Roy Wilkins Writes About The Republicans in Their First 120 Days in Office

New York.—Everyone has been writing about the first days or so of the Eisenhower administration as to tax cuts, budget trimming, house-cleaning, foreign policy, military operations, etc.

By ROY WILKINS
The Republican "line" on the Negro is "no special treatment, just fair inclusion in the general plan for all the people."

On paper and in speeches this sounds smooth and plausible. The Negro party faithful have taken up the refrain and are saying that the Democrats "ruined" the Negro by making him a special pet in propaganda and lulling him to sleep, but doing nothing concrete for him.

Not Equal

The basic trouble with the Republican position is that it is unrealistic. The doctrine of "no special favors for Negroes" is good only if the Negro is in truth on an equality with other citizens. That being true, he has no need of and should not receive special treatment.

But everyone over the age of three knows that the Negro is not in fact on an equality with other citizens. Unless he gets special treatment, unless special attention is given to correcting the inequalities

$150,000 Jewel and Fur Robberies

New York.—(CNS)—When young Mrs. Arlene Lemon told police last week how she obtained fake references as a maid and then proceeded to steal $150,000 in jewels and furs from the families that employed her, a series of baffling robberies were finally cleared up.
Arrested with the expectant mother was her husband, Robert, whom she tried to shield by declaring: "He didn't play much of a part. If the

At St. Paul Sunday

REV. LOVELL JOHNSON
The Rev. Lovell Johnson, associate minister of Bethel AME church, Detroit, Mich., will preach at the St. Paul AME church here Sunday morning, June 7, at 11 o'clock.

He is a former pastor of an AME church in Chicago, Ill., where he was employed as a social worker with the Cook County Social Welfare Department.

The Rev. Mr. Johnson received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from Wilberforce university, and earned his Bachelor of Divinity degree at Payne Theological seminary.

He is in Des Moines to be married on Wednesday, June 10, to Miss Marguerite DeSleat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. DeSleat, in a wedding ceremony at the home of the bride.

Miss DeSleat is head of the church, nursery department and a member of the Des Moines Public school system.
stein netted the Lemons only $6,000 as he paid them less than 10% of the real value of the items. When the Lemons were arrested in their luxurious apartment, detectives discovered $700. in cash and $14,000 in stolen jewelry. Both were held without bail.

Pushing and Shoving at N. C. Catholic Parish

Newton Grove, N. C.—A melee of pushing and shoving last Sunday followed the first attempt to consolidate Negro and white Catholic parishes in this small North Carolina town.

A group of about 25 white men sought to force an audience with the Rev. Vincent Waters, bishop of Raleigh, following three masses to which both white and Negro parishioners were invited.
Reporter Charlie Craven, of the Raleigh, N. C., News-Observer, said the men then sought to force their way into the rectory of the church of the Holy Redeemer.

A young priest, Father George Lynch, of the Raleigh diocese, barred the way, Craven said, and refused to give ground in the pushing and shoving that resulted.

A number of women screamed, but no one was injured in the incident. The background of the church merger was this:
The two Catholic churches in this small town, about 40 miles south of Raleigh, are about 100 yards apart. The church of the Holy Redeemer had about 300 white members and St. Benedict's about 90 Negro members. On April 19, Bishop Waters announced the two congregations would be merged Sunday.

Craven said considerable resentment was aroused among some of the white parishioners by the order.
The bishop himself appeared unannounced to say the first three masses at the church of the Holy Redeemer Sunday.

Fourteen white and 20 Negro members attended. Nine Negroes and three whites attended the second mass, which was said by Father Lynch, and only 12 whites were present for the third.

Eckstine and Mate to Court Again June 8

Los Angeles, Cal.—Billy Eckstine and his exotic looking wife, June, will go back to Los Angeles Superior Court June 8 for a hearing on the temporary alimony claims of Mrs. Eckstine, who has filed her second suit for divorce from the 37-year-old bebop baritone in little more than a year.

Restrained by Superior Court Judge Elmer Doyle from disposing of, or transferring any of his wealth, the singer is asked for approximately $1800-a-month alimony by his petite, silken haired wife who was a singer in her own right when they were married 11 years ago.

In addition of $1791.89 for herself, Mrs. Eckstine asks $7,500 in fees for her attorney, Bentley M. Harris, white.

This latest suit in the nationally known domestic rift of the Eckstines was filed two weeks ago, and alleges extreme, wrongful serious, and grievous cruelty, also charging "Mr. B" wordily with being "guilty of coarse conduct in relation to her which has come to destroy the tranquility of the home and defeat the legitimate ends and purposes of matrimony, all without provocation."

Mrs. Eckstine asked that all community property be set apart as her own, including their $60,000 home at 4031 Noe, San Francisco, which she is a $10,000 encumbrance; and $30,000 in furniture, which is encumbered in the amount of $3,500.

Her own private property consists of a 1953 Cadillac on which $2,600 is owed, said Mrs. B, while Eckstine owns separately the "Mr. B. Sharp Shop" in New York.

Knox Ousts Frat In Racial Case

Galesburg, Ill.—Knox college last Saturday ousted the Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity from the campus because of alleged racial discrimination.

A faculty statement said there was "evidence that the national fraternity's policy of racial discrimination has been invoked to thwart the voluntary course of action sought by members of the active chapter."

More than half the members of the chapter here resigned from the fraternity Friday and charged that the national organization has barred a Negro pledge from membership.

Nancy Bush, 16, Struck By Auto

Nancy Bush, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bush, 1219 Center street, was injured about noon Monday when she was struck by a car near her home.
She was taken to Broadlawn's General hospital suffering from head and arm injuries. Police identified the driver as Vern J. Hansen, 820 Seventeenth street.

Suits Involved Refusal of Georgia U. and Texas College to Admit Negroes

New York.—Two recent decisions handed down by federal courts in the South reinforce the drive of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People to outlaw segregation in education, Thurgood Marshall, special counsel, said today. The decisions involve the refusal of the University of Georgia and a junior college in Texas to admit Negro students.

The United States District Court in Georgia rejected a petition of the University to dismiss a suit filed last year by Horace Ward to compel the state university to admit him to its law school. The suit, filed a year ago, alleged that Mr. Ward, a graduate of Morehouse College and Atlanta University, was denied admission to the law school when he first applied in 1950 solely because of his race. The court, in a ruling handed down on May 15, ordered the case set down for trial.

The University board of regents had offered to pay a major part of Ward's tuition at a Negro law school or any law school in the East where

Campy Hero to the Dodgers; 16 Homers in First 35 Games

New York.—(CNS)—As Roy Campanella continues "to hit like crazy," Flatbush fans will tell you that he's more than likely to beat the Babe Ruth record of 60 home runs and certainly the Hack Wilson National League home record of 56.

And they have good reason to go out on this long limb, for Roy—the hero of the upsurging Dodgers—has already hit 16 homers in his first 35 games with one more added on Memorial Day in his 36th game. And this is ahead of Both Ruth and Wilson at this stage of the campaign.

Home Run

Should Roy not quite make the Ruth or Wilson marks, there's one record he's sure to equal and maybe surpass. That is the all time home run record for catchers which is 37 as established by Gabby Harnett of the Chicago Cubs.

Churchman, Labor Leader Among Main Speakers in St. Louis at NAACP Meeting

New York.—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam of the Methodist church, a leading Protestant churchman, will share the platform with Walter White, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, at the closing meeting of the Association's 44th annual convention in St. Louis, June 23-28.
A former president of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, Bishop Oxnam is widely known as a spokesman for Protestantism and as an advocate of social justice. He is the author of several books on religion, ethics and sociology. Together with Mr. White he will address the final session of the convention on Sunday afternoon June 28.

Also scheduled to address the convention is Patrick E. Gorman, secretary-treasurer of the 420,000-member Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America, an AFL union with a large Negro membership. The May issue of the Butcher Workman, the union's official organ, features an informative article on progress in race relations by Hilton E. Hanna. Mr. Gorman will speak at the Thursday night session which will also hear Thurgood Marshall, the Association's special counsel, who argued the Clarendon County, S. C. school case before the United States Supreme Court and asked the court to declare segregation in public elementary and secondary schools unconstitutional. The court has not yet handed down its decision.

CURRIED CHICKEN FOR SPRINGTIME MENU

Curried chicken takes on a party air when served in individual bowls on fluffy rice encircled with an outer ring of crisp, fried noodles.

Spring is a time that's difficult for meal planning. Warmer weather brings on finicky appetites, yet it's too early for summer foods.

A good solution is to plan a menu around an appetite-arousing main dish such as curried chicken and to include spring-like accompaniments—fresh asparagus spears, crisp relishes and pineapple sherbet with fresh strawberry sauce.

CURRIED CHICKEN (Makes 4 servings) 3 tablespoons butter 3 tablespoons flour 1 teaspoon curry powder 1 cup chicken bouillon 3/4 cup rich milk

Salt and pepper 1 1/2 cups diced cooked chicken Cooked rice Canned fried noodles

Melt butter; blend in flour and curry powder. Gradually add chicken bouillon and milk, stirring constantly. Cook over hot water, stirring frequently until thickened. Season to taste with salt and pepper. If more curry flavor is desired, mix additional curry powder to smooth paste with a little of the sauce before adding it to the sauce in the double boiler. Add chicken and continue to cook until heated. Serve on freshly cooked rice with a garnish of canned fried noodles.

Picnic Sandwiches

Celebrate "August is Sandwich Time" picnic fashion with the favorite sandwiches pictured here. Sandwiches are so easy to make and so enjoyable.

Picnic time is fun time! Keep food preparation to a minimum. You can quickly make up ham and cheese sandwiches. Everyone likes 'em. Or, you might even take the "fixings" along and let each one make his special favorite.

Potato salad is a high ranking escort for sandwiches. On hurry-up occasions buy a big bag of potato chips. Make a big thermos jug of lemonade and take along a sack of fresh fruit. Your menu is complete!

Ham and cheese make ideal fillings for sandwiches because they travel well. Other good pre-made picnic sandwiches include all of the luncheon meats and sausages, roast beef, sliced chicken, tongue and corned beef. If you want your sandwich to take on "dagwood" proportions, take along picadillo, mustard, tomatoes, lettuce leaves, chili sauce and salad dressing.

There are many other delicious sandwich fillings which are at their best when made at the picnic site. Choose from the wide variety of cheeses and meat spreads available in jars. Take along a can of sardines and hard cooked eggs for "make-your-own" specialties. Another good one is made by mixing cream cheese with crushed crisp bacon, chipped beef or crushed fruits.

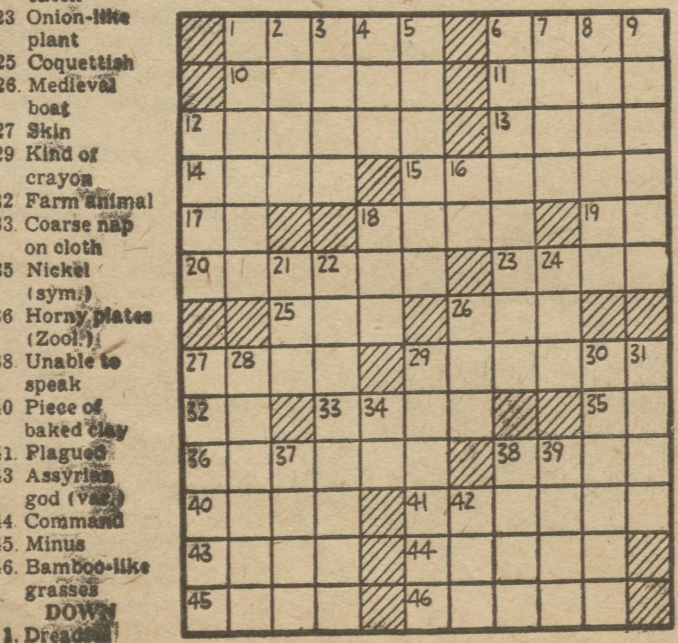

If you have a camp stove, or facilities for making a fire, you'll probably want to take along frankfurters and long buns. Other "best sellers" are the mighty hamburger and the luxury steak. Perhaps you haven't ever made toasted cheese sandwiches over a fire. You'll like them. Heat pork and beans, too, over the fire and make bean sandwiches with Boston brown bread. Bacon is especially good with this.

Add variety to picnic sandwiches by using different breads. Of course, enriched white bread is most popular. But you will enjoy occasionally, whole wheat, rye, pumpernickel, raisin and cinnamon breads. Fruit and nut breads are especially good with cheese spreads.

Handy Jim's FIX-UP TIPS For Farm and Home
It's a Shelf on Shelf!
SOME deep closets have a shelf in back that's hard to reach. To make it more accessible, just install a thin shelf on top and slide it out when storing or removing items. Because of its smooth, snag-free, long-wearing qualities, a panel of Masonite Tempered Presdwood is excellent for this purpose. Its width should be one-half inch narrower than that of the closet shelf, and its smooth side should face down to facilitate the sliding. As a combination pull and railing, fasten a piece of 1 by 2-inch lumber at the front, by inserting countersunk screws through drilled holes in the Tempered Presdwood. Add 1 by 2-inch reinforcing at each side of the shelf, one-half inch from each edge. So that the shelf won't tip when moved forward, fasten to the wall at each side a narrow strip of lumber, or a quarter-round, 3/8 of an inch above the shelf. The sliding shelf makes this out-of-the-way storage area readily usefull.

To Nassau

We were far above the clouds, sailing over the Atlantic Ocean; then over the Caribbean Sea.

We soared until a flight report revealed that we were 10,000 feet above the sea, flying 275 miles per hour.

Looking down upon the clouds, it is indescribable. Billows and billows of them—some white like snow, some a bit grey-tinted, clustering together—made bright by the beaming sun. Some seemed so close you could have reached out and touched them.

Our plane was especially equipped so as to make the high altitudes unnoticeable. A lovely breakfast was served us. Minutes passed. Custom papers had to be filled out with all this to be done before we could land. Each of us kept so busy that there was little time for fear.

Over Nassau

At 9:30 a.m. we were circling over Nassau, viewing the capital city. Overseer J. E. Wattlely, Jr., landed first for he was equipped to take moving pictures of the trip and as we neared the gate of customs, we could see Overseer R. H. Hunt, Mother Katie Frazier and many other saints waiting to welcome us.

Mother Frazier was so glad to see us she wept for joy. Sufficient cars were waiting for us to tour the city. As we traveled through Cable Beach Road, the guide pointed out various sites of interest.

Nassau is noted as the beautiful tropical playground in the blue Caribbean Sea. The bright red and yellow hibiscus and the straight line of royal palm trees bordered the roadways and by-paths. All the buildings we saw were of simple type, square-shaped, made of limestone and cement.

As beautiful as the country is round about, one would wonder why there are so many people who seem so poor—but the land is made-up of limestone, and, many things we grow, they have to import.

The buildings are simple and small yet clean and beautiful. The population of Nassau is 35,000 with 85 per cent colored. The way of life here seemed to be relaxed, no roaring of noisy traffic, instead the pleasant sounds of horse draw carriages.

Truly, this British colony belongs to the past. The streets are filled with bicycle riders. There are no traffic lights on the island. All vehicles are moving on the left.

First Stop

Our first stop was at Fort Charlotte. This fort was built—all out of solid limestone, within two years, over 165 years ago. Even though by hand the work is magnificent.

Located one mile west of the city, along Bay street, it contains a number of underground dungeons, stairways and chambers. The fort is now used as a signal station.

The next site of interest was the famous Queen Staircase, a flight of 65 steps cut in the solid rock of a deep limestone canyon. The steps were built by slave labor hundreds of years ago. Known for years as the 66 steps, but recently discovered to be 65, this brought on a mild panic in Nassau, until today the missing step remains a mystery. Where is the missing step?

Each one of the steps represent the year that Queen Victoria reigned.

Shopping Center

The next stop on our tour we looked forward to with great anticipation, as in each island we stopped. Here we went to the shopping center. We were fascinated with the native goods, such as the Bahamian straw hats and bags, tortoiseshelled and sea-shelled jewelry, sold in the open air markets, more like a bazaar than anything I have ever seen.

Miss Webster was a very nice person, a lovely guide. I think she won the hearts of each—and, we wanted to obey her—so, when she said it was time to go, we sorrowfully gathered our newly purchased straw shopping bags, filled to their brims, and followed her to cars waiting to take us to lunch.

We lunched at the Mermaid Hotel and as you entered through the little white picket fence, you knew the original, liberal custom of bygone years, abide yet with the inhabitants of Nassau.

The meal was served in English style. The menu, a bit tropical and a little on the American side, was colorful and good.

Visit Home

I think Mother Frazier was about the only one who did not enjoy it for she was thinking we were not going to be able to see her work and home. She wanted us to hurry.

On our arrival at her home, the saints were there to meet us singing and praising God. Bishop Crouch offered prayer. Then we sang "I Love You." Then Mother Frazier showed us through her home.

We saw the suite of furniture Mother Mattie McGlothen and the North California women bought for the home, also the refrigerator. Her

Summer Peach Treat

Peach-upside down cake is a perennial family favorite but it reaches new heights of flavor and popularity when fresh peaches form the golden fruit topping. So for a perfect summer treat let's serve fresh peach shortcake with a snowy crown of fluffy whipped cream. The basis for the upside-down cake must equal the perfection of the sun-ripened peaches, so select the cake ingredients with care. A good tested recipe, the finest of ingredients and following instructions exactly will give you the velvety-textured cake you desire and your friends envy.

3 teaspoons double acting baking powder

2 tablespoons sugar | 1/2 cup milk (about)
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon almond extract
2 to 3 cups sliced peaches

Cut several gashes in dough.

house is a neat, frame home. There is no building carrying the name we love so much, "The Church of God in Christ." This Mother Frazier longs for. Her services of worship are held in her yard, when the Baptist church is not available. Her enrollment of children is 89.

The delegates did not display of their projects, but left gifts here: one canner, two dozen jars, dish clothes, steel wool, children's garments and first aid kits.

Miss Webster asked who would volunteer to put water in the home. Overseer Wattlely of Texas, Mother Birdie Whitehead of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Bassalia Bell of Lincoln, Nebr., volunteered.

I could write a book about Nassau, but I must stop. There is much yet to tell. During the last 100 years, the temperature never has been lower than 50 degrees.

Although Nassau is just an island, there are 24 different religious denominations, our guide told us. The sea grape trees that grow wild loaded with their fruit, best for jellies, wine and marmalades; the beautiful trees with clusters of leaves that the natives call "Match Me If You Can," took our attention.

Our guide also pointed out the government house the Duke and Duchess of Windsor lived in from 1945 to 1950; and many other things of interest.

Bidding all goodbye, we boarded the plane for Port Au Prince, Haiti, at 3:15 p.m. Most of us had on our new straw native hats we had purchased in the Nassau markets and we had put away our American hats, but dear Miss Webster began to smile. I must say Mother Coffey could not have chosen a nicer, yet firm and positive person, so sweet in her manner.

Miss Webster said: "Now, I think it would be nice if you ladies would remove the native hats and put on your own. I feel they in Haiti would appreciate it better. Don't you?"

We did not express ourselves, just took off the hats and put on our own.

The weather was excellent. Choosing our same plane seats, Bishop

'On Records'

By MARY RUTLEDGE

You Kats and Kittens, Chix and Chickens take heed, and dig with a crazy beat! Oscar, (The Wild) Peterson has a nice swinging gate and has come up with a group of tunes that are meant to "Kill". He leaves no one without. Cole Porter, George Gershwin, Duke Ellington and Irving Berlin are immortalized again. Barney Kessel, Ray Brown and Oscar Peterson are the men. In years to come "These Three" will be known as the Peterson Trio, and all one word as the Nat Cole Trio became. To find a cat who plays so great, swings so freely, digs Bop so calmly, has the beat, drives so fiercely and sweetly, too, and crazy, all at once, is something almost beyond comprehension. You can't be human and ask for more.

In these collections, you will find 48 sides absolutely incomparable. (like Hildegard, yet). To mention a few: "I've Got A Crush On You, Love Walked In", (Great Gershwin), "Isn't This A Lovely Day, I've Got My Love To Keep Me Warm", (Berlin—fully beautiful); "Sophisticated Lady", "Prelude To A Kiss"; (Duke de-lavables); and "Love For Sale" and "Anything Goes" (Porter personified). The tunes have been recorded many, many times by many different people, but thru Pete's efforts I find a new and fresher interpretation. Ray Brown handles his part so very successfully. He is fast becoming one of the greatest bass men around. Barney Kessel worships Charlie Christian. Django Reinhardt was the father of guitar, Christian came along and now comes Kessel, a rapid third. Such a team is bound to make head lines. So... take heed, you hip ones.

Overheard—while crossing the desert, one cat to another, hel, man, dig that crazy parking lot!

Mary

THERE'S NEW LIFE in those mismatched or torn nylon stockings you get from time to time. New hobby converts them into pretty, colorful flowers and corsages which you can use to adorn hats, gift packages and low vases—as shown in photo. They're striking also as boutonnières and as adornments for hair, wrists, dresses, jackets and coats.

Making the flowers is easy, inexpensive and full of fun. All you need besides the old nylons are a few boxes of color remover and all-fabric dye plus the usual darning vessels, ordinary copper screening, floral tape, scissors and corsage pins. Floral centers can be colored crocheted cotton dipped in paraffin.

The Tintex Home Economics Bureau has published a free leaflet of instructions. About 10,000,000 leaflets have already been distributed, many to churchwomen eager to make the flowers for sale at fund-raising bazaars and parties, others to hospital convalescents and home shut-ins. Some alert housewives have even converted the hobby into a money-making enterprise.

You can obtain one or more leaflets from the Tintex bureau, by addressing it at 485 Fifth Ave., New York 17, N. Y.

★ Personal Touch By MARIE ROSS ★

I spent the Memorial Day week end reading the many travel experiences written by Iowan, Mrs. Luella Westbrook, who returned last week from the international meeting of the women's convention of the Church of God in Christ, at Miami, Fla., and the post convention trip to Nassau, Haiti, Jamaica and Cuba.

While editing the copy for a series of articles beginning this week in the Bystander, I listened to the many coronation features and the one-hour preview performance Sunday afternoon of Great Britain's greatest event—the crowning of Queen Elizabeth II on Tuesday.

I would read a while about the great need and the destitute conditions of the native peoples in the Islands where the Iowan visited.

I would listen to the radio reports of the coronation features and the day's news of the world. I paused to read the week end newspapers and magazines, many of which carried stories about the fights for mankind's freedom in Africa and other places of the world.

As I listened to the preview of the greatest show on earth—the coronation—which would take place on Tuesday with the pomp and splendor that the British world has never before seen, I paused to look at a storage box of hundreds of letters written since World War II, by British subjects in the West Indies, many of whom had come to America to work—to earn a better living working on the farms in Iowa during the shortage of help. The letters were still there filled with their many yearnings for a better way of life—when these West Indians would be able to earn more than a few cents a day, working on their own plantations in their West Indian homelands.

They, like the British subjects, would be charged fourteen cents a head for the cost of the coronation. As I listened to the lavish descriptions of the queen's jeweled gowns and the Crown's jewels—I could not help but think of the last Thanksgiving day dinner we had at home in Kansas.

A student attending one of the schools for ministers in Kansas, he told of the way of life in his home-

A New Queen Reigns At Florida A. & M. College

Coronation news of many ceremonies held in London this week during the crowning of Great Britain's Queen Elizabeth II filled the airwaves and world's presses—but, here at home the crowning of queens go on annually in school and religious groups.

land, Nigeria, in West Africa, where the British rule. The natives could own land, yes, but such valuable land that Africa has, the natives could own only six feet deep. What was below, he said, belonged to the Crown.

As I listened, I wondered why I should get excited over the coronation, as some of my friends, seemed to be. To listen to the ceremonies for an educational value, that I did—but my thoughts went roaming.

I listened to a description of the coronation chair—King Edward's chair, made of English oak and built to enclose the Stone of Scone, known as the Stone of Destiny, a large flat piece of sandstone with two iron rings for lifting, which legend says was the pillow on which Jacob's head rested when he had his famous dream at Bethel.

One of the most cherished relics in Britain—the chair is now battered but originally it was richly covered with gilt gesso-work wrought into patterns—and on the back was the figure of a king enthroned, and with his feet on a lion.

I listened to the Queen's specially designed coronation gown, over which she wore into the Abbey her crimson and ermine Parliamentary robes and a diadem on her head, and as the ceremony progressed she was invested with the Colobium Sindonis (a sleeveless garment rather like a bishop's surplice), the sleeved cloth-of-gold Supertunica and the Robe Royal of cloth-of-gold, and the St. Edward's Crown with its gem-encrusted rim designed with two gold arches, gold lobe, jeweled cross, and pearl pendants.

And, as this spectacular parade of splendor progressed, and was compared frequently to the Biblical days when King Solomon was in all of his glory, I had to pause a few moments to check the Holy Bible to learn just how much more King Solomon could have added to his royal setting.

I started reading the First Kings, chapter ten. The Queen of Sheba had heard of the fame of Solomon and she paid him a visit to find out if it was true.

Verse number eight of this chapter caught my eye, maybe, because during the coronation of England's new queen, I had heard mentioned in many prayers, similar words. However, the Biblical verse read: "Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and that hear thy wisdom." I pondered there a while as I thought of all of the many British subjects in lands scattered about the world, then continued reading:

"Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the best gold. The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behind: and there were stays on either side of the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the stays. And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom.

"And all King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon, were of pure gold. . . . So King Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom."

And, Solomon ruled until he became old, but, "his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God," the passage read.

Thoughts of gold kept flying around my brain as I listened to the many golden articles mentioned in the coronation—the golden robes, golden sceptres, golden vessels in the ceremony, the golden girdle with the golden sword, the golden coach—and I began to think of the Britian's Gold Coast where millions of Africans live.

My thoughts scattered over the 600 million British subjects in all parts of the earth, especially to the lands where the colored peoples live.

I recalled that in the May 22 issue of the Des Moines Tribune appear-

Hot Weather Canapes

Canapes, attractively arranged on a large plate or tray, are designed to delight the eye and whet the appetite. In hot weather, appetizers made with sardines, anchovies and other salty foods, besides being perfect accompaniments to long, cooling drinks, have the added advantage of replenishing the salt lost in the body. Here are some suggestions for simple, but delicious, hot weather canapes. For the base, use toasted bread squares, crackers or small rye slices.

- ANCHOVIES: Curl around a radish, a stuffed olive or a ball of cream cheese.
- ANCHOVY PASTE: Blend with cream cheese, season with chopped pickled onion, soften with sour cream and top with chopped parsley.
- SARDINES: Place under thinly sliced cucumbers; garnish with an olive. Hold fast with a toothpick.
- GUACAMOLE: Hit of any summer party when Avocado pears are reasonable. Four Avocado pears, peeled and mashed; add a peeled and chopped tomato. Add a teaspoon onion juice, dash of cayenne, salt and pepper and beat smooth with one tablespoon oil and one tablespoon vinegar. (To keep from darkening when made in advance, bury two pits in mixture.)
- HERRING: Marinated. Chop, mix smooth and dilute with marinating sauce if necessary. Decorate with parsley.
- Hard boiled halves of eggs, radish roses, scalloped lemon halves and bits of parsley add color to your canape tray.
- The ideal refreshing beverage mates for these would be: GINGER JACK: Combine 1/4 cup apple juice; slice of lime; two tablespoons simple syrup over ice in tall glass. Fill with pale dry ginger ale.
- SEABREEZE: A gin 'n tonic favorite. Add Quinine (quinine water) and ice to 1 1/2 oz. ancient bottle golden gin. Garnish with lime or lemon slice.
- COOLER: In a tall glass place 1 teaspoon lemon juice, 2 dashes angostura, and ice. Fill with club soda. Garnish with a slice of lemon or lime.
- LIMEADE: Squeeze juice of 1 lime in a tall glass; sweeten to taste. Add cracked ice and water. Stir well; garnish with lime slice.

ed a story written by Edwin A. Lاهی from Khartoum, Anglo-Egyptian Sudan, which was headlined "Let Negro People Join Human Race." The writer went on to say that "There's trouble ahead for the white man in Africa."

"Millions of natives have been infected with a virus that's going around the world. They want to be elected to membership in the human race."

"Unless the white man does something dramatic to give the African a sense of partnership in development of Africa, the white's days on this continent may be numbered."

"The writer said "these observations are not my own," and he added "they represent a consensus gathered from whites and Africans of high and low degree during my two-month tour of Africa that began in French West Africa and continued through Liberia, the Gold Coast, French Equatorial Africa, the Belgian Congo, the Union of South Africa, Southern and Northern Rhodesia, Tanganyika, Mozambique, Zanzibar, Kenya and the Sudan."

I wondered what the natives in the Union of South Africa, Southern and Northern Rhodesia, Tanganyika, Zanzibar, Kenya, and the Sudan, all of the British Commonwealth, thought when they heard their new queen speak. . . . "Then we can go forward together in peace, seeking justice and freedom for all men."

There were so many thoughts that came during the hours of the preview and coronation broadcasts.

Pvt. T. E. Daniels Enroute To Coast Honored At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Elonza Warden of 1149 Third honored their son, Pvt. Theodore E. Daniels, with a dinner Saturday, May 2, at their home.

Those sharing the courtesy were: Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tolson, Mrs. Myrtle Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daniels and children, Robert, Joyce and Lora Mae, Mrs. Helen Simms, Mr. Elmer Tolson, Mr. Arthur Tolson, Miss Ruth Vaughn, Mrs. Elnora Walker, and Cheryl, Karen and Rosie Daniels.

While in Camp Chaffee, Ark., Pvt. Daniels received a medal as gunman. He ended his furlough here May 6 to go to Camp Stoneman, Cal., for overseas duty.

Iowa time, but 11 a.m. in London, Tuesday, made sleeping during the night, a matter of cat naps. The first time I awakened, I turned on the radio to hear an announcer say—"Don't Let the Stars Get Into Your Eyes."

I knew that was not the coronation program—so I watched a beautiful moon, like a queen, rise over the trees from my bedroom window and dozed off again. When I awakened, grey dawn was breaking—and the golden moon had reached my window and it stood waiting like a coach. I turned on my radio to hear that Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh were in the golden coach going to Westminster Abbey for the coronation.

Sleepily, I debated, would I watch the stars—the glorious lights of night—and the moon—that will shine on that day when the world will sing "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name"—and "crown Him Lord of all?" Would I listen to the Queen's ceremony?

To sleep again, I awakened in time to hear the anointing and crowning ceremonies from 6:45 a.m. to 7:45 o'clock—and when the bells rang out to proclaim the new queen, I thought of that day, back in 1776. While the British army encamped on Staten Island, New York, say the historians, thirteen colonies adopted the Declaration of Independence and called themselves the United States of America, no longer subjects of England.

Bells will ring out again next month on July 4 to remind Americans of that occasion when liberty was proclaimed throughout this land.

Though the battles for democracy rage on the home fronts here, men and women are still going from America to join the United Nations armies that are fighting and dying in that seemingly endless war in Korea and the Far East. Coronations come and go down through the ages—but eternally the fight for freedom goes on.

Korea and the Far East. That eternal "ght for freedom goes on.

WE CAN'T LOSE OUR HEADS NOW.

The Korean war has lasted so long without decisive victories on either side that suggestion for future courses of action get more ridiculous day by day.

The latest wild suggestion comes from Senator Taft who says that if the North Koreans refuse to accept the latest proposal for an armistice, he was in favor of the U. S. pulling out of the United Nations combination and going it alone.

Just what Senator Taft hopes the United States can gain by "going it alone" is difficult to understand. True, we have been the deciding factor in winning the past two wars, but without the help of our allies, the job would have been harder with infinitely more casualties.

America was the moving force in organizing the League of Nations and United Nations having concluded that some type of cooperation among nations was essential to world peace. And that sentiment is prevalent today.

Unfortunately, the whole Korean affair has been bungled from start to now. First, we failed to anticipate that the North Koreans would put up a stiff battle knocking our original plans off balance. Second, we have taken too much of a dictatorial attitude giving the impression that the Koreans were not our equals. Third, our negotiators have not been good diplomats failing to demonstrate democracy in its highest sense. We have not displayed confidence that the Koreans have the ability to cope with great problems. Fourth, at times our demands for ending the conflict have been rather ridiculous.

Fortunately, we are waking up to the fact that our program has not been smart and that many things could and should have been done differently. All these things have confused a lot of people like Senator Taft and in desperation are willing to try anything once.

Neither side is going to get all it would like out of this conflict. Democracy is on trial in the far east and it can win over communism if its proponents actually live democracy and treat others as free equals.

American democracy cannot go it alone. The world needs the help of every free nation to meet the threat of communism which has made entirely too much headway.

DES MOINES BRUINS PLAY TRUE TO FORM

The Des Moines baseball team (Bruins) has presented a problem during past few seasons thus creating little enthusiasm among the few rooters that have attended the games.

Frankly, it is difficult to understand why or how the Bruins get so many mediocre players. It is a farm team of the Chicago Cubs and should have the strong backing of the parent team. But the job just does not seem to get done.

The local management does a good job with what it has to work with. In the meantime local people should somehow protest to the officials up top.

The Union of South Africa must be source of embarrassment to Great Britain, since she assumes a position of moral superiority.

Anti-Jim Crow Fight

SEE FRONT PAGE equal facilities. The school board appealed the decision.

In upholding the lower court's ruling, the United States Court of Appeals stated: "... The facts here show that the privileges of attending the defendant Hardin Junior College is much less expensive in both time and money for those who reside within the Wichita Falls Junior District than for those who are forced to go from that district, several hundred miles, to a like institution; and that this is a discrimination which the law does not allow."

NAACP Confab

SEE FRONT PAGE decision.

Other speakers previously announced include Dr. Channing H. Tobias, chairman of the NAACP board of directors, who will deliver the keynote address at the opening meeting, Tuesday night, June 23; Mayor Raymond T. Tucker, who will welcome the convention on behalf of the city; Councilman Archibald Carey of Chicago, Wednesday night; Paul R. Williams, Los Angeles architect and winner of the Spingarn Medal, and Senator Stuart Symington, Friday night. The Association's youth division will present a dramatization of racial progress at the Wednesday night session.

First 100 Days

SEE FRONT PAGE a Negro as a member of his cabinet as director of public safety. Republican Governor Fine of Pennsylvania has done much better with opening the Pennsylvania state police to Negroes.

Everyone knows the good records of Republican Governor Driscoll of New Jersey and Dewey of New York. But on the national level the Republican Party has given no evidence that it has learned anything new about Negroes. It is still following the McKinley, Teddy Roosevelt and Taft theories.

Inactive Outside appointments to office, the party has been wholly inactive. Its members in Congress have done nothing on a legislative program for removing inequalities suffered by Negroes.

The GOP refused in January to do anything to change the filibuster rule in the Senate.

It was only after the off-shore oil grab was endangered by a talkathon that they changed the rule slightly. The shoe was pinching a $300 billion oil steal and something had to be done. As long as it was pinching only Negro civil rights the party didn't give a hoot in hades. Mustn't give any special consideration to Negroes, but fold their problems into the general stream. What's good for the country will be good for Negroes.

No Balls of Fire The recent article in Colliers, "Can Eisenhower End Segregation in Washington?" suggests strongly that the GOP is running into stubborn opposition on one of its most positive campaign promises. The Roosevelt and Truman administrations were accused by the GOP of making promises to Negroes and not delivering.

Judging by the first 120 days, the Republicans are not any balls of fire on delivering. Thus far, it could be the pot calling the kettle black.

Daughters of Isis Hold Annual Turnout

The Daughters of Isis Zeid Court No. 50 held their annual turnout on May 17, accompanied by the Shriners of Zied Temple No. 90 at the Bethel AME church.

On Monday evening, May 18, the feast of Isis was held at the home of Mrs. Thelma Clark, 1114 Tenth street.

Those present were: Mrs. Bessie Lawson, illustrious commandress; and daughters, Mesdames Mabel Mason, Jessie Newsome, Helen McCraven, Gertrude Claybrook and Julia Pierson.

Two-Sided Easel for Child

AS A HOME entertainer and educational tool for young children, an easel is without parallel. The one illustrated is especially useful because it can be used simultaneously by two children. One side is for drawing on sheets of newsprint; the other is a chalkboard.

A panel of Masonite 3/16" tempered hardboard forms the backing for both the paper and the chalkboard. Sheets of newsprint are held in place with clips. Use two coats of unpigmented sealer in preparing the other, sanding the first down thoroughly and the second lightly. Apply a thick coat of slate surfacer, obtainable at paint stores, rubbing it down with a clean cloth when dry.

Legs are formed of 1 by 2-inch lumber. A center strip behind each hardboard panel gives it support. The troughs for colored crayons and chalk have ends of lumber, sides and bottoms of tempered hardboard. A strip of lattice lumber at either end of the easel holds it steady when in use. Hinges at the top permit ready folding and storage.

The overall height is 49", the height of the hardboard panels is 27" and their width is 30". Length of the legs can be varied to suit the ages of the children who will use it. The top of each trough is 4" wide and the depth is 3/4".

THE DES MOINES BRANCH NAACP Says:

The annual membership drive is in its second week. Delegates have been chosen to the state and national conventions which pretty well winds up the activities before the annual meetings.

The branch has had a successful year having met all of its obligations, entertained the Midwest Conference successfully, and processed every matter brought to its attention and which came within the scope of NAACP activities.

As is true with every organization, some members are uninformed as to what the branch does or deliberately misrepresent the facts. The branch maintains an excellent press committee which see that every activity is reported in the weekly and daily press. This includes notice of regular meetings which are set for the same day each month as well as special meetings.

For this annual meeting and the one where delegates to conventions are selected, the secretary notifies each member by card sent to his last known address. Thus every member is appraised in advance of proposed activities. If they fail to attend it is their own negligence.

The NAACP has been a help to every Negro in Des Moines whether he admits it or not. The general improvement in race relations all over the country is attributable, in part, to the efforts of the association.

So instead of standing on the street corners wailing about what the NAACP does that he opposes, let every decent fellow pitch in and do his part of the work for the branch. It needs everybody.

SPORTS

BY ALLEN ASHBY

The Kansas City Monarchs and the Indianapolis Clowns got together the other night at League park. The result was an exhibition of baseball that made the fans wish they could see more.

The Monarchs nosed out the Clowns in a ten-inning scuffle.

Those Kansas City lads very seldom lose here. In all the years they have been coming here they haven't lost a half dozen games.

The Clowns featured a girl second baseman, Toni Stone, who was really pretty good and a drawing card. She didn't handle herself like anything but a good girl athlete in the field, but batted as if she had good male coaching.

During the game she didn't get any fielding chances and didn't do much hitting. We had an interview set, but to our surprise, the daily paper, the Tribune, got there first and since we have always followed a policy of not trying to be a little Register and Tribune, our interview was scrapped.

Boxing

Read quite an article in True magazine about what was wrong with boxing. The article might have been written ten or twenty years ago with only the names of the characters changed and you would have the same story.

There was the big buildup for boxing's first million dollar gate, featuring an overgrown middleweight who didn't have a chance against Jack Dempsey.

Billy Miski's half dead from tuberculosis and Louis Furpo who couldn't speak English, but could fight better than folks thought he could.

Then there was the loot of Shelly Montana when Kearns and Dempsey broke the town. The great Dempsey put up a twenty-five thousand dollar forfeit to meet the best Negro heavyweights, Harry Wills. Now, we didn't think Wills could have beaten Dempsey, but evidently the boys who ran boxing didn't agree with us because they let Wills keep the dough and never did fight him.

Whatever is wrong with boxing now, Negroes can be grateful to the International Boxing club and Mike Jacobs.

Before Mike, Negroes were never given a chance at the big money. They fought each other or laid down for climbing white boxers. Uncle Mike changed all that and that really hurt a lot of boxing writers mad. People who thought that Negro champions were best for the game had to climb on the bandwagon or get left out, but they never stopped trying to restore the good old days.

Black in '52 Form His Two Twins Called Turning Point

New York — (CNS). — Within 24 hours, last year's strong man of the Dodgers' pitching staff, Joe Black, so fashioned two victories back to back over the New York Giants, that manager Charlie Dressen has called the two wins the turning point of the Spring for the Dodgers.

And very well it could be since for the past few weeks, ace reliever Joe Black has just not been able to relieve at all. Called on to start a ball game against the Phillies, Black failed badly and when called on to protect a slim lead against the Cubs, reliable Joe wasn't reliable at all. Against the Cardinals it was the same story.

But with the two wins over the Giants and back to back, Black appears to have found his old form, and though his pitching wasn't altogether masterful, still he kept the

WHEN YOU ARE YOUNG

When you are young at heart—and all the world is new, then magic moments live—in every precious hour you see, the blessings He can give . . . So—treasures every fleeting hour, employ the speeding time, to store away a goodly sum, . . .

the best from all the host, of memory's for the days to come . . . All beauty flashes by like light, and quickly as the meteors flash, it fades, is gone, and here is night. Then visions from the store of dreams, can bring back all young loves to delight.

Life's spring has flown, so fast, so far; Yet deep within lives fresh and new, and fragrance from its' glorious bloom, lives in all hearts forever young, that hold to the threads on the Masters loom.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Noise in the Night Millions of Americans suffer every night from an ailment they don't have themselves. It is probably the malady known to that brings anguish to the non-afflicted, without in the least disturbing the afflicted, if that's the right word for the estimated 20,000,000 Americans who snore.

Audiometer readings of uninhibited snorers have gone as high as 40 decibels, about equal to a noisy corner in the business district. Although doctors do not usually consider snoring a serious ailment, research shows that sounds of much less volume than 40 decibels increase the blood pressure and muscle tension of the nearest sleeper. It is an open question how many decibels, night after night, the snorer's roommate can take before he is driven into general debility, neurosis, a separate bedroom, or the divorce court.

Short of divorce, what can the suffering victim do? First the doctor should be consulted to find out whether there is any abnormal condition of the palatal tissues, nose, and throat passages which can be corrected. If this possibility is eliminated, the snoring may be caused by too much smoking or drinking, or overweight. In such cases, the snorer must cooperate fully, hard as it may be for him to make sacrifices to get rid of an ailment which doesn't bother him in the slightest.

If minor surgery, antibiotics, and self-control fail to bring quiet to the tortured household, a small pillow under the nape of the neck may turn the trick. If this fails, there are some 300 patented snore-preventing gadgets, from a rubber ball clipped to the snorer's pajama tops to keep him from sleeping on his back to ear plugs for the harassed mate.

New York.—(CNS)—Good Business in Harlem: Business has been so good at Harlem's Apollo Theater that its been looking like the old days to see cops patrolling the lines outside the theater. The first week Louis Jordan was in, the house stayed packed so that the management broke its one week only policy to carry Jordan a second week.

Curvaceous Marie Bryant is making a name for herself in London's Hippodrome Theater by singing the show stopper: "Don't Malign Malan." The odd thing is the song is causing quite a series of international complications. Seems the Coronation through in London is just wild about it but Daniel F. Malan, South Africa's Negro hating Prime Minister, is very much embarrassed about the whole thing—especially since he's in London attending the Coronation. Moreover in South Africa, Marie's being cited as an "American Nigger singing a shocking song." How shocking is the song? Well it goes like this: "Don't malign Malan because he dislikes our tan

We know that it's wrong to have a skin that's all brown And wrong to be born on the wrong side of town

It's quite right that our filthy homes be burned down Malan is a wonderful man—Don't malign Malan

He's doing the best he can." Well, South Africa's white press is still protesting, but the producer of the revue, Stephen Mitchell, says he has no intention of removing the song as it gets "practically the biggest round of applause." So Marie Bryant continues to wow them in London at South Africa's expense.
