Gives Word

Washington, D. C.—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower Monday gave his public blessing to the Republican presidential activities on his behalf.

He announced, in effect, that he would accept the nomination, but that his duties in Europe would prevent him from campaigning for it.

Eisenhower supporters jubilantly heralded the general's statement as assuring his nomination and election.

Sioux City Mother, Active In Civil Rights Cases, to File Suit for False Arrest

Sioux City, Ia.—A civil suit charging false arrest was scheduled to be filed this week by Mrs. Monroe Simmons, a Negro mother who has been active in recent cases dealing with the rights of Negro citizens in Sioux City.

Mrs. Simmons, 1623 East 9th street, said she answered her door, Monday morning, December 17, and found herself face-to-face with Detective Tony Bucchino. He invited Mrs. Simmons to go with him to the police station in his car to answer a few questions.

Because of her activity in matters of civil rights, Mrs. Simmons thought the questions concerned one of several cases in which she is personally interested.

Mrs. Simmons said she had no idea she, personally, was under arrest until the desk sergeant looked up and asked Detective Bucchino where the arrest was made. Mrs. Simmons said the detective tried to calm her by claiming that he had received several complaints that she had been seen in South Bottoms practicing prostitution.

Made Protest

Mrs. Simmons alleged that she was escorted, under protest, upstairs to be fingerprinted and photographed. While there, she charged, that both police and plainclothesmen attempted to humiliate and insult her by making fun of her plight in a phony southern drawl and calling her "Susie."

According to Mrs. Simmons, she was sent down stairs where Detective Bucchino told her not to say anything about the incident because he and the other arresting officer "were willing to forget about it."

'Didn't Forget'

I went home all right, but I didn't forget," Mrs. Simmons, indignantly declared. "I got on the phone and called every friend in and out of Sioux City. I also told my troubles to the Anti-Discrimination Committee of the three United Packinghouse Workers, CIO which was the first to move in my behalf."

Mrs. Simmons related that a two women Negro and white, went to the police station December 19 and succeeded in seeing what she was charged with in the written record. The record read, "For Investigation"—not prostitution as Detective Tony Bucchino had claimed, Mrs. Simmons related.

Sent out Handbills

The Anti-Discrimination Committee of the CIO met, prepared and distributed thousands of handbills over the city to make public what had happened to this Negro mother of five sons and two daughters.

The same committee sent a delegation of eight union members to the Commissioner of Public Safety, who is responsible for the police department. It is reported that he was

Georgia's Gov. Talmadge Says TV Show Violating South's Segregation Laws

Atlanta, Ga.—Gov. Eugene Talmadge charged Saturday that several national television shows are violating the spirit of the south's segregation laws.

Writing in his political newspaper, the Statesman, Talmadge singled out the Arthur Godfrey, Ken Murray and Clifton Fadiman shows for criticism.

Assails Taste

He said that "we are speaking of a complete abolition of segregation customs in these shows which are beamed to states of the south and which, to say the least, are not presented in the good taste and good showmanship that should govern the production of such offerings."

The governor mentioned "The Marriners," a quartet composed of two white and two Negro men frequently are seen mixed up in the dancing ensembles in juxtaposition to scantily clad white females.

Talmadge wrote that the Ken Murray Christmas show presented white and Negro children together in a group dance and in a Fadiman show "a Negro performer was brought into close conversation with a white woman stage star and they exchanged badinage on a purely social, equal basis."

Banned in South

Talmadge said if those shows were brought south to appear on the stage, they would be prohibited by law.

Talmadge suggested that action should be taken to arouse the resentment of the southern members of Congress.

Talmadge said he was not seeking any discrimination or unfairness toward Negro performers.

All three stars singled out by Talmadge appear on Columbia Broadcasting system shows.

Talmadge said he was not seeking any discrimination or unfairness toward Negro performers.

All three stars singled out by Talmadge appear on Columbia Broadcasting system shows.

A CBS spokesman said CBS chooses its performers on the basis of ability and not on color or creed.

Denies Charges

He flatly denied that any "scantily clad" females appeared with "The Marriners" or on any other CBS show. He said CBS did not permit scanty costumes.

"The Marriners" have appeared on the Godfrey show for four or five years.

"We never have exploited the fact that two of the singers are white and two are Negroes," he said. "They simply comprised the best quartet Godfrey could find."

Reached by telephone at Miami Beach, Geogfrey said: "I'm sorry for his excellency, Governor Talmadge, but as long as I'm on the show The Marriners are going to stay with me."

Served During War

"The Marriners served together on a Coast Guard ship during the war," he continued. "That's where I found them. We also have some colored boys fighting in Korea. I wonder if the governor knows that?"

"It's a pretty tough place where human beings can't sing together," he said. "In such a place liberty is going to collapse."

"I'm sorry about the governor's segregation laws. I don't know why he wants to separate one human being from another human being. It just don't make sense."

Des Moines Branch Makes Protest; to Hold Mass Meeting

A public meeting, a memorial for Harry T. Moore, Florida NAACP secretary who was killed when his home was bombed, will be held here Sunday, Jan. 20, 3 p.m., at Corinthian Baptist church, Ninth and School streets, sponsored by the Des Moines NAACP branch.

A resolution protesting the Christmas night bombing of Moore and his wife, adopted at a meeting of the executive board of the Des Moines branch Thursday, Jan. 3, at St. Paul AME church.

The NAACP branch sent telegrams to President Truman and Atty. Gen. J. Howard McGrath asking that federal authorities track down and prosecute the offenders in the Florida bombing," William Bell, president, said.

A copy of the telegrams read: "Des Moines branch, NAACP, joins with other lovers of law and order in urging you to take the necessary steps to restore law and order in Florida where the authorities seem powerless to do."

"The untimely and dastardly murders of Harry Moore and his wife are a disgrace on American democracy and the perpetrators of same should be punished to the full extent of the law."

Godfrey also emphasized that there "are not any scantily clad females on my show. I've got children of my own. They watch the show. I make sure it's the right things for them to see."

Threat From 'KKK'

Little Rock, Ark.—A Negro attorney backing federal court suits which ask the end of segregation in Arkansas public schools has received a letter signed by the initials "KKK" telling him to "get out of Arkansas by Feb. 1." The attorney, Harold Flowers of Pine Bluff, Ark., says he has turned the letter over to the FBI "for action if they deem it necessary."

Services were held Tuesday at St. Paul AME church for Mrs. Frankie Wood, 86, of 1023 Tenth street, who died Friday, Jan. 4, at Iowa Methodist hospital after an illness of five weeks. Burial was in Laurel Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Wood, a retired bondsman, was born at Batesville, Ark., and had lived in Des Moines 28 years. She was a member and deaconess of St. Paul AME church and belonged to the Princess Zora chapter No. 10, Order of Eastern Star.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Katye White of Des Moines; two sons, David and John, both of Des Moines, and one sister, Mrs. Nora Quails of Newport, Ark.

Hodge Jones Shot

Hodge Jones, 844 13th street, was sent to Broadlawn General hospital with a bullet wound of the head received Wednesday in a shooting at the Sepia club, Tenth and Center streets.

Held by the police for investigation in connection with the shooting was Mrs. Melrose Scott, 778 Tenth street.

Charges Slayer Is Assassin Of Democratic Ideals; 'No Racial Group Is Safe'

New York.—"Speaking for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and for millions of white and Negro citizens who are outraged" by the bomb-slaying of Harry T. Moore on Christmas night, Arthur B. Spingarn, president, and Dr. Louis T. Wright, chairman of the board of directors, have called upon President Truman "to invoke all the powers of the federal government to the end that Harry T. Moore may vindicate in death those principles and practices he sought in life."

In a strongly worded letter, made public Jan. 3, the NAACP officers reviewed the events leading to the assassination of the Florida leader of the organization, who had crusaded for civil rights, for expansion of the Negro vote, and for prosecution of Sheriff Willis McCall of Lake County for the slaying of Samuel Shepherd. The letter, dated December 27, said that this "wanton, cowardly murder... has shocked and horrified America because he (Moore) was guilty of no crime against society, of no behavior that begets violence, and of no beliefs contrary to the proud principles of the American heritage."

All Men Equal

Mr. Moore, the President was informed, "believed in the American Declaration of Independence which declares all men are created equal. He believed in the Constitution of the United States which declares for equality before the law and against inequalities based upon race, color or previous condition of servitude. He believed especially in that part of the Constitution which provides that no man may be deprived of life, liberty or property except by the due process of law."

The slayer, the NAACP officials charged, "is the assassin of the democratic ideal. No man or group of any kind, complexion or size in our nation may proceed with safety on the business of democratic living if bombs, and terror, and murder in the night are to be permitted to supplant the Constitution and the laws of free America."

"No labor union is secure. No religious body has an asylum. No racial group is safe. No person who hates prejudice and bigotry and seeks to wipe it out by lawful means is

Wife of Bomb Murdered NAACP Leader Succumbs Following Husband's Rites

Sanford, Fla.—Mrs. Harriett Moore, 49, died here late Thursday, becoming the second victim of the Mims Christmas night bombing which took the life of Harry T. Moore, Negro leader.

Dr. George H. Starke said her death was caused by a blood clot. Starke said she had been improving steadily until she left the hospital against his advice to view her husband's body at the Burton funeral home here.

Moore was buried in Mims, about a mile and a half from his bombed home, Tuesday. About 500 persons attended his funeral including a 16-man delegation of the Civil Rights Congress from New York and Philadelphia.

Relapse

Doctors gave Mrs. Moore about a 50-50 chance to live shortly after the bombing. Dr. Starke said she had suffered a relapse Wednesday, after her husband's funeral, but appeared to be recovering.

She died without making a statement to officials on the bombing.

Hubert E. Griggs, assistant state attorney, and J. J. Elliott, special investigator for Gov. Fuller Warren, had tried to get her story of the bombing.

Survivors are her mother, who was at the bedside when she died; and two daughters, Rosalea and Evangeline.

Night of Bombing

Rosalea was in another bedroom in the Moore home the night of the bombing but was uninjured. The family has postponed a reunion celebration until arrival of Evangeline the following day.

Moore, 46, was Florida secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Both he and his wife were school teachers.

Mrs. Moore was born in West Palm (See Page TWO)

600 Attend Rites Of NAACP Man, 'A True Martyr'

Mims, Fla.—With local and state officials of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People among the 600 Negro and white persons in attendance, funeral services for Harry T. Moore were held on New Year's Day.

Mr. Moore, a leader of the NAACP in Florida and a consistent crusader for civil rights, was killed by an assassin's bomb on Christmas night in an explosion which seriously injured his wife and wrecked his home. In death he was honored by the members of the organization for which he had been a leading spokesman in the fight for human rights in Florida. Mrs. Moore, confined to a hospital bed by her injuries, could not attend.

Names Three Suspects

Walter White, NAACP executive secretary, who flew to Florida immediately following the murder for an on-the-spot investigation, was unable to be present at the funeral. His investigation turned up the names of three suspects which he handed over to the FBI. A message from Mr. White read at the funeral charged that "those who committed this foul deed and those who in official or private capacity fail to do their utmost to punish the perpetrators of this crime and to prevent its repetition are rendering communism invaluable assistance in undermining democracy."

Mr. Moore, the NAACP executive said, "is as true a martyr to the fight for a world free from dictatorship as any soldier who has died on the battlefields of Korea. We mourn with you and the family his tragic death. Over his fallen body let us rededicate ourselves to the principles of human freedom for which he lived and in whose service he died."

Florida KKK Head Says His Order Has Nothing to Do With Death of Harry Moore

Woodville.—Robed and hooded Ku Klux Klansmen held a meeting here last Saturday night, complete with a 15-foot fire cross, and bitterly criticized those who would lay the South Florida bombing outbreak at their door.

Florida Grand Dragon Bill Hendrix of Tallahassee, wearing blue robes of office with a red cross on his breast, said the Klan had nothing to do with the death of Harry T. Moore, Negro leader who died when his home at Mims was bombed Christmas night.

The demonstration opened with igniting of the towering cross as robed and masked women members of the Klan sang The Old Rugged Cross. Several hundred onlookers stood in an open field or sat in their parked cars to watch the proceedings.

The meeting was held on private property to comply with a state law prohibiting public masking and cross burning.

Though the public was invited to "come and hear the truth," there was some muttering when a photographer showed up to take pictures. One burly Klansman threatened to "take that camera away from you."

Negro Vet's Burial Blocked 5 Weeks by Cemetery Rule

Phoenix, Ariz.—The body of a Negro soldier, killed in action in Korea, has been held in a Phoenix mortuary for five weeks awaiting clearance for burial in a veteran's plot, it was learned Saturday.

The soldier is Pfc. Thomas C. Reed, 19, who lost his life in front line fighting.

H. W. Ragsdale, co-manager of the mortuary, said he received the body Nov. 28, but has not been able to obtain a grave site in the veteran's plot in Greenwood Memorial park.

Negro veterans have been buried there in the past, but only after three notarized letters of request from local veterans organizations have been received.

The body's father, George E. Reed, said he would like to have his son buried in a Negro cemetery, but he thinks he should have to ask for clearance.

A movement has been under way in Phoenix since September to remove the present restrictions. The Veterans of Foreign Wars and Disabled American Veterans posts have written letters to the cemetery board asking that in the future all Negro veterans be buried simply on the request of next of kin.

"There is no discrimination against the Negro race out there," a cemetery spokesman said. "We have got a place for all races and creeds. The soil is the same in one part as it is in another."

The cemetery is a private corporation owned by Arizona Lodge No. 2 Free and Accepted Masons.

Mince-meat Waffles

For a delightful mince-meat dessert, spread mince-meat between crisp golden waffles and top with caramel sauce.

Mince-meat waffles are a new mince-meat treat to take a favored place among desserts along with mince-meat pie. The crisp golden waffles, made with enriched flour, are perfect to carry the rich mince-meat flavor. Because of their protein, B-vitamins, and iron enriched waffles may be served as luncheon or supper main dish.

Your friends will praise such a delectable and original dessert as mince-meat waffles, yet they can be an emergency sweet when the party is dessert-shy and unexpected callers arrive. Cut the double-deck mince-meat waffles in quarters to serve four, topping each serving with hot rum-caramel or orange sauce.

Serve waffles occasionally as the substantial dessert to end a light meal. An interesting luncheon might include a winter pear and cream cheese salad, mince-meat waffles and coffee.

Cuba Leads in Importing Lard from the United States

United States exports of lard to Cuba in 1949 accounted for 21 per cent of the total lard exported from this country, although the value amounted to only $16,500,000, which was $5,300,000, or 24 per cent less than the 1947 sales of $21,800,000. Shipments of United States lard to Cuba have been larger than those to any other country in each of the last three years, 1947, 1948 and 1949. Cuba imports about 95 per cent of its lard requirements and, during the period 1939-1948, about 95 per cent of these imports came from the United States. In addition to providing an outstanding market for lard, Cubans are also important purchasers of other pork products from the United States. Exports of pork to Cuba in 1949 included 3,300,000 pounds of cured hams and shoulders, 8,100,000 pounds of bacon, 2,500,000 pounds of pickled and salted pork and 1,100,000 pounds of canned pork. A larger quantity of cured ham and shoulders and of bacon were sold to Cuba than to any other nation in 1949, while shipments of pickled and salted pork and of canned pork to Cuba were exceeded in each case by those to only two other nations. Cuban purchases of lard and pork are an important factor affecting the income of farmers and meat packers in the principal hog-growing states of Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Minnesota and Ohio.

Drake Honored

The Chicago Defender, one of the nations oldest Negro newspaper, has named Drake university to its 1951 Honor Roll of Democracy, announced Wednesday and containing 10 individuals and five institutions. The tenth annual honor roll lists persons or institutions "which weave a strong pattern of human rights into the fabric of American progress."

Drake university was cited "for withdrawing from the 1949-50 conference because of the given football star Johnny Briggs, who was injured in the game with Oklahoma A. and M."

New Notes in Cooking

Quick and easy, hearty and substantial too, are dumplings made quick-as-a-wink with packaged biscuit mix and dropped into canned chicken soup, brought to the boiling point. Cover tightly and steam about 15 minutes.

For the maximum in chicken flavor, sprinkle Ac'cent (pure monosodium glutamate) inside the bird before stuffing, and use a little in the bread stuffing itself. It brings out those wonderful chicken flavors.

Spanish as a serape in chicken, cut in pieces and browned first, then slow-baked with rice, canned tomatoes, green peppers and minced garlic.

Leftover cooked chicken, not enough to make another meal, stretches to six good servings when made into a baked chicken loaf. Any once-cooked meat regains its full, natural flavor when pure monosodium glutamate is used in its second preparation.

Try a curried "baste" for a roast stuffed chicken. Combine 1/4 cup melted butter or margarine, 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 to 2 teaspoons curry powder. Brush over chicken and use to baste once or twice during the roasting.

Life Insurance Premiums About 3.0 Per Cent Incomes

While American families are expected to put a record $7,500,000,000 into life insurance and annuity premiums this year, the indications are, because of sharply rising national income, that this may prove to be the smallest portion of income used for this type of protection in several years.

Last year, according to the Institute of Life Insurance, the life

Bethel's New Pastor

Recently appointed pastor of Bethel AME church, 1524 E. University avenue, is the Rev. Cecil Edward Duke, who came to Des Moines last month from Davenport, Ia., where he served 15 months at the AME church there.

Succeeding the Rev. John I. Thomas, who was sent to Davenport, the Rev. Mr. Duke is native of Indianapolis, Ind., where he graduated from Crispus Attucks High school.

He was educated at De Pau university, Greencastle, Ind., where he insurance and annuity premiums paid to all U. S. life companies totaled $7,083,000,000, which was 3.0 per cent of national income. But with national income rising sharply this year, even the greater 1951 aggregate of premiums may come to a still smaller proportion of national income.

For the past several years, the ratio of premiums to national income has ranged between 2.9 per cent and 3.2 per cent. Back in the Thirties the ratio fluctuated between 4 per cent and 9 per cent.

"The seven billion dollars total of premiums paid for life insurance and annuities in 1950 is actually a very small part of the national income to be used for basic family protection," the institute commented. "It is an average of only about $85 per policyholder and only about $160 per family."

"These premiums carried some $234,000,000,000 of life insurance and more than 3,500,000 annuities, and yet the average life insurance per family is only $5,100. Great as has been the progress of the families of this country in expanding their financial security through life insurance from an average of $3,300 in 1940, there is much room for further increase, if adequate protection is to be set up on a widespread basis."

World Census

The returns are in on the biggest clerical job ever undertaken, the world's census. The United Nations Demographic Yearbook for 1949-50—which estimates the overall figure at nearly 2,400,000,000—is a reminder of the tremendous modern progress which has been made in the counting of Old Mother Earth's children. Census taking of one sort or another has been going on for literally thousands of years, notes the National Geographic Society. But the current project of the U.N. Population Commission is the first internationally sponsored attempt to cover the globe. Even its figures are not expected to be complete, of course. A few nations, including Russia, are not fully cooperating, and the geographic isolation of certain regions, as well as the resistance of primitive and suspicious peoples offer many problems. Some of the data have come from countries previously reported only sketchily. By the end of 1951, U.N. experts predict, at least three-quarters of the world's population will have been officially recorded. According to the now available U.N. statistics, more than a billion and a quarter people live in Asia. This figure is more than twice that for Europe and nearly four times the number of inhabitants of the Western Hemisphere.

Collector's Corner

During the course of a year approximately two million people, from every part of the country, visit the Smithsonian Institution in Washington. Thousands of these are stamp collectors, many unaffiliated insofar as stamp clubs are concerned. As a service to these collectors, and as a means of cooperation with stamp groups, the Division of Philately of the Smithsonian Institution has requested that stamp clubs forward their name, meeting place, dates, and officers. According to Franklin R. Burns, Jr., curator of the National stamp collection, this list will be available at all times and will be kept up to date.

Harlem's Saint Phillips Episcopal Church Largest

(From Time Magazine, Jan. 7 Issue)
New York.—Membership in the Protestant Episcopal Church is up 4% over last year to 2,643,488, reported the official Living Church Annual last week. Added the Annual, matter-of-factly: the biggest of the denomination's 7,851 congregations in now St. Philip's, in Manhattan's Harlem.*

St. Philip's is a large, solid-looking brick church which stands, jammed close between neighboring houses, on the edge of a slum neighborhood. All but a handful of its 3,707 members are Negroes, about 60% of British West Indies (and thus Anglican) stock. There is nothing dramatic about St. Philip's rise to first place; its growth has been solid and steady under the rectorship of the Rev. Shelton Hale Bishop.

Acolyte & Rector
Shelton Bishop's father became rector of St. Philip's in 1886, two years before Shelton was born, and as a boy he always wanted to follow in his father's steps. "I've never wanted to be anything but a priest," he says. "I've known that ever since I've known anything. At seven I began as an acolyte, a server at the altar, and I've been there ever since."

After Columbia College and General Theological Seminary, he served churches in Chicago and Pittsburgh, then went back to St. Philip's as his father's curate in 1923. He became rector when his father retired 18 spent a year on Rector's scholarship; Wilberforce (Ohio) university where he received his Bachelor of Arts degree; Payne Theological Seminary at Wilberforce which granted him a Bachelor of Divinity degree. He began work on Master's degree at Chicago University's Divinity School.

From 1946 to 1947, the Rev. Mr. Duke served as pastor pro-tem at Grant Memorial AME church with a membership of 4,000, in Chicago. Later he was in evangelistic work in Philadelphia, Pa., and in 1950 he went to the Davenport's Bethel AME church which he paid out of debt.

Mrs. Duke, the former Mabel Rhim of Indianapolis, Ind., attended Indiana university.

The Dukes have two children, a son, Jonathan Edward, 2, and Benjamin Wallace, a little over a month old, born on Dec. 2. Mrs. Alice Duke, mother of the Rev. Mr. Duke, resides here with them.

Gives Annual Party

Rev. J. E. Tunstall, pastor of Burns Methodist Church, gave his fourth annual Christmas party for his membership Sunday evening, Dec. 30.

Opening with prayer by the pastor, guest speakers were Dean C. Faulkner of Kansas City, Mo., and Rev. H. F. Coleman, professor of English at Wiley college, Marshall, Texas. Rev. Faulkner stressed the fact that "it was for Christians to love, live in unity, harmony and to fellowship together." Rev. Coleman stated that "the folks of Burns should appreciate a pastor of such a progressive mind that brings such a party." He called it a "progressive Christian idea."

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rasmussen and Mrs. C. Faulkner were introduced. Souvenirs of sacred wall pictures and religious books signed by the pastor were given.

The audience sang Christmas carols led by Mrs. Elaine Peavy and all retired to the dining room for the refreshments served by the pastor and assisted by Mrs. Tunstall, Viola Bell, Linda and Sheila Dixon. During the repast Mrs. Vivian Parker of Chicago, Ill., rendered piano music.

Find New Way to Assure Proper Digestion in Calves

Discovery of a strong link between milk-gulping and calf scours may give dairymen the best and simplest means yet found for preventing this troublesome disorder, the American Veterinary Medical association has announced. A report issued by the AVMA, based on observations of Australian veterinarians, explains why nursing calves seldom develop white scours, while those which are pail-fed often get it. Key to the problem is believed to lie in the fact that calves fed from pails can gulp down a full feeding of milk in a minute or two. As a result, not enough saliva is mixed with the milk to permit easy digestion. The milk forms into a hard, tough curd that is not digested before the next feeding, and white scours soon follows. In contrast, calves that are nursing on cows get their milk at a slower rate, so that it becomes mixed with 10 to 15 per cent of saliva. This, in turn, produces a light, frothy, easily digested curd that will not cause an intestinal upset. Lending extra weight to this explanation was the fact that calves nursing on hard milkers rarely got scours, while those on cows that milked freely and leaked milk were highly susceptible.

Tea and Cake

Fluffy white cake is a dessert to be enjoyed the year around, with a variety of fillings and frostings. Try it with two-tone trim of chocolate and white fluffy frosting.

The family has a special appreciation for the cakes Mother makes, whether served warm from the oven with fruit, or prettily frosted and filled.

Because today's white cake recipe uses only two eggs and has thrifty enriched flour as the main ingredient, it is one you'll want to make over and over again. Always sift flour before measuring to get an accurate result. Have shortening at room temperature so that it will cream easily with the sugar. Let eggs stand at room temperature, too, because they will beat up fluffier than when taken directly out of the refrigerator.

Paper-lined pans insure easy removal of the baked cake. After taking layers from pans, cool thoroughly on wire cake racks before frosting. To make the two-tone frosting, divide fluffy double boiler "seven-minute" icing in half. To one part add one square of melted chocolate. Fill cake layers with chocolate icing, then ice sides with more of the chocolate. Spread top of cake carefully with white icing, and decorate as desired.

WHITE CAKE

2 cups sifted enriched flour 1 cup sugar
3 tablespoons baking powder 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 teaspoon salt 2 eggs
1/2 cup shortening 1/4 cup milk

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cream together shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add vanilla extract. Beat eggs until light. Add to creamed mixture. Add flour mixture to creamed mixture. Pour into 2 paper-lined 8-inch cake pans. Bake in moderate oven (375°) 25 minutes. Makes 2 8-inch layers.

Stage Being Set to Give Walter Winchill Lambasting

New York.—(CNS)—The stage is being set gradually but surely to give veteran name calling Walter Winchill at least a taste of the lambasting he gave star, Josephine Baker. There is developing an anti-Winchill camp, composed of equally influential columnists and newspapermen and they are daring to bring forth the facts on Mr. Winchill as have never before been printed.

One of the first to come forth was Columnist Leonard Lyons, of the New York Post, liberal New York newspaper. (Lyons was incidentally the first to side with Miss Baker in her denunciation of the Stork Club for the way it treated her on October 16th. Lyons immediately stated he would eat elsewhere as Sardi's) Lyons resigned his job of Vice President of the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund, the Winchill pet charity and made it plain that he was tired of Winchill's attacks on people.

Not The First

Seems that Josephine Baker is by no means the first Winchill has attacked with distortion of facts. He insinuated in his column that President Truman was tipsy when he wrote his insulting letter to the Washington Post's music critic, Paul Hume. "I knew this was untrue," said Lyons, "because I lunched with the President a few hours after he wrote the letter and I know personally that he had not been drinking."

Then last week, columnist, Ed Sullivan of the New York Daily News, let it be known how long he has feuded with Walter Winchill though his paper would never print it, feeling it was publicity for Winchill. In a radio program on N. Y.'s WMCA, Sullivan cried out: "I despise Walter Winchill for what he has done to Josephine Baker. Long before Senator McCarthy came into the character assassination racket, Winchill was one of the originators. This small-time vaudeville hooper who never got to the Palace . . . has developed into a small time Hitler."

Ill Informed

Sullivan pointed out that Winchill "has the audacity to give out sage opinions on foreign policy," has never set foot in any European country, "never even crossed the ocean. A dangerously ill-informed man of tremendous egotism and great power unaccompanied by greatness or nobility of thinking."

Now this week powerful Time Magazine, which has reported extremely fairly in the Josephine Baker incident, tells more gossip on the Winchill fauxpas. Close behind Time Magazine, is a series of feature stories in the N. Y. Post, which promise to reveal the whole truth and nothing but the truth and it will be none to pretty for Winchill. The Post is doing a tremendous advertising and promotion on its series beforehand.

A Hollywood Interview With James Edwards: Actor Turns To Writing; Television Script Ready

Hollywood, California.—(CNS)—Not having seen the No. 1 Boy, James Edwards for nearly two years, we were especially anxious to know all about his new project, namely, James Edwards—writer.

We found him (minus the usual flock of fluttering females) in a tiny house adjoining his aunt's. Cozy and neat, it looked the ideal place to work. Charming and as natural as ever, Jimmy wore conservative tan slacks, loafers, and a white shirt rolled up at the sleeves for action. As usual we were in awe of his handsomeness and good looks, and thought it a pity few knew how serious he is and how intent he is upon using his intelligence and talent to the utmost.

And now comes the surprising part. We knew James Edwards as a successful teacher, as a pretty good singer, and as a superb actor and star of such flickers as STEEL HELMENT, BRIGHT VICTORY besides the classic HOME OF THE BRAVE. But James Edwards—Writer? That we had out doubts. Until we read his new television script. Called NO OTHER WAY, it is a tale of a psychological killer. And all we can say here, it held us spellbound. For it is an excellent piece of writing and will hold anyone breathless. You will be hearing or seeing it soon, so we don't dare tell you the story.

Fascinating Jimmy went on to tell us that though acting will always be his first love, he finds writing fascinating. It gives him the opportunity to work with his hobby—people. He is also Ralph Spencer, Rock Island, Ill., who is the guest of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Spencer.

Visiting around Iowa by Joe Marsh Ottumwa's "Wagon Bridge" You probably never heard of Ottumwa's famous "wagon bridge" . . . but it was quite a sensation back in 1860. That was the time of the Lincoln-Douglas debates. Ottumwa planned a big rally. But there was no bridge across the river. So the settlers lined up their wagons, end for end, made a bridge 800 feet long . . . and solved their rally problem. That kind of cooperation was typical of pioneer Iowa, and it's typical of our greatness today. Here were people from many lands . . . all with their own tastes and customs. But each co-

PERSONAL TOUCH
★ By MARIE ROSS ★
Some people like to talk about making resolutions when the new year comes in—just as a custom. So, when veteran citizen L. A. Spencer of 1700 Garfield avenue, came into the office to pay his subscription, bright and early the first business day of '52, we asked him what he thought about resolutions for the new year and this is what he replied:
"When you live the very best you can, what is the use to make any resolution?"
He waited for an answer but in agreement, I bowed my head, and he continued:
"I try to treat everybody right. If there is anymore I can do to better conditions, I will do so."
Mr. Spencer says he spends most of his time reading religious literature and "gets ideas to do better" from his books. He said he had worn out many Bibles reading them until they were "shipwrecked" and he had to get new ones.
Dr. Stanley Griffin, 1108 Third street, was "crowing" proudly this week over his infant son, Stanley Edward, who will be two months old on Jan. 13. For several years his friends kidded him about being the only male in his home where his wife and two daughters reigned. A friend even sent him a male puppy, the doctor said. But now, the score is tied.
Mrs. Griffin commented that during the Christmas season, their son paid no attention to the lights on the yuletide tree. He was more interest-

YES MEN NOT DESIRABLE ANYTIME

It happens all too often that Negroes who find themselves in high places feel called upon to act as "yes men" when to do otherwise would enhance their standing materially.

It has happened all too often that in our dealing with Russia, we have not faced up on our shortcomings falling in the same trap we have chided them about.

In the January issue of the Crisis, official organ of the NAACP, the editor cites the fact that Mr. Vishinski chided America at the UN conference in Paris about the outrageous offense against minorities in Florida stating that America was not a democracy in practice as in talk.

Our own Negro delegates, Channing Tobias and Edith Sampson attempted to answer by citing the mistreatment by Russia of some of its people which they claim was equally as bad as that of Florida.

It is quite surprising that these two outstanding Negroes would fall in such a trap. Maybe Russia is mistreating some of its citizens. But it is no answer for the outrages that are being committed against minority groups in the country but a typical kettle calling the pot black.

The argument of our Negro delegates was seconded by a Canadian delegate which made the situation even worse.

Of course, America has a better government than Russia. But at times it seems powerless to maintain good government and until this is done, it will continue to be difficult to show the people of Asia and the far east that there is much choice between democracy and Communism. And the only reason we make any headway at all is the lavish manner in which we have poured money out in an effort to buy friendship.

WHY SO QUIET

It is generally admitted that the reign of terror in Florida is one of the worst this country has experienced. Here is found the most vicious effort to bludgeon a group into silence and complacency about their rights than can be recalled.

And for some reason but few have spoken boldly against it. There the homes of Negroes, Jews, and Catholics have been bombed. The governor, who demonstrated during the recent senate crime investigation that he places little value on clean government, does as little as he can, while organizations, working in the field of human relations, are conspicuously silent. Even some of our crusading newspapers have been quiet about the matter.

The Bystander hopes that the stay in Florida during cold Northern winters has not so indoctrinated those who have been able to take these trips, has not taught them to turn their heads and put their fingers in their ears when things like this occur.

Surely these things make it pretty hard for Secretary of State Acheson and delegate Warren Austin to face the darker races at UN council and tell them what a great thing democracy is. So in order to at least permit them to save a part of their faces, the executive branch of our government should speak out and do something about them. And the good people, the Bystander feels, will back them up.

GENERAL EISENHOWER AVAILABLE FOR PUBLIC OFFICE

At last, General Eisenhower has let the American people in on his future with respect to his willingness to run for public office. His followers are free to go ahead and work to secure his nomination for president on the Republican ticket.

While the general is exceedingly popular as a military man and his views on that subject are well known, what he thinks about foreign and domestic issues is not generally known. Thus, while still a member of the armed service, his backers must make the general's position clear so the party and the people will not be buying a pig in the bag.

The Bystander stands in the position of many people who admire the general as a soldier but feels that no commitments should be made upon the meager information about him available at this time.

At least there is a wealth of material to go before the convention in Chicago.

arrogant and on the defensive.

There are many citizens in Sioux City, especially in the Negro Community, who believe this incident is an attempt on the part of the police to intimidate and silence Mrs. Simmons who has actively been working to stop what she called the "high-handed methods of the police department for three years."

Mrs. Simmons has never given up the search for proof of the innocence of Terry Lee Sims, a young Negro, sentenced to forty years in prison on a charge of rape in 1948. Mrs. Simmons was instrumental in the exposure of the mysterious death of a Negro man in the city jail. His body was sold and shipped to Still College in Des Moines. Mrs. Simmons thwarted the efforts of the police to force one of four Negro youth, charged with rape, to become a witness for the state and testify against his friends.

Mrs. Simmons has secured the services of a lawyer, Ward Hower, who will represent her in a civil suit on the charges of false arrest. The suit was scheduled to be filed this week.

Mrs. Edna Griffin of Des Moines who worked with the supporters of Terry Lee Sims, has made several trips to Sioux City in the interest of getting legal help for Mrs. Simmons.

Calvin's Digest

By L. BAYNARD WHITNEY DON'T TAKE THIS:

Death of Harry T. Moore, prominent Florida NAACP official, and the probably fatal injury to his wife, Harriet, in the bombing of their home, was the shameful climax to ten dynamitings of homes and churches of Negroes, Catholics and Jews in the hate-state of Florida.

Negroes hardly need to told: Don't Take This Lying Down!

These dastardly acts have occurred not alone in the South, but in different parts of the country, as seen in the burning down of a veteran's home in Redwood City, California and the mob-set fire in Cicero, Illinois.

The attack on Moore's home, following his intensive efforts to bring to justice Sheriff Willis McCall, who murdered a handcuffed prisoner in Groveland, Florida "rape" case, was perpetrated in the foul depths of typical Southern cowardice. Like the Klan that parades under a filthy sheet to hide its identity, the dirty dynamiters strike in the dark and run like hell!

Ignorant Southern sheriffs and their lantern-jawed deputies have for years beaten, maimed, blinded and killed unarmed colored men and innocent women in their custody. McCall must be the last of his stinking tribe to get away with it!

The state of Florida must be held up to shame before the world, and Governor Fuller Warren must be FORCED TO ACT in the death of Moore, as well as in the case of Sheriff McCall!

The Groveland case, with its double murder, is NO LONGER a domestic issue. It offends Justice throughout the WORLD, and the sending of a thousand Negroes abroad to tell other nations how well Democracy works is to NO avail.

Despite our furious indignation, Negroes must not be led blindly into race hatred themselves. The hope of America lies with both white and Negro progressives, liberals and workers for the full establishment of the democratic ideal—both races working TOGETHER to defeat the forces of hate and tolerance to make America truly the land of the Free.

Goldberg started his career at the age of 14 when he appeared with the Berlin Philharmonic, playing not one but three concertos on the program.

His career included concertmaster of the Berlin Philharmonic at the age of 20—youngest in its history; an international favorite at 25 and a prisoner of the Japanese at 33.

The Drake-Des Moines orchestra includes about 100 musicians from Des Moines and the surrounding communities. Conductor is Frank Noyes, head of the Drake violin department. Margaret Davis, assistant professor of violin at Drake, is concertmaster.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Gout

There are quite a few people whose New Year's resolutions at this time include a vow against over-indulgence in rich food and liquor.

With the exception of gaining a few unwanted pounds, those who enjoy sound health probably enjoy the hearty eating of the current holidays without serious after-effects. But for many gout patients, holiday indulgence means severe attacks of pain associated with their illness.

Gout is a disease of the metabolism characterized by pain, swelling, or tenderness in some joint. While over-indulgence does not cause gout (the exact cause is unknown), the rich food and drink served on occasions like Christmas holidays bring on painful attacks for gout sufferers who yield to temptation.

Some think that gout is an illness of the past, a painful retribution once visited on old men who ate and drank to excess in youth and middle age. But many people in this country suffer from gout, and the number of its victims seems to be increasing. Some very young people have the disease, and the symptoms usually first appear among people 35 or a little over; rarely does gout strike for the first time in people over 60 or 70.

Gout upsets the body metabolism, or regular tissue changes involved in utilizing nourishment and excreting waste. Ordinarily, the body expels some of the worn-out cell matter by converting it to a chemical called uric acid which is excreted with urine. With gout patients, the uric acid accumulates instead in the blood and may be deposited in and around the joints, in certain cartilages or in some internal organs. As these abnormalities develop, the patient suffers acute attacks of pain from time to time.

The first attack of gout comes on suddenly, usually awakening its victim at night by a severe pain in one of the joints. The acute stage is over in about a week but the attack re-occurs, often about a year later, and involving a different joint. Attacks then become more frequent.

Gout is one of the oldest ailments in the history of medicine. It is still the painful and crippling condition that it always was, but today medical science believes it has in sight a cure for the ancient disease, perhaps one of the new drugs that are proving so promising in treating other ailments now.

Meanwhile, good medical care, including a prescribed diet and whatever medicines the doctor advises can give the gout patient much relief and help him ward off the acute, painful attacks. The person who suspects he has gout should see his doctor without delay to get the proper diagnosis and prompt treatment if his symptoms prove to be gout.

Pictures

There were two pictures in a recent issue of Life Magazine that we watched people get mixed reactions from. One was a page of Johnny Bright getting slugged in the Oklahoma A. & M. game. That, we people seemed to study long and hard. The other picture was that of Joe Louis knocked out against the ropes in his fight with Rocky Marciano. That one every one just turned by as if to avoid seeing it.

Personally, we can't see Marciano as champion in spite of the fact that he beat Louis. He gets hit too often and too hard to have too much of a chance with an old cutie like Champ Walcott and a boxer like Charles.

Local Sports

We looked at the Willkie House basketball league standings the other day. Can't see how some teams have played nearly twice as many games as others, but then we guess the fellows who run the league will bring things out all right in the end. At this writing, nobody has beaten the Hottentots. If John Bright gets back and plays with one of the better teams, he might help beat the league leaders.

WILL

The man that has the will to go, when every hope has died . . . To fight against the charging foe, when others turn aside . . . He is the one to whom we give, the heroes accolade. He has been proven, . . . tried and true, And earns all he is paid . . . His back may strain with a heavy load, but he always wears a smile. And he makes a go of any road, he'll fight each weary mile . . . He has a plan to reach the top, that plan he will fulfill. His stout heart never lets him stop, it's driven by his will . . . You'll say he'll do to take along, he's blest by all the Gods. —Glenn A. Gallagher.

FAITH IN THE NEW YEAR

Father Time, with his scythe, deceitful body and nervous hands Sauntered aimlessly away to an unknown land. He was making way for the New Year babe Who knew the turmoil the world had made. He was not at all like a child should be— Happy, gay and playful, but, conversely he Hobbled into a world laden with darkness and gloom. Where plans and desires seemed utterly doomed. But the optimists and historians begin to say Beneath it all there is a way To the fulfillment of dreams, hopes and plans— For love, happiness, contentment and peaceful lands. With courage, fortitude and unrestrained faith— We can safely see our way. Looking beyond the oppressive threatening clouds of fear We see shining rays brining peace near. The future for men is yet bright. For courage and faith are their guiding lights. Making them confident that this New year will bring— Answers to prayers and wishes and a world of good things. —Peter Hawthorne.

Campy Submits To Surgery on Elbow

New York—(CNS)—Superstitious as most ball players, Roy Campanella has had a hard time making up his mind to undergo surgery on his elbow. The winner of the Most Valuable Player Award of the '52 season just hates hospitals, operations and the like. But when X-rays showed that four bone chips were floating in the painful joint, Roy finally gave in and is allowing Dr. Herbert C. Fett Sr., to operate at Long Island College Hospital.

Campy has a lot of confidence in Dr. Fett, who's been the Dodgers' orthopedic specialist for the past few years. He treated Campy in mid summer after that famous beaming and thus got the spunky Dodger catcher back in the lineup in remarkable order. Dr. Fett also worked on Don Newcombe's arm last year.
