Public Health Building.

Chicago, (ANP)—A court battle over the remainder of the $75,000 sweepstakes fortune left by Royal E. Spurlark Sr., aged Pullman porter who died early this year, looms between a former wife and a widow who gathered in the probate court of Judge Charles McEwen, Thursday.

Mrs. Cecelia Spurlark, who was ignored completely in the will, wants to break the document contending that Mrs. Albertine Spurlark, his widow, whom he married a few months before his death, is not his lawful wife. She says she first married the deceased in 1903 and following a divorce they remarried in 1912 and were never divorced.

MAKES STIRRING SPEECH

Washington—The Chicago Tribune calls attention to the sensation created by a slim Colored College girl at the closing session of the National Federation of Women's Republican Clubs just held in Detroit, Michigan. The girl, Miss Bertha Swindall, is President of the Young Republican Club of the 2nd Ward, Chicago.

Her brief speech at the final session, The Tribune reports, brought members cheering to their feet.

The young student of Sociology, who was graduated last year from the University of Illinois, pictured 250,000 boys and girls wandering homeless about the country, thousands of children walking to school with cardboard soles in their shoes, and thousands of others kept at home for lack of clothing. "And this," she cried bitterly, "is the state of our young people of which the New Deal boasts."

Rev. Geo. W. Slater Dies in Chicago

By Robert Christmas Council Bluffs, Iowa—Funeral services for the Rev. George Slater, pastor of the Bethel A. M. E. church, were held here Sunday, October 6, with the Cutler Funeral home in charge of arrangements.

The Rev. Mr. Slater died in a Chicago hospital October 4, where he went about three weeks ago. He took ill and was operated on October 1. Mrs. Slater left for Chicago for the operation on October 2.

President of the Credit Union of Council Bluffs, Rev. Slater had been pastor of the Bethel church about ten years.

He was a member of the Masonic lodge and Eastern Star of Clinton, Iowa. He delivered the Emancipation celebration address August 3 at the state penitentiary in Ft. Madison Iowa.

Refuse to Register Carolina Negroes

Gaffney, S. C.—A number of colored of this city headed by Mrs. Lotie P. Gaffney were turned down flatly when they sought to register in order to vote for President of the United States next November 5.

The registration board told Mrs. Gaffney and those with her: Negroes ain't never voted in South Carolina especially Cherokee County. I will not register you.

Mrs. Gaffney then wrote the NAACP in New York which in turn sent the letter to Attorney General R. H. Jackson, asking that colored people be protected in their rights during the second registration period, September 2-4.

On September 2 Mrs. Gaffney and her party again returned to the registration office and were refused again. The group waited but was ordered out of the office by a janitor who said he had orders to close up. In the meantime the board members left, but returned later. "The white people went into register in relays. The janitor said that the board had given him orders not to allow a Negro to enter as they were not going to register us," Mrs. Gaffney related.

Negro Training Camp for 1,000 Men to Be Located In Illinois in February

In planning national defense projects in Iowa the federal government announced Monday the location of a training center for Negro troops at Savannah, Illinois, and further expansion of the army's huge ordnance depot there, just across the Mississippi river from Sabula, Iowa.

Plans are being made for a thousand Negro enlisted men to receive training at the Savannah army ordnance depot. These men will be in five ammunition companies.

The training center for Negro troops will be directed by a headquarters staff of six officers, headed by a lieutenant colonel.

It is expected that the camp will be in full operation early in February.

The boards consist of three members each. To each board is attached an examining physician and an attorney.

The physician and attorney, technically, are not members of the boards and have no vote on how a registrant is classified.

The examining physician merely gives the board his report on the registrant's physical condition. The attorney who is styled a government appeal agent may appeal the local board's decision on any individual classification to an appeal board.

The appeal may be taken either on behalf of the government or on behalf of the registrant.

All board members, including the physician and the attorney, serve without pay.

Two Named to Polk Draft Board

About 375,000 Iowans are expected to register for military service on the national registration day, next Wednesday.

Governor George Wilson nominated 596 men to serve on the 119 local draft boards which will classify the Iowans for the one-year military service under the national conscription act.

In these nominations which were mailed Saturday, October 5, to Washington, were two Negroes, A. A. Alexander, contractor, and Atty. S. Joe Brown, both of Des Moines, Polk County. Both men are native Iowans.

The local boards nominated are the ones which will take the cards from the registration boards and classify the men registered as to their availability for service.

119 Local Boards

The 119 local boards consist of one board for each of the state's 99 counties, plus additional boards in the more populous counties.

Snoopin

Seems as though the Royal Entertainers dance was quite the thing a couple of weeks ago—anyhow—for Carl Ross of Marshalltown, who was highly the rucutter. Who was the fine chis he had with him and him alone—if you get what I mean? Betty wasn't doin' so bad herself; fine fellow she was with—smoothie, sharp and stuff! Bobbie J. Bailey; who was the fellow you had the rendezvous with the nite of the dance? John Williams missed the chag by going to school in Iowa City the Friday before. But as usual there were a million Bucks to one fem— and what I mean you had to really fight to get a dance. Helen V. seemed to be the highlight of the party by the decision of five young men with whom she seemed infatuated. It was good to see the elder portion of the handsome Morrow family here even though we missed the smiling face of Eloise. Why is it that Marceline Davis, Maxine Weeks and Marg. Rudd have switched churches in the past few weeks? Seems as though Mel and Helen are back in harness again. Practically of the Cats and Gated gals are gone to school. Frank and John are both studying medicine at Iowa U. Norm returns to Iowa State. McGill is studying at Wilberforce. Charlee Harston is studying journalism at Iowa U. Good Luck to all.

Weekly thought: Give a woman enough rope and she will make a hat out of it.

Pledge Broken
The Democratic platform of 1932 declared: "We advocate an immediate and drastic reduction of government expenditures by abolishing useless commissions and offices, consolidating departments and bureaus, and eliminating extravagance, to accomplish a saving of not less than 25 per cent in the cost of Federal Government."
In the light of this pledge, let's look at the record.

Federal expenditures have increased under President Roosevelt from $3,794,000,000 in 1933 to $9,142,000,000 in 1939.

The total Federal expenditures increased by 141 per cent from 1933 to 1939. Largely through an expansion of boards, commissions, personnel, and functions, the ordinary expenditures were increased 56 per cent from 1933 to 1939. Total emergency and relief expenditures were increased by 374 per cent from 1933 to 1939.

During the period of the New Deal, more than 75 new government agencies have been created, employing many thousands.

Cotton to Corn

Through regulation, Secretary Wallace has reduced the corn acreage of the corn producing states of the North by 5,139,000 acres. But the farmers of cotton producing states of the South have been encouraged to raise corn instead of cotton, and increased their corn acreage by 5,814,000 acres.

Did Not Work

That New Deal reciprocal trade agreements did not attract buyers is shown by the purchase, by countries with which these agreements were made, of meat products to the value of 17,644,000 pounds in 1935, before the agreements were made, and only 15,175,000 pounds in 1939, when all agreements were

 have all said in turn

"NO Third TERM"

... a principle that must always LIVE
Protect it by voting
Straight Republican

When you mark your ballot on November 5th to uphold the tradition of "No Third Term," you safeguard American government. "No Third Term" is not a musty precedent, but a living principle recognized and upheld by great presidents of ALL parties.

George Washington set the precedent of a two-term limit. But Thomas Jefferson established it, gave it roots so deep that it could endure until today.

To quote Jefferson's own words in 1809, "If the principle of rotation be a sound one, as I conscientiously believe it to be with respect to this office, no pretext should ever be permitted to dispense with it, because there will never be a time when real difficulties will not exist, and furnish a plausible pretext for dispensation."

Thus for decade after decade, patriotic and far-sighted Americans have all said in turn "No Third Term." They saw clearly that to violate this tradition of a two-term limit would mean a monopoly of nomination, would always be injurious and detrimental to free government, would inevitably abolish freedom on the part of the citizen and happiness on the part of humanity generally.

Now, today, when dictatorships are rampant the world over; today, when America staggers under the powerful impact of subversive influences which desire to shatter the two-term tradition, we cannot let the bars down. Help America follow the right road, the only safe road, by voting a straight ballot for WILLKIE and WILSON on November 5th.

And, remember, too, a straight Republican vote is also a deserved vote of confidence to the Wilson Administration which has redeemed its pledges, re-established simple honesty in Iowa government.

The Baby—Should I keep looking for a job or open a place here at home? I don't know what to do?

Ans. Try the little business idea that you have in mind to operate there at home. It of course is going to be necessary for you to get work so that you can raise the money to go in business. . . but when you get enough ahead, make an attempt to put your idea over.

A. M. C.—I only want peace and my husband to leave me alone. I quit him about a month ago. I have a friend now and he has approached me about marriage and I want to know what to do?

Ans. The best thing for you to do now is to get a divorce. When it becomes final then you can talk about marriage and etc. Your husband naturally didn't want to give you up but if you two can't see things the same way then it is best that you did separate. Your new friends seems to mean well, but don't rush things to fast.

Worried mother;—Why has my son taken the attitude he has toward his wife and me? It certainly does worry me.

Ans. No doubt it does. I would suggest that you not notice his present attitude toward you. Encourage his wife to spend more time with him and you spend less time with two daughters. This is a problem that she alone must settle and if you want to help, don't express your views one way or the other. He will get over it soon.

B. I.—Will I be able to sell the land that my father left me recently, and what is the proper way to go about it?

Ans. The first thing you must do is to investigate the land thru a lawyer and find out if the taxes are paid and etc. Then if you like, place the land up for sale. Have it appraised so that you can put the right kind of price on it. You will get a sale for it this year.

P. H.—I had an operation about a year ago and my stomach still feels tender and I wish to know if it has healed yet and should I go back to the hospital?

Ans. Since you are worried about your condition go to the hospital and get assurance that there is nothing wrong. I believe that you need to take mild exercises and strengthen the muscles in your stomach. A year is ample time for an operation to heal if it was a normal condition.

LONGER FUR JACKETS NEW STYLE NOTE

The fur fashion picture for 1940-41 tells a story of little furs occupying a big place in the winter scene and revolutionizing it somewhat by a new jacket length. A new magic length, 32 inches, will set the pace for smartness and chic this season, and the new wrist-length coats have been styled not only for high fashion, but also for warmth. And the fact that they are more universally becoming than the shorter jackets or chubbies is another note in their favor. Still another feature worth mentioning is the fact that these new ype jackets are shown in a variety of less expensive furs which have been styled and treated to look very grand indeed.

Manton lamb is one of the furs in this class which is extremely well suited to the new role. One very striking ensemble topped by a jacket of Manton lined with plaid. This outfit is especially suitable for early autumn football games, and minus the hood, the jacket makes as splendid all-purpose coat.

As in the shorter and longer coats, natural shoulders, tuxedo fronts, small collars and interesting loose-fitting sleeves characterize these brief jackets. The flatter furs are the most popular although the chunky jacket has not lost favor altogether.

Text of S. Joe Brown's Radio Speech 'Why I Am for Willkie and Wilson'

The first of a series of radio addresses sponsored by the Negro division of the Republican State Central Committee, was delivered Thursday night, October 3 by Attorney S. Joe Brown, of Des Moines, who spoke from the subject "Why I Am for Willkie and Wilson." His text follows:

First permit me to say that it was with much pleasure that I accepted the very cordial invitation of Mr. A. A. Alexander, Chairman of the Negro Voters' Division of the Republican State Central Committee, to occupy a few minutes of the radio time allotted to this division in giving just a few of the many reasons why I shall and believe that all Negro voters and their friends should support the Republican ticket both state and national at the general election on Tuesday November 5, this year.

Having been born in Iowa, just ten years after the close of the Civil War, I have had the experience of contact with both the ex-slave Negro, of whom my father was one, who religiously believed that all Negroes should vote the straight Republican ticket at every election, because Abraham Lincoln, who emancipated the Negro slaves, was a Republican; and also with the so-called "New Negro" of today, many of whom since 1932 have voted for the so called "New Deal, just to prove to the world that Negroes can be just as liberal as any other group of American electors.

Now, while having been born so soon after emancipation, I have never been able to see my way clear to support any Democratic candidate for the offices of chief executive of our Nation; yet, on the other hand I have not quarrelled with the younger Negro men and women, many of whom are among my very dear friends, who have supported Franklin D. Roosevelt, because, he is what they style a "Liberal"; and in spite of the fact that while he was, at all times, had in the legislative branch of the government, a Congress that was willing to give him any thing that he might ask for from fifteen billions for National Defense, to one hundred million to be spent in anyway that he might see fit; yet he has not been liberal enough to speak one word in favor of the passage of a law to stop the national crime of lynching, of which the Negro is the chief victim; because no doubt he fears that by so doing he might offend and lose the support of the solid South, where most of these lynchings occur.

It is, therefore, indeed gratifying to me to be able to support and to commend to the support of my Negro friends as well as that of my fair-minded white friends who believe in a "square deal" for all, regardless of race or creed, the candidacy of Wendell L. Willkie; who, even before he was nominated; and who, repeatedly since his nomination, has enunciated principles as broad as did Abraham Lincoln with respect to universal brotherhood; as square as did Theodore Roosevelt, with respect to the equality of all men before the law; and, as liberal as does Franklin D. Roosevelt; for he declares, that while he intends to devote much time and effort to the re-opening of private employment for the American laborer, he also intends to retain a program of public relief and social security so long as it shall prove to be necessary, to do so.

And, in addition to all this, he has repeatedly declared that "mob violence shocks the conscience of the Nation," and that "legislation to curb this evil must be enacted." And, should further evidence of Mr. Willkie's liberalism be demanded, surely it is to be found in the fact that, altho born and reared in the Republican state of Indiana, he always voted the Democratic ticket, until the campaign of 1936; when, as he himself puts it in his speech of acceptance, he "changed his party affiliation, because, he found more Democracy in the Republican party than in the New Deal."

It is therefore my conclusion, that not only every Negro voter but also every white voter, who wishes to see the Negro along with other Americans receive a "square deal," should not only do it himself, but should see to it that the other eligible members of his family, his friends and his neighbors, cast their vote for Wendell L. Willkie, for president.

The State Ticket

Now just a word concerning the State ticket, headed by our present excellent Governor George A. Wilson; for, many of my immediate friends are aware of the fact, that while in recent campaigns, I have always voted Republican, I have not been very enthusiastic about our State ticket; because of the fact that I had a sincere conviction that with hundreds of Negro boys and girls receiving diplomas from the various high schools and dozens of Negro young men and women receiving degrees from the various colleges and universities in Iowa each year, more of them should be employed by the State itself, as a worthy example to private employers, who are slow in giving employment to Negroes, except in menial positions.

Now this same view has been shared by numerous other forward looking Negroes in Iowa; and has been communicated to Governor Wilson and the other members of our State Executive Council; and, an evidence of the fact that it has been cordially received and favorably considered by them, is that in addition to the filling with Negroes of the various janitorships, the shipping clerkship, the Governor's message and the four clerkships in the State House Post Office, held by Negroes under the present Democratic administration, the present Republican administration has opened up to Negroes four positions, namely: that of Assistant

Chemist in the office of the Secretary of Agriculture, Mark G. Thornburg, held by Wm. Bailey, Jr. of Ottumwa; that of Supply Sergt. to the Highway Patrol, held by a World War veteran, Capt. Harry E. Wilson, appointment of Secretary of State Earl G. Miller; that of messenger to the State Tax Commission, held by Fred D. Hawkins; and that of messenger to the State Library Commission, held by George W. Robinson, Jr., which should be sufficient to prove to even the most skeptical, that, as Mr. Willkie has said, there has been found more liberalism in the present Republican administration right here in Iowa than was to be found in the "New Deal."

Finally, I desire to add that all indications point to the conclusion, that this going to be a Republican year in Iowa as well as in the Nation at large; and that therefore no Negro voter should have any hesitancy in going to the polls on November 5th and voting the Republican ticket from Wendell L. Willkie, not only down to George A. Wilson, but straight on thru to township constable, if he happens to live in a township where constables are elected.

$8.64 MORE Clothes	$2.40 MORE Recreation
$6.84 MORE Fuel and Light	60c MORE Insurance
$5.28 MORE Transportation	$14.64 MORE FOR Miscellaneous Items

A Sympathetic Visitor

Six-year-old Marion Lester won't soon forget the visit of Wendell Willkie, Republican candidate for President, to the Shrine hospital, Portland, Ore. Having come up "the hard way" to his present eminent position of leadership, Mr. Willkie registers his deep sympathy for the less fortunate.

WENDELL WILLKIE Says:

Government employment has increased nearly 100 per cent. Government expenditures have increased nearly 200 per cent, now amounting to over nine billion dollars. Government borrowing has increased over 150 per cent. Here is one real political boom. Here is one activity in which the enterpriser has become both rich and powerful. But all this has been accomplished at the expense of the people, who have paid for it not only in taxes but in the losses which their enterprises have suffered as a result of this government activity."

Hidden Taxes
More than 22 per cent of the total national income is taken by Federal, State and local tax collectors. Even the person does not pay taxes directly. Taxes nevertheless are passed on to him hidden in higher prices for the things he has to buy. A person with an income of $80 a month pays indirect taxes of $9.67 a month, or 12 per cent of his income. One with an income of $150 a month pays $19.10 monthly in hidden taxes, or 12.7 per cent of his income. This is in addition to taxes paid directly.

Reduced Farm Tariffs
Reciprocal trade agreements made by the New Deal reduced the tariff on 152 agricultural products, despite candidate Roosevelt's statement in 1932: "I know of no excessively high tariff duties on farm products that should be levered."

The Farm Share
On a per capita basis, the farm population of America must carry about one-fourth, approximately $11,000,000,000, of the national debt. It would take the value of all farm crops for two years to pay the farmers' share.

The guests were honored with a card party Friday evening, October 4, at the Wilson home. On Saturday evening, a social and on Sunday evening a dinner party with the following guests present: Mrs. C. D. Allen, Mr. Buck Edwards, Mr. Donald Thomas, Mr. John Ewing, Mr. C. W. Robinson Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wilson, Mr. Eugene Wilson and Mr. Arthur Beverly. Mr. George Robinson sustained a twisted knee last week which has been quite painful. He expects to return to his employment within a few days. Mrs. George Wilson is also confined to the home; she is reported improved.

Republicans Meet

The recently organized Republican club met in the city hall last night against Germany that it fears that to release them would cause a break in diplomatic relations between the two countries.

This, of course, is no surprise to the Bystander. It is no surprise to anyone who has his ears open and is willing to listen to some of the arguments of some people who extol the justice of Germany's cause; of those who have never lost their allegiance to the old country; who argue that German's treatment of the Jew is as it should be.

Then, too, Hitler and his crowd are smart people, maintain a very close-knit and go about getting what they want in a methodical way. Here, we go on the theory that a man can do pretty much as he pleases and that intrigue and sharp underhand methods were not to be countenanced.

Already some mysterious blasts have occurred in factories which lead one to suspect sabotage; already men in high places are being suspected of fifth column activities. No, we are not surprised.

And still the NAACP came to the place where it threatened to take the secretaries of war and navy into court in order to secure enlistment into the service of the most loyal war in America. What a disgrace!

WHY WE ARE FOR WILKIE

The Bystander has been and always will be a republican paper as long as the present management is in control. It believes in party responsibility. It knows that no party can do as much as it claims—the Republican party is no exception to the rule. But the fact that the Republican party is committed to the theory of fair play to all men and its controlling leaders both executive and legislative are not of the Negro hating group, we feel that the Negro stands his best chances with the GOP.

As a matter of common sense, we know that all of the states in the north are committed to the proposition that Negroes have the same rights as white people. We also know that they don't get them always. But the fact that these laws are on the statute book prevents an unreasonable departure from justice and fair play.

The Bystander never falls out with anyone over his politics. It asks that the other fellow accord it the same courtesy. It wants every voter to look the whole situation through and

10th Hints

Snoopin

Seems as though the Royal Entertainers dance was quite the thing couple of weeks ago—anyhow—Carl Ross of Marshalltown, who is highly the rug-cutter. Who was the fine chick he had with him and alone—if you get what I mean? Be wasn't doin' so bad herself; fine low she was with—smoothie, she and stuff! Bobbie J. Bailey, who the fellow you had the rendezvous with the nite of the dance? Williams missed the chag by not school in Iowa City that before. But as millions reverse.

It has disillusioned people to think that the government can go on indefinitely with a program of wild spending without ever meeting the emergencies.

It has restricted the operation of its social legislation so that except for the old age pension, they don't apply to most Negro workers.

On the other hand, the program of the Republican party is sound. It has met its responsibilities in the past and it will do so again. It is as foolish to argue that the Republican party will put the people in soup lines as to argue that the Democrats will put the Negro in slavery where they had him seventy-five years ago.

The Republican party has made mistakes; it will make them again. But the best example of a change in sentiment is evidenced by the great increase in recognition that the state officers have given Negroes since their return to power in 1938.

The Bystander wants a new national administration. A change will not hurt the international situation one bit. We cannot get any nearer war than we are now without beginning to fire at the enemy and whoever is at the helm can do but one thing; fight if we are attacked. Economically we are unsound at home and Wilkie is the man to put us on the road to a sound recovery rather than an empty dream as we have it today.

A FAMOUS TRIAL

Born in Virginia; when very young was taken to St. Louis and sold to an army surgeon; 1834 I went with him to Rock Island, a military post in Ill. and later to Fort Snelling, Wisconsin, both on free soil.

While there I married, and in 1838 the surgeon brought me and my family back to Missouri. Six years later he died in Iowa, leaving his entire property and slave to his wife and daughter.

Having no sympathy for slavery nor slaves, the surgeon's wife soon moved East and left me to shift for myself. Acting upon advice of local attorneys, I brought suit against her for freedom.

My case was tried June 30,

1847 with the jury returning a verdict for the defendant. Immediately, my attorneys moved for a new trial, January 1850 the second trial resulted in a victory for me.

March 1852 the judgment of the lower court was reversed making me a slave again.

An appeal was then taken to the U. S. Supreme court with the eyes of the nation focussed on the case. Some of the prominent lawyers in the pro-slavery and Abolitionist ranks were retained to argue the appeal. Geo. T. Curtis of Boston and Montgomery Blair of Washington, for the appellants; Henry S. Geyer and Beverly Johnson of Maryland, for the appellee. The case was argued on February 11, 1856 and again on December 15-16 without a decision.

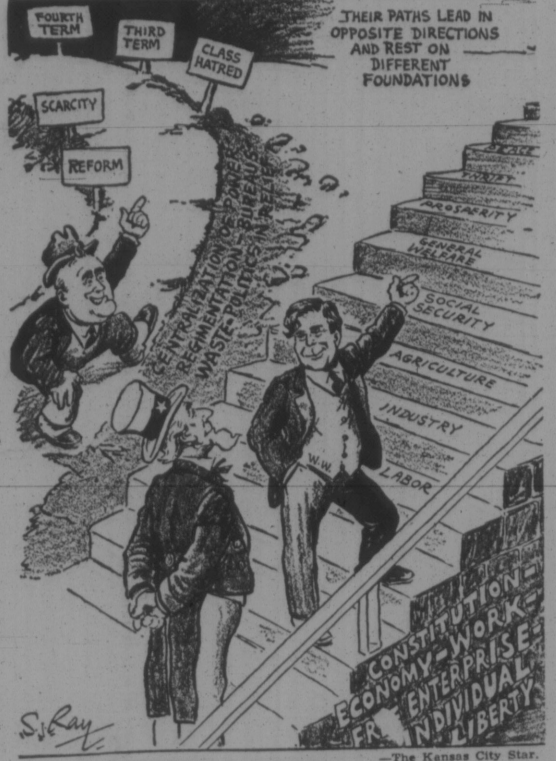

On March 4, 1857 in his inaugural address James Buchanan made the statement that the issue of slaves was a judicial question which legitimately belong to the supreme court of the U. S. Two days later the court handed down the much long awaited decision, up holding the decision, of the lower court.

I was finally freed under the laws of Missouri. To this day the location of my grave is unknown.

Answer: Dred Scott.

Transmission of the allergic tendency occurs twice as frequently through the female as the male and twice as many offspring are afflicted when the female is the allergic parent. Males are more often affected before puberty and females after puberty.

The age of onset of allergic disease varies considerably. Food hypersensitiveness induced by indigestion predominates in infants; ingested and inhaled forms of allergy in early childhood, and inhaled types of allergy in later childhood. Eczema, most common of allergic manifestation usually begins during the first six months of life, clears by the third year and eczema that persists becomes confined to the extremity. Asthma, next in order of incidence, usually begins after the third year and more often in those previously affected with eczema. Urticaria (hives) is about as prevalent as asthma and may become manifested after the sixth month of life.

All other forms of allergy usually date from the latter of childhood. Exciting causes of an allergic reaction are many and varied. They may be absorbed ingested, inhaled, injected or contracted. The list contains airborne substances of animal and vegetable origin, foods, jugs, bacteria and their products. Allergy to fats, oils, resins alkaloid moles physical agents and to a variety of non-specific factors occurs from time to time.

BIG TEN

BY ALLEN ASHBY

Archie Harris of Indiana made a little history when he went the distance against Texas. Here was a natural spot for keeping Harris out of the game. Bo McMillan, Indiana Coach, was a former center College of Kentucky player. But all he wanted was to win that ball game, and to him Archie was just another player. Indiana lost but the hats should go off to McMillan.

Jim Smith of Northwestern helped his teams snow under a fair to mid-dlin Syracuse team. Jim and his mates met Ohio State and Anderson's pass catching and defense playing helped a lot.

Iowa Jim Walker didn't get into the rout of South Dakota, probably, because Coach Anderson wasn't taking any chances on getting his first stringer broken up in a minor game. Wilkerson, a shifty half back, played part of the game, and a boy, we think named Smith, was also in there. These boys will be heard from before they finish.

The boys out on the coast went down again by the same score 9-6. Jack Robinson, Bartlett and Wynn certainly miss K. Washington.

At Drake it was the same story. In the list of substitutes ran tackles, Cushingberry; backs, Harris; Willard and Perry did their bits and may get a break yet.

Negro Schools

Florida A. & M. continued their winning ways last week by dusting A. & T. Kentucky State set down Philander Smith, and Texas tripped up Prairie View. Wilberforce took Bama State. Howard dusted Cheyney and Bluefield stopped Virginia State.

Read an interesting piece to the effect that Negro College football is costing too much. Wonder if the winning teams also lose money. It is our guess that Negro college football has been built up too fast. They have tried to put it on a par with Ralph Johnson of East really went to town last week against Oskaloosa, coming into the game late, Johnson broke away for about twenty yards and helped set up the winning score. Then he carried the pill over for the score that broke a 6-all tie. Jess Hill played a nice end but Clarence Lucas had to miss this one. Old Man eligibility. Lawrence Hill played a bang-up game for the Oskies.

Joe Howard, Bob White and all the boys had a ball as North just swamped Creston 26-0, losing two touchdowns that were called back. Looks as if North is getting tougher each week. Omar James did his bit in helping Valdest McKinley of Cedar Rapids.

About all we can say about Hentle the other night is that he had it coming. We have often said that no one wins forever. We must say that most of the Negroes we asked to were much calmer and matter of fact than were others who really gloated over something that was bound to happen.

SHE LOST 20 POUNDS OF FAT

Feel full of pep and possess the slender form you crave—you can't if you listen to gossipers.
To take off excess fat go light on fatty meats, butter, cream and sugary sweets—eat more fruit and vegetables and take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning to eliminate excess waste.
Mrs. Elma Verille of Havre de Grace, Md., writes: "I took off 20 lbs.—my clothes fit me fine now."
No drastic cathartics—no constipation—but blissful daily bowel action when you take your little daily dose of Kruschen.
