World Baptist Alliance to Apologize

Call American Racial Bias 'Misunderstanding' in Denmark, Says President

Copenhagen, Denmark.—The Rev. C. Oscar Johnson of St. Louis, Mo., newly elected president of the World Baptist Alliance, stated Wednesday, Aug. 6, that he would apologize on behalf of the Alliance to Negro Baptists of the United States for the action of white Americans who refused to live in the same hotels with dark-skinned delegates from all over the world.

The protest made by colored Baptists from the United States, who attended the Baptist Congress here, resulted from a "misunderstanding," the Rev. C. O. Johnson of St. Louis, Missouri, newly elected president of the Baptist World Alliance, declared last Wednesday.

American colored Baptists had protested against race discrimination practiced by the hotels and other places of public accommodation at the instance of some white Baptists from the United States. They announced that they would recommend that colored Baptists withdraw from the Baptist World Alliance unless Alliance leadership apologized for the discriminatory treatment colored delegates received here.

Dr. Johnson said he would apologize to the Rev. Marshall Shepard, spokesman for 4,000,000 colored American Baptists and a delegate to the Congress. Dr. Shepard, Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia and pastor of Mount Olivet Tabernacle Baptist Church in Philadelphia was a member of the group which issued a statement charging other delegates with carrying with them their race prejudices from the United States to Denmark.

The statement said that Danish hotels had been informed that white members of the United States delegation were unwilling to live in the same hotel with colored Americans. Dr. Johnson admitted that letters to the hotels were written by a few

Services will continue during the day and evening throughout the week with the annual closing message being delivered by the state overseer, Rev. Mr. Carter, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

CHILDREN GATHER FOR OPENING OF NEW PLAYGROUND

Several hundred children in the area around Dixon and Garfield streets now have a place besides the streets in which to play.

The Crowley Memorial playground was presented to the neighborhood by city officials in ceremonies Friday night, August 8, attended by about 200 of the children who will use it.

"Nowhere in the city," said George Whitmer, member of the city recreation committee, "was a park of this kind more needed than in this district."

Others taking part in the dedication program were Henry T. McKnight, local attorney; B. L. Ofterdinger, chairman of the park board; and Katherine Kreis, superintendent of the city recreation department.

Art Daniels, city parks commissioner was master of ceremonies. The park, located on the north-east corner of Dixon and Garfield streets, has a shelter house and a wading pool, in addition to a large lot for baseball and other sports.

The site was donated to the city by the late Mrs. Lillian Hall Crowley in memory of a son killed in World War I.

In Affidavits, Mississippi Voters Tell How They Were Disqualified in Primaries

New York.—Two affidavits from Negro voters in Pass Christian, Miss., charging that they were disqualified in the August 5 primary election because they favored FEPC (Fair Employment Practice Commission) were received here by the NAACP and will be used as the basis of civil suits, and for a request that the Department of Justice intervene in Mississippi, it was announced by Thurgood Marshall, NAACP Special Counsel.

Charles Doanville, Jr., and Steve Hunter, Jr., both veterans of World War II, of Pass Christian swore in their affidavits that they had presented themselves at the City Hall August 5 to cast their ballots in the primary. They said they were told that "so far" they had been disqualified, and that they would have to answer a few questions. They were sent to an office where John Ellis, Leo McDermott and another white man were seated. Ellis asked them why they had been disqualified to which they replied, "we don't know."

Q. "How do you intend to vote, Democratic or Republican?"
A. Democratic
Q. Do you believe in Communism or Fascism?
A. No.
Q. Are you in favor of F.E.P.C.?
A. Yes.

John Ellis then said, "You boys are disqualified." Ellis also told them, they said, that an appeals committee would be set up in Gulfport, but he was unable to say when it would meet or where.

THE CHARM OF YOU

By Natalie T. Scurlock
For the NNPA News Service

Rumor has it that women, for the most part, are a bit upset or at least quite anxious over the twist things have taken in the fashion world. Fashion experts say you can't be "a last-year girl" and expect to feel and be in tune with the times.

They predict you will like the feel of a longer, fuller skirt flowing around you as you move and that you will like having hips again, without apologies. The experts also predict, and we heartily agree, that you will enjoy the feeling of showing off a small, rounded, tapering waist whether it's an illusion or the real you.

As the silhouette of fashion changes so must the basic silhouette change. To achieve the necessary small look around your middle some new underlinings have been developed. The waist-whittlers feature softly boned satin elastic and lacings down the back much as grand-mother used to wear. There is also the gored elastic garter belt that is built up in the waist.

The new line starts at your waist and goes up, rounded and small, to a defined and shapely bosom. The line below the waist varies with the kind of silhouette you choose. If you select full-hipped suits or wide, wide skirts, you may add to your hips by tying on extra hip pads, by wearing an inside ruffle below your waist, or a stiff, full petticoat.

If your choice is a peg-topped skirt you may wear a girde built with a concentrated waist-area or with a light separate waistband.

In afternoon and evening wear satin and taffeta are taking over in a big way.

Strange as it seems, though other skirts are longer, many evening skirts are shorter—well above the ankle. And mighty fetching they are too.

Watch Beauty Care During Housecleaning

DON'T forget beauty care during housecleaning, Jean Gray advises—homemakers—in an article in a nationally-circulated Capper's Farmer.

"Too often good natures as well as rooms are upset by taking out rugs and moving furniture," she writes. "The family will be happier in the cleaning confusion if you remain unruffled and well-groomed. And feeling neat will keep your spirits high as you attack the grime!"

Even though it may be old, your cleaning dress can be clean, neat and mended. Wear an apron or smock that can be whisked off to reveal a clean dress.

"Protect your skin from dirt by applying a powder base before starting to work. After dusty duties, wash vigorously with a turkish washcloth or complexion brush—this in addition to usual morning and evening washing.

"Benefit from the exercise of cleaning. When dusting and making beds, stretch your middle, keep it tense. This keeps muscles firm. When sweeping or running the vacuum, keep shoulders back and don't bend in the middle. Carrying your body straight and tall is slenderizing since much waist thickness is gained if you slouch. Lie down for 15 minutes with your feet on a couple of pillows.

Make Sauer Kraut for Winter Meals

Don't miss out on homemade sauer kraut served with sauerkraut or wieners next winter. Choose fresh, hard, sound cabbage now and make kraut. Remove the outside leaves, quarter, and discard cores. Shred and mix thoroughly with salt, one cup to 20 pounds of cabbage.

Process 30 minutes in hot water bath. Sauer kraut may also be made by mixing one scant tablespoon salt with one quart shredded cabbage and packing directly into Ball jars. Do not seal the jars yet. Remove the scum as it forms. When cured, then process 30 minutes in hot water bath. Seal the jars according to the manufacturer's instructions.

Bulk-cured kraut is superior in flavor, texture and keeping qualities to that cured in jars.

All Ages Thrive on Pures

Home-canned purees are excellent items to have on hand in your pantry. They're nourishing foods for infants and everyone finds them delicious served up in cream soups and souffles. A puree may be made from green peas, asparagus, lima beans, or spinach, etc. Select fresh vegetables and prepare as for cooking. Steam until soft or cook in the smallest possible amount of water.

Press through a fine sieve. Add boiling water, if necessary, to make the puree about the consistency of thick cream. Do not salt purees intended for infant feeding. Use one teaspoon salt to each quart of puree to be used by adults. Reheat to boiling and pour into hot Ball jars. Process quart jars 80 minutes at 10 pounds pressure, half-pint jars 50 minutes at the same amount of pressure.

N. C. Governor Displeased With Grand Jury's Release Of Seven Men in Bush Case

Jackson, N. C. (NNPA). Governor R. Gregg Cherry last Tuesday denounced the action of the Northhampton County grand jury in failing to indict seven white men from Rich Square on charges growing out of the attempted lynching of Godwin (Buddy) Bush, 24, who was abducted from the jail here early on the morning of May 23 by a mob of masked men.

Expressing disappointment that no true bill was found against the men, Governor Cherry declared that the action of the grand jury did not close the case. He ordered a Superior Court judge to convene a court, sit as a committing magistrate, investigate the case thoroughly, hear all available evidence, and commit the accused for trial in an adjoining county.

Acts Under Law Governor Cherry acted under the lynching law enacted in 1893. He said his purpose is to clear up "a reflection on the State of North Carolina which does not represent the attitude of the better citizens of Northhampton County."

He told a specially called press conference at Raleigh that "Uncoubtedly a crime has been committed by those who entered the jail at Jackson, and one of the members of the mob had confessed to the crime."

The grand jury should have found a true bill in order that this evidence could have been heard in open court."

The grand jury also freed Bush, who had been arrested for allegedly attempting to rape a white Rich Square stenographer. A few minutes after he walked out of Superior Court here a free man, the astonished courtroom heard reported a "no bill" against the seven men accused of abducting him from the jail here for the purpose of a pre-dawn lynching.

County Solicitor Ernest R. Tyler, with a disgusted gesture of his arms and in a voice tinged with amazement, said to the court simply: "I've nothing further against these men."

Judge J. Paul Frizzell told the seven accused white men: "You are at liberty to go."

There was no demonstration in the courtroom except a slight buzzing of voices.

PERSONAL TOUCH

By Marie Ross

Walking her tiny son to a comfortable deck bench was Mrs. Idella Cushingberry as she carried a copy of the Bystander to read while she kept cool. Husband Jack was somewhere in the pool.

The Cassell brothers, Cyrus and John, have kept splash battles going on with Eddie Sanders, and other contenders.

Bill Bailey worked up a sweat on the tennis courts and then spent the remainder of the evening—keeping cool in the pool.

Tiny twin brothers, Melvin and Alvin Barber found it cooling to run back and forth to the drinking fountain.

Out at Pioneer park on Monday evening, the daughters, Mesdames Roy Walker and George Franklin, and other relatives held a birthday celebration for their mother Mrs. Mary Bush who was 83 years old on August 9. They carried the birthday cakes and ice cream out to one of the coolest spots in town—but after the party they came back home and found it still hot.

Trying to keep cool while shopping downtown at the city market last Saturday customers who found some homemade, freezer-churned ice cream at a stand that was being operated for the benefit of their church by Mesdames Henrietta Condree and Anna O. C. G.—I have been married 11 months and can't make up my mind to stay with my wife. I love her but seems like I can't stay there and be satisfied. I tell her I am going to do better and as soon as I leave her, I go right back to the woman I used to go with. I know I don't love this woman and I want to know what to do to leave her alone?

Ans: Spend your evenings in the presence of your wife and the temptation to visit the other woman will not be so great. Should your money run short the other woman would suddenly lose all interest in you. You love your wife change your ways before it is too late.

Z. C. B.—I am strongly considering selling the old home place as I am an only child and I am permanently located here in the city in a home of my own. It requires too much of my time going back and forth looking after the property. Would it be wise to sell?

Ans: There is no reason why you should not dispose of the property if you find it a burden and worry. Put it up for sale. It won't be difficult to find a buyer as the property is very desirable and in a good location.

N. O. L.—I am coming to you, hoping you can help me with my girl friend. She is a nice girl in every respect but she likes to drink and when she drinks, she runs around with men. I want you to let me know what to do about her?

Ans: Don't take her seriously as long as she drinks and runs around. She couldn't be in love with you and behave in this manner. Insist on her going on the water wagon else you had better look for a new girl friend on which to center your interest.

F. I.—My husband and I have been separated two months just because his mother and I couldn't get along. His mother said as long as she lived, he was going to listen to what she said and after she passed, I could take over. What am I to do?

Ans: Get in touch with your husband and have him come where you are to live. You can find happiness if you live in an apartment away from his folks but a divorce is inevitable if you return to him there in his mother's home.

F. W.—I have a wife and four fine children, I finished high school and have an excellent work reference but I am unable to secure a position for a man in my category. Shall I leave my family and go to another city seeking work?

Ans: Higher education is what you need. Arrange to attend night school and become skilled in some specific field of endeavor. Then you will be eligible for a good job. A change is not recommended. The city in which you live is large and progressive and provides every advantage to better your way of life.

C. Z.—My boy friend in the States has been writing me for more than two years. He wants me to join him there and I wait to know if this is the thing for me to do? He used to write about us getting married, but he doesn't mention it any more. Give me some advice.

Ans: Visit the States on your vacation this year. However, do not come prepared to wed. He was all steamed up a year or so ago about marriage but his ardor has cooled slightly. With the right approach you can rouse his interest again and coax him into the mood for marriage. Happier Living, Lesson No. 4, How to Win a Man, will offer you some helpful ideas on the subject.

P. C.—I am having lots of misfortune here lately. A man is trying to buy the place where I'm renting. He has a place of his own but dislikes us very much. Is there anything we can do to keep him from getting it?

Ans: No, not unless you swing a deal and buy the property yourself. You are only renting and the owner has a perfect right to sell at any time and to any one whom he chooses.

THIS NEWSPAPER, IOWA'S OLDEST NEGRO WEEKLY, IS AN INSTITUTION DEVELOPED FOR AND BY THE PEOPLE OF IOWA AND THE MIDDLEWEST TO PRESENT THE NEWS OF THE DAY, FOSTER BETTER RACE RELATIONS, LEAD PUBLIC OPINION AND TO CONTEND FOR THE CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS OF ALL THE PEOPLE AT ALL TIMES.

A GOOD PLUG FOR NEGROES IN BASEBALL

Two CIO Councils have passed resolutions urging that Negroes be admitted as players in the Western Baseball League. Des Moines, Omaha, Sioux City, Delmar, Pueblo and Lincoln comprise the teams in the league.

Negroes have broken into two big leagues. They are holding their own. Jackie Robinson, playing with the Brooklyn Dodgers, is doing an exceptionally outstanding job.

Of course, all Negroes are not Jackie Robinsons. Like any other racial group, there are outstanding performers; then there are average players.

The Western League would do well to follow the lead of the big circuits, for they have found that not only has the addition of Negro players enhanced the efficiency of their teams, but also the gate receipts have soared tremendously.

The CIO groups are to be commended for their insistence that Negroes be given an opportunity right here among us as well as in far-off places. Unlike many groups, this organization insists on the support of home missions as well as foreign.

WHY KID US ABOUT WHAT IS?

Last week, by a mere coincidence revealed hundreds of miles away, that Rabbi Elmer S. Cooper, a teacher at Iowa University, was assaulted in the Jefferson Hotel in Iowa City in May for no other reason than that he is a Jew.

The assailants have not been prosecuted because Rabbi Cooper has not seen fit to file criminal charges against them and/or county and city officials have not seen fit to do so either, acting upon the theory that perpetrators of minor injuries to individuals must be filed on in court by the injured party.

This has been the practice here in our courts and yet Iowa law does not require it. Information may be filed by the county attorney or the chief of police and the injured party brought in as a witness.

But, back of this whole question of prosecution is a fatal error practiced by both members of minority groups and public officials as well; it is a mistaken idea into which our good citizens often fall when incidents of this type arise and that is a disposition to pass over lightly violations of civil and political rights of minority groups, of passing up these violations as the job of a few foolish people; of suggesting that affairs of this kind be soft-pedaled because the injured party will lose more than he gains.

In the prosecution of civil rights cases, that attitude has been found among too many of our police officers, county prosecutors and judges and yet all took the oath when they entered upon their jobs to enforce the laws and to uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States and the state of Iowa. On the other hand, some officials have not hesitated to do their duty when such cases arose.

Race prejudice is one of the worst things in the world. It seeks to array one group against another, to deny minority groups equal opportunity; it undermines and destroys the foundation upon which any nation is built. Any sane person will agree with that.

Society spends a lot of time and money in an effort to conquer dreaded diseases, otherwise the mortality tables would not show that the human life span is getting longer each year. Equally so society ought to spend a lot of time and money to conquer race prejudice, for it is a scourge of race prejudice, for it is a great potential destroyer of this and any other nation which allows such venom to grow.

The best method of keeping race prejudice from taking root is for individuals, society as a whole and public officials to put an immediate stop to every display of racial prejudice as it arises, treating it as any other dreaded disease in the country, state and nation. Those who foster race prejudice must be made to realize in no unmistakable terms that they shall not be permitted to spread this dreaded disease and that conveyors will be stamped out just as is done with the bug which carries deadly diseases.

The state bureau made a preliminary investigation and, of course, whitewashed the matter concluding that they found no anti-Jewish sentiment at Iowa University. Granting that Iowa University and the town as a whole are quite tolerant as to minority groups, the investigator who made this report to the state is either an incompetent officer or simply made a deliberate whitewash of the affair. He simply does not know what he is talking about. Anti-Semitism DOES exist in Iowa City. It exists in Des Moines, in fact, everywhere.

We say all this to say that Rabbi Cooper, the officials in Johnson County and the State of Iowa, made a colossal mistake to let this serious matter pass over as just another incident; as the work of a few pranks. That situation prevailed with reference to the Klu-Klux-Klan until it began to spread all over the country and operated everywhere as a super government. And until those who foster racial prejudice are treated as cancerous microbes, the mistreatment of minority groups will continue.

MISSISSIPPI VOTERS ARE DISQUALIFIED WHEN THEY APPROVE FEPC PROPOSAL

(CONTINUED FROM FRONT) questioned by Ellis, McDermott and one other white man and that they had been asked if they believed in F.E.P. They replied that they did and were told by Ellis, "You are disqualified."

Thomas D. Spencer, also a veteran, made an affidavit stating that upon his reaching the door of the polling place he was stopped by Police Officer Harold Ladner, and that the following conversation took place: Q. "What do you want, fellow? A. I am here to vote.

Ladner: They are protesting your votes today and there will be no need of your staying here."

The NAACP is seeking further statements and affidavits from Mississippians denied the right to vote, and has asked its branches in Mississippi to collect and forward these to New York.

The law under which this primary was conducted, with its requirement that prospective voters subscribe to the "traditional principles" of the party is unconstitutional, said Marshall. "We are requesting action by the Department of Justice and we intend to file civil suits just as we have in other southern states."

HEALTH FOR ALL TEETH NEED GOOD CARE

Taking care of the teeth from early childhood will be rewarded by sound, even teeth which contribute so much to good health and appearance. When teeth are not well cared for they become decayed and are unable to do their work of chewing food efficiently. The general health suffers as a result. Decayed teeth are also focal points from which infection may spread to the rest of the body.

Strong healthy teeth depend mostly on good general health, on eating the foods which give the teeth nourishment and exercise, on getting skilled dental care regularly, and on cleanliness.

The child grows a set of 20 baby teeth to do his chewing for him until his jaw is large enough to make room for the 32 permanent teeth which must serve him for the rest of his life. All of the baby teeth are partly formed before the child is born and the formation of the permanent ones starts soon after birth.

By the time they are 21 years old, most people have produced an 32 teeth, although some people do not grow their third molars, or wisdom teeth, until later. All during infancy childhood and adolescence, therefore, the diet must include those foods which produce sound, healthy teeth. During pregnancy, an expectant mother must eat those foods which will provide materials for the baby's teeth and bones or else her own teeth will suffer.

The foods which help build good general health are also the foods which help build strong teeth. The principal tooth-building materials are calcium, phosphorus and vitamins A, C and D.

Milk is the best source of calcium, phosphorus and vitamin A. Tomatoes and citrus fruits and the leafy vegetables supply vitamins C and A. Vitamin D is made by the body when the skin gets enough sunshine. It is also found in milk, egg yolk, cod liver oil and halibut liver products. Aside from these material-supplying foods, it is important to eat some hard, fibrous foods every day because vigorous chewing provides the necessary exercise for the gums and teeth. Excessive eating of sweet foods is bad for the teeth.

Costly and painful repair work and the loss of permanent teeth may be avoided by eating the proper foods, keeping the teeth clean and visiting the dentist at least twice a year.

SPORTS

By Allen Ashby

The annual tennis tournament matches sponsored by the Hilltop tennis club and the Crocker YMCA will begin on Sunday morning, August 17, at the Good Park courts. Pairings will be made by the tournament committee on Saturday night at the YMCA. Playing will be scheduled throughout the week with finals set for Sunday, August 24.

The tennis courts were still in a bad condition this week—though park officials have promised to see that they were improved. Here's hoping that something will be done—at least for the annual tournament.

ALTHEA GIBSON WINS WOMEN'S SINGLES; DOUBLES UNFINISHED

Kansas City, Mo.—Kansas City became the tennis capitol of the nation last week from Aug. 6 through 10, when many of the top-ranking players of the country participated in the Missouri Valley Open Tennis tournament. A gallery estimated at 500 spectators braved a burning, punishing, pitiless sun sending down ultra-ultra-violet rays in gobs, but which did not seem to halt the fans coming out to watch the play.

Lloyd Scott, Prairie View, 1945 National singles champion won the singles title at the Missouri Valley Open Tennis tournament finals played on the Parkway courts, Kansas City, Sunday evening by defeating Edward Bouey, New York, runner-up, 4-6, 6-0, 6-1, 6-4.

Miss Althea Gibson, Wilmington, N. C., No. 2 ranking woman singles contender defeated Miss Zelma Moore, Prairie View college, to win the women's singles crown, 6-0, 6-1.

Decision in the finals of the Men's Doubles played by Lloyd Scott and L. Woods of Prairie View versus Dr. R. W. Johnson, Lynchburg, Va., and "Babe" Jones of Shady Rest, N. J., was left hanging in the air at 4-4 of the first set when the game was called because of darkness. It was said that the remaining games of the match would be finished at Indianapolis.

Dr. R. W. Johnson and Miss Althea Gibson defeated Earl Ross, Kansas City and Miss E. Nicholson in the mixed doubles, 6-3, 6-4.

Atty. Rush Sends Note from Denmark; North Sea 'Delightful'

A picture postcard from "Kobenhavn, Denmark," dated August 6, arrived here last week from Atty. Gertrude Rush, who is attending the Baptist World Alliance. She wrote: "I left London July 26 and arrived here (Copenhagen, Denmark) July 27. I visited Sweden last week. Am leaving tomorrow for Holland, Netherlands, Belgium, France and England. The ride on the North Sea was delightful—G. E. Rush."

The guys in uniform to be "at ease." Benedict said the statement to veterans that the 52-20 Club will pass out of existence in the next two years so far as they were concerned was correct, but the same deal does not hold for the guys who are now in the service.

Men who were discharged on or before July 25 are entitled to unemployment compensation at any time they become unemployed between that date and July 25, 1949. After that date, if they become unemployed, they are on their own or brothers in the nearest soup line.

In other words you were covered by fifty-two weeks of unemployment compensation for two years after your date of discharge, or last July 25, whichever came last.

The boys who are now in the service will be given the same break. A man now serving a three-year enlistment will have his enlistment expire three years from now or in July, 1950.

After July, 1950, he will have, just

VETERANS WHIRL

By James L. Hicks NNPA Staff Writer "Last week it was stated here that the 52-20 Club will pass out of existence two years from July 25, last. This statement was in error, and the guys who were the first to correct us are the guys whom it affected most—the boys who are still in the service.

The boys who are still wearing the GI's put up a helluva howl. They pointed out that they are now serving three-year enlistments in most cases, that two years from now they will still be in the uniform, and wanted to know what about their years from now when they hit the bricks in civilian clothes again?

The matter was taken up with Paul Benedict, the VA's ace on such matters and Benedict said to tell STARS OF EVE What can surpass Your tender eyes When the great vaulted crown Is beset with millions of Your most precious jewels? To wink and smile on men below What noble arched temple Where God's only purest flawless diamonds can be displayed against a deep blue flushed Heaven!

Had time with each setting sun To gaze with eternal hope In their breast. The calm salinity And fortitude that Cascade from the Stars of Eve.

AMARANTH COURT OES MEETS AUG. 17 The Amaranth Court of the O.E.S. will meet Sunday, August 17 at 3 p.m. at the fraternal hall. The royal matron, Mrs. Helen Carter, has requested all members to be present.

As you had two years from the date of his discharge to apply for membership in the 52-20 Club. After the two years are up, taking the program up to 1952, the 52-20 Club will then pass out of existence—and a lot of taxpayers will shout with joy.

REMINISCING I lay upon a feather couch Before the break of dawn, To breathe the open window air And nod—relax—and yawn.

Those quiet moments brought to mind The days of long ago— When childhood freedom wrested me From present cares and woe.

The sight of wooded dandelions Upon a wild grass hill The sound of merry whistling songs From every rock and rill.

A day of fishing in the creek That flowed through the North wood And skating on December ice On frozen feet and bow.

High school days, I think, I think of now Or upon the hill To crunch the colored-frozen chunks Refreshing in their chill.

A ball game in the fair East park When a whole city's work was done The cry of happy voices—then "The shout, 'We won! We won!'"

Trading tales on mile to school To litigate heat and ice and snow 'Twas all so much great fun!

The burr of brother's auto bike At six o'clock each morn'g That woke me from angelic sleep Refreshed—not tired and worn.

The hub and spout of Saturday When cleaning must be done And Holly Sublett never all filled When Sunday morn'g had come.
