Dies In France

PFC. DANIEL B. WHITE
Final military rites will be held in Perry, Ia., for Pfc. Daniel B. White, 35, former Des Moines resident, as soon as the body arrives from overseas.

Pfc. White, son of Mrs. Lillie White Woods of Perry and Rev. G. W. White of Ft. Scott, Kas., was killed in an auto accident Wednesday, July 11, at Capt. France, army information revealed.

The Perry soldier had been in service overseas with the army since World War II. He had returned to the States several times but only for furlough — before re-enlisting for more overseas duty.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by his former wife, Helen Carter, of Des Moines; two sons, Denny Lee, 10, Ronny Gene, 9, of Des Moines; three brothers, LeRoy, of Los Angeles, Theodore of Waterloo, John who is serving with the armed forces in Korea; four sisters, Mrs. Margaret Black of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Maude Esther Skaggs of San Francisco, Cal.; Mrs. Vera Morrow and Mrs. Sophia Johnson, both of Des Moines.

'Scottsboro Boy' Arrested in New York for Rape

Albany, N. Y.—A man who identified himself as one of the "Scottsboro boys" was held here last Thursday on a first-degree rape charge.

The man, booked as James Wright, 39, was accused of attacking a 3-year-old girl in her home here. He pleaded innocent in police court Wednesday, and was jailed pending an examination July 19.

1931 Cases

Wright told police he was one of the nine Negroes involved in the notorious rape cases involving two white girls in Alabama in 1931.

He was paroled June 9, 1950, from a 99-year prison sentence. He was the last of the nine to be freed.

In Montgomery, Ala., secretary L. B. Stephens of the Alabama parole board said Wright would be declared a parole violator, but that Alabama would insist that he be tried on the New York charges.

Albany police said the girl told her mother Tuesday night that Wright attacked her July 3 and threatened to cut her throat if she informed her parents. The girl and her foster mother told police they were acquainted with Wright.

As Wright was led from police court Wednesday, he told detectives: "Well, I've been through this before."

Had Sponsor

Wright's identity was confirmed by Dr. Joseph B. Robinson, an Albany physician, who said he was sponsor-

Law and Order Returning To Cicero; 117 Persons Arrested on Mob Charges

Chicago.—The due process of law and order began returning to Cicero Monday following last week's rioting.

The 117 persons arrested in the mob violence were told by Police Magistrate E. Marvin Capouch and Cicero City Atty. Nick Berkos that their cases would be tried individually "on their merits."

The 117 cases were continued to 2 p.m. Monday, Aug. 6 to permit the state's attorney time to assemble and prepare evidence. "There will be no mass trial, no kangaroo court," Berkos declared.

Charges against the 117 are, for the most part, unlawful assembly, injury to property and assault with deadly weapons. Under the law the assault charge can bring prison sentences of one to five years.

Courtroom Jammed

While 300 spectators, including the 117 accused, jammed the second-floor courtroom of the Cicero police building, a reduced force of Illinois National Guardsmen patrolled the one-half mile area surrounding the well-wrecked 20-flat building at 6139 W. 19th where mob violence broke out last week.

The rioting, looting and brick-heaving broke out after Harvey E. Clark Jr., a Negro bus driver and Fisk University graduate, and his wife and two youngsters had tried to move into a third-floor flat.

His apartment and most of the others, which had been all-white occupied, were wrecked and ransacked by hoodlums while police and sheriff's men looked on.

On Thursday Sheriff Babb asked Gov. Stevenson to send troops. The guardsmen after several hours of tussling with the mobs, restored order and set up military rule of the area. Since then the neighborhood has become quiet.

In the courtroom Monday, the 117 defendants crowded around the judge's bench as the magistrate ordered their trials continued.

Veterans Seized

One of the defendants was a wounded Korean veteran, Pfc. Lawrence Loftus, 22, of 4316 W. Madison. He told Asst. State's Atty. James Brown that because he dragged a leg from wounds received in battle Feb. 14 he was unable to disperse fast enough when ordered by the guardsmen. He and his brother, John, 17, were arrested together. The soldier is on a 30-day leave from Camp Atterbury, Ind., where he is expecting a military discharge "any day now."

He said he is under orders to report back to the camp by Aug. 6, date of the trial. Brown told him to make arrangements with his commanding officer to appear in court on that day.

Earlier it had been reported that three of the 117 were University of Chicago students. It turned out Monday that two U. of C. students had been stopped, questioned and released when it was shown they had not taken part in the rioting. A third youth had said he was from the uni-

RIISING NEGRO RIVER 2,000 FORCED OUT BY

Miami, Okla.—Kansas floodwaters pushed the Neosho river around three sides of this Northeastern Oklahoma town today, forcing 2,000 persons from their homes.

Racial Fracas At Night Club

Washington, D. C.—Police in suburban Capitol Heights, Md., used tear gas last Friday night to break up an unruly crowd at a night club attempting to open its doors on a non-segregated basis.

Police estimated the crowd at about 400 persons around the Chickland night club.

Mayor Harvey Ennis of Capitol Heights joined police in emptying the club.

Officers said the disturbance started when about 40 young men began using profanity toward mixed Negro and white couples at the establishment.

Then glasses were thrown, fire-crackers shot off, and the glass in the front door was broken.

It was the second time in two weeks that the Chickland had attempted to open on a non-segregated basis.

Ex-Slave, 112 Years Old, Slows Down

Denver, Colo.—(CNS)—Ex-slave Henry L. Hall celebrates his 112th birthday this week with an expressed desire to "slow down." Mr. Hall, a white bearded gentleman, who spent the Civil War years in Missouri and went to Denver 60 years ago, says he's "pretty fit and spry."

Homeward Bound

Workers in the vast stockyards system, between the Twenty-third span and the Twelfth street viaduct, feed horses into the floodwaters to reduce cattle and hogs in a concrete hop house near the river.

Hundreds of motor cars, abandoned by their owners to the roaring Kaw, lined the underwater streets in the north section of the industrial district. Mud about four inches deep, left by the slowly-receding waters, SEE PAGE 6

Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell, 1348 E. 21st street, received word that their son, Cpl. Paul Campbell, who was wounded in Korea the early part of this year, will be returning to the States soon.

President Truman Visits Flood Areas

Kansas City, Mo.—President Truman Tuesday made an 800-mile air tour of the Missouri-Kansas-Oklahoma flood area and declared the disaster is "one of the worst this country have ever suffered from water."

Kansas City Begins Task Of Digging Out of Worst Disaster in Its History

Kansas City courageously began Monday the gigantic task of digging out of the worst disaster in its history.

Floodwaters of the Missouri and Kaw rivers receded rapidly. Business operations were resumed on a limited basis. Water dropped five to ten feet over industrial areas. Plans were under way for the renovation and cleaning of the Fairfax, Armourdale, Argentine and Central Industrial districts.

Livestock Being Saved

In some places mud and debris stood several feet deep where they were deposited after the Kaw roared over the dikes here Friday. The scene was one of vast destruction in industrial areas. Rescue operations were begun to save animals stranded on roofs.

The flood wall along the east bank of the Kaw Monday stood eight feet above the water in some places. In rural yards, where the torrents had been fifteen feet deep or more, the depth was six feet.

Around the American Royal building the current had decreased from about twenty feet to five or six feet. Everywhere—in Argentine, Armourdale and Fairfax, as well as the Central Industrial district—water was dropping, being carried off by the Kaw and the Missouri rivers, which have fallen steadily since Saturday morning.

In the battered section of the district near the Twenty-third street trafficway, the debris-filled water was disappearing rapidly. The river left behind masses of silt.

Beneath the Twenty-third street trafficway, the flood walls on the east bank of the Kaw stood about eight feet above river level. Water that topped the walls, flowed east and surrounded the pumping station and the Royal building, was running swiftly north on low ground between railroad tracks in the vicinity.

Between the pumping station and the river, water had almost disappeared completely and deep mud had taken its place. Behind the station to the east, water still stood in three to five feet deep but was draining away

NAACP Brands Show as 'Gross Libel on Negro And Distortion of Truth'

New York.—A vehement protest by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People against the television show "Amos 'n' Andy" has rocked the radio and television industry and has created widespread interest on the part of newspapers, magazines and other periodicals.

A telegram sent by NAACP Secretary Walter White to the Blatz Brewing Company, sponsors of the show, branded the program as a "gross libel on the Negro and distortion of the truth" and asked the company to withdraw its sponsorship. The wire followed the unanimous adoption by the 781 delegates to the recent 42nd annual NAACP convention in Atlanta of a resolution condemning the show.

In the meantime, Mr. White wrote to heads of approximately 100 national organizations which joined the NAACP in the National Emergency Civil Rights Mobilization in 1950, informing them of the Association's fight against the "Amos 'n' Andy" program and stating that the protests of the NAACP and others "have resulted in suggestions that the scripts of future shows be written so as to eliminate the present uniform presentation of the Negro in so unfavorable a fashion."

The NAACP executive asked members of other organizations to view the show and, if they see fit, "to join in protesting a stereotyped presentation of the Negro which is just about that which the movies presented twenty years ago."

At the same time, the 1500 NAACP branches throughout the country were asked to carry out the resolution against the program adopted by the convention. Gloster B. Current, director of branches, reminded branches that the convention urged them "to protest to the sponsors and promoters of such shows . . . and to the . . . stations . . . and to use every means at their disposal, both by collective action and through the individual action of their respective members, to discourage the sponsorship and presentation of such programs and shows even to the extent, if necessary, of resorting to the boycott of the goods, products or services of the sponsors and promoters, including the radio and television stations

University of Oregon Coed Marries Date Her Sorors Rapped

Vancouver, Wash.—Miss Doris Burgess, white University of Oregon coed who was ousted from her sorority house because she refused to stop dating DeNorval Unthank, a Negro architecture student, married him here last week.

The pretty bride was accompanied to Vancouver for the wedding by Unthank's parents because no member of her family was present. The groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. DeNorval Unthank of Portland, Ore.

Following the wedding, the couple left for a short wedding trip. They will be host and hostess at a reception in Eugene, Ore., home city of the University of Oregon where Unthank will study two more semesters before he wins his degree.

Talmadge Paper's Untruths Ridiculed by Walter White

New York.—A request that falsehoods concerning activities of the recent Atlanta convention of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, published in Governor Herman Talmadge's newspaper, The Statesman, be corrected by the Atlanta Journal and Constitution, was made of those papers July 12 by NAACP Secretary Walter White.

In letters to the editors of the two papers, Mr. White notes that The Statesman published a reproduction of a cheaply printed sticker, reading "Why Not Racial and Social Equality Now?", which was scattered around the city's Municipal Auditorium during the NAACP convention.

"The Statesman declares with characteristic inaccuracy and exaggeration," says the NAACP executive, "that 'Thousands of these stickers were placed on automobiles and buildings by delegates . . . Some were even pasted on the State Capitol Building but were promptly removed by the building superintendent.'"

The truth of the matter, Mr. White asserts, is that "a few of these stickers were found outside the auditorium . . . Prompt and efficient work by the Atlanta police department resulted in the arrest within twenty-four hours of the individual who scattered them in the street. He was found to be a member of the KuKlux Klan and a loyal supporter of Governor Talmadge."

"The childishness of such petty trickery," Mr. White states, "is matched only by The Statesman's utterly false statements that any of these stickers were placed on automobiles, buildings, or anywhere else except the waste basket."

CICERO RIOT World Eyes Pastors Say

Chicago.—"The eyes of the world" are on the Cicero riot case, officers of the Church Federation of Chicago declared in an official statement Monday.

"As leaders of the churches of Cook County, we hang our heads in shame because of the disgraceful behavior of fellow citizens who were responsible for the recent outburst of racial hatred in Cicero," the statement said.

"The federation officers appealed to 'all Christians to practice the spirit of the Master and show faith in the American ideal of law and order.'" They added:

"Surely we will not feed the fires of Communism at home and among the colored people of the world while our boys are shedding blood to keep men free."

The statement was signed by Dr. Gerhard W. Grauer, federation president and pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church; the Rev. Robert R. Johnston, the Rev. Charles M. Coulter, vice president; the Rev. Joseph L. Roberts, chairman of the federation's commission on human relations, and Dr. John W. Harms, executive vice president.

All Eyes on Hotchkiss Rape Case in Virginia

Arlington, Va.—(CNS)—All eyes are on the Hotchkiss case for the state of Virginia, which has never executed a white man for rape, is going all out to send two white hoodlums to the electric chair for snatching a 19 year old bride of a Navy Ensign from her home and raping her repeatedly.

Arlington's Commonwealth Attorney, Denman T. Rucker has obtained indictments against John R. Polk, 19, son of an accountant in the U.S. Department of Interior and William R. Payne, 25, his best pal, and he has announced that he will seek the death penalty.

The youth have confessed that on the night of the kidnap-rape, June 26 the two had been drinking heavily. Running short of cash, they decided to drive in Polk's '47 Cadillac to the Colonial Village to steal some money.

There they spotted Mrs. Nancy Hotchkiss and her husband, James, who had returned from a Florida honeymoon just the day before.

Costs of this action, and for such other and further relief as may be just and equitable in the premises.

No personal judgment is asked against any of the defendants other than William T. Cornelison and Ruth E. Williams, formerly Ruth E. Cornelison.

NOTICE OF CANCELLATION AND FORFEITURE OF REAL ESTATE CONTRACT

TO: ORRIS J. JOHNSON, contract purchaser, no party in possession. You are hereby notified that default has occurred in the performance of the real estate contract bearing date of November 1, 1950, made and executed by Bishop W. C. Brown, Reverend W. A. Cooper and James F. Gray, trustees of Missouri Annual Conference for the sale to Orrie Johnson of the following described property, to-wit:

Both boys went through their bedroom window holding a gun and demanding that Mrs. Hotchkiss leave with them while her husband "lie still." After riding past the county line Polk pointed the .22 caliber gun at Mrs. Hotchkiss' head but the gun jammed and they decided to drive her near her home, then throw her from the car.

Without a doubt, if the hoodlums had been Negroes, there would be no question of a death penalty, especially after positive identification by both the victim and her husband as was in this case. However, if these white hoodlums are convicted, it will be the first time in the history of Virginia that white men have gone to the electric chair for kidnaping and raping a white woman.

2 Youths Given 10-Year Terms

Two youth accused of several sluggings and robberies here were sentenced Tuesday to 10 years each in Fort Madison state penitentiary.

They are John Tramble, 18, of West Des Moines, and Donald E. Lewis, 19, who gave his address as 934 Twenty-third street.

Both were indicted for robbery with aggravation, but were allowed to plead guilty before District Judge Tom K. Murrow to robbery without aggravation.

Robbery with aggravation carries a 25-year penitentiary term.

Police said the youths admitted slugging and robbing John Sherman, 1140 Nineteenth street, after he alighted from a taxi near his home the night of May 5. Sherman was hit in the jaw and robbed of $30.

Lewis and Tramble also admitted slugging and robbing J. A. Pollack, 56, of 659 Thirty-third street, in the

Consumers' Buying Power Rated Ahead of Last Year

Real income of the typical consumer—that is, his cash income in terms of present prices—was $1.17 as compared with the dollar he had last year, according to the latest monthly index reported by Investors Diversified Services.

For the purposes of the IDS index, the "typical" consumer is presumed to draw cash income from the major sources in proportion to the national ratio and his expenses are estimated according to the portions allotted to the different categories in the family budget.

Commenting on the latest report, Galen Van Meter, vice chairman of Investors Diversified Services, pointed out that wage earners and farmers have fared best during the rearmament period but that investment income has shown a steady increase.

"One of the best weapons against inflation," declared Mr. Van Meter, "is the investment of money at attractive earnings rate. That such rates have been available and have proved attractive to investors has been an important factor in keeping prices from rising no faster than they have in relation to income.

There is increasing evidence that consumers have nearly completed such anticipatory buying at the Korean crisis induced and are beginning to prefer invested funds to durable and semi-durable goods at inflationary prices."

You and each of you are hereby notified that there is now on file in the Office of the Clerk of the Polk County District Court, 6th & Mulberry Street, Des Moines, Iowa, the Petition of the Plaintiff herein, claiming to be the absolute and unqualified owner of the real estate legally described as:

Corinthian's New Pastor Greeted By Large Congregation

"I have come to bring you a message from God—as a new messenger from the East," spoke the Rev. Norman R. Olphin, new pastor of the Corinthian Baptist church who delivered his first sermon of his new pastorate to a crowded auditorium of members and friends last Sunday.

The minister who has had three pastorates and spent eleven years at the last one, the Second Baptist church in Rahway, N. J., where he built a $35,000 edifice, told his new members here not to think that "you have called some great pulpiteer who will perform miracles."

"I am a humble individual in the sight of God," he said.

The Rev. Olphin emphasized the powers of God, who can destroy or defend; who knows all evil as well as good; a God who will sustain you by His grace; a God of nature; a trine God—the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit; a personal God.

Mrs. Olphin, former school teacher in New York, was presented to the church.

Black Hills Still Remember Rip-Roaring Gold Rush Days

The last action-packed chapters of American frontier history were written just 75 years ago in the Black Hills of South Dakota.

It was the rip-roaring gold rush of 1876 that made the Black Hills the final dream of every adventurer. The search for precious, shining nuggets drew gunmen, miners, card sharks, college professors, doctors, merchants, dance hall girls and plain citizens to this last outpost.

Today, tourists and visitors from every section of the country visit this glamorous vacation mecca to relive that turbulent period of Americana.

Seventy-five years ago, a short time as history goes, Wild Bill Hickok, Calamity Jane, Preacher Smith, Deadwood Dick, Poker Alice and the Sioux Chieftain Crazy Horse were the main characters in a flaming real life western drama. Modern visitors sense a vicarious thrill in reliving those events that have since been glamorized in movies and dime novels.

This year is the Diamond Anniversary of such events as: the murder of Wild Bill Hickok, prince of the Pistoleers, who was shot as he held the famous deadman's poker hand—aces and eights; the first pony express mail service into the Black Hills (cost $1 a letter); the laying out of Rapid City, now South Dakota's second largest city; the Battle of the Little Big Horn where General George A. Custer's forces were wiped out by the Sioux Indians; chartering of the famous Ft. Pierre trail; the last gold rush into Deadwood gulch; the location of the first Homestake claim which was later to develop into the largest gold mine in North America; and the fatal ambush of Preacher Smith by the Indians between Deadwood and Crook City.

In historic celebrations and pageants, traveling America will be treated to the observance of these historic events in the Black Hills this summer. A solid granite statue of Hickok, the law enforcement officer, will be unveiled in Deadwood and diamond jubilee celebrations at Rapid City and Deadwood and the observance of the occasion of the Custer Battle in nearby Wyoming and Montana will mark another milestone in the progressive history of the West.

Follow Your Personality

Home furnishings, like clothing, should be chosen to express the personality of the owner. In even so simple a thing as a place mat for the table, one's choice may be determined by one's personality. One type of person will instinctively choose a lightweight mat of fine linen thread with a delicate design of drawn work suggesting the use of fine crystal and china. Another type will choose a mat of heavy cotton yarn, sturdy in texture, which is associated with heavy pottery and wooden candleholders. Both choices portray types of personality which the Chinese centuries ago sensed in life forces and designated as Yin and Yang. The Yin person likes fragile, delicate fabrics, fine lines, and light gay colors. The Yang person is drawn toward the heavier fabrics and sturdy utensils with an emphasis on strength, weight, and depth of color.

RENEWS PLEA FOR CITY BAN ON JOBS BIAS

The fair employment practices committee Monday renewed its request for city council action on an ordinance to ban job discrimination based on race or religion.

Addison M. Parker, committee president, appeared before the council to ask adoption of an ordinance proposed last December.

Funds Suggested

If the council isn't ready to do that yet, he suggested that it appropriate funds to enable the mayor's Commission of Human Rights to carry on an educational campaign and employ a full-time secretary.

The seven-member human rights group, usually called the fair employment practices commission, recently made a report on the first five months of its work.

Commission members said they had found discrimination existing in Des Moines, had investigated two complaints and disposed of them and was investigating a third.

"It has been alleged that there are many more cases of discrimination in Des Moines, but the nature of the commission and its lack of authority and persuasion makes it highly improbable that many of those concerned will carry their cases to us," the commission report said.

Parker's committee adopted a resolution saying the commission report proved the need of an ordinance.

Private Prejudices

"People who have complaints will not bring them to a body which has no power to act," the committee said. "People who allow their private prejudices to cause public wrongs will not change as a result of mere exhortation."

Councilman Ray Mills told Parker he believed the committee should return with its request for an ordinance when there is a full council. Mayor A. B. Chambers now is absent and other councilmen may be during the next several weeks.

With reference to funds for educational work, City Manager Leonard G. Howell said the mayor's commission could ask that some be budgeted or that Parker's committee could speak in behalf of the commission on this point.

He reminded, however, that budget requests for 1952 will have to be in soon. The Rev. B. C. Bobbitt is chairman of the mayor's commission.

Pennsylvania GOP's Kill FEPC In Secret Vote

Harrisburg, Pa.—(CNS)—In a secret vote, Senate Republicans of the Judiciary General Committee, voted 14 to 9 against the Mintess bill, which was designed to end discrimination in employment because of race, creed or color in the state of Pennsylvania.

Though backed by Governor Fine himself, as he had included FEPC legislation as a party pledge, the bill was killed by the 14 Republican Committee members who agreed in secret to let the bill die in the committee. Among the nine Committee members voting to send the measure to the floor for a vote, were six Democrats.

A really liberal bill as sponsored by Rep. Lewis Mintess, it called for creation of a three-man commission to halt discrimination and carried a financial appropriation of $350,000. It had passed the House on May 23 by a vote of 160 to 38 but got its knifing when it reached the Senate Committee.

The FEPC Council here is saying that it will not give up the fight and will seek an immediate conference with Governor Fine "so that the secret repudiation of a sacred pledge can be reversed."

SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY ON THE NEGRO IS PUBLISHED

New York.—An annotated bibliography of books, pamphlets, and magazine articles on the life and work of the Negro in the United States was published recently by the National Urban League. The 128 page volume, compiled by the League's Department of Research, is entitled "Selected Bibliography on the Negro."

According to the Department's director, Dr. Warren M. Banner, who supervised the publication, "it has been compiled to assist those who wish to further acquaint themselves with the life and work of the Negro."

This is the fourth revised edition of the bibliography on the Negro issued by the League. The first was published in 1937. The bibliography costs 50c per copy.

Eyes At Work

Today's ominous threats to world peace and America's all-out program of industrial mobilization again emphasize the vital importance of efficient vision among preparedness workers, the Better Vision Institute points out. Test after test has shown that factory production can be stepped up from 40 to 20 per cent by correction of workers' seeing faults and by improved lighting conditions. In a close-fought war between evenly matched opponents that margin might mean the difference between victory and defeat. During World War II the Institute waged a vigorous campaign for eye-care and better lighting in industrial plants. The results were highly gratifying in that they made both workers and employers more sight-conscious. Now the job needs to be done again, and more strenuously than ever.

Mobile X-Ray Unit to Visit 7 Towns Outside of Polk County During August

Mobile X-Ray Unit

"Christmas Seals help us all during the year to win our fight against TB and Heart Disease," Mrs. Harold Frederick, Elkhart, Township Chairman for the Polk County Tuberculosis Association, asserted when she this week announced plans for seven district chest x-ray surveys for Polk County residents outside Des Moines, beginning early in August.

"The funds raised during the annual sale of Christmas Seals supports the chest x-ray program sponsored by the Association and enables all adults in the county to have an x-ray taken with no charge," Mrs. Frederick explained as she outlined plans for the surveys.

The Association's mobile x-ray unit will be located in seven different towns to provide service for persons living in that district.

The first survey will be held at Polk City on August 7th and 8th, and the second survey at Elkhart on August 9th and 10th. From there the unit will move to Altoona for a third survey on August 14th and 15th, to Runnells for the fourth survey on August 16th and 17th and to Johnston on August 21st and 22nd. The sixth survey will be held in West Des Moines on August 28th, 29th and 30th and the mobile unit will complete the district surveys when it moves into bloomfield area on September 4th, 5th and 6th where it will be located at the Maple Grove School.

For Farm Residents

"We are particularly anxious to arrange a schedule which will enable those living on farms to take advantage of the opportunity to have x-rays taken," Mrs. Frederick said.

The unit will be in operation each day from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m., and from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. The exact location of the unit in each town will be announced at a later date.

Mrs. Frederick reported that several thousand persons were x-rayed during the township surveys in 1949 and numerous requests have been made for a return trip. The Association plans to bring the x-ray unit to the township areas once every two years.

All adults, 18 years of age and over, are eligible for the chest x-rays. Any person under 18 years who has been in contact with an active case of TB, or who is referred by his doctor or public health nurse, may be x-rayed.

Each person x-rayed will receive a report soon after the surveys have been completed.

July 12 by Walter White, NAACP secretary. The NAACP had asked U. S. Steel to use its economic influence to help stop the terror.

In reply to a suggestion by John A. Stephens, vice-president of U. S. Steel, that the "constructive approach for the NAACP to take would be to seek a conference with A. V. Wiebel, president of the T.C.I. Co., NAACP Secretary Walter White Mr. Stephens that Mr. Wiebel "has made it perfectly clear that he does not possess an open mind on this issue." Mr. White renewed his request for a conference between NAACP officials and U.S. Steel officials.

The NAACP executive cited Birmingham newspaper stories carrying a denunciation by Mr. Wiebel of the NAACP's charge that the company has influence with the Birmingham police department and stating that "it is a false statement from every point of view to say that it has any control over or any responsibility for the direction of the police department."

Mr. White told Mr. Stephens that, although neither the TCI nor U.S. Steel is legally responsible for the acts of Birmingham police, "no corporation as powerful . . . is without influence, if only for the reason of the taxes paid and the property owned."

PERSONAL TOUCH

By Marie Ross

A bus-load of youth choir members of St. Paul AME church who spent last week end in St. Paul and Minneapolis, Minn., had a grand time, as told by Teen-Ager Charmaine Miller. Prior to going to Minnesota, Charmaine and her mother, Mrs. Samuel Miller had spent a vacation in Chicago, where the daughter participated in an oratorical contest about which she had a little to say—only that she got fifth place among the AME youth contestants.

The Millers went on to Detroit, Mich., where they visited relatives and went sightseeing—and out to breakfasts, lunches and dinners.

From there the Iowans came home, unloaded their suitcases and packed immediately to catch the chartered bus with the St. Paul youth choir which left Des Moines Friday night with 51 persons.

"Everybody was so nice—and oh, there were so many kids," Charmaine related as she told her week end of exciting experiences in Minnesota.

"We got to the St. James AME church, where the Rev. B. N. Moore is pastor, early Saturday morning. We had all of our meals there, free, and got rooms in private homes, and met the St. James Youth Council committee.

"Saturday we had a sightseeing and pleasure trip. We couldn't go shopping because all of the stores downtown, close there on Saturday noon. So we went on a pleasure and sightseeing trip. The kids went boating on watercycles which you pedal. Of course, I had a row boat and somebody to row it for me.

"Then we went on a swimming party in Salem park and Saturday night the St. James youth council had a party for us at a private home.

"Sunday morning our youth chorus sang at the 11 o'clock service and then in the afternoon we gave a concert.

"Oh, boy, we really had a lot of fun and some of the Minnesota kids say they are coming down this week end. Somebody's supposed to have a party," Charmaine talked.

Mrs. Steele pitched right in and thoroughly rinsed and hung her washing again. During all of her turmoil, she worked up plenty of perspiration and a good appetite—but in the meantime, her dinner burned up on the kitchen stove.

A postcard arrived this week from Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allen who with Mrs. M. N. Wilcoats and daughter, Becky, are visiting relatives in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Allen wrote: "Here we are in California sight-seeing—when we aren't eating barbecue and turkey and fish caught from Big Pond by us. We've seen

MRS. CARTER HONORS DAUGHTER AT PARTY

Mrs. LeRoy Carter, 911 16th street, honored her daughter, Myrtle at a birthday dinner party Monday, June 9, after which the little guests went to the theater.

Sharing the courtesy were: Carol Ann Bettis, Roba Wells, Sharon Wade, Sharon Hammit, Opal Moss, Donna Wolder Betty Burrell, Marion Soloon and Lucille Long.

of New York City who are visiting Mr. Webb's relatives.

Mr. Webb, who has been away from his home town for several years, was thrilled over the progress that had been made in swimming events at the Good park, where an interracial crowd of 3,500 persons witnessed the water show Sunday.

When he was on duty at the Good Park pool and helping to plan the annual swimming events, they were just "small affairs in comparison to the one I saw today," Mr. Webb recalled.

After watching the meet Sunday, he said he will be inspired to go back to New York and do more swimming.

Here for his club's annual swimming meet was William (Bill) Bailey, an Orlutman who worked in Des Moines several years before moving to Chicago. He was accompanied here by his wife.

Mrs. William C. Brown phoned in an article this week about a dinner that a friend, Mrs. Anna Ware, gave. Mrs. Brown was raving over those "delicious homemade hot rolls" and some kind of a creamy, cold dessert that Mrs. Maude Jones made. "I'll just have to get the recipe," she declared.

And, speaking of some homemade hot rolls, recalled a ride out to some the farm homes last Saturday with the George Franklins who were looking for some black raspberries to can.

They decided to drive on up to Orlabor, after passing through some of the farmlands near the Polk County Home, where farmers on tractors were plowing fields of corn.

Winding around a road in Orlabor, we ran into "Deacon" James Smith who escorted us back to his home where his wife was doing some baking.

"I just took some hot rolls out of the oven," Mrs. Smith said as she welcomed us—and before I could show my manners and refuse, politely, several of her family of 16 children were bringing out hot buttered home-made rolls and a pitcher of cold grape-ade. There's just nothing like the hospitality that the Smith family accords persons who come to their home.

"I had no bad luck on last Friday," July 13, Mrs. Ben Steele remarked this week after her experiences on Monday. She spent most of the day taking advantage of the bright sunshine and the extremely warm temperature, to do up some washing she had been saving.

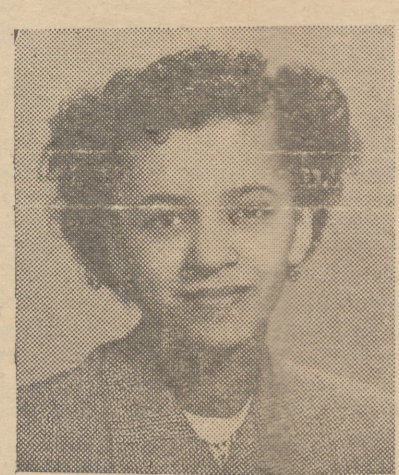

She had her clotheslines filled with bedding and linens and rugs when the heavy downpour during the afternoon drenched and splattered her wash.

Mrs. Steele pitched right in and thoroughly rinsed and hung her washing again. During all of her turmoil, she worked up plenty of perspiration and a good appetite—but in the meantime, her dinner burned up on the kitchen stove.

A postcard arrived this week from Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allen who with Mrs. M. N. Wilcoats and daughter, Becky, are visiting relatives in Los Angeles.

Line individual pie pans with pastry, folding 1/2 inch of pastry edge under rim of pan and fluting with fingers along edge of pan. Pare and slice apples and fill pie pans. Combine sugar, salt, spice, flour and lemon rind and sprinkle over apples. Sprinkle with lemon juice and dot with butter or margarine. Bake in hot oven (425°) for 15 minutes. Reduce oven to 350° and bake 30 minutes. To make cheese pumpkins, soften cheddar or any sharp cheese. Mold cheese into balls and ridge with the tines of a fork. MOB VIOLENCE ROLLS ON UNCHECKED

When Walter White told the Senate Labor and Public Welfare hearing on the creation of a Commission on Ethics government that "racial and religious prejudices has done much to destroy the moral fibre of our government" almost at the same time a community in civilized, but not civil Cicero, Ill., was demonstrating that very thing

A mob in Cicero, a town which boasts of no Negro residents, which is known as a great crime center in America — the Capone gang had its basis of operation there, a town which is thickly populated by people from Czechoslovakia many of whom left Europe to escape tyranny hurled stones and rocks at, and generally carried on continuous violence in order to prevent a Negro from living in that community.

But worse still, county sheriff said the policemen turned their backs and let the hoodlums roll on without interference.

The conduct of the mob and the policemen was reprehensible. The members of the mob violated their oath as citizens; the police officers went further giving aid and comfort to them.

And just as bad, when the national guard was called in each soldier was given two bullets and instructed not to use them except when ordered.

Just how guardsmen can be expected to seek out commanding officers for instructions when bad situations arise is more than a sensible person can understand. And since experience shows that mobs fight officers in their frenzy, such instructions defeat the purpose for which national guardsmen are called out.

Incidents of this kind make decent people indignant, they make listeners to appeal by our public officials to other nations for action on the part of "Free Nations" say lie every time they open their mouth.

Those who participated in this disgraceful mob should be punished to the limit and this includes members of the police department for their conduct was worse.

It will be interesting to watch the outcome of the investigation by local law enforcing officials and the United States government for the civil rights of the man who attempted to move into the apartment were only violated. Undoubtedly this man, a World War II veteran thought many times during this upheaval that the things he fought to preserve for this country meant nothing. His service was in vain for he still must keep up a fight to sustain his liberty among people who are supposed to be his brothers.

Walter White was right when he says race prejudice had done much to destroy moral fibre in the people of this country. Certainly the mob spirit in Cicero demonstrated that.

PROBLEM OF COORDINATION NEEDED HERE

The annual swimming and diving meet by the Olympian club brought to the public a splendid array of contestants and demonstrated that a well managed affair can draw the best talent among both races in and out of Des Moines.

There is one patent defect in these programs which calls for work on the part of somebody and should be corrected before the 1952 meet.

Negroes themselves made an exceedingly poor showing in the meet. And while no meet should allow a contestant to qualify who falls short of the standard, the public expects to see more Negroes entered in these meets.

While conditions are not ideal by a long shot, there are year-round pools where Negroes can train. The Crocker Y, Willkie House, and the YWCA have athletic departments and should seek out and train some of these youngsters.

In view of the fact that the Olympian club is made up of a fine group of young men some of whom are or have been outstanding athletes in their time, it ought to pull these recreational forces together and get something done about this lack of participation by trained Negro athletes in these events. The public expects it. The program should begin now for 1952.

When bellboys in New York complained that Shriners gave them Confederate five dollar bills for tips while attending the annual convention this month, one remarked "Keep them boys, the south is coming back."

In other words, some Southerners still believe in and hope for a return of the Confederacy. And this accounts for a lot of things many people fail to understand about them.

Cicero Riot,

versity, but a check of school records failed to show this as a fact.

At noon Maj-Gen. George F. Ferry, 33d Division commander, began substituting his troops for 400 of the 129th Inf. who quelled the rioting last week. He ordered the troop strength reduced, but would not say how many troops will patrol the one-half mile area around the trouble zone.

The reduction of troops was the result of the new atmosphere of quiet in Cicero and the decision of local officials who met with Sheriff Babb.

See Need Reduced

Sheriff Babb and 22 military and civilian law enforcement officials decided at a one-hour meeting in Babb's office that the 500 guardsmen patrolling the trouble zone could be cut for the time being.

The five companies on duty since Thursday were relieved by troops from the Chicago area's 33d Division which returned over the weekend from summer maneuvers at Camp Grayling, Mich.

The officials who included Cicero's board president, Harry J. Sandusky, and Joseph Lohman, Gov. Stevenson's representative, decided that the half mile area surrounding the wrecked building will be a No Man's Land. Only people living inside this zone or on business will be permitted to enter, Babb said.

The mob which swelled to 6,000—protesting attempts of a Negro Chicago bus driver to move his family into a Cicero apartment, climaxed three nights of violent demonstrations in which windows were smashed and the bus driver's furniture was dumped out the window and burned.

Worst in Years

Patrick Tuohy, chief of the Cook county sheriff's police, said the situation was the worst he had experienced in 29 years.

The mob hurled stones, bricks and fire bombs. The building was set afire a second time when a fire bomb was thrown into a second story window at midnight.

Vandals broke into several apartments in the 20-apartment building. Windows were smashed and police used tear gas to drive back repeated efforts of some mob members to break through their lines.

There are no Negroes living in Cicero, a community of 70,000.

Fear that inclusion of Negroes as residents of Cicero, one-time stronghold of the Al Capone underworld gang, would depress property values is known to be behind the mob action. Cicero is populated predominantly by people of Czechoslovak descent.

To Move In

A spokesman for a Negro bus driver announced Saturday he will continue his efforts to occupy a mob-battered apartment in Cicero.

All was quiet as soldiers and police patrolled behind barbed wire barricades in the half-mile square trouble area—scene of a riot Thursday night.

Plan to Move In

At a news conference held by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, an NAACP lawyer, George N. Leighton, said the bus driver's family will move in when the riot-torn apartment is fit to occupy.

"We will demand that every public official from the town president to the governor, remove all vestiges of lawlessness, and then move Mr. Clark into the building," Leighton declared.

He said he was one of several lawyers representing Harvey E. Clark, 29, the bus driver who attempted to move into the building Tuesday. Walter White, secretary of the NAACP who is investigating the case, attended the news conference.

Clark and his family, the attorney said, will demand full protection from police while living in the apartment.

"Part of Plot"

The NAACP said it had evidence the violent actions of the mob were part of a plot undertaken with the knowledge of Cicero officials.

White claimed it was the first instance on record of "police actually preventing a Negro family from moving into an apartment—even in the south."

He said he did not feel Communists were involved in the disorders, although "they usually are." Clark has sued the suburban city of Cicero for $200,000 damages, charging he was manhandled by Cicero police.

BOY CHASES BALL, HIT BY SWEEPER

Ronald Smith, 10, of 946 Twelfth street, scuffled a bruised left foot Monday when he dashed into the street in front of his home after a ball and was struck by a city-owned street sweeper.

The boy was taken to Broadlawn General hospital for treatment. Police said the street sweeper was driv-

HEALTH FOR ALL

Overweight

The best reducing exercise, it is said, is moving the head from right to left and then back again whenever we are offered a second helping of food at the table.

This implies that overweight is usually due to over-eating. While there are some cases of overweight caused by glandular trouble that only medical treatment can correct, most fat people put on extra pounds simply because they over-ate or ate too much of the wrong kinds of food.

The body is like an engine that requires a certain amount of "fuel" each day to operate efficiently. When it gets more fuel, in the way of food, than it needs or can use up, it stores this fuel in the form of fat. To lose its surplus weight, the body must burn up more fuel each day than it takes in daily in food.

Where overweight is due to wrong eating, heavy people are usually the ones who have trouble cutting down on fattening foods. It is easier for most people to lose weight during the hot summer months because their appetite demands less of the heavy, fat-producing foods than it does in cooler weather.

The person who is seriously overweight and needs to lose a great number of pounds should do so under his doctor's direction and supervision.

Those who diet must make certain they are eating enough of the right foods to keep them looking and feeling well. The fat person needs the nourishment found in milk, fruits, vegetables and lean meats as much as anyone else. But he can and should cut down on such foods as sugars, fats, and starches which supply a lot of fuel—and, therefore, fat—but are low in the minerals and vitamins that the body requires to keep well.

Overweight is not a direct cause of death. But too much flesh, especially in adults and older persons, can cause a needless strain on the heart and the circulatory system which can lead to serious illness and death.

The overweight person who reduces wisely will find his reward in looking and feeling better.

Records Dime-a Dozen in Fourth Annual Good Park Swimming-Diving Meet

Swimming Meet

Records were a dime a dozen and dime and a half dozen, since that is how many were broken in the fourth annual Good Park Swimming meet held by the Olympian club Sunday.

The crowd of around 3,500 enjoyed the smoothly run show and let it be known by their enthusiasm which had to be restrained at times. Most of the races were so close that the fans even those who didn't know too much about swimming, found themselves picking a favorite and trying to yell him or her in.

Winn Three Events

So stern was the competition of national and state record holders that the Negroes found themselves limited to places in just three events.

Toby Robinson, swimming in just about the fastest company he was ever in, got a fourth in the men's 50-meter free style.

Alfrances Lyman, a comely miss from Wabash Y of Chicago, came up with a pair of seconds in the girls and women's fifty-meter free style. In the girls' event Miss Lyman was faced with a record-breaking performance by the defending champion, Ann Cooper of Cedar Rapids.

Among the marks broken was the 100-meter free style set by John F. Hartly of 1211 1/2 Huton street.

boys' 50-meter free style set by Toby Robinson last year. It was tipped by a lad named McCullen who swam for Clinton. Another standard went by the boards when the Ames relay team dusted the mark set by the Olympian but in the 200-meter relay.

Russ Thomas of Ames took the 100-meter free style mark and Dick Lake of Clinton got the breast stroke mark. The back stroke time was lowered by Merrell Hodges of Omaha and the Cooper girl beat her own mark in the 50-meter free style for women.

The Olympian club lost its team title in the men's division to Clinton, but the races were so close and exciting and the meet so smoothly run that nobody thought much about it. Certainly the host club was too busy doing what a host is supposed

An Amos 'n Andy Play On Broadway? ? ?

New York, N. Y. —(CNS)—Not being the slightest bit perturbed by the NAACP protest of the television Amos 'n' Andy show, veteran theatrical producer, George Abbott, is going ahead with negotiations with Columbia Broadcasting System for clearance on rights to produce an Amos 'n' Andy Musical Comedy on Broadway. Since CBS owns rights on Amos 'n' Andy, it is necessary to clear with the radio station before proceeding with the idea.

Meanwhile, Mr. Abbott, who has two successful shows on Broadway at the moment in "Call Me Madam," starring Ethel Merman and "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn," is talking cautiously about his future musical. He will say that he expects Amos 'n' Andy to be ready for the 1952-53 season with him supplying the words. A source at CBS says that Irving Berlin is interested in providing the songs and that Columbia might finance the whole thing. Moreover, more principles than Mr. Abbott are interested in a Broadway Amos 'n' Andy and are talking to Columbia on the subject.
