News Briefs From Far and Near

HERNANDEZ CALLED HOLLYWOOD'S HOTTEST

Chicago.—Juan Hernandez is the "hottest" Negro actor in Hollywood today, the first of his race to achieve four major roles in a year since Step'n Fetchit shuffled to stardom 15 years ago, according to an article in the August issue of EBONY, Negro picture magazine.

The most significant aspect of the big, granite-jawed, dynamic actor's current success is that in his latest movie, "The Breaking Point," Warner Brothers has cast him in a white actor's role and there is no reference to race or color in this movie, based on Hemingway's "To Have and Have Not." Hernandez is cast as a fishing partner of John Garfield.

'DOWN IN THE VALLEY' TO BE SUMMER OPERA AT LINCOLN U. (MO.)

Jefferson City, Mo.—As a part of the activity program provided for the summer registrants totaling nearly 600 at Lincoln university (Mo.), the department of music, in collaboration with the students of acting, rehearsal, and performance, will present Kurt Weill's folk opera, "Down in the Valley," July 30-31. The production will be given in the outdoor theatre on the lower campus.

Opens St. Louis Pools to Negroes

St. Louis, Mo.—A federal judge Monday ordered this city to open its two outdoor swimming pools to Negroes and white alike, effective Wednesday.

The city asked for a delay to give time for an appeal, and the judge ordered a hearing Tuesday on that request.

The court order was granted on the plea of two Negroes, George W. Draper, attorney, and Miss Rose Taylor, office secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

One of the pools was the scene of clashes between Negroes and whites last summer, just after the city opened it to Negroes. The order admitting Negroes was rescinded promptly.

Texas Proud of Commissioner

Houston, (CNS)—Negro citizens of this Texas town are proud this week over the surprise appointment of Rev. A. J. Kemp as a Commissioner of the Harris County grand jury, becoming the first Negro to gain that position. Rev. Kemp is pastor of the Mary Olive Baptist Church.

Criminal District Judge Langston King, in naming Rev. Kemp, broke a long precedent which had heretofore only allowed one Negro to serve on the jury. Rev. Kemp will be associated with two white men in naming the grand jury. Two other commissioners, Kern Tips, a radio announcer, and Frank B. Bayer, combined with Rev. Kemp in naming three Negroes as members of the 16 man panel from which the 12 man grand jury for August will be named August 7.

On the appointment, Judge King cited that a recent U. S. Supreme Court decision "strengthened my intention" to take the action. That decision threw out a death penalty case appealed from Dallas on the grounds that Dallas County, too followed the "one Negro and only one" policy on the grand jury.

MUSICAL PROGRAM

The First Baptist choir will give a musical program Sunday evening, July 23, 8 p.m.

MISS GLORIA BROWN WINS TALENT AND BEAUTY CONTEST

Mrs. Hiawatha King, co-chairman of the first annual Talent and Beauty contest which was sponsored here by Zied Temple No. 90 and Zied court No. 50, is presenting a bouquet of roses to Miss Gloria Patricia Brown, 18, of 1112 Tenth street, was first place winner in the contest.

The contest closed on last Thursday night when the sponsors held a pageant at Riverview park ballroom. Harry Black, chairman of the contest, presided over a program which included songs and dances.

Miss Brown will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. William Ashby, to Boston, Mass., on August 16, to compete in the national contest for $4,000 worth of scholarships. Her prize, as first place winner, is an all-expense paid trip. She is a June graduate of North High school here.

Other winners were: Miss Zola Mae King, second, $100 government bond; Miss Minnette Tull, third, $50 bond; Miss Barbara Patricia Branch, fourth, $25 bond.

The contest chairman, Mr. Black, was assisted by a committee composed of Marcus McCraven, illustrious commander of Zied Temple of the A.E.A. Nobles of the Mystic Shrine; Mrs. Christine Martin, commandress of Zied Court, Daughters of Isis; Dolphon Lawson, Roy Pierson, Robert Boggs, Archie Martin, Burdette Johnson, Sarah Jett and Mrs. H. McCraven.

Judges for the contest were Mrs. J. B. Morris, Sr., Mrs. Alfred Williams, Mrs. Barbara James.

Mrs. H. E. Byrd Appointed Magistrate

Philadelphia.—Mrs. Hannah Elizabeth Byrd, widow of the late Magistrate William E. Byrd, was appointed to the position of magistrate last week, according to an announcement from Gov. James E. Duff in Harrisburg.

This appointment makes Mrs. Byrd reportedly the first Negro woman to hold this position.

'Scottsboro Boy' Is Elated Over Freedom; He Can Enjoy Royalties from New Book

Detroit, (CNS)—Joy—long prayed-for, rewarded 38-year-old Haywood Patterson, the last of the famous "Scottsboro Boys" who escaped an Alabama prison while serving a 75-year term for alleged rape. For Patterson, officially freed by a federal judge early this week on charges of fleeing the prison after serving 17 years, owes his freedom to the liberal attitude of Governor Mennen Williams of Michigan, who refused to honor an Alabama extradition warrant.

Governor Williams also refused to prosecute in Michigan. "Simple justice," he said, "should require that all the convicted men to be punished equally and I can see no justifiable reason for returning Patterson to prison after his fellow defendants have been released."

Patterson, author of a best seller "Scottsboro Boy," written for him by ace newspaperman Earl Conrad, cried in ecstasy at the outcome. Recently arrested after two years of freedom (he escaped in 1948), he was free on $5,000 bail supplied by the Civil Rights Congress.

Working in Detroit as a laborer on a construction job, Patterson has avowed full cooperation as an ideal American citizen to show his gratitude for the complete freedom in a case which was highly publicized in 1931 as a "blot and shame on American justice."

injured while in jail. Dr. Thomas Coriden, Woodbury county coroner, had attributed the death to heart disease.

Accepted Findings

Sioux City Safety Commissioner Nicholas O'Millinuk accepted Dr. Coriden's findings. Jackson is understood to have had a bad heart.

McCormick declared there was evidence on the body of Jackson that he was beaten before his death. He had been arrested in a Sioux City park for intoxication. Mrs. Jackson had been arrested at the same time as her husband.

The body is to be returned to Sioux City for burial.

Mrs. Mattie B. Scott Struck by Motor Car

Mrs. Mattie B. Scott, 1623 Searle street, is recovering at the home of her daughter, Mrs. O. Devan, 1336 E. 19th street, from injuries received on last Thursday afternoon when she was struck by a motor car.

Mrs. Scott was hit as she crossed the intersection at 31st and Ingersoll avenue. Taken to Mercy hospital, she was released later. She suffered injuries of a leg.

Coroner Does Not Believe Foul Play Caused Death of Sioux City Worker in Jail

Dr. Leo D. Luka, deputy Polk county coroner, reported Tuesday that he does not believe foul play caused the death of William Jackson, former Sioux City Negro packinghouse worker.

Dr. Luka said it will be at least a week, however, before he will be ready to make a complete report because considerable laboratory work remains to be done.

Autopsy Performed

Dr. Luka performed an autopsy Tuesday at Still College of Osteopathy on the body of Jackson, a 38-year-old man, who died July 2 in a Sioux City jail.

Lawrence McCormick, Sioux City attorney, who demanded an investigation of the death, represents Mrs. Jackson.

Dr. Luka said that "from all evidence, death does not appear to have been caused by foul play."

Body Embalmed

He explained that it is difficult to arrive at definite conclusions from examination of a body that was embalmed two weeks ago.

Asked if death might have been caused by a heart condition, he said he could give no opinion on that until after the laboratory tests had been completed.

McCormick said the body showed a number of injuries. The attorney added that news of Jackson's death was not made public until a week later. By that time, McCormick said, the body had been shipped to Still college in Des Moines as having been unclaimed.

McCormick said he had information indicating that Jackson had been

Polo Grounds Boy Killer Nervous; Case Delayed

New York City, (CNS)—The tragic case of a 14 year old Negro youth who fired "without reason" into a crowded Polo Grounds ballpark, killing a Giant fan on July 4th, was postponed here again. The boy, nervous but quiet Robert Peebles, who has confessed to the crime, was remanded to Youth House on the East side after a closed hearing in Children's Court.

Simultaneously, his great aunt, Mrs. Marie Bell, 53, was being tried in Felony Court on the charge of harboring guns used in the killing, a violation of the Sullivan Law. She is being held in $2,500 bail. Her nephew had two .22 caliber rifles and a .22 pistol together with assorted ammunition, all found in their apartment at 515 Edgecombe avenue, the Sugar Hill exclusive section of Harlem.

The victim, Bernard Doyle, 54, one time manager of heavyweight champion Jimmy Braddock, was a Giant fan who had brought a neighbor's 15-year-old son to the Dodger-Giant game from New Jersey. He was hit before the game started through the head, and died instantly.

Judge Juvenal Marchisio ordered a postponement until July 26.

Mrs. Gertrude Brown Dies at Hospital

Mrs. Gertrude Brown, 56, of 1326 E. Nineteenth street, died Tuesday at Broadlawn General hospital, after several months of illness.

She was born in Colon and had lived here 35 years. She was a member of Maple Street Baptist church, mother's board, choir, Widows club, and Sisterhood lodge and was past four-state treasurer of the Baptist evangelistic board and a four-state chorister.

Surviving are two brothers, Lloyd and Edward Barber, Des Moines.

Finds Segregation Legal in Capital

Washington, D. C.—A municipal judge ruled Tuesday that Washington restaurants can legally refuse to serve Negro customers.

The opinion was handed down by Judge Frank Myers, who said the anti-segregation laws the District of Columbia adopted 80 years ago had been superseded by another statute passed in 1878.

The court action resulted from a suit brought by three Negroes who were denied service in the chain restaurant last February.

Hold Rites For Mrs. Cora Moore; Burial In Virginia Saturday

Rites were held here Monday afternoon at the Estes Funeral home for Mrs. Cora Moore, 52, of 1212 Center street. The body was shipped to Portsmouth, Va., where special rites will be held on Saturday at the headquarters of her church, the Church of God and Saints of Christ. Burial will be in Bellville, Va.

Mrs. Moore, who died of a heart attack Friday, July 14, en route to Broadlawn General hospital, had operated a nursing home in her home here in recent years.

A native of Danville, Va., she had resided in Des Moines for 14 years. She had operated a nursing home since 1942; and, in 1946 opened a branch of her church here, and was a sister-elder.

A past worthy matron in the Order of the Eastern Star, a member of Electa chapter, Mrs. Moore was active in civic organizations.

Surviving are: a daughter, Mary Moore of Washington, D. C.; a brother, Rev. B. H. Watkins of Providence, R. I.; a sister, Mrs. Mary Gunn of Philadelphia.

Walter White Says News Will be Broadcast in Asia And War Zone by Moscow

Washington—"Failure of the Senate to invoke cloture on the motion to take up the FEPC bill demonstrates anew the urgent need for revision of the Senate rules to provide limitation of debate by majority vote," Walter White, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said following the 55 to 33 vote by which the Senate refused to halt the filibuster against the FEPC motion.

Supporters of FEPC and other civil rights measures will be asked to meet with the NAACP in the fall to formulate a course of action looking forward to the election of senators who will vote for a change in the Senate rules to facilitate the enactment of FEPC, Mr. White announced.

Led to Paralysis

"The so-called Wherry compromise resolution of 1949 has not, as its advocates contended, made it easier to stop a filibuster," the NAACP official asserted. "Rather it has led to legislative paralysis, which threatens the entire nation."

News of this vote, he said, will be broadcast by Moscow in Korea and throughout Asia "to the detriment of American prestige and at the cost of American lives."

Commenting on the failure to secure the necessary votes for cloture on the FEPC bill, A. Phillip Randolph and Roy Wilkins, co-chairmen of the National Council for FEPC in cooperation with the National Emergency Civil Right Mobilization, declared:

"The fight for passage of an FEPC bill will be continued. The measure has more support now than at any time in its history. The war in Korea serves to highlight the necessity for equality of opportunity in employment for minorities in our democracy. The vote July 12 demonstrated the unworkability of the present Senate rule in line with predictions made in March 1949 when it was passed. Millions of Americans are determined to have an FEPC law on the books and they will find a way to win their objective."

Hastie Approved for Post

Washington, D. C.—The Senate's nomination of William H. Hastie, to be a judge of the third circuit court of appeals was approved Monday by the senate judiciary committee. It now goes to the senate.

The circuit court bench is the highest judicial post to which a Negro ever has been nominated in this country. The third circuit includes Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and the Virgin Islands.

Hastie, 45-year-old former governor of the Virgin Islands and a former United States district judge, now is serving under a recess appointment on the third circuit court. He is from Knoxville, Tenn.

Minnesota Boat Operators Face Criminal Charges for Violation of Civil Rights

Minneapolis, Minn.—Earnest Meyer, owner of the excursion boat, Avalon, Inc., and the boat's captain, Charles M. Hall, will face criminal court in Ramsey County November 13 of this year on charges of discrimination in willfully excluding two young St. Paul couples from full and equal enjoyment of the boat's facilities while here recently making pleasure runs down the Mississippi.

Meyer and Hall both pleaded innocent of the charge in District Court before Judge Albin S. Pearson Friday, July 7. Pearson set the date of their trial for November 13.

The four, in cooperation with the St. Paul branch of the NAACP, filed charges before the County Attorney against the owner and captain of the Avalon Thursday, July 6.

Refused Couples

Meyer and Hall had refused to let the two couples ride on a midnight excursion Sunday, July 2, for which they had previously purchased tickets. The two couples were Miss Dorothy Monson, 290 St. Albans street, J. Alphonso Horton, 571 W. Central ave., and Mr. and Mrs. E. Mitchell Rhone, 643 Inglehart ave.

They were told on the gangplank by both Meyer and Hall that "This is white's night" and that there would be a night for Negroes later. They threatened that they would have the four thrown off the boat if they did not get off. After some argument the four left.

NAACP Acts

J. Nathaniel Smith, president, St. Paul branch NAACP, filed the charges in behalf of the couples. A warrant was issued immediately for their arrest.

Meyer was arrested from his room at Hotel Lowry and Hall was taken into custody from the boat. Both remained in custody for some hours, during which time the boat was tied up at the docks and was not allowed to sail at its scheduled time. Meyer posted bail of $1,000 and Hall bail of $200 so that they could be free to sail the boat.

Historical Background of 14th Amendment Shows 'Separate Equal' Void

Nashville—An exhaustive analysis of the historical background of the 14th Amendment shows that the Plessy v. Ferguson decision of 1896, setting up the "separate but equal" racial doctrine, was in direct opposition to the true intent of the Amendment, declared Thurgood Marshall, special counsel for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, in his address delivered here this week before the Seventh Annual Race Relations Institute at Fisk University.
 Mr. Marshall outlined this historical background in discussing the significance of the recent unanimous Supreme Court anti-segregation decisions in the Sweatt, McLaurin, and Henderson cases.

Check Alfalfa Caterpillar With Airplane Virus Spray

The alfalfa caterpillar can be controlled by airplane application of a polyherd virus, spreading an epidemic of wilt disease among the pests.
 This was indicated in experiments carried out at the University of California by Drs. Clarence G. Thompson and Edward A. Steinhaus of the division of biological control.
 The virus disease occurs naturally but usually affects the caterpillars after serious damage to the alfalfa has been done. By artificial spread of the virus the pest can be controlled before it seriously damages the crop. The virus is completely harmless to humans, animals, and plants.
 The two insect pathologists sprayed some 80 acres of alfalfa fields in two airplane application tests. The incidence of the pest is calculated by counting the number of insect larvae caught in two net sweeps. Twenty larvae per sweep is considered a level where the insect may become economically harmful. In both airplane sprayings the number of larvae was reduced to under 20 per sweep, some six to nine days after application, while they rose as high as 400 per sweep in the untreated check plots in one of the tests.
 Timing of application is critical, however, and the college of agriculture men are now working on a project in the hope of assisting alfalfa growers to determine just when and how the virus should be used.

Dental Care for Dogs
 A man and his dog have a lot in common—even when it comes to having teeth pulled during old age. Veterinarians attending the annual convention of the Iowa Veterinary Medical association were advised against pulling too many teeth at once or removing all tartar at one time from the teeth of aged dogs. Many of these old pets suffer from kidney damage and, like some aged people, cannot stand the strain of extensive dental work, Dr. W. F. Irwin of Tulsa, Okla., said. But they get along nicely, he added, if given a week of rest between difficult extractions and extensive tartar removal, to allow time for healing. For extra protection, they often are treated with bacteria-fighting drugs at the same time, to guard against infections that might develop due to their aged, weakened condition.

Hence, Mr. Marshall noted, it became apparent that a new constitutional amendment was necessary if discrimination was to be eliminated.
Great Value
 The extended debates of Congress prior to the adoption of the 14th Amendment are of great value, Mr. Marshall said, "in determining the contemporary views and 'constitutional intent' of the men who drafted the Amendment." He pointed out unequivocal opposition to the "separate but equal" theory as expressed by Senators Sumner of Massachusetts, Peace of Mississippi, Boutwell of Massachusetts, and Frelinghuysen of New Jersey.
 Citings a 26 to 21 vote by which the Senate of the 42nd Congress concluded that "separate but equal" school, if established under the protection of the state or by force of state law, were a violation of the 14th Amendment, Mr. Marshall stated: "This judgment, since it came from the men who best knew why the Amendment was drafted and what they intended it to accomplish, should be highly persuasive. It should certainly cast doubt upon the soundness of the Plessy decision."

PERSONAL TOUCH

By Marie Ross

The third annual Good Park open swimming and diving championships, sponsored by the Olympian Athletic club last Sunday evening were a grand pageant of fine water events with colored and white swimmers and divers competing for honors.

The banners, the flags that decorated the pool and seating area—the hustle and bustle of officials—the chatting, the cheering and applauding of the many spectators, colored and white, who sat on bleachers, in reserved sections, or stood around the deck—the men at the mike announcing events, the boom of the pistol starting the water relays—the flashing of cameras—the rushing of dripping swimmers to trophy tables—the special awards—the clapping for winners—all blended to make one exciting evening—one spectacular interracial event in the community.

Thanks to the Olympian Athletic club—that club of substantial young Negro men in Des Moines—who are proving to the community that even first rate athletic events like this one which was sanctioned by the Iowa Association of the A. A. U., can be put on successfully by Negroes—and get the cooperation, patronage and good will of colored and white participants, officials, backers and spectators—even though staged at the city's small Good Park swimming pool which was constructed several years ago for Des Moines Negro citizens.

Thanks again to the Olympian Athletic club which is proving to Des Moines that Negroes and whites, many of whom learn to swim together in their public schools, can swim outside of their classes—together each year at the Good Park Pool's swimming meet. Maybe, as a result of such fine events like the annual interracial swimming meets, the day will come in Des Moines when Negroes will be welcome in other of the city's swimming pools.

Even St. Louis, Mo., is ahead of "democratic" Iowa in this respect. Just this week a federal judge ordered the city to open its "two outdoor swimming pools to Negroes and whites alike."

It would certainly be progress here to have such an order for the city's swimming pools in Des Moines. Just last week the mother of a ten-year-old girl was perplexed about the swimming pool "arrangement" in Des Moines. The child lives in a neighborhood in which there are no other Negro children. All of her playmates are white children, some of whom are going to the white swimming classes at Birdland pool—to learn how to swim. These white playmates wanted to take their little colored friend with them—but it won't work at Birdland that way. So, the colored girl who has been going to the colored classes at Good pool, offered to take her white pals to Good pool—just for an afternoon of swimming fun—together. White and colored may swim together there. It is a city pool and whites may swim where they like.

KAPPA ALPHA PSI, ALUMNI CHAPTER, HAS BREAKFAST

Morris, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Ritchey, Dr. and Mrs. E. T. Scales, Messrs. Audlee Connors and James P. Thompson.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Martha Doyal of 847 9th, Thursday, at 8:30 p.m. Mrs. Willis is reporter.

word "Reno" and pleaded—"for heaven's sake, don't stop writing about it—I'm getting something new each time." then I'm certain, I would not have breathed it to a soul this week.

Then, a phone call came in from Mrs. Wm. C. Brown, 1162 Thirteenth street, who missed her paper on Friday and complained that "I just must have my paper. I'm keeping up with your Reno columns; and, please don't stop." Mrs. Brown revealed, too, that she has a birthday on July 27.

And, another call came in from Miss Mary Williamson, personnel director at Younker Brothers, Des Moines' largest department store, which hires many Negro employees. Miss Williamson had read a copy of the radio script, which had praised some of the progress that the store has made in opening up new jobs to Negroes, and she was pleased and proud of the honor that the script won at Reno, that she sent the copy to Younker's president, Morey Sostin, to read. And he wrote in a letter this week: "I think this is outstanding and would like to congratulate you on the manner in which it is done."

In a message from the national contest chairman of the National Federation of Press Women, Miss Lulu M. Fairbanks of Seattle, Wash., who presented the writing awards to the columnist in Reno last month, she informed that the radio script will be aired in Seattle by "the Civic Unity Committee which the mayor of the city sponsors."

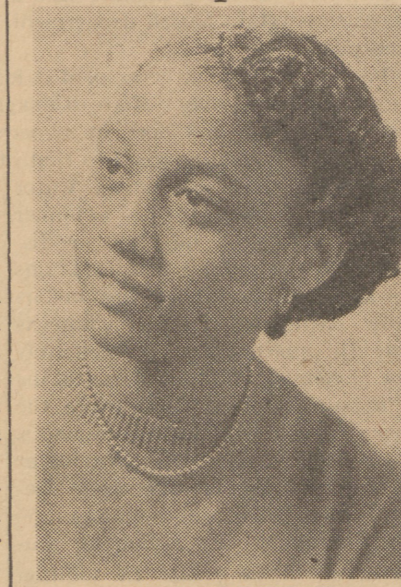

And, to wind up the notes that keep coming in on the radio script, one of the unusual ones was from a white friend, a Miss Mabel L. Harris who asked "if it is possible to purchase two or three additional copies I want to circulate them among my friends for this is far too fine a piece of work to be 'hidden under a bushel.'" That takes the cake!

Do all of these letters and notes flatter the columnist. If you don't recognize her photo, you will know the reason.

In the meantime, for more on Reno, until the next column, see the August edition of Ebony magazine. It has an interesting photo-feature story on Reno—from another point of view—part of the Reno that the columnist did not have time to visit.

The evening that I had planned to look up the AME Zion church and pastor, well—the Reno press women were motoring the convention visitors, 45 miles out of the "biggest-little-city" to Nevada's famed Pyramid desert-lake resort and ranch where we visited an Indian Trading post, had refreshments in a quaint little Indian log cabin, inspected fine horses roaming the ranch, and viewed miles of blue water of the ancient volcano lake which is hidden away in the mountains and desert of the Piute Indian territory. A great pyramid rises 400 feet above the surface of the lake. According to Indian legend, it is called the "Stone Mother," whose tears for her lost sons formed the pyramid. More later.

Urban League Director Weds Boston Heiress; Family Gives Approval

Bridgehampton, Long Island, (Calvin News Service)—Frank C. Montero, 40-year-old handsome, youthful-looking director of the Urban League Fund and Anne Mather, 30-year-old pretty blonde heiress of Boston's Beacon Hill society, were married here on a Long Island estate with Judge Hubert T. Delany as best man and Miss Mather's parents' full approval.

The marriage, though shocking Boston, Long Island and other society circles, was no surprise to close friends of the couple who say they have been romancing for "some time" ever since meeting while working at the League.

The former Miss Mather is a Phi Beta Kappa, a graduate of Smith College '42 and has a long record of faithful service to the Urban League in an unpaid capacity since '43. Later she became director of an interracial committee proposed to see that New York's Anti-Discrimination Law was well enforced. Living in Greenwich Village since last year, she was, until her marriage a graduate student of economics at Columbia university. This is her first marriage.

Mr. Montero, who possesses an athletic, fun-loving personality, wooed her the starts at the Stadium at the Gershwin Memorial, should sing the lead in "Lost In The Stars" at the Weill Memorial. The two musicals have indeed "made" Todd Duncan the great artist that he is today.

Joining him in the tribute was Inez Matthews, gowned in white, befitting the occasion, and singing "Trouble Man" and "Stay Well." She did a commendable job. The 10 year old Herbert Coleman performed his "Big Black Mole," a novelty which always announces itself as a hit. Again, the youngster stole the show by drawing the biggest hand.

Well, who died just three months ago, left such a large collection of tunes that all were unable to be heard. But a medley of his most refreshing pop songs including "September Song" and "Speak Low" ended the concert.

New York City, (CNS)—If little German Kurt Weill could only have listened to the marvelous tribute paid him this week under the stars, he would have been proud and happy to see his music done such justice by the Negro singers he wrote it for. And his joy would not have been with 10,000 people to back it up—as such applause and enthusiasm from the Stadium patrons has not been seen at a Memorial, except maybe for George Gershwin, a beloved American.

It was ironic that Todd Duncan, who did such a magnificent job on Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess" years ago and has sung it many times und-

DAVID LAWRENCE UP TO OLD TRICKS

A lot of people find it pretty difficult in their reasoning to be consistent on the race question. The trouble lies in the fact that they misquote the facts and/or draw erroneous conclusions. And few people are more guilty in this habit than David Lawrence who articles appear in hundreds of newspapers daily.

Sometime ago, he told his readers of the great progress that was being made in race relations in the south, mentioning specifically more Negroes voting, higher pay for Negro teachers, better school facilities, more pay for employment, more Negroes serving on grand and petit juries. All this he credited to the changing attitude of the people of the south.

Saturday in the Evening Tribune (D.M.) he called attention to the defeat of such men as Senator Graham of North Carolina and Senator Pepper of Florida (neither favors Fair Employment Practice legislation) as a blow to the advocates of civil rights for the Negro, charging the "meddlers" from the north were responsible. In fact, he said the uncompromising attitude of northern agitators made it difficult for southern liberals to gain any strategic positions of influence because the rabble rousers and race haters made life miserable for them.

Mr. Lawrence has been in the business many years, lives in Washington and knows pretty well what goes on. He knows as much as anybody else that voting by Negroes, better and equal teacher salaries, equality of education within state borders, increased service of Negroes on juries came only after the U. S. Supreme court said the states must provide them. And Mr. Lawrence also knows all these cases were fought bitterly by the state administrators, many having been before the court two and three times.

Of course there has been a lot of change in sentiment in the south. But to have accomplished all these things by education only which by court action the so-called northern extremists have, would have required two or three centuries. How far could the labor movement have come without laws with teeth to enforce them? How could murder be discouraged without adequate punishment for offenders? The answer is obvious.

Neither men or nations don't always do what is right even though they know better. A deterrent is necessary. Our trouble in Korea bears this question out. David Lawrence is an able correspondent but he has lived and reveled in southern dominated Washington so long that he speaks and thinks the attitude of illiberal southerners. That type of thinking is inimical to real democracy and gives Russia and the darker nations of the world splendid propaganda to brand us as hypocrites.

NOT BAD BECAUSE COMMUNISTS APPROVE

The Grand lodge of Negro Masons of the State of Iowa, heretofore known as United Grand Lodge (Prince Hall Affiliation) met in its 63rd Annual communication last week at Waterloo, Iowa, and adopted a completely revised new constitution and code, which among other things changes the name of the organization to "Prince Hall Grand Lodge" in honor of the founder of Negro Masonry, so as to be in harmony with same thirty or forty other Negro Grand Lodges.

CAMPANELLA GETS FIRST REST FROM BEHIND THE PLATE

New York (CNS)—In the doubleheader with the Giants last Tuesday, Roy Campanella got his first rest since May 30 from behind the plate. Roy worked the first game with Don Newcombe but turned over his catcher's duties to Bruce Edwards in the second. Ordinarily Roy would have caught both games without batting an eyelash.

BILLY TO PLAY EUROPEAN GOLF NOW!

By DOLORES CALVIN New York (CNS)—Billy Eckstine, we find, is one guy who knows how to spend his dough like a rich man. Not only has he bought a huge Hollywood home, complete with swimming pool, much-talked-about real alligator shoes at $85, a pair, joined the big league by carrying his golf teacher around with him as an important part of his entourage but—Billy again makes unusual news. He'll make that continental tour all stars dream of and—you guess it. Billy will play golf at professional tournaments in France, Scotland, England and everywhere else he tramples.

HEALTH FOR ALL

SWIM DON'TS

Don't flop in a flip manner into a sloppy swimming place this summer, suggests the state health department. And don't go swimming in unsupervised places.

Paul J. Houser, director of division of public health engineering of the Iowa State Department of Health says that improved methods of filtration, plus chlorination now used in modern pools, make it possible to maintain the pool water quality equal to that of drinking water.

He points out that clean water not only protects the swimmer against getting an infection or disease while swimming, but also aids the lifeguard in supervising underwater swimming. If the water is clear lifeguards can immediately spot anyone needing aid beneath the water surface in time to make the rescue without serious consequences.

Bacterial tests on the pool water are recommended by the State Department of Health at regular intervals throughout the swimming season in all public pools. In addition to properly filtered and chlorinated pool water, the health department recommends frequent disinfecting of bathroom floors and benches.

Swimming is a healthful sport, and unfortunately is limited in Iowa because many communities do not have municipal pools. Children may be found swimming in rivers and gravel pits—spots where most drownings occur. These places are not properly supervised, nor are they free from contamination. Don't let your children take the risk of swimming in unsupervised places.

SPORTS

By ALLEN ASHEY

The Olympian club ganged up on the rest of the field and walked off with team honors in their annual Good Park swimming meet last Sunday night.

A crowd estimated at 3,000 saw the club boys gather 60 points to dethrone the Clinton defending champs who tied with Cedar Rapids for second with 26 points. Right behind the two came Iowa City with 19 and the Chicago CYO with 15. The other teams strung out behind with Omaha getting 9 points, Kansas City and Davenport 7 each and the Wabash Y of Chicago 6.

Records didn't mean a thing as the greatest collection of swimmers ever to grace the pool splashed on to new records in the preliminary heats and then shattered these marks in the finals. Toby Robinson, who was also awarded the Olympian's achievement medal, set a mark in the junior 50-meter free style that stood up in the last race. Toby was nosed out in this final by Ben Skyles, a fellow Olympian club member, but his prelim mark stands as a record.

Traveled Fast

Donna Lou Carr traveled in fast company and managed to get fourth in the women's 50-meter free style while Paul Johnson got fifth in the men's diving against some stern competition.

There were so many All-American and All-State champions that a mere city titleholder didn't have much chance, but we bet that if Harold Lewis would apply himself and train, the lanky youngster would hold his own in any company.

Rodger Watt, Iowa State star, and All-American swimmer, along with Paul Slack, national high school champ, powered the Olympians to their one-sided team win.

Special Awards

The club also gave several special awards, one to Colen Scales, Jr., for being the outstanding scholar athlete of the high school year. This young Scales a scholarship. Frank "Toby" Robinson won the achievement medal for all-around supremacy in high school. A list of achievements of young Frank should convince anyone that he was the winner, hands down.

The award we were glad to see given, went to Paul Devan for being the outstanding Negro in college athletics of the year. We were glad to see Paul's brilliant career at Iowa State Teacher's college, recognized and rewarded. Each year we say it was the best meet ever, and each year it is.

Hint Robbie Hurt On Purpose in Game

Brooklyn, N.Y. (CNS)—"The blood is running bad between the Giants and the Dodgers", noted veteran sportscaster Red Barber for ever since the Dodgers' Carl Furillo got beamed by pitcher Sheldon Jones several weeks ago, Dodgers are claiming that their stars are being hurt intentionally.

Thus, in the case of Jackie Robinson's knee injury, which came on last Tuesday as Jackie crossed the plate and entangled with the Giants' Westrum, Dodgers are hinting that this was more than an accident. Especially when you consider how serious the injury was and the fact that it may sideline the Dodgers' star hitter indefinitely, these facts have Dodger sports announcers who view the games for television and radio wondering just how innocent the Giants are.

The stopping of Furillo's hot batting has certainly cost the Dodgers plenty for they immediately proceeded to lose six games straight. Robinson's injury comes at a time when he leads the league in nearly all departments and is the most dependable Dodger to get on base. Throwing key men out of gear certainly will affect the Dodgers' pennant chances.
