Miss Vivian Martin left to complete her senior year in the University of Iowa, Monday. Mrs. Simmons spent three days visiting her daughter, in Sioux Falls, S. Dakota. Mr. Theodore Penny who was visiting his mother, Mrs. Estelle Penny, and sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Watson Stratton, has been a probation officer in Philadelphia, Penn., for more than 20 years. He was kept busy speaking for various occasions. He spoke Wednesday night for the installation, Thursday night for the young Women's Missonary and Sunday, also. He was entertained Sunday with a party given at Mr. and Mrs. T. Barnett's farm home, and at a luncheon Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Cabell.

Edward Bales, son of W. S. Bales, is attending Drake University in Des Moines, residing with Mrs. Newsome. He is a promising young baritone.

A Practical Way to PROTECT DEMOCRACY

... Preserve Good Government When You Have It!

Democracy can only function through government that is efficient, through government officials who work to fulfill promises. Thus, a vote for an administration which has kept its promises, redeemed its pledges, is a vote to help protect democracy.

The record reveals that, on this broad basis, the Wilson Administration deserves your vote.

Here are a few highlights that show how the Wilson Administration has held to the line—has fulfilled its 1938 pledges of good government for the people of Iowa:

Lifted $3,000,000 load from property taxes; reduced the state levy for 1940 by 50%. The balance of cash in the State Treasury increased from $11,458,954.05 on June 30, 1939, to $15,757,809.67 on June 30, 1940, or an increase of $4,298,855.62.

Eliminated 1,000 state government employees. With the cooperation of the legislature, state departments have been reorganized to eliminate duplication, resulting in higher efficiency at a greatly reduced cost.

The Wilson Administration inaugurated a state dispatcher system which has eliminated 77 unneeded automobiles and reduced operating costs on all cars to less than 3 cents per mile.

3,000 farmers—many of whom were tenants—have become owners of former corporation-controlled farms through the policy of the Wilson Administration.

$1,100,000 will be saved for the tax payers of Iowa through a budget plan for the State Highway Department, an innovation accomplished with the assistance of the state legislature, the highway commission and the executive department.

A farm-to-market road system, long needed by Iowa farmers, is on its way to reality through 379 contracts let in 90 counties and totaling $3,280,000—a worthy project to be accomplished without added taxation.

Old Age Assistance, help for the blind, child welfare, are at a high point in Iowa, both through the creation of a three-member board and the consistent interest of the Wilson Administration.

An additional sum of $3,000,000 a year has been made available for old-age assistance; expenses of administration were lowered; aid has been extended to a total of 55,716 claimants for pensions.

In these and many other directions, the Wilson Administration has redeemed its pledges, has re-established the spirit of simple honesty in your state government. The record is a testimonial too, to the spirit of cooperation between the legislature, the state officers and employees—cooperation without which this record could not have been achieved.

When you cast your ballot on November 5, remember that it is still prudent to "prove all things, hold fast to that which is good."

Your vote to continue the Wilson Administration in office, will be a vote to preserve good government—a contribution to the protection of democracy.

WENDELL WILLKIE NOTICE OF ACTION

Republican Candidate for President, Like Thomas Jefferson, Has Wide Interests.

In the two and one-half months since his unprecedented and spectacular nomination for the Presidency, by the Republican National Convention, Wendell Willkie has demonstrated to the country his dynamic personality and driving energy as well as his quick and clear mind.

Few men have ever been nominated for the Presidency who have as wide and universal an interest in many fields of endeavor as Wendell Willkie. In that respect he has been compared to Thomas Jefferson who was as well versed in architecture as he was in the law—knew as much about farming as he did about political philosophy.

Born 48 years ago in the small town of Elwood, Indiana, Wendell Willkie was educated for the law. But before he received his degree in that profession, he taught history in the high school at Coffeyville, Kansas; drove a bakery wagon; worked as a baker for a tent hotel in Aberdeen, South Dakota, as a field hand in harvesting wheat in Oklahoma and as a laborer in California. He has labored in steel mills and sugar fields.

Once embarked on the practice of law, Wendell Willkie defended labor unions with his father; enlisted in the army the day this country declared war on Germany in 1917; became a lawyer for a rubber company, and finally went to New York, first as counsel for Commonwealth and Southern Corporation and then, when the sick company needed re-organization, as its president. Even criticism, as its president. Even criticism, as its president. Even criticism, as its president.

Nurtured in a home filled with books, Wendell Willkie throughout his life has been a constant reader of books—all kinds of books. He reads rapidly and, with a photographic-like mind, retains what he has read. He demonstrated his rich background of information on the "Information Please" programs on the air and in motion pictures. He is a qualified authority on English

Constitutional history and writes much better than many professional writers. Had he not been a great lawyer, he would have been an outstanding newspaperman.

Though Willkie has sat among the great and learned, he has never lost his touch with his Indiana origin. Though he likes books, he likes people more. He is as much at home in conversation with a truck driver or farm laborer as he is with an industrial tycoon or college President. Typical of the man is the fact that his faith in American agriculture is so great that he placed the savings from his salary in Indiana farm land. Operating these farms on a 50-50 basis with tenants, Willkie now knows as much about farming as he does about law.

Indeed, like the Roman of old, Willkie might say "nothing human is foreign to me." But that thought would never occur to Willkie because he believes that when a man commences to compare himself to a Cicero or Napoleon, people had better look out for him.

Bankruptcy Threatens U. S.

Willkie Hits Hard at Deficit, Spending and Third Term.

Wendell Willkie is hitting hard at the third term and the national debt as he wages his campaign as the Republican nominee for the presidency. To his mind, both the national debt and the third term are linked together. Both contain threats against the "American Way of Life", threats of a possible dictatorship.

In the speeches Mr. Willkie has made since the campaign opened, he has been asserting that every democracy which has fallen in the course of history has been destroyed because of overwhelming debt. "For eight long years we have been going down that road. Now the man who has brought that threat to us is asking for a third term."

"We have existed in this country for 160 years under the great tradition that two terms are enough for any president. Yet now, when of all times democracy and the democratic way of life are facing their greatest test, when of all times we should preserve all of the processes of the democratic system, we have a man who says, 'I am indispensable.'"

"This campaign is a crusade for the preservation of the American way of life. This is a crusade to establish an example of liberty for all the world. It is a crusade against the concentration of power in Washington. It is a crusade against the egotism of the doctrine of the indispensable man."

Mr. Willkie's indorsement of the present farm program, with modifications to remove objectionable features of administration, eliminates the question of benefit payments as a campaign issue. But on the debt and the third term, Mr. Willkie has fundamental issues to take to the farmer, home owner and business man. The national debt, rapidly approaching 50 billion dollars, he describes as a mortgage on every farm, home and business in America. He predicts that if President Roosevelt is re-elected, the debt will grow to 75 billion dollars within the next four years.

"The great immediate benefit which can be brought to agriculture," says Mr. Willkie, "is restoration of business-like methods in government and the return of the present ten million unemployed to the payrolls so they again can become purchasers of the farmer's products. I believe both things could be brought about. All that is needed is the touchstone of someone who knows about production, who knows that the most glorious thing in the country is not words, but work."

Did Not Produce
That trade agreements have not produced foreign markets for American farmers is evidenced by a drop of $104,000,000 in agricultural products exported during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1939, as compared with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1934—the year prior to the enactment of the Reciprocal Trade agreement act.

OUR HEARTY APPROVAL

Several days ago, a restaurant owner in the thickly populated Negro area, was accused of violating the civil rights law by refusing to serve Negro patrons and giving gross discriminatory service to those he did not refuse.

Some of the victims of this vicious act appealed to the local branch of the NAACP for help and advice. The matter was referred to the legal redress committee. Charges were filed against the owner and the case was tried in Municipal Court before Judge Charles S. Cooter.

The judge took the case under advisement and last week announced that the defendant was guilty and imposed a fine of one hundred dollars, the maximum under the law. The defendant was given until October 15 to pay the money.

So far, so good. The Bystander hopes that Judge Cooter will not suspend the fine later on. Judge Cooter has set the right example. Several years ago a civil rights case was tried before one of our Municipal judges—not now on the bench—who made a beautiful speech about Americanism, but upon conviction fined the defendant a nominal amount and suspended the sentence.

More of these cases should be prosecuted. More will be prosecuted if witnesses who are wronged will stand up and fight for their rights. And the NAACP stands ready to go all the way in cases coming within the scope of its work.

The civil rights law is a fair one. It should be enforced. We cannot with good grace chide Hitler and the other totalitarian bosses about the mistreatment of minority groups when we are among the biggest offenders.

Health Hints

By Dr. C. R. Bradford. TECHNIC AND POSITION FOR FEEDING INFANTS. The manner in which the infant is fed affects his tolerance for food.

Position. The baby should be held upright over the mother's shoulder and patted on the back for about five minutes to aid the passage of swallowed air before the feeding is commenced.

And it seems to the Bystander that the president is not playing fair when these matters are being called to his attention daily and still refuses to do anything about them.

WHO AM I? (By H. N. Wilcox). I. U. FIRST NEGRO GRADUATE. Born in Charlottesville, Va., in 1881, but my parents moved to Muchacknock, Iowa, the original mining camp from which Buxton sprung.

In 1899 I graduated from Oskaloosa high school. And about the same time I met Professor S. Joe Brown, now an attorney in Des Moines, who had come to Muchacknock to teach school.

For some reason, Prof. Brown's attention was attracted and a strong friendship sprang up between us. Through his influence I decided to enter the state university. As an inducement, a party of colored folks in Muchacknock raised a purse of $50.00 to present me.

When I arrived in Iowa City, I had only one dollar left after paying my tuition fee. I secured a position as waiter at the Berkeley Imperial hotel the following day, and continued this work while in school.

During summer vacation I worked in the mines in Buxton and earned money enough to continue my schooling. I studied hard and made high grades winning the admiration and good-will of both my fellow students and my teachers.

In June 1903 I received my Ph. D. and in 1907 my M. D. from the University of Iowa being the first member of my race to become assistant to the physician and surgeon of the North-

Omaha Delegation Attends Business Week Dinner

Business men of Omaha, headed by Editor S. Gilbert, president of the Omaha Negro Chamber of Commerce, were guests here Saturday night, September 28, at the second annual observation of Negro Business Week sponsored by the Des Moines Negro Chamber of Commerce.

A dinner meeting at the Blue Triangle Branch Y. W. C. A. was the featured occasion on Saturday night at which time A. P. Trotter, president of the local group, presided and introduced the features of the program.

Guest speaker was Dr. E. Thomas Scales who outlined "roads" of Negro businesses. "In this changing world, Negro business faces a definite turn," the speaker observed.

To travel this latter road the speaker pointed out that Negro businesses must "take on and court competition." Then he discussed many ways of competition, stressing co-operation in the organization of new businesses, competition individually by preparing oneself and learning your business to the fullest extent.

Equipment. "Stop saying this is for 'Negroes only! Open the door of your business to all those desiring what you have to offer."

In a synopsis on Negro business Mrs. Helen D. Beshars told of the organization of the Crescent School of Beauty Culture here nearly two years ago by Mrs. Pauline Brown Humphrey, who was unable to attend the meeting.

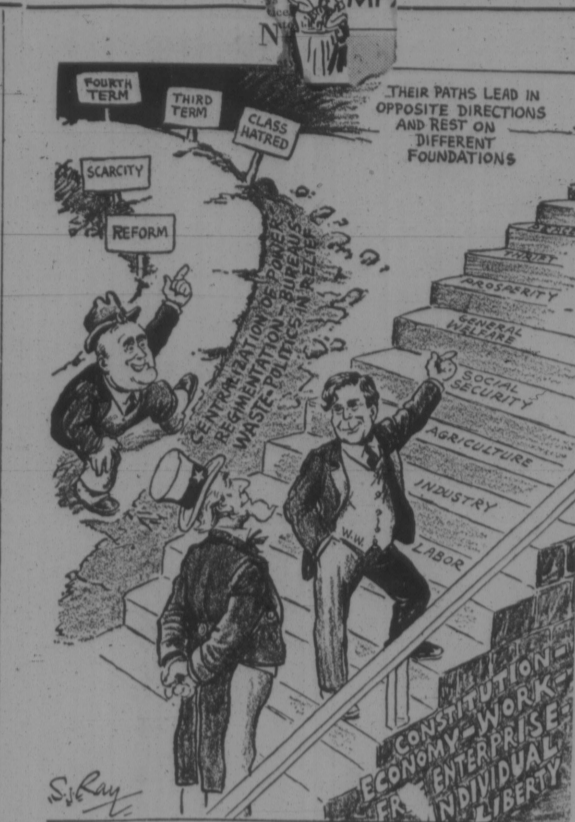

J. W. Mitchell, owner of the Mitchell building, related what he called a "fairy story," which revealed the early struggles of the owner in his business venture.

Business testimonials were made by Matthew Johnson pool-hall owner, who stressed "owning and operating your own business," J. M. Estes, funeral director, who emphasized "honesty pays"; Dr. W. J. Ritchey, dentist, who believes that being "well prepared and understanding your community" will lead to success.

Speaking for the Omaha Chamber of Commerce Mr. Gilbert pointed out some of the accomplishments of the Nebraska organization, making observations of Negroes going into varied businesses.

In the Omaha delegation, introduced by the social chairman, William Davis, who presented Mrs. S. E. Gilbert, Mrs. Jeanne Banks of Council Bluffs, Messrs. Joe Louis, Joseph Hancock, Louis Hines, Charles Davis, Y. W. Logan, Fosh Allen, Paul Holiday Wilton Shoranx.

Other guests were: F. O. Morrow, Atty. J. B. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. R. Roberts, Rev. T. W. Tutt, Lawrence Chapman, Roy Ferguson, Sidney Graham, Mrs. Joan Bullock, Mrs. Gertrude North, Misses Clara Webb and Marie Ross; Mr. Lorenzo Vinson of Ottumwa.

BY ALLEN ASHBY HIGH SCHOOLS

Here in our high schools, everyone turned in a win. Joe Howard went the distance again, as North swamped Jefferson. Lucas Hill and Ralph Johnson all turned in nice games at Red Oak as East rolled over the boys. Omar James played a fine game to help Valley as they got back into the win column.

Several boys made the honor roll this week: Laurence Hill of Oskaloosa and Dabney of Fairfield. Too early yet to start beating the drums for all-state and all-city honors, but we will get things going pretty quick.

While this was going on, Boston College left two fine Negro players home and swamped Tulane at New Orleans. Our comment on that would have to be written on asbestos paper. Here at Drake, Willard Cushingberry saw service against Montana State. Willard is really as good as any tackle out there but just can't quite make the grade.

Perry Harris also got in and turned in some sparkling runs. It is our guess that if Perry ever scores for the Blue and White he will do it a long distance. He might do that if he ever decides to develop a sharp cut back. College Football. The boys went to town in a big way last week. In the Big Ten Anderson of Ohio State grabbed a few passes and took one to score. Eastern papers gave the boy full credit for his fine game.

Out on the Pacific Coast, Jack Robinson started out to make his bid for all-American honors by grabbing a punt and sailing eighty-nine yards for a score, against Southern Methodist. The Methodists finally beat the Uclans 9-6. Ray Bartlett and Wyon did their best to check the boys from the Lone Star State.

As Michigan rolled over California, Gordon, the son of the assistant coach was branded a shining light by the coast papers.

Negro Colleges. Langston, hailed as the nation's number one team, started off the year game to help Valley as they got back into the win column.

Those football players who read the story of Tom Harmon of Michigan last week will get some idea of what we meant by working at a game. Good as he was Harmon worked all summer and is getting his pay off this fall. Too bad some of our local high school boys can't take this idea.

SHE LOST 20 POUNDS OF FAT. Feel full of pep and possess the slender form you crave—you can't if you listen to gossipers. To take off excess fat go light on fatty meats, butter, cream and sugary sweets—eat more fruit and vegetables and take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning to eliminate excess waste.

Mrs. Elma Verille of Havre de Grace, Md., writes: "I took off 20 lbs.—my clothes fit me fine now." No drastic cathartics—no constipation—but blissful daily bowel action when you take your little daily dose of KRUSCHEN.

STOP FOOLING YOURSELF ABOUT LOVE!

Beautiful hair does make a difference! If your hair is dull, off-color, streaked with gray - use Godefroy's Larieuse

You needn't play a losing hand in "the game of love" just because your hair is faded, discolored, streaked with gray. It makes you look "old," unromantic... but if hair like that (and nothing more) has turned his attention to a younger-looking woman, you need the help of Larieuse! If used as directed, Godefroy's Larieuse will bring
