YALE'S LEVI JACKSON EMPHASIZES RISE OF NEGRO IN SPORTS

New York—Levi Alexander Jackson, captain of Yale University's 1949 football team, is the latest in the rapidly increasing number of American Negroes to achieve outstanding success in the world of sports. But like his renowned contemporaries, Joe Louis and Jackie Robinson, he, too, had to cope with broad, yet subtle, challenge, says an article entitled "Levi Jackson At Yale" in the current issue of Look.

PASSES BAR EXAMS

ATTY. WILLIAM W. PARKER

Atty. William W. Parker, one of the forty-one persons who passed the Iowa state bar examinations given last week at the state house, was sworn in Friday, Oct. 7, in the state supreme court offices. He plans to practice law in one of the Iowa cities.

A native Iowan, Attorney Parker, is one of the four military sons of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parker, 1926 Easton boulevard, who served their country during World War II.

A graduate of East High school here, he received his bachelor of arts degree at Pine Bluff, Ark., State College in 1941, then began the study of law at Drake university here, where he spent a year before being called into the U. S. navy. He spent three years in the service after which he enrolled at Rutgers university, Newark, N.J., and earned his Bachelor of Laws degree last June.

Attorney Parker is a member of the King's Bench, legal fraternity at Rutgers; the New Jersey chapter of the American Veterans Committee; and the Alpha Nu chapter of the Alpha fraternity.

Chicago Slaying Inquest Postponed

Chicago (NNPA)—The corner's inquest into the killing of Winston Mississippi, has been postponed until October 19.

Mrs. Marva Louis, divorced mate of Joe Louis, the ex-heavyweight champion of the world, is under subpoena to appear at the inquest to tell what she knows concerning the fatal shooting on September 30 of the policy wheel operator and one of the owners of the Pershing Hotel.

Police said the slaying was admitted by Charles Cole, partner of Howard and also a policy operator. The shooting took place in the swanky cocktail lounge of the hotel, known as a "Monte Carlo for big shot gamblers." Traffic around the hotel was jammed as guests scrambled to get away in 100 expensive automobiles parked nearby.

Cole told police that Howard, entering the lounge, cursed him and demanded, "What's the idea of cheating me out of my take?"

Then, Cole said, Howard reached for his hip pocket as if he intended to draw a revolver. Cole shot Howard five times in the chest. Later investigation showed Howard was not armed.

The inquest September 30 was continued to October 19 in the county morgue after Corner Brodie issued the subpoena for Mrs. Louis "on account of her close association with the deceased." A policeman sent her home at 4320 Michigan avenue, said Mrs. Louis refused to attend the hearing because she said she knew nothing of the case.

The Welcome Mat Is Always Out at the USO

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.—Sgt. 1/c Carl A. Winston, 21, of Philadelphia, Pa., paratrooper with the 82nd Airborne, and a member of the social planning committee which directs the program of the Ramsey Street USO Club in Fayetteville, is typical of the young men of the new armed forces who continue to find USO the "home away from home" it was for their war-time predecessors. (Sgt. Winston is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Winston of 21 South 56th Street, Philadelphia, Pa. A graduate of West Philadelphia High School—class of '45—he entered the service in 1946.)

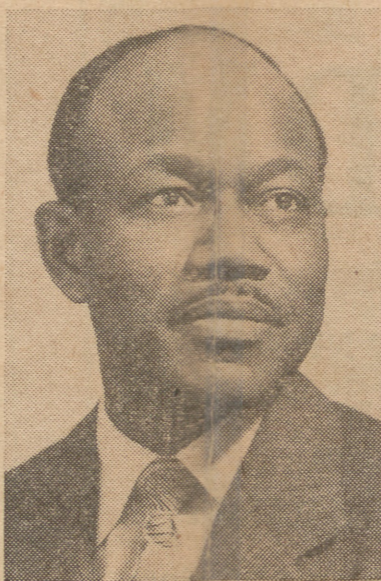

Community Chest Drive to Start Oct. 20; Workers To Secure Quota of $664,042

The Des Moines Community Chest drive will be held October 20 through November first. During this period over 3,000 local residents will take part in the city-wide campaign to raise annual contributions for 28 local chest agencies and the USO. This year the goal announced by President John S. Corley will be $664,042. This represents an increase of $16,881 over the sum raised last year and includes $12,725 as the city's share of the national fund asked by United Service Organizations (U.S.O.) a social and welfare group for men and women in the armed services.

Corley said that this projected sum provides only for retaining present programs, not for expanded agencies' programs. Pledges are expected from an estimated 75,000 residents and business establishments. Corley pointed out that the chest agencies provide child care, health services, recreational and character building activities and family counseling services to numbers of individuals approximating four out of ten of the Des Moines population annually.

Such services call for highly-trained social workers, nurses, family counselors, child care experts, able psychologists and experienced character-building workers. Corley said it has been necessary to grant salary increases in a number of cases to hold present competent help or to replace skilled staff members who have left. "It is the excellent cooperation of all the citizens of Des Moines in subscribing generously and promptly to solicitations which makes a well rounded chest program available," said Corley. "Des Moines realizes that the Community Chest plan of raising operating money for 28 local agencies in one campaign is more efficient than permitting large numbers of individual fundraising drives."

To Observe 21 Years In Barber Business

ROSENTING HARDAWAY

Rosenting Hardaway, prominent young business man of Des Moines, will hold the twenty-first anniversary of his barbershop, Hardaway's Tonsorial Parlor, at 1004 Center regardless of their personal desires, the brief states. Even if he so wishes, a white passenger is forbidden to sit at a colored table.

The point the Justice Department makes in this connection is that it is one thing to permit an individual to act on his personal prejudices but it is something entirely different for the law to force such prejudices upon everyone else.

Racial segregation under compulsion of law is not equality, the brief asserts. It also is argued that segregation "imports, and is designed to import, the inferiority" of colored people.

street, beginning Oct. 24 through Oct. 29. The week's celebration will include a radio broadcast from his shop on Friday, Oct. 28. In 1928 Mr. Hardaway rented the place which houses his barber shop. The early thirties were not easy years, financially, but with some credit system, which he set up when the depression hit the hardest, he was able to survive, and now he owns his barbershop, he revealed.

During the 21 years, Mr. Hardaway estimated that over 10,000 persons have been in his shop, getting haircuts, shaves, shampoos, tonics, massages and shines. Less than a dozen different barbers have been employed operating the three chairs in the shop.

A native of Ottine, Texas, Mr. Hardaway, the oldest of a family of eight children, was reared in San Antonio, Texas. With a desire to explore the country, he left home with a white landowner and went to Omaha. Not liking Nebraska, he came to Des Moines, in 1924, at the age of 22; got work in a barber shop, then located at Second and Grand, and later went to work for Oscar Glass, who operates the Okey Barber shop on Sixth avenue.

Prominent in the affairs of the community, Mr. Hardaway has been a member of the Corinthian Baptist church for 25 years; the North Star Masonic lodge No. 2, chairman of the charity committee of the Monarch club, a former chairman of the Boy Scouts committee of Troop 59, and an officer of the Hilltop Tennis club.

He and his wife, Mary, and a son, Rosenting Jr., reside at 1128 Eleventh street. Another son, Langston, who was a barber and musician, died here in 1944.

Drug Store Manager, Katz Testifies He Did Not Order Clerks to Refuse Negroes

Maurice Katz, manager of the Katz Drug company, defendant in a $10,000 suit for damages received by three Negro residents who were refused service at the lunch counter, testified on the witness stand Wednesday afternoon in District Judge Joseph E. Meyer's court that he had not ordered his clerks to deny service to Negro patrons.

Cross-examined by Atty. Charles P. Howard, one of the two attorneys representing the plaintiff, Mrs. Edna Griffin, Mr. Katz denied that he ever made a statement under oath in which he said he would not serve Negroes at the drug store's lunch counter.

When Attorney Howard read from the testimony Mr. Katz made Dec. 6, 1944, during a municipal court suit in which the State of Iowa was plaintiff against Mr. Katz, the drug store manager kept calling for the name of the plaintiff bringing the suit.

Attorney Howard kept repeating the "State of Iowa." Mr. Katz then asked if it was "Prince Haggerty and a white woman."

"Who cares about that?" Attorney Howard responded. "I do—and the jury does," Mr. Katz remarked.

VETS REMINDED OF NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE DEADLINE

Washington, D. C. (NNPA)—World War II veterans with service-incurred disabilities were reminded by Veterans Administration last Friday of an important deadline in connection with their National Service Life Insurance.

Prior to January 1, 1950, such disabilities actually incurred in service between October 8, 1940, and September 2, 1945, if less than total in degree, are disregarded in determining eligibility under the health requirements for NSLI purposes.

This means that veterans who might not otherwise qualify for life insurance for health reasons may reinstate lapsed NSLI or buy new or additional insurance up to the $10,000 maximum if they apply before the end of the year.

ST. PAUL A.M.E. CHURCH NOTES

Another large audience greeted Pastor Singleton, last Sunday morning. The newly organized gospel choir under the direction of Mrs. Myrtle Page, former prima donna of the senior choir as directress and Mrs. Josephine Jones as accompanist, alternated with the junior choir in furnishing the music. The pastor presented Mrs. B. J. Roach, whom he named senior of the thirty "Bishops" who will have charge of the thirty mock Episcopal districts in the mock general conference rally the purpose of which is to increase the membership of the church as well as to raise funds for the general rehabilitation of the church edifice. It will end on Sunday Nov. 13.

Among the out-of-town visitors at this service were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lewis of Burlington, Mrs. Mrs. N. J. Hayes of Indianapolis, Ind., and Dr. L. A. Whitfield, formerly interne in the Polk County Hospital in this city but now resident physician in Cook County Hospital, Chicago.

At the evening service the pastor brought another forceful message. A visitor from Bethel church, Chicago, was Mrs. Letha Johnson. A delegation from Corinthian Baptist church was headed by the Rev. Albert Fox, district moderator for the Baptists of the Des Moines district; also Wm. Warricks, Jr., and his two sisters Vivian Parker and Elizabeth Wilson, who were called home because of the illness and death of their mother Mrs. Mattie W. Parker.

PERSONAL TOUCH

It is not uncommon to hear a resident complain to a friend or foe that "I don't like this town. . . the housing is this. . . the employment is that. . . the recreation and entertainment are so-so, and on and on. And seldom is anything more than complaint made—verbally.

But on last Sunday afternoon at the Y.W.C.A.'s coffee hour, an interracial gathering of citizens scored their town on a scoreboard, and gave their honest opinions of Des Moines as a place to live and bring up a family.

Des Moines was measured against recognized standards for a good American community—and scorers rated it "good," "fair" or "poor." Ten standards scored were: education, housing and planning, religion, equality of opportunity in employment, economic development, cultural opportunities, recreation, health and welfare, government, and community organization.

Seated in groups of five to eight persons at tables, the women and men, generally agreed that—more homes were needed for low income groups, that more work was necessary to rid employment of racial injustices and discriminations; and, that trained men were needed for good government, thereby giving the lowest scores to housing, employment and government standards in the city.

Miss Alice Meyers of the Drake Community college who led the discussions, informed the citizens that now, recommendations could be made to the YWCA board of directors for action.

NO HEDGING ON CIVIL RIGHTS CASE

It has been said that a man who is not willing to fight for freedom does not deserve it. And generally he won't get freedom if he fears to fight.

This is equally true of civil rights for a man is not free if he does not enjoy them.

Recently, Des Moines has had a number of civil rights cases tried in Polk County District Court. And while they are brought in the name of individuals, the outcome affects all citizens similarly situated.

None of these recent cases has been successful. Not because the attorneys failed to put the evidence in the record, not because the attorneys have failed to do a good job trying the cases, not because the court has in any way ruled other than as the law exists, but the whole things can and must be traced to the jury service by men and women who brought in verdicts not according to the law and facts, but based on their own narrow views.

It has taken a lot of time, money and courage on the part of the lawyers and those clients who have been willing and did stand on their feet and insist that they be dealt with not as chatties, not as second class citizens, but as unhyphenated American citizens.

And it is just things which make Paul Robeson and other so-called Communists say and do a lot of the things that sound foolish and yet are outward expressions of resentment against depression and humiliation.

The Bystander stands squarely back of these cases. Every Negro with any courage and forethought of what a man must do to be a man is back of them. And in spite of the foolish statements by individuals "that you can't make people, by law, do what they don't want to do," they should be reminded that it took a civil war to free the Negro, a constitutional amendment to out-law slavery, another amendment to define a citizen so as to include Negroes which is the basis of most of these civil rights cases and another to guarantee the right to vote. And strange to say, these things are making some people do what is that cannot be done.

Those people who insist upon unfair play make a bad reputation for Des Moines, a reputation which the Christian people ought to help stamp out. In the meantime, let every good citizen, white and black, pat these folks on the back, encourage them. This is a big vital job.

PROGRESS IN SPITE OF DISAPPOINTMENT

The Department of Defense has recently announced a new plan of integration of Negroes in the Army. The Navy and the Air Force did so sometime ago.

Some improvement has been made. The plan is disappointing to many people who had hoped that the whole system of segregation and ostracism would be wiped clean with one stroke of the pen.

The Bystander had expected no such immediate action. It is too much to have hoped for in view of the fact that the army brass are predominantly southerners, most of whom have no idea of abolishing segregation as evidenced by the statement of General Bradley who, when President Truman issued an executive order on the subject, said the army would go ahead as it had in the past in the disposition of personnel. Of course, there are those from the North whose views are no better.

But is encouraging that the President and Secretary of Defense are doing something about the problem. In fact, the first proposal for handling the situation was returned to the Army by Defense Secretary Johnson as unsatisfactory.

The point is that the situation has been made better and as time goes and it is discovered by the old cronies that men of different races can live, eat and work together in harmony, further improvement will be made.

These things don't come over night as much as we should like them but when we realize that the mills of the gods grind show but grind to powder, there is much hope for the future.

Mrs. Griffin added that "I volunteered in the armed forces, knowing that it was a jim crow army, to help establish the equal dignity and equal rights of my people."

Defense Atty. Stinson asked her if she "had ever been served at Katz" to which she replied that

APPEAL TO FASHION MAGAZINES

An appeal to fashion magazines, photographers, artists, advertising men, Hollywood and television to use their great influence in behalf of "natural beauty" instead of "hot-house inventions" like the "cigar silhouette," the "dog collar waist" and "other health destroying fads" was issued today by the Iowa State Department of Health in announcing the eleventh annual observance of National Posture Week, October 17 to 22.

"We suppose it is natural for women, particularly in the younger age brackets, to imitate the models and stars in the fashion magazines, movies and television, some of whom slump, sag and slouch as though they had rubber spines," said the health department. "Nature women are usually too balanced to succumb to the temptation, but the effect on children and adolescents may create a life-long handicap. There is no beauty like natural beauty and the natural means better health, which is always an aid to beauty."

Beauty must begin with good posture and sensible eating habits. We see women perching themselves on the highest of spike heels to gain a little height and then sag, slump and slouch in what they consider a

"that was the first time she had ever been at the Katz fountain."

"You had been given to understand that you would not be served at the Katz fountain if you ever went there, hadn't you?" Lawyer Stinson queried.

At this point Atty. Howard objected to the question as "having no bearing on the issue in this case." He continued stating that "the law in this land says that she can go there and I object to an American citizen being told that she can't enjoy a privilege that any other American enjoys."

Lawyer Stinson informed the judge that the question was to show the "motive of these colored people going into Katz."

Pleading with the judge, Atty. Howard said "if they flagrantly violate the law, the Negro people in this community should set up a lawsuit."

Finally answering the question, Mrs. Griffin said "My intention was not that."

"When you and Mr. Bibbs and Mr. Hudson left the store, where did you go?" the defense attorney continued his cross examination.

An objection was made by the plaintiff's attorney who commented that "it is immaterial as to where they went." The judge overruled the objection and Mrs. Griffin answered that "we went to Walgreens, across the street."

Atty. Stinson was asking her if she had been at Walgreens several times and had been served, when another objection was made by Atty. Howard, Judge Meyers sustained the objection. The defense attorney "on what grounds sustained?" Judge Meyers replied "all of the grounds."

Neck and neck went the examination of Mrs. Griffin throughout the afternoon with the defense attorneys and plaintiff's lawyers Howard and Henry T. McKnight offering objections, discussions of the objections and rulings by the judge.

Attempts were made throughout to bring up Progressive party activities by the defense attorney who kept questions to Mrs. Griffin about whether she and her companions met at the Progressive party headquarters before going to Katz; about picket lines around Katz store by the Progressive party.

"You can't try the Progressive party," Atty. Howard kept repeating. "I don't think that Katz can hide behind Henry Wallace," he said.

Back on the stand Wednesday morning Mrs. Griffin, cross-examined about her reasons for joining the WACS, repeated that "it was a possibility to help establish the equal rights and dignities of my people."

"The truth of the matter is, Mrs. Griffin, that you have been an active agitator for many years," Defense Atty. Stinson said.

"No it is not true," Mrs. Griffin tried to explain when Atty. Howard objected with a comment that "every Negro ought to be doing that whether Mrs. Griffin is or not."

"I have always had the keenest interest and concern of what happens to my people because my father was before me," Mrs. Griffin replied.

The case continued Thursday. Defendants are the drug company; Maurice C. Katz, manager of the store at Seventh and Locust streets; and C. L. Gore, fountain manager.

They are being sued by Mrs. Stanley Griffin, 1108 Third street, who alleged she was refused service July 7, 1948. Two other $10,000 damage suits brought by Negroes against Katz and Gore are awaiting trial.

Katz was found guilty a year ago of violating the Iowa civil rights law and was fined $50 by Municipal Judge Harry B. Grund. Katz has appealed the conviction to

Big Ten
Earl Banks was sorely missed at Iowa City last week. The Illini went right through where he would likely have been. But Mike Riley and Don Commack held up. Commack hits the line just about as low as a man can get and still keep moving; pulls his knees straight up and down. Has to to keep driving as hard as he does. Riley simply runs over his opposition.

Ohio State uncovered a bunch of fleet Negro backs who will get their acid test against Minnesota's giant line this week end. Wish we could be at Iowa City and Ames at the same time. We want to see Bud Cole of Kansas State and we would like to see Indiana with its flock of Negro backs and ends.

Carroll Jackson who was thinking of quitting football a few weeks ago, apparently changed his mind. Now Lincoln high sort of wished he hadn't. The kid was half of the show against the Raisplitters last week. If it hadn't been for two Negroes on successive weeks being named to prep of the week Jackson might have made it, although the kid who was picked deserved to be mentioned, just as did Carroll.

East High continues to slam the boys. Mason City was the latest victim. Most of the Negroes playing with East were members of a little club a while back. Wonder

The headline news of the week will be what happen to John Bright at Stillwater, Oklahoma, this week end. The A. & M. athletic directors have said they have no objection to a Negro playing there against their school. For years we have cussed and discussed the policy of Drake in leaving Negroes at home and in some cases asking the schools of it were alright to play them on Drake's own field.

We think Jimmy Thompson was the first Negro to play even at home against a Southern opponent of the Bulldogs.

John turned in one of his customary good nights against South Dakota keeping his position as the nation's leading ground gainer. We were just a little amused at the efforts of the Register reporter to do a story about Bright. Didn't know what to say so he finally wound up telling of his achievement and let it go at that.

We hope we get to talk to Bright before he gets away to Oklahoma, but if we don't, good luck kid and

Katz said in his appeal the three entered the store for the purpose of "being refused service."

Last year's trial grew out of complaints by the same three persons who have filed the damage suits. They are Mrs. Griffin; John

GROWING IN MY GARDEN

Growing in my garden,
There are blossoms fair;
When the sun is shining,
People often stare.
I've a sweet Petunia,
A lily of the dell;

And I've planted roses,
For those who aren't well.
Yesterday was good day,
And I caught your eye;
Peeping at my garden,
As you were passing by,
I keep a little corner,
For things I can't resist;

It would be so very pleasant,
To add you to my list.
Growing in my garden,
Lots of Friendship too;
Things just keep on growing,
Cause it pleases you.
