AMERICANS HEROES IN LONDON RAID London (ANP)—Two American Negro soldiers here proved their heroic mettle during the air raid last week when they risked their own lives to shield several women who fell in the road during a Nazi bombing on a town in East Midlands. The names of the soldiers were not disclosed.

The raid, made by two planes, dropped bombs on Home Guard headquarters, destroying the building and fire spread to an ammunition store, causing an explosion of cartridges and bullets. Buried in the ruins were the bodies of two privates.

FORT JACKSON PACK TRAIN USES MULES Columbia, S. C. (ANP)—Members of the 67th Quartermaster Pack Train at Fort Jackson near here form one of two such contingents in the country. Composed entirely of Negroes, the pack train uses mules for transport and undergoes some of the most rigorous drill in the army. Officers of the group, which was initially trained at Fort Riley, Kas., are Lt. Charles M. Peery, commanding officer, and Lt. Leo C. Cooksley, stable officer.

PLAN STUDY OF WAR PLANT DISCRIMINATION St. Louis (ANP)—The War Department commission will study complaints of discrimination against Negroes in the employment policies of war plants in this area, it was declared last week by T. D. McNeal, chairman of the St. Louis chapter of the March on Washington movement. McNeal said he received this news in a letter from Edward McDonald, regional director of the commission's office at Kansas City, who said he would come here for the investigation. McNeal observed that he hoped the examination would lead to a formal investigation by the commission.

"CABIN IN THE SKY" GROUP ENTERTAINS HUACHUCA SOLDIERS Ft. Huachuca, Ariz. (ANP)—Coming directly from Hollywood, members of the cast appearing in the MGM production, "Cabin in the Sky" gave a variety show in the 93d division Open-Air arena, here last Sunday, which proved to be a howling success. Among the performers were Miss Hattie Morrison, boogie-woogie pianist; Sunshine Sammy, Miss Lena Horne, the pretty songstress, Mantan Moreland, Monte Hawley, Miss Olive Bann, Freddie Clark, Chickie Grimes, Effert "Noody" Bowman, Princess Luana, Pepper Neely and Alford Moore. SECRETARY STIMSON VISITS TUSKEGEE Montgomery, Ala.—Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson and an official inspecting party visited Negro pilots at the Tuskegee army flying school Monday.

FLYERS MAY SEE ACTION; 99TH READY Tuskegee Institute (ANP)—The men of the 99th Pursuit squadron are champing at the bite. The first unit, feeling rather confident of their flying ability, having passed their firing tests, but realizing that far wider experience awaits them before they are actually able to enter aerial battle, are anxious to be on the move.

Rumors indicate that the group will be leaving the local airfield where they received their training and won their wings, within a very short time. No announcement regarding where they will go or the exact time they will leave has been revealed, neither has the exact personnel been made known. There is a general understanding however that Lt. Col. Benjamin O. Davis will be the leader of the squadron when it moves on from Tuskegee Field toward the fields of action. The 100th squadron will move into the 99th's berth as soon as it is vacant.

Continuing a twenty-five-year-old battle with the Des Moines board of education to employ at least one Negro teacher in the local system, four prominent Des Moines men met with the board Tuesday evening. They asked for an increase in the number of Negro janitors and the employment of one or more Negro visiting teachers in the pupil attendance department.

Representing the Des Moines Negro Civic committee, and headed by Atty. S. Joe Brown, a written request was presented to the board.

Other members of the committee are: James B. Morris, editor of the Bystander; Fred D. Hawkins, Atty. W. Lawrence Oliver; the two absent members, A. A. Alexander, who is in Washington, D. C.; and Harry E. Wilson, who is ill.

Mrs. Helen D. Beshears, Polk County juvenile worker, asked the board members to consider for next year the addition of at least one Negro visiting teacher in the pupil attendance department to be assigned to Negro attendance cases.

The undersigned members of the Des Moines Negro Civic Committee, are all electors and tax payers in the City of Des Moines, and have been for periods varying from five to forty years.

The sole purpose of our organization is to try to increase the participation of the members of the Negro group in the Democracy of which we boast, especially in the City of Des Moines.

"When we first started our movement about ten years ago, there was only one Negro janitor and no other Negro employee in the service of the Board of Education; one janitor and no other Negro in the employ of the Des Moines Electric and Gas Co., and no Negro employed in any capacity by the Des Moines Municipal Water Works.

"By the means of courteous and persistent efforts we have been enabled to increase this list to four Negro school janitors; two janitors and two Power Plant assistants in the Des Moines Electric and Gas Co. and three full time employees and several part time workers with the Des Moines Municipal Water Works.

"For a time the Board of Education did employ a Negro girl as stenographer to the Director of the Adult Education Forum; and has used two or three different Negroes as WPA workers in the Attendance Department; but at the present time no Negro is being used in either of these capacities; notwithstanding the fact that there are at least a dozen Negroes owning property and paying taxes in Des Moines out of money that they earn teaching in Chicago, Detroit, and other midwestern cities; where like in Des Moines they have a so called mixed school system; except that unlike Des Moines, these cities have mixed teachers as well as

Boy, 6, Dies Unexpectedly

Leavesta Dixon, 6 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dixon, 139 Sheridan avenue, who died unexpectedly less than 24 hours after he and his brother, Paul, 8, were brought to Broadlawn General hospital Tuesday night, was the victim of "an acute intestinal infection," an autopsy Wednesday revealed.

The boy's sister, Joanne, 2 entered the hospital Monday.

Dr. J. D. Anderson said a preliminary study in the autopsy did not show the exact nature of the infection, but he said it appeared to be contagious.

USO Director Begins Work Here

Miss Ann T. Wolfolk of Chicago, Ill., arrived in Des Moines Monday to be director of the Negro USO center for WAAC members and servicemen.

Miss Wolfolk has received a bachelor of science degree in physical education and group work from Northwestern university, Evanston, Ill. She has been director of nursery school, health and group work for the Y. W. C. A. in Indianapolis, Ind. and Chicago and recently was physical education teacher in Chicago schools.

Demands Court Martial for Racial Bigots

New York, N. Y.—The War Department was asked today to take steps to eliminate the friction in the American Expeditionary Forces caused by Southern white soldiers who desire to establish Jim Crow traditions in England. In a statement to Secretary Stimson the NAACP said:

"We strongly urge the issuance by the War Department, and perhaps by our Commander in Chief, of stern orders that any American soldier who causes friction of this character shall be immediately court-martialed and given the severest penalty provided by law, and regulation if found guilty.

"We further recommend that commanding officers who lack the necessary firmness and freedom from prejudice should be replaced. Troublemakers, white or colored, southern or northern, must be shown that winning the war is more important than trying to tell the British authorities and people who they should or should not treat as human beings and as soldiers fighting to wipe out the Hitler theory of race."

For objecting to the presence of American Negro soldiers at entertainments arranged by the British authorities and people for American troops, the southern white soldiers have become the subject of much criticism throughout England, and in the newspapers, in Parliament, and in private statements by officials and individuals.

Annual Patriotic Celebration at Shrine Nov. 11

The third annual program of the Negro Patriotic Jubilee will be held in the Shrine Auditorium, Armistice Day, Nov. 11, beginning at 8 p. m. with a show and closing with a promenade.

The committee this year will feature the seventeenth annual show of the Monarch Minstrels which was presented at the Hoyt Sherman Place last year. The forepart of the program will depict the military history of the Negro from Boston Commons to Pearl Harbor. Booths will display Negro art, science, literature and industry.

J. G. Browne, acting chairman for the committee, said there will be several prominent names added to the list of sponsors, but in the meantime there is an effort to make it a self supporting institution.

CLARENCE WALKER INJURED IN FALL

Clarence Walker, 34, 1330 Wayne street was taken to Broadlawn General hospital Wednesday with a compound fracture of the left ankle and a bruised head, received in a fall from a scaffold while working at Sabin school. He was later removed to Iowa Methodist hospital.

Walter White at Shrine Auditorium Friday Night

Walter White of New York City, national secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, will be guest speaker at the Des Moines public forum, at the Shrine Auditorium, Friday eve, Oct. 16, at eight o'clock.

Mr. White will speak from the subject "Race and the Four Freedoms."

According to the adult education council of the Des Moines public schools which sponsors the public forum, several Negro leaders have appeared as guest speakers, the last one, William Pickens, who at that time, March 1939, was national field secretary of the NAACP.

Walter Francis White, who prefers to be known by Walter White, was born July 1, 1893, at Atlanta, Ga. He was educated at the Atlanta University, receiving his A. B. degree in 1916; he did graduate work at the City College, New York.

He was elected assistant executive secretary of the NAACP in 1918, serving until 1931 when he was elected secretary.

Mr. White attended the second Pan-African conference in England, France and Belgium in 1931.

In the literary field he is the author of "Fire in the Flint," a novel; "Rope and Faggot," a biography of Judge Lynch and has contributed articles to many of the nationally known publications. In 1937 Mr. White was awarded the Spingarn medal.

Mr. White went to Washington about five years ago and personally conducted the campaign of the NAACP which came near defeating the confirmation of Justice Hugo Black when he was nominated for appointment as Supreme Judge.

The NAACP leader was present with Phillip Randolph in the conference with President Roosevelt in June 1941 when the President agreed to and later did sign the Executive Order No. 8802 which practically stopped wholesale discrimination against Negroes in national defense plants.

Because of his fair complexion he has been able to personally witness a number of lynchings, intermingling and visiting with the lynchings and securing first hand information of the lynchings which he used in his biography "Rope and Faggot."

Amateurs to Broadcast on KRNT Saturday at 1:30; Winners to Get Prizes

The curtain will rise Monday night, Oct. 12, at 8:15 o'clock at the Jewish Community Center, Eighth and Forest, on the 1942 edition of the Iowa Bystander's seventh annual Amateur Talent show.

Many amateur singers and dancers will make their first public appearances and many of the favorites or former talent shows will return with new numbers for the competitions.

Entrants have signed up to compete in the vocal, instrumental, song and dance, chorus and novelty groups of the show.

The best numbers from each group will be selected by a competent group of judges and prizes will be awarded the winners.

One of the new features of this year's talent show will be the appearance of a group of nursery students who have learned patriotic numbers and will come before the bright lights and the talent show fans to demonstrate their abilities in choral work, solos and class demonstrations.

Winners Back

Many of the last year's prize winners are returning with new numbers. Among them are Miss Dorothy Claiborne who was a first prize winner in the popular songs group; Earl Coltrun, who stole the show of the kiddies group with his song and dance. Recently he appeared at the service club at Ft. Des Moines and was the hit of the evening.

The girls' trio, Bette Ross, Mary Scott and Gertrude Johnson, last year's winners have been rehearsing for weeks.

The McDonald sisters, Henrietta,

Helen, Rosa and Betty are doing some fast swinging and singing of hot tunes.

Giving them some close competition will be Esther Saunders and Gladys Alexander, Tiny Nanna Mae Alexander, who last year was cooing the "Wise Old Owl," has grown up a bit and will "Knock Me a Kiss" in grand style.

The tiny jitterbug king and queen of the last show, Juanita and Anthony Murray, have some new steps for their audience Monday night.

Songsters, crooners, blues singers will be on parade, featuring everything from semi-classics to drags. There will be the classical songs and the spirituals.

In the novelty group will be a tiny girl, Venus Doyle, who will put on an acrobatic exhibition. She got a big hand at the tryouts Monday night, as she turned cartwheels so fast that the youthful spectators got dizzy.

For the benefit of the nursery students whose bed-times regularly start at sundown, the show will open promptly at the 8:15 o'clock in order that they may go through their performances and be able to leave before a late hour.

The talent show broadcast will be held on Saturday afternoon, from 1:30 to 1:45 o'clock over station KRNT.

Music for the show will be furnished by Cecil Brewton and his orchestra with special solo work done by Miss Doralea Mackay and Miss Donna Marie Washington. Tickets for the show are thirty-five cents for adults and fifteen cents for children.

Crowds Attend Opening of Negro WAAC Service Club

The Week End with the WAAC's sponsored by fifteen organizations of Des Moines offered many pleasant moments for Negro members of the Women's Army Auxiliary corps, beginning Saturday evening, Oct. 3, at the grand opening ceremonies of the Service Club No. 2 for Negro WAAC of the post, religious services, special dinners Sunday and ending Sunday afternoon when many of the WAAC auxiliary attended the open house and tea for the new secretary of the Central Y.W.C.A.

WAAC officials, prominent visitors from out of town and Des Moines soldiers from Camp Dodge, hostesses from the recreational committee, and invited guests crowded the spacious new service club.

Flowers, palms and bright lights enhanced the beauty of the building. Seated in special sections of the hall were WAAC officers and auxiliaries.

Lt. Elizabeth Hampton, special services officer in charge of the program of the evening, presided. Following the invocation by Rev. W. F. Ogleton, pastor of Bethel A. M. E. church, Colonel Don C. Faith, commander of the WAAC training school, brought greetings in an informal message.

Colonel Faith expressed appreciation to the Des Moines sponsors, to the WAAC officers who gave their time to prepare a program. He praised the auxiliary members who have come into the women's army "for a purpose."

"They came in for something tough and that is what they are getting—though they know that the hard work they are getting is just a start," the commandant emphasized.

"I invite you to look at them—to talk to them," Colonel Faith informed the visitors.

Praises Citizens

Praising the hospitality of the Des Moines citizens, the commandant said: "We appreciate it." His wife, Mrs. Faith, was presented to the guests.

Mrs. C. Puttman, WAAC advisor of the women; and Capt. J. Richardson, special services officer of the post, made remarks.

Greetings from the citizens committee were brought by John S. Coleman, president of the Negro Chamber of Commerce.

"We want you to know that Des Moines and all of its citizens welcomes you and feel very proud and fortunate in having our city selected for this training center," Mr. Coleman said.

"You are making history—history that will reflect through the ages, the part you played in this awful drama. Needless to say this will test your loyalty and faith in America; it will call for more sacrifice, patience, tolerance and endurance; it will test your attitude as to whether you are willing to help maintain the progress already apparent, and as true Americans go forward to new gains in establishing freedom, justice and liberty for all mankind."

"Spirit of Pioneers"

"We know you will not fail, for you are the recipients of the spirit of pioneers, who through toil, heartaches and bloodshed, made America what it is today; and, with all of its imperfections and inconsistencies, it is the greatest living democracy; and men as never before are behind for a purpose."

THE TALENT SHOW

For the past six years, the Bystander has been promoting an amateur talent show. It is a feature of one of the four special editions of the Bystander prints annually and is designed to give the youngsters particularly a chance to demonstrate their talent to the public. In this way we have been able to bring out hidden talent that otherwise no one would know about.

The war has made us all do things differently; the show will be no exception to the rule. But even though we are at war, it is important to keep such activities going for they constitute a diversion from the hard tasks before most of us everyday, have a tendency to keep our morale up and actually help rather than, in any way, hinder the war effort.

The numbers in the show have been so classified as to give every type of performer a chance to compete. Prizes for winners are being given.

There are many people who make a contribution to the show including not only the performers but also advertisers who make the special edition possible and the large group of citizens who patronize the effort. The Bystander takes this method of thanking these people for their fine cooperation assuring them their support is appreciated.

WHY CAN'T WE BE FAIR?

T. O. M. Driberg, and independent member of British House of Commons, who writes a column in the London Daily Express, in the course of a debate over the question of discrimination against Negro soldiers in England called upon Prime Minister Churchill "to make friendly representation to American military authorities requesting them to instruct their men that the color bar is not a custom in Britain."

Mr. Churchill in his reply to the request said: "I am hopeful that without any action on my part the points of view of all concerned will be mutually understood and respected."

It is perfectly clear that considerable difficulty has arisen over this question as was the case with Negro soldiers in the AEF during World War I. And it is further proof of the seriousness of the situation that the war department has sent Brigadier General B. O. Davis, first and the only Negro general officer in the service, to England with the apparent purpose of helping to straighten out this difficulty.

The trouble is caused by the fact that British men and women are trying to treat Negro soldiers as human beings welcoming them to their homes, their places of amusement, etc. Some American soldiers are objecting to this with the result that numerous clashes have occurred.

As a precaution the army has been sent mixed military police to patrol certain districts because it was evident that all too often Negroes were not even getting protection from constituted authority in the enjoyment of their rights from service duties.

Sometimes ago the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People asked Secretary Stimson to instruct army units not to discriminate against Negro soldiers or otherwise mistreat them. However, Mr. Stimson rejected the proposal with the idea in mind that such suggestions were unnecessary. We still think the NAACP was right for its long, experience and character.

the heads of our armed service took a bold stand on the question, those in lower rank would know officially that to so indulge in undemocratic treatment of these fellow soldiers because they were black, was against the policy of the war department.

Unfortunately England's hands are not clean on this question of the treatment of minority groups and Mr. Churchill finds himself in the position of the pot calling the kettle black. And, in fact, the United States has been embarrassed to chastise England about the treatment of its minority groups—notably India—for the same reason.

Prime Minister Churchill himself while an able official, is more concerned with maintaining the status quo of the minorities than he is of giving them full democracy, which they don't enjoy now.

It seems so ridiculous that we in America spend our billions in money and countless human beings to fight for the liberation of peoples in other lands, while, at the same time, not only fail to practice what we preach at home but also export that inconsistency to other countries.

Those men who were in the AEF in 1917-19 had full opportunity to experience what is going on in England. The tales some white soldiers told the people—and this writer had that experience—were outrageous, the effort they made to keep Negro men from enjoying the hospitality of those countries, pitiful. But generally speaking, their propaganda fell flat.

Most high ranking officers answer these pleas with the argument that they are in the field to win wars and not to settle racial issues. But to answer them, we say that the morale of their Negro troops nor that of the people back home can never be good unless men of their command are protected. And we shall always have wars unless the cause of racial clashes have been wiped out for in the final analysis they breed wars.

ten years ago assured us that if we would only be patient, he would, in time, make an entering wedge for us by employing one Negro teacher in one of the schools which like Logan and at that time Franklin, had almost fifty percent Negro student attendance.

"After having waited for more than fifteen years for the fulfillment of this gentlemen's agreement which we had with Dr. Studebaker; and he and his then Asst. Dr. A. W. Merrill, both having passed out of office, a little more than a year ago we personally called upon your present Superintendent, and requested him at the beginning of his administration to try to remedy this undemocratic situation; and since that time our chairman has laid before him several communications showing that since we entered this world wide struggle for world democracy and Negroes are being conscripted to fight for democracy in Australia, in Ireland, and even in Africa, our neighboring city Omaha, where they lynched and burned a Negro since World War I, they have employed one Negro teacher, and have publicly announced that they will consider along with others, application from other Negroes who can meet the high standard of learning, experience and character.

Advised by Mcombs

"We are advised by Dr. Mcombs that all these communications have been laid before your Honor. I am sure that you will be convinced that you should make any change in your rule under which he has no authority to recommend the employment of a single Negro teacher; and has suggested that we come before you and present our side of the question.

"Having been advised by your very efficient Secretary, Mr. Geo. A. Garton, that you would be in session at this time and would hear anything we have to say upon the subject, we are here, to lay before you this brief written statement and to make any oral comments that your Honorable body might permit.

"Thanking you for the privilege you have thus extended, and hoping that after having heard brief oral statements from the various members of our committee present, you shall give our petition your prayerful consideration; and like the Des Moines Electric and Gas Co. and the Des Moines Municipal Water Works, you shall find some way to encourage our boys and girls who are graduating from the various colleges and universities of the state; and to raise the morale of our sons who are to-day in Australia, and in Ireland, and in Africa, fighting for World Wide Democracy, by greatly increasing the number of Negroes in your janitor service, placing one or more in your regular Attendance Staff and placing at least one Negro teacher upon the staff, we are, most courteously,

Yours for Democracy at Home as well as Abroad,
Des Moines Negro Civic Committee."

TOME TOWN BOYS

SCORE IN ARMY

In an "I. Q." test at Dale Mabry Field, Tallahassee, Fla., three Iowa boys topped the class of some 1,200 from all over the country. They were Quentin Mease, Frank Kaiser and Eugene Rhoten and finished in that order. At Tuskegee Army Flying School, Tuskegee, Ala., our freshmen are catching on— from upper classmen, but we guess they can take it. Smith received all "A's" in his radio code tests and he with an Illinois University grad led the class in math.

We hear the mosquitos down in Florida are so large the boys have dubbed them "B-IG's"—you must know your airplanes to appreciate that.

PRESIDENT

REV. McALLISTER

The Rev. C. Lopez McAllister, pastor of the Maple Street Baptist church, was elected president of the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance at its first meeting of the year 1942-43, Tuesday at the Blue Triangle Branch Y.W.C.A.

The election of officers was the first item of business. Other officers are: Rev. E. N. Whaley, pastor of the Burns Methodist church, vice president; Rev. W. F. Ogleton, pastor of Bethel A.M.E. church, secretary-treasurer; Rev. H. C. Boyd, pastor of St. Paul A.M.E. church, chairman of the program committee; Rev. George W. Robinson, chairman of the special committee; Rev. S. S. Ingram, city missionary.

The guest speaker for the meeting was the Rev. E. A. Adams, of Columbia S. C., educational secretary of the A.M.E. church.

Folks at home should send the boys papers and clippings—preferably clippings because some of the boys write back that they do not receive the Negro papers that are sent to some of the camps in the South. Quentin Mease seems to have natural gravitation to an office—he is acting staff sergeant.

Cliff Lovelady at Puget Sound Navy Yard, Washington, is eating turkey and ice cream. Eating seems to be the subject he is majoring in.

Promoted

Word has been received here of the promotion of Loyatus A. Clark to the rank of corporal. He is stationed at the air base at MacDill Field, Fla. Before being inducted last May he resided here at 1370 E. 19th street.

DRAKE SQUEEZED BY GRINNELL

We went out and watched Drake Stagger past Grinnell 7-6 Friday night. Don Welcher was inserted as a starting tackle and looked good in spots. He played as if he just didn't care at times and then he looked great on some plays. Don doesn't like to play tackle and we can't blame him much when he has to learn his new position the hard way. Get up off the back of your lap and try again.

Bob Ewing started at fullback and threw some neat backs. His ball packing was spotty because he just didn't seem to get much blocking. There seems to be something wrong with the Drake squad. A big line, some good passers and kickers as well as ball carriers Drake should go places, but it seems as if the club is torn by apparent dissent. What the trouble is, we don't know, but it seems to be between the white boys also. If they ever get it straightened out, Drake will be tough. Remember this is a personal guess, and could be miles wrong.

East Tied at Oskaloosa

East High journeyed to Oskaloosa and went home with a scoreless tie. Lonnie Howard, according to the papers, was the big gun for East. Lonnie says he had two forty-yard runs called back and then was caught by the safety man just when it looked as if he might get away. Bob Wright also turned in a tough game at end. Lonnie said he nearly nailed Wright with a touchdown pass late in the game. These lads might be worth seeing.

Ray Robinson Again

We heard a fellow arguing the other day about Ray Robinson after he had made his successful debut as a middleweight by punching the daylights out of some guy. This fellow said Robinson had fought and whipped everything he could reach in the lightweight class, and then moved through the welterweight division.

without ever a shot at the champion and now he was moved up to the middleweight class to kill him. This is a logical argument and makes me wonder just how much the boxing game appreciates Joe Louis and his contribution to boxing. The simple answer is they have.

Negro College Football

The war and draft has taken its toll of Negro college stars. Then, there don't seem to be any Negro service teams to let our boys play while they are in the army. So far as we know there are no Negro service teams except those who play each other at camp. We believe a group of former Negro college stars on a team like the Seahawks of the Army All Stars would be a great drawing card to raise funds for any army relief fund. But it seems that the physical program of the army doesn't touch Negro soldiers much. Maybe Negro college ball will struggle along.

Tuskegee, Ala.—Calling the attention of the Department of Justice to the aura of mystery surrounding the assault upon and the jailing of Second Lieut. Nora Green of the Tuskegee Army Air Corps School medical detachment, September 12, the NAAACP this week told Victor Rothem, Chief of the department's Civil Rights Section that "it becomes more and more apparent that strong forces are at work trying to hush up the matter" and demanded immediate investigation of the case.

A. A.—Why are my parents so strict on me? I am 15 years old and would like to enjoy life as a young girl of my age should. But my parents won't let me go to dances very often or do any of the things other young girls do. How can I change them so I will have more freedom?

Ans.: It is so sad that young teenage girls won't try to see their parent's viewpoint about their social life—rather than considering them old fogies. Due to your age, your parents have been unusually generous in allowing you social privileges. But you have abused them by selecting the wrong crowd of boys to go with. They have no intentions of letting you run wild and get a bad name for yourself by going with the wrong people. Before you expect more leniency from them, you must use more discretion in the selection of your friends. If you would invite your boy friends to your home and let them meet your parents, they would think a great deal more of you.

F. J.—I have been going with this man for several years. Last month he married another girl and now he still comes to see me. He tells me he doesn't care anything about her and is going to leave her. Should I trust him?

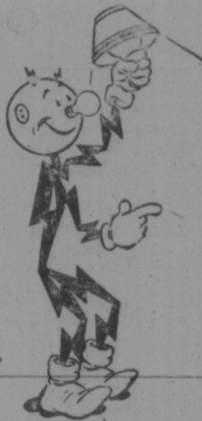

Ans.: About as far as you could throw an elephant by his tail. It is a mystery to me how a man can find 'em, fool 'em and forget 'em and still go back to his jilted sweetheart and give her a little sweet talk—and she will let him make a door mat of her again. Certainly you shouldn't trust him. He had two long years to marry you if he had ever intended to. The fact that he preferred someone else to share his name and marriage with him should be ample proof that you were nothing but a sideline. At least have pride enough not to be a hanger-on. He doesn't have the remotest idea of leaving his wife.
