PLANNED PARENTHOOD CAMPAIGN INCLUDES ALL RACIAL GROUPS

New York—The second nationwide planned parenthood campaign, conducted by the Planned Parenthood Federation of America, which includes all women without regard to race in its activities, has been set for February 11, it was announced by Pierre S. duPont 3rd of Wilmington, Del., who accepted the general chairmanship of the campaign.

The purpose of the campaign, he said, "is to enable American communities to make full use of their Planned Parenthood services which are one of the most powerful weapons in our fight against maternal and infant mortality, abortion mills and broken homes."

MEATLESS TUESDAY NEED CREATE NO FEARS

Meatless Tuesday need create no fears for a substantial part of the American population who want to support the food conservation program of the Citizens Food Committee, it was pointed out this week by the committee.

Excluded from the list of meats which the public has been asked to refrain from eating on Tuesdays are pig feet and pigs knuckles, chitterlings, hog maws, kidneys, tripe, ox-tail, tongue, neck bones, brains and sweetbreads, which may be eaten on any day of the week.

HOLD NATIONAL BAR ASSOCIATION, NOV. 28-30

Washington, D. C.—(NNPA)—The Washington Bar Association has set the finishing touches on an elaborate program for the entertainment of the annual convention of the National Bar Association here November 28 to 30, Roy Garvin, director of publicity for the local group, announced last Friday.

The highlight of the convention will be a mass meeting at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, November 30, at the Departmental Auditorium, at which Associate Justice Robert H. Jackson of the United States Supreme Court will speak on the Nuremberg trials.

NEW CHURCH NAMED FOR NEGRO SAINT

Jamaica, L. I., N. Y.—(Special)—A good dreamed of 15 years ago was reached here last week when a new church building was dedicated for the 2,000 Catholic residents of the Jamaica area, most of them Negroes. The church has been named in honor of St. Benedict the Moor, an African Negro.

Most Rev. Thomas J. Molloy, Bishop of Brooklyn, blessed the edifice and presided at the ceremonies, including a Solemn High Mass of Thanksgiving, the Bishop administering Confirmation to a class of 35.

FOUR ARE BAPTIZED IN ICY DES MOINES RIVER

Baptismal rites were conducted here Sunday afternoon, Nov. 16, in the frigid, shallow waters of the Des Moines river, near Locust avenue bridge. Ceremonies were in charge of Benjamin Harrison Watkins, 58, evangelist at large for the Church of God and Saints of Christ. Four persons were given baptism, while others watched from the river bank. The temperature at the time was a chill 34 degrees. (Photo courtesy of Register).

Takes Bus Trip South to Prove Design of Jimcros Is 'Worst Crazyquilt Woven'

By MARIQON E. JACKSON, Atlanta, Ga.—(NNPA)—Before you decide on a leisurely bus trip through the South, you had better put on your thinking cap, get out your prophet robe and become a twentieth century mystic with direct contact with God, because the South's patchwork design of segregation and Jim Crow is the worst ever woven into the fabric of human conscience.

How I learned this? Well, I traveled the worse crazyquilt bus circuit ever attempted by a thinking man who values his life and wellbeing and hopes to return to his destination in one physical piece.

"I started my trip at Savannah, Georgia, where I hustled into the bus terminal to buy a ticket. Imagine my surprise when I crossed the threshold only to learn that colored patrons must buy tickets and check their bags in the 'White Waiting Room,' and then hustle back into a tiny niche to wait until bus time.

After your notification of the arrival of the bus the weary traveler must scramble out the back door and dash to the front of the building, board the bus, and then slump back in exhaustion on the rear seat.

U. S. High Court To Review Sipuel Case in Oklahoma

Washington.—(NNPA)—The United States Supreme Court last Monday decided to review the decision of the Oklahoma Supreme Court affirming the decision of the District Court of Cleveland County, Oklahoma, refusing to issue a writ of mandamus to compel the University of Oklahoma to admit to its law school Miss Ada Lois Sipuel, a Langston University graduate.

Miss Sipuel applied January 19, 1946, for admission to the first year class of the University of Oklahoma School of Law. Her qualifications for admission were unquestioned and, except for the fact she is colored, she would have been admitted.

Place Before Assembly Treatment of Natives and Indians in South Africa

Lake Success, N. Y., (NNPA)—India has once more thrown her moral support to the United Nations by placing before the General Assembly's Political Committee the treatment of East Indians in South Africa.

This bitter dispute first came before the United Nations General Assembly last year when India made a formal complaint that the Union of South Africa was discriminating, both economically and politically, against persons of Indian origin.

In the Indian view, this was direct violation of the principles of the United Nations Charter which provides that member nations shall have "respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms for all without discrimination as to race, sex, language or religion."

Last year's Assembly passed a resolution expressing regret that South Africa had not kept its obligations, urging the two Governments to settle their dispute, and calling upon them to report to this year's Assembly on what measure had been adopted to bring this about.

Position Same Mrs. Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, head of the Indian Delegation, told the Political Committee that the "position today is the same, if not worse,"

Russell Coppock Says Pacific Junction Incident Fits Well Into American Atmosphere

"People say—it is too bad that you have to get into this trouble," Russell Coppock, Pacific Junction High school teacher revealed Sunday afternoon as he addressed an audience at the Corinthian Baptist church.

Mr. Coppock, one of the six principals in the recent controversy over rights of a Negro in Pacific Junction, commented that "I don't think I am in trouble," that "I don't feel that what I did was so unusual," that "I am sorry that it is so uncommon, to do that which makes one seem unusual."

Pointing out that democracy was a matter of growth and development, he revealed that he had been brought up in a Christian home, taught Christian principles which he took seriously.

"It seems to me that these Christian principles should be put into practice—or why were they there?" "This idea of race superiority is characteristic of the United States. It is typical of the North and South—on the farms, in rural sections. Simple little sayings are passed on to us in our schools, our churches—things we should be on guard against to root out," he said, as he pointed out how this "American disease" can threaten the existence of a nation.

Coppock reviewed the Pacific Junction case which involved the civil rights of a young Negro, later learned to be Alfred Twitty of Washington, D. C., who was working his way across the country.

National Council of Women At 12th Convention Gives Mrs. Betnune 'Honorarium'

By JAMES L. HICKS
Washington, D. C.—(NNPA)—All women of the world are working for peace. Only the methods of obtaining their objective are different.

This was the message brought to the twelfth annual convention of the National Council of Negro Women by Mrs. Kirona Bose of the National Council of Women of India as the organization closed its session with a dinner at the Commerce Department building last Friday night.

More than three hundred persons who attended the dinner also heard Mrs. Eunice Hunton Carter of New York report on her trip to Europe as a representative of the organization, at the International Women's Conference held in Paris.

Other speakers included Mrs. Jean Clore of Washington who accompanied Mrs. Carter to Paris; Miss Etta Moten, who reported on her two months in Africa; and Mrs. Vivian Carter Mason who attended the 1945 International Women's Conference.

A business session voted to give Mrs. Betnune a $5,000 a year "honorarium" for her services to the Council.

Under the organizations present constitution, the 73-year old president who presided over all business sessions of the convention will hold office as long as she lives.

Mississippi, Mrs. Eleanor Curtis Dalley of Chicago, and Mrs. Sue Bailey Thurman of San Francisco.

Mrs. Edith Sampson of Chicago was elected chairman of the executive board, Mrs. Mame Mason Higgins of Chicago was made recording secretary, and Mrs. Rosa L. Blocker of Philadelphia was elected parliamentarian.

The organization also amended its constitution so as to provide that at no time during the life of the organization can its home at 1318 Vermont avenue here be mortgaged or sold.

The amendments also provided that in the event of dissolution of the organization, any member or group of members of the Council must be given priority to purchase the home at the regular market price if they agree to convert the home into a shrine dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, president and founder of the organization.

Robeson Says 'Be Radical If Necessary'

St. Louis.—(NNPA)—Paul Robeson, noted star of stage and concert, charged here last Sunday night that an effort had been made by some local colored ministers to discourage attendance at a rally sponsored by the Progressive Citizens of America at Kiel Auditorium, Convention Hall.

Mr. Robeson was billed on the program with Henry A. Wallace, former Vice President and Cabinet member, and now editor of the New Republic magazine.

The singing of Mr. Robeson evoked enthusiastic applause. His rich baritone voice was heard in seven songs and an inspirational poem. The audience appeared to enjoy such traditional favorites as "Water Boy" and "Old Man River" more than the story of Joe Hill, the universal worker whose spirit never dies.

With apparent bitterness, Mr. Robeson declared, "Negro leaders who reads orders to their members not to show up at certain events because they will have to answer to their people."

Mr. Robeson spoke briefly, defending the rights of colored people to be conservative, follow a middle-of-the-road policy to "be radical if necessary."

"To make the program of foreign aid effective, Mr. Wallace said, the United States must convince people abroad it is sincere in advancing abolition of the poll tax and racial discrimination."

HELEN BROADUS

Mrs. Helen Broadus is holding the position of cashier at the Jack Blair's grocery at East Sixteenth and Walker streets.

The most difficult part of Mrs. Broadus' work is convincing the customer that the food prices are constantly changing, she revealed.

A native of New London, Mo., where she was reared and schooled, Mrs. Broadus has resided in Des Moines five years. She held previous employment at the F. & W. Grand store here.

A member of the Church of God in Christ, she and her husband reside at 1412 Buchanan street.

The grocery store is one of the two stores owned by Jack Blair, veteran of World War II. The other store, at 866 15th street, is operated by his brother, Jimmie Blair and his wife, Helen.

European Clothing Relief Drive Begin

Citywide Thanksgiving European Clothing Relief Drive was launched here last Sunday by a member of the churches of this city and the surrounding communities to secure clothing to send to the suffering millions of Europe now on the threshold of a bleak winter and destitute of sufficient coal as well as clothing to keep them warm. All kinds of clothing is desired also shoes but not hats.

Committees have been appointed in each of the cooperating churches to make the collection which will be transported during Thanksgiving Week November 24 to 28 to the Bolton-Hay Warehouse at 209 Court Ave. where it will be sorted and packed for shipment. It is hoped that a full car load of clothing can be secured in Des Moines since the need is greater now than during the war.

Those who have no clothing to donate are urged to give money to help with the cost of shipment and to buy food for the starving peoples over there. A special effort will be made to rush the clothing to Europe so that it can be distributed during Christmas week. Christian tracks with their message of hope and comfort and Christian greetings will be placed with every parcel of clothing.

The local relief committee in general charge of the project is composed of the following pastors of this city: Rev. Lowell Chandler, chairman, pastor of the Bethel Community church, Rev. Leland L. De Flen, pastor of the Indianola Heights, Presbyterian church and Rev. Z. Everett Kellum, pastor of the First Free Methodist Church. Any person desiring to contribute clothing should contact either one of the cooperating churches or Rev. Lowell Chandler, Phone 7-3751.

'BOY! WHAT A GIRL' IS A GREAT FILM

Devotionals will begin at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. L. Darby is president.

"Boy! What a Girl", which will be the feature of a midnight show Saturday, Nov. 22 at the Garden Theater, advertises "a new day is born in all-Negro movies". The picture is certainly living up to its advance billing.

The story is great. The comedy runs with a high fever of speed and action. The sound (RCA) is better than any ever before heard in an all-Negro picture, made by an independent company. The cast is excellent and delivers a bang-up job. The photography and lighting are the work of experts. The direction is everything that the picture needed. It was made at Fox Movietone Studios.

Considerable time, thought, effort and cash were expended on "Boy! What a Girl", proving that given these things, an all-Negro motion picture can be produced to play any theatre in the country and, not merely confined to the some 600 odd playhouses that cater strictly to an all-Negro audience.

Music Better

The cast, consisting of seventy five people, is headed by such well known artists as Tim Moore, Al Jackson, Warren Patterson, Sybil Lewis, Sheila Guyse, Betti Mays, Jimmy Fillingim, Elwood Smith, Duke Williams, Dick Watson, Milton Wood, Lorenzo Tubert, et al. Al Gluster. The production was directed by Arthur Leonard and written by Vincent Valentine.

According to executives of Herald Pictures, Inc., it is their plan to release eleven more features, on a par with "Boy! What a Girl", at the rate of one per month.

"Shortage" ... A Wartime Word!

... That is, we thought it was a wartime word! But your GAS supply for house heating is limited. There's not enough pipe available to increase the size of present gas lines coming into this community or to build new lines within the community. So if you're planning to switch from coal or oil to GAS for house heating, don't do it now! Of course, we're glad that so many folks agree that GAS is an ideal fuel ... that it's clean, easy to regulate, low in cost. GAS for abundant hot water. GAS for preparing the family meals; GAS for drying the clothes, or bringing cozy warmth into your home.

We're planning ahead but, until we can serve your complete needs, please rely on your present fuel for house heating.

Don't switch from coal or oil to GAS for heating your home!

T. O. B. CLUB ENTERTAINS MANY A T YOKUM FAMILY REUNION PARTY

Bill Abner of the daily paper comic strips may not be able to recognize some of the members of the "Yokum Family" but here is a collection of distant-looking "relatives" who attended the Yokum Family Reunion party last Friday night at the Billings Hall, given by the T.O.B. club. The T.O.B. club had one of its largest parties with more than 250 guests present. Cameraman Bill Ashby caught the following guests: (Top picture) left—Mrs. Helen Allen, Mrs. Bernice Carter and Miss Freida Galkad; (right) Mrs. Myrtle Dixon, Mr. Eddie Eaves and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Newcomb. Bottom picture—left—Mrs. Meredith Carl, Mr. Adam Johnson, Sr., Mrs. Ethel Jeffers, Lafayette Fowler, Jr.; (right) Mrs. J. L. McGuire and Miss Claudine Redmond. (Bill Ashby Photos).

How far can you talk for $8,000,000?

TRAVELING STEADILY in practically a straight line between Minneapolis and Des Moines, this amazing tractor train cuts across field and stream to lay 255 miles of new telephone cable. Hauled by 113-HP tractors, plows dig 3-foot trench into which cable unwinds, then "caboose" neatly replaces the dirt—all in one operation. When completed early in 1949 at a cost of $8,000,000 this cable will lessen present load on long distance circuits, and be ready for future service demands, between these two cities. Cable is buried out of sight to protect it against the elements.

Cut Winter Drafts with Venetian Blinds

A properly dressed window will contribute to the winter coziness of your home, keep it warmer and reduce expenditures for fuel by blocking drafts from the outside and loss of heat from the inside. The ideal window dress pictured here is a snug-fitting Venetian blind with full-hung draperies of light-weight wool. A simple valance adds a decorative touch and prevents drafts and heat loss at the top of the windows. Tests by the Armour Research Foundation of Chicago show that the blinds can save enough in fuel costs to pay for themselves during their long term of usefulness. An air space is formed between closed slats of the blind and window glass that prevents drafts from entering the room and interior heat from escaping. Windows, are naturally, not the only factors to be considered in insulating your home, but they can do their part gracefully and effectively with the proper treatment.

REV. AND MRS. CHARLES A. RECORD

Rev. and Mrs. Charles A. Record of 1213 Scott street, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Saturday night, Nov. 15, in the reception hall of the Roadside Settlement. More than 60 guests brought best wishes and congratulations to the couple.

The couple was married on Nov. 15, 1922 by the Rev. G. W. Robinson at the old Corinthian Baptist church.

Among some of the old friends of the Records who brought greetings to the silver anniversary were Mrs. Georgia Goggins, Atty. Gertrude Rush, Atty. S. Joe Brown and Rev. J. T. Johnson. The Rev. B. F. Blanks offered prayer.

Musical numbers were offered by Mrs. Gladys Robinson at the piano and Mesdames Westella Tywater and Ethel Volineer who sang. A reading was given by Mrs. Magnolia Bagby.

An attractive reception table was covered with a lace cloth. Silver candlesticks and bouquets of flowers decorated three-tier anniversary cake which was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Serving as hostesses of the evening were Mesdames Mae Howard, Ethel Volineer, Roberta Frazier, Gladys Robinson, Nannie Wilson and Louise Brown, Pearl Gibson and McCell Clinton.

Mrs. Record was attractive in a black velvet evening gown which was trimmed in silver sequins. She wore a corsage of white and pink flowers with silver ribbon. Born in Charlottesville, Va., Mrs. Record has resided in Des Moines from early childhood. She is active in the Shiloh Baptist church, the W.C.T.U. and the Ministers' Wives Alliance.

The Rev. Mr. Record who has been in the ministry since 1912, is a native of Paris, Texas. He was reared in Oklahoma, or the past seven years he has held the pastorate of the Shiloh Baptist church in southeast Des Moines. At present he is the acting president of the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance here, filling out the unexpired term of the Rev. H. R. M. Hardiman who left the city last spring.

L. F.—Before I entered the service I was in love with a girl. After being discharged, I started seeing another girl for a few side dates. My steady girl heard about it and the result was a misunderstanding. Out of sheer desperation now I have about decided to marry the girl I dated a few times but do not love. Advise me please.

Ans: Don't be a ridiculous chump just to get even with the fine young lady you have been going with so long. Marriage with a girl whom you do not love would be the height of folly. Stop going with her. Get back in the good graces of your old girl friend and "woo" her as she is the one sincerely love. I might add that it is a mutual feeling too.

M. H. P.—My husband's sister-in-law just sits around and refuses to talk or do any thing at all since her husband left her. She mumbles her lips when you talk to her. I want to know if you think a Doctor could do any good. We are worried.

Ans: She needs medical attention. She has worried herself sick over her husband's attitude and neglect and she should be under the care of a good physician.

C. W.—You have advised many people and made them happy. Give me some advice. I have been married nearly two years and have a child a year old. I left my wife because of in-laws and public gossip and ever since, I have been worrying about them. I am a steady worker but since being away from home, I have been drinking and gambling and I am tired of this life.

Ans: Write your wife and begin kept. Quotations were from "Long-fellow" and current events were given. Refreshments were served.

sending her money each pay day to take care of her and the baby. You have treated them pretty shabby since leaving home. If you scout around and find her a place to live, she will bury the hatchet and join you. But—you must act quickly—she does not intend to wait indefinitely and she is getting mighty impatient.

G. D.—I have been married 10 years. My wife has been awful nice until the last baby was born 9 months ago. She thinks that whenever I go out, which is not often, I am with some woman. What is wrong? I love her. She is not as affectionate as she once was.

Ans: She loves you but she feels that she has been neglected here of late. Why not arrange to take her out for entertainment occasionally? She has been confined too close at home since the last baby was born, and it is getting under her skin. Get a reliable lady to watch the children and when you go out—take your wife. You'll notice a change in her almost immediately.

Cut Winter Drafts with Venetian Blinds

A properly dressed window will contribute to the winter coziness of your home, keep it warmer and reduce expenditures for fuel by blocking drafts from the outside and loss of heat from the inside.

The ideal window dress pictured here is a snug-fitting Venetian blind with full-hung draperies of light-weight wool. A simple valance adds a decorative touch and prevents drafts and heat loss at the top of the window.

Testing by the Armour Research Foundation of Chicago show that the blinds can save enough in fuel costs to pay for themselves during their long term of usefulness. An air space is formed between closed slats of the blind and window glass that prevents drafts from entering the room and interior heat from escaping.

Windows, are naturally, not the only factors to be considered in insulating your home, but they can do their part gracefully and effectively with the proper treatment.

An attractive reception table was covered with a lace cloth. Silver candlesticks and bouquets of flowers decorated three-tier anniversary cake which was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Serving as hostesses of the evening were Mesdames Mae Howard, Ethel Volinier, Roberta Frazier, Gladys Robinson, Nannie Wilson and Louise Brown, Pearl Gibson and Mc-Ceil Clinton.

Mrs. Record was attractive in a black velvet evening gown which was trimmed in silver sequins. She wore a corsage of white and pink flowers with silver ribbon. Born in Charlottesville, Va., Mrs. Record has resided in Des Moines from early childhood. She is active in the Shiloh Baptist church, the W.C.T.U. and the Ministers' Wives Alliance.

The Rev. Mr. Record who has been in the ministry since 1912, is a native of Paris, Texas. He was reared in Oklahoma, or the past seven years he has held the pastorate of the Shiloh Baptist church in southeast Des Moines. At present he is the acting president of the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance here, filling out the unexpired term of the Rev. H. R. M. Hardiman who left the city last spring.

Lowell Williams, advertising representative who has been in the veterans' hospital since the early part of September when he suffered a stroke, phoned the office this week. He was home for several days to observe his first wedding anniversary with his wife, Mrs. Olivia Williams.

Mrs. Gilbert Randle of 1155 14th Street was quite proud of experience she gained on hunting trips this pheasant season with her husband. During the week end the Randles and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Smith and Paul Randle got their guns and went away miles away in search of pheasant. "We did some shooting," Mrs. Randle commented and promised to let the press know just as soon as she set something.

With sundown Thursday the pheasant season closed and many of the local hunters are singing the blues. "I never got a bird."

A crowd of over 250 guests, all invited, swopped down upon the T.O.B. club's Yokum Family reunion last Friday night at the Biliken hall. "Ma" and "Pappy" Yokum were there in their characteristic attire. They were surrounded by plenty of the "Dog Patch" kids, "Daisy Mae," "Lil Abner," the old preacher and an unrighteous-looking lot of other hill-billy personalities.

Winning the prize of "Pappy" Yokum was Mr. Charles Gibson who was awarded an old-fashioned chamber which held a jug of cider inside. The "Ma" Yokum honor went to Mrs. Julian Mason who received a pair of long, red underwear.

L. E.—Before I entered the service I was in love with a girl. After being discharged, I started seeing another girl for a few side dates. My steady girl heard about it and the result was a misunderstanding. Out of sheer desperation now I have about decided to marry the girl I dated a few times but do not love. Advise me please.

Ans: Don't be a ridiculous chump just to get even with the fine young lady you have been going with so long. Marriage with a girl whom you do not love would be the height of folly. Stop going with her. Get back in the good graces of your old girl friend and "woo" her as she is the one sincerely love. I might add that it is a mutual feeling too.

M. H. P.—My husband's sister-in-law just sits around and refuses to talk or do any thing at all since her husband left her. She mumbles her lips when you talk to her. I want to know if you think a Doctor could do any good. We are worried.

Ans: She needs medical attention. She has worried herself sick over her husband's attitude and neglect and she should be under the care of a good physician.

C. W.—You have advised many people and made them happy. Give me some advice. I have been married nearly two years and have a child a year old. I left my wife because of in-laws and public gossip and ever since, I have been worrying about them. I am a steady worker but since being away from home, I have been drinking and gambling and I am tired of this life.

Ans: Write your wife and begin kept. Quotations were from "Long-fellow" and current events were given. Refreshments were served.

sending her money each pay day to take care of her and the baby. You have treated them pretty shabby since leaving home. If you scout around and find her a place to live, she will bury the hatchet and join you. But—you must act quickly—she does not intend to wait indefinitely and she is getting mighty impatient.

G. D.—I have been married 10 years. My wife has been awful nice until the last baby was born 9 months ago. She thinks that whenever I go out, which is not often, I am with some woman. What is wrong? I love her. She is not as affectionate as she once was.

Ans: She loves you but she feels that she has been neglected here of late. Why not arrange to take her out for entertainment occasionally? She has been confined too close at home since the last baby was born and it is getting under her skin. Get a reliable lady to watch the children and when you go out—take your wife. You'll notice a change in her almost immediately.

EDITORIALS - FEATURES - SPORTS

THIS NEWSPAPER, IOWA'S OLDEST NEGRO WEEKLY, IS AN INSTITUTION DEVELOPED FOR AND BY THE PEOPLE OF IOWA AND THE MIDDLEWEST TO PRESENT THE NEWS OF THE DAY, FOSTER BETTER RACE RELATIONS, LEAD TO THE CANCELLING OF ALL THE PEOPLE AT ALL TIMES

SOME HEAP PUNISHMENT BUT CANNOT TAKE IT

If a man is being bludgeoned to death, if his property is being stolen from him, should he report the matter to the law enforcing authorities in order that the continued commission of a crime can be stopped? Or shall he keep his mouth shut for fear that the criminal may call him a tattler and at the same time keep on violating the law?

Evidently, John Temple Graves, noted Southern columnist, believes the victim should keep his mouth shut according to the process of reasoning he uses in criticizing the NAACP for telling UN about the injustices being heaped upon Negroes in America.

Why did UN create such a department if it was not intended to be used? How could they get evidence of the violation of the civil rights of minorities in the respective nations if somebody did not report the facts?

The trouble with people like Graves is that they want to regulate the conduct of other people in far off places but when they themselves are caught violating the rules about which they point the finger of scorn at the other fellow, they squeal and object to being measured by their own rules.

Little is said about it, but we insisted on the veto power in UN which Russia is now using to our complete bewilderment. And while Russia is entitled to no vetoes for her conduct, it simply illustrates inconsistencies brought on by our own conduct.

Neither America nor any other nation does the standing and respect UN deserves when it permits the continued violation of the rights of its citizens; it is worse when so-called intelligent people seek to justify it.

THE HEIGHT OF TREACHERY AND DECEPTION

Monday, the Des Moines Register carried an article in the public opinion column on its editorial page by Dale Ortmyer of Ames, in which he discussed the rule of the Big Six Football Conference by which Negroes are excluded from playing at the convenience of the member schools. The rule is so shocking that we include it for the benefit of those readers who did not see the article.

In each institution of the conference the personnel of athletic squads shall be determined in accordance with the laws of the sovereign state, regulations imposed by said institution's governing body, and the rules and regulations of the conference, and the personnel of visiting squads shall be so selected as to conform with any restrictions imposed upon a host institution by the sovereign authority, or the authorities that govern said host institution.

The editor of the Bystander was shocked. It was difficult to believe such a rule existed in writing. That rule was drawn by some fellow who is familiar with drafting laws excluding Negroes from voting, such as the grandfather clause, white democratic primaries and other tests which have been nullified by the U.S. Supreme Court, excluding Negroes from employment such as that existing in the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen which provides that Negroes cannot become conductors and engineers and that nobody could be hired as a fireman or brakeman who could not become an engineer or conductor, excluding Negroes from participation in many things by the use of skillful words without using the name.

The Bystander has advised that Drake University should be a party to such an agreement. Drake is pretty well identified with a great religious denomination, it is headed by a minister, it is the seat of the great midwest conference on human relations which is held there each year, it has Negroes on its football team, it has played host to hundreds of fine Negro athletes at the annual Drake relays and yet it is willing to sign a document conceived in hate, treachery and chicanery and which negates the high moral teachings of that great institution. Drake should get out of this unholy alliance. The fine men and women who run the institution, who are directors of the institution, who are paying their money to learn how to live and help make America great, should rebel until the change is made.

Admittedly the rule is unfair. It should be changed. But it won't be when Drake and the other schools maintaining interracial distinctions know to those leaders of hate to the extent that at least the things we describe as good Americanism are thrown to the wind.

The Bystander believes that the job of changing the rule won't be as difficult as one may think. The trouble is that there is too much of a disposition upon the part of the older people to better racial understanding by the process of evaluation which will take a hundred or so years when to change NOW is the correct method. After all, Negroes want justice for themselves now as well as for their offspring in 2047.

SEGREGATION IS A CRAZY-QUILT

See Front Page and the brooms and cleaning equipment. You stumble over these and you are in your seat. Yet, to check your bags you must hustle in the "White Waiting Room." Then you're off again.

You have a half-dozen rest steps at tiny towns where there are no separate facilities for colored and white people. At one you see colored and white people seated together eating and drinking in amiable fellowship.

You travel on. You alight. ONE waiting room. Negroes-whites-seated back-to-back at the same one. You buy your ticket at the same booth with the whites. You check your bags the same way. You get on at the same spot. This town is a study, in contrast.

Fitzgerald, Georgia, is the next stop. Separate waiting rooms. The one for colored people is in rear. You buy your tickets in the white waiting room. You check your bags and you're off again.

You're on the last lap of your journey home, now, Macon, Georgia, looks like a massive jewel as your bus sweeps through the night. Now, here is a paradox. The bus station is situated in the "Harlem" area of Macon, Sepia ladies and gentlemen parade in bright finery. Yet, the bus station is as isolated from their lives as a trip to the moon.

Signals For a Cop. Alighting from the bus, you look in vain for the "Colored Waiting Room." After you bolt into the "White Waiting Room," purchase a ticket, check your bags, and prepare to embark for Atlanta, the bus driver signaled for a cop.

You're in the arms of the law! The gendarme barks "That Civil Rights report don't mean nothing to us down here. You can't break the Jim Crow laws?" Three hours later we have paid our fine of eleven bucks and made a dash for the railroad station.

Now, back, where I started. You have to be a prophet to divine your way about the South. Segregation is a crazyquilt. There is no uniformity in the South's Jim Crow pattern. No Negro can be sure of its patchwork design.

DR. ROSCOE E. LEE, FIRST NEGRO DENTIST ACCEPTED AS DIPLOMAT. Washington, D. C. (NNPA) - Dr. Roscoe E. Lee, a dentist, has been notified by Dr. Leslie M. Fitzgerald, secretary-treasurer of the American Board of Oral Surgery, Dubuque, Iowa, that he is now a diplomate of that board.

So far as records reveal, Dr. Lee is the first colored dentist ever accepted as a diplomate by the American Board of Oral Surgery, admission to which is based upon examination.

Dr. Lee took the examination in November at the Blackstone Hotel in Chicago. He was the only colored dentist in the group. After he had submitted a dozen cases, he was orally examined and then given a batch of X-ray sheets and told to analyze them. After he had made his analysis, he was told it would not be necessary for him to return on the second day of the examination.

Dr. Lee is a graduate of both the College of Liberal Arts and the Dental College at Howard University and he interned at Freedom's Hospital. Later, he organized in 1935 the department of oral surgery at Freedom's which he headed for about ten years.

Dr. Lee also did special work in oral surgery under Dr. Sterling V. Mend, who has a dental hospital here on Sixteenth street. He studied under Dr. Regl O. Dingman at the University of Michigan and has taken observation courses at the Mayo

HEALTH FOR ALL

Your Child's Hearing

Three million school-children in the United States are believed to have impaired hearing ranging from only a slight loss to total deafness. Many a child who does not hear well is blamed for inattention and falling grades in school. The ear trouble goes undetected until he is seriously handicapped. Parents must learn to recognize the signs of hearing loss so that steps can be taken at once to preserve whatever hearing is left.

If detected and treated early, at least 50 percent of impaired hearing cases in young children can be improved. If not, a child may have lost half his hearing and may be seriously handicapped and maladjusted before anything is done to help him. The social and mental effects of hearing loss can do much to warp the personality of a growing child and may effectively prevent him from making a success of his later life.

Parents should watch closely for signs of hearing loss after illnesses involving the nose, ears or throat. Other diseases which may affect hearing include diphtheria, scarlet fever, mumps, meningitis, mastoiditis, measles and pneumonia. Lack of proper food and vitamins, too frequent fatigue, swimming and diving under water and improper nose blowing can also contribute to deafness.

This column is sponsored, in the interest of better health, by the Polk County Tuberculosis Association.

VETERANS WHIRL

By James E. Hicks NNPA Staff Writer

Operation 1948

The National Social Welfare Assembly of New York, the watchdog of services (or lack of services) to veterans, has taken a look around the country to see what is in store for you next year, Joe. Here's what it found:

Housing for veterans will continue to be the number one problem. It will call for the fullest organization of the community in behalf of veterans. The needs of disabled veterans will increase—in assistance in reopening of claims, in hospitalization and medical and psychiatric aid, in training and educational matters, and in obtaining employment.

Young adult groups made up mainly of veterans will have increasing

SPORTS

By ALLEN ASHBY

At Iowa

The whole state was shocked out of its pity for the Iowa grid squad last Saturday in the upset win over Minnesota. We know of one fellow who had seen every home game and said he wouldn't go because he didn't want to see a slaughter. Was he mad?

While we were in Des Moines last week end, we listened to a lot of talk about Estes at the Hawkeye school. Some say his dad wrote a hot letter to the authorities threatening to take John out of school. Maybe, he will. But we can only express our opinion in the matter.

First, we wonder what John is going to school for. Football or an education? If it is football the kid could go to a small school and play in all of the games. If it is an education, he could do worse than Iowa. If he goes to any school of any consequence, he will have to lay out a year. Then with one more year of competition he might or might not make the team where he is. These are things to think about when one gets worked up about football.

Of course, Johnny could attend a Negro school and might go alright. Some of our conversation concerning Estes went like this:

"They say he is one of the best backs in the conference." "Our reply was 'Have they seen all of the backs in the conference?'" "No, but they say..." "Why are they?" "People who know." "Coaches, sportswriters, or just who?"

On football fans they might know a little football, too, you know. "Name some." A dignified silence. This is the type of talk that makes it tough on a boy like Estes. His well-wishers often put him on a spot and he never gets off. We hope by the time another season rolls around, tempers will have cooled off and loose talk will have died down.

Who will the new Iowa coach be if there is one? To the one guessing correctly, I will present a new guest column.

Clinic, Rochester, Minnesota.
