Iowan Injured in Korea Now in Texas Army Hospital

Mrs. Alma Berry, 1513 Buchanan, Sunday received a telephone message from her son, Cpl. Edward Tate, who was wounded in the Korean war on Sept. 11. The 18-year-old Iowan has been transferred back to the States and is now convalescing at the Army hospital in El Paso, Texas, Ward 22.

He suffered an injury of a foot.

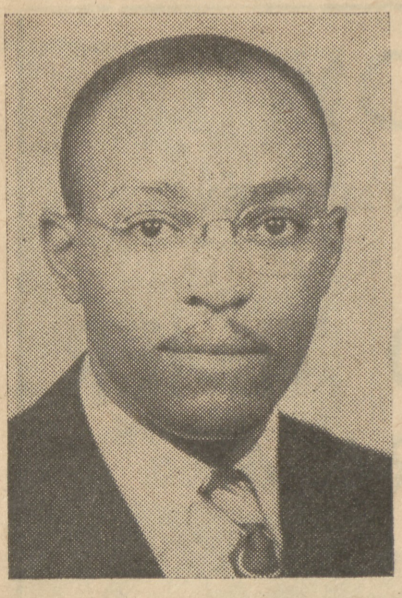

Racial Covenant Case Is Dismissed

Washington, D. C.—Federal Judge Alexander Holtzoff Friday dismissed a $42,000 damage suit brought by neighbors against a white family which sold its home to Negroes.

The ruling dealt a new blow to racial restrictions on real estate. Holtzoff said that a 1948 supreme court ruling that racial covenants are legal on a voluntary basis but cannot be enforced in court, was "broad enough to cover actions for damages."

In Thursday's action six neighboring families asked $5,000 damages each for alleged loss in value to their own property, and $2,000 each under a provision in the covenant calling for penalties for sale to Negroes. The seller said he tried unsuccessfully to find a white buyer for him home.

Takes Over Law Practice in Waterloo

WM. W. PARKER

Waterloo, Ia.—William W. Parker, Des Moines attorney, has taken over the law practice of the late Milton Fields with offices at 314 Lafayette building.

Mr. Parker received his B.A. degree at Arkansas State university, attended Drake law school for a year and received his bachelor of laws degree at Rutgers, Newark, N. J. He served in the navy for three years and practiced law for a year in Des Moines.

He was a member of the smoke abatement committee in Des Moines, as well as a member of the board of directors of the Crocker Street YMCA, chairman of the board of directors of the Union Baptist church in Des Moines and president of the young men's organization, the Key-stone club. He is a member of the Masonic and Elks lodges.

Sewing Classes At Willkie House On Wednesdays

Adult Sewing classes will be held at Willkie House, Wednesday from 1 to 3 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m., instructed by Mrs. Louise Wellington.

The stately brick 14-room president's home at Iowa State Teachers college in Cedar Falls, was built in 1908 for only $18,000.

More Money To Be Needed To Complete New Willkie House Under Construction

Looking forward to next spring when the new Willkie House, Inc., now under construction at Seventeenth, between Olive and Crocker streets, is scheduled to be completed, program plans for the new community center, a plea for volunteers and the need of financial contributions were made public last Sunday afternoon.

In speaking on "Program Possibilities" of the new building, which will require a larger paid and volunteer staff, Vernon Odom, Willkie House boys' work secretary, outlined activities that dealt with group and mass recreation for youth as young as six years through the adult classification.

For adults over 60 years of age, Mr. Odom encouraged individual clubs to act as sponsors. He urged, also, clubs planning to use the facilities of the new building for their meetings, to register early with the Willkie House, so that a schedule might be made and conflicts avoided.

A. A. Alexander, chairman of the new Willkie House building committee, who was chairman of the community center's board in 1945 when the Gardner Cowles Foundation made the gift of the $125,000 for the new building to the then Negro Community center, gave an interpretation of the blueprints of the new building.

Building Progress

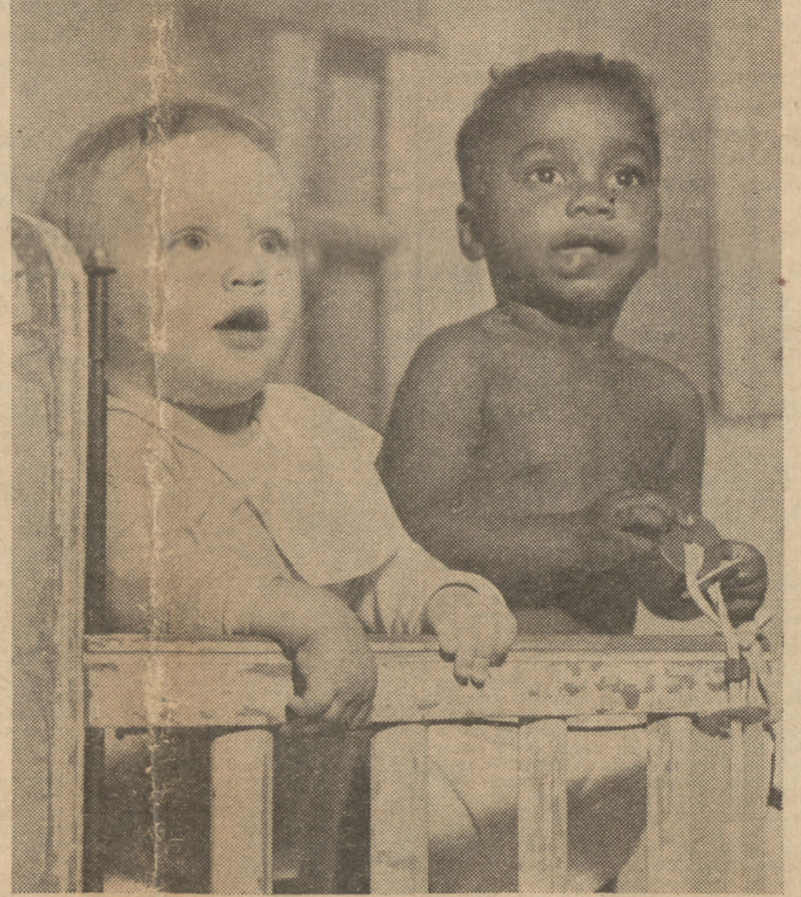

Under construction by the Ringland and Johnson contractors, since July, the basement has been erected, structural steel beams arrived this week and brick work on the exterior will be begun this week, he pointed out.

He designated the executive offices, clubrooms, library, regulation-size gym with concrete floor covered with tile that had a basketball court inlaid, baby clinic and waiting rooms in the basement, locker rooms and a large playroom.

"Many things we didn't do that we wanted to do," Mr. Alexander stated in telling of the "history of prices" since the original plans were made in 1946.

Help Your Community Chest Aid These Tots

These two little lads of the Convalescent Home, a Community Chest agency, will benefit from the 1950 drive which started on Oct. 2. Over 1,800 will be seeking to raise $692,906. It will continue through Oct. 17.

The women's division, headed by Mrs. Richard B. Koss, is seeking $55,432 of the over-all 1950 goal. This year's goal is $2,489 higher than the 1949.

"It is in the home that the Chest agencies' services are most often felt," Mrs. Koss said. The 280 Chest agencies provide childcare, babysitting, recreational and character-building activities and family counseling services to approximately four of every ten Des Moines citizens annually, she said.

Team Workers

Among the various teams working in the women's division are the following and their members:

Team WE6, Mrs. J. B. Morris, Jr., captain; Mrs. Harold Morrow and Mrs. A. F. Detroit Doctor Found Guilty

Detroit, Mich.—Dr. Hanslee E. Tann was found guilty last Tuesday of raping a 25-year-old Sarnia, Ontario woman in 1948 by a jury of 11 women and one man after deliberation for about four hours.

Setting sentence for Oct. 24, Recorder's Judge Paul E. Krause remanded the physician to jail and referred his case to the probation department and psychopathic clinic. Defense attorney, Edward N. Barnard stated that he would appeal the case.

Convicted and sentenced to serve 12½ to 15 years on the charge, Dr. Tann won a State Supreme Court reversal last December and a new trial was ordered.

Nigerian to Give Art Show at Howard

Ben Enwonwu, art advisor to the Nigerian government, will open a one-man art show at Howard university Oct. 18. A Nigerian by birth, Enwonwu is considered one of the most outstanding sculptors of the day. He holds a fine arts diploma from London university and is now a fellow of the Royal Anthropological institute. His critics agree he has acquired a mastery of western technique in both his painting and sculpture work.

Petition Points Out That Place 'Was Permeated by Racial Hatred, Violence'

Washington—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People prepared to take another of its legal fights for civil rights to the highest court in the land, as a petition was filed this week asking the United States Supreme Court to review the affirmation by the Florida Supreme Court of last September's conviction of two Groveland, Florida, youths, on a rape charge.

In its petition for a writ of certiorari, the NAACP cited three grounds of appeal in the now-famous Groveland case. The first point made by the NAACP is that "the county commissioners purposefully selected names of Negro and white persons from the registration rolls of the county" and placed them on juries in proportion to the number of Negroes on registration rolls of the county."

Population

Negroes constitute about one-fourth of the total population of the county, but are on registration rolls in a ratio of only about one-sixteenth. The NAACP petition asserts that racial proportional representation on juries is unconstitutional.

Secondly, the petition asserts that NAACP attorneys did not have sufficient time—in view of the difficulties involved in locating witnesses and the necessity of arguing many preliminary motions—in which to prepare their case, and that the judge should have granted their request to delay the trial.

AGRICULTURE FRATERNITY DROPS RACIAL BARS

The national convention of Alpha Gamma Rho, a collegiate agricultural fraternity, voted here Saturday to open its membership to any racial group.

With delegates from 34 states present at Hotel Savery, the convention voted to eliminate from its constitution a provision which restricted membership to selected racial groups.

Commenting on the action, Earl Butz of Purdue university, Lafayette, Ind., retiring president of the fraternity, said.

"The fraternity has taken this step in the interest of preserving democracy in the college fraternity system and to remove a feature of college fraternity life several social groups have objected to."

'Democracy Must Be Lived By Individuals,' Bunche Tells Lutheran Meeting

America's moral leadership of the world is jeopardized by undemocratic activities at home, Dr. Ralph Bunche told a capacity congregation last Sunday night at St. John's Lutheran church.

Interviewed by long distance telephone at his home in New York, N. Y., the 1950 Nobel prize winner declared: "Our way of life is the only one worthy of man."

Dr. Bunche, who took over as mediator in Palestine after the assassination of Count Folke Bernadotte, emphasized the respect for the dignity of the individual, regardless of his race, color or creed, which true democracy implies.

Direct Challenge

"Our future depends upon making democracy work," he declared. "It is a direct challenge to every American."

The individual must determine whether his attitudes toward his fellow men are democratic, said Dr. Bunche, for "democracy must be lived by individuals" to be effective.

The telephone interview climaxed a highly original youth program sponsored by the Luther League of America at the biennial convention of the United Lutheran church.

Richard Sutcliffe, Philadelphia, Penn., assistant editor of The Lutheran, served as announcer for the program, presented in the form of a "broadcast."

Assisting him was a panel of Iowa Luther league members.

Labor Relations

Preceding the interview with Dr. Bunche on his suggestions about how Christian young people might help solve the racial tensions in America,

Wants Security

The worker in America wants to feel he is more than a cog in a machine, declared Eby. He wants a chance to work up, and a feeling of security—a living wage.

"If you want to affect the labor movement in this country, get into it," he urged the young people. "Make your contribution."

Val Peterson, governor of Nebraska, was interviewed at his home in Lincoln, on the part a Christian can play in politics.

"Democracy—law and order—in America is based on the eternal principles of the Great Master," said Governor Peterson.

Supporters of ruman's Health Program Accused By AMA of 'cowardice'

Chicago, Ill.—Administration supporters of President Truman's Compulsory Health Insurance Program who have recently attacked the American Medical Association's decision to conduct a nationwide advertising campaign against the program, Oct. 4 were accused by the AMA of "political cowardice" and of "headlong retreat from public discussion of this public issue."

The charge was made by Clem Whitaker, director of the AMA's National Education campaign, in a speech delivered last week before the National Association of Insurance Agents, meeting at the Stevens Hotel.

Traffic Lights in 1914 Abolished as Unnecessary

Traffic signs and signals have become such a necessity in modern life that the National Safety Council has conducted a "Signs of Life" campaign to promote better public understanding of them.

But only 36 years ago an electric traffic signal was a curiosity, not a necessity. The first electric traffic lights were placed in operation in August, 1914, in Cleveland, O. The red and green lights were operated by a policeman in a booth on the corner. After a short time, however, the signals were removed because they were unnecessary.

The next step in traffic signals consisted of towers in the middle of Fifth avenue, New York City, and in Detroit. The lights were not used to guide vehicles directly, but to relay instructions to other towers. The colored light had different meanings, too. In New York, red stopped all traffic, green meant stop for north-bound traffic, and amber meant go for north-south traffic.

The first electrically interlocked signal system was installed in Houston, Tex., in 1922. Nine intersections were controlled from a central point.

The red and green lights finally used in controlling street traffic were adopted from the signals already in use by the railroads.

Attacks on the AMA program have been made during the past few days by Federal Security Administrator Oscar Ewing, Congressman Biemiller and Dingell and by Mrs. India Edwards, Vice Chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

Whitaker also charged Federal Security Administrator Oscar Ewing and other Administration supporters of socialized medicine's program with "deliberate and gross misrepresentation of the amount to be spent in the AMA advertising program."

"The AMA advertising program," said Whitaker, "will cost slightly in excess of $1,000,000. Tie-in advertising, sponsored by other groups which believe with doctors that the Voluntary Way is The American Way, may equal or double the amount."

meicine raised the issue. But in the final analysis, the people will decide what is to be done on the issue—and the present statements emanating from Washington are a vicious attack on legitimate advertising as a medium for public discussion of public issues.

"The AMA advertising, which will present the merits of Voluntary Health Insurance as opposed to Government-run Compulsory Health Insurance, will ask the question: 'Who Runs America?—The Congress?—The President?—Or You and the Man Next Door?' It is clear that the Administration supporters of this socialistic program don't want the people to consider that question—and for one reason only—because they fear the people's answer."

NOTICE OF AMENDMENT TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF HAWKEYE-SECURITY INSURANCE COMPANY

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that at separate special meetings of the holders of the preferred stocks and of the holders of common stock of the HAWKEYE-SECURITY INSURANCE COMPANY held in Des Moines, Iowa, on the 23rd day of August, 1950, the Amended and Substituted Articles of Incorporation of the company were amended by striking all of Article 7 thereof relating to Capital Stock and by substituting a new Article 7 providing in substance as follows:

The authorized capital stock of the company is $1,400,000.00 divided into 3 classes, to-wit: 1,500 shares of "$100 Preferred Stock" of the par value of $100.00 per share; 10,000 shares of "$50 Preferred Stock" of the par value of $50.00 per share; and 75,000 shares of Common Stock of the par value of $10.00 per share.

(a) The preferred stocks constitute separate classes but except as hereinafter provided in respect to disparity of dividends and votes per share or otherwise, shares of the two classes of preferred stocks are of equal rank, without seniority or preference as respects dividends and preferences in event of liquidation or dissolution. Holders of preferred stocks of either class have no pre-emptive right to subscribe for such preferred stocks.

mount spent by the American Medical Association. We think this is a great tribute to the principles espoused by the doctors, but Mr. Ewing's figure of $20,000,000 which he announces will be spent, is as unreliable as most of the statistics which have emanated from his office on this issue."

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our many friends for their kindness shown during the illness and at the time of the death of our wife, sister and mother, Mrs. Barbara A. Fowler; especially the undertaker, L. Fowler and Son and Rev. Geo. Parish the minister, who conducted the funeral services.

clared, set apart or paid in respect of any stock junior to it. In case of dissolution or liquidation of the corporation, the "500 Preferred Stock" shall have a first lien pro rata along with the owners of "$50 Preferred Stock" on the assets of the corporation after payment of all indebtedness of the corporation and shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the par value thereof ($100.00) plus an amount equal to all accumulated unpaid dividends thereon, but in no event shall the total amount of the "500 Preferred Stock" be more than the amount of existing capital and surplus or other available funds of the corporation by action of the Board of Directors upon giving thirty (30) days written notice to the owners of said stock of the amount of such dividends plus all accrued and accumulated dividends and interest on such dividends.

(b) The foregoing provisions relating to the retirement of stock are in addition to and not in derogation of other provisions of the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation and shall not be construed to acquire and/or retirement of preferred stocks of either class.

(c) Holders of preferred stocks of either class are not entitled to notice of meeting of the stockholders, all voting power being vested exclusively in the stockholders of common stock, provided, however, that if and when eight or more quarterly dividends on the preferred stock have not been paid and outstanding are in default the holders of such preferred stocks become vested with the right to vote as to the election and participation in the management of the affairs of the corporation on the basis of each share of such stock.

(d) Holders of "500 Preferred Stock" having 10 votes and of each share of the "500 Preferred Stock" having 5 votes at any annual or special meeting of the stockholders and shall be entitled to vote all rights and privileges of stockholders in and to the corporation, except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation.

(e) The authorized capital stock of the company may be increased by a vote of two-thirds in interest of all the stockholders entitled to vote approving amendments to the Articles.

(f) All stock shall be transferable by assignment in accordance with statutes and laws of the State of Iowa. Stock may be issued by the corporation in fractional shares and the owners thereof shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges as the owners of whole shares of stock. At all meetings of the stockholders a majority of the shares of stock entitled to vote, represented in person or by written proxy, shall constitute a quorum. Except as otherwise stated in the Articles, the term "stockholders" shall mean "common stockholders."

(g) No stock shall be issued until the corporation shall have received payment in full therefor in cash or property, provided, that when stock is to be issued for anything other than money, such issuance of stock must be approved by the Executive Council of the State of Iowa as provided in Section 492.6 and 492.8 of the 1950 Code of Iowa.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provision in the Articles, the corporation will not, unless in each case it is authorized by an affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of the total number of shares of preferred stock then issued and outstanding given by vote at a preferred stockholders' meeting called for that purpose:

1. Increase the present authorized number of shares of preferred stock of either class.

2. Authorize, create or issue any shares of stock of the corporation ranking prior to or in a parity with the preferred stocks in respect of dividends or assets.

3. Amend, alter or repeal any of the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation in any manner as to deprive or restrict the rights of the holders of the preferred stocks.

4. Merge or consolidate with any corporation or corporations unless such merger shall be approved by the Insurance Commissioner of Iowa and as a result of such merger or consolidation the preferred stock of the corporation resulting from such merger or consolidation, but the foregoing shall not prevent the corporation by vote of common stockholders from increasing or authorizing additional capital stock by way of common stock or of additional preferred stock junior to the preferred stocks of the classes of preferred stock authorized by this amendment.

Meetings of preferred stockholders shall be held at the principal place of business of the corporation by call of the president upon authority of the Board or the common stockholders who shall give written notice fixing the time, place and particular purpose thereof at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting.

The foregoing Amendment was approved by the Attorney General of the State of Iowa on September 12, 1950 and by the Commissioner of Insurance of the State of Iowa on September 15, 1950 in accordance with and pursuant to statutes of the Code 1950 of the State of Iowa.

Strength of Materials

New basic information dealing with the irregularities of atomic arrangements in solids—believed to be the key to the study of the strength of materials—may soon be greatly increased as a result of recent Rutgers university research. Austrian born Dr. Alfred J. Reis, research specialist in the state university's bureau of engineering research, and Sigmund Weissman, his associate, have used X-rays to produce more accurate and complete pictures of these irregularities than ever made before. The work is being sponsored by the office of naval research.

Popularized Gift Watch

Napoleon's Josephine popularized the watch as a gift for sweethearts. In 1800 she received from Napoleon a watch studded with 1,741 pearls and 158 turquoises on the case. He even went to the point of having watchmaker Peter Meylan add a quarter-hour to the accompaniment of moving figures—a boy playing a mandolin and another blowing upon reeds as a miniature windmill turns.

Small Homes Council Offers Some Valuable Suggestions

The lowest-cost house can be as livable and as successfully decorated as a large home, declares the small homes council at the University of Illinois in issuing a revised edition of its circular on "Interior Design."

It points out that "interior design must serve the living habits of you and your family; satisfy your ideas of comfort, beauty, economy, and ease of maintenance; and satisfy the broader standards of good design."

Text of the circular is by Prof. James R. Shipley of the art department; designs and illustrations are by William S. Pusey, Small Homes Council artist.

Among suggestions presented are: Don't clutter your rooms with too much furniture.

Keep conversational groups away from lines of traffic. Pull chairs out of far corners; group chairs together.

Place tables and lamps near chairs and sofas. Where possible, make a table and lamp serve two or more seats.

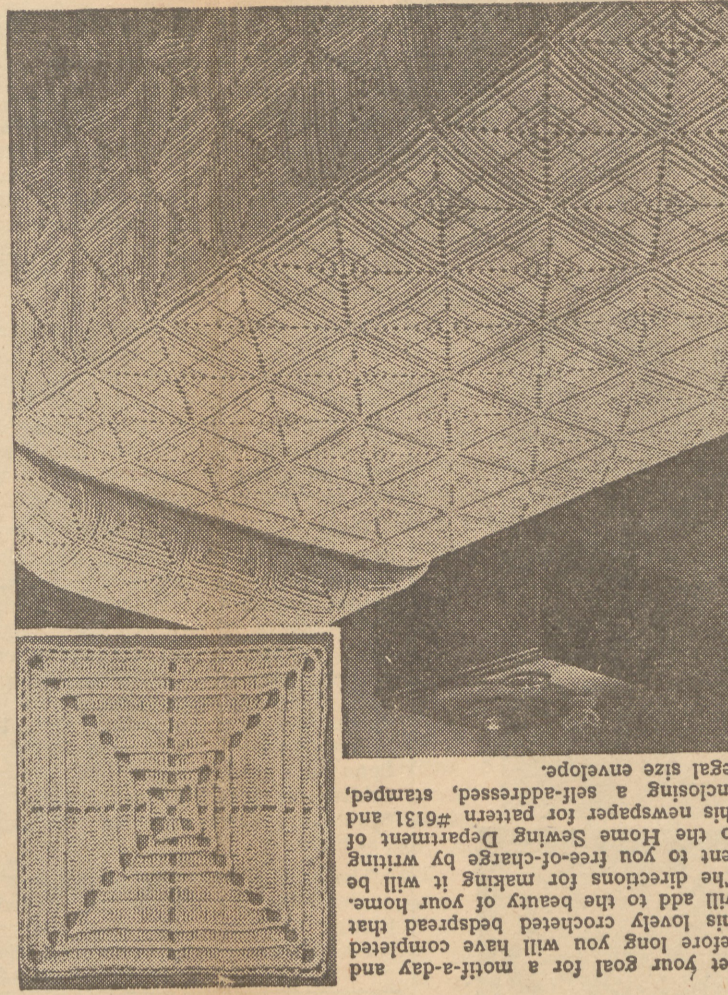

Hang pictures at eye level. Furnishings should be similar in scale to achieve harmony. A small, spindly end-table looks out of place beside a large davenport.

Diagonal pieces in corners waste space. Strive for ease of maintenance. Eliminate bric-a-brac, excessive carving, and anything else that makes cleaning difficult.

BETHEL AME CHURCH NEWS

Bethel African Methodist Episcopal church will hold the first quarterly meeting of this conference year Sunday, October 15. At the 11 o'clock worship, the Rev. W. H. Ogleton, who was returned as presiding elder to the Des Moines district, will bring the message. The Bethel senior choir will sing. At 3 o'clock the Rev. J. E. Tunstall, pastor of Burns Methodist church, will be the speaker. He will be assisted by the Burns choir.

Tuesday evening, October 17, the Elizabeth Toliver Missionary society of Bethel will have their social meeting of the month. The theme, "Dedicating ourselves to God for service to others," will be discussed. The main speaker of the evening is Rev. Mrs. Willa Mae Jones of First CME church. A potluck dinner will be served and the public is invited.

Democrats Hear Vice President Barclay in Sioux City

GO FORWARD WITH THE DEMOCRATS

LESTER GILLETTE, Democratic candidate for governor was among other speakers.

In the past 18 years the general trend of legislation in the several states has been toward giving minority groups a fair deal. This segment of our electorate here in Iowa is extremely fortunate in having Democratic candidates for office who are sympathetic to our problems. They have solemnly pledged to push with vigor such legislation as Fair Employment practice, an enabling act to permit us here to benefit from the Federal Housing Act, and to repeal the sales tax. Lester S. Gillette, Democratic candidate for governor, is with this program 100 percent. He says:

"We Democrats have inaugurated much of the progressive legislation passed in this state during the past twenty years. We revised the taxing system—the only overhauling it has undergone in the 104 year of Iowa's statehood. We adopted social security, and provided old age pensions. Iowa must not lag behind."

MASON CITY, IOWA

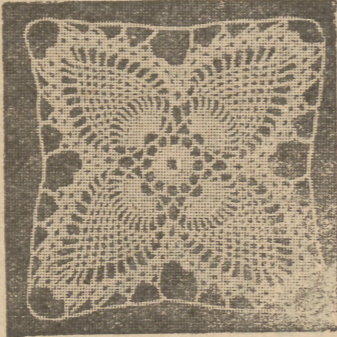

Mason City, Ia.—St. John's Baptist Sunday School visitors were Rev. and Mrs. Jordan Ray. After Sunday school 40 members and friends of St. John's went to Des Moines for the second anniversary of the Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Gaithers of the Union Baptist church. Mr. and Mrs. Westly Bayles joined the crowd at Hampton. Rev. G. M. Williams brought the message. St. John's choir sang. Missionary meeting Friday, 8 p.m. at the church. Mr. and Mrs. Willie Turner are the proud parents of a baby daughter. Mrs. Ann Britton is ill at her home. Mr. Lloyd Bennet is in Iowa City. Mrs. Nellie Bell is at Iowa City. Mr. and Mrs. H. Brown, Mrs. R. Bailey and niece, Arzaila, motored to Des Moines to be with St. John's. Mrs. G. B. Ashford stayed over to visit her sister and daughter, Mrs. J. B. Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. Conrad James and family. The Mary Gray Scott Circle of the Kings Daughter met Tuesday evening last week at the home of Mrs. V. Warren and the following officers were elected: president, Mrs. R. Macer; vice, Mrs. S. Parker, secretary, Mrs. Mary Ewing and treasurer, Mrs. Lena Johnson. The next meeting will be Oct. 24 at the Bayles' home in Hampton, Iowa. Mrs. Helen Be-shers of Des Moines was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Spencer Thursday and Friday after which they motored to Des Moines and returned home Saturday. The W.S.C.S. will meet at the home of Mrs. Paul Scott. Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Cottonman were dinner guests Sunday of Rev. and Mrs. P. L. Scott and son, Rev. Banks of Florida. Rev. C. R. A. Banks of Tampa, Fla., district superintendent of the Julf district of the South Florida Methodist church, is spending 2 weeks vacation with his mother and step-father, Rev. and Mrs. P. L. Scott. The Thomas Jeffersons of Council Bluffs defeated Mason City Mohawks 21-6 Saturday evening. Sterling Macer played but Richard Macer didn't because of an injured ankle.

Nation's Fire Bill

Fires burn nearly $2,000,000 a day in homes, office buildings, valuable timber land, foodstuffs and other resources that are virtually irreplaceable, according to the National Board of Fire Underwriters. Although fire losses dipped slightly last year for the first time since 1942, the cost of damaged American property came to $667,536,000, the highest for any country in the world. The National Board cautions that the slight decline from the previous year's phenomenal fire bill of $711,114,000 should not be a sign for any relaxation in the fire-safety precautions.

Pressing Garments

For the best results in home pressing, pad the ironing board so it provides a resilient surface for pressing. Use a sleeve board to press sleeves and dressmaking details. Press garments on the reverse side. Check the temperature of the iron. If moisture is needed, place a dry cloth on the fabric surface, then a cheesecloth wrung out in water, and then a muslin cloth atop the cheesecloth. To avoid seam or pleat impression, place a piece of tissue paper between the garment and the seam allowance.

Visiting around Iowa

by Joe Marsh

Is Iowa Changing?

"What's happened to our Iowa autumns?" Edna asked while we were driving last Sunday. "Seems like the trees don't seem to turn as pretty as they used to."

That reminds me of Granpaw Jim. He claims that Iowa blizzards aren't what they used to be.

Well, honestly, I doubt whether our autumns or winters change very much. It's our point of view that changes.

And that's something we all should watch . . . our point of view. Don't criticize the kids because they like to run and shout.

We oldsters enjoyed that too, once. Let's respect the fellow with a broken accent. We'd sound funny to him, too, if we tried to talk HIS native language.

Granpaw Jim likes corn pone; I like white bread. Edna's a great coffee fan; I enjoy a temperate glass of beer. Both points of view are O.K. And as long as we can keep our vision broad enough, and tolerant enough, we'll all stay younger, grow wiser, and be happier.

World's Mightiest Stairway Climbs Shantung's Tai Shan

The world's greatest stairway, globe travelers agree, climbs Tai Shan, highest of China's five sacred mountains. Tai Shan, in beleaguered central Shantung, is 25 miles south of Tsinan, Shantung's double-walled and moated capital recently taken by Communist forces after a three-month siege.

There are some 6,700 stone steps in Tai Shan's shanks-mare escalator. They ascend only the steeper rises of the mountain's 15-mile Pan Lu, or Pilgrim Way. Untold millions of pilgrims through 40 centuries have struggled to the 5,069-foot summit to worship "nearest Heaven."

Confucius in his day (500 B.C.) was one of their number. The pilgrims have caused the winding route to become ever more lined with holy temples and towers, and with tea houses and huts to cater to the swarming humanity. Peace-time visitors in the spring have often numbered 10,000 a day. Annually on October 10, Chinese Republic day, every school child, every soldier for miles around joins the worshipers and sightseers climbing Tai Shan.

The true pilgrim first worships at ancient Tai Temple, in the walled village of Tainan. He then passes through the North Gate to start the

LORN (Snus) MILLER

Republican Candidate for Sheriff of Polk County

MILLER is 53 years of age. A resident of Des Moines for 30 years. He has been in public life for 27 years but has never been a politician. He is a member of the Christian Church, Masonic bodies, Elks, Moose and Eagles. He is president of the Iowa Chiefs of Police Association and the recently organized Iowa Road Block Committee.

MILLER through his many years of experience with police work knows the "youth problems" and will establish a Junior Deputy Sheriff's program with a "Juvenile Division".

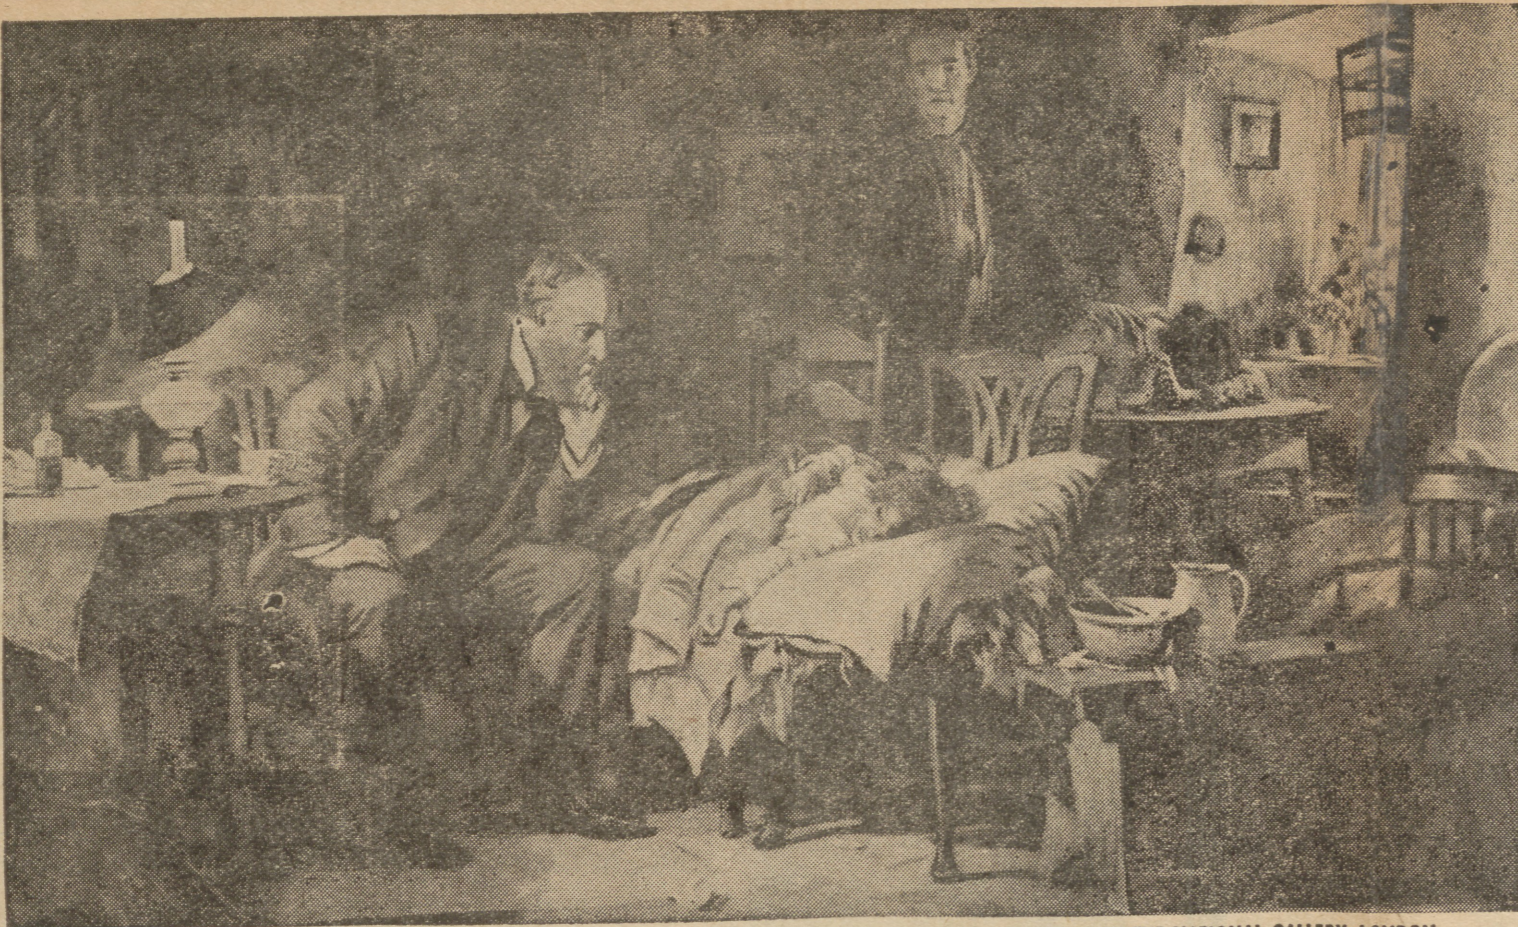

MILLER believes your Sheriff should be a man of integrity, experience and executive ability. That the Sheriff of the County is but a servant of the people and as such his office will always be open to the public and not just a select few, for constructive suggestions and proper law enforcement so that Polk County may have an honest and efficient Sheriff's office.

MILLER through his 27 years of service with our Police department, the last 3 years serving as Chief, has proven himself capable of organizing and directing a law enforcement body which is needed so badly in the management of the Polk County Sheriff's office. MILLER believes the responsibilities of the Sheriff's office require a full time Sheriff. He has no other business connections or outside interest and will devote his full time to the operation of that office.

Keep Politics Out of This Picture

- When the life—or health—of a loved one is at stake, hope lies in the devoted service of your Doctor.
- Would you change this picture?
- Compulsory health insurance is political medicine.
- It would bring a third party—a politician—between you and your doctor. It would bind up your family's health in red tape.
- Political medicine would result in heavy payroll taxes—and inferior medical care for you and your family.
- Don't let that happen here! You have a right to prepaid medical care—of your own choice.
- Ask your Doctor, or your insurance man, about budget-basis health protection.
- Under voluntary health insurance, your health is your own business. Keep it that way!

PERSONAL TOUCH

By Marie Ross

Spent two interesting days—last Friday and Saturday—in Newton, Ia., called the washing machine center of the world, where the Iowa Press Women held their annual fall convention.

After being comfortably housed in Hotel Maytag — where the very pleasant hotel owner who registered us turned out to be the Hon. E. W. Zueg, mayor of the city of Newton—the press women started early Friday afternoon on tours of great industrial plants which hire thousands of men and women.

Exciting was the tour of the five-million dollar Maytag Automatic Washer plant (No. 2) which is said to be the most modern of its kind in the world. The plant covers seven and one-half acres on a forty-acre tract of ground. It is so large that one does not notice the 26 railroad freight cars, on a railroad track or the ten semi-trailer trucks on the highway that have been built directly into the plant for fast shipping and receiving.

There is a perceptual motion as automatic conveyors, overhead, move parts of the washing machine from one department to another.

Outrageous noises that the employees didn't seem to mind came from machines that whistled; giant presses that thundered as they moulded into shapes, parts of the washing machine. One most expensive piece of machinery in the plant, the guide informed, cost $96,000 dollars—and one man operated it. It made thousands of holes in the tub-part of the washing machine—all in one blow.

One furnace in the plant which never stops, holds a temperature of 1,550 degrees—for the baking of the enamel coating on the tubs. The guide said that if it ever cooled enough for a man to go inside—it would take three days to heat again.

The guide informed that the Maytag company hires nearly 6,500 persons in the No. 1 and 2 plants. Only thirty percent of these workers come from Newton, which has a population of 16,000.

After having noted not one color-er employee in this new automatic washer factory, the columnist asked if the company hired Negro work-

Cedar Rapids City Ass'n To Entertain IACW 2nd District

Cedar Rapids, Ia.—The second district of the Iowa Association of Colored Women will be entertained by the City Association of Clubs of Cedar Rapids on Sunday, Oct. 15, at Bethel AME church.

The meeting will begin at 1 p.m. The program will include reports from state officers. Mrs. Helen D. Beshears, state supervisor of districts, will discuss the future of girls' work in the state.

Mrs. Lester Johnson will deliver the main address on "The Club Woman's Contribution to World Peace." She is president of the

The tour through this plant, alone, was worth a trip to Newton. Dropped in on the 17th biennial convention of the United Lutheran Church in America at KRNT radio theater last Sunday afternoon to hear the famous concert organist, Maestro Giuseppe Moschetti, in a recital which preceded the "Men for the Ministry," mass meeting.

One very pleasant Lutheran woman turned around in her seat of the crowded auditorium — to exchange a cordial greeting—and—then she asked: "Are you from Liberia?" When I replied that I was from Des Moines—she seemed to be disappointed.

State Press Women Hold Fall Meeting In Newton, Iowa

The annual fall meeting of Iowa Press Women, Inc., was held last Friday and Saturday at Hotel Maytag, Newton, Ia.

With the Newton Daily News as official host, and Mrs. Edith Mooar, treasurer of the IPW and society of the News hostess, the press women spent a busy two-days touring industrial plants, attending buffet supper, luncheon and banquet, aside from the regular business meetings, panel discussions and programs.

Following the tours to the Vernon Co., plant which makes advertising novelties, the women went through the Maytag company's large automatic washer plant in the world. The Friday evening's highlight was a buffet supper to the country home of Mrs. Vera Wilson Sautz, columnist for the Newton Daily News, who recently was interviewed on the Welcome Travelers program.

Business sessions and general meeting were held Saturday morning. The noon luncheon in the Wedgewood room, featured reports on the national convention of the

COMING TO KRNT

ELLA FITZGERALD

"Jazz at the Philharmonic" returns to KRNT Theater, Des Moines, for one performance, Thursday evening, October 26, under the direction of its founder, Norman Granz, a leading impresario of jazz.

Sponsored by Down Beat magazine, visited her. They were Mr. Lorenzo Brown, her son; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Latson and children and Mrs. Erny Reiffins daughter, Jetuan.

Miss Alma Buckner of Fort Dodge was a visitor to Miss Victoria Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Kay Wagner visited this year's concert—the tenth—once again stars "The First Lady of Swing," Ella Fitzgerald. Also featured is Granz' crew of outstanding jazz musicians, among them Flip Phillips, Lester Young, Coleman Hawkins, Harry Edison, Buddy Rich, Hank Jones, Ray Brown and Bill Harris. As an added attraction, is a Granz' discovery, Oscar Peterson, the Canadian pianist who is already collecting high acclaim from the jazz critics in his first American tour.

This will be the only appearance the "Jazz at the Philharmonic" will make in Iowa this season.

ADVICE AMERICA NEEDS TO FOLLOW

Dr. Ralph Bunche, Nobel prize winner for 1950, in a radio interview over long distance telephone, told the Lutherans meeting in Des Moines that America's normal leadership of the world is jeopardized by undemocratic activities at home and emphasized that respect for the dignity of the individual, regardless of his race, color or creed was true democracy.

"Our future depends upon making democracy work," he declared. "It is a direct challenge to every American," he said.

A great many people just don't register that democracy consists of the simple job of according every individual all the rights, privileges and immunities our way of life offers. Take the matter of jobs, of accommodations in public places, in housing facilities, leaders of businesses in labor, of the churches right here in Des Moines are flagrant violators of the principles of democracy and yet sing from the housetop that they practice democracy.

Very definite examples of this is that some of the most vociferous friends of the Negro operate business institutions where a Negro can not get a job above that of a janitor. Some offering various accommodations to the public are operated by great church people but they deny accommodations to Negroes just as the taverns and beer joints do. And yet the latter are supposed to be immoral places today.

Unfortunately, all too often, the clergy has helped very little to better conditions which retard our position as a great democratic nation. They are supposedly our spiritual leaders and advisers. Whether a man treats another as he would like to be treated is a thing wrapped up in his own bosom.

It is a fundamental principle of Christianity. And thus the one who poses as the spiritual leader should be of much help in so shaping a man's life that there be no exceptions to democratic treatment of members of the human family based on race or color in determining who are God's children.

Of course we are making progress, but mighty slow. And unless the job of making democracy work is not done faster, Communism will continue to be a formidable competitor for world leadership among nations. Nobody knows this better than Dr. Bunche.

NEGROES MUST DO THEIR SHARE

The Bystander was established to print news and views about Negroes. This is true of all newspapers so operated.

A newspaper—unless subsidized—derives its income from advertising and subscriptions. Most of the advertising is that of concerns operated by others than Negroes and justly so because Negroes spend a lot of money with these institutions. But, that is no reason why establishments and organizations operated by Negroes should fail to carry their share of the responsibility for the support of industries operated for their particular interest.

There are communities where Negro business and organizations either don't see the value of advertising or feel that they are too high and mighty to do so. They garner all the free publicity available but balk on spending a dime for advertising.

Like the white organization, the business and professional man, they draw their subsistence from the public and should use some of it to enlighten the people about what they have to sell whether it be groceries, drugs, beer, services, a program or church service.

There are too many heads of institutions serving service the public who ask all and give none and thus jeopardize the value of those institutions in the community. So when the Bystander says patronize our advertisers, it looks to Negro institutions to be a part of those advertisers.

in the money we had and we didn't even do that," he said. He informed that a special committee "is out now to raise $35,000 and $15,000 more from us."

Certain Things to be Done
"There are certain things to be done," Mr. Alexander informed, adding that "we want to deliver a good building to the man who gave us the money and at the same time build a substantial building for the people of Des Moines."

"With a rotating program, the building will answer the needs of the community," he pointed out.

He revealed that a stage in the new building would have to be omitted at the present time because of the expense. It would have cost about $30,000 to build, he stated and encouraged that the new building was being constructed so that a stage might be added later.

"If this is not the building you wish you had, it is the very best our building committee could give you," Dr. Scales, vice president of the board, said.

Need More Funds
The need for supplementary funds or the completion of the new building was voiced by Mrs. J. W. Mitchell, member of the board.

Her financial report revealed that five years ago the Cowles Foundation gave the $125,000; Negro citizens (of the nearly $12,000 pledged) $8,000; and, $1,241 were in other gifts. The expenditures during that period have included: $2,500 for the lots for the new building; architectural fees (already paid) $4,500. The contract total $187,000; with $55,759 needed to complete the building.

Individuals who made pledges for the new Willkie House in 1946, which are still unpaid, will be called upon to pay them, Mrs. Mitchell said as she estimated a total of $4,000 still due.

In addition to that amount, $35,000 is being raised by a special committee and $15,000 more will be needed.

Special Gifts
To date $8,000 cash gifts have come in from the special committees which reported among them as follows:

Register & Tribune, $5,000;
Mrs. Myer Rosenfield, $1,000;
Mrs. Ruth Ransom, $100; A. H. Blank Memorial Fund $500;
Northwestern Bell Telephone Co. $1,000.

Many ideas for the raising of moneys were discussed, led by Mrs. Dorothy Hammit, representing the Mary Church Terrell No. 2 club, which will sponsor a "Miss Willkie House Contest." Each club in the city will be asked to enter a contestant.

The question and answer period was led by Mrs. Adah Johnson. Mrs. Mary Hardaway presided.

Music was furnished by the Wee Folk chorus directed by Mrs. Korinne Jackson.

Refreshments were served by the DeLuxe club.

SPORTS

By ALLEN ASHBY

The old sports institutions are cracking down around our heads. First it was Joe Louis. Then the Brooklyn Dodgers, the Cleveland Browns, the Notre Dame football got shut out. Then to top it all the mighty Irish themselves hit the dust. The only one left is the New York Yankees ball team that seems to go on just like Old Man River.

The Drake fortunes for 1950 depend on one man more than they have for years and years. Don't know what they would do if Johnny Bright got hurt. After seeing him take charge of a good Oklahoma Aggies outfit we are convinced that the guy will be one of the bright stars of 1950.

We asked Bright why he didn't go into a line down or at least bent forward from the waist. He says he can't run any other way. Running bent over doesn't seem natural, he said. Made him feel off balance. You can't argue too much with a guy about changing his style when that style right or wrong, is paying off in yards and touchdowns as is Bright's. But we wanted to draw him out on it.

Big Ten
This guy Roberts of Indiana must be some ball carrier. Looks like it is gonna be hard to keep him off any all-star teams. Then there is this end Anderson and the guy from Michigan, all of whom will have to be looked over very carefully when the all teams are picked.

High School
North High may be very tough by next month. Big Cortez Rifle is back out on end after being out with a broken wrist. Wilber Carter has licked old man pneumonia and will be playing a half. He should help make it easier for Toby Robinson to use his speed on end sweeps. Yep, North may become very tough.

Bet Noel Harris of East High was hot Saturday morning. The Register carried a glowing account of how Harris, along with Atkins, Turner and the rest starred and then when you looked in the lineup of the two teams, East Waterloo and East Des Moines, there was no Harris.

If Tech could have kept its early season lineup in tact, they might have made trouble for a lot of the boys. Too bad Cookie Ward doesn't have some help. He'd make a probable all-city back.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Overweight—Public Health Problem
If you are a member of the great army of the overweight, the Iowa State Department of Health warns you that every inch on that waistline is a tribute to the calories you eat. What's more, this is a public health problem, because overweight is a contributing factor in causes of many chronic diseases as heart disease, high blood pressure, diabetes and others.

The Nutrition Service of the state health department points out that often those who are overweight complain they "don't eat enough to keep a bird alive," and perhaps they don't—at the table. But those ice box raids are hazards too. Here are a few figures to show you what midnight snack can do to your girth.

The importance of this election is that it will permit voters here in Polk County to finish a job begun so well two years ago. The thorough cleaning out of the Court House was not completed then because of the unfinished terms of two supervisors and the six District Judges. J. F. Baillie, Republican County Treasurer, comes up for re-election and is slated to go to make the job complete. A very personable and capable young man well known in labor circles, Frederick Wayne Knight, is the Democratic candidate for County Treasurer. Wayne became president of the C.I.O. labor union at the Ordnance Plant near Ankeny during the war and Manson James, a colored operator was his vice president. At a meeting of the Polk County Republican Central Committee recently, Ralph Powers, Republican candidate for County Attorney suggested a "high level" campaign free from "mud slinging." We believe the voters of Polk County would have appreciated his suggestion, if large sums of tax-payers money had not been misappropriated. It seems that Powers is no longer a threat since some one dug up his alleged Ku Klux Klan record. It is now the talk of the town. The late S. The Negro Democratic Forum

Sponsored by the Negro Democrats of Polk County.

These articles are the views of the writers and not necessarily the views of this paper.

The importance of this election is that it will permit voters here in Polk County to finish a job begun so well two years ago. The thorough cleaning out of the Court House was not completed then because of the unfinished terms of two supervisors and the six District Judges. J. F. Baillie, Republican County Treasurer, comes up for re-election and is slated to go to make the job complete. A very personable and capable young man well known in labor circles, Frederick Wayne Knight, is the Democratic candidate for County Treasurer. Wayne became president of the C.I.O. labor union at the Ordnance Plant near Ankeny during the war and Manson James, a colored operator was his vice president. At a meeting of the Polk County Republican Central Committee recently, Ralph Powers, Republican candidate for County Attorney suggested a "high level" campaign free from "mud slinging." We believe the voters of Polk County would have appreciated his suggestion, if large sums of tax-payers money had not been misappropriated. It seems that Powers is no longer a threat since some one dug up his alleged Ku Klux Klan record. It is now the talk of the town. The late S. Joe Brown said to me one day in the Court House: "We don't want that man Powers elected. He is no friend of ours."

WILLIAM BELL, CANDIDATE FOR POLK COUNTY HOSPITAL TRUSTEE

Mr. Bell a native Texan who has been a resident of Des Moines about 16 years resides at 1320 Ascension with his wife and two children. He is an official of Corinthian Baptist Church and has been active in the Democratic party since living in Des Moines.
