ESTIMATE ELECTED HAITIAN PRESIDENT

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti.—(NNPA)—Dumarats Estime was elected President of Haiti by the General Constituent Assembly last Friday.

President Estime, a Democrat, is described as a "Black Moderate." He was elected a delegate to the Constituent Assembly last May, following the military coup d'etat that overthrew President Elie Lescot.

He was Secretary of Education in the Government of Stenio Vincent (1931-41) and first gained the limelight as the only member of the Congress to vote for President Lescot in 1941. He voted against a second term for President Lescot in 1944, when all other Congressmen voted for it.

The "Black Moderates" have a majority in the Constituent Assembly. Only a few of those who campaigned under the militant slogan of "Power to the Blacks" and "Death to the Mulattoes" who form the upper crust of the republic's life were elected last May.

CHICAGO.—The 31st annual convention of the Knights of St. Peter Claver and the ladies auxiliary was held here Aug. 5-8, marking the first time in the order's history that the convention was held north of the Mason-Dixon line. Host to the meet were the councils and courts of Chicago, representing 500 of the national order's 9,000 members.

The historic convention opened Tuesday, Aug. 6, with a pontifical high mass celebrated by Samuel Cardinal Stritch of Chicago in the beautiful Corpus Christi church. Among the 1,600 delegates and visitors were several Negro priests, the Rev. Frs. Francis G. Wade, S. V. D., national chaplain; Austin Chachera, Anthony C. Bourges, S. V. D.; and Norman Duckette, who assisted the cardinal in the ceremony.

All-Negro Motion Pictures Into 'Big Money' Bracket

NEW YORK.—That the production and distribution of all-Negro motion pictures has gone into the "big money" bracket is seen this week with the incorporation at Albany of Herald Pictures, Inc., whose announced purpose is the production and release of twelve pictures at the rate of one each month.

Heretofore, over six hundred theatres throughout the country, catering to Negro audiences were forced to depend upon spasmodic independent production and indifferent distribution in relation to the presentation of pictures featuring an all-Negro cast. But the industry has outgrown the topsy-turvy idea, made famous by Octavius Roy Cohen, featuring Slappy and Florian in the Saturday Evening Post.

In addition to being able to contract for twelve programs, it is now possible for an exhibitor to book and advertise a complete all-Negro show months in advance, naming stars and titles.

The Herald company, through its president Jack Goldberg, a pioneer in this field and a booking executive of Loew's theatre circuit, announces that production values on the new pictures will be raised to a $50,000 negative cost. This is almost three times greater than has been spent on such type of pictures in the past.

The first feature, "Boy! What A Girl!" is scheduled to go into production on Sept. 16th at the Fox Movietone Studios in New York City, under direction of Arthur Leonard. Mr. Leonard, prior to his entrance in the Navy spent seven years with Vitagraph directing shorts. His last picture starring Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt in the Hobby Lobby series for Columbia Pictures.

John Gluskin, manager and director of orchestras (including Gene Krupa), is a production executive in charge of casting, J. M. Lehrfeld, investments adviser, is secretary and treasurer of the new corporation.

In "shooting" their initial picture at the Fox Studios, the company will go on record as having the first all-Negro independent production to be made in one of the larger studios, Western Electric sound.

The organization is opening distributing and booking offices in Chicago, Atlanta, Dallas and Los Angeles in addition to their home offices in New York City.

A building has been obtained in Harlem which will be converted into a motion picture studio, but cannot be made ready for occupancy until after the first of the year. When completed it will be the only studio in the world built expressly for the production of all-Negro pictures.

According to Mr. Goldberg, theatres showing Negro pictures have increased over twenty percent in number since the war, with sales in foreign fields having jumped three hundred percent. The advent of 16mm projection has also increased the subsequent income of Negro films, he said.

Eye Witness Discovered in Case of Blinded Veteran; Gets $22,000 from Benefit

NEW YORK.—NAACP investigators working in South Carolina in an attempt to discover clues which would lead them to the policemen responsible for the savage attack and blinding of Negro veteran Isaac Woodard, announced today the discovery of an eyewitness to the February 12th assault. The witness, a Negro veteran, had remained silent for fear of retaliatory action against himself. When found however, the veteran readily supplied investigators with the information he possessed and drew up a signed affidavit when promised NAACP protection.

The veteran, whose identity cannot be disclosed for obvious reasons, in his affidavit clears up a controversy which reached a dramatic climax recently when Orson Welles, hard-hitting radio commentator and Hollywood actor, answered the mayor of Aiken, S. C. who demanded retraction of the charge made by Woodard that the brutal attack had occurred in that city. Welles, in his regular Sunday afternoon network broadcast, had stated that Woodard, a man who had served his country during the war claimed that he'd been attacked and blinded in Aiken, S. C. "The burden of proof lies with you, Mr. Mayor," said Welles. "You should have addressed your demands for a retraction to Sgt. Isaac Woodard. But it would have to be sent in braille, Mr. Mayor, for Isaac Woodard has no eyes," continued the provocative commentator.

Woodard in explaining his reasons for naming Aiken as the scene of his horrifying experience said, "To the best of my knowledge I was attacked in Aiken, S. C. The policeman, after he put me in the car to take me to the hospital answered me when I asked him where I was. He told me we were in Aiken, S. C. A few days later a couple of guys came into the ward inquiring about the soldier who captain in the army. The awards dinner is open to the public who may secure tickets at Hardways Tonsorial Parlor, 1004 Center; or the Community Luncheonette, 1202 Center street.

Rich White Man Explains Why He Married Negro

SAN FRANCISCO.—(Pacific Press Syndicate)—Anglo-Saxon "racial ethics" this week made it necessary for Gustav Woerner, wealthy white 78-year-old San Francisco executive, to explain why he had climaxed a 30-year romance with a Negro woman with marriage.

Woerner, vice president and treasurer of the Schilge Lock company and a stockholder in the Western Co-operative company, said he married Juanita Smith, 49, in order to obtain a birth certificate for their 15-year-old daughter.

The marriage was performed in a simple ceremony at Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Mrs. Smith and her daughter have been living in a house less than a block away from Woerner's residence.

The new Mrs. Woerner returned to her former home with her daughter after the ceremony.

"It is true," Woerner told reporters.

"In order to get a birth certificate for the child I married Mrs. Smith. It was the only thing I could do. It was the honorable thing to do.

'Time Has Come' Says Atty. Gen. Clark; 'Find No Racial Tension in Mississippi Case'

CAMBRIDGE, OHIO.—(NNPA).—Declaring that he will point out to Congress when it convenes the need for federal antilynching legislation, Attorney General Tom C. Clark called upon "every loyal citizen and law enforcement officer" to do everything within their power to prevent recurrence of mob violence.

Addressing the "Homecoming Picnic" sponsored by the Guernsey County and the Cambridge Chamber of Commerce here last Thursday afternoon, after describing juvenile delinquency as "a real and threatening problem" and the age 17 as "the greatest crime age," Mr. Clark said:

"However, I did not intend to dwell at length upon this phase of lawlessness' bad as the situation is.

"Today I call to your attention another phase of lawlessness coupled with civil disturbances that violate all orderly legal procedures.

"The time has come when Congress may have to pass legislation to insure all citizens the guarantees under the Constitution.

"When the Congress returns, I shall file a report pointing out the facts, and outlining our experience in these cases and, in addition, pointing out the weaknesses of the present federal statutes in the light of these incidents" and the need for legislation to protect every citizen in his civil rights.

"At a time when our great Secretary of State James W. Brynes is engaged in the monumental task of working out a formula for guaranteeing life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness for minority groups throughout the world; when our Nation shines undimmed as an example of democracy at its best, a land where members of all races, creed and color can live together in harmony, these sporadic outbursts of intemperance and mob violence can only result in the loss of prestige and give rise to the suggestion that we put our own house in order before we tell others how to run theirs.

"As a means toward erasing this blot on our society, I again call upon every loyal citizen and law enforcement officer to do everything within his power to discourage and prevent a further recurrence of mob violence and to see that every participant in such violence is apprehended and prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law."

ROUND UP FOURTEEN IN MISSISSIPPI

MAGEE, MISS.—Fourteen Negroes were being held in three Mississippi jails Wednesday as the state sought to learn where some of them procured army rifles and ammunition to fight the battle of Sullivan's hollow.

Jeff Davis, executive assistant to the governor, said the governor's office had conducted an "on the spot investigation" of the ambush wounding of four peace officers, and that "we found no element of racial tension".

An M-1 rifle and tracer bullets were taken from one of the Negroes. Two others, Davis said, had army carbines.

MAGEE, MISS.—Two Negroes, members of a family sought in connection with the ambush wounding of a deputy sheriff and three other white men, surrendered to state police Monday as bloodhounds led a posse into their swampland hideout.

Several other members of the family were believed still in the swamp.

Deputy Sheriff Gleen Hester of Smith county was seriously wounded Sunday night when he went to the Negroes' home to investigate reports that one of them had fired into a carload of white men.

Those wounded with him were: Gaston H. Sullivan, cafe operator; (SEE EDITORIAL PAGE)

Urban League Shows Gain in Department Store Workers

NEW YORK.—(NNPA).—In a manual on "Integration of Negroes in Department Stores," the National Urban League revealed last Saturday a substantial gain in the use of colored persons as sales and clerical workers in the retail merchandising field throughout the country.

The department store manual, compiled by Leroy Jeffries, assistant director of the League's Industrial Relations Department, from reports of local League's indicated that the greatest gains have been made in New York, New Jersey, and Massachusetts.

The retail merchandising field, described as late as 1938 as being "barred to Negroes as effectively as if by legislative fiat," is gradually opening new job opportunities to colored people, Jeffries states.

Fourteen large merchandise firms in the New York area use colored persons as sales and stock clerks stenographers, and personnel executives. In New Jersey, the local League's Industrial Relations Department reported placement of six clerks in two Newark stores. Seven Boston stores, including small exclusive shops in the Cambridge and Beck Bay sections, are using a total of twenty colored sales girls in addition to clerical workers.

Department stores in a number of small western and mid-western towns are hiring colored clerks. In Milwaukee, Wisconsin, the first colored department store clerk was placed early this year through the local League.

This lessening of opposition to employing colored people in the retail merchandising industry, which completed more than 7 billion dollars worth of sales in 1945 and employs millions of workers around the country, is viewed as an encouraging sign in the total white collar picture for colored people, Jeffries states.

It is one of the areas, he pointed out, in which timidity on the part of employers fearing public opinion has kept employment bars most rigid.

Integration of colored workers in department stores has become one of the major activities of the Urban League movement.

J. W. THOMPSON

Probation officer in the Polk County Juvenile court, working under presiding officer, Judge Joseph E. Myers, is J. W. Thompson of 1226 McCormick street, who has held the position since May 1943. With the approaching of the opening of the public schools next month, Mr. Thompson is expecting some relief in his work—when children of school age will be back under the supervision of the schools. As a probation officer, Mr. Thompson's work is the handling of all Negro cases that are referred to the juvenile court by other social agencies—the police departments, the Police youth bureau, the humane society and individuals who feel that some child is destroying property or in need of some supervision. Children neglected by parents, children under improper guardianship dependents, delinquents and incorrigibles are cases that come under the work of Mr. Thompson. Since the war ended, and the parents have returned home—either from the industrial plants or military services—some improvement in the stability of the homes with children has been noted Mr. Thompson believed. Neglect and improper guardianship cases have fallen off. "I like to think of our work in the juvenile court as a clinic—attempts to straighten out the child's thinking and get him on the road to becoming a well-rounded citizen," the probation officer commented as he explained how other social agencies assist. Physical and mental examinations and an investigations of the home life of children brought to the court, are made in efforts to determine the source or causes for any child's predicament. YWCA's and YMCA's and Community Centers and other agencies assist in the work of adjusting children. What Mr. Thompson likes best about his work is the opportunity to help youth overcome difficulties, he said. Born in Lawrence, Kas., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thompson, he was reared and educated in Des Moines, graduating from East High school and Drake University. He has worked with the Polk County Welfare Department as overseer of the poor, served as attendant of the Polk County Juvenile home, held the position of visiting teacher of the Des Moines Public schools and, before going to the juvenile court, was a clerk in the city assessors' office. A trustee of the union Baptist church, he is a member of the North Star lodge of the Masons, board member of Crocker YMCA, member of Boy Scout Troop 5 committee and the Roosevelt club. The father of two children, Dennis 11, and Ethel Victoria 7, he resides in his own home with his wife, Veltirea, at 1226 McCormick street. A brother, Captain (Chaplain) Ernest E. Thompson, returned this month from two years in Italy. The Thompson family will leave August 27 for a vacation in Kansas. Celebrate Labor Day at Jolly "S" Style Show and Jam Session at Sepia, 3 to 7 p. m. Admission 50 cents.—ADV.

IN CATHEDRAL WEDDING CEREMONY

MR. AND MRS. DALLAS L. ELLIOTT

Miss Rose Mae Lovelady, daughter of the late John C. Lovelady of West Des Moines, and Mr. Dallas L. Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Elliott of West Des Moines, were married at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, August 10 in a wedding mass at St. Ambrose Cathedral. Father Gerald Deere solemnized the ceremony.

In the procession to the altar were bridesmaids, Misses Betty Lou Allison, Evelyn Carter and Theresa Elliott, sister of the bridegroom; and Matron of Honor, Mrs. John Robinson II, cousin of the bridegroom. With the bridegroom at the altar was best man, Mr. Lloyd Burns.

On the arm of Mr. John Coleman, the bride was beautifully attired in a period wedding gown of soft taffeta. A yoke of fine net formed a high neckline which was trimmed with ruffled lace. Seeded pearl bordered the yoke. The basque-fitted waist had long sleeves. A full hooped skirt fell into a court train. A panel of white ruffled lace centered the lower front of the skirt. A bluish veil of tulle was held by a coronet of seeded pearls. The bride carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Bridesmaids wore gowns of blue and pink. Miss Allison's was sheer pink; Miss Carter' blue, Miss Elliott' pink; and the matron of honor, Mrs. Robinson's, pink net with a matching veil.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at high noon in the parlors of the Blue Triangle Branch YWCA. Hostesses were Miss Mattie P. Burke and Mesdames Adah Johnson and Clifford Bayles. A wedding party was held Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Mitchner in West Des Moines.

Mrs. Elliott, native of West Des Moines, is a graduate of Valley High school, and is now a senior at Drake university. A member of St. Ambrose cathedral, she is active in the Youth Council of the NAACP, the American Legion Auxiliary No. 126, the Coll-Eds Club of Drake university.

Mr. Elliott is also a native of West Des Moines, a graduate of Valley High school, and a member of St. Ambrose cathedral. A veteran of World War II, he served in the U. S. Navy. He is employed at the Marquette Cement company.

The couple is residing at 132 Ninth street in West Des Moines. Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mrs. Jeff Scott and Mrs. Edith Deering, both of Houston, Texas, an aunt and cousin, respectively, of the bride.

M. R.—My problem is difficult. I met a fellow recently and we have been going together long enough to know whether we love each other or not, fact is, he has taken me out three times. I love him more than anything but he takes other girls out everytime he isn't with me and it's always a different one. Tell me, does he love me?

Ans: He loves you and all the other young attractive girls at his beck and call. But not one of you does he love well enough to commit himself. You had better not go overboard for him.

M. T. L.—Have been married for 7 years. Our marriage hasn't been a happy one as he has always been bad about running about with other women. He wouldn't take me out because I didn't have nice clothes and he wouldn't buy me any. I got a job and went to work and started dressing up and now he is fussing and raising heck and accusing me of other men. He follows me everywhere I go and it is getting on my nerves so badly I don't know what to do. Tell me what on earth is wrong with him?

Ans: He's Jealous and he has a good reason to be. He knows you are mysterious phone calls and is wise enough to know that there is a suitor in the picture. Your husband has changed and discontinued his running around and you had better follow suit.

C. H.—Some six years ago, I was in love with a man but we parted. I nearly went crazy. We met again this spring and he wants me and he says he loves me. I plan to go to school and take up a trade and he has offered to help me out financially. I am afraid it won't last. Someone else wants to marry me but I want to go to school. What shall I do?

Ans: The first man and you can't get married and you know it. If you accepted financial aid from him you would be obligated to some extent which wouldn't be a very desirable state of affairs. Take the course, but finance it yourself by working part time.

THIS NEWSPAPER, IOWA'S OLDEST NEGRO WEEKLY, IS AN INSTITUTION DEVELOPED FOR AND BY THE PEOPLE OF IOWA AND THE MIDDLEWEST TO PRESENT THE NEWS OF THE DAY, FOSTER BETTER RACE RELATIONS, LEAD PUBLIC OPINION AND TO CONTEND FOR THE CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS OF ALL THE PEOPLE AT ALL TIMES.

RACIAL ISSUE - A HANDICAP

It is a strange thing that most of the racial disturbances which occur are brought about by some altercation between a Negro and white person which they themselves could well have settled without help from the outside.

Unfortunately, we have allowed a feeling to grow up too much that Negroes must be against white people and vice versa; that whatever is done against the whole white race or vice versa.

There is a deep seated prejudice against Negroes among many people which is fanned constantly by demagogues who, in the name of free speech, do more to undermine the fundamental principles upon which this country was founded, than any single thing.

Attorney General Clark says that our federal civil rights laws have been restricted to such an extent by court interpretation that little can be done by the federal department to prosecute violators participating in disturbances and other infringements upon the rights of citizens.

We have a big task on our hands to change the thinking of people on this matter of race otherwise we make poor progress in bringing about better understanding between races and creeds in this country.

DES MOINES MAKES GOOD PROGRESS

During the 1945-46 school year for the first time in history, the Des Moines School Board employed a Negro teacher. She was on the supply assignment as a music teacher.

Well qualified from every angle as the authorities said, she did a good job and was well received by the teachers and pupils in the schools where she taught. There were some kickbacks, but this was to be expected for whenever a Negro is elevated to a post beyond the mental level some people object. Their objections were heard and disposed of in the light of justice and fair play.

The board is in the process of hiring teachers for the 1946-7 term and it has been announced that a Negro applicant has been hired and assigned to the kindergarten department. The announcement said she was a specialist in that work.

The employment of these teachers is the result of a long constant intelligent campaign conducted by fair-minded white people and Negroes in Des Moines. At times, the effort seemed useless by some, some people discouraged the idea but others pushed ahead.

In many instances, that discouragement seemed justified for some of those in positions of responsibility expressed disapproval. However, there were those who insisted that the board had but one requirement and that was that applicants should meet its standards. And, as a matter of fact, when applicants presented themselves who were qualified and vacancies existed, Negro teachers were hired.

The school board and the school officials are to be congratulated; they should be encouraged for there are those who will oppose their action.

The Bystander hopes for those new teachers every success for as they do a good job, the action of the school officials will be justified and the hiring of Negro teachers will present no problem in the future.

MUST USE SENSE WITH THE OPA

Following a series of hearings, the control board has decided to place meat and some other items under OPA regulation. One reason for this action was the great increase charged for meat since June 30.

There is truth in the charge; processors brought this on their own heads. But it has long been recognized that money could not be made at the old prices and thus little meat was available to buy. However, if, in arriving at prices a reasonable increase is granted processors, meat will not be scarce. On the other hand, if those who insist that the packers can make money at the old level in spite of increased operating expenses prevail, the black market and shortage will be with us again.

LEAGUE TO ST. LOUIS

NEW YORK, (NNPA).—The National Urban League's 1946 annual convention will be held in St. Louis September 25-29, William H. Baldwin, its president, announced last Thursday.

The sessions will be held in the Kiel Municipal Auditorium in that city, with the opening date marking the 157th anniversary of the proposal of the Bill of Rights to the Federal Constitution.

The conference's main emphasis will be on effective methods of combating race hate and solving social problems through "American teamwork" in local communities. Its theme will be "American Teamwork Works: Attacking Postwar Problems in Race Relations."

Five days of workshop sessions on employment, housing, and community planning will be held. Addresses will be delivered by both white and colored leaders in industry, labor, government and public welfare from both the North and the South.

WOODARD FUND STILL RISING

(SEE FRONT PAGE) NEW YORK, N. Y.—Isaac Woodard, Jr., Negro combat veteran who says he was blinded by a South Carolina policeman shortly after his release from the army, Monday had $22,000 with which he hopes to establish a restaurant.

The sum was turned over to Woodard Sunday night at the rally in Lewisohn stadium where 50 entertainers put on a benefit show before an estimated 20,000 persons. Jos Louis, heavyweight boxing champion, was co-chairman of the benefit.

Mayor William O'Dwyer, honorary chairman of the committee, declared that the "battle against intolerance must be pressed on every street corner."

2 NEGROES SURRENDER; POSSE HUNTS A FAMILY

The Negroes fled into the swamp country of Sullivan hollow, old fishing ground of Smith county about halfway between Jackson and Hattiesburg.

The Negroes are members of the Albert Craft family. Two of them, Johnny and Garfield, recently were discharged from the armed forces.

Intoxicated Several officers expressed the opinion that the Craft men were intoxicated at the time.

In Washington, the justice department Monday ordered U. S. Atty. Toxey Hall at Jackson, Miss., to confer with the sheriff of Magee concerning the posse hunt and to inform the sheriff that "orderly processes of law should prevail at all times."

YMCA'S JIMCROW DEFIED BY WDL

DENVER, COLO.—(WDL)—At YMCAs both here and in Des Moines, Ia., William Worthy, field secretary of the Workers Defense League, was given a room-only after threatening to bring suit under state civil rights laws.

In both towns Worthy threatened suit after his reference to the race resolutions adopted by the YMCA national convention proved unavailing. The two YMCAs took their jimcrow stand despite the fact that Worthy has a membership card, which is supposed to give priority in any branch. Attempts were made to persuade him to go to the town's Negro facilities

SPORTS

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Chet Williamson found the comeback trail a rough and rocky one, as he tried to shake the rust of three year's absence away and compete in the Crocker Y tennis tournament. Playing on nothing but experience and nerve alone, Chet reached the finals by setting down Ted Martin, Art Propes, and Everett Newcomb, allowing each man just two games.

But in was a different story as he faced Paul Williams in the final match Sunday. Cocky Paul, who had sailed through Harold Morrow and Bill Ashby to reach the final bracket, simply brought the ball back and let Chet beat himself. Of course, Paul would come through with a fine placement just when he needed it, but Chet's tired old legs made even that task easier. After the match, Chet said, "well, I put the title up there, and they took it." He had said that he preferred to lose his title as he had won it, on the courts, and that was just what he did.

Cleota Proctor grabbed the girl's singles title, and Don Spangler took over the boy's singles after he had called them all a bunch of hams and proceeded to prove that they were just that in his estimation. In his final match he beat Connie Jones, 6-0, 6-1.

Marie Ross had quite a time defending her women's singles crown. It was Ross against the field, and everyone was out to beat her, and a couple of them, Pat White, and Ramona La Deaux nearly got the job done. Both of them carried her to three sets Sunday in the semi-final and final match respectively, but the Ross coolness under pressure won out but she was a tired sister at the end of the day.

Williams and Bill Ashby collared the men's doubles by trouncing the best pair of scufflers the park has seen in a long time. Ted Martin and Art Propes literally scuffed Williamson and your writer out of their match Sunday, although they were aided no little by the latter, who might as well have stayed home. But they couldn't scuffle up enough to get by Paul and Bill. Williamson and Ross retained their mixed doubles title by getting a default over their humble servant and Pat White.

Your writer set some sort of record for defaults. First, he had a chance to go into the semi-finals against Chet, and defaulted to Propes when he had to be out of town. Then, after laying around all day Sunday for his mixed doubles match, he was taken out at the final because he had to go to camp.

"This is our hot weather with 75 degrees. August and September are our hot weather months. We have all sunshine now. Between October up to December is our thunder, storm and rain season.

"It will do you fine on a little holiday you get here—all sunshine and sea bathing and sea clear. Nothing to harm you. You could enjoy the sea with swimming or exercise or sailing about in an ark boat with sails."

"You will like it here, too. The Barbados is the best in the West. I am here keeping the body fit with exercise and plenty of sea bathing. Before the last war broke out you could get people to come from the states here to spend holidays or stay here. Remember me and write a few lines. GOD IS STILL KING

Man has perfected A giant bird that can wing Faster than the swiftest dove Leave a fleeting shadow Over countless acres of grain Even scold the dizzy heights Of our lofty crags Till crystal clear mountain tarns Are left behind. And look as tiny finger looms Penetrate the veil of clouds That sometime hide the heaven

Man is great And has wrought wonders But God is greater—He who gave us day and night Sends forth each storm A mighty beaconed sun To run across the skies Open to claim Man's prize The longest hop of man's bird.

Each even tide At his bidding A yellow moon races again North hoveholed sky. Proof enough that God is King indeed.

Proud the stately ship Queenly rides the seas, Gracefully skimming the placid blue, Defiantly riding the restless wave; Distinguished work of man Justly meriting praise given.

But when the many waves Dash high and toss the Able vessel around as a toy, And mighty jaws of the deep Open to claim Man's prize Only the God on high Can raise a finger. Whisper, "Peace be still," To save man's creation; God reigned kind indeed! Norman Sims Ellington
