Where Aspen Can Be Used

Aspen is one of the least durable woods and is known to deteriorate or rot rapidly under conditions favoring decay. Records on aspen used under moist and severe decay conditions have shown that serious decay and failure of the product may develop in three to four years. Although there is considerable prejudice against aspen for uses in which decay is not a factor when good construction practices are followed, for such uses as siding, roof boards, sheeting and rafters, experience has shown that aspen is as durable as any wood, either hardwood or softwood, under use conditions where it remains dry or is exposed to moisture for relatively short periods.

Early Use of Mahogany

There exists today, preserved in the cathedral at Ciudad Trujillo, formerly Santo Domingo, a rough hewn mahogany cross inscribed: "This is the first steeple planted in the center of this field to mark the beginning of this magnificent temple in the year 1514." That inscription is the earliest record of the use of mahogany. The cathedral that houses it, completed in 1940, is itself richly embellished with carved mahogany, some of which is considered the finest in the world, and is still in splendid condition after over four centuries of the tropics. First known European use of mahogany was for the changing desk, chair, stalls, shelves and desks in the great library of the Escorial, begun by Philip II of Spain in 1563. The first mahogany in the army two years, he was stationed at camps in Stoneham, Calif., and Ft. Sheridan, Ill. Since his discharge he has been employed as a car washer at Riley's Motor company in West Des Moines. Rhone resides with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Rhone.

The next meeting will be October 9. All young people who are interested are invited to come and join in.

PERSONAL TOUCH

By Marie Ross

Bubbling over with joy this week while her son is home on a furlough from an army camp in Texas is Mrs. Thelma Duncan Clark of 1114 Tenth street. Pfc. Theodore Duncan who went into the army just after graduation last spring has finished his basic training and after a visit home here, will go to an eastern camp to await orders which may send him to Germany, his mother revealed.

She stated that her teen-age son had passed examinations for officer-candidate school but is still to young to begin the training.
 The "biggest kick" around their home is to watch her husband, World War II veteran who served in the European Theater of War, and her son discuss and interpret many army matters. Loyatus was a top sergeant.

A card arrived last week from Madie Jones who has been employed for sometime in Chicago. She sent a program of the Baptist Training Union of the Olivet Baptist church, one of Chicago's largest, to let the Iowans know "what kind of topics

DEWEY NEEDS A REPUBLICAN CONGRESS

The majority of the voters in Iowa are pretty certain to cast their ballot for Gov. Dewey. They believe he is the best man to lead the nation in this great crisis.

However, there is another aspect to this campaign which is equally important in the election and that is the choosing of a Congress which will co-operate with Gov. Dewey and pass the necessary legislation to carry his program into action.

Iowa has a full Republican delegation. Senator George A. Wilson is up for re-election. Gov. Dewey needs Senator Wilson to help organize the Congress; he is needed as chairman of the committee on agriculture. Negroes need him because his vote has always been in their favor. Of course, there are times when he opposed riders attached to bills which were placed there to embarrass the sponsors of the measures. They were not test of his real interest in fair play for Negroes.

Senator Wilson can be depended upon to support measures of interest

GEN. CLAY PRAISES NEGRO SOLDIERS

General Lucius D. Clay, American occupation commander in Germany, has sent a letter to all commanders in his area, praising Negro troops for the reduction in crime. He states that from an all-time high average of 3.36 per 1,000 the percentage now stands at 79 per 1,000 or less than one per cent for August.

The statement further said, "This is an achievement of which the entire command is justly proud and which was attained only by diligent application to the problem by all commanders concerned, with the wholehearted co-operation of officers and enlisted men."

General Clay and his entire command are to be congratulated on this fine piece of work for it is apparent that there is an effort upon the part of officers to make a good record rather than embarrass Negro troops—to magnify and agitate crime among the men instead of to the Negro when they came before the senate on their merit. He should be returned to office.

Men who served over seas in both wars know how they were engaged in fighting the enemy abroad as well as within their own ranks and these enemies were those officers who were ignorant enough to believe that the misconduct of the troops could be separated from that of the whole command.

Even in Congress, some members have gloated over the excessive crime rate among Negroes, arguing that they should be denied equal consideration. This was especially evident when the present draft measure was before the senate.

General Clay and his command have done a fine job and it is bound to help raise the morale of our men generally.

The Bystander hopes that in bringing about this decrease in crime, no rights and privileges accorded American soldiers have been denied Negroes serving in the area.

REV. GEO. W. ROBINSON

Iowa has lost a good citizen in the death of Rev. G. W. Robinson. Coming to Des Moines as pastor of Corinthian Baptist, he soon became identified with the religious and civic movements of the city and state.

Every person who reaches a high place in his chosen field does not participate in activities other than those around his own circle. This Rev. Robinson did not do. He was interested in everything which went to build up his church, his city and state. His influence was felt far and wide.

Rev. Robinson's passing is a great loss to his family, and the community and his presence will be missed in many activities.

man of the transportation committee of the National Baptist convention. Other music was sung by Miss Mildred Griffin, soloist with the Corinthian choir; and Mrs. Myrtle Jackson and Theodore R. Frye of the national Baptist music committee.

The Rev. L. C. Garrett, president of the ministers and deacons union of the Iowa convention, delivered the benediction, after which many of the members stood in the down-pour of rain to watch the procession as it left for the graveside rites at Glendale cemetery.

The casket was not opened during the services for the viewing of the body. Throngs of persons had visited the Estes Funeral Home since Sunday afternoon to see their pastor and friend, and many returned to the church Wednesday morning when his body was in state.

The Rev. Mr. Robinson, whose home was at 1009 Twelfth street, died Thursday, September 30, in Marlin, Texas, where he had been on vacation. Earlier he had attended the National Baptist Convention's annual meeting in Houston. He had been in ill health several years.

A members of the Federal Council of Churches, the Rev. Mr. Robinson was home mission board chairman of the National Baptist Convention, Inc., and since 1931 had served as president of the Iowa, South Dakota, Nebraska, Minnesota States Convention. In the Des Moines Ministerial Alliance, he was a vice president; and a past president of the Interdenominational Alliance.

He was a charter member and past president of the Des Moines interracial commission; a founder of the Crocker branch of the YMCA; was active in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and other community groups.

Former Instructor

The Rev. Mr. Robinson was graduated from Benedict college, Columbia, S. C., in 1910. Following graduate study at Temple university in Philadelphia, Penn., for four years he was romance language instructor at Central Texas college in Waco, Texas. His first regular pastorate was at El Paso, Texas in 1914. He had been at Corinthian Baptist church since April, 1917.

The Rev. Mr. Robinson had received the honorary doctor of divinity degrees from Central Texas college; Benedict college, Columbia, S. C., and Western Baptist seminary.

Surviving are his wife; three sons, George, Jr., Des Moines, Owen, Chicago, Ill., and Harold, Washington, D. C.; a sister, Mrs. Prudence McClellan, Bennettsville, S. C., two brothers, Ernest, Flint, Mich., and Norman, of Bennettsville, and three grandchildren.

VETERANS WHIRL

By JAMES L. HICKS

NNPA Staff Writer
Lieutenant, as your civilian boss brow beats you and orders you around for the $40 a week which you earn in the "Battle of Readjustment," has your mind ever raced back to those days when the shoe was on the other foot and you were the one giving the orders to 200 or 300 men.

Yeh, those were the days when you wore bars, had an orderly to take care of your clothes, drove around in a jeep with a gas tank that always read "full," had a little gal in every bivouac town, and every retreat on Friday evenings led to a "Lost Weekend" for which you did not have to explain to anyone as long as you took the reveille salute on Monday morning.

You liked that didn't you, lieutenant? Well, sir, you can have it again if you want to.

The Army is immediately in need of 26,000 officers. There is no law under which officers of the civilian components can be ordered back to active duty without their consent. Therefore, this 26,000 must be made up entirely of volunteers. You can be one of those volunteers.

To be eligible for extended active duty you must hold a commission in the Officers Reserve Corps or the National Guard. If you are any Army of the United States Officer (AUS), like most of the OCS men were, and have not become a member of ORC you may still apply for the ORC and when you receive your commission there then apply for active duty.

A recent Army Department change in "age in grade" requirements re-established categories One and Two for officers, that is, service for one or two years. The age level for major, lieutenant colonel, and colonel has been raised to 60 years, so you can see how hard up the Army really is.

With this ruling, second lieutenants, first lieutenants and captains, who are approaching the age of 40, may serve in category one for one year, or if they are approaching the age of 48, may sign for two years. Similarly, majors, lieutenant colonels and colonels who are approaching the age of 59 may serve one year. Those who are approaching the age of 58 may sign for two years. In other words, you still have opportunity to get in at least one year's service unless you are already 60 years old, so age is no excuse.

The "age in grade" changes do not apply to company grade officers, chaplains and members of the Wo-

HEALTH FOR ALL

DIET AND TB

Just as there are many people who ill-advisedly try to diagnose their own and others illnesses instead of wisely going to a doctor, there are others who speak of specific "cures" for tuberculosis and one of their favorite "prescriptions" is a certain type of food or diet that will "cure TB."

Tuberculosis can be cured, but the best treatment leading to that cure is rest under medical supervision in a tuberculosis sanatorium or hospital.

Many years ago, people falsely believed that great quantities of egg-nogs and raw eggs was the best possible diet for the tuberculous patient and that they would promote the healing of his injury. Unfortunately, there are some who still believe that and other fallacies concerning the tuberculous patient's diet.

We know today that a good balanced diet, such as is worked out by dieticians at the sanatorium, is the best one for the tuberculous patient. Such a diet is one high in caloric content and in vitamins that will build up the strength that the patient needs to fight his disease.

Moreover, the diet recommended by the physician for his patient and prepared by the sanatorium dietician is just a part, although an important part of the tuberculous patient's treatment, such as surgery, that the patient's doctor might deem advisable.

Some people think that the tuberculous patient actually must over-eat, and that if he is not rapidly gaining weight, he is not making any progress against his disease.

The doctor knows how much food his individual patient requires, as well as the kind of food. Although gradual gain in weight is advisable for the tuberculous patient, the body will function better when the patient is not excessively overweight.

Many people believe that salt and pepper and tea and coffee are harmful to the tuberculous patient. These are not harmful, in themselves, but again the doctor is the best person to advise his patient concerning them.

There is no "special diet" prescribed for all cases of TB. Patients and their families are wise to ignore all well-meaning suggestions on "curing" foods and diets by friends and associates. The advice of the doctor, instead, should be carefully followed on food as in all other matters.

This column is sponsored, in the interest of better health, by the Polk County Tuberculosis Association.

Doby Gets Two Hits

Boston (NNPA)—Larry Doby got two hits in five trips to the plate, including a double, and scored one run as the Cleveland Indians won the playoff from the Boston Red Sox by a score of 8 to 3.

In the fourth inning after Ken Keltner had hit a homer, scoring Lou Boudreau and Joe Gordon, Doby doubled against the left field fence. Bob Kennedy sacrificed, Doby going to third. Jim Hegar grounded out, Vern Stephens to Billy Goodman, Doby scoring.

Doby doubled to start the eighth and went to third on Kennedy's sacrifice, but was trapped off third and tagged out by Birdie Tebbetts.

At Cleveland last Sunday, when the Detroit Tigers behind the five-hit pitching of Hal Newhouser defeated the Army Corps. For company grade officers the age level is 50 years. For chaplains and Wacs the age level is 60 years in all grades.

feated the Indians, 7-1, while the Boston Red Sox were beating the New York Yankees, 10-5, to throw the Indians and Red Sox into a first place tie on the final day of the season. Doby went hitless in three trips to the plate.

As the Indians clinched a first place tie last Saturday by defeating the Tigers, 8-0, as Gene Bearden, Cleveland southpaw, gained his nineteenth triumph, Doby got 4-for-4 to boost his mark to 302 for the season.

Triplet Scores

State College, Pa. (NNPA)—Walsh Triplet of Lammott, Pennsylvania, scored twice as Penn State opened its 1918 football campaign with a 35-to-0 victory over Bucknell.

Clark at Ohio

Columbus, Ohio (NNPA)—Jimmy Clark, a left halfback who started the season on the fifth team, helped Ohio State to an easy 20-to-0 victory over Southern California in the seventh game of their intersectional series last Saturday.

Clark showed plenty of speed. In the three first downs Ohio State made in nine plays to score its first touchdown, Clark swept defensive right end for 9 yards, and slammed at the defensive tackles for 9 yards in two plays. In all, Clark gained 23 yards on thirteen plays.

Taliaferro at Indiana

Bloomington, Ind. (NNPA)—Geo. Taliaferro, the versatile left halfback from Gary, Indiana, was able to gain only fifteen yards in thirteen attempts but completed five of twelve passes for 112 yards as Indiana beat Iowa last Saturday by a score of 7 to 0.

Taliaferro played 59 1/2 minutes. Just before Harry Chick Jagade, Hoosier fullback, made his thirty yard touchdown run, Taliaferro clipped three yards off the distance.

SLEEP RESCUES AT LAST

I try to rest quietly in my room
With no thought of some pending doom.
Next door my neighbor's radio howls
Out fights, ball games, laughs and growls.
Dance music swings from down the hall
Upstairs tenants jump in holiday ball.
The news and views and quizzes galore
While napping sound like brawls and more.

Oh police, district attorney, Mr. Mayor—come now!
Thin man has fainted, fat one shot a cow!
I punch my pillows and chuck my ears
While safe-cracking convicts cause more fears.
The shots come closer, the bullets fly fast
Until way into the night—sleep rescues at last.

MY ESTACY

He sings a song at sunset
It is light as a feather blown,
Gay as a colored waterfall
A tender melody unknown.
I touched into a sunbeam
I find a glorious tone
Till the moon comes up, I hear
The beauty of a voice enthroned.
Heavenly looms the magic
I hear the angels wings

Wonderous is the voice
Of One I Live... who sings

THEY AWAIT US

No mortal eye has beheld
The beauty of His countenance
No human ear has heard
The Angelic serenade
No heart of man has felt
The spirit of His Heavens
Yet we believe 'TIS MYSTERY
