Hold Rites for Baby Burned Fatally; Mother in Hospital

Services were held at the L. Fowler and Son Funeral home Thursday afternoon for 13-month-old Byron Gaines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gaines, 3011 Amherst street. Mrs. Gaines, who is still confined to Iowa Lutheran hospital, was unable to attend.

A homemade steam inhalator that had boiled dry early Sunday morning, Oct. 26, was blamed. Dr. Walter Anderson, Polk County coroner, said the death of the child, in his flame-swept room, was accidental.

Suffering from a cold late Saturday night, the mother had placed an improvised steam-vapor unit in his room when he went to bed.

The "steamer" was rigged up from an electric percolator, and was placed under the child's wicker hamper, Dr. Anderson said.

"Evidently it boiled dry during the night and the heat ignited the hamper," Dr. Anderson explained.

The left side of the child's body was severely burned, he said.

Mrs. Gaines suffered burns about the face and arms when she attempted to rescue her son. She was reported in improved condition at the hospital this week.

The house was partially destroyed. Mrs. Charles Carl, a neighbor living at 3013 Amherst, said she saw Mrs. Gaines run from the house "screaming that she couldn't save her baby."

The fire also was discovered by Patrolman James O'Connell, who

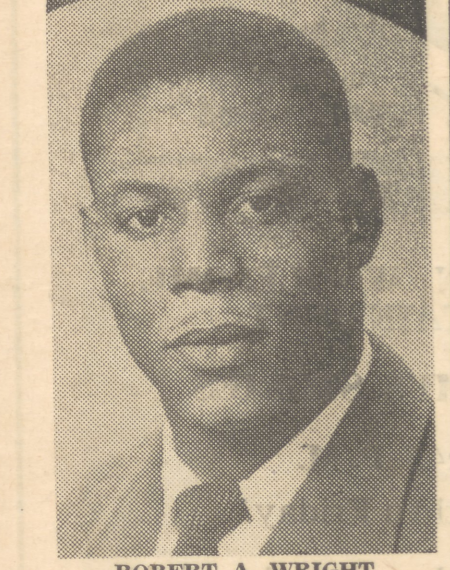

Actress Hattie McDaniels Dies

Hollywood, Cal.—Hattie McDaniels, the original "Beulah" of radio and television and the movies' outstanding Negro actress and Academy award winner died Sunday after being ill with cancer for more than a year.

Miss McDaniels, 57, who appeared in some 300 films, was known as "Beulah" on the radio and TV. Illness forced her to retire from the "Beulah" show more than a year ago.

She won her Academy award for playing the role of Scarlet O'Hara's mammy in "Gone With the Wind."

Law Fraternity Pledge

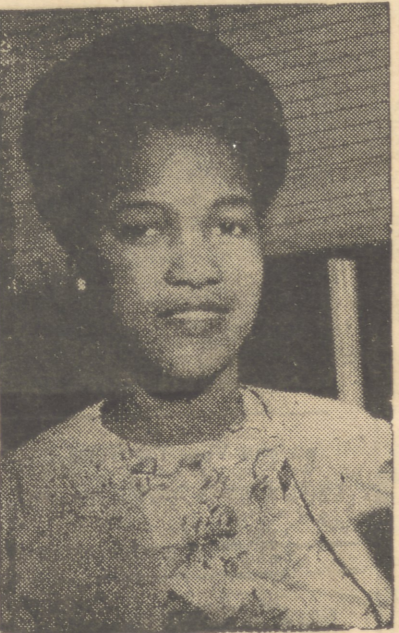

ROBERT A. WRIGHT

For the first time in the history of legal fraternities in the state of Iowa, Phi Alpha Delta law fraternity, on the Drake university campus, pledged two Negro members.

They are Robert A. Wright, son of Mrs. Myrtle Terrell of 920 S. E. 27th street, a policeman on the Des Moines police force, and Joseph C. Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Howard, 1136 14th street.

They were two of the 12 members pledged at a special ceremony on Oct. 23 at the Standard club.

MRS. ZOLA MAE GAINES said he saw a "mass of flames" at the rear of the house as he was driving by in a police patrol car.

"It was too late when I got there," he said.

Gaines was in Waterloo, where he occasionally works as a cook on week ends. He is regularly employed as a garage attendant, and works at two part-time jobs.

Statehouse Employee

Mrs. Gaines, the former Zola Mae King of Oralabor, is employed as a stenographer at the statehouse. Both are 24 years old. They bought the house two years ago when they were married.

Miss McDaniel, who was born in Wichita, Kan., launched her stage career in 1924 with road shows.

She made her film debut in 1931 and appeared in more than 300 pictures, including "Queenie," "Show Boat," "Judge Priest," "The Little Colonel," "The Great Lie," "Margarie" and "Janie."

Washed Dishes

Her climb to stardom included in-between stints at dish-washing and table-waiting. She recalled that once her road company went broke in Milwaukee, Wis. On closing night, she walked from the theater to a nearby restaurant and went to work at kitchen chores.

Her role as "Beulah" was that of a combination maid, cook and housekeeper.

The actress married James L. Crawford in March, 1941, and divorced him in December, 1945. In June, 1949, she married Interior Decorator Larry C. Williams. She and Williams were divorced about two years ago.

Ralph E. Snyder Held In Shooting At Legion Club

Ralph E. Snyder, 26, of 1234 seventh street, was arrested last Sunday in connection with the shooting of Wesley Bettis, 29, of 939 Sixteenth street.

Bettis, who was treated for a slight wound on the left arm at Broadlawns General hospital early Sunday, told police Snyder shot him at the American Legion club, Eleventh and Chestnut streets.

Snyder, however, denied the incident upon preliminary investigation. Police said a .22 caliber pistol was found under the front seat of Snyder's car which was parked at the rear of the club.

Maple Street Mission Society To Visit Sick At Polk County Home

The Maple Street Mission society will meet Friday, 1:15 p.m. at the Union Bus station where members will board a bus to go to Polk County home to visit the sick and shut-ins. Mrs. Mae Wyatt is vice president.

Mrs. John M. Estes Granted Divorce

The wife of John Melvin Estes, Des Moines undertaker, Tuesday won a divorce. The suit was not contested.

Mrs. Estes was awarded $3,000 as a property settlement. Alimony was denied in the decree. She had asked $500 a month alimony in her petition.

She also was awarded a 1950 Oldsmobile car, and personal property she owned before her marriage to Estes in 1949. Estes was allowed to keep all other property.

Mrs. Estes had sued for divorce on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. The couple had no children, although Estes has two by a former marriage. He operates a funeral home at 811 Fourteenth street.

400 Convicts in Illinois Stage Riot

Chester, Ill.—Nearly 400 convicts in the Menard state prison rioted in the east cell house Monday night, seized seven guards and threatened to throw them from the top gallery.

Tuesday, 300 rebellious prisoners held out inside Menard state prison and demanded to speak to Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson.

The prisoners let it be known that they want to present grievances about the prison directly to Stevenson, Democratic presidential candidate.

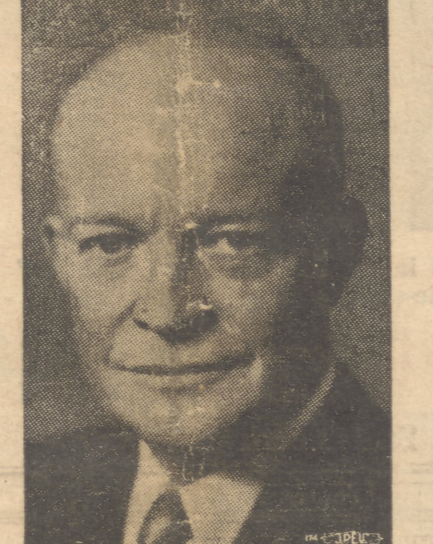

Thirty-seven psychopathic prisoners at the state prison agreed Tuesday night to release three hostages they had held in the prison kitchen.

Says GOP Knew 'All Along' Of Phony Conspiracy' to Protect South from FEPC

Washington, D. C.—"Southern Democrats, to the embarrassment of their so-called 'liberal' Northern partners, have let the Civil Rights double-cross of Negroes out of the bag and have been forced to admit that if Republicans win the national election Civil Rights legislation will be passed within six months" said Val J. Washington, Assistant to the Chairman of the Republican National Committee.

"All along we have known of this phony conspiracy," said Mr. Washington, "But now we offer the American people positive proof in the form of an Atlanta Constitution editorial warning the South that a Stevenson victory would protect the region from FEPC; a speech by Senator James O. Eastland to Mississippi Rotarians assuring them that he is not afraid of Civil Rights legislation as long as Democrats control the government and an appeal for Southern support by Candidate Stevenson himself, on the basis

PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

New York, N. Y.—Dwight D. Eisenhower, Republican nominee, for president, speaking from a New York City studio, in a nationwide telecast charged President Truman with trying to "alibi" his way out of responsibility for the Korean war.

Eisenhower declared that the president "abdicated" his leadership when he relied on a two-year-old military report in reaching a political decision in 1949 to put South Korea outside the U. S. Pacific defense perimeter.

Ike has contended that the military decision was for private guidance of commanders in event of global war. He stresses that by publicly placing blame outside our defense line he "abdicated" his leadership.

Stevenson came here after a day of whistle-stopping through low-power-mad New England.

While Harlem turned out, anxious to show its enthusiasm for the Democratic candidate, the reaction to his speech appeared in sharp contrast with the reception.

The governor failed to pin a number of issues in which the big Negro population is chiefly interested on the nose.

He drew applause when he said the Republicans talk one way on Monday and another on Tuesday. His mention of Senator Joseph McCarthy, (Rep., Wis.) got a roar of boos.

His mention of tidelands oil fell completely flat on Harlem ears, but the crowd applauded his statement that the Democratic party has a "passionate concern for human beings."

Leaf Burners Told To Have Garden Hose Handy

Leaf burners were advised by Fire Chief Charles L. Slade they always should keep a garden hose, with the water on, available in order to keep leaf and grass fires under control.

Chief Slade said 99 percent of grass fires in Des Moines "are caused by someone starting a leaf fire and then letting it get away from home."

Slade said that householders burning leaves in the open could be arrested under provisions of a city ordinance which forbids the setting of any fire except in an approved incinerator.

Hold Services For George L. Jackson Who Died In K.C.

Services were held Monday at the Maple Street Baptist church for George Lee Jackson, 63 of Kansas City, Mo., formerly of Des Moines. Burial was at Glendale cemetery.

Mr. Jackson died at Kansas City Oct. 22 after an 18-month illness. Born at Puxico, Mo., he lived in Des Moines 40 years before moving to Kansas City.

Surviving are his wife, Myrtle; a daughter, Myrtle; and a son, Joe, all of Kansas City; his mother, Mrs. Mary Jackson; two sisters, Mrs. Ida Jones and Mrs. Mildred Timony, and a brother, Louis Jackson, all of Des Moines.

ADLAI E. STEVENSON

ABOARD THE STEVENSON TRAIN—Declaring that this is the time to take the question of discrimination on the basis of race or color out of politics and give Democratic rights to all Americans regardless of race, color or creed, Governor Adlai Stevenson won many more supporters as he ended a whirlwind tour across Ohio last Thursday evening at a mammoth rally in Cleveland.

Speaks in Harlem

New York, N. Y.—Governor Stevenson Monday night received one of the most tumultuous receptions of his campaign when he arrived in Harlem.

He told cheering thousands that he would work for a world "where men can live as brothers under the law of God."

Stevenson came here after a day of whistle-stopping through low-power-mad New England.

While Harlem turned out, anxious to show its enthusiasm for the Democratic candidate, the reaction to his speech appeared in sharp contrast with the reception.

Score Representatives and Senators on 5 Matters of Rights During 82nd Term

New York.—The voting records of members of the 82nd Congress on matters pertaining to civil rights were made public by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, in a compilation entitled "How They Stand on Civil Rights."

The Association scored the senators and representatives as voting favorably or unfavorably on the only five civil rights issues that came to a vote during the past session of Congress—two in the Senate and three in the House.

Issues in Senate

In the Senate, the first issue was an amendment offered by Senator Herbert H. Lehman (D., N.Y.) to the UMT bill, to protect Negro and other servicemen from the police and civilian brutality. The measure was pigeonholed by a vote of 57-30 at the instigation of Sen. Pat McCarran (D., Nev.). A vote for the Lehman amendment was scored as "favorable."

The second vote was on a measure to admit Alaska to statehood, thus assuring the Congress of two senators unaffected by the coalition between Dixiecrats and conservative Republicans. This measure was returned to committee on the proposal of Sen. George Smathers (D., Fla.)

Stevenson came here after a day of whistle-stopping through low-power-mad New England.

Hold Rites For Mrs. Mary E. Bush

Services for Mrs. Mary Etta Bush, 84, former Des Moines resident who died Oct. 19 at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Rudd, Chicago, Ill., were held last Friday afternoon at Bethel AME church with burial in Fifteen Democrats and nine Republicans were listed as having voted or been paired favorably on both these issues. They are:

McFarland, Ernest (Ariz.); McMahon, Brien (Conn., deceased); Benton, William (Conn.); Douglas, Paul (Ill.); O'Connor, Herbert (Md.); Humphrey, Hubert (Minn.); Hennings, Thomas (Mo.); Murray, James (Mont.); Anderson, Clinton (N. Mex.); Green, Theodore (R. I.); Pastore, John (R. I.); Magnuson, Warren (Wash.); Kilgore, Harley (W. Va.); Neely, Matthew (W. Va.).

- Republicans
Smith, H. Alexander (N. J.); Hendrickson, Robert (N. J.); Ives, Irving (N. Y.); Langer, William (N. D.); Cordon, Guy (Oreg.); Morse, Wayne (Oreg.); Watkins, Arthur (Utah); Aiken, George (Vt.); Flanders, Ralph (Vt.).

In addition, two senators who voted favorably on the second issue had not been sworn into the Senate early enough to vote one way or the other on the first issue. These are Senators Blair Moody (D., Mich.) and Fred Seaton (R., Nebr.).

House of Representatives
In the House, the NAACP rates representatives according to their votes on three issues. The first of these was a proposal to restore the

Liberia Signs New Profit-Sharing Agreement With U. S. Owned Mining Firm

Washington, D. C.—In a new profit-sharing agreement between the Government of Liberia and the Liberia Mining Company, Liberia will benefit substantially this year with increasing profits provided in the future.

Citing the good working relationship between the Liberian Government and the U.S. owned mining firm, a company spokesman stated: "We hope we've devised a formula that will endure and provide a good pattern for others." This is in accord with the Tubman Administration's policy of encouraging investment on a "basis of mutuality."

A sharp increase in the Liberian Government's income from the Bomi Hills mines was asked several months ago, due to the fact that many of the construction costs originally to be borne by the company, are being paid for by the Liberian Government.

Final ratification of the agreement now depends only upon the Export-Import Bank, which advanced a large sum to the mining firm to aid in the development of iron properties.

Promised Royalties

Liberia formerly received a small royalty on each ton of ore shipped, which amounted to approximately $100,000 a year. Under the new arrangement, Liberia will get royalties amounting to between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000 a year now, with an escalating profit-sharing clause which will provide Liberia with a full fifty-fifty share of the proceeds in 20 years.

Under the agreement, the Liberian Government's participation in net profits will begin when the company's indebtedness is liquidated and the return of invested capital accomplished, or on April 1, 1957, whichever is earlier. After the effective date, Liberia will participate in the net profits as follows: 25 percent for the first five years, 35 percent for the next ten years and 50 percent thereafter.

Until the Government starts receiving a share of the profits five years hence, it will get an interim royalty of $1.50 a ton in addition to the royalties provided in the concession, retroactively effective as of April 1, 1952.

Tenth Largest

Last year, in its first year of mining, Liberia became the world's tenth largest exporter of iron ore. In the first seven months of this year, it had jumped to sixth place—and is still moving up. The ore is a very high grade, averaging about 68% iron. The principal domestic source in the United States yields about 51% iron.

Company officials estimated that the mine contains about 30,000,000 to 40,000,000 tons of ore.

Visiting around Iowa
by Joe Marsh

Challenge Iowa's Corn!

Some folks back East think they can grow better corn than Iowa. In a Hartford, Conn., paper the other day, a County Agent there said: "Whether Iowa likes it or not, the soil of central Connecticut grows the world's best corn." Now, isn't that something! If that County Agent had checked the records, he would see that Connecticut's expected yield per year is 47 bu. per acre... Iowa's 62. Sure, he is prejudiced in favor of his home state. But that's the trouble with prejudices of any kind. So often they're based on a limited view... whether they concern things like corn yields, or our neighbor's everyday preference for what he eats or drinks. So I say... let's watch out for those prejudices. They're too easy to get, too hard to shake off. They generally mean that we've come blind to the other fellow's point of view. Actually, the fewer prejudices we have, the better neighbors we are, the better citizens of our community.

LET'S NAIL DOWN THE LIES FROM DESPERATE DEMOCRATS

Eating High On the Hog, They Hate to Get Off the Gravy Train

BIG DEMOCRAT LIE NUMBER 1

"Ike sponsored Army Jim Crow"

THAT'S A LIE . . . AND HERE'S THE PROOF

N. Y. DAILY NEWS, MONDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1952

Reveal Ike Combated Segregation in Army

By ART NOYES (Special Correspondent of THE NEWS)

FRANKFURT, Oct. 12—Dwight D. Eisenhower's order which brought about the integration of Negro soldiers into combat divisions of the American Army in Germany has been kept an official secret for more than eight months, The News was informed today.

The Army has not authorized a single public revelation of Ike's order to date and has never officially disclosed the move in any of the many public information releases issued by the Army command here.

One photograph which showed the integration was released by the Army public information division some time ago, then hastily recalled before it could be published.

Sees a Dem Plot
One high Army officer here said it looked to him as if there were a "direct attempt" on the part of the Democratic administration to keep Eisenhower from getting credit for the integration move.

"The fact that Ike actually did something in the civil rights field rather than talk about it must have hurt them in Washington," the officer said. "At least I know the Army here had orders not to publicize the fact that Ike ordered integration and that it was being successfully carried out."

It Works Fine

Army public relations today refused to comment on why news of Ike's integration order had been suppressed.

Combat commanders here have only praise for the way integration has worked out. It was carried out without incident, they said, and has been conspicuously successful.

BIG DEMOCRAT LIE NUMBER 2

"Ike is in cahoots with Dixiecrats"

LOOK WHO'S TALKING

Adlai Waves Rebel Flag

STEVENSON WAVES THE CONFEDERATE FLAG—Waving the Stars and Bars, Governor Adlai Stevenson parades down Canal Street in New Orleans, October 10, after arriving for a political rally. With Stevenson in the car are Mayor deLesseps S. Morrison, center and Frank Ellis, Democratic National Committeeman from Louisiana.

BIG DEMOCRAT LIE NUMBER 3

"Us Democrats will pass civil rights laws"

The BIGGEST LIE of ALL

Northern Democrats know their party can't pass a Civil Rights Law. How in the world can Democrats ever pass a Civil Rights Law with Jim-Crow Sparkman as presiding officer of the Senate, Richard Russell of Georgia as majority floor leader, and Walter George of Georgia, as president pro-tempore of the Senate.

How big a lie can a Democrat tell?

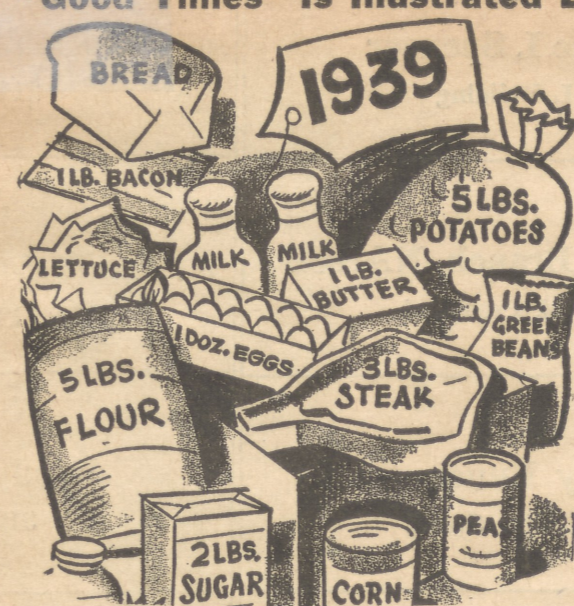

The combination of Sparkman, George and Russell can and will hamstring any Civil Rights bill that gets to the floor of the Senate.

Not that they are going to get to the floor what with Jim-Crow Democrat Eastland "sitting" on them as a Civil Rights Committee chairman.

BIG DEMOCRAT LIE NUMBER 4

"We never had it so good"

That's the Cynical Lie of Power-mad politicians — the Truth About "Good Times" Is Illustrated Below:

HERE ARE THE GROCERIES YOU GOT FOR FIVE DOLLARS IN 1939

HERE'S ALL YOU'D COME HOME WITH TODAY —and no change from your five-dollar bill

GIVE LIGHT AND THE PEOPLE WILL SEE THE TRUTH

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

If the Negroes are ever to be freed from the cruel burden of crushing taxes, the shameful disgrace of Jim Crow, discrimination and unequal treatment, the awful slaughter of undeclared wars and the corruption of a government that confounds and confuses them, the Republican Party will be the party to do it.

A Republican administration will wage peace and win it. Democrat administrations were in power during World Wars I and II. We have lost the peace so dearly won. We have been plunged into a third war in Korea without the consent of Congress. Indeed the only years of peace enjoyed by the American people in the 20th Century have been under Republican administrations.

The whole history of the Republican Party is bound up with the question of civil rights.

The Republican Party enacted into law the 13th, 14th and 15th Amendments to the Constitution, ending slavery, protecting the rights of Negro citizenship and giving them the vote.

These Republican Amendments have become more vital to the welfare of the Negroes than any other legislation ever passed. They have been the base on which organizations like the NAACP have been able to get the courts to rule favorably on the right to vote in "White primaries," school segregation and restrictive covenants. Practically all Negro rights won in courts have been because of the 13th, 14th and 15th Amendments.

The proof of the Republican stand on Negro welfare lies in the record. Just what is that record of Republican performance?

Since 1861, Congress has put nine Civil Rights Statutes on the books and eight of these statutes were passed by Republican Congresses.

Nearly all State FEPC laws have been enacted under the leadership of Republicans. To date eleven states have enacted FEPC legislation. Republicans have led the way.

Here again is a Republican record of "performance" instead of words, promises and double talk.

On the basis of the Republican Party record, in comparison with the goose eggs laid by the Democrat Party . . . it can be factually concluded that in the interest of Negro rights, as in the interest of the American welfare and peace, Dwight D. Eisenhower should be elected President on November 4.

John Hay Whitney Foundation Announces Fourth Annual Opportunity Fellowships Program

New York—The fourth annual John Hay Whitney Foundation Opportunity Fellowship Program was announced recently by Robert C. Weaver, director of the program. Awards, ranging from $1,000 to $3,000 each, are made to American citizens who, because of artificial barriers such as race, cultural background or region of residence, have not had opportunity to achieve their full potential. Preference is given to applicants under thirty-five. Included among the current Opportunity Fellows are thirty-one Negroes. Twenty are pursuing graduate studies at Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Northwestern, Boston University, Western Reserve, Pennsylvania, University of California, Wisconsin, Illinois, Ohio State, Wayne University and the Institut d'Etudes Politiques at Paris. One is in playwriting at Yale and another is translating in Rome. Others are in painting and music, studying and working in Europe, the Caribbean and the United States. As in last year's competition, candidates for graduate study are required to have completed four years of college training and show evidence of exceptional promise. Both academic students and creative artists of outstanding ability, who have completed their basic training are eligible. In addition, applications for apprenticeships in business and labor are welcome. To Continue Study "Opportunity Fellowships," said Mr. Weaver, "are enabling young Americans to continue graduate study, prepare for concert careers through European travel and study, or undertake creative work in this Country. We have been most gratified by the tendency of our Fellows to prepare for and enter into new fields. One of these is foreign service. Among 1952-53 Negro Fellows, Mercer Cook, Jr., is now enroute to Paris where he will continue his graduate work at the Institut d'Etudes Politiques, preparatory to entering the State Department. James T. Harris, Jr., is, under his Fellowship, completing his Masters Degree at Princeton. He plans to become a specialist in the Middle East. An earlier Fellow, Andrew Brimmer, who received his M.A. in Economics at the University of Washington, became a Fulbright Fellow to India and is now in the graduate school of Public Administration at Harvard where he will continue his studies of the economy of India. "From the outset, we have encouraged competent candidates interested in international relations. Among the first group of awardees, one of our Negro Fellows, Romeo A. Cherot, pursued Russian Studies under his Fellowship. Today he is a Reviewer with Radio Free Europe in New York City, where he works on broadcasts to countries behind the Iron Curtain. "No less challenging are Opportunity Fellows pioneering in other fields. One of these is Samuel J. Callers, a graduate of Fisk, who received his Masters Degree in City Planning at M.I.T. Upon graduation he was appointed as Senior Planner with the Hartford (Conn.) Redevelopment Authority. When Charles Bruce Lee completed his Ph.D in Zoology at the University of Michigan SEE EDITORIAL PAGE

Adlai Stevenson will make a Great Civil Rights President

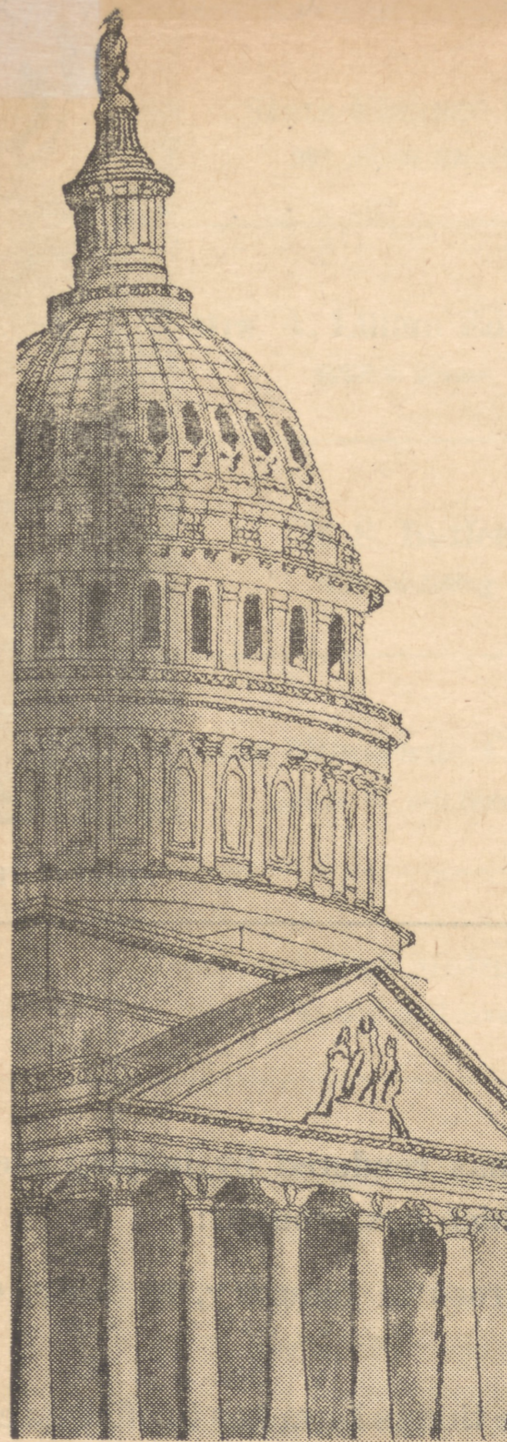

"Adlai Stevenson will make a great civil rights president" —From a speech delivered by President Harry S. Truman, New York City, October 11, 1952

In his speech accepting the Dorrance Brooks Award, President Truman said, "Adlai Stevenson has shown by everything he has done and said that he believes deeply in the equality of human beings. He will bring new courage and new energy to the fight for civil rights. He has the courage to say the same things about civil rights in New York and in Richmond, Virginia. He has been a great rights governor and will make a great civil rights president!"

What Do Eisenhower and Byrnes Talk About at Lunch?

"While the Republican candidate is whispering promises to you, he has been touring the South to woo the Dixiecrats into the Republican fold. What do you think the Republican candidate and a Dixiecrat Governor talk about when they sit down together for lunch? Do you think they talk about civil rights? Maybe they talk about taking them away. You can draw your own conclusions when the Dixiecrat Governor announces, after the lunch, he is going to vote Republican this year."

—President Harry S. Truman, in a speech at New York City, October 11, 1952

"I don't believe a society is truly free where race, creed or color is a bar to equality of opportunity to earn a living." —Adlai E. Stevenson

STEVENSON WILL FIGHT FOR YOU!

IN NEW YORK CITY— "The record of our progress is a proud one, but it is far from over. Brave and important tasks remain. We cannot rest until we honor in fact as well as word the plain language of the Declaration of Independence."

IN LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA— "We can never stop in the battle against racial and religious bigotry, discrimination and fear. We must by effective legislation, ensure equal opportunities of employment for citizens of all colors and creeds."

IN RICHMOND, VIRGINIA— "In the broad field of minority rights, the Democratic Party has stated its position in its platform; a position to which I adhere. I should justly earn your contempt if I talked one way in the South and another way elsewhere."

IN SPRINGFIELD, ILLINOIS— "We can ill afford to exhibit to the world either incompetence or injustice in dealing with the relations of racial groups."

IN NEW YORK CITY— "The American dream belongs to every American... The answer to communism is democracy; not less democracy or just enough, but more. And democracy is color blind."

IN ILLINOIS RADIO ADDRESS— "It is not doing a favor to discharge a duty which all American citizens owe to each other—the duty to live, as well as talk, democracy. The right of every man to equal treatment regardless of his creed, color, or the origin of his grandfather is an implicit American right, basic to the whole concept of our democracy."

STEVENSON will complete the Job!

PERSONAL TOUCH

By MARIE ROSS

As time ticks away the hours and brings nearer that date of Nov. 4, when the voters of the nation will go to the polls to elect a new president, people, the candidates and the citizens, will be doing a lot of talking.

Turn on the radio or the television and listen—or pick up the papers and magazines and read—and the next thing, someone will comment, "he certainly made a fine speech."

Seems like talking and speeches around political times have been going on for quite some time. The years come. The decades go. The centuries change and time marches on—with all of its progress, its modern inventions.

But one thing that lingers on—and looms forth at election times like that "North Star" that the great abolitionist Frederick Douglas wrote so frequently about, is the subject called "Civil Rights."

I was browsing over some of his speeches—and he made many a fine speech, after he escaped from slavery, bought his freedom and grew up to be one of the great reformers in our American history.

One of Douglass' speeches brought to my mind a recent telephone conversation I had with a white labor representative who called the paper's attention to a story in the daily paper informing readers that the former world heavyweight boxing champion, Joe Louis, a Republican, would not vote for Eisenhower but for Stevenson, because Joe said: "I worked under General Eisenhower in Europe in 1945 when I was in the army and for the American Negro soldier over there, it wasn't so good."

The Democratic labor representative complained that papers should have "played-up" the story so "all of you people would know" about the matter.

Of course, Joe Louis is not the only Negro soldier who has made that statement. Just this week a member of the Women's Army Corps who returned last month from Germany, served under the General for

Be A Ghost, Not A Witch! AAA's Tip For Halloween Safety

Dress as a ghost, not as a witch on Halloween, Floyd L. Link, director of safety for the AAA Motor Club of Iowa, advised youngsters in connection with the Club's hints for Halloween safety.

"If you wish to hide your identity, disguise yourself from your friends, not the driver," the Club official continued. "Dressing as a ghost will increase your safety as a pedestrian because a driver can distinguish persons wearing or carrying something white sooner."

Wearing white after dark is a basic safety measure but it is particularly timely for Halloween when costumed figures often dart into the street, Link added. "The frivolity of Halloween often outweighs good safety habits, but traffic accidents don't take a holiday unless everyone cooperates. Remember these basic safety rules for Halloween night, and every night.

1. Wear or carry something white, preferably white shoes.
2. Walk on the left side of the road.
3. Where there are no sidewalks, step off the paved portion of the road when meeting an oncoming vehicle.
4. Cross at a lighted intersection wherever possible.

U. S. WOULD BENEFIT BY ELECTING REPUBLICAN ADMINISTRATION

The campaign is just about to an end and it has been most unusual in many ways. The fight has been extremely better often going off into the realms of lying and vilification.

Laying aside all other angles, the Negro voter has presented a most peculiar problem which, at first thought, is hard to understand. Yet when it is considered that most Negroes fall into the class of labor and/or middle group, many of whom are Democrats, there is an explanation but without sound thinking. In fact logic and reason have been tossed out of the window.

Then, too, there is that class of higher ups who have benefitted under the New Deal or like the officials of the NAACP, have been so closely allied with the Democratic party in New York and later Washington. They too present a confused picture.

The Bystander believes that Stevenson is not a bad candidate but it cannot overlook Sparkman. The supporters of the Democratic ticket say nothing about him and yet he is a big cog in the wheel. He has never stated that there has been any change in his dark record on civil rights, an issue all must agree is important. Yet he may become president.

During the past few elections, the Democrats have promised the world on civil rights and delivered very little. And as long as Senators Russell, George Eastland, et al head important committees in Congress, those promises will continue to go unfulfilled.

General Eisenhower has splendid qualifications for the office he seeks, notwithstanding the fact that he has spent most of his life in the army. True, he has not made a lot of loose promises on civil rights but the general has promised what he felt he could deliver. Some of them: elimination of segregation in the District of Columbia, withholding funds from segregated projects, calling the state governors in for a conference on civil rights.

Possibly, the last proposal is one of the most far-reaching made in the campaign—one which would focus the attention of the governors on a problem which exists to a degree in every state.

Unfortunately, the public has not given much attention to the wholesale dishonesty in Washington which has brought disgrace and suspicion to most departments. It is a pattern which has had a tendency to drag down the moral fibre of the citizens of this country. Certainly, a clean sweep in Washington will be required to clean up this mess.

The Korean situation has been poorly handled and if Eisenhower goes there, a smarter way of handling the peace will be evolved. Certainly his visit there would be more valuable than that of Gov. Stevenson.

On the basis of the whole record it would appear that the best interests of the country would be served by the election of a Republican administration in Washington.

THIRTY YEARS AS EDITOR OF THE BYSTANDER

The end of October marks the thirtieth anniversary of James B. Morris as editor of the Bystander. Some of these years have been pleasant; some have been exceedingly rough. But throughout this period the objective, to publish a newspaper dedicated to the best interest of the Negro in particular and the state as a whole, has been pursued. It has always been our theory that as long as a Negro newspaper was a necessity one should be published in every community for by this method only can there be a full coverage of the news about Negroes.

Weekly papers face a difficult problem in cities. And this is particularly true where a group is scattered as is the case in Des Moines. However, the diffusion of a group over a wide area is better for the general welfare of that group.

The trend away from small business takes its toll; the high cost of operation likewise. But these drawbacks have not deterred the publication of the Bystander.

There are those who recognize the value of the Bystander both in its news columns and the steady influence it has helped to maintain in its editorial columns which, in the long run, have helped to improve racial understanding in Iowa.

The editor of the Bystander undertook the task of securing the sponsors of these anniversary pages particularly because of a desire to find out what the attitude of the big business people in Des Moines is toward the Bystander which has made an uncompromising fight for civil rights and has called for more and better employment for Negroes.

While practically none of them takes any part in the groups working in this field, all expressed great satisfaction that Des Moines was making considerable progress along these lines and that they gladly supported those movements working for human rights.

A concrete example of this improved attitude is the fact that in 1922 only two Negro women held jobs in offices in Des Moines; possibly about five men had decent jobs. Today the situation has improved immeasurably with new opportunities opening every day.

This does not mean that there are no bad spots which need to be corrected. This does not mean that the Bystander and all other forces working in this field, can go it alone. They need help to gain more.

It is not likely that another such anniversary will come to the editor. But it has been mighty good to know that a lot of people do appreciate any effort to improve the lot of mankind as a whole and that is just what he does when he works for the improvement of any one group of society.

power of the House Rules Committee to bottleneck legislation. A measure curbing this power, and authorizing the chairman of committees to call up any bill approved by their committee if after 21 days the Rules Committee failed to act, was approved in 1949. On January 3, 1951, the power of the House Rules Committee to block civil rights legislation was restored by a vote of 245-178. The NAACP rated "favorable" a vote against this restoration.

The second issue was the amendment offered by Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D., N.Y.) to kill a proposal by Rep. John Rankin (D., Miss.) to establish a Jim Crow Veterans Hospital at the birthplace of Booker T. Washington. Votes for the Powell amendment, which passed, 223-117, were rated "favorable."

On April 4, 1952, the House passed, 194-158, a resolution by Rep. Eugene Cox, D., Ga. to investigate the "Americanism" on tax-exempt agencies active in the field of human rights. The move was a clear attempt to hamper the work of these organizations. Powers of the new committee will permit "investigation" of such agencies as the NAACP, Urban League, Ford Foundation, religious organizations, etc. The NAACP opposed the measure and rated as "favorable" a vote against the measure.

House Votes on Civil Rights

In the NAACP tabulation, 80 Democrats and 23 Republicans earned a perfect score in the House by voting or being paired favorably on all three issues. In addition, there were 6 Republicans and 4 Democrats who voted favorably on one or two of the three issues and had not been sworn into Congress soon enough to vote one way or another on the other.

BY ALLEN ASHBY

We were there. The rampant Hawkeyes pushed even the election and the Korean war off the front pages as they cut down a highly favored Ohio State team in a real double-breasted pin-striped dille. Everybody who could read or hear a radio last week knows what the score was—8-0.

But never have we seen a team supposed to be weak give such a convincing display of hard-tackling and determined ball carrying.

In the thick of it were the Negroes, Sawyer and Hayman; backs, Bus Stearns and Bernie Bennett who certainly played no small part in the scuffle. We watched those two guards because we wanted to see if they were really good or were just on fire from their first year. Sometimes the fire dies out after a good year. But, we were convinced when we say the Buckeyes reach the Iowa 30-yard line at third down and one yard to go. Well, Hayman and Sawyer both went to their knees and executed a double submarine that rookie line men don't try. They did it twice and the raging Scarlet and Gray had no place to run because the pile of humanity was too high.

Those guys were in the Buckeye backfield all afternoon tossing passers for huge losses and making tackles you could hear in the stands.

Then there was Buzz Stearns, a small stumpy guy who hit the middle of the line like a two-hundred-pounder and gained yards at it. But the gashing blocks and tackles of Bernie Bennett were forgotten in that mad dash up the sideline to the Gray twenty-five yard line.

The guy cut towards midfield, swung back out to the sideline and met a whole gang of Ohio State tacklers. Bernie just stood still and marched straight up and down not moving ahead, with the guys diving ahead of him. When the last guy drove past him, the big halfback lit out down the sideline and only a desperate rush by some defense back collared Bennett from behind at the twenty-five-yard line.

But that dash did it and broke the back of the invaders.

After the game the people just sat there for five minutes and didn't say a word, probably exhausted by the dramatic struggle. That was a real feat for Ronzo Hayes. That gives us one down and two to go. We said three. Now it could, just could be four. See what happens at Minnesota next week.

High School

East Waterloo bottled up George Brewer of North but Phil Dudley got away and made a couple of good runs for scores and the Polar Bears sank East Waterloo in the last quarter.

As the host of East Negroes rolled over Tech, the Lee Townshippers became the first team to really stop Don Graves. But Vincent Wilson got away for a marker. Tech hasn't been shut out this year and maybe won't. This will be their best season in years.

WAITING

Can you see the millions waiting? Do you hear them as they pray? Can't you feel their anguish mounting, fearful as they face each day? Tortured by the brutes who drive them—hoping death will come their way, torn away from home and loved ones; pit them, . . . oh God, we pray . . . Why the free, . . . the freedom-loving—do not armour for the fray, . . . gird their souls, . . . be up and doing; that's your question for today . . . Do not wait 'til some tomorrow—see the need and do your part, or this world will die in sorrow; murdered by a cold, cold heart. While so many starve and perish—

Why do christians hesitate? Keep the freedoms that all cherish, do not make those doomed ones wait. Let us back our christian leaders—pray and work and spend to save, put an end to all deceivers, rescue every living slave. —Glenn A. Gallagher (First American Serial Rights only)
