GENE BAKER FIRST NEGRO

To Play on Des Moines League Team

22-Year-Old Lad Prepped At Davenport High; Former Short-Stop for Monarchs

By ALLEN ASHBY

Gene Baker, of Davenport, Ia., former short-stop for the Kansas City Monarchs, will very likely become the first Negro to play in the modern Western league and the first to play for a Des Moines league team, the Bruins.

Baker, a near went to the Monarchs. He was optioned to the Cubs farm system and was sent to Springfield, Mass., of the International league where he appeared in a few games as utility man and pinch-hitter before being transferred to Des Moines.

There is just one little hitch in the plans for Baker playing here. If he stays, somebody in the Cubs system owes the Monarchs $10,000. This is according to Tony Cordaro of the Evening Tribune who says Manager Charlie Root isn't sure he wants to keep Gene and has two weeks in which to make up his mind.

John Holland, Bruin business manager, said of the hotels at which the club stays on the road, only one has refused to accept Baker. The exception is at Wichita, Kan., where the Bruins play this week end.

MILLIONAIRE OFFERS JOE LOUIS $100,000 TO RETURN

New York City (Calvin News Service)—There are three old men out to break the International Boxing Club but with the drab lineup of fighters, this seems to many to be hardly the season for the trio to launch such an ambitious campaign. However, headed by George R. K. Carter who admittedly offered Joe Louis $100,000 to come out of retirement for a title crack at Joey Maxim, the Big Three are out for the kill. Millionaire Carter made his shekels by operating a gambling casino just outside Washington. He is a former associate of the great Tex Rickard.

Carter has big men behind him too. One is Jack Kearns, former manager of Jack Dempsey, who now handles Joey Maxim, world light heavyweight champ. Carter meanwhile has an option on Sandy Saddler and hopes to get one on Lee Savold.

Des Moines Goes Military Saturday in Nation's 1st Armed Forces Day Display

Des Moines goes military Saturday. Veterans have been asked to take their uniforms out of moth balls and wear them for the nation's first Armed Forces day. National guardsmen and reservists likewise will turn out in uniform.

Stores and stores will fly the American flag. Store windows are displaying military equipment, colors of the services, posters and action photographs all this week.

Manikins in Younker's windows are dressed in Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine uniforms. Foreign weapons, model aircraft and other exhibits are displayed against a 20-foot American flag.

Heck Ross has set up a display of small arms, including proximity fuses and a cutaway .30 caliber machine gun.

Silhouettes of the services are displayed in the window.

A "static" air display at the airport, 2:30 to 4:30 p.m., Saturday, will feature military planes from the big B-29 bomber to the tiny L-17 Liaison plane.

An overhead air show, Saturday from 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. will feature jets, regular fighters, bombers and transports in action. A giant B-36 bomber will fly up from Carswell Air Base at Fort Worth, Texas, to lead the sky parade. Keather permitting, each flight will circle the city several times.

Highlight of the city's celebration will be a talk by Major General Lewis B. Hershey at KRNT Theater, Friday night.

Argonne Post American Legion band will play for the program at KRNT. The Norden singers will appear, and two movies will be shown. Tickets for the program are available free at the KRNT box office and at the New Utica.

Pepper's Defeat Stirs Labor and Political Groups

By RAY LAWRENCE

Washington.—(Atlas)—Labor and its political groups are keenly disappointed with the defeat of Claude Pepper in the Florida primaries, and there is a lesson to be learned and used in the coming primaries in other states.

C.I.O. director, Jack Kroll of the Political Action Committee, saw in the defeat of Senator Pepper, "a grim warning to the American People." Kroll asserted that "we face an assault upon the whole pattern of our society, upon unemployment compensation, old-age income, public housing, health and education."

"The tactics we have just seen in Florida will be used in every state, in every ward and precinct where a public office is at stake," said Kroll. "Tuesday was heard a lesson for anyone who may have thought this drive toward reaction could be brushed off," he added, "but this sinister conspiracy is plunging ahead. The men behind it hope to capture our Government and impose upon our country a cruel and reactionary program."

The chief issues in the Pepper-Smathers battle were FEPC and Health Insurance, beside the red label, but in a state where social legislation grinds upon the thoughts of a white population, Mr. Smathers hammered home his point, but he was never silent about his implications that Pepper wanted equal economic opportunity for Negroes; being a smart politician, he knew what it takes to touch the sore spot of the voters.

It is such social legislation as FEPC and Health Insurance that the Labor groups are on record as supporters.

Walter White Recalled to Office; Asks Support for Of All for NAACP Program

New York—Walter White recalled to his post as executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Walter White today declared that in the light of the civil rights crisis "it is imperative that all of us buckle down to work" and pledged himself to do so.

The board of directors at its regular monthly meeting on May 8 voted to bring Mr. White back to the NAACP as the top executive after a year's leave of absence.

The international picture of race and colonialism and the national civil rights situation with respect to federal legislation, finances and the overall struggle for jobs are so acute that it is imperative for all of us to buckle down to work. This I pledge myself to do. In large measure, the fate of not only 15,000,000 American Negroes but of democracy itself depends on the effectiveness and integrity of the NAACP.

The appointments of Mr. White and Mr. Wilkins, which will continue until January 1, 1951, "the normal period of appointments," were made under a new plan of organization adopted by the board, designating the executive secretary as the top executive with the administrator as second in command. The duties and relationships of the offices were also defined by the plan.

Under the new plan, both the executive secretary and the administrator as well as the head of the legal department and the public relations officer are to be appointed by the board. Heretofore only the executive secretary has been so appointed.

The plan was drawn up by a special board committee under the chairmanship of Judge William H. Hastie. Serving with Judge Hastie on the committee were Rabbi Judah Cahn, Dr. Nathan K. Christopher, Judge Hubert T. Delany, Earl B. Dickerson, Mrs. Daisy Lampkin, Mrs.

'Jackie Robinson Story' Adds Ten Years to Film Progress in Hollywood

By DELORES CALVIN

New York City (Calvin News Service)—They said the "Jackie Robinson Story" would surprise everyone. But you won't believe it can surprise you until you've seen it. It's true, as its author, Arthur Mann stated, that "it'll surprise people who think it's going to stink . . . that it's going to be an epic . . . a sociological preachment." For the "Story" is far from that. It's a real, first-rate motion picture with, of all things, acting of academy award caliber from its star, Jackie Robinson!

We watched the preview of the film which opens at the Astor Theatre May 17th with all the cynical thoughts of expecting a documentary message to unfold. But what we saw was so refreshing and so different that we must agree with the many critics who have endorsed it. This is a great motion picture!

The "Story" learns and the right kind of inspiring music to tell a great story—and the camera moves along with a young boy walking, not with fear or the weight of prejudice on him. But a brisk walk with ambition and determination.

There are so many scenes touched with a deep understanding, not sympathy or pity that Jackie is a Negro-boy. You find yourself rooting for him to find a way to break the barriers which, in the end, reveal a true success story. Louise Beavers as his mother, though playing a small part, does it with sincerity. Ruby Dee is exceptionally good as Jackie's wife. Her acting is refreshing too. Our only criticism is that they should've given her a more becoming hair style for her appearance was much too plain and drab.

The true-life facts, such as his being turned down for a job as coach by every college he had written were turned off with honor when his brother announced he finally had a job. It was with the U. S. Army. Scenes as showing Jim Crowism when Jackie and 16 Negro ballplayers were not allowed to wash up in a small bath restaurant were cooled off with a fadeout, which was in food taste because it kept the film from being documentary. The main

Chicago—The blighted wasteland of New York City's black ghetto is as dirty and disease-ridden as any you will find in the U.S., says Southern liberal white writer Lillian Smith in Jazz magazine. INTERMARRIAGE AND NAACP MEMBERSHIP

Chicago—Inter-racial marriages by both Walter White and Leslie Perry are not the cause of the steady decline in NAACP membership and effectiveness says a June Negro Digest article blaming the current weakness of the once-great organization on a lack of an aggressive program and the active opposition of Carl Murphy of the Afro-American Newspapers.

"Headlines screamed and tongues wagged when Walter White married white Poppy Cannon," the story says. "And not even the marriage of Rita Hayworth to Aly Khan caused as much excitement as the subsequent marriage of Leslie Perry to white Ruth Westland, complete with alienation of affection suit by the former Mrs. Perry," the Negro Digest feature continues.

"But it is really lack of strong leadership and a positive program which are allowing the organization to disintegrate," the story declares.

THE CORRECT TIME IS NOW...

Your Faithful Electric Servant

WHEN YOU plug in your electric clock, it keeps the correct time faithfully month after month. Do you ever wonder why it works that way? It's really quite a story. Your clock is powered by a small, synchronous motor, which will always stay in exact step or synchronization with the big generators at the power house. Reddy Kilowatt is pointing to a recording frequency meter which is part of the control equipment at the power house. Should a sudden heavy load come on the electrical system, the generators may slow down just a little and your clock may lose a fraction of a second or so. Automatic equipment then speeds up the generators until they have recovered the lost time... and your clock is back on the dot. Out at the power house, every eight hours, as shifts are changed, the operators make a time check. Frequency of the system is compared with the Standard Time signal being broadcast by the Naval Observatory at Arlington. In that way, the big generators are kept exactly "on time," and since the clocks run in synchronization with the generators, they also remain "on time." It's a lot of attention to a small detail, but it brings you the correct time. The cost is only about 4 1/2¢ a month. That's all it takes to run the average electric clock.

PERSONAL TOUCH

By Marie R. C. S. S.

Out in the good old May sunshine and putting around in the flower and rock gardens at his home is prominent citizen John S. Coleman of 1320 Harding Road.

Since winter Mr. Coleman has been recuperating from a major operation he underwent at Veterans hospital. He returned to his home three weeks ago and is boasting of a few extra pounds that he has regained.

"This sunshine and dandelion greens are doing a lot of good," he revealed.

Around his home this week he has been working in an old fashioned flower garden, getting the soil ready for the marigolds, zinnias, flox, cosmos, snap dragons, blue bells.

He has a rock garden which rises to a height of four feet and in this garden his wife has creeping vines and flowers, he said.

The grass got its first trimming of the year from him. "The tulips didn't do well this year. The flowering almond is going away. It's a pink flower that comes out of the branches before the leaves." The James Manning flowering crab is very beautiful. But, I had to reset the peonies and they don't bloom the first year. They are doing about as well as could be expected—about like I am.

"In a few weeks the California and Oriental popples will be in bloom." The storm (that's Iowa's worst tornado which had a 90-mile gale) blew down Mr. Coleman's trellis which held a beautiful dark purple flowered vine and he has had that to put up again.

While out to veterans hospital Mr. Coleman revealed that he had a chance to find out a few things for himself. "They really treat you fine out there and everybody—the doctors, nurses, technicians and orderlies treat everybody alike."

"I had heard some things about segregation—but that's untrue now," he said. While convalescing Mr. Coleman said he received many cards from friends and he emphasized that "when you are in a hospital and have time to get news from the everyday activities of life—the civic and political problems—it gives you time to think about life and friends—and that greeting card means a world of good to you."

"I want to know if this traveling lady that came through here and stayed a couple of weeks really means what she told me. She promised to write me where she was going to stop next so I could see her for a weekend. We even made plans to marry next summer. I loaned her some money and it has been six weeks and I haven't seen or heard of her since. Oct. 21, 1910."

Ans.: She's long gone, Buddy, and you're holding the empty purse. All you have is some pleasant memories, promises which will never materialize and a deficit in your bank account. Chalk it up as experience my friend. The lady in question feels that you got your moneys worth—in good times.

"I am getting my freedom. For a year I exiled myself from all company but now I am myself again. I own my own home, live comfortable and I am happy. There is a man I have always admired without him knowing it. To my surprise he came to call and spoke directly his desire to make me happy. I did not let no my feelings. I want to know if I should pass him up now or while the time away with him? Jan 17, 1896."

Ans.: He's nice company and you will enjoy going with the man. You shouldn't take him too seriously as he is not thinking in terms of marriage at this time. Make other contacts too—it will help you in your effort to find the right mate.

"I am a divorced mother with one child who starts to school in Sept. I've been here for 3 years and have a very good job. My parents have been keeping my child and have done a wonderful job. They are getting older and I think it is my duty to resume my responsibility. 6/2/24."

Ans.: Let the youngster remain with your parents until next fall. Enroll her in school in the city where you work and find a competent person to look after her until you get off the job. It will be a pleasure to have her under your care and supervision.

DES MOINES MOVES UP A NOTCH

Des Moines is famous for trying new things. Many of its experiments have been along the line of race relations. And while the city itself has not run all these things, others—for instance the federal government brought the camp for training Negro officers during the World War I and WAC during World War II—have brought them here because Des Moines had the reputation as a pretty liberal town.

This week the Des Moines team of the Western League announced the addition of a Negro player to its roster. (A full account appears in another column of this paper). This marks the first time, without straining the record, that this has been done, at least, since the league was reformed recently.

The Bystander congratulates the owners on their fair play and act of justice. But as much so, the owners are to be congratulated on their good business judgment.

The record shows in figures that big league baseball has made a lot of money that did not come their way before Negroes were added to their teams.

The Western League will be no exception to the rule. Negroes have been refusing to patronize those institutions which give them nothing in return in the form of employment.

This is another milestone in improved opportunity for qualified Negroes.

During the Iowa high school basketball tournament last spring and before, teams from Mason City, Keokuk, Ottumwa and Davenport have included Negro players. The same situation prevails in football in spite of the fact that the Negro population in these places is far less in proportion to the whole of those towns than is true in Des Moines.

On the other hand Des Moines high school basketball teams have had no Negro players on their teams for years and the football situation does not seem much better. The baseball teams are out of the question.

Negroes as a whole turn out a large proportion of athletes in all sports. Maybe it is because there is more opportunity—more equal opportunity to compete and get what they make.

There is something definitely wrong with the "Negro player on high school teams" in Des Moines. The Bystander does not pretend to know what the answer is. Maybe Negro boys in Des Moines are not working hard enough; maybe they give entirely too much attention to these "separate leagues" which in the end get them nowhere.

Well ahead of the season, let the YMCA and Wilkie House athletic directors look into this situation and see if they cannot find the answer. The Bystander readers would like to know why and we propose to tell them. And we propose to work with the school officials in an effort to see that Negro boys be included on some of these teams.

NAACP DRIVE DESERVES SUPPORT

The N. A. A. C. P. has announced a half million dollar drive for a defense fund. Good. It is just the thing to do.

In spite of the claims of a lot of people that better racial understanding prevails even in the south, this improvement has come first because the U. S. Supreme Court said the rights championed in these cases is the law of the land. And don't forget every case carried to the Supreme Court seeking justice for Negroes was fought bitterly to the last ditch.

It takes money to fight these cases. It is the intelligent way to do the job.

thing is that it got over the point. Suspension came when Jackie, in the Brooklyn offices of Branch Rickey, was undergoing the changing point in his career—being hired for the Montreal team. For three hours Rickey sweated and shouted at Jackie, painting dark scenes of name calling and molesting that might occur when a Negro was placed on a white team.

"Suppose I collide with you at second base, Jackie. When I get up, I yell, 'You dirty black'—What do you do?"

Jackie Answers: "Mr. Rickey do you want a ballplayer who's afraid to fight back?"

"I want a ballplayer with guts enough not to fight back," roars Rickey. "You've got to do this job with base hits and stolen bases and fielding ground balls, Jackie. Nothing else!"

And so he did. Then, a few seasons later, when Jackie was chosen to speak at the Un-American Activities Committee in Washington, Rickey was the first to say "Now's your chance to fight back."

And that's why the "Jackie Robinson Story" is a great motion picture. It's one of the few films which begins with a problem and ends with it solved. It carries a message too: as the narrator points out in the ending "In this great country of ours a boy can grow up to be President of the United States—or play second base with the Brooklyn Dodgers!"

HEALTH FOR ALL

SLOW DOWN

Slow down! That's the advice many doctors give their patients when signs of high-pressure living begin to show. Relax! Take it easy! Mutter around in a garden for relaxation.

Yes, it's possible to keep young with a garden, but if you're an amateur watch out that the garden you put in this spring doesn't put you OUT more than it should, suggest the Iowa State Department of Health. Make it a small friendly sort of garden if you are more than 40 years of age.

Mrs. Jacobs is a carpenter's wife who has raised three children of her own and has 10 grandchildren. She now has 5 foster children in her 423 Waverly Ave. Brooklyn home. They are two boys and three girls from 3 months to 9 years old.

At the luncheon, Commissioner Hilliard made a plea for additional foster mothers. "There are 536 children now in need of placement. The greatest need for care of children belonging to minority groups, 'problem children' and physically handicapped boys and girls."

First of all, don't forget that things grow in Iowa. Don't plant too much over too wide an area. Plant just a row of beans, for instance. If you plant more, they'll keep you hopping to pick, can or give away at the end of the summer. Put the seeds in with plenty of room, so that you won't have to spend long aching hours thinning the young plants out.

Select a few choice flowers, and vegetables that grow fairly tall. Plant your garden near the house, with a source of water nearby and a place to put your tools away quickly. Keep an old sweater and garden clothes there, too—to avoid sudden chills. And don't forget a straw hat to shade your head. A garden bench is handy, too.

Have someone else do the extra hard jobs, such as plowing, heavy lifting, spading and pruning. And don't keep working in your garden too long at one time, no matter what you're doing. Two or three hours in the early morning or late afternoon will be ample time to keep your garden in order. Work at midday should be avoided entirely.

Change your kind of work frequently. Remaining in one position or using one set of muscles constantly may result in strain, cramps or cricks.

And finally, suggests the Iowa State Department of Health, always stop before you are really tired.

Headline news of the week is the possibility, a very strong one, that Gene Baker may be the first Negro to play in the Western league for Des Moines. There are several angles to this deal. One of them is the attitude of the hotels where the Bruins stay on their road trips.

Why do people who are supposed to be leaders and managers always, at least too often, lose their guts where Negroes are concerned? They always go crawling to hotel and restaurant managers begging them to accept Negroes. All the management has to do is say no because the words are so formed that the

Chicago American Giants In Memorial Day Game with Ohians

Chicago, Ill. (Special)—Chicago's American Giants now have a home record in Comiskey Park of two victories in three Negro American League starts, following its twin bill with the Memphis Red Sox last Sunday.

The two teams, who are enroute south, split a twin bill, with the Red Sox taking the opener, 13-3, and the Giants winning the abbreviated twilight, 5-1, behind the masterful twirling of Harry Rhodes, star southpaw.

Opening day the Giants defeated the Houston, Tex., Eagles, 13-10, accounting for the other win at home. The Giants will not return to Comiskey Park until May 30, at which time they will engage the Cleveland Buckeyes in a NAL holiday bargain bill.

Fribune is another angle. Good luck, Gene.

Our tennis program is really beginning to pay off. Herman Wallace, who won the beginners tournament last summer, is playing a singles spot for North high. Donna Lou Carr, who got her start in one of our beginners classes, the first one, is playing a singles position for the Polar Bears' girls team and Colleen Martin, a beginners' girls' winner.

AL LOVELAND says that only basic difference between the Brannan Plan and what we have now is the level of support for hogs, milk and eggs (the perishables) and how you go about getting it done. (As far as corn and other grain crops are concerned, the plan doesn't change a thing.)

The Brannan Plan fills stomachs instead of storage houses. Now we go out and buy eggs (for example), pay the cost of shipping them to a cave in Kansas, pay the cost of the cave, and if the eggs don't spoil, we eventually give them away and pay the freight bill to the dumping point.

THE BRANNAN PLAN MOVES PERISHABLES STRAIGHT TO THE CONSUMER through regular trade channels, without government interference; without special processing; without red tape, storage, extra freight; without a direct five-cent subsidy charged against the farmer; WITHOUT FOOD WASTE.

IT WILL COST NO MORE THAN WHAT WE HAVE NOW. If you feel it is important to have an effective price support for livestock products which produce four-fifths of Iowa's cash farm income... then

Like Parent, Like Child

If children are to learn quickly and happily the habits of cleanliness and practice in their homes, parents should encourage the "imitative quality." That's the conclusion of the head mistress of the experimental school sponsored by the Child Education Foundation in New York City. Let children—both boys and girls—help wash part of the dishes; shampoo their hair when Mother or Father does; wash their own socks and underwear when Mother is sudsing her lingerie; scrub their own faces with soap and water. When imitating adults, children enjoy and learn more rapidly the good habits of personal cleanliness which are the foundation of adult beauty and health.

First of all, don't forget that things grow in Iowa. Don't plant too much over too wide an area. Plant just a row of beans, for instance. If you plant more, they'll keep you hopping to pick, can or give away at the end of the summer. Put the seeds in with plenty of room, so that you won't have to spend long aching hours thinning the young plants out.

Select a few choice flowers, and vegetables that grow fairly tall. Plant your garden near the house, with a source of water nearby and a place to put your tools away quickly. Keep an old sweater and garden clothes there, too—to avoid sudden chills. And don't forget a straw hat to shade your head. A garden bench is handy, too.

Have someone else do the extra hard jobs, such as plowing, heavy lifting, spading and pruning. And don't keep working in your garden too long at one time, no matter what you're doing. Two or three hours in the early morning or late afternoon will be ample time to keep your garden in order. Work at midday should be avoided entirely.

Change your kind of work frequently. Remaining in one position or using one set of muscles constantly may result in strain, cramps or cricks.

And finally, suggests the Iowa State Department of Health, always stop before you are really tired.

Headline news of the week is the possibility, a very strong one, that Gene Baker may be the first Negro to play in the Western league for Des Moines. There are several angles to this deal. One of them is the attitude of the hotels where the Bruins stay on their road trips.

Why do people who are supposed to be leaders and managers always, at least too often, lose their guts where Negroes are concerned? They always go crawling to hotel and restaurant managers begging them to accept Negroes. All the management has to do is say no because the words are so formed that the

Chicago, Ill. (Special)—Chicago's American Giants now have a home record in Comiskey Park of two victories in three Negro American League starts, following its twin bill with the Memphis Red Sox last Sunday.

The two teams, who are enroute south, split a twin bill, with the Red Sox taking the opener, 13-3, and the Giants winning the abbreviated nightcap, 5-1, behind the masterful twirling of Harry Rhodes, starsouthpaw.

Opening day the Giants defeated the Houston, Tex. Eagles, 13-10, accounting for the other win at home.

The Giants will not return to Comiskey Park until May 30, at which time they will engage the Cleveland Buckeyes in a NAL holiday bargain bill.

Fribune is another angie. Good luck Gene.

Our tennis program is really beginning to pay off. Herman Wallace, who won the beginners tournament last summer, is playing a singles spot for North high. Donna Lou Carr, who got her start in one of our beginners classes, the first one, is playing a singles position for the Polar Bears' girls team and Colleen Martin, a beginners' girls' winner, is playing doubles for North. This is what we had planned for and hoped that some day one of the boys or girls would break through.

Well the idea doesn't seem so hopeless now. Don't know who it will be, but some of these kids are going to be in the top bracket of tennis players. We wondered for a while what we were going to do for tennis players when the old timers passed on. But we don't have to worry now and a couple of us veterans can retire and let the kids take over.

Our Hilltop Open meet is getting bigger and bigger. Maybe, this may be the year when the folks may try to take over their meet, so the Hilltoppers may better be getting ready to go on their own. By the way, our tournament date is August 7-13. The other dates will come up later.

Bill Ashby, Chet Williamson and Your Illustrious Scribbler are planning to go to Jefferson City, Mo., to sit in on the formation of a strong Missouri Valley Tennis Association. The two Kansas Cities will be there along with St. Joe, Atchison, Independence, Mo., Jefferson City, and maybe, Omaha will be there. Will let you know what happens later.

Like Parent, Like Child

If children are to learn quickly and happily the habits of cleanliness practiced in their homes, parents should encourage the "imitative quality." That's the conclusion of the head mistress of the experimental school sponsored by the Child Education Foundation in New York City. Let children—both boys and girls—help wash part of the dishes; shampoo their hair when Mother or Father does; wash their own socks and underwear when Mother is sudsing her lingerie; scrub their own faces with soap and water. When imitating adults, children enjoy and learn more rapidly the good habits of personal cleanliness which are the foundation of adult beauty and health.

New deadline changed to Tuesdays of each week.

AL LOVELAND

(Democratic Candidate for U. S. SENATOR) says:

FARMERS want price stability; HOUSEWIVES want to share fully in our food abundance.

THE BRANNAN PLAN IN THE 50's MEANS:

PRICE STABILITY FOR THE FARMER ON MEAT, MILK AND EGGS (Representing 4/5 of His Income). COMPETITIVE FOOD PRICES FOR THE CONSUMER ON PORK, BUTTER, EGGS, MILK, CHEESE, POTATOES, ETC. LESS WASTE AND MORE EFFICIENCY FOR THE TAXPAYER.

WHO IS AL LOVELAND

Why Does He Deserve Your Vote for U. S. Senator? AL LOVELAND is an Iowa farmer, former Under-Secretary of Agriculture, head of the United States farm delegation to the United Nations. He has had a chance to see all sides of this question.

AL LOVELAND says that only basic difference between the Brannan Plan and what we have now is the level of support for hogs, milk and eggs (the perishables) and how you go about getting it done. (As far as corn and other grain crops are concerned, the plan doesn't change a thing.)

The Brannan Plan fills stomachs instead of storage houses—drying meat, the freight for shipping them to a cave in Kansas, pay the cost of the cave, and if the eggs don't spoil, we eventually give them away and pay the freight bill to the dumping point.

THE BRANNAN PLAN MOVES PERISHABLES STRAIGHT TO THE CONSUMER through regular trade channels; without government interference; without special processing; without red tape, storage, extra freight; without a direct give-away subsidy charged against the farmer; WITHOUT FOOD WASTE.

IT WILL COST NO MORE THAN WHAT WE HAVE NOW. If you feel it is important to have an effective price support farm-income plan, then

Here is How The BRANNAN PLAN Affects Each and All of You

- 1. For the FARMER It sets up an income goal related directly to the costs of farming. When costs go down, the income goal can come down. Until costs come down it should not come down.
2. For the CONSUMER The housewife gets immediate price advantage of any surplus of perishable foods to fill stomachs and workers' dinner pails, not cold storage houses.
3. For the BUSINESS MAN: It keeps your farm customer in a position to buy. It moves his goods through regular competitive business channels without government interference, special processing, storage, freight, or dumping costs.
4. For the TAXPAYER It operates without waste. It moves perishable goods to market in an orderly fashion without extra costs and red tape. Many economists say the Brannan Plan method will keep the farmer in business at less total cost to all of us.
