NATIONAL ADS TO HIT NEW HIGH IN NEGRO PRESS

Chicago.—More than thirty major United States manufacturers selling on a nation-wide scale, are planning to advertise in local and national Negro newspapers or magazines for the first time within the next sixty days.

Evidence of the sharp interest in the Negro market being shown by name brand producers is clear in the announcement by Ebony magazine that increased ad linage will increase the number of pages in its November issue to 84 pages.

Reasons given for the sharp increase in advertising of nationally known brands in Negro newspapers and magazines are two-fold. Old advertisers are renewing their schedules on the basis of tested results of the pulling power of Negro newspapers and magazines. New accounts are scheduling advertising copy on the basis of these proven successes.

GETS 90-YEARS FOR SLAYING

Adel, Ia.—William Crane, 70, of Perry, Wednesday morning, Sept. 28, was sentenced by Judge Phil R. Wilkinson of Winterset to serve 90 years in Fort Madison penitentiary for second degree murder in the shotgun slaying of his wife.

A hearing was held here Monday and Tuesday before Judge Wilkinson to determine the degree of guilt after Crane changed his plea from innocent to guilty to a charge of murder last week.

Judge Wilkinson said Wednesday that his second degree murder ruling was made because of the defendant's age and other circumstances in the case.

Crane was arrested following the shooting of his wife, 76, at their home in Perry Sept. 3. He pleaded innocent when arraigned here and was bound over to the grand jury.

Crane admitted shooting his wife with a 12-gauge shotgun following a series of domestic quarrels.

Roller Rink Firm Agrees to Abide By Civil Rights Law

Robert Y. Gould and Elynor F. Gould, operators of the Midtown Roller Rink, signed, in the Polk County district court, Oct. 4, a stipulation and an agreement for dismissal of a civil rights action which was brought by Wendell Hill, Drake university student.

Hill, the plaintiff, charged in his action the defendants denied him admittance to their roller rink on March 11, 1949, solely because he was a Negro.

The action was scheduled for trial last week with Atty. Henry T. McKnight representing the Drake student.

The stipulation disclosed that: "the defendants, Robert Y. Gould and Elynor F. Gould agree that they will abide by the provisions of Section 735.1, Code of 1946 of Iowa; in that they will allow the full and equal enjoyment of the accommodations, advantages, facilities and privileges of their roller rink, located at Eleventh and Walnut street, Des Moines, Iowa, to the plaintiff, and that any denial of the full and equal enjoyment of the accommodations, advantages, facilities and privileges of said roller rink will be for reasons by law applicable to all persons, and not based on race, creed, or color."

The defendants also agreed to pay the costs of the action.

Attorney McKnight, one of the counsellors in another civil rights action which was scheduled to start this week in the district court, informed that the suit brought by Griffin, Bibbs and Hudson against the Katz Drug store, was delayed because the Katz attorneys were unable to be here this week.

The case is scheduled to be called the first of next week in the district court of Judge Tom K. Murrow.

A widely-known Des Moines athlete, Robert Boyd (Bobby) Vandever, 35, last Friday was sentenced to one year in the state reformatory at Anamosa. He pleaded guilty before Judge O. S. Franklin to a charge of assault with intent to do great bodily injury.

Vandever, a former professional football player, had been indicted by the county grand jury on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder. He had been in the county jail in default of $15,000 bond. The county attorney's office agreed to the guilty plea to the lesser charge.

Vandever was accused of a knife attack last May 28 of Carroll Heath, of 1329 Center st., a Des Moines boxer. Police said Heath suffered a throat wound in the attack in front of 527 S. E. Eighteenth st.

Nehru and the President will drive to the Blair House. Later that evening, the President and Mrs. Truman will give a dinner in honor of Nehru.

The other will be the dinner in honor of Nehru to be given by the Foreign Policy Association, Indian League, East and West Association and Institute of Public Relations at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York Thursday evening, October 20.

NNPA Office Reports That Approval of Army Policy Seems Veiled in Secrecy

Washington, D. C. (NNPA)—Approval of the announcement of the program, made by the public information office of the Department of Defense, had not been cleared with the President's Committee on Equality of Treatment and Opportunity in the Armed Forces.

It also was learned that the Personnel Policy Board in the Office of the Secretary of Defense knew nothing about it, although the announcement said the program has been approved by Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson and had been discussed with Charles Fahy, chairman of the Committee on Equality of Treatment and Opportunity in the Armed Forces.

James C. Evans, civilian adviser to Secretary Johnson, said his office knew nothing about the program. Under routine procedure, the program should have been submitted to Mr. Evans for his concurrence or approval.

Separate Unites
It leaves in effect both racial segregation and a quota fixing the ceiling of colored personnel at 10 per cent of Army strength.

Under existing policy, left untouched by the new program, colored personnel will continue to be organized into regiments, battalions and companies, and a number of these units will be organized as parts of white units. The program is frankly disappointing to colored persons who have been insisting upon complete abolition of racial segregation and discrimination in the armed forces.

President Truman on September 18, 1948 appointed a Committee on Equality of Treatment and Opportunity in the Armed Services, headed by Mr. Fahy.

Army Plan
The executive order declared it to be the policy of the President that there should be equality of treatment and opportunity for all persons in the armed services without racial or religious distinction.

The Air Force proposal to assign and use colored personnel on the basis of individual capacity on an Air-Force-wide basis was approved by Mr. Johnson on May 11. The Navy's plan was approved June 7. Army proposals were twice rejected by the Defense Secretary and the deadline for reports from that service were several times extended.

Approved Plan
The Army plan, approved last Friday by Mr. Johnson, makes the following changes:

1. Military occupational specialties (MOS) will be open to qualified colored personnel. Previously, there (See Page FOUR)

EXTEND TIME TO YEAR BEFORE N. Y. SHERIFF CON SEIZE A.M.E. CHURCH PROPERTY FOR DEBTS

New York (NNPA)—The New York Supreme Court (First Judicial District) has extended for a year the time within which the New York City sheriff is authorized to seize property of the Board of Incorporators of the A.M.E. Church under a writ of attachment issued August 15, 1947.

The writ was issued at the behest of the law firm of Snitow and Snitow, who sued the church and its heads for $49,000, claimed as fees in connection with services performed in the unroffing of Bishop David H. Sims.

As a result of the issuance of the writ, a notice of levy on the church's real and personal property was filed by the sheriff on September 5, 1947, and efforts were made to attach funds of the church on deposit in the Manufacturers' Trust Company, but the bank said the church actually was in its debt.

The church's real property affected by the writ of attachment is the Home and Foreign Missionary Department's building at 112 West 120th street.

United States to Continue To Extend Cooperation and Encouragement to Ethiopia

Washington, D. C. (NNPA)—The United States will continue to extend cooperation and encouragement to Ethiopia, President Truman declared last Wednesday.

His declaration of friendly cooperation between the two countries was made in reply to remarks of Ras. H. S. Imru, the newly appointed Ethiopian Ambassador who presented his credentials last Wednesday.

Mr. Imru has been in this country three years, serving as Ethiopian Minister, but recently the diplomatic missions here and in Addis Ababa were raised to the status of Embassies and the heads were made Ambassadors.

Accompanied to the White House by an interpreter, Ambassador Imru, in presenting his letter of credence, said: "Mr. President: I feel honored and happy to present to Your Excellency, today, the Credentials by having served in World War I as a chaplain overseas.

St. Paul's new minister revealed in an interview that he has a "dislike" for titles. "Just call me Pastor Singleton—for I am a shepherd."

which My August Sovereign, His Majesty Haile Selassie I, Emperor of Ethiopia, has been pleased to accord me as his first Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary near the Government of the United States of America.

"It is also a privilege to me, Mr. President, to convey to Your Excellency the most sincere wishes of His Majesty the Emperor, for the best of health and happiness to you and prosperity to your great country which His Majesty expressly has charged me to do so.

Another Mark

"The decision taken by the Governments of Ethiopia and the United States to raise their respective diplomatic missions in Addis Ababa and Washington to the status of Embassy, is another mark of the desires of the two Governments to strengthen still further the cordial relations existing between the two countries and I feel it my duty to assure you, Mr. President, that I shall spare no effort to work to that end for which, I am confident, that the Government of the United States will afford me every cooperation and encouragement."

WOMAN USES WELFARE CHECK TO MAKE BOOTLEG WHISKEY

Detroit, Mich.—Welfare officials "heard everything" last Monday when a 38-year-old woman recipient was arrested for using her welfare check to make corn whiskey.

In a raid Sunday at the Illinois address by Hunt Station police, a 50-gallon drum filled with fermenting whiskey mash, a 50-gallon crock of freshly distilled liquid and a 10-gallon copper wash boiler with distilled mash, was found in the basement.

Mrs. Harrison told police she had been using the $70 monthly welfare check to support her three children and pay the gas bill for the still.

Records showed that her gas bill last month was $20. The welfare client said she sold the whiskey for $2 to $5 a pint.

PERSONAL TOUCH

By Marie Ross

An interesting letter arrived recently for a former Des Moines resident, Mrs. Cuma W. Clayter, who has been residing since 1947 in Portland, Ore., where she went to open a beauty shop.

Mrs. Clayter, who formerly was an operator at the Evalon shop, in the city, wrote that her plans did not materialize—but she got a job in a white shop as a technician, and later, one of her co-workers opened a shop and created a job for her as a manicurist.

"Since July I have done the manicuring only and I like it very much. I use the Madam Walker method as taught by Crescent School by our 'Pauline.' The patrons like my work and try to get me to say I learned at Marinello or some of their schools but I hold out for Madam Walker and Crescent School", Mrs. Clayter related in her letter.

"I take my Bystander to the shop and show them the Crescent School ad. They like to read the paper. "Portland doesn't have a Negro paper. The Negro news from here is published in one corner of the Seattle Negro Paper, The Enterprise.

About the activities in Portland Mrs. Clayter wrote that "one of the big musical organizations here is the Portland Symphonic choir. Every race is invited to audition and take part. The audition it tough.

"Out of sheer race pride I went down for an audition last September and to my surprise I passed it with flying colors. My highest grades were in the languages, German, Italian and Latin and sign reading and musicianship. I sing with the group and like it very much. Werner Jansen, Ann Harding's husband was co-director last year.

"Of course, the Y.W.C.A. still rates with me. I belong to the Young Adults committee; also, the Y Golf club. I can't play golf as Congratulations to Lacy Mae Johnson Cassell who started work last month as an assistant catalog librarian at Drake university.

Mrs. Cassell, who recently changed her name when she married Mr. Cyrus Cassell, has been turning around fast since she arrived home on August 1 from Langston university where she gave up a position as catalog librarian.

Planning for her marriage and getting settled into a home took plenty of time and work, the bride revealed. "But, I took a day off, and with some nerve, made a visit to every institution I thought would have need of a librarian.

"When I went out to Drake university, I found that they had an opening in the catalog department—and I am just thrilled because it is the same kind of work I had been doing at Langston university, in the college library."

PENSIONS HAVE DEEP RAMIFICATIONS

There is always danger in selfishness. In the effort of labor and people who do so as a friendly gesture, to secure pensions, paid by the employer, a very grave situation is presented which is bound to be felt in many quarters.

Big business, such as the steel corporations, is able to pay less per unit of production than small business concerns consequently their profits are larger. And since this is true, labor insists that they pay the total cost of pensions.

There are millions of workers not covered by social security; there are others whose monthly payments would be so low that it could not go very far providing the ordinary necessities of life in old age.

These drives for non-contributory pensions are going to create demands upon the government to do something substantial for those who work for small business. Politicians will not resist and these additional burdens fall upon the federal government.

Big unions get their demands because of the great pressure they have; big business either voluntarily or are forced to comply because their profits are larger. But in doing this they create a demand which maybe our government cannot meet.

In the meantime the trend is hard on the little business man.

TITO DOING OUR WAR EGGING

American diplomats tell the people they are working for peace. There is very little truth in it. As a matter of fact they are literally toying with war against Russia.

Marshall Tito is doing a lot of grand stand playing and bullying Russia which may touch off war at any time. America is encouraging him in all of it and thus he feels that the U.S. will be duly bound to come to his aid if the fighting begins.

And unless this type of thing is stopped America will be fighting another war before very long. Maybe what Tito is doing is alright—he is a communist, too. But if America wants to back him in his scrap with Russia during peace time, she will be obligated to follow through in war.

BEARD GETS THINGS DONE

Members of the Des Moines City Council carry on constant running word battles against one another. They act like a bunch of people who don't know what their job is all about and use these antics as a smoke screen to hide their shortcomings from the public.

Commissioner Beard has come in for a lot of criticism from time to time. The Bystander has not taken the time to investigate for some criticisms seem foolish on their face.

But the Bystander has taken note—and many people have done so also—that Commissioner Beard has not seen fit to do all of his improvements in one section of the town.

There are streets in some neighborhoods which have needed repairing for years. Former commissioners have "overlooked" them. Not so with Beard. He has done a fine job in this respect and we raise our hats to him. Maybe he gets in the news a lot, but most people do who get things done.

had to be a specialty rating open in a colored unit before a colored soldier would be trained in that specialty.

2. The present quota limiting the number of colored soldiers selected to attend Army schools will be abolished and selection will be made from the best qualified personnel without regard to race or color. Previously, only twenty-one of 106 schools open to recruits after basic training accepted colored soldiers.

3. The promotion system of the enlisted career guidance program will be obtained by open competition on Army-wide examinations, against a single standard and without regard to race or color.

4. ROTC students attending summer training camps as members of school units to which they are regularly assigned will be trained with those units without regard to race or color. Previously, colored members of ROTC units at schools which enrolled both white and colored students were separated from their units and sent to colored encampments for summer training.

HOWARD U. PLAYERS A HIT IN NORWAY

Oslo, Norway (NNPA)—Crown Prince Olav and Crown Princess Martha of Norway headed an overflow audience of celebrities as twenty-one Howard University players faced their first European audience from the stage of the Det Nye Theater in Oslo on September 12.

Drama critics of Norway's dailies termed the appearance of the Howard players as a "daring experiment" which was "successful beyond all expectations."

Verdens Gangs, one of the critics, noted that "This visit provides proof positive that Howard University possesses a literary, theatrical and general cultural student milieu on a plane which every university in Europe or elsewhere can envy."

All tickets for the five day engagement were sold out early in the week and the players were asked to present an extra show before leaving for Copenhagen.

LABOR LEADERS ON A P's SIDE IN TRUST CASE

New York.—A deluge of telegrams from the nation's labor leaders and thousands of messages from consumers, all voicing opposition to the anti-trust suit against A&P Food Stores, have flooded the company's New York offices, an official of the food chain said today.

SUBPEONAED

Chicago, Ill.—Mrs. Marva Trotter Louis, divorced wife of Joe Louis, former heavyweight champion of the world, who has been subpoenaed to appear at a coroner's inquest in Chicago, Oct. 19, in connection with the slaying of Winston Howard, policy wheel operator and one of the owners of the Pershing hotel.

Howard was slain Friday by five bullets admittedly fired by Charles Cole, another policy operator and partner of Howard.

The shooting took place in the swank cocktail lounge of the south-side Pershing hotel, operated by two men known as the "Monte Carlo of Big Shot Gamblers."

Mrs. Louis was named on a subpoena after she refused to attend the inquest voluntarily last Friday, telling a policeman she knew nothing of the shooting. But officials ordered the inquest continued and her appearance at the next session "on account of her close association with the deceased."

PYTHIANS MOTOR TO CEDAR RAPIDS FOR INITIATION SERVICES

A group of Iowans motored to Cedar Rapids, on Sunday, Oct. 2, to assist in the initiation services of a member in the Twin City Lodge No. 12, Knights of Pythias.

Initiated were Charles Alnutt, Lewis Patterson, Charles Castin, Timothy Minus. The knights present were: Grand Chancellor Virgil Warren, Reed Allen, L. S. Johnson of Mason City; P. D. Goodloe, Kenneth Bell, Eugene Davis, Z. K. Manjigan, Ed Neff, Lee Legur, Rev. Thomas Lighon, Clarence King, Des Moines.

S. O. Alnutt, grand deputy of Cedar Rapids, was commended for the work he has done in the district. He is also keeper of records and seals for the Twin City Lodge.

Branches are scheduled for October and November, Gloster B. Current, director of branches announced.

The Pennsylvania conference will meet in Media, October 7-9. St. Joseph will be the site of the Missouri meeting, October 8-9. Other meetings included Kansas at Kansas City, October 9-11; South Carolina at Florence, October 15-17; Alabama at Tuskegee, November 11-13; and New York at New Rochelle, November 12-13.

Mr. Moon showed surprise when asked who had actually staged the press conference for Mr. White. He emphatically stated that he had sent out the notices and that the conference would not have been held at the NAACP offices if the NAACP had not staged it.

It had been reported that the board of directors of the NAACP had been against the organization staging a press conference for Mr. White inasmuch as he is on leave.

ST. PAUL A.M.E. CHURCH NOTES

On last Friday evening the Sunday School under the leadership of Mrs. Jeanne Morris, acting superintendent and her younger teachers, closed its observance of Religious Education Week with a testimonial dinner honoring its four oldest teachers, Mrs. Sophia Nichols, Mrs. Mattie Warricks, Mrs. Anna Ringo and Atty. S. Joe Brown, who have served for twenty-six to forty-six years, respectively, in the gratuitous service of St. Paul Sunday School.

HEALTH FOR ALL

"The school child's day will be more pleasant and profitable if he has a good lunch at noon," says Helen N. Lovell, Nutritionist for the Iowa State Department of Health.

Many of our schools in Iowa are now equipped to provide well-balanced hot lunches for the children, but for those children who attend schools that do not have a hot lunch program, it is up to the mothers to see that their children get lunches that are both appetizing and nutritious, whether they come home for lunch or carry their lunch to school.

A sturdy lunch box or pail is much better than packing the lunch in a paper sack. Lunches carried in sacks are too often mashed or dried out by the time the child arrives at school. A lunch box is better for packing jars of food and fruits and vegetables that will add appetizing variety to the school lunch. A thermos bottle filled with a hot drink or hot soup is a good addition to any lunch box.

A good hearty school lunch should be varied from day to day so that the child does not become tired of having the same thing every day. For variety Mrs. Lovell suggests that you include raw fruits and vegetables such as apples, oranges, bananas, peaches, pears, plums, grapes, raisins, dried apricots or prunes, tomatoes, carrots, cabbage wedges, radishes, lettuce and cucumber. These should be washed and wrapped in wax paper to keep them fresh. Many foods can be carried in little jars and will add much to the appeal of a lunch.

In making sandwiches use whole grain or enriched bread that is fresh and light, spread with plenty of butter or fortified margarine. Spreading both sides of bread keeps it from getting soggy. There are many varieties of sandwich fillings that can be used, thus breaking the monotony of having the same thing for lunch day after day.

To help you in your task of preparing lunches for your children we have a leaflet "Quick Tunes for Noons" that is free for the asking. Write to the Division of Public Health Education, Iowa State Department of Health, Des Moines 19, Iowa, and request us to send this leaflet.

TENNESSEE TROUNCES LINCOLN U. (MO.) IN OPENING GAME, 19-6

Jefferson City, Mo.—Displaying a powerful running attack, the Tennessee State Tigers scored in the second and third quarters Oct. 1 to defeat a stubborn Lincoln University team 19-6, in the season's opener for both teams.

Carl Carter led the Tiger's attack by scoring 12 of the 19 points made by the boys from Nashville.

Mrs. Warricks, because of illness, was unable to attend.

After having spent the week conducting a Pastors' Institute in the Indiana Conference, Dr. Geo. A. Singleton, pastor, was back in his pulpit Sunday morning supported by Rev. Felix Dickerson, local elder. Music was by the senior choir. The Lord's Supper was administered.

Out-of-town visitors present at this service were P. B. McQueen of Baltimore, Md., Richard Cash of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Morris of Cleveland, Ohio.

The pastor also announced that Mrs. Josephine Jones is organizing a gospel choir and invited any who would join to meet her at the church on Tuesday evening.

At 7 p.m. the pastor gave a communion sermon and administered the Lord's Supper. At this service was a delegation from Corinthian headed by one of the local ministers of that church.

On Monday evening was held a meeting of the official board at which time the pastor announced the appointment of two additional stewards in the persons of Mr. Lester Benning and Mrs. Iva Mae Hayes.

A mock conference has been set up at St. Paul with 30 bishops working in a drive which will end on Nov. 13. Mrs. B. J. Roach is senior bishop.

BETHANY A.M.E. TO LEAVE CONFERENCE

Yonkers, N. Y. (NNPA)—The Rev. Norman T. Garrison, pastor of the Bethany A.M.E. Church here, announced last Friday that his church membership had voted unanimously to withdraw its connection as a member of the New York Annual Conference.

The Rev. Mr. Garrison said the church had notified Bishop D. Ward Nichols, presiding bishop of the First Episcopal District, by registered mail over three weeks ago that it was in need of financial assistance from the Church Extension Department and that, if such a loan was not received, it would be forced to withdraw from the conference.

The Rev. Mr. Garrison also said committees from his church had met with Bishop Nichols on the matter several times but no aid had been forthcoming.
