TROOP 59 HOST TO COURT OF HONOR SUNDAY AT ST. PAUL

Troop 59, Boy Scouts of America, will be host to the other boy scout troops of the Cluster District, Sunday, June 16, 7:30 p. m. at a Father's Day court of honor at St. Paul AME church.

During the ceremony scouts will receive recognition for advance in rank and other achievements.

This marks the third occasion in recent years that Troop 59 has been host to the Court of Honor. The first time was a Mother's Day Court of Honor at the St. Paul church when Walter Miller, now in the U. S. coast-guard, was presented an Eagle award the highest in Scouting. This program is open to the public.

OPA STARTS SURVEY OF FURTURE DEMAND

To safeguard the buying power of the family furniture budget against unwarranted price increases price control board representatives working out of Iowa's 92 OPA price control boards began a community-wide survey of current retail prices last Wednesday.

The announcement was made by Walter D. Kline Iowa OPA district director, who will supervise the work and approve appropriate compliance action where any prices or tagging violations are found.

"The demand for furniture is at an all-time high," Kline said. "The returning veterans alone, constitute a tremendous market, but added to this is the fact that hundreds of householders need replacements of units that have worn out the last four years."

Wilson Will Not Leave Elks Post

Washington, D. C.—(NNPA).—J. Finley Wilson, grand exalted ruler of the Improved Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the World, last Friday denied reports that he would resign his fraternal office if he should be elected to the New York State Senate.

According to widely published reports, he made the statement at the Virginia State convention of Elks, recently held in Danville, Virginia. He also was quoted as saying he would resign the fraternal office if elected to the New York State Senate, even if he should be reelected for another term as grand exalted ruler at the annual Elks' convention to be held in Buffalo, New York, in August.

Mr. Wilson branded the report as "absolute false." He said he has made no such statement, "directly or indirectly, by innuendo or otherwise," and that he was "at pains" to understand how such "a garbled report" could have been circulated. "I am a servant of the order, and it is up to the order when I shall quit," he said. "As long as the Elks desire my services, I am perfectly willing to make any sacrifice necessary to carry out their mandate."

Mr. Wilson is unopposed for the Republican nomination for the New York State Senate from the Twenty-third New York Senatorial district.

WORLD CHAMPION IS READY

JOE LOUIS

Pompton Lakes, N. J., (NNPA).—Joe Louis strutted his stuff before a select crowd of critics here last Thursday, and when the champion finished working it was generally agreed that the Brown Bomber is rapidly approaching peak form for the battle with Billy Conn June 19 at Yankee Stadium. A large group of boxing writers attended his sparring session.

Louis has a staff of sparring partners far superior to Conn's. In Al Hoesman, Park Daniels, George Fitch and Jimmy Bell he has a quartet of workers considered top-flight operators. And all give their best when they spar with the champion.

As a result, Louis does not always shape up like a champion when inside the ropes with his spar mates; at least, he does not show too impressively in the minds of Conn adherents. They, of course, do not take into consideration the class of the sparring partners employed by the rivals.

Louis was exceptionally alert against Hoesman and he did well with Daniels, who took one in the midriff that almost doubled him up. Louis is well satisfied with his condition. He admits he has grown in places, but points out that is only natural.

Louis threw his right hand more than he has been doing of late, but he did that probably to impress his onlookers. He has been nursing it—nursing it, perhaps for the night of the 19th when he most likely will cut it loose.

CAPTAIN MEASE BACK FROM PACIFIC

CAPTAIN QUENTIN R. MEASE

Enjoying his terminal leave which will expire in August, Captain Quentin R. Mease, former Crocker Street Y.M.C.A. secretary, is back in the home town visiting relatives and friends and renewing acquaintances which were severed four years ago when he went into the military service as a buck private.

While Captain Mease was serving his thirty-two months in the South Pacific and Japan the Crocker Street Y.M.C.A. activities were removed from the small building at 12th and Crocker, to the present imposing structure at 1333 Keo-Way which formerly housed the Keo-Way USO club. Commenting on the enlarged program, Captain Mease said:

"It is indeed gratifying to return to Des Moines and find that Y.M.C.A. services to the youth have been further implemented by the expanded facilities of Crocker Street Branch."

"The Extensive use of the new building and the comprehensive program now in action are adequate demonstrations of the need for continued growth of the Association activities in this community."

"I am sure," the Captain added, "the public now realizes this fact and will generously support the Y.M.C.A. in its plans for the future."

Experiences of the Iowan are being run weekly in the Post Exchange column of this paper.

Captain Mease is entitled to wear commendation award ribbon, Asiatic Pacific with three bronze stars, Philippine Liberation, Japanese Occupation, Papan Campaign, American Theater and Victory medal.

Captain Mease, son of Mrs. Cornelia Mease of 1017 13th street, will leave the city Saturday to visit in Chicago, Detroit, Washington and New York. He will be one of the spectators at the Louis-Conn fight on Wednesday night. (Ashby Photo.)

Stream of Witnesses in Columbia, Tenn. Riot Hearing

Columbia, Tenn., June—(NNPA).—A seemingly endless stream of witnesses testified last Friday before Circuit Judge Joe M. Ingram in the sixth day of hearings on motions to quash the indictments against twenty-six of thirty-one persons arrested as an aftermath of the race riots here in February.

Counsel for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, representing the accused, contend that the indictments are invalid because qualified colored persons were barred from service on the grand jury which returned the indictments, because of race or color, and that such persons have been systematically excluded from grand and petit jury service.

Over 300 Testify

Through last Friday more than 300 witnesses have testified that they never had been called or served on a jury in Maury County. Defense counsel had ninety on hand for Friday's session in what State's Attorney Paul F. Bumpus has charged is a "legal filibuster."

The court sustained a state exception to a line of defense counsel questioning which sought to draw answers from witnesses as to why colored persons did not discuss civic problems in Maury County.

Maurice Weaver, white, attorney of Chattanooga, asked Sandy Porter, a presser, if he had heard discussions among colored people of "Civic problems such as voting and serving on juries."

"It's not the practice among us Negroes to discuss such things," Porter replied.

"Why don't Negroes here discuss such things?" asked Weaver.

The court ruled the question out, saying "we can't get afield into social customs and practices in this hearing."

JACK JOHNSON KILLED

Raleigh, N. C.—Jack Johnson, first Negro world's heavyweight champion was fatally injured in an automobile accident Monday afternoon while enroute to Franklinton, N. C.

A head-on smash into a telephone pole, when he lost control of his car, ended the colorful career, which set fight fans on their collective ear with an unparalleled series of knockouts and victories, for 27 years. Johnson was champ from 1908 to 1915.

He was rushed to St. Agnes hospital in Raleigh, where he died shortly afterwards.

Georgia Governor Ignores Threats in Drive to Run Hooded Group from State

Atlanta, Ga.—(NNPA).—The Ku Klux Klan is being investigated for possible connection with the murder of a cab driver last August and the flogging of a 21-year-old Navy veteran in February, it was learned last Friday. The murdered man was colored as is the veteran.

The Georgia Bureau of Investigation launched the investigation of the murder on information provided by secret agents of the State who have managed to infiltrate the inner circle of the hooded order.

The body of the driver, Porter Flourney Turner, was found in front of a doctor's suburban home. He had been stabbed. The case never has been solved.

The GBI was said to have suspected the Klan of the killing after agents worked themselves into the Kavalier Klub, described by Assistant Attorney General Dan Duke as the Klan's strong arm squad.

Duke also investigated charges that Klansman flogged the veteran employed as a hotel bellhop.

Given 52 Lashes

Duke, assigned to "investigate and eradicate" the organization in Georgia, said the Navy veteran Hugh Johnson, told him he was given fifty-two lashes at a gun's point at a desolate spot near here on the night of February 13.

Duke said the youth told him he was walking in an Atlanta suburb when a car pulled alongside him. One of four men in the machine pointed a gun at him and ordered him to get inside.

He said they asked him where he worked and then told him they were "going to beat hell out of him."

The bellhop said two other cars joined the first and they drove to a deserted spot near the Municipal Airport here.

Ordered on Hands and Knees

He said they forced him down on his hands and knees and lashed him with a two-tailed whip. He said nine men took part in the flogging.

One of the men, he said, told him he had once seen a white man struck by a colored soldier overseas and he was determined to get revenge. Following the whipping, they told him to start walking back toward Atlanta, and "not to look back."

Governor Ellis Arnall revealed that secret agents of the State of Georgia have infiltrated the Klan to gain information necessary to banish the hooded order from the state.

Governor Arnall, who was closing out his administration with a campaign to run the Klan out of the state, said he was paying no attention to renewed warnings and threats against him.

As a matter of fact, he said, agents of the state are already inside the Klan organization secretly "gathering enough information to curtail it."

Trains Continue Interstate Jimcros; Few Bus Companies Obey Supreme Court Order

Washington, D. C.—(NNPA).—Trains leaving Washington for points in the south were continuing to carry Jim Crow cars, requiring colored passengers traveling from points in the North to ride in separate cars on leaving the Washington Terminal southbound.

Meantime, counsel for the Afro-American Newspapers in the suit brought by William J. Scott, Ralph Matthews and the Rev. William H. Jernagin, involving the application of Virginia's Jim Crow law to interstate passengers, said the case is now pending in the United States Court for the District of Columbia.

The trio were traveling from Philadelphia to Greensboro, North Carolina, and refused to move to the Jim Crow car between Washington and Alexandria, Virginia. They again refused to move into the Jim Crow car at Charlottesville, and when they did so again at Lynchburg a police officer ordered them off the train.

They sued the Southern Railway in the District of Columbia Supreme Court. A jury returned a verdict in favor of the railroad, and the plaintiffs appealed. The case has been argued, and a decision is expected soon from the Court of Appeals.

C. F. Alexander, assistant manager of the Atlantic Coast Line, last Friday said he expects his company to take some action soon on the question of interstate travel of colored people over that line.

As soon as the decision of the Supreme Court was announced in the Virginia Jim Crow interstate bus travel case, Mr. Alexander said, the general counsel of the Atlantic Coast Line at the headquarters in Washington, North Carolina, telegraphed for a copy of the court's opinion. Officials of the Company are now studying the decision, he said.

Virginia Trains

Richmond, Va.—(NNPA).—Railroads operating through Richmond were continuing to segregate white and colored passengers in separate cars, and representatives of two reads said they did not believe the Supreme Court decision of June 3rd in the bus segregation case would apply to train travel.

C. L. Toney, division passenger agent for the Southern Railway, exhibited a company news bulletin which quoted the court's opinion along with a statement that the action does not affect railroads. Mr. Toney said his office was continuing to sell tickets to colored persons only for space on cars reserved for them.

"We're selling tickets here just as we've been doing for 30 years," he declared.

An official of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad in Norfolk said his line provides separate accommodations for colored passengers and that the company does not feel obligated to change this practice as a result of the Supreme Court's ruling outlawing segregation on buses when colored passengers are traveling interstate.

Norman Call, president of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad, said attorneys of that road were studying the court's decision and that for the present, at least, there would be no change in his company's policies as to its accommodations for colored passengers.

W. Va. Will Comply

Charleston, W. Va.—(NNPA).—Immediate compliance with the Supreme Court ruling that states cannot require segregation in white and colored passengers in interstate buses indicated Monday by the Atlantic Greyhound Corporation, which operates in most of the so-called "Jim Crow" Southern states. Hold Conference On Railway Jobs

Members of the Christian Youth Fellowship, an interracial organization of the Christian church, who are working for racial progress along economic and industrial lines, recently held a conference with W. F. McLaughlin, superintendent of the Des Moines railway company.

According to Rev. J. J. Hawkins, one of the sponsors of the group, the representatives contact organizations and institutions for the purpose of learning their policies in regard to the employment of members of minority groups.

Regarding the employment of Negroes and other members of minority groups as motormen, drivers and in other types of work, the Rev. Mr. Hawkins said the railway company's representative was favorable and informed that qualified persons would be given jobs.

Members of the Youth Fellowship who interviewed Mr. McLaughlin were three veterans of World War II.

The Veterans Administration needs forty-six men with experience in the field of insurance to fill forty-six jobs which are now waiting for somebody to take at the Richmond Branch of the VA. The jobs pay from $2,650 to $5,000 and, in addition, the VA will pay for all the overtime you put in.

Apply in writing to the personnel director of the Richmond office, but do it in a hurry because the jobs must be filled as soon as possible in order to expand the National Service Life insurance section which is taking over the work now being done by the New York branch office, writes James L. Hicks, NNPA staff writer.

The coming of summer and hot weather has reduced the activities for the boys around the building. They come in from the pool, dead tired, go downstairs, and flop down, going off to sleep in just a few minutes. July 28, as the date for our water meet, and carnival. James Ward walked in. He has been doing a lot of boxing in the army, and says he would like to make a career out of it. The big fellow says he is in a radio school, and will graduate August 12. He also says the army has done him a world of good.

Fans are needed for the dances. It was so hot last Friday that most of the boys and girls paled their money and sat out the dances on the outside. Looks as if it wouldn't be long before the end of the dances. The Hilltop Tennis club got under way last week, and are planning for a renewal of the net game among Negroes. Bill Ashby wants to get the Y classes going, and we shall have been on the courts at least once by the time you read this. Admission to the dance will be one can of food, and the boy or girl raising the most cans will have his or her way paid to camp.

Compare Jamming of Anti-Strike Laws with FEPC

Washington, D. C. (NNPA)—The jamming through the House in forty minutes of drastic anti-strike legislation was compared last Sunday by Representative Hugh De Lacy, Democrat, of Washington, with the blocking of fair-employment practice legislation in the House Rules Committee. Speaking over Station WDDC on the "Americans All" radio program, asked why was the one dodged in committee and the other rushed through a cheering House by a vote of 306 to 12.

Answering his own question, Mr. De Lacy said: "The explanation is clear. The FEPC would take a long step toward eliminating economic discrimination against black people, against Jews, against Catholics, or other minorities. It is a measure for economic justice to plain people. "After FEPC becomes law and provided our combined vigilance can enforce it it will rub off the sharp edge of racial and religious prejudice. It will make it easier for plain people to understand each other and to learn to live in harmonious and mutually helpful relationship to each other. "Clearly, measures like the FEPC will make it impossible in time for powerful employers to use the black man against the white man to keep wages down for both. Measures like the FEPC, which promote understanding and equality of opportunity, will make it impossible in time for the fascist-minded to get away with their now flourishing trade in human division, with their Jew baiting and Negro baiting and red baiting of everything progressive. "That is why the whole force of economic and political reaction, expressed in Congress by the dominant coalition between Republicans and Democrats by the National Association of Manufacturers and some Democrats from poll tax Southern states is solidly lined up against passage of a fundamentally decent, a fundamentally American piece of legislation, the permanent FEPC law."

gay night, June 18, at the Crocker Y.M.C.A. Boys and girls collecting canned food for the Emergency Famine drive will get credit only for canned baby food, milk, fish or meat on winning a free trip to camp. Those collecting the most canned goods at the time of the dance will be winners. Collection depots are Crocker Y. M. C. A., Blue Triangle Y. W. C. A., and East Side Community Center. Aside from the collection drive, the club discussed the entering of horses in the Iowa Centennial Horse show, billed to be the third largest horse show in the country this year.

BITS AND SPURS CANNED GOODS DRIVE IS ON; TEEN AGE DANCE JUNE 18

The Bits and Spurs club met at the home of Mrs. Bernice Carter, who was assisted in serving by Miss Freida Garland, Messrs. William Bell and Wardell Coyle. The club has postponed the Teen Age dance set for Friday night, June 14 to next Tuesday night, June 18, at the Crocker Y.M.C.A.

PROBLEMS of HUMANITY
by the ABBE WALLACE Service

A HUMAN RELATION COLUMN WHEREIN THE TROUBLED IN MIND AND HEART CAN SEEK COUNSEL AND GUIDANCE

Note:—Don't worry needlessly when your mind is weighed down with worry and you feel the need of guidance, and the counsel of an understanding friend. Write your problem in the paper free. Just include a clipping of the column with your letter. For a "private reply" send 25c for the ABBE'S 1946 INSPIRATIONAL READING. With each reading, you will receive from a personal letter of sound and constructive advice analyzing three (3) situations. Please send a stamped (10c) envelope for your confidential reply, and sign your full name, address and birthdate to all letters. Explain your case fully (100 words) your problem within the realm of reason. Write to:

THE ABBE WALLACE SERVICE

K. L. T.—I am a married woman and my mother-in-law lives with my husband and me. I don't like her and I don't like my husband and I am thinking of leaving home and getting a job and taking care of myself. Would I be making a mistake.

Ans.—Apparently you are allowing your present dislike for your mother-in-law to break up your home. You realize that you would be happier working and making your own money... why not pay your mother-in-law to take over the house and run it in your absence. That would solve your problem and make your mother-in-law more cooperative and less antagonistic. When this problem is solved... the differences between your husband and you will be ironed out.

X. X.—I read your column every week and I am coming to you for help. Why am I treated so mean in my church and why don't I have any friends. Do you think I am in the right or in the wrong?

Ans.—Right or wrong you are being made to suffer and the time has come for you to make a change. The fact that you have no friends is proof that you have an inferiority complex and you are living too much within

CECIL BREWTON, JR.
Cecil H. Brewton Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil H. Brewton of 1309 Laurel street, ended three years in the army on May 17 when he was discharged at Ft. Leavenworth, Kas. He returned to the States recently from the South Pacific where he served one year. A member of the 136th Port Company, he arrived in Le Shima a year ago that May when his unit was busy building up the base and getting ready for the last drive of the armed forces to Japan. Brewton never reached Japan but was 325 miles from it and when the war ended in the Pacific his company was sent on to Okinawa. His "most exciting" memory is of the day his outfit landed in Le Shima. "We were green troops then," he commented and told how they dug their way in from the harbor. "Japs were dropping daisy cutters the lowan explained them as bombs that sent fragments that didn't rise any higher than flowers-for the destruction of troops on the ground. After that episode, Brewton said he was a "seasoned troop."

After the war ended Brewton said they lived a life of luxury. During the season of the typhoons, fifty or sixty men would take K-rations and crowd into the tombs for rays and search the dead Japs. His "life of ease" was made comfortable with pieces of furniture he built for his tent which was surrounded by a picket fence with a sign "Duration End."

Brewton joined the Jive Bombers band and traveled throughout Okinawa. "The experience that will remain indelibly stamped in my mind is the way the white and Negro troops fought together and lived together. The fellows did not care what color you were - just so you were not a Jap," the lowan recalled.

Brewton sent home hundreds of interesting photos from all parts of the Pacific and many souvenirs. He received the Good Conduct medal, Asiatic-Pacific ribbon with one battle star, American Defense, Victory and Occupation ribbons.

Now back home, he is anxious to return to Iowa State University to continue his studies towards a degree in medicine. In the meantime, he plans to work with his father who is an X-ray technician at Broadlawn General hospital.

Sues Hotel Which Refused Use of Elevator Service

Hollywood—(Pacific Press Syndicate)—A $5000 damage suit against the Ambassador Hotel, charging racial discrimination growing out of the refusal of permission to ride a passenger elevator in the swanky hostelry was filed this week by Carlton Moss, well known Hollywood writer and lecturer.

Moss, who is best known for his work as author and narrator of the Signal Corps film, "The Negro Soldier," which was released two years ago, seeks $2500 general damages and $2500 punitive damages.

According to the complaint, Moss, in company with another friend, on May 8 made a business call on Mrs. Louise Kamsley, a guest at the hotel.

No trouble was encountered when they rode up, but on the return trip a short while later, Mr. Moss was told by an excited operator that he wouldn't be allowed to board the elevator under and circumstances.

When Moss phoned down to the desk asking the cause of this, he was informed by the manager, George F. Harris, after a lengthy run-around, that he could walk down if he desired but that it was "against the policy of the hotel to carry Negroes on the passenger elevators."

Moss is basing his suit on violation of Sections 51 and 52 of an California Civil Code which prohibit racial discrimination in public places. Katz, Gallagher and Margolis law firm is representing Moss.

Navy Information For Young Iowans

The U. S. Navy Recruiting Service sends the following information to the young men of this state.

1. There will be no further family allowance for enlisted personnel who join the Navy after 1 July this year. But if you enlist BEFORE 1 July, 1946, you will be eligible for a dependents' allowance at ANYTIME DURING YOUR ENLISTMENT. BE IT FOR 2, 3, 4 or 6 YEARS. Even if you have no dependents at the moment.

2. To take advantage of the benefits of the G. I. Bill of Rights, you must enlist prior to 6 October 1946. After that date; all men who enlist are NOT eligible for ANY benefits under the G. I. Bill.

It appears certain that the Selective Service law will be continued and the 18 and 19 year old men will probably be eligible. Because of the family allowances and the G. I. Bill of Rights, it would appear to me that any young man, particularly those faced with certain induction at some future date, should be impressed with the advantages of joining the Navy this month. To get any additional information and to be on the safe side, come to the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station in Des Moines or go to the nearest Navy Recruiting Station to your home.

WACs Celebrate Fifth Anniversary

Lockbourne Army Air Base, Columbus, Ohio — WACs at Lockbourne last Tuesday celebrated the fourth anniversary of the WAC as a military unit. Col. B. O. Davis, Jr., Base Commander, declared the day a holiday for all WAC personnel. Activated May 14, 1942, as the WAAC, the Corps came to full growth during the early years of the war. In September 1942, it lost its auxiliary status and became an organic part of the Army. Expanding to an approximate 100,000 members at peak strength, more than 70,000 members of the Corps have returned to civilian life since V-J Day.

Some 200 strong, Lockbourne WACs began their first peacetime celebration with a hitherto unheard of reveille at 9:00 a. m. Among the late risers was Lt. Oleta B. Crain, WAC Commanding Officer, and wearer of the Army's Commendation Ribbon.

Late Breakfast
Following a late breakfast, the WACs looked forward to a day free from the demands of typewriter and filing cabinets. Shortly after 11:00 a. m., the Squadron played host to Lionel Hampton, star of the musical stage, who was playing a current said a cheery hello to Cpl. Mary Blakey, Philadelphian, who was confined to the hospital and was unable to participate in the full swing of the festival occasion. Hampton had dedicated his Monday night radio broadcast to the WACs at Lockbourne.

Luncheon was the forerunner of an inspection by the Base Commander, Col. B. O. Davis, Jr. Accompanying Col. Davis on his tour of inspection was Maj. George Webb, Base Executive Officer, and Capt. Blanche Scott, Personal Affairs and Processing Officer.

PERSONAL TOUCH
By MARIE ROSS

The month of June is really "bursting out all over" with weddings, marriages and bridal business.

With the Rev. G. W. Robinson doing a rushing business in getting the knots tied for the couples—printing presses are running day and night getting out more invitations. Unusually "beautiful" in wedding invitations are the "Bridal Book" sent out by the family of Bride-to-Be Sophie White who will march down the Corinthian Baptist church aisle on Sunday evening to become the bride of Mr. Adam B. Johnson, Jr.

Miss White recently back from Cleveland got the columnist out of a night sleep looking for "addresses." Of course, we know most of them. If they are not on the subscription lists of the Bystander—then, they should be.

A note from one of the June 2 brides, now Mrs. Hobart D. Williams of Evanston, Ill., nee Alberta Bates of Des Moines and Keokuk, revealed: "The reception given here is over and I have two bedrooms (I mean 'we') of lovely gifts, and one nice, fine, devoted and wonderful husband."

Mrs. Williams is now residing at 2042 Darrow avenue, Evanston, Ill. Mrs. Alonzo Bell, Jr., the former Venessie Boyd, was happy over her bridal pictures in the last issue of the paper. She was married to Pvt. Bell on May 22. The date was omitted in the announcement last week. Invitations are out for the Bonnie Herndon-Lawrence DeVan wedding on June 14.

He gave an interesting half hour report on his experiences on his various assignments in the far east.

At this meeting Rabbi M. Weitz of the Grand Avenue Jewish Temple; J. E. Metcalf of the Iowa Conference of Christians and Jews; Gordon Stafford of the Solar Aircraft Co.; and Miss Ruth Pritchard, principal of Logan and Phillips schools were elected to membership.

THIS NEWSPAPER, IOWA'S OLDEST NEGRO WEEKLY, IS AN INSTITUTION DEVELOPED FOR AND BY THE PEOPLE OF IOWA AND THE MIDDLEWEST TO PRESENT THE NEWS OF THE DAY, FOSTER BETTER RACE RELATIONS, LEAD PUBLIC OPINION AND TO CONTEND FOR THE CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS OF ALL THE PEOPLE AT ALL TIMES.

SQUANDERING TAXPAYER'S MONEY

The House of Representative's Un-American Activities Committee has voted not to investigate the Ku Klux Klan. The committee took this action in the face of the rising tide of resentment against the revival of that organization.

It is well known that the Klan fosters the doctrine of white supremacy; is opposed to full participation by certain minority groups in the affairs of the government; attempts to set up a super government whereby it takes the law into its own hands usurping the powers of some branches of the government.

All these things are in direct conflict with the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States and most of the several states. They strike at the very foundation of the things for which this country is supposed to stand and which our representatives on UN are trying to tell other people are desirable for a democratic nation.

It has long been apparent that this committee looks for is the branding of some liberal person or organization as communists. And the committee takes this position because Congress is foolish enough to continue to let it squander the taxpayers' money and because the members of the committee are dominated by reactionary race haters who control its activities.

IOWA CONGRESSMEN RENIG ON FEPC

Speaking before the Des Moines Committee for a permanent FEPC, Charles Toney, a field representative of the national organization, stated that no Iowa member of Congress had signed the discharge petition to force the measure out of the Rules Committee so that the bill might be considered before that body on its merits.

This announcement was quite a surprise to some people who had not kept up with the status of the measure. It was a surprise because, in the past, Iowa members of Congress have gone along with liberal measures particularly those which attempted to raise the status of minority groups. Like the late Representative Dowell, most of them could be counted on in advance. Something seems to have gone wrong.

Frankly, the Bystander is surprised at the Iowa delegation particularly Representative Cunningham who comes from this district and whose views we felt we know pretty well.

All the Iowa members are Republicans. The Republicans can gain no more seats in Congress this fall but

OUR ARMY OF OCCUPATION

A recent Gallup poll shows that a majority of the people in America believe that the U. S. Army of occupation is doing a much better job in Japan than it is in Europe. Various reasons are assigned for these opinions. All of them have some weight.

There are those who say that in Japan, we have a unified command, while in Europe the job is being done by three nations thus dividing responsibility which always cuts down efficiency. There is merit to this contention but not the one we believe the most important.

There is a strong tendency in Europe to go easy on our former enemies based on racial and family ties.

GET YOUR CLEAN-UP BLANKS IN

The Bystander Clean-Up Campaign entry blanks must be in the office before closing date. And while we want a lot of entries, nobody will compete who has not filed his blank.

Prizes are to be given. But this is simply a stimulus for homeowners to beautify their homes. The prizes are secondary.

Help encourage better homes in Des Moines by entering your home in the drive.

NEWSPAPERS PAVED THE WAY

Indications are that bus companies operating in Virginia complied immediately with the Non-Jim-Crow decision of the U. S. Supreme Court outlawing segregation in interstate traffic.

In addition to the fact that hostility against Negroes in Virginia is not as great as that of some states further south, liberal newspapers in that state have spoken out on more than one occasion against segregation on street cars. They contend that the enforcement of segregation caused more racial friction, inconvenience and confusion than would occur if no such law existed.

Louis vs. Conn

It won't be long now. We have watched with no little interest the flood of stories about the bad condition of Joe Louis that come from his camp, and also the ones that tell us how sharp Conn is. Seriously, we wonder if that isn't a part of a conditioning to prepare us for the shock of having a new champion. If we didn't know that, to date, the champion hasn't ever been guilty of making deals, we would have some queer thoughts running through our minds.

Louisiana To Continue
Baton Rouge, La. (NNPA)—Louisiana will continue to enforce its laws relating to segregation of races on buses and trains in intrastate commerce despite the decision by the Supreme Court that such segregation in buses crossing state lines is illegal, Clayton Coleman, Acting Secretary of the Louisiana Public Service Commission, declared last Monday.

Louisiana's laws on segregation of the races in railway coaches and depots date from 1890 and 1894, Coleman said, and were extended to cover buses by a commission resolution in May 1939.

"Enforcement of the ban on race segregation in buses engaged in interstate transportation is a matter under the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission," the Secretary said, "but I can tell you that Louisiana's laws on segregation in buses in intrastate transportation will continue to be enforced."

N. Carolina "Regrettable"
Raleigh (NNPA) — North Carolina's utilities commissioner, Stanley Winborne, last Monday described as "regrettable" a decision of the Supreme Court banning the segregation of white and colored passengers on interstate buses.

Winborne said that he was of the opinion that all interstate buses operating in North Carolina would have to discontinue the segregation of white and colored passengers.

HANDLESS AND FOOTLESS BASEBALL STAR ON WEST COAST

Chicago — Sammy Workman of Los Angeles, handless and footless since he was two, will make a tour of major U. S. cities as a feature attraction with the Cincinnati Clowns of the Negro National League this summer.

Well known on the West Coast where he works in a Negro night club, Sammy is featured in a series of action photos in the July issue of Ebony which show him playing baseball and shooting pool. Having lost both hands and feet as the result of illness while still a baby, Sammy performs all of his amazing feats without the use of artificial limbs.

Originally sponsored by Los Angeles.

Golf
John Estes and Charley Howard got into the city open meet last week. Estes shot a 167 for his flight, and Howard a 178. The thing that we like about the undertaker's game is the fact that whenever he plays, he has his own rooting section, his family with him. They are all out there, John Melvin, Betty Jo and Mrs. Estes, pulling for Dad. That is what makes a man go, and not minding a few failures, because they make him believe that he will be back in there again.

SENIOR GIRL SCOUTS TO GIVE PROGRAM

"Starry Philippine Sky was a Spectacle" Writes Captain Mease of 'Surrender'

Continuing his "Thirty months in the South Pacific," Captain Quentin R. Mease tells of the Japanese surrender in this article.

"We have written before, and I know others have already given you their impressions of the Philippines, the people, their customs, their present economic condition, and most importantly, their attitudes toward the Negro soldier. I won't therefore, digress on our stay in Tacloban, Palos and other towns in the Leyte area for three months, other than to say that I encountered two more Des Moineses here — Marshall Dominguez and Bill Headspeth. They were members of the same organization and incidentally, their company commander was also from Iowa. I believe he stated that his home was in Boone

Relief—Shortlived

"Our general relief over the end of hostilities was shortlived, though, when we received secret orders informing us that we had been placed on a "Blacklist" which meant that we were ticketed for immediate occupation duty in Japan. We shall never forget the mixed expressions on the faces of the men when this announcement was made. Some had figured that the end of the war would mean an early return home.

"Others had become quite satisfied with life in the Philippines and had hoped that they would be able to spend their remaining overseas time here. Above all there was the deep concern of just what was ahead in being among the first contingents to move into enigmatic Japan. These speculations were fraught with much distrust and suspicion of the Japanese, and there was a singular lack of enthusiasm for the venture.

First News

"The first news of the Japanese surrender offer reached us at night in Leyte and it set off a premature pyrotechnic display brought about chiefly by the hundreds of ships anchored offshore in the harbor. The dazzling effect caused by the brilliant shafts of powerful searchlights on these ships as they directed their beams back and forth across the starry Philippine sky was a spectacle we shall never forget.

"But this was more than matched by the exuberant, unsuppressible joy of the Filipinos who had wailed and suffered nearly four, long years for this hour of victory. To attempt a description of the floodtide of elation gled by Peg-Leg Bates, Sammy has since become the friend of most of America's Negro entertainment stars.

You ARE Your Brother's Keeper

Have you ever gone to the corner grocery and been told that there was no food to be bought? Have you ever felt the gnawing pang of hopeless hunger? Have you ever seen the swollen bellies and emaciated limbs of starving children? Have you ever looked into the lustreless eyes of whole populations whose daily diet consisted of a few crusts or a bowl of watery soup? Have you ever experienced knowing that no matter how hard you might work you would not be able to provide your family with food—because the food just isn't there? No, you probably haven't.

But, all over the world, there are conditions just like these. And, they are conditions that we cannot tolerate, in the name of decency or continued world peace.

Hunger breeds discontent. Discontent breeds strife. The world cannot stand another war. But it can be avoided only if we realize that we are, in truth, our brother's keepers.

WE MUST COOPERATE WITH THE EFFORTS OF THE FAMINE EMERGENCY RELIEF COMMITTEE BY SAVING EVERY BIT OF FOOD WE CAN!

Here are some of the things you can do!

Never waste bread. Make 3 loaves do the work of five.	Use less wheat cereals and other wheat products.
Serve potatoes more often. Try potato pancakes, potato soup or salad.	Save and re-use fats and oils.
Substitute fruits and other desserts for cakes and pastries.	Serve fewer fried foods.
Serve oatmeal often. One serving equals two slices of bread in food value.	Salvage all fats that can't be re-used and turn them in to your butcher or grocer.
Serve open-face sandwiches and pies.	Use fewer oil dressings—more boiled dressings for salads.

Buy—Cook—Serve sparingly
HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS ARE HUNGRY! DON'T WASTE FOOD!
