Hails NAACP's 'Great Work; Nation's Leaders Back Membership Drive

New York.—Bishop William A. Fountain, Sr., of the AME Church, this week joined other religious and organization leaders in endorsing the spring drive of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People for 300,000 new members. Similar endorsements were received this week from John Slawson, executive vice-president of the American Jewish Committee, and from Scovel Richardson, president of the National Bar Association.

In a letter addressed to Dr. Channing H. Tobias, chairman of the NAACP board of directors, Bishop Fountain hailed the organization for its "great and grand work . . . in fighting for human rights for all men."

Jefferson City, Mo.—Lincoln University (Mo.) has been selected as the site for the annual Midwestern Provincial meeting of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity April 3 and 4.

Citizens Tried to Eat at Babe's Restaurant; Manager Looked Them Over, Said 'No'

In the heart of downtown Des Moines, hundreds and hundreds of citizens of all races, who make up the working and shopping public, pass the attractive window of Babe's restaurant, located at 417½ Sixth street. Many of the citizens peer into the large window, admire the attractive display of foods, watch the Negro man, dressed in his white suit and cap, slice the meats for the menus that long lines of patrons are ordering to satisfy their hunger.

Civil Rights Law

Knowing that Des Moines is a city in a state that has a civil rights law for the protection of public, eight women employees of the Telephone Company went to Babe's restaurant on the night of February 26, (during Brotherhood month) to eat a farewell meal. One of the women was leaving the city.

In the group of employees was one woman (who asked to have her name withheld). They work together at the Telephone company, are friends and some may have gone to school together to get their training.

'Called Aside'

When they reached Babe's, one of the white women was called aside by the white waitress and told that "Babe's would not serve the group because one of the group was a Negro."

The $25-a-plate fund-raising event will be the only Republican fund-raising activity for 1953, and $5 of each ticket sold will be returned to the county where the ticket was sold, GOP State Finance Chairman Thomas C. Murphy of Red Oak, said.

Hold Services For Sam Mitchell

Services were held Monday morning in the Estes & Son Funeral home for Sam Mitchell, 70, of 1001 E. Seventeenth street. Burial was at Glendale cemetery.

Mr. Mitchell died March 12 at Broadlawn General hospital after an illness of four months. He recently had come to Des Moines from Milwaukee, Wis.

Survivors include an aunt, Mrs. Elnora Whittler of Milwaukee.

gro," the Bystander was informed. "The white women of the group could not understand what the trouble was—but without a scene, the group left Babe's."

They went to another downtown restaurant, Tea Cup cafe, 409 Sixth street, located just a block from Babe's.

This cafe, which respects the Iowa civil rights law, served the group of women and their farewell dinner went on as planned.

Minister Contacted

The next day, the Rev. Seymour Gaines, pastor of Union Baptist church and one of the co-owners of the Metropolitan Dru store, at 1000 Center street, learned of the incident and immediately phoned Babe's restaurant, asking to speak to the owner, Alphonso (Babe) Bisignano.

According to the minister, he was told by Bisignano that his restaurant "would not refuse to serve Negro patrons."

The Rev. Mr. Gaines, a graduate of Drake university, phoned one of his white friends and former professors, Dr. Riley H. Pittman, a Drake university professor, and asked him to eat dinner at Babe's.

The two went to Babe's restaurant at noon on Monday, March 2.

Went In

"We went into the place, found a booth and hung up our coats and got in line for food," Dr. Pittman related.

The usual thing happened, Dr. Pittman was "called to the side" by the white woman who was serving.

"In lamenting tones she expressed

Ask New Trial for Cicero Police Chief and Officers; Convictions Are Reversed

New York.—A new trial was asked March 11 by Thurgood Marshall, special counsel for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, for Edwin Konovsky, Chief of police of Cicero, Ill., and two officers who were convicted of violating the civil rights statute but whose convictions were reversed Monday by the United States Court of Appeals.

In a letter to Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Jr., Mr. Marshall said:

"We sincerely hope that the Department of Justice will retry this case because we are as convinced today as we have always been that these incidents of racial violence supported by the active cooperation of police officials should be prosecuted with full vigor."

The Cicero Chief of Police and two police officers were convicted last year for their part in the July, 1951, riot which broke out when Harvey E. Clark, Jr., a Negro bus driver, tried to move into an apartment he had rented in the lily-white Township of Cicero, a Chicago suburb. Clark's furniture was thrown onto the sidewalk and the building was wrecked by a mob of white persons. It required a National Guard unit to restore order after several days of rioting and threats.

In the opinion of the Court of Appeals, the lower court which convicted the Police Chief and the two officers was guilty of "pre-judicial errors committed during the trial and in giving instructions to the jury." The state's high court remanded the chief and two officers for a new trial.

Supreme Court to Review California Decision on Restrictive Covenants

States Supreme court last week agreed to review a California decision that a home owner who violates a restrictive covenant by selling real estate to a Negro may not be sued for damages by neighbors.

The Supreme court ruled in 1943 that federal courts could not enforce restrictive covenants on property. Acting upon this decision the California District Court of Appeals refused aid for three Los Angeles residents who sought damages on the ground that a neighbor violated a racial covenant by selling property to Negroes.

Arguing that the value of their property had decreased by the integration of Negro residents into the neighborhood, the trio appealed to the high court. They claimed in their appeal that the supreme courts of Missouri and Oklahoma had held that damages could be collected when the covenant agreement had been broken. The high courts of Michigan, the Federal judge in the District of Columbia, and the courts of California have ruled against such suits.

The Ashby sisters, Wanda and Sandra, will play a piano duet; and Rose Marie Gaiters will sing.

Rev. Rodney Smith will open and close the meeting. Mrs. Clara Bayles, past NAACP youth advisor, will give remarks.

Strongest Man In World Becomes Radio & TV's Most Sought-After Guest

New York.—John Davis of Brooklyn, the World's Olympic weightlifting champion, seems to be one of the most sought-after television and radio guests in town these days.

The 5-foot-9, 230-pound Negro, who set a new Olympic record for weightlifting in the heavyweight class at Helsinki last year, and whose great victory enabled the United States team barely to nose out Russia, has appeared on one radio show and a network TV show in a week and is scheduled for two more radio and at least one other TV spot next week.

The flurry for John's services began with the publication this week of a remarkable series of photos of him in the current issue of Look magazine. The most incredible picture in the article—which is entitled, "The Strongest Man in the World"—is one showing him lifting on his back a steel platform on which TEN U. S.

Noted Educator Ends 25 Years at Famed School; to Direct Stokes-Phelps Fund

Tuskegee Institute, Ala.—(ANP)—Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, this week announced that he has resigned as president of Tuskegee institute as of June 1, 1953.

The noted educator will become director of the Phelps-Stokes Fund in New York, June 1, replacing Dr. Channing H. Tobias who already is past the retirement age.

In resigning from Tuskegee, Dr. Patterson is concluding 25 years at the famed school, 18 of them as its president, serving 34 years, and Robert R. Moton was his successor, serving 18 years.

Dr. Washington died in office, and Dr. Moton served until he felt compelled to retire because of physical disability. Dr. Patterson, although he undoubtedly could have remained at Tuskegee for the rest of his working days, declared in his letter of resignation to the board of trustees that he "had given more than twice the average length of tenure for college administrators."

To Work in Education

The Phelps-Stokes Fund was established in 1911 under the will of Miss Caroline Phelps Stokes for work in the field of Negro education both in the United States and in Africa. Dr. Patterson has been a member of its board for many years.

Basil O'Connor of New York, chairman of the Tuskegee board, in announcing Dr. Patterson's resignation, said it was received "with extreme regret" and would be presented to the board at its next meeting on

DR. F. D. PATTERSON

April 11. Dr. Patterson in his statement declared:

"It has been a joy and inspiration to work with the faculty and staff at Tuskegee. It is a source of growing satisfaction to note the mounting achievements of the student body and their increased willingness to measure up to the full responsibilities of citizenship."

Broad Program

"In going to the Phelps-Stokes Fund, however, I see a promise of usefulness in a broad program of service to educational institutions for

Garland Sentenced March 28 For Manslaughter; Found Guilty of Wife's Death

John Richard Garland, 33, found guilty of manslaughter in the fatal beating of his wife, Mamie, 43 faces a maximum sentence of eight years in prison and a maximum fine of $1,000.

District Judge Russell Jordan who heard the case set March 28 as the date of sentence.

The jury of three men and nine women handed its verdict after deliberating five hours.

Garland was tried on a second-degree murder indictment, and the jury also had four other choices of verdict—guilty of manslaughter, assault to do great bodily injury, assault and battery, or innocent.

Mrs. Garland died at Mercy hospital Sept. 21, a day after she was beaten by her husband behind the

G. and W. hotel, 726½ Ninth street, where the couple had a two-room apartment.

Garland, a laborer employed by a brick and tile concern, testified that he was cleaning his car behind the hotel when his wife rushed at him, calling him names.

Under questioning by Defense Attorney James McKeon, Garland said he struck her in self defence. Garland denied beating his wife with a broom handle, as charged by the state.

Witnesses' Stories

Two witnesses, however, testified they saw Garland break the broom handle on Mrs. Garland and that he then hit her at least twice with his fists.

The Garlands were married in April, 1952. Both had lived at an apartment house at 1152 Ninth street, according to testimony during the trial.

Other testimony brought out that Garland had filed a divorce suit against his wife in August on cruelty grounds. He got a room at the hotel, he testified, and then became reconciled with his wife.

Garland, who has a previous conviction on a burglary charge, appeared calm through the five day trial.

Ralph Whitten, 3891 Sixty-eighth street, jury foreman, said the jurors never considered a verdict of innocent.

Assistant County Attorney Luther Ganton, Jr., who prosecuted the case, said he thought the verdict was fair.

"I asked to see the manager," and, if you have ever been in places that do not serve the Negro public, you manager to come.

"He went behind the counter, talked to the white woman and also to the Negro who was cutting meat and serving the plates. We waited and waited.

"He came back, asked me who I was and what I wanted. I told him my name and that I was a professor at Drake university and that we were out to have lunch together.

"I asked him if he would serve us —because we didn't have much time and he said no," Dr. Pittman related and added that the manager added:

"I know you want me to refuse you so you can do what you are going to do anyway.

"I disagreed," Dr. Pittman said, and, "told him that we preferred to eat—and that I had to get back to work and would like to have lunch as soon as possible.

"Then Bisignano said to Rev. Mr.
Gaines, 'why don't you fellows clean up your own situation. You have up Negro barbers who won't serve you.

Not interested
"Rev. Gaines replied that he was 'not interested in the barber shops but he was interested in knowing what Babe was going to do; that he came here to eat,' Dr. Pittman related.

"After refusing to serve us, we left without a scene."

The next day, the Rev. Mr. Gaines was busy working in his drug store at 1000 Center street, he said, when "I invited him to sit down, have a cup of coffee with me. He said he had 'checked around' and found out who I was and was 'ready to play ball'—that he knew it was not right to refuse Negroes—but that he 'did not want to be a pioneer in this thing,' the Rev. Mr. Gaines said.

"Babe asked me what I suggested?"
and I told him that I had left it to my friend, Dr. Pittman."

The Rev. Mr. Gaines said that Babe agreed to "work out something."

Dr. Pittman is secretary-consultant of the Des Moines Mayor's Commission on Human Rights, but he said he did not identify himself as such when he paid a visit to Babe's. He was just a citizen.

Date Filled Coffee Braid

Braid an enriched sweet yeast dough for an attractive cover to a luscious date layer. Glaze the baked coffee cake with icing for party refreshment.

Whether you and your friends watch football at the stadium, on your T-V set, or listen to it on the radio, the end of the game is the kick-off for refreshments.

You'll find a ready welcome for a tray of fresh sugared doughnuts and spicy cider . . . or fruit-filled coffee cake and hot chocolate.
Stop by the baker's for these treats, or if you're in a baking mood, add Date Filled Coffee Braid to your family's roster of favorites.

It's reassuring to know that anything so good can also be good for you. Enriched flour is the star ingredient for this good bread because of the quota of B-vitamins and food iron it provides. It is a thrifty base, too, since the coffee cake costs under 30 cents.

Apricot, prune or fig fillings may be substituted for the rich date filling to accommodate your larger or a friend's preference.

Need Closets? Build 'Em!

THERE'S no need of waiting just because your home hasn't enough closets! Fortunately, this shortcoming can readily be cured, especially if there's a man in the house who can use a saw, hammer and other simple tools.

Even in a room without any closet at all, there must be a corner in which the ingenious craftsman can construct one rather easily with the aid of modern building materials. If worst comes to worst,

he can use the same construction principles outlined here to build a storage wall or a foot locker.

Materials often recommended for closets and similar built-ins are lumber and Masonite 1/2" Presdwood, an allwood panel which has a reputation for "having what it takes." Made by exploding wood chips, these panels have no grain or knots, they are strong, abrasion-resistant and easily painted.

The only guide needed for making built-in closets and cabinets is to use large enough framing, about which your dealer can advise, and quarter-inch Presdwood. The vertical framing members should be 16 inches apart.
Joints of the panels may be "eased" slightly with a sandblock, file or beveling plane. A slight gap at the joints is recommended for good installation.

Sliding doors may be made in the home workshop, following the same construction principles, or one may install manufactured doors with Pres-dwood surfaces finished in long-wearing, beautiful colors. They're ideal especially for a storage wall.

There's no need to be "closet-hungry" when closets are so easily made!

It's Desk or Dresser!

DON'T let the high cost of furniture prevent your having a desk or dressing table! By following a free plan, you can build one that will serve as either. The plan also describes construction of a three-legged stool, in the event you want a dressing table. Features of this piece are the removable top, the drawers without pulls, and the durable, smooth surfaces—

Masonite Tempered Presdwood. An interesting alternative for the top, is Masonite Leatherwood, the embossed hardwood which makes an unusually attractive surface for a dresser. Leatherwood is stain and burn-resistant.

As shown in the illustration, this desk-or-dressing table is neat and modern. The cost of materials used in its construction is comparatively small. The plan is easy to follow too. It may be obtained free by writing to Home Service Bureau, Suite 2039, 111 West Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill., and requesting Drawing No. AE-170.

Herbert Brownell Praised For Stand Against Jimcro In Washington Public Places

New York.—Thurgood Marshall, special counsel for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, has praised Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Jr., for his request to the Supreme Court asking for the review of a law which would end race segregation in restaurants and other public places in the nation's capital.

In a telegram to the new head of the Justice Department, on March 11, Mr. Marshall said that the brief filed by him was "most effective" and "presents in clear fashion the position of our government in regard to the necessity of upholding municipal regulations aimed at prohibiting racial discrimination against fellow Americans."

The U. S. Supreme Court Tuesday, March 10, in the test case the District of Columbia has against the John R. Thompson Co., which questions the right of Washington restaurants to bar Negroes.

The District of Columbia passed a law between 1872 and 1873, when it had a "form of local self-government, that made it a criminal offense for owners of public places like restaurants, hotels, bathhouses and barber shops to discriminate because of color.

The Court of Appeals had ruled that the anti-discrimination laws passed in 1872 and 1873 by a District of Columbia legislative assembly are invalid because the assembly did not have the constitutional authority to enact legislation of this nature.

In his brief to the Supreme Court, Mr. Brownell stated that "on the merits, the ruling made by the Court of Appeals in this case is erroneous—There is a long, unbroken line of decisions of this (the Supreme) Court which uphold the power of Congress under the Constitution to delegate to the Federal territories, including the District of Columbia, authority to legislate on local matters."

Mr. Brownell filed the brief with

The hit-run driver WHO DIDN'T GET AWAY

As his truck neared a corner in downtown Fort Duncan, telephone repairman Fred Rowley* looked left and right. A small coupe ahead started across the street—then it happened.

Out of nowhere came a speeding sedan that hurtled across the intersection, smashed the slow-moving coupe into the curb.

Passers-by hurried to help. Rowley, too, was half out of his truck. Then he leaped back in and kicked the starter. The driver in the sedan had backed off, was trying to run away!

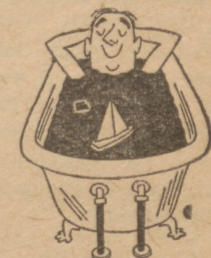

Rowley gave chase and soon overtook the damaged vehicle. He held its surprised and protesting driver until police arrived.

Patrolman Mullins took a quick look at the culprit—then Rowley himself got a surprise.

"You've caught more than you expected, Mr. Telephone Man," Mullins exclaimed, "this hit-and-run driver of yours is an escaped convict!"

Traditional House Design From Small Homes Guide

3 Bedrooms

In this era of contemporary design, many families yearn for the traditional. This is a house for those people; a story and a half home in which one could never feel crowded.

Every room has generous dimensions, and is easy to get to. Living room has unusually large wall area, a boon for furniture arrangement. The separate dining room, absent from many modern plans, is present here, as well as a breakfast nook for casual meals.

RED FEATHER PEN BY C.W. SCHNEIDER

BY C. WILLIAM SCHNEIDER

This week marks the 43rd National birthday of the Camp Fire Girls. Founded in 1910, the Camp Fire Girls, since its beginning, has been based on the belief that one learns by doing.

In the first Camp Fire Girl organization in Des Moines, there were approximately 20 members. Today there are better than 4,000.

The law of the Camp Fire Girls is: Worship God, Seek Beauty, Give Service, Pursue Knowledge, Be Trustworthy, Hold on to Health, Glorify Work, Be Happy.

All of the professional workers with this Red Feather agency in Des Moines have been Camp Fire Girls in their younger days. An interesting custom the Camp Fire Girls have is the way they answer roll call. The leader calls off the girl's real name such as Mary Doe, she in turn answers with her Camp Fire Girl name. The girls have Indian names such as Wawatasee, meaning "Laughing Water."

We all recognize the Camp Fire Girls in their dark blue skirts, white blouses and the red scarves at red, white and blue. So in this, their 43rd National Birthday week, this column salutes the Camp Fire Girls.

LUTHERAN WELFARE—In the figures recently released by the Lutheran Welfare Society of Iowa, they show that 390 children were under care of this agency during 1952. 77% of these children were in foster homes, 12% in institutions and 11% in homes of parents or relatives.

ST. MONICA'S SCHOOL—Recently the girls at St. Monica's School compiled a small handbook to furnish girls who are new in the home. This little booklet welcomes the girl to St. Monica's much the same way a girl would receive a welcoming booklet containing schedules and facts about any school she attended.

It was written by the girls themselves and on the first page they state, "We believe things will run more smoothly if we all know the rules we are to live by. This handbook will help you get acquainted with the daily life of our group so you will 'know the ropes.'"

LONDON—Marilyn Yvonne Mc-Neeley, 5 years old, left for London, England, Saturday, March 14 to join her father who is in the Army Air Corps. For the last year, Marilyn has made her home at St. Monica's School and all reports, from Mrs. Helgerson, the Director, her teachers at Lincoln High School and friends, indicate that Marilyn has been an outstanding student and girl, during the period she spent at St. Monica's School.

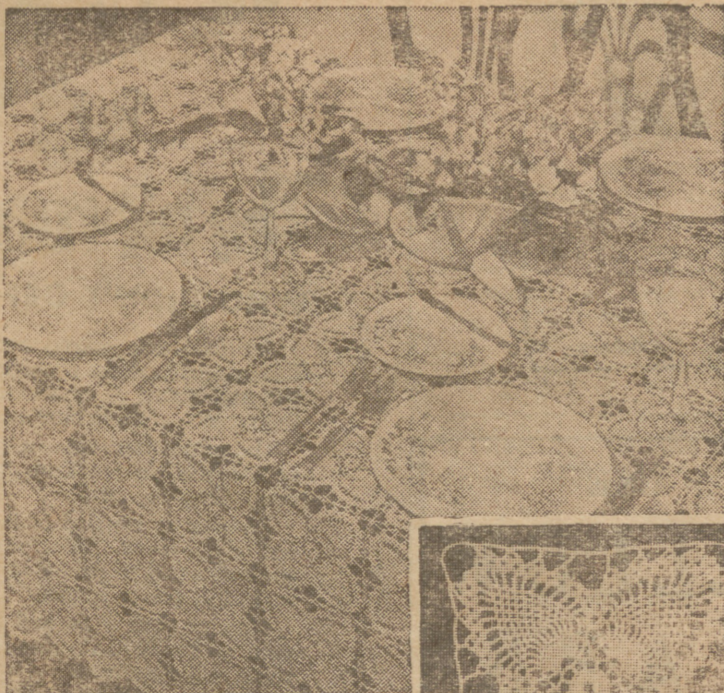

It is heartwarming to see a girl such as this go back into her own family life after a readjustment period. Just before Marilyn left she turned to Mrs. Helgerson and very honestly and warmly said, "I've come to appreciate what St. Monica's has done for me now that it is time to leave. I'm indeed grateful for the help and assistance I've received at St. Monica's and from the Commu-

ity Chest!"

GOLF—Beginners and intermediate golf instructions will be conducted starting Thursday at the YWCA. Anyone interested can make plan to attend these classes by calling the YWCA 4-5171.

This beautiful tablecloth is yours for very little when you crochet it yourself in the easy-to-do pineapple design. For free instructions write to the Home Sewing Department of this newspaper for pattern #7775, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed, legal size envelope.

New things—real crazy. Dig a few!

Johnny Smith Quintet—look at the names—Stanley (tenor king) Getz, Eddie (Bass) Safranski, Don (Skins) Lamond, and naturally Johnny (incomparable) Smith on the guitar. Such tunes as Moonlight In Vermont, Tabu, Ghost of a Chance, and Where or When make you sit and know that dreams have a great possibility of coming true.

Getz comes back with his own quintet on the Mercury label and the Stars Fell On Alabama. The Way You Look Tonight sells the flip. Al Hibbler is back with that mellow voice of his, backed with the big Basie band on a thing called Goin' to Chicago, the back side being written for the man, Sent For You Yesterday and Here You Come Today.

Lady Day walks in to do Lover Come Back To Me and memories bring back Yesterdays. The boys behind her have been labeled The Lads of Joy, For real, and why not, they make joy—Oscar Peterson, Ray Brown, Freddie Green, Paul Quinichette, to name a few. And why shouldn't they be joyous.

The Ravens slip in a few nice bars on a new one, Don't Mention My Name. And don't fear, for I'll Be Back, they say on the reverse. Remember Cool Whalin' and all of the 111 song titles to make a tune. Rudy Ferguson has done the same thing on a crazy one entitled Cool Goofer. Listen and you will note titles of your favorite top hits of this past year.

Have you checked the wandering bob cats recently? Last scene, they were wandering down Broadway checking the theatre marquees. It seems they were displaying Somerset Maugham stories made into movies. They Dug the first one stating Quartet. Farther down the street, one said Trio. "Say man," said one to the other, "Let's dig this combo at once before they break up altogether."

That's All.

MARY.

Among High-Ranking Students At S.U.I.

BARBARA OLIVER

Iowa City, Iowa.—Nearly four hundred women students at the State University of Iowa—12 with straight "A" grade-point averages—have been invited to attend the annual "Smarty Party" to be sponsored Saturday by Mortar Board, national honor society for senior women.

Miss Barbara Oliver, daughter of Atty. and Mrs. W. L. Oliver of Des Moines, a freshman at the university, is among the honor students, all of whom made at least a "B" average, for the first semester of the current school year.

Miss Oliver is a graduate of North High school in Des Moines.

And, for that same omission that exists today, Negro newspapers were founded 126 years ago—and this week throughout the nation the Negro press is being observed.

Among the first newspapers, founded in 1847 during slavery days, was the "North Star," published by Frederick Douglass, the great Negro abolitionist. In 1850 he changed the name to "Frederick Douglass's Paper."

Though progress has been made in nearly every phase of American life, excerpts from the great abolitionist's writings, have a familiar ring to the present day readers of Negro newspapers.

One popular subject, "The Constitution of the United States," upon which much orating is done each spring by high school students who compete in the national contests of the Elk lodge, was one of Douglass' favorite subjects. In one of his speeches he delivered in 1860, he said of the Constitution:

"Its language is, 'We the people'—not we the white people, not even we the citizens, not the privileged class, not we the high, not we the low, but

Iowans Attend National Convention of United Beauty School Owners and Teachers' Association Held In Detroit and Canada

Mrs. Earlean Hunter and Mrs. Fannie Alexander of Sioux City, Ia., Mrs. Pauline B. Humphrey of Des Moines attended the eighth national convention of the United Beauty School Owners and Teachers' Association, the Alpha Chi Pi Omega sorority and fraternity, March 8 to 11, in Detroit, Mich., and Canada.

The headquarters in Detroit were at the Gotham hotel and in Windsor, Canada, at Prince Edward hotel.

Mrs. Marjorie Stewart Joyner, president of the national organization, presided.

The organization presented $3,050 to Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune for the Bethune Cookman college at Daytona Beach, Fla., one of the projects of the beauticians.

Mrs. Bethune was one of the guest speakers at the meeting in Detroit, at the Ebenezer AME church. Business sessions, hair style review and formal dance were held in the Veterans Memorial building.

In Canada, the Windsor Hair Dressers Association presented Mr. L. Rozetti of London as guest artist. A representative from Hollywood was an artist for the Detroit group.

Atty. J. Ransom spoke on "The Importance of Statesmanship in the Beauty Field." Luncheon speaker in Windsor was Mayor J. Hague.

Mrs. Humphrey of Des Moines was elected first basileus of the organization.

Plans were made for the next meeting to be held in London and Paris.

Club Fiesta met March 13 with Reba Diggs, 789 13th street. A buffet supper was served and games were played.

The next meeting, Friday, March 6, will be with Dorothy Burris, 935 Thirteenth street. Reporter is Uma King.

as a pupil in a private school, "run by a Christian lady near his home." Douglass said he was "happy in the thought that his child was having advantages which he had lost."

But his daughter was not happy and he discovered that his child was kept in a room by herself, a prisoner on account of her color, and not permitted to see or hear any of the other pupils."

Who has forgotten the Negro law student in Oklahoma who had a room all by himself, from which he could look into another room at the white students who were supposed to be members of the same class. That was just a few years ago, after a Supreme Court ruling in one of the NAACP's educational battles.

But the early slave-day editor kept on fighting because there was no other school near his children, "except a very poor one kept up for colored people only at the other side of the city."

Remember, the Negro parents in King William, Va., on Jan. 9, 1953, who were convicted of violating the state's compulsory attendance law because they refused to send their children twenty miles out of town to a Jimcrow school?

Douglass kept on fighting Jimcrow schools with his newspaper and his speeches until "all of the children were permitted to enter the Rochester schools without distinction of color, a reform not yet accomplished at Washington."

And a century later, it still isn't accomplished at Washington. For just last month, hundreds of Negro pupils were being kept home from the overcrowded Jimcrow schools, by their parents who went on a strike in demand that their children be permitted to attend a nearby white school which was not crowded.

This slave-day editor, Douglass, also opposed all restrictions at theaters, lecture-rooms, and other public places; and colored travelers, soon told him that they felt the influence of his paper within a radius of fifty miles." And, the distance of fifty miles during the horse and buggy days was a long, long way.

A note arrived last week from Mrs. Susie Hart Martin, formerly of Dubuque, Ia., but now living in Chicago, Illinois.

"Well, I am living in the city, I said I would never live in, but so far Chicago has been very kind to me. I have a lovely position (which helps me to forget the things I don't like about Chicago) and I like it very much.

"Rev. John Alexander is my pastor again. He is doing big things here. Have run into a lot of D.M. folk."

Mrs. Martin, former Des Moines resident, now resides at 7238 Eberhart, Apt. 2, Chicago 19, Ill.

A welcome to springtime that arrives officially Saturday. May the good weather linger.

PERSONAL TOUCH

By MARIE ROSS

While at the city library one day this week, I ran into Rev. Luther H. Smith who had been doing a bit of reading.

We struck up a conversation at the reference files—and if you know the religious, political, civic and family-minded citizen, then you know he was talking about some phase of the race problem in America.

"You know, I've always said that if you could get the Negro newspapers into all of the families, instead into just Negro families, mainly, we could make more progress in solving some of the Negro's problems.

"They'd get to read about what happens to us as citizens and they would know our side," the Burns Methodist church affiliate and Crocker YMCA veteran member said.

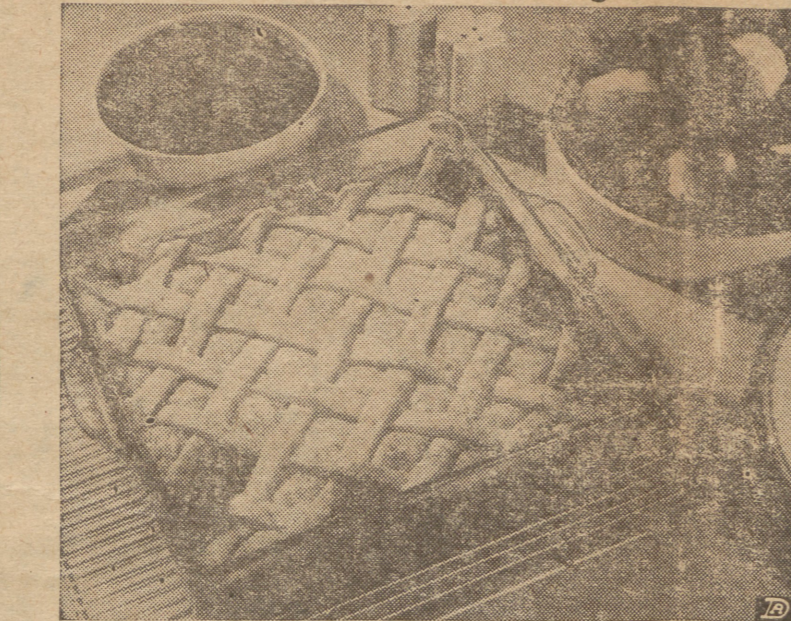

He has always been interested in getting Negro newspapers and publications circulated just as freely in the homes of white citizens as the white papers are distributed among the Negro Americans.

Would have a great effect—if something like that would happen. Many citizens in many cities (outside of Des Moines and some of the larger municipalities) never read of a Negro, unless in some crime or anti-social story.

One can go to any large newsstand and pick out a paper from nearly any section of the country—browse through thirty or more pages of the daily news, and one would never know by the paper that thousands and thousands of Negro citizens live in that same community, rear their families, send their sons to battle, have their racial problems and die.

In some white dailies not a word is mentioned in the paper.

Cheese Crusted Hamburger Pie

Here is a flavorful, colorful, meal-in-a-dish—just the thing to please the end of the month food budget.

Tempt family appetites with this Cheese Crusted Hamburger Pie early this spring. You may even be surprised yourself at how your family will accept a new dish so quickly—and demand repeats in the future.

This pie can be your economy dish for the week. The hamburger pie picks up a delicious new flavor with the "melt in your mouth" cheese crusted topping. Luckily too, it not only tastes good, but is good for you! When the cheese crust is made with enriched flour, you get extra shares of B-Vitamins and food iron along with food energy and protein.

Along with this Cheese Crusted Hamburger pie you will like to include a fresh green tossed salad with some of the new spring vegetables. This in itself would make a complete luncheon but... a dinner perhaps you'll want to include a dish of fresh new asparagus. Nothing more will be needed to get the "You're the best cook, mom" reward.

Clip this recipe not only for this week's menu but also for future demands.

CHEESE CRUSTED HAMBURGER PIE

- 1 garlic bud, sliced
- 3 tablespoons fat or drippings
- 1 pound ground beef
- 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper
- 1/4 cup enriched flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 1/2 cups tomato juice (1 No. 2 can)
- 1/2 cup chopped celery
- 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce

Fry garlic in fat or drippings in heavy skillet for about 5 minutes. Remove garlic. Add ground beef and green pepper and brown well. Stir in flour and salt. Add tomato juice and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Stir in celery and Worcestershire sauce. Pour into 8-inch square baking dish. Top with Cheese Pastry.

Cheese Pastry
1 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons cold water (about)

Plan Your Cleaning Closet

from SMALL HOMES GUIDE

A closet engineered to fit your assortment of cleaning supplies and odds-and-ends will save you time, energy and temper. Properly planned, it need take up little space.

First, plan what you want to store in the closet: vacuum cleaner, pail, mops, brooms, ironing board, table leaves, or whatever. Perhaps you will also want to use the closet for sports equipment such as fishing rods, golf clubs and guns.

Next, measure the tallest and widest item you want to store in the closet. Your vacuum cleaner will probably be the most awkward. That should fit in without any skew-having. Above it you can place a shelf to hold cleaning equipment—cloths, newspapers, paper bags and dust bag filter for the cleaner.

Shelves of special shapes like the L, U and the half-shelf might be the answer to how best to use the space available. The U-shaped shelves shown above hold small items; the center leaves space for tall bottles. Vertical dividers nailed below the lowest shelf will keep everything in its place.

An important point is plan to store what is most frequently used at finger-tip length with no reaching and no stretching.

Adequate ventilation at top and bottom is also a must, for safety reasons. Oily mops and rags can be dangerous otherwise.

Finish the interior of the closet with a grease and dustproof finish. Glossy or semigloss paint, linoleum or oil cloth fill the order.

New Notes in Cooking

A stuffed baked potato is fine, but even finer is the potato pulp mixed with creamed sea codfish or creamed finnan haddock and put back into the potato shell. Bake, of course, to reheat and brown lightly.

Mix crisp-fried bacon bits with creamed cream-style corn; season with Ac'cent (pure monosodium glutamate), salt, pepper. Heat, serve, and sit back for compliments.

Alternate buttered and seasoned layers of cooked macaroni, drained chopped spinach, and grated cheese in a buttered baking dish. Bake in moderate oven until cheese on top is browned and bubbly. A wonderful no-meat treat.

Sunday or holiday supper, in a wink, is no trick at all. Spread deviled ham paste on split, toasted, and buttered English muffins. Top with creamy scrambled eggs. Good!

Stewing lamb cubes, flavored with garlic and seasoned with Ac'cent, then browned, are a good start for a one-dish meal. Bake with liquid until partly done; add cooked barley, carrots, and peas. Fragrant, flavorful and satisfying is this dish.

45 Million Pairs Of Shoes To Be Sold In U.S. This Easter

American women are going to buy 45,000,000 pairs of shoes within the next six weeks—which means one pair for almost every woman in the country.

The annual Spring shoe buying binge begins a couple of weeks before Easter and runs through April. During this period more than 20 percent of the women's shoe production marches off the shelves.

Mrs. America will be pleased to find that shoe prices—unlike many other items—have not gone up since last Easter. In some cases, prices are actually lower.

Main reason for this is the fact that the price of leather has remained stable, close to the postwar low. Since the leather in your shoes represents approximately one-third of the production cost, a cut in leather prices is reflected proportionately when you go to buy a pair of new shoes.

LITTLE FUTURE IN BETTER HOUSING HERE

The senate has confirmed former Congressman Albert M. Cole of Kansas to administer the Housing and Home Financing Agency over the objection of several organizations because during his service in Congress he opposed such legislation. Most people say this is a victory for real estate lobby.

President Eisenhower has appointed other people who oppose the objectives of the agency they are designated to serve. Just how this practice can help further his administration is difficult to understand.

Public housing has had a hard row to hoe in Iowa because the legislature has refused to pass the necessary laws authorizing communities to take advantage of this type of construction.

The laxity of the legislature has made it almost impossible for the lower income group, both white and Negro, to avail themselves of housing projects such as are to be found in cities north and south. And when visitors come to Des Moines they are shocked that a town with such a liberal record on other questions should be so backward in housing.

There are too many blighted areas in Des Moines, too many shacks on streets that should be making fine appearances. People living in these areas make good money just as they do in other cities. But here the real estate lobby has been blind to the problem by preferring to make unfair profits than have the lower income citizens occupy decent housing.

Little can be expected of Mr. Cole and less for the legislature.

LET'S KEEP TALKING WITH RUSSIA

Should American officials meet the Russians with their new leader and talk about peace? Many agree that Russia won't keep its word anyway so there is no point in doing so.

During the last few days, events have brought a shooting war nearer to our doors. Russia is shooting at allied planes and allied planes at Russian planes. Some have been shot down, some lives have been lost. And this is about the way both world wars have been started. The situation looks bad.

Few fights are started when both sides gather around the table to talk a situation over. And as long as the opposing sides discuss a matter there is always hope for peace.

Frankly, something more than bullying each other must be done and without delay for the strained international situation can't go on indefinitely without some fellow losing his emper.

DES MOINES BASEBALL ATLOW EBB

Last season the Des Moines Bruins baseball team made a mesurable showing and thus the attendance was the same.

Just why the Des Moines Bruins should be loaded with a bunch of sand lot ball players is hard to understand. There were scrub teams in the city that could have outclassed them.

Of course, we must realize that Des Moines is a farm team belonging to the Chicago Cubs. And while manager Holland has done a good job, his chances are limited.

It is hoped that the 1953 season will be different. Baseball is a clean sport, good entertainment. These things help the morale of a community. Des Moines will back a good team but one like the 1952 squad will not get much support.

Patterson Resigns

SEE FRONT PAGE Negro youth. During the next few years of transition, I can think of no service more important than that which may assist our institutions to make the most of their resources as they seek to meet fully the standards of higher education.

At Tuskegee Dr. Patterson came to a school with a budget of less than a million dollars, but now has an annual budget exceeding $3,000,000. He established a school of veterinary medicine which is the only Negro-operated school of its kind in the world and one of only three such schools in the South.

In the field of low cost housing Dr. Patterson and Tuskegee are pioneers. The federal government now regards Tuskegee as an important resource in that field.

Outstanding Achievement

As an educator, Dr. Patterson's outstanding achievement probably was the initiation and development of the United Negro College Fund which he has served as president for the past 10 years. Through the UNCF 32 private colleges banded together to raise funds to prevent deficits.

Since 1945, the UNCF has raised more than $20,000,000.

Although he is going to the Phelps-Stokes Fund he will continue his work with the UNCF.

Officials of the Phelps-Stokes Fund praised the choice of Dr. Patterson as its new head. Emory Ross, president, said Dr. Patterson's character, training, experience and achievements in education qualify him for his new post. Ross added:

"The international influence of America's successes and failures in Negro education and in further facilitating Negro citizens' participation and contribution in American life is greater than ever before. It is a critical element in our world struggle. So also is America's relationship to Africa, its people and their aspirations and problems. The trustees of the Phelps-Stokes Fund believe that Dr. Patterson can give special leadership qualities in these matters."

Dr. Tobias said:

"Dr. Patterson has demonstrated by his administration of Tuskegee institute and his pioneering in collective financing of college education that he is fully capable of directing a foundation whose principal objectives include improvement of opportunities for disadvantaged groups regardless of race."

Dr. Patterson will remain at Tuskegee until June 1. The Tuskegee board is expected to form a committee to select a new president.

Graduate of Iowa

A native of Washington, D. C., Dr. Patterson was born Oct. 10, 1901. He was graduated from Iowa State college in 1923 as a doctor of veterinary medicine and received his M.S. there in 1927. He earned his Ph.D. from Cornell university in 1932.

Before coming to Tuskegee he was an instructor in veterinary science and director of agriculture at Virginia State college.

In 1935, Dr. Patterson was married to Miss Catherine Elizabeth Moton, daughter of the school's second president. They have one son, Frederick D. Patterson Jr., 12 years old.

They will reside in New York after the Tuskegee school year ends.

Jefferson City, Mo.—A daily newspaper and two national magazines have been chosen to receive the 1953 Lincoln University (Mo.) School of Journalism Award for "significant contributions to better human relations," according to an announcement today by the School of Journalism.

The Christian Science Monitor, Collier's and the Saturday Evening Post will be cited at a banquet on the Lincoln University campus, April 23. Last year three magazines—Time, the Nation, and the Ladies Home Journal—received the award. The 1952 awards were the first given in this category by the Jefferson City institution.

The Monitor was chosen for its years of publishing articles concerning minority group affairs, domestic and foreign. The Post award went for the two recent articles on Negro education in the South and for two earlier pieces on the Negro soldier.

In the case of Collier's the award was merited by the recent article on "Racial Prejudice—How San Francisco Squelched It," and by an earlier one on Thurgood Marshall.

THE DES MOINES BRANCH NAACP Says:

At a meeting of the Executive Board of the Des Moines Branch NAACP last week, a resolution was adopted authorizing the legal redress committee to participate in the appeal of the Felix Williams case to the state Supreme Court.

The action was taken after the legal redress committee gave a report of the trial, the sentence imposed that the board might be able to make of the trial, the sentence imposed and a resume of sentences in the district court for felonies over the years that the board might be able to make an intelligent decision. The vote was unanimous.

This article is being written as Al Coupee, sports director of station KRNT, was saying on his broadcast that the penalty imposed upon the Des Moines high school boys by the board of control of high school athletics because of a fracas in Ames last week was too severe.

The public will be kept informed as to the progress of the case.

The labor committee of the Iowa House of Representatives has agreed to hold a public hearing on the FEP bill now pending. At this time opportunity will be given those favoring the bill to tell why they think it should pass; those opposing it may offer objections.

FEP bills have been before the legislature for the past three sessions, but it is the first time that they have been advanced to this stage.

The legislative committee and other cooperating interested groups, will spearhead the hearing. It would be well for as many people as possible who desire to come be present and show that there is real demand for such legislation, to attend. The hearing will be Monday, March 23.

Legislators not only look to the merits of a measure but also who is supporting it in making up their minds how to vote.

BY ALLEN ASHBY

We were interested in a series of articles on the amazing Zybiske of a couple of the best old time wrestlers running in the Des Moines Register.

Waldek was as we recollect the more agile of the two but not the best wrestler. It was our good fortune to appear on the same card with both of the brothers in 1922 and 23.

Wolder Zybiske Stanley was a master of leverage and balance. We remember the former Iowa kid and World's Champion, Earl Caddock.

They called him the man of a thousand holds and he put them all on Zybiske. The old fellow just sat there shifting his weight in jugging his shoulders and breaking every hold the Iowan applied. People were marveling at the speed and ability to shift holds when Caddock either got tired or relaxed. Then there was a sudden flick of a big hand, a scramble and the big Pole was sitting on Caddock who was flatter than a spread out newspaper. That was wrestling in the old days.

We were so wrapped up in our state basketball last week that we neglected a couple of visits by out-of-town teams and an unequalled feat by the Hottentots. The Rock Plant Rockets have squeezed out their annual victory over the Hottentots and a young bunch came up from Cedar Rapids last week.

The Hottentots became probably the first Negro team to win the Southside gold medal tournament in the clan a division then. Bob White says they won the following fight also. A double win. Usually you break even down there.

Won't be long now Jersey Joe Walcott will try to defy history and win back his heavyweight boxing title. We don't think the old guy will ever again be as sharp as he was in his

The 55th General Assembly will complete its work in about one more month. During the first half of the session it has been a "make haste slowly" session in which intensive study of proposed legislation, lengthy consideration by committees—often times by the two houses operating as a committee of the whole—of important bills.

It is well to remember that in legislative operations committee work takes up more than half the time of legislators during the opening weeks when legislation is whipped into shape for action on the floor of the houses. For example, considerably more time has been taken by the legislature in working out a solution to the snarled Old Age and Survivors Insurance program for public employees than in some legislation of far less importance that has made headline news. Committee work on the some 800 bills filed for consideration by the two houses has taken up the major share of the time spent by the assemblymen up to this date.

Sinus Trouble

"Don't blow your nose so hard, junior," mother calls to son, "you may get sinus trouble."

Mother is perfectly right. Blowing your nose violently is one way of forcing infectious germs into the sinuses, the air spaces in the bones of the head. Sinusitis, as the disease is called, is an infection of the lining of these air spaces, all of which are connected with the nose by small openings. For that reason, infections of the nose, throat, and chest can travel to the sinuses, with unpleasant results.

Sinusitis is frequently painful. Inflammation of the nose or of the lining of the sinus may close the air space and block drainage. If the sinus is closed for any length of time, the air inside is used up and a vacuum forms which causes pain. Pus or other secretions may form and press on the sinus wall, also causing pain, often severe.

Sinus trouble can be caused in many ways, other than blowing your nose too hard. In addition to respiratory infections like colds, influenza, whooping cough, or diphtheria, causes may be one or more of the following: sudden chilling, poor diet, fatigue, allergies, infected teeth or tonsils, enlarged adenoids, or other nasal obstructions.

Frequent use of sprays and antiseptics in the nose may injure the mucous membrane and bring on sinusitis. For this reason alone, it is wise not to use nose drops or inhalant unless the doctor prescribes them. Sinusitis is too serious to try to treat yourself.
