New York—The Negro Newspaper Publishers association ended its 5th annual convention here Saturday after one of the most significant sessions in its history. Most of the officers were reelected for another term.

The officers are: John H. Sengstacke, Chicago, president; Alexander D. Barnes, Washington, eastern vice president; Frank L. Howard M. Murphy was reelected secretary-treasurer. Members of the executive committee are William O. Walker, Cleveland; Cecil Newman, St. Paul; Mrs. Robert L. Vann, Pittsburgh; J. E. Mitchell, St. Louis and L. E. Austin, Durham, N. C.

Newbold Morris, president of the New York city council, greeted the delegates on behalf of the city at the first session Thursday, June 15.

In his annual address, Sengstacke pointed out that "as publishers of newspapers dedicated to the winning of the war and the peace, we abhor those subversive policies which prevent Negro citizens from effective participation in our war effort." He lauded the Negro press in taking its "rightful place as a leading force in our great nation."

'WHAT NEGRO SOLDIER EXPECTS' IS TOPIC FOR NAACP MEET

New York—Captain Grant Reynolds, who was retired as an army chaplain in January, will address the Wartime Conference of the NAACP in Chicago July 13 on the subject, "What the Negro Soldier Expects." The NAACP meeting will open on Wednesday night, July 12, and run through Sunday afternoon, July 16. Sessions will be in the Metropolitan Community Center, 41st street and South Parkway, except the Sunday meeting which will be staged in Washington Park near the lagoon.

ARMY ENGINEERS COMPLETE SECOND HEAVY BOMBER BASE

Headquarters, European Theater of Operations—The second heavy bomber base built by a United States Army Engineer Aviation Regiment was dedicated in England recently. Major General Curtis E. LeMay, of the Air Forces, received the base from Major General Cecil R. Moore, Chief Engineer of the European Theater of Operations. The ceremony took place only six months after the dedication of the first heavy bomber base built by these same Negro troops.

"All of the runways, the perimeter track, hard standings and French drains were installed by the engineers in record time. Presently, in addition to their construction work, they are responsible for the maintenance and repair of sixteen air bases. The regiment boasts a chorus of 200 voices, "The Army Negro Chorus" which has been heard in the celebrated Albert Hall in London and elsewhere in the United Kingdom.

Included in the regiment is Pfc. James E. Anderson, Jr., 318 Bates street, Waterloo, Iowa.

Dr. Rayford Logan, Historian, At Corinthian Friday

"Too many Americans have sought to impose their cultural traits and their prejudices upon European peoples," Rayford Logan, Negro historian and member of the Nelson Rockefeller committee, spoke Tuesday at the 1944 Midwest Institute of International Relations at Drake university.

"The United States and its people are envied, hated and feared, but I doubt that we are anywhere loved," he said.

Dr. Logan, an authority on Latin America, is appearing frequently on the institute program during the remainder of the week.

Friday night, at 8 o'clock, he will speak at the Corinthian Baptist church, in a meeting open to the public.

A member of the department of history at Howard University, Washington, D. C., he received his degree of doctor of philosophy from Harvard university.

"Discussions centering around the role of labor after the war, the status of Russia and the possible difficulty of reconciling American and European ideologies this week highlighted the opening sessions of the Midwest Institute of International Relations at Drake university.

Fifth Annual NAACP State Parley Ends In Ottumwa

By S. JOE BROWN
The fifth annual conference of NAACP Iowa Branches was held in Ottumwa last Saturday and Sunday with about fifty delegates in attendance representing both Senior and Junior divisions of six cities: Des Moines, Waterloo, Marshalltown, Cedar Rapids, Ottumwa and Burlington with Atty. M. F. Fields of Waterloo, presiding.

All the delegates deplored the absence of Mrs. Georgine C. Morris, the founder and first president, who was recuperating from an operation at her home in Des Moines and as soon as the conference was opened it authorized the Secretary, Mrs. Rose Bannan Johnson to send her a telegram of regret of her absence.

The Senior sessions were held in the spacious auditorium of the Mt. Zion A.M.E. church with the Junior Council under the direction of Mrs. Irma Morrow of Marshalltown holding their separate business session in the lecture room below.

Among the outstanding events of the conference were the presence of Miss Noma Jensen of New York City, one of the National Field Secretaries, who in addition to making several contributions to the regular program gave the principal address on a half hour broadcast over station KBIZ where she was introduced by Atty. S. Joe Brown of Des Moines, a former Ottumwa boy is the only member of the National Board resident in Iowa and was preceded by a brief talk by Ike Smalls of Des Moines who is first vice president of were joined by Hans Simons, W. H. Chamberlin, Rayford Logan and John Somerville in a give and take discussion of the "Future Social Order of Europe."

"Religion, world government—and how to achieve a just peace will be topics receiving attention in sessions Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The first of the week the Institute will turn to a study of China and Japan and the "Conflicting Imperialisms in the Pacific," the latter being the title of one of the addresses.

The final session of the ten-day program will be at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday when Devere Allen, noted writer on foreign affairs will evaluate "The Role of American Thought in the Post War World."

More than 100 Iowans are in residence on the Drake campus during the Institute and will take home from it a blue print for community action toward the solving of world problems. In addition, there have been, of course, large audiences of Des Moines persons, Drake summer students and midwesterners from surrounding states.

the State Conference and donor of the Ike Smalls Award, a silver loving cup that is awarded each year to the Branch outside Des Moines, bringing up the best report and who announced that next year he would add another cup to be awarded to the Junior Council bringing up the best report.

The entire program on Saturday evening was in charge of the Juniors, the outstanding number upon which was the oration upon the subject, "Rotter at the Core," by Lawrence Doolin of the Ottumwa council, which he had delivered in the contest at the Baptist Young Peoples Convention in Des Moines and upon which he would have won first place had it not been for his having selected a subject other than those listed for the contest.

Tour Naval Base
On Sunday afternoon and immediately preceding the final session, Capt. Day, Commanding Officer of the Naval Air Base located just north of the city sent in a large motor bus in charge of Lieut. Peck, personnel officer, which transported the entire delegation out to and throughout the inspection tour of the base, then returned them to the church.

During this tour it was learned that there are at the base about two hundred fifty Negro sailors and that they are expecting to have about that many more in the near future; but that there is a woeful lack of recreational and social facilities in the city of Ottumwa, which affords less than fifty eligible young women for the entertainment of this large group of young men—hence the Conference passed a resolution instructing its President to send a communication to the Commanding Officer of the base requesting that he communicate with the Commanding Officer of the WAC Camp at Ft. Des Moines with a view (SEE EDITORIAL PAGE)

Senator Gillette Votes For Passage; Senator Wilson Not Recorded As Voting

Washington, D. C.—The senate Tuesday refused, on a 39 to 21 roll call, to kill the president's fair employment practices committee (FEPC.)

The vote was on a $500,000 appropriation for the FEPC in a $1,030,000,000 war agencies supply bill. The FEPC was set up to combat racial and religious discrimination in industry.

The main argument of the southerners was that FEPC was aiming for social equality rather than against economic discrimination. Supporting the FEPC, Senator Scott W. Lucas (Dem. Ill.) said: "Job discrimination is indefensible when manpower bottlenecks are impeding the war effort."

Thirteen southern senators who opposed the fund were supported by seven Republicans and one western Democrat, Edwin C. Johnson of Colorado, but 16 Republicans joined with 23 Democrats to override their objections. Senator Claude Pepper of Florida was the only Democrat from the deep south who voted with the majority.

Senator Guy M. Gillette (Dem. Ia.) voted against eliminating the fund while Senator George A. Wilson (Rep. Ia.) was not recorded as voting on the issue.

The vote by which the senate refused to strike from the war agencies appropriation bill a $500,000 fund to finance the fair employment practices committee:

PERSONAL TOUCH.

By MARIE ROSS

For weeks and months—everything has been about the anniversary edition—that it is rather difficult to get the fingers on the typewriter to write anything else—unless it has some mention of the anniversary. But now that it is all said and done and things have been going on as usual—something else will have to fill the space.

But before the dust of the anniversary edition is blown away—copies are still leaving the office. Mrs. Odessa Booker, who already has sent away about ten to friends, was back in the office this week for more to send around the country and to leave the picture of her son, Pfc. Arthur Carter, for the July Service-men's page. All pictures for that special page of Iowa boys and girls in the services—must be in the office not later than June 26. Phone for further information.

Mrs. Lella Walker, president of the Busy Bee Sewing Circle, sent for more anniversary papers for scrap book work of the circle.

On other fronts—around town—roses are blooming in all of their red, pink and rose glory—sweet williams in dark reds and patriotic red and white—honey suckles with their glorious fragrance, are sights for all eyes—in the back yard of the George Franklins and Mrs. J. W. Bush, at 927 Twelfth street.

Because of the anniversary edition many of the spring beauts have been neglected—but now that more time is expected to be had—don't be surprised if someone knocks on your door and asks for a "sample" of one of your flowers.

That actually happened last week while passing 1510 Walker avenue—when a mass of deep red roses which were rambling all over the front porch of Mrs. Tillie King, caught the eye of the passerby.

Mrs. King graciously parted with a branch of one of the "seven sister."

Out to the J. E. Campbell home for the interracial picnic and closing meeting last week—there were many beautiful ramblers, plants and trees to be seen. The admirer had to figure out—whether it was nobler to admire the beauty at a distance or to tour the sunken gardens, pluck the flowers whose beauty lasts only a few days—and endure the chigger bites and scratch for weeks. So she scratched!

We believe that these times demand religious convictions giving emotional security, cooperation with other organizations in all progressive thought and action, world unity; economic stability based on full employment, racial understanding based on full respect for every individual."

S. R. S.—I am supposed to go to my oldest sister's to finish school. Please give me all the information that you can so I will know what to do. I live with my uncle and he treats me like a 3 year old. Can't do anything at all. I am in my last year at high school. My boy friend is in college. We used to get along fine. When he came home from college he gave me a cool brushoff in a nice way. He asked me to visit his parents and they treat me nice. But he talks about us getting married someday but not right away. Is he trying to show me in a nice way that he doesn't care any more?

Ans.: The cool attitude your friend is taking was brought on by you trying to force him into some immediate plans. He thinks very highly of you otherwise he wouldn't have sent you to visit his parents but he isn't ready to get married. Go to your sister's and make arrangements to finish your education. In order not to disappoint him, continue your education and keep your training equal to his. Men still insist on being the pursuers in the game of love.

NEGRO VOTERS AT NATIONAL CONVENTIONS

During the next thirty days, both major political parties will have held their national conventions. At these conventions, candidates will be nominated and the respective party platforms will be adopted, setting forth the prospective program of each.

Already the heads of the tickets are pretty well assured of their places. Platform committees are at work in order that some consideration may be given to most of the important issues and yet be able to make a report to the convention.

Groups, representing all of the various interests, will appear before the resolutions committee. The Negro will be among them. They are better prepared for just such this year than ever before.

In February, a group of Negro Republicans met in Chicago and drafted a set of resolutions to be presented to their national convention; later the Democrats did the same thing. On June 17, twenty-five Negro organizations met in New York and drafted a message to both the Republican and Democratic national conventions, in which they called attention to six issues which appear to be the views of Negro voters. They were:

Wholehearted prosecution of the war to total victory, the abolition of the poll tax by act of Congress, federal anti-lynching legislation, unsegregated integration of Negroes into the armed forces, establishment of a permanent federal committee on fair employment practice, and a foreign policy of international cooperation.

The resolutions or recommendations of these three groups dealt with just about the same subjects and in a manner which one could easily call unanimous. All recognized the same injustices and informed each party that the party and candidates which met those demands would undoubtedly get the Negro vote.

Recommendations of the group of twenty-five organizations say further:

"In evaluating the merits of parties and candidates we must include all issues—those touching the life of Negroes as a group as well as those affecting the entire country. The party or candidate who refuses to help control prices, or fails to support the extension of social security, or refuses to support a progressive public program for full post war employment, or opposes an enlarged and unsegregated program of government-financed housing, or seeks to destroy organized labor, is as much the enemy of Negroes as is he who would prevent Negroes from voting."

"We hereby serve notice that if either major political party shall nominate for President or Vice-president, a candidate of vacillating or reactionary character, or with an anti-Negro record, it will be vigorously opposed by Negro voters."

There was a time when Negro organizations would not have even prepared such a document, much less going before the resolutions committee of each of the two conventions, insisting on their adoption. But things have changed; Negroes are shifting around for advantage; Negroes are learning more and more that the ballot is among their best weapons, and are willing to fight for it.

It will be interesting to see what each convention does about the recommendations, and the reaction of the group of twenty-five whose policy is nonpartisan.

SOME OVERSIGHTS IN FIFTIETH EDITION

It is not an easy job to write a history. And, at times we think we are doing much better than we actually are.

In the fiftieth anniversary edition, we attempted to cover the activities of the Bystander for the past twenty-two years, and in so doing, left out some people whom we feel made a great contribution to the paper.

Clifford Mackay spent some time with the Bystander as news-writer and in the printing department. During his services at the Bystander, he attended Drake University where he majored in journalism. At present he is managing editor of the Atlanta Daily World; and one of the Des Moines boys we point to, with pride, as an example of what a youngster can do with the training he gets at the Bystander office. Allen Ashby has been our sports editor for several years, and even though his employment required his removal to Chicago last year, he continues in that capacity.

Another Ashby, William, is the official photographer. Most of the pictures appearing in the Bystander are taken by him.

Others, of course, helped here and there, but everybody could not be mentioned. It has been interesting to recall the work of these people and to let the public know more about them.

Keo-Way USO

America's favorite picnic sandwich, the hot dog and the usual coke were served at the Weiner Roast at Good Park, Saturday, June 17, to an enthusiastic group of WACs. Junia Hostesses Eloise Morrow and Freida DeSleet led the games for the evening. Plans were made then and there to have a repeat picnic soon.

The Junior Hostesses met at Keo-Way in their regular meeting Thursday evening. Chairman Alberta Bates gave an interesting "pep" talk to the girls. They all regretted that Miss Evelyn Greene could not be present because of illness.

"They played like a band inspired" is the way one of the persons of the audience expressed his appreciation of the splendid concert played by WAC Band No 2 of Fort Des Moines. Although the size of the audience was small due to weather conditions the young women were artistic and gracious in their performance. Pvt. Hall, band leader and Lt. T. B. Brown, Commanding Officer of the company, have much of which to be proud in this organization. After the concert, the members of the band were served at Keo-Way.

Recording Machine
Keo-Way USO is the owner of a record maker. This was made partially possible through a gift of $100.00 by Wetherell & Company at the opening of the club, February 14, 1943. National USO approved the balance necessary for the cost of this instrument. This means that whenever an operator is on duty records may be made at the cost of 7c a record, and that records may be made every day rather than once a week.

The WAC Council met at Keo-Way on Tuesday evening, June 19. Suggestions and plans for future recreation activities were discussed. Sgt. Miller acted as chairman and Pvt. Ruth Jacobs acted as secretary.

Mr. Joseph Rabichaux, Assistant to the Director for Field Operations (Negro Services) for National Catholic Community Service addressed the Keo-Way USO Operating Committee at a luncheon on Tuesday afternoon, June 13. He said that separate clubs were not ideal but that very little could be done about the situation immediately and that Negro clubs were no more separate than Jewish or Italian clubs. He feels that as a group we should make demands for the best in the way of facilities in these clubs and educate both Negroes and whites to be prepared for future mixed activities which are inevitable.

Keo-Way is delighted with the recovery of Mrs. Nannie McMiller on the custodian staff of the club. No one person has made a greater contribution to the bright clean rooms of Keo-Way or helped more to keep the homelike atmosphere for our service people. Mrs. Evans is serving in Mrs. McMiller's place.

SPORTS Negroes Must See Now That 'Our Boys Come Back To Equal Rights'

By ALLEN ASHBY

Monarchs Win Two
The Monarchs came to town last Sunday with the immortal Satchel Page and took two teams into camp by rather impressive scores at Wrigley Field. The first game wasn't so much, rather than the foot-race between Jess Owens, former Olympic champ and Helen Stephens, former Woman's champion sprinter was a better attraction. With Claude (Buddy) Young, the Illinois speedball, acting as starter Jess did all right despite his advancing years, and the fact that he has been out of training for some time.

The second game was between the Monarchs and a collection of white boys, most of whom were former in-junior and class AA minor leaguers. The Monarchs won that one five to three. Paige pitched six innings and struck out eleven guys, giving up one hit. When he retired amid a real round of applause at the end of the sixth, the score was two to one in the Monarch's favor. Immediately after Satchel left, the white boys got busy and went ahead at three to two. The Monarchs came back and tied up things in the eighth and went on to win on a series of hits aided by some wozzy playing on the part of the ex leaguers. But it was quite a show, and the around ten thousand people who attended got their money's worth.

They are sending their mite to help us fight for something on the home front—that they are fighting for on the battlefronts. Miss Jensen recited many experiences gained in her program to give public school pupils knowledge of the equality of man through classroom discussions and teaching. "So much of what we are facing goes back to the schools where the boys and girls are taught," she said. "Superintendents, boards of education, principals and teachers are floundering around trying to get a hold of something to relieve the tension in the schools."

NEGRO NAVIGATORS COMPLETE COURSE IN BOMBARDIERING

Roswell Army Air Field, Roswell, New Mexico—The Nation's first dual-rated Negro flying officers have turned their attention to studies in aerial gunnery, following the completion of a 12-week course in bombardiering here on June 2, the War Department reported this week.

Having previously received their wings as navigators at the Hondo (Texas) Army Air Field, the navigator-bombardiers went through the rigorous course in 12 weeks.

Flying in swift AT-11's, called "Classrooms of the Clouds," and using the famous Norden bombsight, the students dropped an average of 150 bombs apiece during their studies at Roswell. Half of this bombing was done under difficult conditions at night.

ed this year to the Marshalltown Branch, which in addition to having accomplished a great deal by way of integrating Negro workers into industrial plants that formerly had not used them, had a membership equal to fifty per cent of their Negro population having exceeded their quota for the year.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

Senior Division
President, Atty. M. F. Fields, Waterloo; first vice president Ike Smallis, Des Moines; second vice president, Bernard McGuinn, Ottumwa; secretary, Mrs. Rose B. Johnson Marshalltown; assistant secretary, Mrs. Viola Gibson, Cedar Rapids; treasurer, Rev. R. C. Paris, Cedar Rapids; and, Atty. S. Joe Brown, Des Moines, Mrs. Lyda Page, Waterloo, Artis Maxwell, Marshalltown, and Mrs. Evelyn Fultz Moore of Burlington and Atty. James B. Morris, Des Moines, members of the executive committee.

Junior Division
Miss Mildred Spencer, Marshalltown, president; Jack Nichols, Ottumwa, first vice president; Miss Adrienne Johnson Waterloo, second vice president; Miss June Moss, Waterloo, secretary; Miss Virginia Pelter, assistant secretary and Miss Harriet Curley, treasurer.

The next annual conference will be held at Cedar Rapids, in June, 1945.

LINCOLN POST

By WILLIAM T. BURNS
John Williams and John Estes, Jr., returned from the 1944 American Legion Boys, State encampment June 11. These boys received instruction in political science from instructors of modern civics and political science. These boys were selected on the basis of their high grades in school and their ability to get along with other groups. Sons of veterans or friends of Legionnaires had no bearing on the selection of the boys. Fees were paid by the American Legion.

The District summer meeting and election was held at 40-8 club June 15 at 8:30 p. m. Lincoln Post was represented by seven uniformed members. The following posts were awarded department trophies: Lincoln, Valley, Carlisle and Summings Posts. Earl Draper of Pleasantville, Emphasizing that Negroes should not have to be sought after—but that it should be their "obligation" to become members of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Miss Norma Jensen, white educational field director of the organization in New York, addressed a mass meeting at Burns Methodist church Tuesday evening, in the interest of Des Moines branch membership drive which is on until July. Annual membership drives are on in all of the NAACP branches of the country.

She said that Negroes who do not belong to the organization are "parasites"—who are reaping the benefits gained by the organization.

Miss Jensen told how the soldiers overseas were sending contributions to the NAACP, in appreciation of the work that is being done by Walter White, who returned to the country recently from the European battlefronts.

"They are sending their mite to help us fight for something on the home front—that they are fighting for on the battlefronts.

Miss Jensen recited many experiences gained in her program to give public school pupils knowledge of the equality of man through classroom discussions and teaching.

"So much of what we are facing goes back to the schools where the boys and girls are taught," she said. "Superintendents, boards of education, principals and teachers are floundering around trying to get a hold of something to relieve the tension in the schools."

Miss Jensen told of a flier who had returned to America recently from service on the warfronts overseas as saying:

"We will not come back to the same thing we left."

This flier had devoted his furlough to prosecution of a civil rights case, after he had been refused service in a station barber shop in Cincinnati.

Before returning to the war fronts this flier wanted "to be sure of what he was fighting for."

"I do not take that as one case," Miss Jensen commented. "He is one of the thousands of Negro soldiers who will return, and I will stake my life the majority are going to think that way."

Those of us who are here have got to do everything in our power to see that those boys are not going to come back to the same thing they left—but rather to what they are fighting for—equal rights."

Ia. was elected district commander for 1945. Dates to remember: Post election, July 5; Post installation of 1945 officers July 18. The American Legion, Polk County Association will meet and hold election at Highland Park Post July 27. A public Legion meeting will be held, sponsored by the Sixth District and American Legion Service Association. Congressman Paul Cunningham will speak and explain in detail the newly passed G. I. Bill. Watch for dates. W. T. Burns—4-2946.

POST EXCHANGE LETTERS FROM MEN AND WOMEN IN THE SERVICES

You Keep Writing—They'll Keep Fighting
By MARIE ROSS

Sgt. Robinson Gets His Bystander in England

"I received the Bystanders and was indeed glad to get them," wrote Sgt. William E. Robinson, from somewhere in England recently, to his mother, Mrs. Minnie Robinson, 1004 Enos street. Mrs. Robinson took out a subscription to the paper so that her son would receive his home town paper regularly.

"We have a new Red Cross club—a place to spend spare time. It is larger than the first place."

Cpl. Williamson Has Played Some Tennis in England

"Well, I finally got to play some tennis," wrote former city men's singles champion of many years, Cpl. Chester Williamson from England, where he is stationed recently. "I'm trying to buy a racket now, he added in his letter to his mother, Mrs. Vesta Williamson, 1022 Woodland avenue. She sent him recently a dozen tennis balls, hoping that they will reach her son before the tennis season is over.

Cpl. Williamson continued his letter. "Your letter came today. Yesterday I got the Bystander and I have the clippings about Sam Walker being an officer now. Tell him we have a quartet started and that I am filling in at tenor till they can find someone to sing it. I sure could use some of the songs we used to sing. A book of quartet songs would sure be useful."

He asked about his two-year-old daughter "Sugar-Pie," and commented upon her ability to sing "Pistol Packin' Mama," even if she did sing it in church.

"You asked me about the weather and food. I can't tell you about the weather but the food is fine. It is so far is a lot better than it was in the States."

Mrs. James Hunter Gets Pile of Letters Daily

Mrs. James Hunter, 1291 DeWolf street, receives a handful of letters daily from her three sons and one nephew who are stationed in the navy and army around the world.

From MacDill Field, Tampa Fla., Pvt. Jewell M. Robinson wrote her recently. "I don't like Florida. This is a pretty place in the summer but so hot. I met one man from Des Moines, Paul Thomas. He lives on the west side."

Pvt. William Robinson somewhere in New Guinea, wrote his mother at Easter time.

"Today is Easter here. I went to church today. They had a nice Easter program. I wished I was home."

Mrs. Luther Smith, Sr., Has Many Souvenirs With Three Sons in Service
With three sons in the military services, Mrs. Luther Smith, Sr., 901 Twenty-third street, is making a collection of souvenirs from all parts of the world where her son's travel. She has already accumulated an Afghan pillow tops, a silver spoon which dates back to 1320, a fez, leather coin purse and billfold from Africa and Morocco. Now that two sons are in Italy she is awaiting the arrival of a box of Italian souvenirs.

Recently Sgt. Howard Smith, now in Italy, wrote to his mother.

"I have been to art galleries and cathedrals and have seen monuments to step out with you.

"The food here is fair (ha! ha!) I prayed for you today."

In another letter he wrote: "I saw Spriggs today and we talked of old times. Some of our boys got discharged today. I wished I was one of them."

Robert T. Robinson, Ck. 2/c, of the USS Chaffee of the navy wrote to "Mom and Pops":

"I am getting along fine. I am leaving to go aboard the ship."

Mason Back from South Pacific
Adolph J. Mason, from the South-west Pacific where he was stationed for many months with the navy, left the city after a visit with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. James Hunter, 1291 DeWolf street. He returned to the coast to report to his ship on which he is steward second class.

He told of his many experiences in the jungle lands—"where the horses run wild, the fish are pretty and the trees and foliage are a thick mass."

He said that racial discrimination was "very strong" in some of the jungle camps—that the Negro boys were always the last in the mess lines, that the Negro boys were many times refused when they went to purchase ice cream, soaps, vaselines and other small items. He said that commanding officers had issued the orders, in many of the places that set up the discrimination.

Pfc. David Pickett in Bomber Group

Pfc. David F. Pickett, youngest son of Mrs. Maude Pickett, 1004 W. 16th street, has joined an all-Negro Bomber group of the Air Corps. A combat radio operator and gunner, he likes it fine. He spent last Thursday in Des Moines with his mother who was happily surprised. In the army only a year and 2 months he is a graduate from Mt. Pleasant high school. He has a brother, Lt. Jerry Pickett, in the army, stationed in Mississippi.

Recently Sgt. Howard Smith, now in Italy, wrote to his mother.

"I have been to art galleries and cathedrals and have seen monuments world progress. This country is the center of a great world religion and, I am living a cultured, dignified life since I have been over here.

"I have found out if you maintain yourself and conduct yourself with respect to the Italian population, you can get everything you want."

"I would like to buy you something nice in Italy, but the shops are loaded with fake antiques and imitations of art goods, and junk a little better than I could win on a wheel at the fair. I am sending you a box of things. They aren't much but it is the best I could find."

Cpl. Bennie Dacus Home from Maryland

Cpl. Bennie Dacus from the Aberdeen Proving Ground, Maryland, arrived in the city Sunday for a brief visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dacus.
