NAACP REGISTER PROTEST OVER ROBESON CONCERT BAN

NEW YORK—The barring of Paul Robeson from concert halls in Albany, New York and Peoria, Illinois, was sharply criticized by the NAACP in wired messages to the mayors of those cities. The Association also placed its facilities at the disposal of the world-famous singer's attorneys.

In a message to Mayor Carl O. Triebel of Peoria, Roy Wilkins, NAACP assistant secretary, stated... "The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People wishes to register its protest against the barring of Paul Robeson from the Peoria City Hall assembly room and the ordering out of extra police to attempt to prevent Mr. Robeson from even entering the city. These actions abrogated the cherished American right of freedom of speech and they aroused apprehension among thoughtful Americans of all shades of opinion."

9th Street Church Participates in Religious Census

Participating in the religious census which is being sponsored in the city by the National Christian Teaching Mission in which fifty other Protestant churches are working, is the Ninth Street Christian church.

Twenty workers took census on Sunday, May 4, between 2 and 6:15 p.m., under the direction of E. J. Dickson, executive secretary of Disciples National Christian convention.

The area covered was from the west side of Ninth street from University avenue to Keo; the north side of Keo from Ninth street to the Viaduct; from the viaduct at Keo and University to Ninth street and all houses in between.

The statistical report showed: 1,067 members of Protestant churches; 101 non-Protestant churches; 1,168 non-prospects; five families declined information; 330 preferred a Protestant church; 7 gave no religious preference; 337 total Protestant prospects.

Incomplete calls 163; complete calls 530; total number of calls 693. The citywide census, partly complete, showed of 35,405 families, representing 100,000 persons, that at least 19,134 residents as non-members of any local church or Sunday school.

In the one-day census, 2,454 canvassers made 42,478 calls. About 7,073 families were not at home; that 97 percent of the families had a religious preference and only, 1,050, or three percent had no choice.

Say Colored Vets Failing To Take Full Advantage of Benefits Provided for GI's

WASHINGTON, D. C., (NNPA)—Thirteen per cent of the 13,900,000 white veterans in this country are taking some form of educational training under the GI bill of rights and vocational rehabilitation act, but less than 5 per cent of the 1,000,000 colored veterans are taking advantage of the benefits offered them by the two laws, a survey discloses.

The Veterans Administration estimates that there are now 14,447,000 veterans in the United States, one million of whom are colored.

On April 1, approximately 1,884,000 veterans were enrolled in 25,000 educational institutions in the United States and abroad. Of that number, 21,596 were colored veterans known to be attending sixty colored institutions of higher learning. An additional 20,000 were estimated to be receiving training at non-segregated schools, making a total of less than 50,000 actually receiving training.

While the 47,596 colored veterans Mrs. Barbara Caldeon, Public health nurse, will also be on the program. The program is sponsored by the Ogleton club.

studying under the two acts is less than 5 per cent of the total colored veterans eligible for training, of the 13,900,000 white veterans, 1,865,000 or more than 13 per cent are taking advantage of the training provided for them.

Much Too High

Informed sources say that the estimate of 20,000 colored veterans attending non-segregated schools is much too high. They point out that three-fourths of the colored men inducted into the army came from southern states and say they doubt seriously if there are 10,000 colored veterans scattered over the country in non-segregated schools.

If this is true the picture is even worse. The 21,596 colored veterans in colored institutions represent less than three per cent of the total number eligible for training under the two acts.

Some sources say colored veterans are failing to take advantage of the benefits provided for veterans for the same reason they have failed to renew their National Service Life Insurance—lack of proper counseling, particularly in southern states.

Posthumus Honor Mrs. S. Joe Brown

Atty. S. Joe Brown, this week received a copy of an autobiographical dictionary, entitled "Who's Who in the Central States" to which his wife gave a sketch of her life's work before her passing more than five years ago.

It contains sketches of more than two thousand outstanding characters of both races in the states of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas including the Rev. Dr. Archibald J. Carey, Alderman Earl B. Dickerson and Congressman Wm. Dawson of Illinois. So far Mr. Brown has been unable to discover a record of any Iowa Negro other than that of Mrs. Brown.

Mother's Day services will be observed with special music by the senior choir on Sunday morning. Lazarus H. Goodwin, Drake university student, will speak on "My Mother" and Nancy Smith will give the origin of Mother's Day.

A HAPPY YOUNG MOTHER

MRS. GILBERT RANDLE

Mother's Day will be a happy occasion in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Randle, 1155 Fourteenth street, Sunday, when eight of their nine children will gather at their home to pay special tributes to their young mother.

With a background of a happy childhood as one of a large family reared on a farm in Fraser, Ia., Mrs. Randle did not dislike large families—but when she fell in love and married her Gilbert—twenty-three years ago, she had hoped to have only two children, she recalled.

Today she is proud and happy to boast of nine children—and she wouldn't "take a million for any of them," she is sure.

The youngest child in the Randle family is Robert, one year old, and the oldest is Dorothy, 22, a former member of the Women's Army Corps (WAC), who now is attending Drake university here.

Following Robert are: Christine Lee, 4; Tommy Leon, 5; Paul, 11; Patricia Ann, 14; Joan, 17; Gilbert Jr., 18, who is serving with the United States Army, stationed overseas in Korea. One married daughter is Mildred Ewing, 21, who worked in Dayton, Ohio, a couple of years as a government stenographer, then returned here and found employment as a stenographer with the Iowa

Board of Social Welfare. "We've always been lucky—had Mrs. Randle commented as her husband listened during her interview this week. Then he spoke up to praise "Carrie's good judgment," her ability to can a lot of foodstuff, to sew and make over clothing for their fast-growing children, as factors that had kept their home happy. "She's a good nurse, too," Mr. Randle revealed as he told how she had saved doctor bills mainly for the blessed events. When ever any of her children get sick—she brings

Clash Resulted When White Inmates Refused to Eat in Dining Hall with Negroes

FORT LEAVENWORTH, Kas.—Racial strife which had been fomenting for some time in the prison as the result of the protest of white prisoners against eating in the same hall with Negro prisoners, came to a climax last Friday morning when a group of white prisoners refused to eat in the same dining room with the Negroes.

One person was killed and seven others injured, one critically, in two days of rioting among inmates of the United States army disciplinary barracks here.

Devey D. Osborne, white 30, of Mountain City, Tenn., was beaten to death Friday night when the 514 white prisoners of cell block No. 6 clashed with the 213 Negro inmates of cell block No. 7 in a rotunda just outside the cells. Dangerously injured in the melee was Eddie Woodbury, Negro, of Tallahassee, Fla., who was stabbed in the left lung with an ice pick.

Six others including a guard were confined in the prison hospital. They were: Robert Lee Freeman, Negro, 31, Chattanooga, Tenn., lacerations of the head, arm and side; E. C. Smith, Negro, 37, Baltimore, Md., lacerations of the head and possible leg fracture; Henry Turner, Negro, 27, Columbus, Ga., fractured jaw and lacerations of the head; Staff Sgt. Robert J. Lizer, white, 34, New Orleans, La., the guard, stab wounds in the back; Paul H. Nelson, white, 25, Kansas City, Kas., cuts and abrasions of the head; and Peter C. Valenti, white, 25, Englewood, N. J., abrasions of the head and possible jaw fracture.

Quiet was restored Saturday night when the inmates of cell block No. 6 submitted to an appeal by Lieut. Col. W. A. Drown, superintendent of prisons.

Refused Prisoners Demands

The 213 Negro prisoners had surrendered at 8:30 o'clock Saturday morning following an ultimatum from Col. Graeme Parks, prison commandant who had refused to yield to demands of the rioting white prisoners that Negroes be fed in a separate dining room.

The Negro prisoners had been placed in isolation cells following their surrender but had been returned to their cell block half an hour before the white prisoners yielded.

Rioters in both cell blocks had smashed windows, broken furniture and ripped up beds, and flooded the floors by tearing out plumbing fixtures, but according to Maj. Henry C. Truesler, Jr., public information officer, damage in the Negro cell block was not as severe as in that occupied by the white prisoners.

Rush Tea Gas

Tear gas and other riot-fighting equipment were rushed here by Kansas City police early Saturday following a request from prison officials. Some 200 tear gas bombs were lobbed into the cell blocks, but it was reported that the gas had little effect on the men who smashed all windows and doors in the block, thereby permitting the gas to escape.

Haitian President Creates 'Committee for Liberation' From Financial Debt to U. S.

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, (NNPA)—The Spirit and patriotism which caused Haiti to the first free republic in Latin America has been called on by President Dumarsais Estime to liberate Haiti from the financial control of the United States.

President Estime has created a "Committee for Liberation" which has already launched a nationwide drive among Haitian people to raise five and a half million dollars with which to pay off the balance of a 1922 debt which Haiti owes the United States and which under the terms allows the United States to control completely the financial affairs of this republic.

The Export-Import Bank at Washington last March turned down Haiti's request for a $20,000,000 loan and a refinancing of its obligations to the United States.

Liberation Committee

The Liberation Committee, headed by Dr. Timoleon Brutus, opened its drive at Port Au Prince last Sunday at the foot of the statue of Toussaint L'Ouverture, Haitian patriot.

Under orders from President Estime, the committee launched a gi-gantic bond drive which was taken up on May 1 by every town and community in Haiti.

In order to assure nationwide participation in the "liberation" movement, the bonds which are called "Liberation Bonds" are being sold in denominations ranging from 10 cents to $2,000. As an added effort to shake off the financial control of the United States, this little republic has ordered all duties from exports of bananas to be applied toward payment of the balance on the 1922 loan.

Informed sources say Haitians will repay the full amount of the 1922 loan as soon as soon as the humiliation is raised to throw off the "humiliation" which the government is forced to undergo as a result of the loan agreement.

Although Haiti is indebted to the United States more than nine and a half million dollars it is the five and a half million dollars which the country owes on the 1922 loan over which it is most concerned.

Under the agreement of the 1922 loan the National Bank of the Republic of Haiti was established with W. H. Williams, an American, as its president.

Sheriff Fired On

Last October, Sheriff George Hawkins was fired upon when he and deputies were investigating a reported shooting in the "Sullivan's Hollow" sector of Smith county.

During the investigation four officers were wounded when a gun battle developed as several Negroes fled from the home of Craft's father. Subsequently Craft and two other Negroes were convicted on the assault charge.

Craft's attorneys contended the sheriff and those that accompanied him acted more in the manner of a mob taking the law into its own See EDITORIAL PAGE

Sheriff Had No Right to Arrest Fleeing Persons

JACKSON, Miss.—The Mississippi supreme court, in absolving a Negro convicted in connection with the "Sullivan's Hollow" shooting last fall, held Monday that a sheriff making an arrest without a warrant must have good evidence that the person being arrested is guilty.

The court reversed a circuit court conviction of W. O. Craft, who was charged with assault with intent to kill and sentenced to 10 years im-

Strike Has Ended Phone Co. Happy Workers Returning

"The Company is very happy the strike is over and that telephone men and women are coming back to their jobs of furnishing the public unrestricted telephone service," Russell J. Hopley, president of the Northwestern Bell Telephone company, said in Omaha May 6.

"In fairness to our customers, who in the end pay the wage bill, the company insisted from the outset that the dispute be resolved right here in our territory," Mr. Hopley remarked. "The settlement just reached through collective bargaining negotiations and conciliation came after assurances by the Union to Governor Youngdahl of Minnesota that it was a free and independent bargaining agent. We thank Governor Youngdahl for his untiring efforts and assistance in bringing about a settlement."

According to Mr. Hopley, the overall cost to the Company resulting from the wage settlement amounts to about 4,500,000 annually, of which some $1,300,000 will be incurred in Iowa. "In reaching the agreement," Mr. Hopley pointed out, "we did everything we could to see that the wages we pay are fair to all concerned and not unreasonable in their effect on the rates customers pay for telephone service. We shall have to meet this increased cost through the sale of our services adequately priced."

"The Company sincerely appreciates the public's tolerance and understanding during the last few weeks," Mr. Hopley said, "and we deeply regret any inconvenience caused by the strike. We shall do everything we can to get back to regular day-to-day operations just as promptly as possible."

Now that the Telephone Strike Is Ended . . .

May we first of all thank you sincerely for your tolerance and understanding during the trying period just ended. We deeply regret any inconvenience you may have been caused.

Honest differences of opinion existed between the Union and the Company. In fairness to its customers, the Company insisted from the outset that the dispute be resolved here in our territory. The agreement just reached through collective bargaining negotiations and conciliation came after assurances by the Union that it was a free and independent bargaining agent.

Now that the strike is over, telephone men and women everywhere throughout the territory are being welcomed back to their jobs. We assure you that we will work as hard as we can to get back to regular day-to-day operations as quickly as possible and to carry forward our plans for constantly improving and expanding your service.

The overall cost to the Company resulting from the wage settlement amounts to about $4,500,000 annually, of which some $1,300,000 will be incurred here in Iowa. In reaching this agreement, we did everything we could to see that the wages we pay are fair to all concerned and not unreasonable in their effect on the rates you pay for telephone service.

Mothers Day, May 11

Mother--Whose Hands Are Untiring

By JANE HUNT MOHR

Mother's hands are never idle, not until that last day when man carries them away from the home they have long loved. They represent her very spirit. They are tender, gentle, pathetic hands, possessed of some magical power to heal and comfort!

They have woven a little, shining needle in and out of sachet-scented baby garments, and softly carressed the tiny new head. The babe has ceased his crying and smiled.

They have, with tender firmness, guided the six-year-old's pink fingers to form "A."

They have compassionately wiped the teardrops from fat young cheeks, and proffered a sugar cookie.

They have, though weary, set the perfectly-appointed table for the evening meal, and cleaned the last speck from the best china.

They have, at sunset on Sabbath evenings, softly pressed the ivory keys to bring forth the appealing melodies of beloved hymns.

They have been tightly clasped in supplication when the darkness of midnight enveloped a tired world, and little ones dreamed.

They have carried trays to the room where you could have heard a pin drop, trays with brown-capped custards, and nourishing broths. They have stroked the fevered head, and smoothed the pillow.

They have made futile, fluttering motions in grief when toil-stained hands would never be warm again, but have courageously swept away the scalding tears that pelted downward like spring rain.

They have passed like a benediction over the fuzz on the new grandson's head, and he, too, under their magical charm, has ceased his crying.

They are not just hands. Rather, they're just a different way of saying MOTHER!

This photograph was taken in 1927 when Mr. Rathblott was presented and highly endorsed by the National Sunday School and B. T. U. Congress when they convened in New York City.

The very idea of building a Progressive Community appealed to many of the National Leaders and it brought them on personal visitations to the Mizpah Development and they were so impressed by its possibilities that many of them are also Home Site Owners. Thousands of Home Site Owners include men and women from all walks of life, from the working man to the professional man like Doctors, Lawyers, Judges, Bankers and Business Men.

Due to limited space, we mention just a few of the many Leaders who are owners of Home Sites at MIZPAH, N. J.

PROBLEMS OF HUMANITY

by Abbe Wallace YOUR FRIENDLY ADVICE

Editor's Note:—Submit your problems for publication to ABBE WALLACE, in care of this newspaper. Give your full name, address and birthdate. For a "private reply" send Abbe a stamped envelope and twenty-five cents for one of his new and inspiring "LESSONS FOR HAPPIER LIVING." Your letter will be treated confidentially. B.L.—I have bought and paid for a nice farm and have made a good show in life. Our children are men and women. My wife is worrying me to death to sell out and go where our children are to live. My children are just as nice as they can be but I mean to hold on to my own home and farm. Am I wrong?

Ans: Keep your home and farm as you would not be happy elsewhere. Your wife is lonely for her children and the only cure is for her to visit with them. Take her to see them at least once a year and her present dissatisfaction will end. These vacation trips will do you both good and will have a tendency to make your wife appreciate her home.

Ans: Make your bequest to your companion legal by having an attorney draw up your will. In this way, your possessions will go to one of your choice at your death. Should you have a change of mind at any time in the future, have the will drawn up again.

M.C.C.—Somehow, I am in a stream of ill-fated luck! I am living with a man whom I have lost all care for. I am planning to go to college this summer to get rid of him for good and begin teaching again next fall. Would this be a wise thing to do?

Ans: It is precisely what you should do. The "primrose path" you've been traveling has brought you nothing but heartaches. Get out now, while you have the courage to put this experience behind you and build a new life for yourself.

The summer course you anticipate taking will help you immensely. Let nothing filter these plans.

C.M.—I am asking for information, sir. I drink and it is hard to quit. My wife and mother left me because of it. I love them both and want them back. I want to stop drinking. Tell me how.

Ans: I urge you to talk to your family doctor about your drinking. He can help you get hold of yourself and stop this awful habit if you will cooperate with him. Let your wife and mother know of your plan and just as soon as you get yourself straight again, they will join you.

W.S.—We have been married 8 years. Every year seems to grow worse and worse. We do not agree on anything. He is so stingy and cheap until I can't hardly stand to look at him. Now I am not trying to pin roses on myself because I have plenty of faults but I am wondering if I have the wrong man or does he have the wrong woman?

Ans: That's no alibi. Yours is a case of two pig-headed individuals who refuse to yield an inch in favor of the other. Your husband is tight-fisted but that is no serious fault. You will always have a home and the necessities of life. He will see to that. If you resign yourself to his way of living life with him will be much more pleasant.
