HANDY PUBLISHES "THE NEGRO SINGS OF RIVERS"

New York (ANP)—Handy Brothers Music company has just announced the publication of one of the most important numbers it has produced, "The Negro Sings of Rivers." Four outstanding artists joined with W. C. Handy in the production. The poem is by famed Langston Hughes. The music was composed by the talented Margaret Bonds. On the cover is a reproduction of a painting by Richmond Barthe of Etta Moten, contralto. Miss Moten has presented the song as one of the most popular numbers on her concert programs from one end of the country to the other during the past two years, but it was unpublished. Continued demand for it encouraged Mr. Handy to make it a de luxe publication.

LAUNCH NEW TANKER, SPARROWS POINT

Washington, D. C.—In recognition of a successful scrap salvage campaign and an outstanding record for participation in the War Bond Drive, a new tanker launched at the Bethlehem-Sparrows Point Shipyard, Inc. on October 17, is named the Sparrows Point, the Maritime Commission announced.

The workers of the Bethlehem Sparrows Point yard, including approximately 575 Negroes, salvaged more than 3,000 tons of scrap, the equivalent of the amount needed to construct a new vessel, during a month and a half campaign. More than 5,200 Negroes are employed in the adjoining Bethlehem steel mill, and an additional 2,000 are now working at the Bethlehem-Fairfield Shipyard.

TO MOVE HASJIE OFFICE

Washington (ANP)—Plans for the removal of the office of civilian aide to the secretary of war from its present location in the Munitions building to the new Pentagon building and the change is expected to occur at an early date. This will take Judge Hastie, Truman Gibson and Louis Lauer to the scene of the assault which nearly created a riot when a Negro worker was set on by a building firm guard.

D. C. OKAYS MARIAN'S DAR REPLY

Washington (ANP)—Considerable satisfaction is expressed among Negroes here over the Marian Anderson reply to the DAR concerning the invitation to sing in Constitution hall. Miss Anderson consented to sing as requested by the DAR with two provisions: "First, there would be no segregation at the concert and that Negroes would be permitted to sit wherever they could purchase seats; Second, this would serve as a precedent and in the future, Constitution hall would be available for other concerts without any strings tied to the agreement. Before the DAR would answer Miss Anderson was advised the matter would be taken up at the next board of managers meeting scheduled to be held on Friday, Oct. 30.

JAPANESE TO BE PERMITTED TO LEAVE CAMPS AND SEEK WORK

Los Angeles (ANP)—Resettlement of large numbers of Japanese Americans and their families outside the Pacific Coast Military area was forecast in a letter addressed to the War Relocation Authority at Washington by the American Civil Liberties union commending regulations just announced permitting "indefinite leaves" to take employment elsewhere. The entire Pacific coast population of Japanese origin evacuated by military orders has been concentrated in seven "relocation centers" in California, Arizona, Colorado and Arkansas. This move was attacked as "color prejudice" since German and Italian aliens were not disturbed and Japanese Americans were.

White Blasts Discrimination In Iowa

WAACs MEET NAACP HEADS

Walter White, center left, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, was photographed with seven Negro Third Officers of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps on the steps of the headquarters building of the WAAC Training Center at Fort Des Moines when he visited the post recently.

White was accompanied by Ike Smalls, center right, head of the Ike Smalls Medical Aid Society and the president of the Des Moines NAACP branch, Des Moines. The Third Officers, who are members of a special class being trained for recruiting duty, and who accompanied the visitors on the tour, are, clockwise around White and Smalls: Mildred E. Carter, Boston; Elizabeth B. Hampton, and Harriette B. White, Los Angeles; Glendora Moore, New York City; Evelyn F. Greene, Washington, D. C.; Dovey M. Johnson, Charlotte, N. C.; and Doris M. Norrel, Indianapolis, Ind. (Photo courtesy WAAC Public Relations Bureau).

Mississippi Breaks Record With 3 Lynchings in Week

Laurel, Miss.—Breaking all lynching records, the state of Mississippi has to its record, the hanging of three Negroes within a single week. Not content with lynching two 14-year-old boys at Quitman, Miss., Monday, Oct. 12, a mob broke into the jail at Laurel here Saturday, Oct. 17, and took Howard Wash who had already been convicted by a jury and sentenced to life imprisonment. A lynching after the "law has taken its course" was almost unheard of until the Mississippi mob gave its performance Saturday morning. Wash was convicted Friday for the murder, May 18 of Clint Welborn, dairyman and employer of Wash. The accused man was given a trial by jury but the jury could not agree on Wash's punishment. In that case, under the Mississippi law, he faced a mandatory sentence of life imprisonment. Apparently incensed because the man was not sentenced to die, a mob of 100 or more went to the county jail, overpowered Sheriff J. Press Reddoch and three deputies and took Wash from their custody. Wash's body was found hanging from a small creek bridge known as "Weyborn's bridge" near the home of the dead dairyman. Immediately after the third lynching, two companies of state guards were sent to the jail here from Jackson to guard other prisoners in the Laurel jail. Five other Negro prisoners were taken to Jackson for safe-keeping.

BODIES OF SOLDIER AND WOMAN ALLOWED TO REMAIN ON TRACKS

Nashville (ANP)—Because Nashville police officers "Don't ride Niggers in the ambulance" maintained by taxpayers, the bodies of a soldier, Clyde Stewart, and his companion, Annie Mae Rivers, 20, were horribly mutilated here last week after the couple had been either murdered or run down by a train on the tracks of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad. The bodies of Stewart, a member of the 86th quartermaster corps, and Miss Rivers, a resident of Nashville, were discovered by another member of the corps about 11:40 p. m. The discovery was reported to the police immediately, but none arrived on the scene until 8 a. m. the next morning. Four trains or more pass over the tracks where the bodies lay during the hours between 12 midnight and 8 o'clock, and when the police did arrive, remains of the bodies of the couple were scattered for more than 600 feet along the track. When questioned about this neglect, police replied that "niggers" are not carried in Nashville ambulances.

Corporal Gibson On Furlough

Corp. Charles L. R. Gibson, 1167 Eleventh street, is home on a seven-day furlough from Camp Crowder, Mo., 258 Signal Corp Construction company. The boys there work with everything dealing with communication. Corp. Gibson related. Two other Des Moines boys are: Cephus Simpson and Quincy McQueery. A recently organized Negro glee club has been broadcasting over the radio every Sunday at 5:45 p. m. Corporal Gibson is the instructor in first aid and acting as company supply sergeant. A World War No. 1 veteran, he enlisted here July 24.

MATT FOUNTAIN AND J. COATES AT FT. LEONARD WOOD

Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.—Matt Fountain and Jamason Coates of the Des Moines area, who recently entered military service, have arrived at the Engineer Replacement Training Center here, for an intensive training program in preparation for combat engineer duty. They are assigned to the 7th Engineer Training Group (Colored).

REV. H. R. FIELDS OF HUNTSVILLE AT UNION BAPTIST

Rev. H. R. Fields of Huntsville, Mo., will preach Friday night and through Sunday night at the Union Baptist church, McCormick and East University. He opened a series of services Wednesday night.

Man Kills Self; Wounds Mrs. Glorene McClain

The condition of Mrs. Glorene McClain, 31, 1020 Tenth street, who was critically wounded late Saturday night, Oct. 17, is reported to be still serious at Broadlawn General hospital.

Mrs. McClain was shot in the left breast and arm by Jack Burns, who shot and killed himself on the sidewalk near E. Twenty-fourth street and Easton boulevard, after he had shot and seriously wounded Mrs. McClain.

Mrs. McClain, whose condition has prevented her from making a statement, was able to reveal that Burns had followed her on the bus that night. When she attempted to alight, he told her that she could not get off, relatives said. The shooting took place after she left the bus.

Mrs. McClain a native of Marshalltown, Iowa, returned to Des Moines in May from Washington, D. C., where she had been doing government work. She has formerly lived in Chicago before going to Washington.

Funeral services for Burns were held Tuesday from the L. Fowler and Son Funeral home with the Rev. E. M. Whaley, officiating. Surviving is his widow, Mrs. Rosa Lee Burns of Kansas City, Mo., who was here for the funeral. Burial is in Glendale cemetery.

Burns had come to Des Moines in 1930. He was a native of Tennessee.

CLEVELAND JUDGE 'WINGS OVER JORDAN' SPEAKER

Cleveland (ANP)—Perry B. Jackson, recently appointed judge of the municipal court here, made the first radio talk since his appointment last Sunday over the "Wings over Jordan," Columbia network program. Urging an all-out fight on both the home and battle fronts for democracy Judge Jackson said we must turn every effort to the preservation of freedom of worship, freedom of speech, and freedom of the press, and toward the beginning of equality of opportunity.

A Phi Beta Kappa from Western Reserve university, Judge Jackson has practiced law here since 1922, and has been an active leader in progressive movements.

LT. ROBERT EWING COMMISSIONED AT CAMP LEE

Camp Lee, Va.—Commissioned at impressive graduation ceremonies Oct. 16 at Camp Lee's Quartermaster School, 23 colored soldiers are now lieutenants in the Quartermaster Corps.

Among the list of colored soldiers who received their commissions is Lt. Robert Ewing of Des Moines, the husband of Mrs. Margaret Green Ewing, 337 E. Broad street.

Mrs. Ewing daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henderson Green, was one of the guests at the graduation ceremonies.

NAACP Head Says Racial Problems Must Be Solved Now--Not After Armistice

The problems of racial discrimination must be solved "right now—not after the armistice has been signed," Walter White, national secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People told an audience of 1,500 white and colored citizens here at the Shrine Auditorium Friday night, Oct. 16.

Speaking on the second of the public school forum programs which are sponsored by the adult education department of the Board of Education, Mr. White discussed "Race and the Four Freedoms."

"These are the sort of evils that have gone on in the past—which have built up a body of hostile opinion. They are most tragic—they show the needlessness of many of the things we do so thoughtlessly or credulously.

"Yet, I see evidences of how easily these prejudices can be removed," he continued as he pointed out progress.

"In the last war they thought it impossible to train Negro and white officers, but a good job is being done at Fort Benning, Ga. Negro and white officers are being trained together, are eating, sleeping and studying with white officers at Fort Benning.

"Here in Des Moines—a Northern city—the army pattern has not been able to move far forward at the WAAC training camp at Ft. Des Moines. Of course I do not approve of the segregation of Negro WAACs."

"There is something hopeful about it," he said, pointing out that young southern white women who have come from the deep south have been able to adjust themselves without friction at the training center.

"These white women from the south have become so imbued with democracy that they have been able to discard southern bigotry," he said. "But when is Des Moines in general going to become as democratic as the white WAACs from the south?" he asked.

Refuse WAACs

"Ninety-nine of your public eating places here refuse to serve the colored WAACs," Mr. White revealed. He told of a southern white WAAC who was surprised to find that Negro WAACs couldn't enter some Des Moines restaurants unless accompanied by a white person.

Mr. White added that the white WAAC told the Negro WAAC, "Any time you want to go into a restaurant, just call on me and I'll go with you."

"It becomes clearer every day that, unless the United States and its allies meet the race issue courageously, the Axis will win the war," Mr. White declared.

"India's seething millions see little difference between white masters or yellow ones," he added, "even as did the people of Burma and Malay."

"Indians, in India, Negroes in the United States, the Caribbean and Africa, and other colored peoples of the world today ask the so-called white nations:

"Why is it noble and heroic for white peoples to fight for their freedom and treasonable for colored peoples to fight for theirs?"

Mr. White pointed out that the "forces of bigotry and reaction are cold-bloodedly utilizing the war emergency not only to block any change in the status quo but to impose even more vicious restraint on minorities. He referred to Talmadge and Dixon as "demagogues."

"These men have a very definite plan."

The speaker told of the brutal attack upon Roland Hayes, celebrated Negro singer, who was beaten and jailed in his native state, Georgia, when he and his wife and child went back home this summer. Mr. White listed the lynchings of the two fourteen-year-old boys in Mississippi last week.

"Tokyo and Berlin propagandists are gloating over the United Nations in Europe and Asia," Mr. White said, "by exploiting our racial abuses at home."

He pointed out that in this "definite pattern of segregation which you have here in Iowa as well as in Birmingham, Ala.," revealed itself in the segregation of the Negro in jobs, in segregated areas where the Negro pays higher rent, higher food prices.

"This difference in the cost of food alone amounts to more than one hundred million dollars per year," he declared.

Criticizing the discrimination against Negroes with respect to public accommodations and in religious institutions exists in Des Moines, Mr. White queried, "Isn't it about time that we stop being so insincere and hypocritical about this question of democracy? Isn't it about time that we begin to practice what we so often talk about?"

He related a story of the white American who boasted that his ancestors "came over on the Mayflower," and, the Negro who said his ancestors "came to this country on a slave ship."

"But—we are all in the same boat, now," Mr. White declared.

"These problems must be solved—right now—not after the armistice has been signed," Mr. White said and added that "or we are going to find ourselves in the same boat—sinking down into the sea of dictatorship."

On the panel were Dr. Stoddard Lane, Atty. S. Joe Brown, Mrs. George C. Morris, Mrs. Horace Hollingsworth and Ike Smalls.

Following the address of Mr. White personally met a group of WAACs and citizens who were guests at a reception at the Blue Triangle branch

Cab Calloway Here Friday At Paramount for 4 Days

Cab Calloway who brings his internationally famous orchestra to the Paramount Theatre for four big days starting Friday, October 23rd, in addition to being a first class showman in his own right earned right, waves a baton over an orchestra which comes pretty close to musical perfection.

Not satisfied to provide his audiences with an average outfit, Calloway has spent ten years assembling and developing his present group. Among the top flight musicians featured with Cab are Benny Payne, pianist and vocalist, Jonah Jones, one of the nation's top trombonists, and J. C. Heard, who will be a sensation although he has but recently joined this musical organization.

However, Calloway does not depend upon this top-notch orchestra to provide all the entertainment in his show. Among colored stars are Paul Dinky and Eddie, three funny fellows; Honi Coles, dancer; Cholly and Dotty, ace dancers; Anise Boyer; The Calloway Rug-Cutters; The Caboliers and many other entertainers. The feature picture to be shown at the Paramount Theatre starting Friday will be "Friendly Enemies," starring Charles Winninger and Charles Ruggles.

For the finest in stage and screen entertainment, don't fail to see Cab Calloway and his Cotton Club Orchestra in a Jumpin' Jive Revue starting Friday for four big days at the Paramount Theatre.

W. T.—I have a brother who has been married 3 years. His wife doesn't seem to want him to do anything for his own people. He seems to go her way and treats his own people cold for her sake. Now I don't think she cares anything about him only for his work. Answer this question and tell me what I can do for him.

Ans.: Just leave him alone and let him live his own life. Your family has little regard or respect for his wife and she knows it—and that is why she doesn't bother to come around you any more often. His first duty is toward her—not the family. Your sister-in-law wouldn't live with her husband if she didn't love him. But she doesn't have any intentions of having money that is rightfully hers doled out to someone else. Your brother would think a great deal more of you and other members of the family if you would accept his wife and recognize her rightful position in the family.

R. W.—I really need a good husband. I have been going with this man about two years and he wants me to marry him. I am about 4 years older than he is, but he says he will get my divorce and we can get married right away. He says he will never save any money without a wife. He is real good to his mother and I believe he would be good to me.

Ans.: Two years is plenty long enough for this man to have made up his mind about you. He is still eager to marry you. You have known him long enough to know that he is an upright, conscientious man. I can think of no reason why you shouldn't marry him. In your case, this age difference wouldn't matter a great deal.

A. T.—I have completed high school and I am now taking a business course. I am doing fine. I would like to know if I will be successful in getting employment.

Ans.: Finish your course. You need not worry about employment. My suggestion is that you take the Civil Service as a Jr. Stenographer upon completion. There are more openings in government service for stenographers now than there has ever been before.

Dot—About two weeks ago I went to a dance and while I was there I fell for a boy the minute I looked at him. I would like to be a very close friend of his and I would also like to know how I can get acquainted with him. Tell me would it be nice if I were to walk up to him and make myself acquainted? Of course, I am nice looking and dress nice so everybody says.

Ans.: This brazen method of introduction wouldn't put you in a very favorable light, especially in the eyes of this man. If you are sincerely interested in meeting him, why don't you ask the young fellow he was with to introduce you? Sometimes young men are inclined to judge you by first impressions—and you don't want to give him the wrong idea.

PERSONAL TOUCH By MARIE ROSS

A minister's wife who is quite a hobbyist is Mrs. H. C. Boyd, who four years ago started from "scratch" with two tiny dogs. Now she has collected—from all parts of the country—135 dogs—which have their respective places on an antique what-not case in her dining room.

Loading at all of the dogs—ranging from minute to nearly pup sizes, I could not help but groan at all of the just that collects daily, weekly and monthly on the miniatures. "How do you dust them—it must take days to give them a bath?" were questions that Mrs. Boyd laughed at. She disagreed and expressed what a "pleasure" it was. She has the dusting and cleaning days figured down to fifteen minutes. When she has collected 200 little glass, salt, china, metal, clay animals, she will be satisfied. Until then she will keep her scouts on the lookout for more dogs for her hobby.

Another hobby of several years back came to light when Mrs. Boyd opened a Clifina dish case and brought out dozens of pieces of handpainted dishes, cups and saucers and sets, with delicate colors and unusual designs, all bearing her name in some tiny spot. This is truly a hobby that would be an inspiration to any art student or fan.

Many of the needle-minded persons who have contributed regularly to the annual art exhibits will have to do some fast shifting this year if they have any articles for the exhibit the Dillitane club sponsors, for this year no knitting, sewing, embroidery, crocheting or hand work will be in the contest. Only paintings, drawings and sculpturing will be entered and judged Nov. 18-22.

USO Program Gets Started

The Negro USO headquarters for members of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps and men of the armed forces opened temporary quarters this week at 1201 Keoway.

Directing the headquarters are: Miss Ann T. Wolfolk recently of Chicago, Ill., and Miss Alma M. Priestley who arrived in the city during the week end from Washington, D. C.

Both of the women will be kept busy promoting activities for the entertainment for the women and men in the armed forces.

Among the first of the USO activities for the WAACS and soldiers was a reception at the Blue Triangle Branch Y.W.C.A. Friday night following the Walter White lecture at the Shrine auditorium. Saturday night a party was given at the Negro Community center at which men and women soldiers and officer candidates from Grinnell university were guests. Mrs. Lillian Edmunds and Mrs. Marguerite Cothorn worked jointly with the USO in sponsoring this event.

Sunday afternoon the USO held the first in a series of Coffee Hours for civilians, WAACS and soldiers. Mrs. Korinne Jackson was chairman of the entertainment.

The USO has planned a matinee dance on Saturday; and horseback riding early Sunday morning. Another Coffee Hour will be held Sunday afternoon at the Negro Community Center. A current event forum will be featured.

USO AND CITIZENS GROUP HOLD FIRST COFFEE HOUR

The USO and the Citizens Advisory committee sponsored the first in a series of Sunday afternoon Coffee Hours for the members of the WAAC and service men, held Oct. 18, at the Blue Triangle branch Y.W.C.A.

The theme for this hour was music. The following program was given: piano solo, Miss Georgine Mason; vocal solo, Miss Alberta Bates; group singing led by Mrs. Joburness Kelso, accompanied by Mrs. Beatrice Robinson; piano prelude played by Mr. John Coleman.

A lovely fall coffee table was arranged carrying out the red, yellow and green colors of autumn in napkins and candles and a centerpiece of fruit and vegetables. Coffee and tea were poured by Mesdames Doris Wilson and Maxine Banning.

USO directors Miss Anna Wolfolk, recently of Chicago; and Miss Alma Priestley who arrived here during the week end from Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Bertha Wolder was hostess. The program and table were planned by Mrs. Korinne Jackson.

GENERAL DAVIS' REPORT

General E. O. Davis, sent to England to investigate friction between white and Negro soldiers, has made his findings which were announced by the war department last week. In the report he states: "There has been some friction reported but I do not think it is unusual or unexpected."

He attributed most of the incidents to "resentment on the part of white soldiers at the way the British are entertaining Negro soldiers" and declared that the United States army was making no discrimination in the handling of whites and Negroes.

All the things the general stated we know in advance. As far as the Bystander has been able to ascertain, nobody claimed the United States army was making discrimination against Negroes within their own units or that the men were unhappy.

ENCOURAGING REPORT

"Conditions among Negroes in America, while far from satisfactory, are getting better, and they will improve in proportion that strong organizations like the NAACP are given the proper support and the white people recognize in this grave crisis that the democracy we are fighting for abroad be made a practical part of our American life," said Walter White of New York, who in Des Moines, last week.

This, the Bystander has felt all along and while it recognizes that we are dealing with more problems today than ever before, these problems have been there all along but we did little or nothing about them.

He said that in his travels over the country, he found Negroes more aggressive, better organized and more willing to spend their money to better their civic, political and economic well-being.

RESULTS NEEDED

Mississippi certainly outdid itself or any other state by lynching three Negroes last week. Two were reported in the Negro press last week, one occurred Saturday. The latter happened after the defendant had been tried for murder, convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment. If this is not Hitlerism then there is none. Evidently some people just don't want to act like anything other than heathens. Dogs do little worse.

LINCOLN POST

Checkers

The checker board and its checkers have really been put to use since their arrival. Checker poor players are sending out a desperate SOS. "Is there anybody in the membership who can pin back the ears of Art 'Slim' McCune? Robert 'One Round' Thompson developed bad eyes after several series and gave up the attempt. Little Buddy Lewis can lose more games in the shortest time and smile through it all. He is the best loser and probably the most experienced one in the whole Association. Come on out and gang up on McCune. You can find him any evening around five.

SPORTS

DRAKE SWAMPED 28-6

Drake went up to Iowa State last week and got a good pasting by the inspired Cyclones, but the Negro boys didn't have a lot to be blamed for. Don Welcher, who swears he doesn't want to play tackle and doesn't want to play it blocked a punt as his contribution to a vain effort. Bob Ewing furnished the Drake fans their one thrill when the boys got him out into the open and he raced eighty-four yards for the only score his team got.

West Waterloo Stops East

We watched East High put up a gallant but losing battle against a bigger and better Waterloo team, 14-13. Lonnie Howard had one of those awful days that everyone has at times. He got a short lead from center on the first offensive play of the game and the resulting fumble cost East High a touchdown. Then he couldn't get his bearings on a pass play and a pass was completed over him. He was removed and put back.

WHITE WRITER FINDS NEGRO TROOPS IN IRELAND WELL DISCIPLINED

Washington (ANP)—Discussing the presence of Negro troops in Northern Ireland, Quentin Reynolds, topnotch war correspondent for Collier's magazine, writes: "When the Negro troops arrived, the usual 'viewers-with-alarm' envisioned all kinds of trouble. None of it has materialized. I visited them."

BRANDS LYNCHERS AS 'MURDERERS'

Jackson, Miss. (ANP)—Gov. Paul B. Johnson has branded the lynchers of 14-year-old Charles Lang and Ernest Green "murderers" and has appointed a special investigator to make a "thorough probe of this outrageous incident."

SENATOR FAUL

State Senator George Faul, Republican candidate for re-election at the general election November 3, is an outstanding friend of the Negro race. He has already demonstrated his interest and friendship, and many favors have come to the Negro as a result of his interest in the welfare of the race. His many friends among the Negroes are giving him active support.
