477TH COMPOSITE GROUP TO REMAIN AT LOCKBOURNE ARMY AIR BASE

WASHINGTON—The 477th Composite Group of the Army Air Forces is permanently assigned to Lockbourne, Ohio, Army Air Base and will remain there, AAF Headquarters announced this week.

This announcement refuted rumors that this outstanding Negro AAF unit would be transferred, and was made as a result of numerous inquiries received by AAF headquarters.

RULE SEGREGATION ON TRAINS ILLEGAL

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The court of appeals for the District of Columbia Monday ruled segregation of Negroes on railroad cars is illegal.

The Rev. William H. Jernagin, Ralph Matthews and William J. Scott, Washington, contended they were forced to leave a Southern train in Lynchburg, Va., and sued for $45,000.

The railroad claimed the Negroes were riding in a car reserved for white passengers as provided by the laws of Virginia.

After arriving in the United States last year, they enrolled in the National Catholic School of Social Service here under the auspices of the Queen Isabella Foundation of the Daughters of Isabella.

Final Amateur Talent Show Rehearsal Monday Night at YMCA

Mob of talented youngsters—from the ages of four years up—crowded in the auditorium of the Crocker Street YMCA last Monday night to tryout for the Bystander's twelfth annual Talent Show which will be presented at North High school on Monday evening, October 7, at 8:15 p. m.

At the piano, ready for any and every number that the young crooners wanted to sing, was Miss Doris Bennett, who handled the rehearsals and the accompaniments for the show last year.

The youngest among the youth who tried out Monday night was four-year-old Kay Frances Woods of 927 Fifteenth street, whose brother Harry, won a first prize last year on his rendition of "Caldonia." Harry has a new number for the 1946 talent show—but he's having some time in getting "Hey Baha Rebob."

Another four-year-old is Alice Mary Clinton of 735 S. E. 26th street court. In her talent show debut, she is singing a religious number, "He Knows How Much We Can Bear."

Mrs. Bernice Gaines, music instructor here, has several students in the show this year, including her two small sons, Bernard E. and Wallace A., who did their version of "The Gypsy"—and if they are in the mood may wear gypsy costumes.

In the older group of youngsters and adults is a variety of talent, including pianists, trumpeters, and all-round youth performers in the show. Other cash prizes will be given by the Bystander.

Says Mob Violence Was One of Greatest Problems, Pledges Support to End Evil

WASHINGTON, D. C.—President Truman, September 20 held a conference at the White House with a delegation from the recently formed National Emergency Committee Against Mob Violence. The committee, formed at the call of the NAACP, represents 47 national labor, church, women's, publishers', lawyers' civil rights and fraternal organizations. Its delegation was warmly received by the President. His interest in the subject was so great that he spent 35 minutes of the prearranged 15 minutes discussing the situation with the group, which included Dr. Channing H. Tobias, Frederick E. Reissig of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, James Carey, secretary of the CIO, Boris Shaskin of the AFL and Walter White, secretary, and Leslie Perry, administrative assistant, of the NAACP.

Mr. White Speaks

Serving as spokesman for the group, Mr. White urged the President to act to stem the rising tide of lynchings and violence against Negroes.

He described to the President circumstances leading up to the blinding of Isaac Woodard, calling attention to the fact that Sheriff L. M. Shull of Batesburg, S. C., boasted that it was his handiwork. Mr. White further pointed out the fact that the NAACP has submitted to the Department of Justice the names of participants in the quadruple lynching in Walton County, Georgia, and the blow-torch, meat-cleaver lynching in Minden, Louisiana—emphasizing the fact that the Department has not yet moved for indictment. The plight of the defendants and counsel in the prejudice-ridden court in Lawrenceburg, Tennessee, was detailed to the President, and Mr. White cited the remark of District Attorney Bumpus that he was going to wrap a chair around that "nigger" lawyer's head if he didn't stop contradicting him, referring to NAACP defense counselor Dr. Leon A. Ransom.

Greatest Problem

The President said that this wave of violence has been one of his greatest problems. Visibly moved by the story of Woodard's blinding, he said that nothing he could think of could justify a sheriff doing what this one did—that there must be some law under which the sheriff can be handled. He promised the group that he would take up the matters discussed with Attorney General Clark the next day.

Dr. Tobias told the President that he had just returned from Africa via London and that, abroad, there was great admiration for the United States but everywhere he went, where the papers played up this country's lynchings, he could see that America had lost a great deal of its prestige.

Dr. Tobias and Mr. Carey both reiterated the need for leadership from the White House, saying that the decent people in Georgia and other areas are confused and need the clarion voice of the Chief Executive—that should President Truman speak out on this subject, it would bolster the morale of liberal forces throughout the world.

Henry Wallace Favored Full Participation of Negroes In Governmental Program

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Henry A. Wallace, who has consistently championed the rights of colored people during his public career, resigned last Friday as Secretary of Commerce.

His resignation was requested by President Truman because of a conflict of views on foreign policy.

"We could not permit this conflict to jeopardize our position in relation to other countries," President Truman declared in a statement he read at a press conference Friday morning, announcing that he had asked Mr. Wallace to resign from the Cabinet.

At the same time, Mr. Truman endorsed the course taken by Secretary of State James F. Byrnes in international affairs.

"As I have frequently said," Mr. Truman stated, "I have complete confidence in Mr. Byrnes and his delegation now representing this country at the Paris Peace Conference," adding:

"Mr. Byrnes consults with me often and the policies which guide him and his delegation have my full endorsement."

Favored Full Participation

The resignation of Mr. Wallace leaves President Truman's Cabinet almost entirely bereft of heads of departments who have a fair and impartial attitude toward colored people. The two outstanding members of the Cabinet now in this regard are Attorney General Tom C. Clark, of Texas, who is making strenuous efforts to protect the civil rights of minority groups, and J. A. Krug, Secretary of the Interior, who during the hearings on the nomination of Governor William H. Hastie of the Virgin Islands put himself on record as favoring equality of opportunity for colored people.

Tell of Beating by Guardsmen in Tennessee Case

LAWRENCEBURG, TENN.—Early and Lee Andrew Shyers, brothers, testified Monday they were beaten when they were taken to jail after the Feb. 25 racial disorders at Columbia, Tenn.

"When they got me inside the door, a state guardman hit me three times with a blackjack," Lee Andrew said. Early testified he was "knocked down."

FBI Offered $50 They were witnesses at the trial of 25 Negroes on charges of attempted murder. Both were released after five days in jail and no charges were brought against them.

Asked if anyone ever offered him any money to testify, Early said: "One FBI man promised me $50 if I'd tell all I knew."

Saw Armed Men Lee said he saw "a bunch of white men—about 15 or 20—armed with weapons" in the downtown city square near the scene of the rioting.

"There were other little huddles of white men around the square—some of them had guns, too," he said.

MRS. FRANCES N. HALL

Serving as deputy in the Polk County Recorder's office is Mrs. Frances N. Hall of 1608 School street who has held this position for nine and one-half years.

"Snowed-under" with work in the chattel department, Mrs. Hall was busy entering records on Tuesday morning when she stopped to chat with a reporter.

When she began working in the recorder's office she started in the photostat department, that photographs copies of all documents and records that are kept in the recorder's office.

From there she has worked in other departments of the recorder's office—but now is "quite happy" in the chattel department where her duties include indexing, releasing, comparing mortgages and assignments and other instruments.

The recorder's office, she explained has a record of almost everything—and since the war—records of military discharges. The general public thinks that a recorder's office handles mainly records of real estate, but the bulk of records at the present time come from furniture stores, loan companies, auto firms and individuals who want records of business transactions.

The only Negro in the department of 14 deputies, Mrs. Hall was appointed by the present recorder of deeds, Mrs. Jean Hammill. A native of Osceola, Ia., Mrs. Hall was reared and educated in Des Moines, having graduated from East High school and the former Iowa Business college.

She has held employment in clerical positions at the state house, compiled a school census for the board of education and worked on a U. S. census here.

Active in state, county and city Republican clubs, Mrs. Hall is a member of the Phyllis Wheatley Women's club, a member of the St. Paul AME church, past president of the Lincoln Post auxiliary of the American Legion and a charter member of the local NAACP.

Mrs. Hall has one son, Elbert R. Hall, and a step mother, Mrs. John Walker of this city.

VETERANS WHIRL

By JAMES L. HICKS (NNPA Staff Writer) WASHINGTON, D. C.—Those 33,397 jobs for veterans in the Veteran Employment Service have been filled in Nevada, New Hampshire, South Dakota, Vermont, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida and Maine, but vacancies still exist in forty other states.

Last Wednesday Bob Weaver of the American Council on Race Relations, speaking for a delegation of minority representatives, recommended to Secretary of Labor Schwelb that colored veterans be placed in some of these jobs in each of the remaining states.

Better get your application in, Joe—$3,000 jobs are not going floating around forever.

The Whirl

Eligible Ensign Charles Dufican (the singer's son) is no longer at the press desk in the Navy Department. His place was taken by a white woman and the Navy HQ is now lily-white so far as brass is concerned. Major Charity Adams, the ex-WAC, will soon take a job with the VA in Ohio. She has choice of several jobs and feminine like can't make up her mind.

The largest colored bank in America has granted only one GI loan. It was to a D. C. lass, Lucia Pitta, who runs a personal service bureau.

RECORDS SHOW MRS. BARNETT WAS ELIGIBLE TO RELEASE 10 YEARS AGO BUT STATE FAILED TO ENFORCE RULE

ROCKWELL CITY, IA.—Mrs. Winifred Barnett sat in the Iowa women's reformatory Saturday, insisting she hasn't served her full sentence at the institution and wouldn't leave until she has.

The 72-year-old woman was convicted of murdering her divorced husband in Davenport in 1913 and sentenced to 35 years in prison. As she figures it, she still has a couple of years to serve.

"The judge said I must serve 35 years straight," she smiled. She added the late Gov. John Hammill also told her she must serve the full sentence.

She didn't mention and may have forgotten she also drew an additional five-year term for escaping from the women's section of the Anamosa state reformatory where women were imprisoned before the institution was opened here in 1919.

Prison records show the woman has a son living in New York City, but she doesn't want to go to him. She said she had received a Mother's day card from him. She refused to go with him to New York in 1942 when he offered to come for her.

Mrs. Barnett laid a trap May 1, 1913, for her ex-husband, George, and fired two bullets into him while hidden and arranged a suicide scene. She placed the gun in his left hand and escaped. George was right handed.

The controversy of the case ended Wednesday when Mrs. Barnett was brought to Davenport by Mrs. Helen M. Talbot, prison superintendent, by automobile. She will be placed in the Scott county home for aged, Miss Ruth Camp, overseer, said.

Time Up In 1936

But the board of control, which runs Iowa institutions, says her time was up 10 years ago, Dec. 26, 1936, to be exact. This counts time off for good behavior.

"I think she's just been a non-paying guest since that time," commented board member H. H. Hauge in Des Moines.

"When her time was up, she didn't want to leave," he explained. "There was some question for a time whether she had to accept the time off her sentence for good behavior, but the law provides that a person's sentence shall be reduced by a specified amount for such behavior. So, I contend she is just a guest."

Altho Mrs. Barnett told state officials she had "no people at home" and to let me stay in prison until I die," she declared Saturday she just wants to serve out her legal term.

"I could not stay here beyond my time," she said.

"I would walk out these doors the minute it was up."

Returning This Week
But the attorney general's office ruled she not only must leave the prison, but that she a ward of Scott county and prison officials are quietly going about preparations for her transfer to the Scott county home for the aged sometime this week.

"I don't blame her for not wanting to go," Hauge said. "It's a lot nicer at Rockwell City than any county home I ever saw. I wouldn't be surprised if it took a couple of good men to take her out of the reformatory."

Mrs. Barnett, because of her remonstrances against leaving, hasn't yet been told she definitely must go. Reformatory officials are preparing to furnish her clothing and other essentials which go with release of an inmate, but they had to tell her that new dresses were being made for all inmates before she would let them take her measurements.

Has Son In New York

Prison records show the woman has a son living in New York City, but she doesn't want to go to him. She said she had received a Mother's day card from him. She refused to go with him to New York in 1942 when he offered to come for her.

Screen Actors Guild Votes To Fight Jimcra in Movies

By Leon H. Hardwick
HOLLYWOOD—(Pacific Press Syndicate)—The powerful Screen Actors Guild, at its 13th annual membership in the Academy Award Theatre Sunday night, Sept. 15, gave its answer to the vicious "silent boycott" against Negro actors and actresses now being adopted by most of the major film studios—and many of the independent.

The Guild went on record by unanimously adopting a resolution proposed by Betsy Blair, white actress, and others urging the SAG—"to use all of its power to oppose discrimination against Negroes in the motion picture industry."

Special Committee

The resolution further called for the setting up of a special committee at once "to implement this policy and to meet with representatives of the Screen Writers Guild and the Screen Directors Guild and the Motion Picture Producers' Association in order to establish in the industry a policy presenting Negro characters on the screen in the true relation they bear to American life."

Newly elected President Robert Montgomery called on Miss Blair to read the resolution to the 650 "A" guild members, after explaining that the board of directors sanctioned its adoption.

Jesse Graves Speaks

Following the reading of the resolution, Jesse Graves, well known character actor, thanked the body on behalf of his fellow Negro actors and moved for acceptance of the measure. It was passed unanimously.

The unprecedented action by the powerful SAG comes as a direct result of concentrated behind-the-scenes efforts on the part of several colored film players who presented their case to the guild directors last spring.

Notwithstanding the fact that the resolution is one of the most encouraging actions in the present fight for Negro integration into the Hollywood scene, this writer would like to make one observation.

Perhaps we're being over-critical but we would prefer a clarification of the phrase: "to establish in the industry a policy of presenting Negro characters on the screen in the TRUE relation they bear to American life."

Mighty Fittin'—Those Old-Time Tomato Preserves

"How dear to my heart are the scenes of my childhood!" Memories of old oaken buckets belong to a vanishing generation but almost everybody has fond recollections of the favorite foods of his childhood. Every year a good many people write Gladys Kimbrough, Home Service Director for Ball Brothers Company, manufacturer of fruit jars, requesting a recipe for pickles or preserves "like my mother or grandmother used to make."

An Old Favorite

A recipe popular a half century ago appeared in an early edition of the Ball Blue Book. It reads: "To every pound of small yellow tomatoes allow one pound of sugar. Put the tomatoes and sugar together and to every seven pounds of sugar allow the juice of three lemons. Let stand together all night and in the morning drain off the sirup and boil. (The recipe doesn't tell how long, but 10 minutes should do.) Put in the tomatoes and simmer for twenty minutes after they boil. Remove the tomatoes and allow the sirup to boil until thick. Just before taking from the fire, add the lemon juice. Put the fruit in the jars and cover with boiling sirup. Seal immediately."

If a more modern recipe is wanted, you might try:
 2½ pounds (peeled) small tomatoes
 2½ pounds sugar
 2 cups water
 ¼ ounce whole ginger
 1½ lemons (sliced thin)
 ½ ounce of stick cinnamon

Boil together water, sugar, lemon and spices for fifteen minutes; add tomatoes, a few at a time, and cook gently until the tomatoes become bright and clear. Then pour into shallow pans, cover and let stand over night. Pack the cold tomatoes into hot jars and strain the sirup over them. Process twenty minutes at simmering.

If you are wondering where you are going to get the sugar, as who isn't, here is your recipe:

Recipe for Less Sugar

2 pounds tomatoes
 2 cups sugar
 2 cups corn sirup, light or dark
 ½ cup water
 1 lemon
 1 small orange
 1 stick cinnamon
 2 pieces ginger root
 6 whole cloves
 ½ cup raisins

Use small, firm, red, yellow or green tomatoes. Scald one minute. Dip into cold water. Skin but do not core. Combine sugar, sirup, water, lemon, orange (sliced thin) and spices, and simmer 30 minutes. Remove spices. Add tomatoes and boil gently until they are bright and clear. Add raisins. Cover and let stand over night. Pack cold tomatoes into hot fruit jars. Boil sirup until thick as honey and pour over tomatoes. Process 15 minutes at simmering.

Adult sewing classes start Wednesday, Oct. 2, from 1 to 3 p. m. and Thursday, Oct. 3, from 7 to 9 p. m. at the Negro Community center. Mrs. Georgine Morris is instructor.

The Garden club canning exhibit is Friday, Oct. 4. Anyone is eligible to enter their canned goods.

K. C. MONARCHS WIN OPENING SERIES

NEW YORK—(NNPA)—The Kansas City Monarchs, champions of the Negro American League, won the opening game of the 1946 Negro World Series when they defeated the Newark Eagles, Negro National League rulers, 2-1, before 19,423 fans at the Polo Grounds last Tuesday night. The series resumes in Newark Thursday night.

Smart Sweaters and Hats to Make at Home

CHROCHETING AS BEAUTIFUL AS THE WOMAN

But almost just as attractive are the two lovely crocheted sweaters and the crocheted hat that Miss Hurt is wearing. The smart slip-over sweater in the first picture with the embroidered decorated neckline and that mischievous look that she wears on her face give Betty Grable a close run for the champion sweatergirl throughout the country. At the bottom she models a two-tone crocheted jerkin which leaves you with that fit to be tied emotion and at the top of course she is wearing a smart red crocheted hat that does just the thing to her smooth well featured face.

These articles are to be all the rage this season and they will look just as well on you as they look on Elaine Hurt, soon to be famous Neil Scott Model.

You can receive a complete set of instructions as to how to make these three items at a 75% reduction by mailing a stamped self-addressed envelope to Mail Dept., 54 Clark Street, Newark, N. J.

Cab Calloway and Frank Sinatra Offer Radio Scholarship

Frank Sinatra are planning to establish a radio scholarship in American colleges for the best original half-hour radio script stressing the idea of tolerance for all races and religions. The script must include both words and music and the scholarship will consist of tuition covering one year of advanced musical or radio study in the college in which the winner is attending.

The two artists feel that with intolerance and prejudice on the upswing in and outside of the United States, a positive form of propaganda should be utilized to clear the air of misleading information. They ex-

Calloway and Sinatra along with the chairmen of the departments of radio and music of each college selected, will judge all manuscripts and their decision will be final. Return of faculty members from their summer vacations will enable further sampling of opinions.

New York University, University of Chicago and U. C. L. A. have been tentatively chosen for initial tryouts, but the contest to be a definite step in the right direction.

The administrative council of the Order of the Eastern Star will meet Sunday, Sept. 29, at 5 p. m. at the office of Atty. S. Joe Brown. Election of officers will be held.

Mercy hospital here Friday sued a Des Moines physician for $10,000 damages, claiming false arrest and imprisonment.

In his petition, George McCurdy, 1700 Ninth st., said that on Aug. 29 he was in a Mercy hospital room where physicians change their clothing when he was confronted by Dr. Thomas E. Scales, 721 Boyd st., who said his billfold was missing from his pants.

McCurdy said Dr. Scales held him in the room until police arrived.

One of the officers, said McCurdy, discovered the billfold on a filing cabinet in the next room.

McCurdy's petition claimed Dr. Scales directed police to take McCurdy into custody.

McCurdy said he was held in the city jail for four hours, questioned by detectives, accused of the theft, and refused permission to telephone either his family or an attorney.

McCurdy said he was released with no charges filed.

In asking damages, he charged his arrest caused him to be discharged from his $100 a month hospital job.

PERSONAL TOUCH

YMCA secretary Bannister was pretty jittery on Monday night when a mob of Bystander Talent Show entrants swooped down upon the Crocker building which is in the midst of its fall redecoration. When the little crooners and dancers made their dynamic entries into the second floor auditorium for their first try-outs—all the new secretary could think of was the newly painted walls and woodwork—which are being done up in soft, warm colors.

The secretary was worried—because the painters had more painting to do on the walls. When the job is finally completed and the whole building has a new colorful dress for fall—Secretary Bannister is certain he will have no worry. The paint will be on—the building will be clean and pretty—and the boys, men and other groups who use the building will have little trouble in keeping the building attractive.

He revealed he has a "special plan" which was used at the Denver YWCA that never failed to work—when the problem arose of—keeping or not keeping the building attractive. He inferred that the attractiveness of the YWCA will not alter the many activities for boys and men that will be carried on in the building. The Talent show boys and girls will return on Monday night to the YWCA for their final rehearsal—before the 12th show on Monday, Oct. 7. Believe it or not—but the youngsters left just a half-dozen finger prints last week.

THE CHARM OF YOU.

By NATALIE T. SCURLOCK (For the NNPA News Service)

Fall is upon us almost without our realizing it. And there's so much we intended to have done by this time. Oh dear! where did the time go? It seems to pass more quickly each year.

Give a look to that wardrobe. Where is it? Probably packed away in a closet somewhere or in a couple of boxes or some of it may even be still hanging on hangers in that same closet. Tak, tak, tak... "Meant to put those things in storage and moth balls but it seems I never could get around to it."

Oh well, no good crying over spilt milk. Get to that fatigued wardrobe and do something about it. Make a resolution to get that wardrobe back into shape and keep it there. Begin by taking everything that needs cleaning and pressing to the cleaners—a good cleaner, that is.

In keeping your wardrobe trim and neat, try these simple treatments:

If the veil on your hat becomes crumpled and wrinkled you can give it new life and crispness by placing it on a piece of waxed paper and pressing it with a warm iron.

To remove the shine from a wool suit or skirt, place a dampened cloth on the right side of the garment and press gently. Remove the cloth while it is still steaming. Before the garment is quite dry, hang it in a draft.

If pigskin gloves become harsh they may be softened by the use of saddle soap. If they are soiled, wash them first with any good mild soap and finish with saddle soap.

V. D.—I am worried blue. I have a very dear son-in-law when he is at himself. Every three or four months he has some kind of spells. He kicks and groans and won't tell me one his trouble. Is he mad or just can't help himself? What can we do for him? After the spell is over he gets up and leaves the house.

Ans: The boy needs medical attention. Could be that he has a very modest disposition and these spells embarrass him no end. In a nice way encourage him to visit the local doctor there in your village. You might even talk the boy's condition over with the doctor before hand. If he needs the attention of a specialist the doctor is the man to recommend him.

J. Mc—I am going with a married man whose wife follows him wherever he goes. I am expecting his baby. I am not in love with him. Lately, I haven't cared much for anyone for long at a time. I have planned to go see a fortune teller to find out if it's natural or not. Do you think I should? I am really upset.

Ans: There is nothing unnatural about having a baby, that's your trouble. You need to be under a doctor's care, not a fortune teller. Begin making plans for the baby's arrival. You have friends who will stand by you during your confinement. You must profit by this mistake and never allow yourself to be become attached to a married man in the future. It's the girl who always pays.

four social clubs which keeps her out at least three nights a week, somewhat late. I have asked to escort her to and from these social affairs, she told me yes, but—everytime time comes for me to go with her she tells me I need not go, she's going with another lady friend. Please answer in your column what steps to take?

Ans: When husband and wife start leading separate social lives it invites misunderstanding and oftentimes ends in divorce. You are being too meek with her. She must be made to realize that what she is doing is extremely selfish and unfair to you. Her gadding about to social functions while you were in the army was understandable. But now her first duty is to you and a wife's place is in the home.

GOOD CONDUCT PAYS DIVIDENDS

Undoubtedly, the more liberal treatment of Negroes has antagonized some white people who dislike to see minority groups rise above "their place." Some of those people are generally loud and open about their feeling in such matters and fall into the class of what might be trouble makers; often they carry a chip on their shoulders looking for trouble. Then, too, the unsettled condition of the country today keeps most people on edge causing them to think and do things out of the ordinary.

On the other hand, as the Negro meets injustices day after day, his feeling toward those who would deny him equal enjoyment of his rights and privileges as a citizen is anything but good. And when he realizes that he fought in the war that others might enjoy freedom, and has that same freedom denied him, he too is on edge.

There are those fairminded people here and everywhere who are working that all men have equal consideration. They must feel their way, they must handle these problems of minorities intelligently. At times they must take a certain amount of criticism which is not always pleasant.

A person cannot make friends by rawdynam, loud talking, offensive conversation or unsightly appearance either in the home, in public places or on the street.

In order to help a man, he must be willing to help himself. He must not make it difficult for his friends to work in his behalf. To do otherwise simply gives his enemies a weapon with which to fight.

One way Negroes can advance their cause is by observance of proper conduct in public places. Gentlemenly conduct wins over boisterousness every time; a neat appearance both at home and in public makes friends; carrying the proverbial chip on the shoulder is an invitation to somebody to try to knock it off; consideration of the other fellow in whatever relationship one might come creates respect. All these things added up amount to a gentleman and everybody admires gentlemen.

Some people are not taught their things at home; some are but leave them as they step out the door. Consequently the homes, churches and social agencies have a responsibility to double their efforts to improve the conduct of those they serve. This is no easy task, but a constant hammering on the subject by the organization of the forces which by their position in the community must do this work, should make a substantial improvement over that which exists today.

WALLACE SHOULD HAVE KNOWN BETTER

There is such a thing as just criticism and there is such a thing as using decorum and tact in making that criticism. And this is just the thing which former Secretary Wallace did not do in his famous Madison Square Garden speech.

The question of whether Mr. Wallace's views are correct need not be decided in view of the fact that he was a member of President Truman's official family, our state officials are negotiating peace treaties with other countries and efforts are being made to put into operation the United Nations Organization. There may be a division of views on foreign affairs as individuals, but not as members of the cabinet.

Mr. Wallace submitted his speech to President Truman for approval before delivering it. He got that

LOUIS WINS AGAIN

JOE LOUIS

NEW YORK—(NNPA)—Surprised but unhurt by a right-hand punch to the jaw, Joe Louis, the heavyweight champion, unleashed a savage attack that finished Tami Mauriello in 2 minutes 9 seconds of the first round of their scheduled 15-round title bout at Yankee Stadium last Wednesday night.

Mauriello almost knocked Louis out of the ring with his surprise right-hand smash. But Louis came off the ropes swinging and blasted the 23-year old challenger from the Bronx with a left hook that shook Mauriello to his toes. A crushing right to the jaw followed and Mauriello went down. Tami tried to get up at the count of five but decided to take the benefit of the nine-second count. At "nine" the challenger was on his feet.

Louis ripped into his opponent. In a short close-quarter skirmish, while Louis hammered Tami's body, head and face, Mauriello came out of a defensive position and shook Joe slightly with a short left hand followed by a right.

Mauriello's two blows failed to slow up the champion. Joe backed away from a clinch pressed forward again and drove Mauriello about the ring with a barrage of rights and lefts to the head, some of which missed the target.

A left hook to the jaw followed by a lightning-like right hurt Mauriello. Joe followed up his advantage with a two-fisted body attack as he beat Mauriello against the ropes. A barrage of punches dropped the challenger.

Mauriello sagged in a neutral corner, falling to his knees, his arms and head coming to rest on the middle rope. He was in an attitude of prayer before Referee Arthur Donovan tolled the full count of ten over him.

A crowd of 34,494, larger than anticipated, paid $355,063 at $30 to $35 to see the fight.

Corinne Lowry Denver, dean of pledges; Fuschia B. Miller, Chicago, western regional director. The 1947 session will be held in Pittsburgh, Pa.

BOOK CLUB

NEW YORK—The Progressive
Book club takes pleasure in presenting as its October selection an important book on race relations. TO MASTER, A LONG GOODNIGHT, by Brian Gysin, prior to publication is already well on its way to creating a nation-wide controversy.

The book, an historical narrative, is based on the life and times of Josiah Henson—the real-life "Uncle Tom" of Harriett Beecher Stowe's famous novel. The book goes much further than the presenting of this until-now buried information. It gives in a new and challenging way the historical roots of the uncle tom approach to minority problems, a question on which minority groups themselves are split.

Sinclair Lewis brings out these points in his review of the book:

"The book is interesting in its revelation that the model for Mrs. Stowe's 'Uncle Tom' did not die edifying in slavery but played a dirty trick on dear ole Maassa by escaping to Canada and founding a colony of fugitive slaves. It is important in its study of how viciously the clowning and the uncle tomism that delight the bosses may retard any minority—a topic more critical than most readers know."

nice Shepard.

The next meeting will be held Monday evening, September 23, at 8 p. m. All mothers and women invited in child welfare are invited to join this group. Call the Branch as to when the next meeting will be held.

The Teen-Age socials will resume Friday evening, September 27. Hours 8 to 11 P. M. This activity will be sponsored by the Blackhawk Club.

A. P. Trotter, chairman, announced that on Thursday evening, September 26, the Board of Directors will hold its regular meeting.

After two weeks of decoration the YMCA is proud to announce that the second floor of the building has been completed. Every inch of the wall space has been covered with soft warm colors, blending with its physical features. This week the paint crew is starting on the first floor. Stop in and survey the beauty of the building. Everyone is welcome.

Miss Preston Writes About "Things In Detroit"

"How is the newspaper business?" queried eighteen-year-old Maxine V. Preston from Detroit, Mich., in a recent letter.

"Things in Detroit are very, very quiet. Of course, the Ink Spots are drawing so many people downtown that many have to be turned back at the box office. All of the great pictures are showing here.

"Our minister is running for bishop and it seems as though his sermons have encouraged many lost sheep to come back to the fold.

"There are more veterans coming back to no jobs and homes now. I think that the basic cause of Detroit's increase in divorces and crime waves is the fact that fellows have come back to mirages as far as homes are concerned. Personally, I don't blame most of the veterans who are re-enlisting. Battle fatigue is one thing—but my dear child—peace fatigue is just as bad.

"Jobs just aren't to be had unless you have a pull with someone who is filthy rich. Today, I could have been hired at the Bell Telephone Company, only they do not hire girls who are planning to go to college. I'm still enthusiastic over majoring in medical sociology. My boy friend is going in the psychiatric field of social work.

FRIENDS' COMMITTEE LAUNCHES PROJECTS

PHILADELPHIA—(NNPA).
Four work and study projects for young people officially opened last Thursday in the Philadelphia area

Mrs. T. S. Williams and Son to Tuskegee, Ala.

"Theodore, Jr., and I arrived here last Sunday," wrote Mrs. T. S. Williams from Tuskegee Institute, Ala., this week.

"Dorothy Hall Guest House is most beautiful. I think I shall enjoy being here very much." Mrs. T. S. Williams, Box 267, Tuskegee Institute, Ala. Mrs. Williams, the wife of Dr. Williams, formerly resided here.

under the sponsorship of the American Friends Service Committee, Clarence E. Pickett, executive secretary of the committee, announced. The Quaker projects will continue throughout the winter.

These projects consist of an Interne-in-Industry unit in Philadelphia and three Institutional Service Unit Projects which will be located in the Rockland State Hospital, Orangeburg, New York; the New Jersey State Hospital at Trenton, and the New Jersey State Reformatory for Women at Clinton Farms.

"Our purpose in sponsoring these projects in two-fold," Mr. Pickett said. "We want to enable students, or other young people, to gain actual working experience in industries or social institutions, and we want to give them the opportunity to live cooperatively with a group of people who have the same interests, but who come from various racial and religious groups and backgrounds."
