AFTER LONG DELAY

Ask Action on Hastie Appointment

Hickenlooper and Gillette To Urge Favorable Action; Leaders Ask Confirmation

New York—Alarmed by the Senate Judiciary Committee's repeated postponements and long delay in reporting favorably to the Senate for confirmation the nomination of Judge William H. Hastie to the Circuit Court of Appeals, 7 Negro leaders of national civil, professional and church groups joined in sending a telegram to Senator Pat McCarran, committee chairman, urging "speedy action."

Affirming their confidence in Judge Hastie on the basis of his distinguished record of public service, signers of the telegram offered to appear before the committee to give any additional testimony and evidence needed. Judge Hastie was nominated by President Truman and given a recess appointment last October to the Third Circuit Court of Appeals sitting in Philadelphia.

Several other judges nominated at the same time, and since, have already been confirmed by the Senate. Prior to his appointment, Judge Hastie had been governor of the Virgin Islands, a district judge in that territory, civilian aide to the Secretary of War, and dean of the Howard University Law School.

Washington—"I have been in touch with the Senate Judiciary Committee this morning," wrote Sen. B. B. Hickenlooper of Iowa on July 10, to James B. Morris, chairman of the legislative committee of the Des Moines branch NAACP.

"I am advised that Judge Hastie's nomination has been reported out favorably by a sub-committee, but I have had the opportunity to visit with several members of that committee, and I am strongly urging favorable action. I expect to support Judge Hastie's confirmation when it comes to vote in the Senate."

Senator Hickenlooper added that "I note your reference also to my previous vote on FEPC Cloture Rule. This motion is being called up again, and I shall again support Cloture."

Letter From Sen. Gillette
Sen. Guy M. Gillette of Iowa wrote the NAACP's legislative chairman here "I shall do nothing to delay in any way the confirmation of Judge Hastie. I know the judge and know him to be worthy and competent."

Hastie is inexplicable. Negroes throughout the country are united in support of Judge Hastie, the first Negro in the history of the country to receive such a high judicial appointment. They cannot understand the inaction of Senator McCarran and his colleagues on the Senate Judiciary Committee."

PATTERSON FINALLY RELEASED ON BOND; FIGHTS EXTRADITION

Detroit, Mich.—Haywood Patterson, "last" of the Scottsboro boys, who was arrested in Detroit early last week, was released on a reduced bond of $5,000 in Federal Court, following a hearing before Judge Arthur F. Lederle.

Patterson, who escaped from an Alabama prison in 1947, was arrested by local FBI agents, as a fugitive from justice. The 27-year old Alabamian stated last week that "he does not want to return to Alabama."

Bond for his release was furnished by a Detroit attorney. Patterson twice escaped death after he along with three others were sentenced to prison terms ranging up to 99 years. Five were freed. Last week Andy Wright, 38, was released from a Montgomery, Ala., prison after violating his parole. Wright was released in 1944 after serving seven years.

The trial of the Scottsboro boys was one of the most famous of the 30's, lasting six years and rivaled the kidnapping of the Lindbergh baby.

Patterson, co-author of the recently released "Scottsboro Boy," which is a revealing but bitter accounting of the inhumane conditions of the Alabama prison and how Negroes are treated, escaped from Kilby (Ala.) prison July 29, 1948.

He told his story to Chicago Defender Columnist Earl Conrad who edited it.

Hold 14-Year-Old Boy for Slaying of Baseball Fan

New York, N. Y.—A 14-year-old boy Friday admitted firing a .45 caliber bullet from a rooftop near the Polo grounds at the time a baseball fan in the park was killed July 4 by a slug that size.

Police said the boy, Robert M. Peebles, signed a statement that he fired the shot from an automatic pistol he found in Central park six months ago and kept hidden until last Tuesday.

It was the only shell in the weapon, officers quoted the boy as saying. All of upper Harlem, from 409 Edgcombe Avenue to 555, exclusive "Sugar Hill" residential area of the race's most important people, was searched frantically by the police. The bullet was recovered in the autopsy on Bernard L. Doyle, the victim, who was a onetime manager of ex-heavyweight champ Jimmy Braddock. The slug had entered above the left eyebrow and embedded itself in the brain. Though the murder happened before 40,000 early comers to the game, a double-header between the Dodgers and the Giants, none saw or heard anything until Doyle slumped over in his seat, already dead. His companion, 13-year-old Otto Flaig, Jr., a neighbor's son, was horrified.

Three Other Guns
Peebles has been held since early Wednesday by police because of his possession of two .22-caliber rifles, a 22-caliber pistol and ammunition which police said they found in his apartment.

But he denied until last Friday that he possessed a .45-caliber pistol. Detectives said they were satisfied

Peebles' admission solved the slaying mystery. The lad was held on a charge of juvenile delinquency for a hearing in children's court Tuesday. The law provides that a defendant cannot be charged with homicide unless he is at least 15.

A woman with whom he lives who identified herself as Mrs. Marie Bell, 53, his great-grand-aunt, was held in $2,500 bail for a felony court hearing Tuesday on a charge of having concealed weapons—the rifles—in the apartment.

Shot Into the Air
Police said Peebles told them he secreted the pistol in the basement of the apartment house until July 4, when he took the gun to the roof and fired it as a celebration. The rooftop overlooks the ball park.

Police quoted him as saying he shot it into the air with no intention of aiming at the Polo grounds where Doyle was killed in a seat 1,120 feet away.

After he heard of the Polo grounds fatality, Peebles threw the gun into a weedy, overgrown area behind a swimming pool, police said, and tossing the shell casing into a toilet.

Draft Law Goes Into Operation

Washington, D. C.—Highlights of the draft law which President Truman put into operation Friday:

Any male, with certain exceptions, who has reached his nineteenth birthday and has not yet reached his twenty-sixth, can be ordered into uniform and kept in service for 21 months.

Any member of the national guard or the reserves can be called into active service for the same length of time.

The 1948 draft law did not permit the activation of reserves and national guardsmen, but congress gave that power to the president when it recently extended the law until July 9, 1951.

Every male must register with his local draft board as soon as he becomes 18. He can't be drafted for a year after that.

Exempted groups include ministers and ministerial students; aliens who have not applied for citizenship; mentally, morally or physically unfit persons; state and federal judges, congressmen and members of state legislatures, and other officials elected by statewide vote; conscientious objectors; sole surviving sons of families who already have lost a member in military service, and war veterans who served at least 90 days between December 7, 1941, and September 12, 1945, or at least 12 months between September 16, 1940, and June 24, 1948.

Local draft boards may grant deferments to others, such as men who have dependents or who are engaged in essential work, but these deferments can be revoked.

No Mixed 'Cruising Down River' Out of St. Paul, Minn.

Minneapolis, Minn.—Four young St. Paulites were greeted with the phrase, "This is whites' night," and were threatened with eviction from the boat if they did not leave immediately late Saturday night, July 1, wrote Mamie Butler in the Minneapolis Spokesman.

The four attempted to board the excursion steamer Avalon for a pleasure cruise down the Mississippi. Mr. and Mrs. E. Mitchell Rhone, Dorothy Monson and J. Alphonse Horton, who purchased the tickets were told by the watchman on the boat that the boat was for whites only, and they could not come aboard.

The steamer Avalon comes annually to the Twin Cities for from 10 to 14 days, sponsoring pleasure excursions down the Mississippi. Owners of the boat have consistently refused to allow Negroes to ride on these cruises. It docks at Lambert's landing in St. Paul, and solicits riders from advertising in the daily paper and by posters throughout the city.

The captain of the ship, a Captain Hall, at first told the two couples they could by no means enter the ship. He said that on that night the ship was for whites, and Negroes would have a night on July 9.

HARLEM BUSINESSMEN EYEING WAR SCARE

New York (CNS)—Determined not to be caught short-handed IF there's a World War Three, Harlem businessmen are no different from the rest of the country's and are holding pat watching. Many consider the outbreak in Korea to be of major importance, especially with casualty lists streaming in. Thus, they are holding back any new plans for expansion for should war break out, they say, it means that scarce articles must be bought up immediately.

Board members are: Mesdames Mason, Sadie Peters and Anna Mae Carter.

Others are—so don't be bashful about these birthday anniversary occasions. A wise mother said just the other day—"wear your age as a loose garment and don't ever let it give you a squeeze." And, speaking of birthdays, while at Reno—really, we had promised to stop writing about the trip to the national convention of the Federation of Press Women—but after a telephone chat this week with Mrs. Klara Kemp who is recovering at her home following a long and serious illness—just to help her convalesce faster, since she commented that she had "enjoyed reading about Reno—and for heavens, keep on with it!"—we'll just mention this brief bit on birthdays.

PERSONAL TOUCH

By Marie R. C. S. S.

"I am now visiting Mr. and Mrs. Guy Walker Smith in Baltimore, Md.," wrote Mrs. Guy Greene this week. "It is a beautiful city. I attended a wonderful national convention of the NAACP in Boston. From there I visited in Hyannis, Mass., down at Cape Cod. I was visiting the aunt of my husband and his cousin, Mrs. Mary Robertson and Mrs. Fannie Mendes.

"Cape Cod was a beautiful, restful place to relax. I called to congratulate you on your success as a newspaper woman and your trip by air to Reno, Nev. Will be home in a few weeks. Rock Island strike somewhat in my way."

Wedding bells will be ringing on Sunday in Detroit, Mich., where Miss Naomi Juanita Walden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Walden, and Mr. William Lee Nelson will be married. A reception will be held Sunday evening at 269 Erskine street, Detroit.

Miss Walden is a former member of the office staff of the Iowa By-stander.

July-born natives are having a grand time celebrating birthdays this month. Myrtle Lanier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Carter had a group of friends at her home on Sunday afternoon at a party. Then on Tuesday the ten-year-old Myrtle joined a pal, Jean Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Johnson on the east side of town for Jean's birthday which was on July 10 but observed on July 11.

Bright and early Tuesday morning the columnist sang a happy birthday to her mother in Kansas and before the end of next week Mom will be returning the birthday song to daughter. And in the meantime—if the news can be finished for this week—we'll manage to get over to Jean's party before all of her neighborhood gang eats up all of the cake and crumbs and the ten candles.

More birthday parties will be going on—and we'll try to make calls to most of them.

A belated wish to Mrs. Rosa Bland who celebrated her natal day on July 4, and greetings to Mrs. Salema Morris on July 16; Miss Mary Holmes, July 17; Mrs. Mildred Wiley, July 18; Mrs. J. Q. Evans, July 20; Me-Myself-And-I July 21; and Mr. George Franklin, July 25.

Of course, there are many more during the month of July and it would be nice to know who some of Thurston Mason of Ardmore, Okla., nephew of Mr. Trotter; Mr. Lawrence Howard of Detroit, Mich., guest of his parents, Atty. and Mrs. C. P. Howard; Mr. George Jackson of Los Angeles, Cal., guest of Mr. and Mrs. Oval Carter; Mrs. Cecil Parker of Chicago, mother of Mrs. Lee Kemp, Jr.; Mr. Warren Williams of Chanute, Kas., nephew of Mr. Harold Williams.

LA FLEUR DE LIS CLUB MEMBERS TO CHICAGO GAME

No meeting will be held on July 14. The members are going to Chicago for a ball game.

But during the war, "some trouble" arose regarding colored soldiers who came into Reno and nearly all places are closed to the colored citizens. White and colored do go to the same schools, she informed.

Mrs. Dickerson lamented the conditions and the restrictions and hoped that someday they would improve.

But back to the birthday celebration. The other guest included was Mrs. Marie Higgenbotham, wife of Prof. A. L. Higgenbotham who heads the department of journalism at the University of Nevada. He addressed the press women at an earlier session on "Newspaper Printing Still in the Dark Ages." But at the banquet, his wife who sat across the table from me, had many questions to ask about the Iowa By-stander and the type of paper it is.

Well, the press women stood around the beautifully decorated banquet tables and sang a double "Happy Birthday" to the two Reno women. The presiding officer, Mrs. Katherine Mergen, president of the Reno Press Women, was "sorry"—but something had happened to the birthday cake that was to be the highlight of the celebration. And, not until the end of the convention, on Sunday afternoon, when the Renoans were cleaning up the convention headquarters did they find any trace of the cake. It had been lost in one of the hotel's many refrigerators.

During the chat she revealed that at one time Reno had been very democratic in its race relations—until World War II. The 500 or more Negro citizens went where, and

UNPREPARED AGAIN BUT LETS PITCH IN

It was a mystery how the Japs surprised us at Pearl Harbor catching our forces off guard and enabling them to do a lot of damage and spread over a lot of territory before American forces drove them out of their captured area.

For months, America has been, as most people thought, building up strength in the armed forces to cope with Russia. In fact Secretary of Defense Johnson was so bold to say that if Russia started anything in the morning they would be whipped before night.

But those brags have not come true. In spite of our plans to help the southern Koreans (and a lot of money was appropriated by Congress for that purpose) when the show-down came the money had not been used and our capacity to repel the enemy is miserable.

Of course, no country can scatter untold troops and supplies over the globe with any degree of effectiveness to meet every emergency that arises, but in view of the dangerous situation which has existed around Formosa for months, there is little excuse for the miserable shape in which our forces found themselves when trouble arose.

But all these things are water over the dam. America is up against a tedious difficult situation; one which, if not settled peacefully, may drag along for many months to come. Thus ALL Americans should and must rally to the cause and put up a solid challenge to the enemy that our cause shall prevail in this struggle.

TAG DAYS HAVE BECOME A NUISANCE

Des Moines has witnessed more tag days in 1950 than in any other comparable period in years.

In years gone by, tag days were authorized for purely charitable or veterans organizations, the latter using their funds for disabled buddies. However, in recent months, it looks as if every organization chose to put on a tag day when its treasury was out of funds.

Tag day promoters must secure a permit from the city council in order to collect funds on the streets. And while the city council has been responsible primarily by issuing these permits, the Bystander appreciates that it is difficult, at times, to know just where to draw the line.

This year, churches have joined the procession of tag day promoters. This is clearly out of line for there are dozens of struggling churches that have just as much right, as those that have been begging on the streets, to ask for a tag day too.

Most worthy charities get treated pretty good by the business places in Des Moines in matters of contributions. In fact some, it appears, have been too liberal especially in cases where there is no accounting as to where and how the funds are spent.

It looks pretty disgusting to see a bunch of boys and girls running up and down the streets, at times, in droves begging Saturday after Saturday for funds.

The legalized pilfering of funds does not, in most cases, help anyone but a few promoters. On the other hand, they are a disgrace to the people of the city and should be stopped.

JUDGE HASTIE SHOULD BE CONFIRMED

The Senate Judiciary Committee has been considering the nomination of Judge William Hastie for months. President Truman appointed him a circuit judge, the first in the history of the country.

The senate judiciary committee is headed by Senator Pat McCarran, of Nevada, a conservative Democrat, who has had little contact with Negroes of Judge Hastie's experience, training and ability. He is of the old school accustomed to Negroes getting the meager portion of what an American citizen is entitled to.

The NAACP has called upon branches to prod their senators to the end that the nomination be reported out of committee favorably. There is little doubt of confirmation once the nomination reaches the floor of the Senate.

Visiting around Iowa

by Joe Marsh

If The Communists Took Our Town . . .

Ever think what it would be like if the Communists took over our town?

What would happen to you and me? We'd be told what to think, what work to do. Farmers' crops would be confiscated. Our kids would be taught only the Communist side. Newspapers would follow the line or be closed.

A far cry from our American democracy!

Sure, we have folks right here in town who would enjoy telling everyone what to think, how to act. But we never take them too seriously. Because we don't like dictators, amateur or professional.

Our American freedom is as simple as a man's right to think his own thoughts, exercise his own tastes. It's as basic as Joe's right to prefer ice cold lemonade . . . or mine to enjoy a temperate glass of beer.

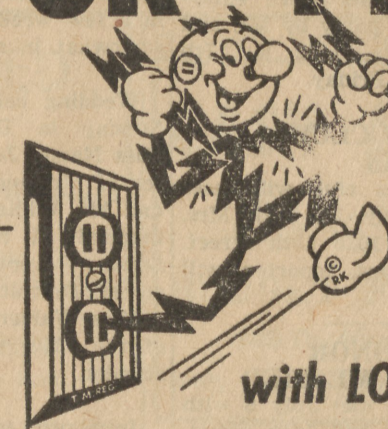

At least we've learned one lesson from Communism. Once we start whittling at our freedom, even in little things, there's no telling where it will end.
