NAACP COMMENDS GOVERNMENT ACTION ON FOUR FRONTS

New York—To the Department of Justice for appointing a special prosecutor in the Sikeston, Mo., lynching and for investigating and securing indictments in the riot over the Sojourner Truth Home, in Detroit; to the President's Committee on Fair Employment Practice for its order to stop race discrimination in ten war plants in the Chicago and Milwaukee area, and to the War department for declaring "out of bounds" public places around Camp Dix, N. J., which refuse service to colored soldiers, the NAACP sent letters of appreciation last week.

INDICT THREE IN DETROIT HOUSING FIGHT

Washington (ANP)—Washington rejoiced over the return of three indictments in the famous Sojourner Truth homes in Detroit when on Thursday afternoon it was announced that Garland L. Alderman, secretary, and Parker Sage, treasurer of the National Workers League, along with Virgil Chandler of the Seven-Mile Fenelon association, an officer and founder, had been indicted for conspiracy.

WAR DEPARTMENT POOL PERSISTS

Washington (ANP)—Stories of the famous "war department pool" persist in coming to light now and then with slants that are almost unbelievable. Located, it is said, on 18th Street near Pennsylvania avenue the huge pool of girls represents the large number who have been called in to work and have not been sent to a regular post.

The majority are Negro at present, it is reported, with more coming in daily.

HONOLULU NOW HAS 400 WORKING FOR NAVY

Honolulu (ANP)—Opposition to the importation of Negro labor from the mainland, which was rampant here last year after many American whites came to Hawaii to work on defense jobs, has virtually vanished since the Pearl Harbor attack on Dec. 7 and there are now approximately 400 colored laborers working here on naval installations.

NOT 'FIRED'

WILLIAM PICKENS

New York (ANP)—After practically firing Dean William Pickens, director of branches now on leave to the U. S. Treasury department, for statements which the NAACP board of directors considered advocating segregation, the board at its meeting Monday voted merely to notify Pickens that the article in question "is contrary to the repeated stands taken by the association." Reading of a prepared statement by the dean in which he refused to back down from his original stand preceded the voting.

The statements which stirred up the trouble were contained in a column released early this year by the Associated Negro Press under the title, "For Huachuca and the 99th Pursuit Squadron," in which the dean declared that "the army is planning to win the war, in spite of segregation or of those who oppose segregation" and praised both the army post and the 99th as efforts "that will make a dent in segregation." He also asserted that "segregation based on skin-color or eye-color is damned nonsense of course."

J. Nelson Thompson Files Petition for Divorce

J. Nelson Thompson, 1159 Fourteenth street, filed with the clerk of the Polk County district court Friday, April 17, a petition for divorce from Ella Irene Thompson.

Thompson, an attorney and a post office employee, charged his wife "guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment to this plaintiff as to endanger his life and impair his health and interfere with his peace of mind and efficiency at work," the petition revealed.

Further in the petition Thompson charged that the "defendant has been cruel and abusive in her talk and persisted in continually using vile language; that said defendant has repeatedly threatened to kill plaintiff and has conducted physical violence toward the plaintiff; and that the defendant has left the plaintiff and has refused to live any longer with said plaintiff."

The couple was married at Camanche, Iowa, Feb. 22, 1941, and lived together until February, 1942, the petition disclosed.

Former D.M. School Head Is Questioned Regarding Employment of Negroes

Washington (ANP)—Called before the President's Committee on Fair Employment Practices to explain discrimination in his department, Dr. John W. Studebaker, of the office of education in the Federal Security agency, with three associates, spent a very unpleasant Monday afternoon answering questions propounded by the heads of the committee.

Told to bring records and statements concerning employment of Negroes in his department, Dr. Studebaker was confronted with evidence gathered by investigators of the CO FEPC and statements by Dr. Robert C. Weaver and Dr. W. W. Alexander. George Johnson, assistant to Lawrence Cramer of the committee, supplied the technical evidence according to the law on the employment of workers, while John Beecher, the investigator for the committee, gave his information.

After all of the evidence had been submitted and Dr. Studebaker's assistants had given such information as they could, the entire mass of material was filed away for an early meeting of the full committee, expected to be held in May. At this time, full attention will be given the material at that time and the findings will be made public.

Dr. Studebaker is former superintendent of Des Moines schools.

Labor Official Appeals for Unions to 'Break Shackles'

(From the Des Moines Federationist) An urgent appeal to labor unionists, to "break the shackles of race, religious and class prejudice" so as to be free to carry on in the best traditions of democracy was issued here this week by Leo Quinn, an official of Teamsters' local 90.

Declaring that fascism exists not only as a political form but also as a "mental disease," Quinn charged that prejudices in the minds and hearts of trade unionists serve only to limit the horizons of the trade union movement.

"However we would like to believe that no common prejudices exist among labor union people," Quinn declared, "we are obliged to recognize that trade unionists are plagued with many of the same types of prejudice which mark people in other sections of our national life.

"In some minds the prejudice is against the Negro worker; in some cases, it is against so-called white collar workers; and in some cases it is even against people of the Jewish faith."

Is Fascism

Quinn charged that fascism is fascism "whether it exists in the mind of a brown-shirted Nazi or in the brain of an American citizen."

"We now know, after watching world events of the last dozen years, that fascism is not confined to one or two countries; like any other political or social ideology, it has its way of breaking across national lines and imbedding itself in the minds of men everywhere," Quinn warned.

"In many cases the man whose mind runs in the fascist vein does not himself realize the dangers inherent in his mental adherence to prejudice."

"The American who deliberately discriminates against the Negro is as guilty of conducting himself in an un-democratic way as the German Nazi who discriminates and makes a scape-goat of the Jew," Quinn declared.

"The American thinks there is nothing wrong in what he is doing because his prejudice exists in a form which makes it seem to him that it's natural," he said.

"The point of the whole thing is that the anti-Negro prejudice of an American is no more natural than the anti-Jewish prejudice of a German Nazi."

Quinn declared trade union members, of all members of the population, should be the most particular about ridding themselves of unreasoning hatreds and prejudices.

Whole Structure

"The whole structure of American trade unionism is built upon a belief in the equality of men," he declared. "Harboring a mean prejudice against any man, whatever his creed or color, is a direct denial of our belief in trade unionism and democracy."

According to Quinn, trade union members should take the lead in wiping out for all time the popular prejudices existing in the United States.

"We have a boundless opportunity to set the rest of the people of the nation an example," he said. "By courageously standing for the elimination of the petty hatreds and discriminations in our national life we

CANDIDATES

WALTER R. PRIEBE

In announcing my candidacy I am asking to serve you, the taxpayers of Polk County, Iowa, as your next Republican sheriff. I was born in Des Moines, educated in our public schools and commercial college. During the world war I enlisted in the United States navy, served overseas with U. S. Naval Aviation. Upon return to private life I served you as a deputy clerk of the Polk County District Court.

You elected me as your clerk of the Municipal Court upon my promise of courteous and efficient service. This promise has been fulfilled. It is with justifiable pride that I point to the fact that I have saved over $100,000.00 for the taxpayers in this office.

The training and experience I have received in court work leads me to believe that I am thoroughly qualified to serve you as your sheriff. I will surround myself with capable and honest deputies who will be a credit to Polk County and they, too, will be taught to render courteous and efficient service.

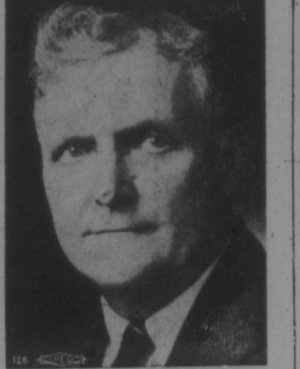

I will co-operate with the civilian defense committee in every way. I have some new ideas as to services that can be rendered to the country districts by the Polk County patrol crews. I will uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States and the laws of the State of Iowa as they are written.

My activities in civil and fraternal affairs are well known and the various organizations to which I belong are the following: Pioneer Club, Veteran's of Foreign Wars, American Legion, Forty and Eight, Masons, Odd Fellows, Moose, S. B. A., Central Civic Club, Credit Union and the Lutheran church.

On my record alone, I feel I am

DAVID B. LONG

David B. Long, for the past three years County Home Inspector for the Board of Control, Tuesday announced his candidacy for the office of State Commerce Commissioner seeking the Republican nomination in the June primaries.

Long lives in Des Moines, and was granted a two months' leave of absence at his own request by the Board of Control during which he expects to carry on an active campaign throughout the state.

Four years ago Long was a candidate for the office and ran second in a field of eight, lacking by a fraction of one per cent the number of votes necessary for nomination. The fact that Polk County already had two places on the state ticket proved an effective barrier to his nomination in convention.

Dave, as he is familiarly called by all who know him, was born in Lucas County in 1883 where he grew to manhood, teaching school for a short time and later becoming associated in the newspaper publishing business at Osceola and Russell with his brother Joe L. Long, Executive Secretary of the Iowa Taxpayers Association.

"This time I'm going to make active, personal campaign and expect to devote all my time between now and June 1st to it," Long said. "I am backed by no special group nor interest, and if I am elected will give my entire time to the duties of the office."

DR. STUDEBAKER ON THE CARPET

As evidence that the Fair Employment Practice Committee intends to deal with heads of governmental departments as well as defense industries about discrimination against Negroes in employment, Dr. John W. Studebaker, former superintendent of Schools in Des Moines and now head of the federal department of education, was called before that body recently to explain why he was not obeying the president's order against such practices.

Committee investigations had unearthed considerable evidence of racial discrimination in Dr. Studebaker's office all of which he and his assistants attempted to explain. The data was taken under advisement and undoubtedly he will be requested to rectify such practices as the committee has ordered some defense industries to do.

It is unfortunate that the department of education should be so narrow as to stoop to these practices in this enlightened day; it is bad advertisement for Des Moines, a slap at Dr. Studebaker. But we are not surprised. We had considerable experience with him while in Des Moines, particularly during the big fight waged by the Klan to get control of the school board at which time Dr. Studebaker made some promises to the Negro group which he never fulfilled.

Under our system here, we were not able to secure a fulfillment of these pledges. However, the Fair Employment Practice Committee has had good results in its effort to expose narrow minded executives and securing compliance with the president's order. Undoubtedly, it will work here.

BOLD, FORCEFUL, FAIR

The Bystander has had occasion to make some caustic criticism against those labor unions which bar Negroes from membership and thus preventing them from securing jobs. On the other hand, we have commended those that have been fair in the matter and recognized that all men who qualify for a task have a right to pursue it.

We have contended that the Negro should cultivate good relationships with the white laboring people for it is with this group that we are in competition, that we must work side by side. And, again, there are more of them. Too, if the laboring classes white and black get along peacefully, the boss can not hide behind the old excuse "they won't work with Negroes."

Last week Leo Quinn, an official of Teamsters Local 90 in Des Moines, and by the way one of the unions which don't bar Negroes from membership, made an appeal to labor unions for better understanding between the races which was so forceful that by permission of the Des Moines Federationist, spokesman for A.F.L. labor locals in this area, we reprint this article in full. We commend it, hoping that other union men in high places as well as the rank and file, will heed the appeal.

QUINN SEES UNIONS AS MAIN BULWARK IN U. S. DEMOCRACY

can open the way for other groups to follow in our footsteps. Quinn charged that racial or religious discrimination, if allowed to flourish within trade union groups,

"stands for the destruction of trade unionism."

"If there are those who argue that this is not so," he said, "then I would ask what kind of trade unionism it is which can perpetually stand against the rotting influence of racial or religious discrimination?"

Quinn declared that "some progress" toward eliminating racial prejudice is evident in the current world wide war.

"Racial barriers which have stood in the way of progress for hundreds of years are gradually giving away to less stringent barriers," he said. "Men of one color or religious creed, who for years felt they were superior to those of another, are finding today that they need the help, the friendship and the loyalty of the very men they once despised."

One recent example of the loosening of race barriers which won applause from Quinn was that by which Negroes soon may be given equal rights with whites to serve in the United States navy.

"Is there any reason under God's sun why a Negro boy is not as well qualified to be a sailor as a white boy?" asked Quinn.

For years the navy excluded Negroes from regular service in its navy. Then, during the attack on Pearl Harbor, a young Negro mess boy aboard one of the big battleships grabbed an anti-aircraft gun and distinguished himself as one of the heroes of the day.

Quinn denounced alleged discrimination against Negroes in war industries.

"What are we fighting this war for anyway? Democracy or discrimination?" he asked. "If we're fighting for democracy, then for God's sake let's show we have democracy at home."

WHO AM I?

By

AN OUTSTANDING NEGRO LABOR LEADER

The labor movement saw its first permanent National Federation created in 1869 "The Knights of Labor," that reached the zenith of its power about '86. After the panic of '93, it gradually gave place to the American Federation of Labor.

The best reason for organized labor is that it strengthens and advances the standard of life.

After being totally blind for a period of two years that caused me to discontinue high school at St. Louis, I was obliged to find work as soon as my sight was restored. 1884 I was elected to serve as president of the Bell Boys' Association in St. Louis. Sometime later, however, I became attached to secret service work. But in 1892 I joined the Tobacco Workers' Union of America and soon became president of the local. I was sent as a delegate to the first four annual conventions of this organization. And, 1895, I was elected delegate to the World's Congress of Labor held in Bern, Switzerland.

Again during the following year I was elected delegate to the second International Congress of Labor, in Montreal, Canada.

I was a representative of the St. Louis Labor Council at the reception of England's noted labor leader, John Burns, in New York 1895. As vice-president I served on the committee to welcome Theodore Roosevelt, during the dedication exercises of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, at St. Louis 1903.

Who am I?

Answer: Frank James Brown.

PROPER HANDLING OF CREAM ADDS TO FARM PROFITS

As in everything else, there is a right and wrong way to do every farm chore. The above chart shows right and wrong ways of carrying through certain farm practices connected with the handling of cream, as determined over many years of experience. No butter can be better than the quality of the cream from which it is manufactured. The main responsibility for the quality of butter consumed by the American people must ultimately rest on the cream-producing farmer.

JIVEFORMATION PLEASE—Well look who's here. Nobody but Ol' Man Jive, himself. Well I guess Calvin Spencer will be grinnin' now for the rest of his days since Mamie Richardson has returned. I hear he was the first one she called up upon her return. My, my this rubber shortage certainly isn't scaring Albert Tibbs, is it? He makes his weekly trips, anyway. By the way did you know that Jimmie Dawson has a new nickname? It's "Magnat." That's what the girls call him. Tommy Spencer wants to learn how to dance so bad. Why don't some of your girls volunteer your services. Well, looky here, we're already at the end of our trip so I guess I'd better put the ol' buggy in the garage until next week when we'll go for a merry spin again. So long.—Ol' Man Jive.

SPORTS

NEGRO ATHLETES SCARCE AT RELAYS

Negro athletes at this running of the Drake Relays will be rather hard to find in the individual events. Our chief threat is expected to come from Lee Tanner of Iowa who has a good chance of winning both the one hundred yard dash and the broad jump. So far as we know, there are no other Negroes of note in the special events unless Prairie View college comes up with some surprises. These lads won the college mile relay in record time in the Kansas Relays and will be hard to stop here. Of course there will be other Negroes on different relay teams but the days such as the time Jesse Owens won three events and anchored home a couple of relay teams and Willie Ward, Ralph Metcalfe along with Mack Robinson or Barney Ewell of Penn State won't be repeated.

Even in high schools we will have fairly rough going. No Frank Klaser's who is now running for Compton Junior college in Los Angeles, Cal., will be there to help East High pull out her quota of wins. The Scarlet and Black will have to depend a lot on Lonnie Howard and Bill White, a sturdy pair of work horses—but not great. The usual host of Negroes wearing the pink and green of North high will also be missing, but there will be a few along with Omar James of Valley.

However, we shall have our quota of sepiia school boys scampering around the track and up and down the field in the shuttle relay and other junior high and grade school events.

Then, as there is always the chance that some college Negro will come out of the pack and pull a surprise as has happened so many times. So maybe the Relays will be worth seeing.

Spring Sport Drive On

The season of golf and tennis is just about upon us. Already we are lining up prospective tennis classes to handle if Uncle Sam doesn't change our plans too much. Paul Williams, Joe Howard and a host of the boys are working at the ordinance plant and may not find time to play much this year, as many of us might not.

The golfers under Numa Johnson are demanding recognition and we mean to see that they get it. If we can we intend to cover all tee golf meets held here in regular reporter ing made to handle approximately 300 players. Teams will be represented from Kansas City, St. Louis, Topeka, Kas., Minneapolis, St. Paul, Omaha and Des Moines.

The Des Moines open tournament will be played here on July 4. The golf club has a dispensation for new members open until May 19.

Word gets around pretty fast when a girl has halitosis (bad breath), and she may lose her friends as fast as she gets them. Remember that anyone, even you, may have halitosis without realizing it, so don't take chances. Before any date, rinse the mouth with Listerine Antiseptic, the wonderful antiseptic and deodorant so many popular people rely on to combat bad breath.

Sometimes halitosis is due to systemic conditions, but most cases, say some authorities, are caused by fermentation of tiny food particles on tooth, mouth and gum surfaces. Listerine kills such fermentation and then overcomes the odor fermentation causes. Lambert Pharmaceutical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

LINCOLN POST

April 26—Lincoln Post First Aid Detachment will make a survey to check civilian cooperation for war or peace time emergency. Please cooperate with the boys when they call. The Post Safety chairman this week will present to the post, 1942 safety pledge to the head of the Des Moines department of police.

Membership at April 18 was 99. The Post's Americanism chairman announced that the post will send one boy to Boy's State in June. On April 27 all members of the post will report to their local draft board. Your Scribe Gibson has completed his course of scouting in the Boy style and really go to town on it. We must confess that we have never seen a Negro golf meet and only a couple of white ones. The softball teams are beginning to come out and it looks like a big year—providing, of course, that good Uncle Sam, is willing.

Boxing

Claude Ellison lost his final bout in the AAU boxing meet last week. He was stopped early in his semi-final bout but at that Claude had nothing to be ashamed of. While we are on this subject we wonder why boxers insist on trying Bob Pastor before they have enough experience to take care of themselves? Jimmy Bivins is a terrific puncher and a fair boxer but Pastor was just too experienced.

Then there is the laugh at welterweight champion Cockrane who trains for a fight with anyone but Ray Robinson or Bob Montgomery. Whenever these boys are mentioned he doesn't have time to train.

ABBE WALLACE

O. L.—The job I have, the people worry me so much over nothing until recently I have had pains over my heart. Just too much worry. Now a young couple wants me to come to work for them and I would like to know if the change would be advisable.

Ans.: A change is always advisable when your job begins getting on your nerves. Fortunate for you, you have worked in this family before and you will find this couple to be just as agreeable as the mother was when you were in her employ. Give your notice immediately. Don't leave the job you have without informing them of your plans.

Disgusted: My husband stays out at night and sometimes all night from the time he leaves work. I try not to nag, but he refuses to tell the truth concerning his whereabouts or about how much money he makes. I can't make ends meet on the little he gives me. What shall I do.

Ans.: Get a job and help with the bills. Then tell him plainly that you are willing to pool your earnings with his to help get the debts paid off. If he will treat you as a partner in marriage, in money matters as well as finding his diversion and entertainment with you. If he won't, then I see no point in your sticking around. There are greener pastures elsewhere.

H. L. R.—I am a young girl 18 years old. I am in love with a young man who lived in my home town. A few months after his job was finished he left there and I didn't hear from him until a week ago. He claims he lost my address. Please tell me whether he loves me and means what he says.

Ans.: If your boy friend had been very anxious to write to you, he would have made it his business to find your address—for there are more ways than one to do so. After things didn't go so well with his girl friend there he thought he would take you back. Don't depend too much on him.

F. R. L.—The person I am staying with I'm not so sure about him being a true friend. I want to know if I should stay with him or finish my education.

Ans.: Finish your college work by all means. Your parents have worked and sacrificed to put you through school. Go back home to your parents. WANTED FOR MURDER!

- This Killer is one of billions of tuberculosis germs now at large. He and his fellows flourish in war-time. Striking without warning, they will eventually, according to statistics, kill one out of every twenty people who are reading this warning!
- The Victim usually doesn't even know when he's been attacked—he may feel fine until months later when it's too late. Eight out of ten persons don't reach the doctor soon enough.
- The Safest Thing is to have a periodic check-up with your doctor. He can make a simple, painless test in a few minutes. And if you should happen to have T.B. you can catch it in time.
- Right Now, your local, state, and national T. B. associations are conducting their Early Diagnosis Campaign. Cooperate with them—arrange to see your doctor today. Remember, T. B. kills more people between 15 and 45 than any other disease.

O. L.—The job I have, the people worry me so much over nothing until recently I have had pains over my heart. Just too much worry. Now a young couple wants me to come to work for them and I would like to know if the change would be advisable.

would have made it his business to find your address—for there are more ways than one to do so. After things didn't go so well with his girl friend there he thought he would take you back. Don't depend too much on him.

Ans.: A change is always advisable when your job begins getting on your nerves. Fortunately for you, you have worked in this family before and you will find this couple to be just as agreeable as the mother was when you were in her employ. Give your notice immediately. Don't leave the job you have without informing them of your plans.

F. R. L.—The person I am staying with I'm not so sure about him being a true friend. I want to know if I should stay with him or finish my education.

Disgusted: My husband stays out at night and sometimes all night from the time he leaves work. I try not to nag, but he refuses to tell the truth concerning his whereabouts or about how much money he makes. I can't make ends meet on the little he gives me. What shall I do.

Ans.: Finish your college work by all means. Your parents have worked and sacrificed to put you through school. Go back home to your parents. You have only one semester before you finish your 4 year college course. With a college degree, you can be something worth while. You haven't found your right mate yet.
