RELATIONS BETWEEN WHITES AND NATIVES REACH ACUTE STATE

Pretoria, South Africa.—(NNPA).—Relations between whites and native Africans in South Africa have reached such an acute state that the Government has decided to order an immediate inquiry with the view to improving social status of the Natives.

This move will be taken, it was learned, "to remove the root cause of the prevailing discontent and agitation."

The Government's action confirms the opinion of progressive groups that the crucial point has been reached in the reciprocal attitudes of the white and native Africans, 2,000,000 of the former to 8,000,000 of the latter.

The determining factor of the Government's action was the rioting at Moroka near Johannesburg, in which three white constables were stoned to death. Last spring 60,000 men, women and children were moved to Moroka. They accepted the transfer with resignation, but resented being charged $3 monthly for each bare plot. Unrest grew, culminating in the rioting two weeks ago.

TO TEST CALIFORNIA INTERMARRIAGE LAW

San Francisco.—(NNPA).—The California law banning interracial marriages will get a court test in Los Angeles October 1.

The State Supreme Court last Friday ordered the Los Angeles County Clerk to show cause why a marriage license should not be issued to Sylvester S. Davis, colored, and Miss Andrea D. Perez, white. The couple contends that the statute is a violation of religious freedom.

LESS THAN HALF OF B.T.W. COINS SOLD

Washington, D. C.—(NNPA).—Less than half of the 1,700,000 Booker T. Washington Memorial half dollars, minted by the Treasury last December, have been sold, it was learned last Tuesday.

The Treasury Department said that thus far the Booker T. Washington Memorial Foundation, which has charge of the sale of the coins struck at the Denver mint, which sell for $1.50, and 665,500 of the half dollars struck at the Philadelphia and San Francisco mints, which sell for $1.00.

Treasury Department officials disclosed that the original act authorizing the coin to be struck gives authority for five millions of the coins to be minted.

In seeking authorization for the minting of the coins J. S. Phillips, director of the Foundation, told Congress that funds derived from the sale of the coins would be used to build an industrial school for the training of colored people at Rocky Mount, Franklin County, Virginia, birthplace of Booker T. Washington.

TO ATTEND ASSEMBLY OF WOMEN IN PARIS

New York.—(NNPA).—Mrs. Eunice H. Carter of Carter-Johnson Associates, public relations firm, will be in the group of fifteen American women who will attend the first International Assembly of Women in Paris.

The group sails from here September 22. The conference will convene from September 28 through October 1, and will attract some 200 women from all parts of the world.

"Women and Peace" will be the theme of the meeting, and the delegates will seek to hold a "non-politically dominated, non-Government controlled conference" where they may "freely discuss human and educational problems affecting peace and freedom."

New Indiana Law Invoked Against Adult Leader in Strike of Gary Students

Gary, Ind.—(NNPA).—A new Indiana law which provides heavy penalties for dissemination of racial or religious hatred was invoked last Saturday against an adult leader of the student strike at Emerson High and Elementary school, Gary, in protest against admission of thirty eight colored pupils to its classes.

Arrested on an affidavit charging violation of the statute enacted by the Indiana legislature in February, 1947, was Joel Eddy, 54, who has a police record in Gary for sex and other offenses. He is the father of several children attending Emerson school and has been one of the leaders in the remain away from school movement.

He was held in $10,000 bond on the affidavit signed by Mark C. Roser, Gary school child welfare director. Under Indiana law, indictment is not necessary when an affidavit has been signed and Eddy will be tried in the Lake county Criminal court at Crown Point.

Only 550 students were away from their desks at Emerson school Tuesday as the strike called to protest enrollment of Negro students entered its second week.

The back-to-school movement swelled attendance figures to about 1,200 and labor union leaders asked union members to urge the others to return.

Gary, Ind.—(NNPA).—Only 250 pupils reported for classes last Friday at Emerson High and Elementary school, 1,500 pupils striking because of a rezoning ordinance that put thirty-five colored pupils in their classes.

Police Chief Millard T. Matovina and school authorities said many of the pupils were staying home because of fear that they would be manhandled by groups of strikers. Police promised protection to those who returned.

Charles D. Lutz, superintendent of schools last Thursday canceled all athletics scheduled for Emerson High and Elementary school and expelled 600 high school pupils after approximately 1,300 of the school's 1,750 pupils refused to return to their classes.

Called in Uniforms
Coach Art Rolfe was instructed last Friday to call in all uniforms and pack them in moth balls.

The school board issued a statement backing Lutz and refusing to meet with parents of the striking pupils.

The pupils went on strike September 2 in protest to a Gary rezoning ordinance which placed thirty-five colored pupils in classes in the school. Only 200 pupils remained away from classes September 2; the number had grown to 800 September 3 and 1,300 last Thursday.

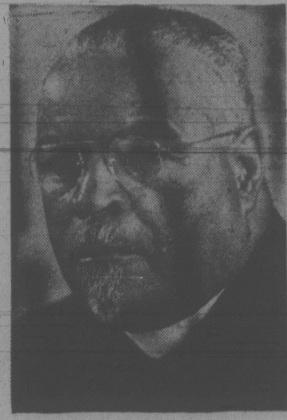

Lutz's action followed a meeting with members of the football team in a room of the school building. The striking student body massed outside the building awaiting the decision of the team. The athletes, Lutz said, withdrew his request that they set an example and return to classes and walked out on the conference. Lutz immediately ordered E. A. Spaulding, principal of the school, to cancel all scheduled games in all sports categories and to pay the $10 forfeit for each defaulted game. Dramatic and other school activity cancellations also were included in See EDITORIAL Page

OPEN 27TH ANNUAL AME CONFERENCE

REV. W. H. OGLETON

The twenty-seventh annual conference of the Northwestern area of the Fourth Episcopal district of the AME church convened here on Wednesday morning at the St. Paul AME church when the session was opened by the Right Rev. John A. Gregg, presiding bishop.

BISHOP JOHN A. GREGG

Assisting him were the Rev. W. H. Ogleton, presiding elder of the Des Moines district; and Rev. W. E. Guy, presiding elder of the St. Paul district.

The annual AME conference will close on Sunday night when the annual appointments are read by Bishop Gregg.

Little Rock Is Host to Baptists

Little Rock, Ark.—(Special) Representatives among the religious forces that make up the National Baptist Convention of America, are in session here in this, the capital of Arkansas. The sessions are being held in the Robinson's Memorial Auditorium, and the citizens of this city, irrespective of denomination or race, are extending them a warm welcome.

The meeting was called to order on Wednesday morning with a religious and devotional period. Rev. I. L. Prince of Galveston, Texas, is presiding over the parent body. Mrs. M. A. B. Fuller of Austin, Texas, heads up the Woman's Auxiliary. Mrs. H. L. E. Williams of Alexandria, La., is in charge of the Junior Women, while Mr. Ira Clark of Houston, Texas is guiding the destiny of the Brotherhood Union.

The city's welcome was full of complimentary statements, backed by an assurance that Little Rock will go all out to give them a five-days' entertainment and reception such as they have never had.

The entertaining pastor is the Rev. C. D. Pettaway, who, aside from being pastor of the Baptist church is the well known head of the United Friends of America. He has solicited the cooperation and enlisted the help of the people so that the housing has not been a problem. Every incoming train was met, all bus line stations were protected and even people representing the local reception committee were at the airports to meet incoming planes. There will be sessions morning, afternoon and evening, with special sermons delivered by some of the leading Baptist of the United States.

Iowa Golfers in K. C. Heart of America Meet

Kansas City.—(NNPA).—Aided by a blinding putter and a set of precision irons, long, lanky Percy Williams of Kansas City took top honors in the annual Heart of America Amateur Golf Tournament, held on Swope Park golf course here August 31, and September 1.

The event attracted fifty-two of the middle west's leading amateur golfers representing Kansas City, Des Moines, St. Louis, Omaha, and Wichita, and was played on the tight tricky Swope Park layout which was made more difficult by hard-sunbaked fairways and lightning-fast greens.

In the 36-hole final, confronted with formidable opposition from defending champion John Estes of Des Moines and a host of other stroke artists, none of whom were more than three strokes off the pace, Williams fashioned a 69 for the first eighteen, shooting the difficult back nine in even par. He then swept on to a two over 67 on the final eighteen to beat out a last round challenge by William Mallory, also of Kansas City, giving him a 136 total to 141 for Mallory. Kansas city golfers made it a clean sweep as Andy Smith took third place in the championship flight with 146.

Qualifiers for the championship flight were: W. C. Smiley (59), Percy Williams (70), Andy Smith (71), Nathaniel Jordan, Sylvester Johnson, Floyd Papin, Leroy Tyus, Vertis Barnes, Lonnie Thomas, John Estes, J. C. Wilson (72), Dowald Davis, Leroy Doty, Romeo Doty, William Graves (73), C. L. Prescott (74), William Mallory (74), Pepper Neeley (75), Fleming Cody, and John Sims (76).

Kansas City will be the host to the 1948 Central States Tournament one of the nation's most important meets for colored golfers.

In Session at St. Paul; Youth Program Saturday, Appointments Sun. Night

Baptist ministers and delegates of the country, state and city moved into Kansas City, Mo., Wednesday as AME churchmen of the Northwestern Episcopal District assembled at the St. Paul AME Church here for the twenty-seventh annual conference which was opened with Holy Communion Wednesday morning by the Right Rev. John A. Gregg, bishop of the fourth episcopal district.

Assisting the bishop were Bishop J. H. Clayborn of West Africa and two presiding elders, the Rev. W. H. Ogleton of Des Moines and the Rev. W. E. Guy of the St. Paul, Minn., districts.

Wednesday afternoon, during the 100-degree September heat, Bishop Gregg heard reports from the pastors of the two districts, with church memberships ranging from over 500 to churches with one member.

Among the churches leading in the dollar-moneys were: St. James (St. Paul, Minn.) Rev. B. N. Moore, pastor, 511 members, $543; St. Peters (Minneapolis) Rev. H. C. Boyd, pastor, 435 members $466; St. Paul (Des Moines), Rev. A. J. Irvine, pastor, 547 members, $547.

The second church in Des Moines, Bethel, Rev. W. F. Ogleton, pastor, reported 125 members with $125 dollar money.

One member was given as the total of the membership reported by Rev. S. E. Coleman of Minneapolis. His dollar-money report was $10.50, upon which the bishop commended "that's very good."

Youngest among the ministers was the Rev. James L. Dixon from the Mt. Zion church at Ottumwa, who made his first conference report since his graduation last year from the Payne Theological school at Wilberforce university. He reported 121 members with $122 dollar money.

The official welcome program was held Wednesday night at which time T. Harry Vickers, acting for the mayor, gave a welcome from the city, the Rev. J. J. Hawkins for the Negro churches. A reception followed.

Dismiss Charges Against 6 In Attempted Lynch Case

Jackson, N. C.—(NNPA).—Superior Court Judge J. Paul Frizelle, sitting as special committing magistrate, last Tuesday "reluctantly" dismissed charges against six of the seven men accused of the attempted lynching of Godwin (Buddy) Bush because of the incompetency of the confession made by the seventh defendant.

The seventh defendant, Joe Cunningham, assistant theater manager in Rich Square and the confessed leader of the mob, was ordered held for the action of the Warren County grand jury on September 15.

Climaxing the hearing, before an amazed and packed courtroom, Judge Frizelle ordered the immediate arrest of A. W. Edwards, the Northampton County jailer, on a charge of conspiracy in permitting the mob to enter the jail and remove Bush.

The arrest of Edwards followed his testimony that he delivered Bush to members of the mob last May 23 without being threatened, manhandled or intimidated by the mob.

The hearing here last Tuesday was the second attempt to prosecute seven residents of Rich Square on charges growing out of the attempted lynching of Bush. An eighteen-man Northampton County grand jury refused to indict the men August 5.

Judge Frizelle, who was commissioned by Governor F. Gregg Cherry to sit as a special committing magistrate, stopped the six men who were freed just as they were about to leave the courtroom.

Urban League Conference Condemns Taft-Hartley Law

East Brookfield, Mass.—(NNPA).—The annual conference of the National Urban League, at its final session at Camp Atwater last Wednesday, in a series of resolutions condemned the Taft-Hartley labor law as "dangerous and harmful" and reaffirmed its support of legislation to ban race and religious discrimination in employment.

It called upon Secretary of Labor and other public officials to take immediate steps to give colored veterans and civilians an equitable share in the apprenticeship training program with particular references to the building and construction industry.

The League also went on record as favoring the Taft-Ellender-Wagner housing bill, praised the retention of race relations advisers in the federal housing agencies, and resolved to stimulate community recognition of housing needs of minority groups, to interest private building and financial institutions in providing housing for such groups, and to arouse community understanding of the program of the Federal Housing Administration.

It urged Congress to enact a "satisfactory" national health insurance plan along with legislation providing increased health services to school children, and to provide more funds for educational facilities.

ST. PAUL A.M.E. CHURCH NOTES
 On last Sunday morning, Pastor A. J. Irvine gave his last message for the conference year upon the theme of perseverance at the close of which he had the mixed quartet enroute to the National Baptist convention at Kansas City sing "Ask the Savior to Help You." He read into full membership in the church a class of fourteen, some of whom had been upon the church roll for a number of years; but for some reason had never been fellowshipped. Music for this service was furnished by the Junior chorus under direction of Robert Ewing.

In addition to the Song Leaders, the out-of-town visitor at this service was Mrs. Thelma Johnson of Santa Monica, Calif.

At this service were: Jas. L. Dameron, one of the older members who is recovering from a major operation, and Miss Gwendolyn Davis, a junior student in the University of Iowa, who returns to her studies next week.

In preparation for the Annual Conference this week, the church had been given a thoro renovation, some new plumbing installed and a lady's parlor and the nursery room equipped and opened, largely the work of the Irvine Junior Matrons and the Junior Chorus, under the leadership of the pastors' wife Mrs. Verdine B. Irvine.

At three o'clock Sunday afternoon the Rev. Dr. A. Ross Brent, formerly of Maple St. Baptist church of this city but now pastor of Shiloh Baptist church in Plainfield, N. J., preached. He returned recently from a trip around the world upon which he attended the meeting of the World's Baptist Alliance in Copenhagen, Denmark.

In the evening at 7:30 the mixed quartet of the National Baptist Song Leaders gave a sacred concert to a large audience made up of their admirers from the various churches of the city and included in the aud-

Hold Detroit Pastor For Drawing Pistol

Detroit, Mich.—A pastor who drew a pistol and a knife during an election battle at his church on Friday night was held by police on concealed weapons charges.

He is the Rev. Wallace Colvin, 34, of 3708 Charlevoix, pastor of the People's Baptist Church. Also held, as a police witness, is Leonard Fields, 46, of 2124 Maple.

Police found Colvin and Fields trading blows, and the rest of the members of the congregation throwing chairs at each other. They arrived soon enough, however, to prevent any damage to the church property. The fight started when Fields, leader of a faction that opposes the pastor, proposed that a new pastor be elected.

Questioned by police about his possession of the gun and knife, Colvin said he had brought them along because he feared trouble at the meeting.

Members of the Fields faction surrounded him and threatened him, the pastor said. It was this which made him "draw his weapons," he added.

Negro National guard units in the following states will participate in state observance of the occasion: California, Connecticut, District of Columbia, Indiana, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island and West Virginia.

THE CHARM OF YOU

By NATALIE T. SCURLOCK For the NNPA News Service

You owe much to your feet, you know. It's never too early to work for good feet and it's never too late to improve poor feet.

No doubt you have often read articles on care of the feet and proper selection of shoes, but have you heeded the advice given or have you just read it and promptly forgotten what was said?

After a summer of walking barefooted on beaches, wearing much cut out sandals and thin soles, your feet need reconditioning for fall and winter footwear.

If you expect to keep or get your feet in good condition, take care in buying your shoes. The longer hemline, which will be worn especially for afternoon and evening activities, will call for high heels and, because of this, it will be even more important that your work, school, shopping and house shoes have low heels.

Shoe stylists, thank goodness, are designing very attractive and flattering shoes in low and medium heels, as well as high heels. It used to be that when you bought medium or low heels it was understood that they were strictly for comfort. It's a different story now, however. The idea generally prevails that only high heeled shoes are stylish.

When buying shoes, don't go by the old size. Have your feet measured.

'Indurative' Headache is Latest Worry of Mankind

Not a new headache, but one with a new name, is the "indurative" headache. It has a hard name and is hard on the patient, but it has one good feature, it responds to simple treatments. Dr. Herman Chor reported to the American College of Physicians.

Few physicians are likely to recognize the name "indurative," but will recognize the malady under the name of tension headache. It seems to have been known under still another alias three centuries ago when it was called rheumatic headache.

In this kind of headache, the muscles of the scalp and neck are known to be involved. By feeling the head and neck carefully, the physician can find tender spots in the muscles and small even lumps like knots. Along with the headache many sufferers have a slight rise in temperature in the afternoon. For some reason this headache has been overlooked by many scientists who make a study of various kinds of headaches and their causes. Dr. Chor reported that injections of salt solution into the muscles will bring on pain in the head and scalp. The treatment recommended, fortunately, is satisfactory and simple. Massage and salicylates, best known to the layman as aspirin, give very good results. Many have been treating for this type of headache without knowing its name or the reason for the treatment.

No Action Yet On Peoria Post

Washington, D. C.—(NNPA)—Local headquarters of the American Legion said here last Tuesday that as far as could be learned the National executive committee of the Legion had failed to act on the suspension of an all colored Legion chapter in Peoria, Illinois, upon the recent recommendation of the Illinois State Legion Commander.

The Rob. E. Tisdell Post of Peoria was padlocked and had its charter taken from it in August after its commander, Clifford A. Hazelwood, had been charged with communistic activities by the Legion's state commander.

Suspensions by state organizations

Wheat an Ancient Grain Wheat has been long grown in many parts of the world and described in many different languages, yet there is no universally recognized classification of the different types and varieties. The five kinds of wheat officially recognized by the U. S. federal food and drug administration include: Hard red spring wheat, hard red winter wheat, soft red winter wheat, white wheat and durum wheat. Average wheat production in the United States is far below that of Denmark, Holland, Belgium and the United Kingdom.

Scotland Yard's Origin A group of buildings surrounding a courtyard at corner of Charing Cross, London, famous as headquarters of the metropolitan police force for many years was the original Scotland Yard. The name is derived from the old palace which was situated on this site and used by visiting Scottish kings and ambassadors from the 10th to the 12th centuries. The metropolitan police, including the detective department in 1890 moved into an imposing group of buildings on the Thames embankment.

WIN NATIONAL IOTA SCHOLARSHIP

Betty Jo Estes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Estes, won second place in the national examination with a grade of 86. She is a June graduate of North High school.

Miss Scales, a June graduate of St. Joseph Academy here, competed in an annual written competitive examination given to high school graduates over the country. She won with a grade of 94.

In winning the national, she is entitled to the Western Regional Iota Phi Lambda scholarship of $75, which makes her a total of $325 she will receive.

Misses Scales and Estes will begin their freshman year at the State University of Iowa on Sept. 15. They will be roommates this year.

The Alpha Delta chapter of the sorority gave the examination here under the direction of Mrs. Gertrude North, president of the Alpha Delta chapter, and Miss Evelyn Brooks, secretary.

Mrs. Alice P. Allen of Birmingham, Ala., is national president. Western Regional directors at the time of the examination was Mrs. Fuschia B. Miller of Chicago. This is the second national scholarship won by an entrant from the local chapter.

are temporary and must be acted on by the national executive committee of the Legion. The Peoria case had been referred to the committee which met during the recent Legion convention in New York City, but Washington officials said the committee had not taken up the matter.

A spokesman for the organization said it was not uncommon for the committee to pass over matters on its agenda during the hustle and bustle of a national convention.

PERSONAL TOUCH

By Marie Ross

These 100-degree September days have been a break for the public school children. On several occasions schools have been dismissed because of the intense heat. Mrs. H. N. Wilcott believes that some of the children would be much cooler in school for as soon as they hit home they vanish out into the heat to play if they are like her children, she commented.

Rev. C. Lopez McAllister, dean of the school of religion at Selma university, Alabama, dropped in the office this week enroute to the National Baptist convention in Kansas City. He paid up his subscription which wasn't due until December for another year and commented that he really enjoyed keeping up with his friends by way of the Bystander.

Mrs. Oval Carter revealed that her daughter Frances, now Mrs. H. W. Cule, who spent several days here this week, made the trip from Jefferson City, Mo., on a motorcycle, "Daisy June", with her husband.

Mrs. Bernice Carter and family spent their summer vacation down in Missouri with her husband's relatives. She said the Missourians really enjoyed reading a copy of the Bystander—the issue that had a picture of their first prize winning home in the annual Clean-Up and Beautify campaign.

The extreme heat during the opening days of the conference forced the churchmen from their coats Wednesday afternoon. Many had been sitting in the auditorium during when the bishop informed that they might remove their coats. One suggested that he do so first—and he informed that the only reason

S. M.—I have been married 51 years and my wife treated me swell until recently. She ran off with another man and left me with the children. I am in service and I sent the children to mother. I have tried to get her to return but she says she does not love me. Must I wait for her or try to get someone else to care for the children. I am crazy with worry. I love her very much.

Ans: Leave the children with your mother temporarily and employ a competent person to help her with this added responsibility. Your wife is not as happy as she would have you think. The glamour is wearing off fast and she will be ready to talk things over before many more weeks pass.

L. M. H.—I graduated from high school last June. I met a wonderful fellow the first week in June and we were attracted to each other. He claims that he loves me. I am undecided. I want to go to college but my parents are not able to send me. This man says that if I marry him, he will send me to college 4 years. Advise me what to do as I really want an education.

Ans: Work and earn the money for your college education. Many people work their way through school waiting tables or doing some other miscellaneous work around the school or campus. You would despise yourself later on if you sold your affections to someone whom you did not love, to get your degree.

M. W. W.—I am married to an ex GI and we love each other but he is so jealous he doesn't want me to go anywhere, not even to see my mother. He has beat me twice real bad and says mean things to me all of the time. I have made up my mind to leave but he says he will kill me if I do.

Ans: Pack up and take off—you are not compelled to stay there and take his abuse. Better keep out of his sight for awhile until he cools off, else he may try to get tough. When he has time to think things over, he will want to change his tactics and make amends.

THIS NEWSPAPER, IOWA'S OLDEST NEGRO WEEKLY, IS AN INSTITUTION DEVELOPED FOR AND BY THE PEOPLE OF IOWA AND THE MIDDLEWEST TO PRESENT THE NEWS OF THE DAY, FOSTER BETTER RACE RELATIONS, LEAD PUBLIC OPINION AND TO CONTEND FOR THE CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS OF ALL THE PEOPLE AT ALL TIMES.

THE WAY TO PUT DOWN INTOLERANCE

Indiana, along with some other states, has outlawed the Ku Klux Klan. One section of the law makes it unlawful for any person to spread or disseminate "malicious hatred, by reason of race, color or religion."

The NAACP has called Australia's unfair policy to the attention of our state department, but they refuse to do anything other than to say "a country has a right to exclude from admission to its country those whom it desires."

In years gone by, we excluded Chinese from coming into this country but repealed the law during the war as "a demonstration of democracy." The policy was never right or fair but we followed it just the same.

AME CONFERENCE

(CONTINUED FROM FRONT) districts to their respective charges. Preceding the conference was the meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Northwestern area which held a two-day session at St. Paul church.

Delegates

Among the out-of-town delegates who had registered by Wednesday at the conference were the following: Burlington—Rev. T. S. Henderson; Clinton, Ia.—Rev. W. M. Berry, Mrs. Annie R. Berry, Mrs. Tina Black.

RESTRICTIONS PREVENT ADVANTAGES TO VETS

The Veterans Administration says that the proportion of Negro veterans taking on the job training and going to school is about 4 percent of the total even though they constituted ten percent of those in the armed forces.

UNGRATEFUL ATTITUDE FOR VETS TO FACE

Australia has for years prevented people of the darker races from immigrating to that country. And as late as 1942 when the Japanese forces controlled the high seas and the air to its north and they were forced to beg the Allied nations composed of members of the white and dark races to help keep out the Japanese the Australians themselves had the audacity to say that they wanted to maintain Australia for Australians.

HEALTH FOR ALL

The TB Patient's Diet There are so many superstitions and misconceptions about tuberculosis that the facts about this disease cannot be repeated too frequently if people are to form a right attitude about the disease, its control and treatment.

Many false notions center around the diet of tuberculosis patients. That may be because people, on the whole, are apt to get "food fads" from time to time and to try to win others over to their ways of eating. Then, too, food assumes a particularly important part in the life of the TB patient who must spend weeks in bed.

Both patients and their families should ignore all the well-meaning suggestions made by friends about food which "cures" TB. There is no food that "cures" TB. A diet high in caloric value and in vitamins is important in the treatment of the tuberculous patient, because it builds up the strength he needs for his body to fight the disease. His physician will recommend such a diet and the dietitian in the hospital will plan meals which provide the necessary calories and vitamins.

There are still people who think the TB patient should drink as much milk as he can hold during the course of a day. However, if he does this he will not be able to eat other foods which he should have. Doctors are generally agreed that a quart of milk a day is sufficient for the TB patient.

Eggs should be included in the diet, but that does not mean, as some people still believe, that raw eggs must be swallowed in quantities. Cooked eggs for breakfast, with the addition of such egg dishes as custards from time to time, should be sufficient, particularly if other proteins such as cheese, fish, and meat are available.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Another popular misconception is that condiments are injurious to the TB patient. However, salt and pepper and other seasonings in reasonable amounts will not harm the patient. Of course, the TB patient, like other people, may have some other condition which will be aggravated by the misuse of seasonings. If this is true, his doctor will so advise him.

There is nothing harmful, per se, in tea or coffee for the patient. If he thinks that these drinks stimulate him too much in the evening, then he might omit them from his evening meal but he may drink tea or coffee in the morning if he likes—and as he likes, with sugar, cream, milk or lemon.

The use of alcoholic beverages, however, should be avoided. They do not help the patient. The doctor's advice should be followed on whether an occasional alcoholic drink would be harmful.

This article is presented by the Polk County Tuberculosis Association in the interest of better health.

HEALTH FOR ALL

There are so many superstitions and misconceptions about tuberculosis that the facts about this disease cannot be repeated too frequently if people are to form a right attitude about the disease, its control and treatment.

Many false notions center around the diet of tuberculosis patients. That may be because people, on the whole, are apt to get "food fads" from time to time and to try to win others over to their ways of eating. Then, too, food assumes a particularly important part in the life of the TB patient who must spend weeks in bed.

Both patients and their families should ignore all the well-meaning suggestions made by friends about food which "cures" TB. There is no food that "cures" TB. A diet high in caloric value and in vitamins is important in the treatment of the tuberculous patient, because it builds up the strength he needs for his body to fight the disease.

There are still people who think the TB patient should drink as much milk as he can hold during the course of a day. However, if he does this he will not be able to eat other foods which he should have. Doctors are generally agreed that a quart of milk a day is sufficient for the TB patient.

VETERANS WHIRL

The long lines of veterans which you saw last Tuesday waiting to cash their terminal leave bonds must have reminded you of your serviceman who didn't come back—or who came back to and was declared insane—or who came back and died after he was discharged.

To The Next Of Kin

In your unselfish thoughts of your loved ones, however, it probably never occurred to you that under certain conditions you, as his next of kin, are entitled to his terminal leave pay. But you are and it's yours for the asking.

When you receive the form attach to it the veteran's discharge papers, or a photostatic copy, and documentary evidence that you are his next of kin, and follow instructions on the form.

How To Claim Your Own If your soldier, sailor, coast guardman, or marine, died after he was discharged and, before his discharge, had accumulated leave or furlough credit, here is how you may claim what is rightfully yours if he received an honorable discharge and you are his bona fide next of kin.
