Alliance to Hold Farewell For Rev. John Bain Monday

Testimonials and farewells to the Rev. John C. Bain, pastor of the Burns Methodist church, and president of the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance, will be expressed in a program at the Burns church, Monday evening, June 1, at 8:30 o'clock, under the sponsorship of the public affairs committee of the Alliance. The Rev. George W. Robinson will preside. On the program will be Dean Seth Slaughter, Atty. S. Joe Brown and Ed R. Brown, Commander Gay and Rev. H. C. Boyd.

Culminating a pastorate of four and one-half years at the Burns Methodist church, the Rev. Mr. Bain and his family will leave the city Tuesday, June 2, for Los Angeles, Calif., where his family will reside with his mother, Mrs. Sarah F. Bain for the duration of the war.

The Rev. Mr. Bain who will be in uniform will report to commanding general of the 49th Quartermasters Regiment at Berkeley, Calif., and he will be ranked as first lieutenant chaplain.

Going into the army is a "volunteer act on my part," the Rev. Mr. Bain said in an interview.

"The boys go to the army whether they like it or not and I go because I want to render a service to them. In some of the trying times the boys need a little of the real thing—spiritual understanding, the 38 year old minister said.

Crowd Hears Annual Sermon

"As a Christian man—everything that concerns my brother concerns me," the Rev. W. F. Ogleton, spoke Sunday morning, May 24, to a large body of the Brotherhood, Inc. and Sisterhood which filled the auditorium of the Bethel A.M.E. church.

It was the occasion of the annual sermon of the organizations, which turned out in a body. Led by the Drum and Bugle corps of boys and girls, the Majorettes, the Ladies Walking team, Women's chorus, and the Brothers wearing their gold colored fezes the organizations were a colorful parade.

The Rev. Mr. Ogleton used as his theme, "The Responsibility of the Brotherhood." He praised the organizations, stating that "this crowd tells me that you are doing a great work."

He urged the body to "fight wrong on every hand." "The main thing that should be considered is the character of your brother and your sisters," he stressed and further emphasized that the responsibility of a brother is "to see that you wrong no one."

Mrs. S. Bates Bouyer, sister chieftain of the Sisterhood, praised the work of the young people and introduced her officers and extended a welcome to women to join the Sisterhood.

Noble Gray, chieftain of the Brotherhood, expressed a wish that the motto of the organization, "altogether forever" could be the motto of every Negro. He informed that the Brotherhood, ten years old, was organized for the interest of the community and its people.

In telling of the free swings that the organization has made possible for children each summer, Mr. Gray urged the parents to try to get their children in supervised parks every day where they will be safe—off the streets and out of the busy traffic lanes.

Although it was the annual feast and jubilee day, the organization will not hold the feast until Thursday night, June 4, at the St. Paul A.M.E. church dining hall.

ing term. Murrow was appointed judge last August to serve in Jordan's place while the latter was absent.

Jordan's decision not to be a candidate raised questions as to the plans of Judge Murrow. He answered these Tuesday by saying:

"I have enjoyed my work on the bench and in view of Judge Jordan's decision not to be a candidate I have decided to have my name presented to the Republican judicial convention as a candidate for the nomination."

"It is my desire to serve in place of Judge Jordan on the bench until such time as it is possible for him to come back to his old position, whether it be before January next or afterward."

Judge Murrow is a world war veteran. He was educated at the Corydon public schools and Drake university. He practiced law in Des Moines 20 years.

Judge Murrow was instrumental in procuring the appointment of Gilbert Randle as court room bailiff and Randle began his new duties in the judge's court. The judge is a member of the NAACP.

Born in Kansas

A native of Emporia, Kas., the Rev. Mr. Bain moved to California, a lad of ten, where he finished high school. Going south, a barber and a carpenter by trade, he entered Gammon Theological Seminary in Atlanta, then enrolled in A. and I. State college at Nashville, earning degrees of B.D. from Gammon and B.S. from the latter.

The Rev. Mr. Bain was married to the daughter of a Methodist minister, Miss Josie Gray, when just out of school, he received his first appointment on the Springhill Circuit in Tennessee, where he built his parsonage.

He pastored other charges in Tennessee at Springfield, Lebanon and Murfreesboro, before coming to Des Moines to Burns church and to continue his work at Drake university, from which he received his Masters degree in philosophy last June.

"I have admired Des Moines as a fine town for fellowship between the groups and particularly between the races—and I will hate to leave all of my very fine friends and members," the minister said.

The Rev. Mr. Bain is a member of the Des Moines Methodist Union, the Ministerial Alliance, Interracial Commission, executive board of the NAACP, chairman of the 59 of Tall Corn Council of Boy Scouts, the Omega Psi Phi fraternity.

ARMY CHAPLAIN

REV. JOHN C. BAIN

Pastor of the Burns Methodist church here for over four years, the Rev. John C. Bain with his family will leave the city Tuesday for California where he will report to the 49th Quartermasters Regiment at Berkeley as first lieutenant chaplain. He took his vows at Ft. Des Moines post Friday. The Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance which he heads will hold a testimonial program at Burns on Monday night.

EDITOR TO SPEAK

Chester A. Franklin, editor and publisher of the Kansas City Call, Kansas City, Mo., will give the principal address at the Crocker Y.M.C.A. 23rd annual membership and anniversary dinner to be given Monday evening, June 1, in the South room of the Central Y.M.C.A., Fourth and Keo, at 7:00 p. m.

Mr. Franklin, who was born in Texas, is well-known for his militant fight as champion for the Negro's civil rights thru the medium of the press and platform. Since the founding of the Call in 1919, the noted editor has waged war on prejudice in the United States against the race in housing, jury service, education, police brutalities, lynchings and all forms of discrimination. The Call is the fourth largest Negro newspaper in the United States.

Surveys Conditions

The Kansas City journalist has spent considerable time the past few months touring the country surveying the conditions and getting first hand data on the Negro workers in defense industries and battling racial bias in government projects; he has made several trips to Washington on behalf of the race in national affairs.

At present, The Call is in the midst of a $2,000 fight for justice campaign against the verdict in the Bluff case (the decision upholds the inequalities of education opportunities for Negroes in Missouri.)

A musical program has been arranged by Atty. W. Lawrence Oliver, program chairman; he serving will be in charge of a staff headed by Thomas M. Kelly, social chairman.

War Savings Aide Urges Negroes to Help Win War By Investing in Bonds

By BARBARA CRAWFORD

While repeatedly stating that Negroes are the oldest group in America with the exceptions of the Indians, and are therefore 100 per cent American, William Pickens in his speech at Bethel A.M.E. church here reprimanded them for their lack of interest and concern about World War II.

Pickens, war savings staff assistant in the Treasury Department at Washington, D. C., was the guest speaker on a program sponsored by the Negro Youth Forum. Other organizations represented were sent by Freddie Hawkins, president of the forum.

They were: William Elmore, American Legion; John Coleman, Des Moines Negro Chamber of Commerce; S. Joe Brown, Executive board member of the NAACP; Mrs. A. A. Alexander, Negro director of Polk county drive for defense bonds, and C. B. Hartshorn, National Youth Administration.

The Rev. W. F. Ogleton, pastor of Bethel A.M.E. church, gave the invocation. The Double-V Victory choir sang "America," "I Am An American," and "Victory," during the evening.

Mrs. Alexander, in a short talk, solicited aid in selling war bonds for the duration of the war. "Since women do a large percentage of retail buying, they have a great opportunity to buy war bonds, she said.

C. B. Hartshorn pointed out that the NYA was set up for the purpose of giving mechanical, sheet metal and other skilled workers experience so that when they applied for a job in industry they would be prepared.

No Place Outside

Captivating his audience, Pickens gesticulated and paced the platform as he told how complete this war was. No place is outside of the influence of it, and everybody will be touched by it, he said.

"There is no more foolish person than someone who thinks this is somebody else's war. Negroes are saying this is the white man's war, but it's our war, too."

He told how Negroes came to America 12 years after the first white men and could be called true Americans. Not since 1859 have there been any blacks imported from Africa. The youngest child who came over on the last slave ship died nine years ago in Mobile, Ala.

"The greatest influx of whites has come since Negroes stopped coming. Not until now have Negroes been only 10% of the population; heretofore they constituted from 40 to 75% of the population in some places," he revealed.

Pickens said that there was no place but America that would allow people to get up and speak their own minds. It was his opinion that there had never been a country like America in the history of the world.

"Negroes must help fight it out for democracy's side. What we want is democracy in the United States. It is words of encouragement from their commanding officer, Col. Frederick V. H. Trimble, members of the third class of Negro pilots finished their training at this school.

The graduation exercises, at which mothers and fathers of the graduates were present, were held Wednesday morning, May 20, in the Post Recreation hall. Post Chaplain Hollis H. Hooks delivered the invocation. Lt. Immediate predecessors that the his-Col. Noel F. Parrish, director of training, presented the coveted wings to the graduates. Colonel Trimble delivered the address.

Graduates Third Class of Pilots

Tuskegee (ANP)—"The future holds for you great prospects." With these words ringing in their ears, the only hope for minority groups. At least Negroes have a fighting chance in America. If Fascism gets hold of the United States, Negroes won't have a dog's chance. There is no place in that form of government for colored people except to be a Fascist slave and I wouldn't be that," Pickens asserted.

It was his opinion that if Napoleon had tried to conquer America would have been a fool's errand now, Germany is far from being a fool's errand.

United States—"CHERIFF British victory, there is France for at least 500 years, until it joins the Fascists. There are Fascists in this country but they haven't broken out yet and they do not run this country. However, if Hitler took the rest of the world, the domestic Fascists would turn into our bosses and in 10 years they could bring this country down," he explained.

He told how Negroes were descendants of the first civilized peoples; the Egyptians. "Five thousand years ago their civilization was old. Hitler thinks history began when he became chancellor of Germany in 1933, but he is mistaken."

He went on to say that there was slavery in Europe long before America was discovered and that they were mostly white slaves. At first there wasn't any prejudice against the black race; Negroes were brought into the same system as whites were in. They were both sold on the same block and there were even Negro slaveholders until 1669 when a law was passed forbidding them from holding anything but black slaves.

Invest in Bonds Pickens urged everyone to invest in war bonds in order to help win the war and help themselves. He explained that after the war when money and jobs would be scarce these bonds would be the only thing to keep things going.

"The expense of winning the war is like a penny beside a stack of hundred dollars as compared to the cost of losing it. It's the only thing we can't afford to do. If we have to pay 99 cents out of every dollar we ought to do it."

"The first problem is to win the war and let domestic fights go until afterward. We Negroes have got to grow and fight to get out of segregation, but the human race doesn't make progress too fast."

He remarked that even though Negroes have a strong basis for hating, that they have a chance to set a good example. He quoted Booker T. Washington's words, "I will allow no man to drag me down as to hate him."

He continued by saying that "it's a privilege to be an American when the world is on fire and he hoped he would live to see the triumph of freedom and democracy."

PERSONAL TOUCH

By MARIE ROSS

Flowers are out in glorious colors all over town. Some of the bouquets which have spread fragrance in the office this week have come from east and west side gardens. Irises in beautiful shades of lavender, yellows and near pinks; roses and lilies of the valley, picked from the spacious lawn of the Joe Hamiltons on East Eighteenth street have caused many "aahs and oohs" from persons dropping in the office.

Also on East Eighteenth street the Grays have a colorful Iris garden.

Another bouquet of peonies and irises from the combined gardens of Matthews-Williams-Lloyd on Jefferson streets, added beauty to the office the early part of the week.

One of the soldier boys from Ft. Des Moines post—Pvt. Butler, treasurer of the Post's first yellow roses—all the way into town until he reached the YW dance last week. He had bought the rose for his friend of the evening—but Miss Alice Kenney was late arriving—and so the rose also found a vase at the office the next morning.

When you see someone hopping over back fences or tipping among your flowers—don't shoot—for she will be looking for that Personal Touch.

You May be Affected by War Restrictions on Telephones

To help conserve vital war materials, it has been necessary for the Government to place additional restrictions on the installation and replacement of telephone service and equipment.

We are cooperating fully in the saving of materials needed in the war effort and, although the restrictions will affect many of our customers, we are doing our utmost to provide good telephone service.

The effect of the restrictions on requests for telephone service or equipment depends upon the conditions and circumstances of each particular case.

In most localities we still are able to install some type of service for people who move or want a telephone and our business office will be glad to furnish you full information. Giving us as much advance notice as possible will help us to serve you better.

MEMORIAL DAY, 1942

In 1942, we observe Memorial day amid the most difficult period in world history. We honor more dead than ever before not only because this day has been a fixture in the life of the country more years but also because more have laid down their lives for the nation in new wars since last Memorial day.

As men marched off to the front, they had in mind the job of winning from the enemy, but more important the securing of a peace which would obviate the necessity of others meeting the same fate as time went on.

But unfortunately men are meeting the same fate and in greater numbers. As the division commander on the 92nd told the boys in France on Thanksgiving day in 1918, "as long as there are men there will be wars." And that certainly is true especially as long as men refuse to embed into their hearts the doctrine of the brotherhood of man.

Battles in themselves have never won a war. They simply put the defeated forces in a position where the winners can dictate a peace of their own liking. And that liking has been terribly bungled.

We are inclined to the position that all too often, the army does not know what it is fighting for, and since after a war they wield great influence in the community, doctrines foreign to the objectives of the wars dominate. As a striking example, even though World War I was fought "To make the world safe for democracy"—at least this was the slogan—a great wave of intolerance flourished in America as exemplified by such organizations as the Ku Klux Klan. This group was just the antithesis of democracy.

And even though it posed as enemies of certain races and religions, high public officials, business men and the clergy fell in line with this cancer which split the people in America into opposing groups and did great damage. It sowed seeds which had a bad influence in every community in this country.

This war is a terrible thing. Most people don't comprehend its magnitude. If it lasts much longer—and we see little reason to think otherwise—we shall lose more men than in all other wars combined. Are we going to let these men die in vain just as the case has been heretofore?

We shall, unless all people come to the position of unselfish devotion to the doctrine of peace and good will toward all men; unless the will to do as well as think what is right prevails; unless all men are dealt with on the basis of their individual worth rather than the color of their skin, the form of worship they chose, the country from which they came. For as Lincoln said in his Gettysburg address—and it applies to the whole world—"That from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion—that we highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain—that this nation under God, shall have a new birth of freedom—and that government of the people, by the people for the people shall not perish from the earth."

VOTE MONDAY

Iowa goes to the polls Monday to nominate candidates of the respective parties to be voted on in the fall election.

This has been a most unusual campaign. We shall not discuss the reasons why.

And in spite of the fact that candidates for each office for the Republican and Democratic nominations have been numerous, few people have come out to hear discussions of the issues.

Prior to 1932, nomination to most offices—the state in particular on the Republican ticket—was tantamount to election. The fall campaigns were simply ratifications of the primary results. But this is not longer true. Both parties will conduct vigorous campaigns.

In spite of the fact that the war is on, we must live at home, keep old institutions alive. Our government is one of them and men must be elected to do the people's business. The primary elections are a part of that process—the first step in the process of selecting officials—consequently if good officers are to be elected, the people must see that good officers are nominated in the primaries.

Here in America—that is in most parts—every citizen not only has the right but is also unmolested in the exercise of his privilege of voting. He is bound to vote for no one unless he so chooses. This is one of the blessings of such a democracy we enjoy, a democracy we are fighting to preserve.

We say this to urge every Iowan to go to the polls Monday and vote for the candidate of his choice.

To Choose Y Track Queen

Entries are pouring in for the 18th annual Crocker Y.M.C.A. track and field meet to be staged Saturday, Decoration Day, May 30th, at the East High stadium at 1:30 p. m. More than twenty events in three divisions will be run in the afternoon. The crowning of the Relays queen, to the fanfare of the Brotherhood Lodge drum and bugle corps and majorettes will be the high spot of the holiday affair.

Several popular girls of the younger social set will vie for the honor of being the "1942 Track queen." The Negro Community Center, East Des Moines Community Center, Blue Triangle Y.W.C.A. and other organizations have indicated their desire to enter their favorites and will announce them this weekend.

Miss Betty Ross, well-known musician and junior tennis champion, is representing the Monarch club. She is a student at North high and is well known in the dramatic circles of the city for her exceptional ability. Miss Evelyn Green, demure little secretary of the Iowa Bystander Publishing company, will carry the colors for the Brotherhood Lodge. She is a Lincoln high graduate and is a clever athlete especially proficient in swimming.

Lucius Ashby, Polk county deputy sheriff, has been named as starter of the meet. Other former athletes of the cinder path and members of the Crocker Y athletic committee will serve in official capacities of the various events.

Mrs. Nellie Parker, 1329 Center street, is reported improved at Mercy hospital where she was taken on Sunday evening.

YWCA

The annual camp party was sponsored by the camp committee, Mrs. Aradel Henry, chairman and Miss Arnetta Sloan, co-chairman. Plans for the 1942 Camp Period, August 19-26, were presented and girls registered for groups that will work on projects to "Earn Their Way to Camp." Campers had a real re-union and many new girls came. Camp songs were sung. Games were played and refreshments were served.

Girl Reserves gave a benefit party May 23 to earn money to send a delegate to Okoboji Girl Reserve State Conference which will be held June 21-28 at Lake Okoboji. La Vaughn Martin is president of the club.

The program planning committee made plans for the June membership picnic which will be held Thursday, June 18, on the lawn of the Blue Triangle branch. The reports on 1943 objectives for Des Moines Y.W.C.A. were given by the following people: Maxine Cooley, Girl Reserve; Mary K. HOWARD ENDS TRACK CAREER IN STATE PREP MEET

Lonnie Howard got off a good broad jump in the state high school meet which Davenport won with East High second. Lonnie leaped twenty-one feet nine inches, but had to be content with second place. He said he got off one jump of over twenty-two feet but stepped over the board by about an inch. Lonnie also ran on some winning relay teams. He now faces the future with a half year of athletics left—football and basketball. If the kid lives right and keeps up his interest in athletics he will gain about two pounds this summer which will help him end in football. He is now at the cross roads of his career. The stage that ruins so many promising youth athletes. Full of fun and liking good times the youngster has to choose between the usual round of pleasure that reards development and sacrificing his fun for body building rest and healthful exercise. The choice is his and his alone. He can become a fine college prospect during the next six months or he can join the host of former athletes who never got any better than mediocre, just because they never realized that fun and body building don't mix.

Clarence Basset of Davenport helped the Blue devils win some relays, and got second in the hundred yard dash. Basset is another fine prospect for someone's college. Bill White of East ran on the two mile relay team and gave a good account of himself.

College Track

Lee Farmer of Iowa was selected to represent the Big Ten in the dashes and broad jump in their annual dual with the far west teams. Ralph Hammond of Ohio state, Big Ten dash king, will be among those present. Both Hammond and Farmer will find themselves in fast company with the coast boys who specialize in breaking records.

GEO. A. WILSON

NOMINATE HIM IN THE PRIMARY

MONDAY, JUNE 1, 1942

As the

Republican Candidate for U.S. Senator

Wilson has made a good Governor

Wilson will make a good Senator

HIS RECORD SPEAKS FOR ITSELF

- 1. His training and experience have made him an efficient public servant.
2. He has always been a staunch Republican.
3. He arranged the appointment of the first Negro woman to a full-time job in the state government of Iowa.
4. In the economy drive Governor Wilson instituted and which necessitated the reduction in the number of non-essential jobs created by a previous Democratic administration, less Negroes were dropped in proportion to population.
5. In commissions and bureaus whose heads the governor appoints, two Negroes hold jobs in departments for the first time—one in the tax commission, one in the safety department.
6. While a state senator his legislative record was eminently fair to the Negro.
7. He has been a member of the Des Moines branch NAACP for 15 years and approves the program.
8. Upon the insistence of NAACP, the Des Moines Interracial Commission and the Negroes of Iowa generally, he vetoed a bill passed by the last legislature which was designed to farm out unfortunate children—it would have hit the Negro most—to other states for care and keep. He felt that Iowa should care for its own children within its own borders.
9. Recognized by all classes as a great executive and a leader that will bring credit to a great state.
