Tuskegee Gets Research Grant For Calf Disease

Tuskegee Institute, Ala.—Investigation into an unknown death-dealing which attacks newborn calves, usually in their first week after birth, is being conducted at Tuskegee Institute through a special grant awarded to the Carver Foundation by Swift and Company, of Chicago, Illinois. The initial grant amounts to $2,500. The project entitled "Study of Possible Micro-organisms which Cause Death in Calves Between the Ages of One and Seven Days," has been assigned to Dr. E. G. Trigg, professor of Veterinary Bacteriology, in the School of Veterinary Medicine. He will be assisted by an associate, J. A. Yeatman and will have the cooperation of Dr. Charles M. Ford, Head of the Biological Sciences, in the School of Agriculture.

Serious Threat

This malady poses a serious threat to the livestock industry since its attack, to date, has always been fatal. The research has as its purpose the investigation of the causes of this sickness, with the view of determining methods of prevention and treatment.

Dr. Clarence T. Mason, research director at the Carver Foundation, in announcing this project, stated that it represents a part of the over-all objective of the Foundation and Tuskegee Institute to work on problems, the elimination of which will be of immense value to the South as a whole.

Bustamante Urges All-Out War On Jamaica Commies

Kingston, Jamaica—(CNS)—Prime Minister William A. Bustamante, the outspoken and fiery Negro leader, has made a plea that the British go all-out against Communists in the colony. He has asked Governor Hugh Foot to cancel the registration of any Communist organization or association with Communist sympathizers.

McCarthy Committee Fails To Give Mrs. Moss Chance To Clear Self; Loses Job

Washington, D. C.—(CNS)—Mrs. Annie Lee Moss, the tearful middle-aged Negro woman, who as a Pentagon-transmitter operator was to have been Senator Joe McCarthy's top proof that the army was "coddling Communists," finds herself in a sad predicament. She's out of a job and will not be heard, so far, to clear her name.

Perhaps the junior Senator from Wisconsin having won his point with Army Secretary Stevens with the famous "Memorandum of Understanding" now feels that his committee has no further use for Mrs. Moss.

Discarding People

Well known for making use of people and then discarding them Senator McCarthy let out a week ago that the Moss case would support his charges that the Army was "coddling Communists," as he put it.

Furthermore, McCarthy promised that a woman employee of the Army Signal Corps was a card-carrying Communist and had access to top secret messages. All this the army denied.

The charge, it was discovered, had developed from testimony by an FBI informant, Mrs. Mary S. Markward.

that Mrs. Moss had been a Communist party dues-paying cell member. Mrs. Markward admitted that she couldn't positively identify Mrs. Moss as the same person she knew by that name.

Suspended

Then Mrs. Moss was subpoenaed to appear before the committee but she was too ill to testify. The Senator was rude to her but he did let her off. She was suspended from her job just a few days later.

Then came the "Memorandum of Understanding"—the yielding of the Army to McCarthy. He had won his point. But Mrs. Moss? She asked to be heard. She needs to be heard to try and clear herself. The Senator had promised it to her attorney—George E. C. Hayes—that she would be heard at the "first of the week."

'Shunted Off'

The time has passed and Mr. Hayes fears that Mrs. Moss is being "shunted off." He points out that his client appeared before a loyalty hearing and was cleared. Surely, the Senator could do as much.

Meanwhile, it's a tearful middle-aged woman, without a job. She's waiting hoping that McCarthy will give her a chance to clear her name.

Mayor Refuses to Act On Unlawful Attacks on Negro Families in Chicago Project

Chicago, Ill.—A personal request to Mayor Kennelly by the Chicago branch of the NAACP, asking the mayor to state publicly that hoodlums engaging in unlawful attacks on Negro families in the Trumbull Park housing project would be prosecuted to the full extent of the law, was denied by Mr. Kennelly last week.

At the same time, in a conference held in the mayor's office, Chicago Police Commissioner O'Connor asserted that the Police Department has adequate manpower to maintain law and order at Trumbull Park or any other housing project where anti-Negro violence may occur.

Negative Reply

Further requests by NAACP representative Willoughby Abner that Mayor Kennelly openly support a non-discriminatory policy in admittance to all Chicago Housing Authority projects and support efforts by Negro families to move into the projects also met with a negative reply.

Mr. Abner is chairman of the executive committee of the NAACP's Chicago branch. He headed a delegation of four NAACP branch officers.

To Take Action

After the meeting with the mayor here, Police Commissioner O'Connor announced that he will take action to stop violence at the Trumbull Park project.

"We are going to stop all disorders," Mr. O'Connor declared. "That is our job. The situation that has existed at the project cannot continue any longer. It must be ended without delay, and it will."

A mass meeting on the housing situation here will be held March 17, co-sponsored by the Chicago branch of the NAACP and the Ministers of Community Churches of Chicago.

At the meeting, reports will be given on the Trumbull Park situation and other housing problems in the city as they affect Negroes and other minority groups.

Believes Administration Doing Things to Make This 'Government of People'

Washington.—J. Ernest Wilkins, Chicago, Ill., attorney for 33 years, who was nominated March 4 by President Eisenhower as assistant secretary of labor in charge of international affairs, became the first Negro named to occupy a cabinet or sub-cabinet post.

Wilkins, 60, told a news conference that he considered his appointment not so much a personal honor but one "to the race I represent."

Bear Testimony

With three-quarters of the people of the people of the world non-white, Wilkins stated that "my own racial background will bear testimony, when I represent the U.S. in international affairs, that this government recognizes all groups in America." Justice department records reveal that a Massachusetts Negro, William H. Lewis, once held a comparable position when he served as an assistant general in 1911-13 under President William Howard Taft.

Born in Missouri

Wilkins who resides at 1059 Hyde Park blvd., Chicago, the son of a Methodist minister, who taught school, was born in Farmington, Mo., "where education for colored children stopped at the eighth grade. So I had to go to Jefferson City for college preparatory work," he told newsmen.

After working a year in Chicago, he enrolled at the University of Illinois, to study to be a mathematics teacher. His education was interrupted by military service in World

He met Lucile Robinson when she visited the University of Illinois, and they were married four years later, in 1922. Their son will continue to operate the law office in which they are associated in Chicago.

All Americans May Take Pride In Appointment Of Well-Qualified Man As Wilkins, Says Chairman Hall

Washington, D. C.—Leonard W. Hall, chairman of Republican National Committee made the following statement on March 5: "All Americans may take pride in the appointment of such a well-qualified man as J. Ernest Wilkins as Assistant Secretary of Labor. To ignore his racial status would be to ignore the unique fact that he is the first Negro, so far as we know, to be nominated to a sub-cabinet post.

"But to say that 'it's a good idea to appoint a colored man to the position,' as Senator Paul Douglas has, is to overlook the important fact that Mr. Wilkins was asked to serve the Eisenhower Administration solely on the basis of his qualifications."

Puerto Rican Nationalists Rounded Up After Shooting Of Five U. S. Congressmen

San Juan, Puerto Rico — Acting less than a week after Nationalists wounded five United States congressmen in Washington, police Saturday captured Pedro Albizu Campos, Puerto Rican Nationalist Party chief, in an island-wide wave of arrests aimed at stamping out the fanatical party.

Later that day, police had arrested 36 of the party's leaders.

Gov. Luis Munoz Marin announced his government would "go all the way up to the limit of the law and constitution" to stamp out the "poisonous snake" of subversion.

Asked whether the arrests were connected with the Washington shootings, Governor Marin said: "Since those who carried out the criminal attempt on congress are members of the terrorist group called the Nationalists and those arrested here are also Nationalists, it is evident there must be some connection."

Round Up in New York

New York—More than 110 Puerto Ricans, including the wife of a would-be assassin of former President Harry S. Truman, were rounded up in New York and Chicago, Ill., Monday in a swift probe into the shooting of the congressmen.

Washington — Representative

Bentley (Rep., Mich.), was the most gravely wounded of the five congressmen shot by the Puerto Rican fanatics March 1. The 35-year-old millionaire congressman was shot through the stomach and liver. He is at the Casualty hospital.

Also at the hospital are two other wounded congressmen, Representative Fallon (Dem., Md.), who was shot in the hip; and Representative Roberts (Dem., Ala.).

Representatives Jensen (Rep., Ia.) and Davis (Dem., Tenn.), were reported improving at the Bethesda (Md.) Naval hospital.

Representative Halleck of Indiana, Republican floor leader in the house, Thursday said hospital and other

President Or McCarthy

Great Neck, L. I. — Addressing the 12th anniversary banquet of the Great Neck branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Walter White, executive secretary, spoke of the global implications of America's racial policy.

"The peoples of the world, two-thirds of whom are colored," Mr. White said, "are very much concerned with how colored people in this country fare. These peoples are now largely uncommitted. Whether they will in the end side with the free world or with the Soviet world depends, in some measure, upon how they react to the treatment of minorities in this country. Their friendship is vital to us in that many of the raw materials essential to our industrial production are found in Asia, Africa, and South America."

Right and Duty

While asserting "the right and duty of congressional committees to make investigations," Mr. White warned that "such hearings should always be conducted with scrupulous regard for constitutional guarantees of impartiality and fair play." Disregard for these guarantees, he said, endangered our national freedoms.

"The important decision before the American people today," he declared, "is the choice between the leadership of President Eisenhower and that of Senator McCarthy."

Mrs. Anne J. Aldrich, president of the branch, introduced Mr. White to the 250 members and guests who

Three-Fold Screen

THE folding screen in the illustration is made of Masonite Tempered Presdwood over frameworks of lumber. Side frame pieces, bottoms and braces are 1 by 2 inch lumber, respectively 57 1/4" and 12 1/2" long.

The top piece can be cut to shape before assembling the framework, with a scroll or jig saw.

cut square 1/2" vent slots in the center braces and bottoms to prevent warping.

ing caused by changes in humidity. After the lumber is cut, check the lengths to make sure there is no variation. Nail and glue the frames together, checking to see that all parts are square.

Then lay the frames on the Tempered 1/2" Presdwood and trace the outline. Cut the Presdwood slightly larger than the outlines so that it can be trimmed to exact size when the units are completed. Glue and brad the panels to the frames. When the glue has set thoroughly, trim the panels to size with a plane and file.

Hinge the finished panels with double-acting hinges or leather straps if you cannot obtain metal ones. Decorate the panels with paint, enamel, lacquer, varnish or wallpaper.

Leahy Blows Lid Off College Football

New York — With a blast at the Big Ten, the NCAA, college presidents and his critics, former Notre Dame football coach, Frank Leahy, charges in the current issue of Look Magazine (out March 9) that criticism of Notre Dame's athletic policies and his coaching tactics has been caused by resentment of Notre Dame's gridiron dominance.

Leahy says that while the college presidents "who control the NCAA waste time outlawing or frowning upon things that are not essentially evil, such as two-platoon football and spring practice, the two real abuses in college football continue to exist — the tendering of money and gifts to football players under the table and lack of concern with the education the player is getting off the field."

Leahy is convinced the NCAA's censuring of Notre Dame for holding athletic scholarship tryouts was inspired principally by some of the wealthier members of the Big Ten who have long resented Notre Dame's dominant position in football.

Terming the criticism "unfair and ridiculous," Leahy states in Look that "the feigned-injury controversy was caused not by what was done but by who did it and how successfully."

War Invention Saves Iowa Grain

Even out of war come tools and devices which are useful in peace.

For example, the air force has an instrument that automatically records temperatures. A couple of Iowans have developed that into a device that prevents grain spoilage.

They make a cable that's lowered into grain bins... with thermostats every 6 feet. If the grain starts to heat up, the thermostats detect it, indicate the bad spots, and spoilage can be prevented.

And, on that point, wouldn't it be a boon if we could have some kind of warning system like that for our neighborhoods and communities, too. When an agitator or trouble-maker crept in and started to work, it could sound a warning, so we could all be on our guard.

We Iowans are pretty broad-minded, with lots of give-and-take for the other fellow, but it would be a help to have a danger signal, to point out trouble-makers who would deny their neighbors freedom of choice.

L. U. (Mo.) Survey Shows 202 Negro Newspapers In U.S.

Jefferson City, Mo. — Two hundred and two commercial Negro newspapers, including two dailies, now operate in the United States, according to the annual survey conducted by the Lincoln University School of Journalism (Mo.). In addition to the two dailies, there are 193 weeklies, four semi-weeklies, and three bi-weeklies.

The School of Journalism compilation, available free on request, lists papers for 33 states and the District of Columbia existing at the end of 1953. The list does not include educational, fraternal and organizational publications and was assembled after a poll of the country for existing, newly-established and expired journals.

Leading the country in the number of Negro newspapers is Alabama with 19. Ohio comes second with 15. California and Florida tie for third with 13 each. Delaware and Washington have one each. Fifteen states have no Negro papers: Arizona, Vermont, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Montana Wyoming Connecticut, North Dakota South Dakota, Utah, New Mexico, Nevada Idaho, Maine, and West Virginia.

Knowledge is Power

(1) Not at all, says Igor Bogolepov in the Freeman. "Without Western support and recognition, Russian communism would have gone under in 1921," he insists. As a former counselor at the Soviet Foreign office he should know what he's talking about. Get this: "The spontaneous revolution led by the Kronstadt sailors, and peasants from almost all the Russian provinces was about to crush the small gang of Marxist Utopians shivering behind the Kremlin walls. But the British Tory government chose that very moment to conclude a trade agreement with the Soviet leaders, involving de facto recognition. The date of the agreement, March 16, 1921, marks the beginning of a long series of treasonable Western acts against the freedom of the Russian people themselves."

(2) It helps him in hunting. In Nature Magazine, J. Lester Minter analyzes the polar bear's use of his natural camouflage in hunting for other animals. "So perfect is his protective coloring, against a background of ice and snow, that he can approach a person, or another animal, with little chance of being observed. Only his black nose is visible, and this he sometimes covers with his tongue as he stalks his prey. "He is completely covered, even to the soles of his feet, with long thick hair. This hair, when wet, gives an unbelievable toughness to his skin."

(3) Abraham Lincoln summed up his attitude toward man's need for prayer in these words: "I have been driven many times to my knees by the overwhelming conviction that I had nowhere else to go; my own wisdom and that of all around me seemed insufficient for that day."

Up in Flint, Michigan, many types of models constantly are coming off assembly lines of automobile plants—and drivers and car owners about the country anxiously await the announcement of the latest news from that state which leads the world in the production of motor cars and parts.

In the mail this week came this bit of unusual news sent out by "Harris Productions Inc." at Flint, Mich., announcing the presentation of their "Super-Model for 1954"—named Wendell Burks Harris, Jr.

According to the announcement—Wendell B. was "designer and chief engineer;" Helen was "production manager;" Dr. Murray A. Rudner was "technical assistant."

"Model released 4:20 p.m. March 4, 1954," and is "now on exhibit at Flint General hospital."

Some of the features of the new "model" listed in the announcement were: "two lung power—free squealing; streamlined body—bawl bearing; water-cooled exhaust—changeable; seat cover—economically fed; dazzling performance; masculine features."

The weight: "10 lbs. 7½ ozs. F.O.B." In fine print at the bottom of the announcement was this note: "The management assures the public there will be no new models during the balance of the year."

Well, congratulations to Dr. and Mrs. Wendell B. Harris, who left Des Moines last year to make their home in Flint where Dr. Harris began his practice after graduating from Still Osteopathic College here.

Many Iowans remember Mrs. Harris, the former Heen Boulevard, who was a member of the Des Moines YWCA staff before her marriage to Dr. Harris.

The address of the Harris family is 1205 Florida Avenue, Flint, Mich.

Editor James B. Morris of the Bystander made the front page of the Des Moines Tribune Tuesday when he was featured in one of the series of Lenten articles, entitled "The Meaning of It All."

A Green Tinted Lime Pie For St. Patrick's Day

A DELICIOUS lime pie that needs no cooking and can be prepared ahead of time will help solve your dessert problem for St. Patrick's Day. Sweetened condensed milk combined with lime juice makes a rich, creamy pie filling that needs no cooking and that can be poured into a cookie crumb crust. It's a delicious dessert that will be a sure favorite with the "weavers of the green." Made by a magically failure-proof recipe this pie always turns out with a perfect cutting consistency, neither too soft nor too firm. It is something of which the chief cook can be justly proud.

This lime pie is a dessert you'll be serving other days of the year, too. Remember the dessert course can be a very pleasant way of adding to the family's milk quota.

Sweetened condensed milk is a combination of sugar and whole fluid milk, with some of the water removed. Use it in making puddings, cake frostings and ice cream.

MAGIC LIME PIE
1 crumb or baked pastry 8-inch pie shell
1½ cups (15-oz. can) sweetened condensed milk
½ cup lime juice
1 teaspoon grated lime rind
2 eggs, separated
Few drops green vegetable coloring

Put sweetened condensed milk, lime juice, lime rind, egg yolks and few drops vegetable coloring into mixing bowl; stir until mixture is well blended and thick. Pour into cooled pastry shell. Garnish with whipped cream squeezed through a pastry tube.

The club is composed of music pupils of Mrs. Korinne Jackson. The club will hold its next meeting April 4.

lege was Mrs. Pauline Humphrey of the Crescent School of Beauty Culture.

Going to school three mornings each week and finding time to do her "home work" keep Mrs. Humphrey hurrying and scurrying to get back to her students at the beauty school where classes start promptly at 9 o'clock each day.

Another busy student who would like to add about six more hours on to each day in order to have time to sleep is William (Bill) Anderson, popular emcee on KWIM's "Gala Time" program heard each night until midnight.

Anderson, a student at Still College of Osteopathy, who was asked when he found time to do his studying, replied that he studied after midnight when he gets home from the radio station, and after his studies he got in some sleep.

"For the career that I want, it's worth making the sacrifice," he commented.

Ran into Mrs. Mattie Lewis, 1137 School, heading homeward the other evening carrying a paper bag with grapefruit, oranges and tangerines, which her employers had brought the day before from Florida. We got into a conversation about the "deliciousness" of grapefruit—and she preferred to eat hers just sprinkled with salt—while I enjoyed mine coated with sugar. But, no, Mrs. Lewis couldn't think of eating her grapefruit with sugar—"just salt or nothing at all." Then, on second thought, I agreed that a home-grown grapefruit with the Florida sun baked into it may not need sugar, after all. Mrs. Lewis smiled and reached into her sack and handed me one to try, plus a sun-baked Florida orange and a burnt orange tangerine. Did I thank her?

Then we shifted our conversation to her vacation plans. She had just received a letter from her brother who heads a school in the East. For her vacation this summer he is giving her an expense-free trip—by plane to visit him and his family—and for the vacation season has just bought a brand new "boat or yacht or something," Mrs. Lewis talked.

Young American Actress, Hilda Sims, Likes to Mingle With Europeans

Of course he didn't leave her.

Discusses Europe
Accompanying the lengthy article in Beauty Trade are unique action shots of Hilda, taken candidly as she discussed Europe, the theatre and problems of an American actress. She believes there's a new world to discover in Europe—with its languages—background of art.

"Europe is full of history and tradition," she says. "I'd love to work in America but live in Europe. More than anything, I want to go as a tourist—spend a year and a half in Italy. The Romans established culture for the world and I want to see all of it. I want to travel—to go places to wear a pair of slacks, carry my sandwiches with a tam slapped on the back of my head. I want to study painting and learn the languages—take time out to live. We sometimes get in a rut in America... seeing the same things and going to the same places. I'm grateful for the European background (her husband) and I have had—I wouldn't trade our five years abroad for anything!"

Should Study

Hilda feels people in America should study the Romance languages in high school or wherever they can and go to Europe and mingle with people. She believes the background of culture is so valuable that wherever a person goes he may create his own opportunities.

"I love Europe," sighs Hilda. "I love Paris, London and America, too. But I don't think I could be content staying in one place too long!"

NO STRIKES AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT

The public schools in Des Moines have been plagued by a strike by members of two A.F.L. unions. They include drivers of buses, heating plant engineers, cafeteria workers and others. (The strike was called off Wednesday morning.)

The crux of the controversy revolves around the demand for union recognition as bargaining agents for their members. Undoubtedly other demands, while important, could be settled without a lot of trouble.

The Board of Education has refused to negotiate with the unions as bargaining agents for their members basing their decision on an opinion by the attorney general of Iowa which holds that to grant such recognition would constitute the delegation to others a duty imposed upon them by law to carry out.

This opinion has not been passed upon by the Iowa court. But whatever the contention, the Bystander is opposed to the recognition of a union as the bargaining agent for employees of any branch of the government. After all, the government is the people and there should be no strikes against the people. And if it works in this instance the time may well come when firemen, policemen, judges and others in strategic places may find themselves blocking the operation of the government. The Bystander has faith that the school board is doing its best for their employees. Maybe there are equities here and there which should and no doubt will be corrected. But strikes are not the proper method of accomplishing the desired end.

It has always been a mystery why our system finds peaceful law suits as the best method settling disputes in business dealings and at the same time countenances costly labor strikes which in the end leaves the rank and file of the strikers poorer and often discommoded the public.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER SHOWS THE WAY

In the appointment of J. Ernest Wilkins as an assistant secretary of labor President Eisenhower again demonstrated his sincerity of one of his campaign pledges, i.e. that he would appoint men to public office on the basis of merit without regard to race, creed or color.

Several weeks ago, President Eisenhower appointed Mr. Wilkins a member of the Contract Compliance Committee which is charged with the responsibility of policing concerns holding government contracts to see that they practice no discrimination in employment on the basis of race or color.

At that time, the Bystander spoke of Mr. Wilkins' qualifications and while as he said, he has not spent much time in the labor movement, he would study the subject and give the job the best that was in him.

First, President Eisenhower is to be congratulated upon his honesty by making good on the ideas he proposes—a virtue many office holders ignore. Second, the President is to be congratulated for the appointment of qualified men to office rather than the ward heeler type of politician who have little to bring to a job.

Third it cannot be emphasized too much that President Eisenhower has insisted all along that we had sufficient laws on the statute books already to accomplish the desired end in the attainment of civil rights; that the problem was a matter of enforcement. Surely, the appointment of qualified people to office by the head of the federal government sets an example for state, county and cities to follow and they in so doing set an example for private business to follow.

Most people realize that discrimination against a citizen on the basis of race is contrary to the teachings of Jesus Christ, the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States. But up to recent years, the heads of our country have not had the courage to take the leadership and actually see that those principles are applied to their daily activities.

The type of leadership displayed by Mr. Eisenhower gives encouragement to the forces, who over the years, have been "crying in the wilderness" for fair play for all.

Gainford Sues Gavilan For Money He Claims

New York.—(CNS)—George Gainford, who has managed Sugar Ray Robinson, has filed an action in the Supreme Court against Kid Gavilan in order to seek money he claims is due him from the Kid according to a contract supposedly entered five years ago.

Gainford says that Gavilan then was having difficulty getting fights and agreed to pay him 10 percent of his earnings. Gainford has named Fernando Balito, a former associate

Wilkins Appointed

World Service

Wilkins served six years until 1948, as a member of the Methodist commission on world service and finance. In 1953, the judicial council of the Methodist church in America elected him to serve as secretary.

He is a member of Cook County, the Illinois, and the National Bar Associations. In 1941 he was elected to serve as president of the Cook County Bar Association.

Wilkins termed his appointment to the $15,000-a-year post "an answer more eloquent than any words I can muster to the charge that the American government is not fair to all its citizens."

He said the present administration is doing the things that will really make this a government of all the American people, and expressed his pleasure at joining a team that has the "objective of fair play and equal opportunity for all its citizens."

Government Contracts

A Republican, Wilkins has served as vice-chairman of the president's committee on government contracts since August, 1953.

Secretary of Labor James Mitchell said that he had served with Wilkins on this committee and praised his "ability, imagination and resourcefulness," in handling the difficult problems that came before that committee.

Wilkins will succeed Spencer Miller, Jr., who was appointed before Secretary Mitchell took office. Mitchell said he asked for Miller's resignation because he had the privilege of choosing his own assistants.

Washington 'Improved'

Told that at least one Negro has refused to accept the appointment to a high government job because of segregation practiced in Washington, Wilkins said he thought Washington has "improved" in the last year or so and "conditions are healthier here for all of our citizens."

Ralph J. Bunche, now a United Nations official, was offered a post as assistant secretary of state in the Truman administration, but declined on the grounds he did not want his family to live under the segregation practiced in Washington.

medical expenses of the wounded congressmen will be paid for from public funds. He said he would draft whatever legislation is necessary.

Held in Shootings

The four Puerto Ricans seized in Washington after the shootings in the house chamber were: Irving Flores, 27; Rafael Miranda, 25; Mrs. Lolita LeBron, 34; and Andres Cordero, 29. Flores was seized in a railroad station; the others were captured in the Capitol.

The house of representatives was sent into an uproar Monday when a volley of 25 to 30 shots cracked across the floor as three shouting Puerto Rican fanatics shot the five congressmen and sent about 200 others scurrying for cover.

Police said Mrs. LeBron, Miranda, and Cordero admitted the shooting, saying they were trying to attract attention to the cause of freedom for Puerto Rico. They were formally charged with assault with intent to kill. Bond was set at $100,000.

Careful Does It!

PREVENT injuries when using a screw driver by maintaining and handling it properly! These tips were issued by the National Safety Council, and they're worth a thought by every home craftsman.

1. Never use screw drivers with split or splintered handles.
2. Always use a screw driver that fits the screw.
3. Dress the point if it is worn, bent or broken.
4. Use an awl, auger, drill, or driven nail to start each screw. On rough work use a hammer.
5. Place the work on a flat surface; do not hold it in your hand.
6. For electrical work, use screw drivers with insulated handles.

HEALTH FOR ALL

If you are ever tempted to wish you lived back in "the good, old days" stop for a moment and look at your children. Could you wish for them anything less than the glowing health they have today, anything less than the protection they have from modern medical knowledge? The most dreadful moment in any parent's life is when the doctor says "There is nothing we can do." Fortunately, those moments have become rare for the modern parent.

Tuberculous meningitis is one example of formerly hopeless diseases which are yielding to science. Young children who contract tuberculosis from an adult frequently develop this type of disease which attacks the meninges, or covering of the brain and spinal column. It is most common under the age of six and especially before the age of three, although older children and adults may have it. Until recently, it was practically 100 per cent fatal. The drugs Streptomycin and isoniazid are now used in the treatment of the disease and are cutting down on deaths.

Because of the speed with which the disease progresses, early treatment is vitally important. Parents should be alert in recognizing possible symptoms, particularly if the child is known to have had contact with an adult who has TB. The early symptoms are not usually dramatic. The child may be irritable, have a low fever, and may have difficulty in eating with occasional vomiting. Later he may slip into a coma. The child who has convulsions may be lucky, because the family is shocked into action and the doctor is called at once.

If the doctor feels there is any possibility of tuberculous meningitis, he will probably have all members of the family X-rayed to find out whether there is a case of active TB. In a great majority of cases, the child has caught TB from someone in the immediate family.

Even with modern improvements in treatment, tuberculous meningitis is often fatal. It is certainly one of the most serious forms of tuberculosis. Many of its victims are left with permanent handicaps. Parents should protect their children against tuberculosis by making sure that everyone who lives or works in the home has periodic physical examinations with a chest X-ray.

gained their crowns. Maybe Carter will do it again.

BY ALLEN ASHBY

We ran into Bill Heath the other day. Bill was the trainer for the KRNT-Golden-Gloves team that went to Chicago. Bill said that in his opinion Harold Lee was, shall we say, given a raw one in his fight. He said also that Shade was in good shape but because exhausted from inner tension and but for that might have won the title.

In comparing the teams he went with and this one, Bill said the KRNT treatment of the boys was much better than that of WHO.

WHO kept the Negro boys on the South side because they'd be "happier" that way. Al Coupe kept his boys all together and where one went they all went.

But in our narrators opinion, KRNT lacks the pull with the Chicago Gloves manager that Bill Brown and Dave Fidler had. This is important. Just how much is brought out by the fact that Tony Zale, former middleweight champ, brought a team from Gary, Ind., and the only way you could beat one of the popular Tony's boys was by a knockout.

But Bill says if Pinkie George can be persuaded to accompany the team a few more times that will be the break they need.

The most surprising thing to Heath was the presence of Negroes on the Louisville, Ky., team and the teams from Oklahoma. That would surprise us too. Another factor of significance was that about seventy-five per cent of the boxers were Negroes. We have made six trips to Chicago and about the most we ever saw was about two-thirds. Fifty per cent is common. Oh yes, for those who are interested, Bill said, Don Cady quit because his boy looked too rough. Maybe, we will have another chat with Heath.

Boxing

Jimmy Carter evidently blew his lightweight title. Could be that Carter is really at the end of the well known rope or maybe he didn't take DeMarco seriously. The return match will tell. Several lightweight boxers have lost and re-

Edmonds To Be First Negro Regular At Notre Dame Says Leahy

New York.—Former Notre Dame coach, Frank Leahy, reveals in the current issue of Look Magazine (out March '9) that tackle Wayne Edmonds, next fall will be the first Negro to play regularly at Notre Dame.

According to Leahy, Edmonds, a strict Baptist, who "likes the game best when the scrimmage thud-thud is noisiest", pressured Notre Dame's All America tackle Art Hunter into greatness last fall.

On First Team

"With him on the first team, I expect, will be a Jewish lad, Frank Epstein. I always wanted to coach a team at school (Notre Dame) that would include a Jew and a Negro," the recently-resigned coach of the Fighting Irish says in Look.

In his farewell blast at the Big Ten, the NCAA, college presidents and his critics, Leahy charges that criticism of Notre Dame's athletic policies and his coaching tactics has been caused by resentment of the Irish gridiron dominance.

Waste Time

Leahy states in Look that while the college presidents who control the NCAA waste time outlawing or

ALL AROUND ME

All around me are the unseen, my soul can feel their longing; somehow I know their deep desire, their pain at not belonging.
Where I now live and love today, lost souls stroll aimlessly, their earthly bonds are much too strong; and will not set them free . . . Some shades become the poltergeists, the Devils own pet ghosts, they create bedlam everywhere, for quite unwilling hosts. These devil-demons can be chased, and sent on down below, . . .

frowning upon things that are not essentially evil, such as two-platoon football and spring practice, the two real abuses in college football continue to exist—"the tendering of money and gifts to football players under the table and lack of concern with the education the player is getting off the field."

Leahy is convinced the NCAA's censuring of Notre Dame for holding athletic scholarship tryouts was inspired principally by some of the wealthier members of the Big Ten who have long resented Notre Dame's dominant position in football.

Chicago Housing

Mrs. Cora M. Patton, president of the Chicago NAACP, said the meeting will support the Donald Howard family in their fight against eviction from Trumbull Park Homes. The Howard case has been appealed by attorneys for the NAACP, who charged that the eviction action was based on racial grounds, and not on grounds of falsification of income, as the Chicago Housing Authority contends.

Letter To Editor

Public Issue

The public issue that arose in the Southern States in 1953 pertaining to segregation in public schools was argued pro and con by Negroes and white persons. The NAACP representing the Negroes in the issues contend that segregation in public schools is invalid and is not in accordance with the laws of the 14th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States; and reaching no agreement on the issue, it was transferred to the United States Supreme Court for their decision on its legality and they have yet to render any decision.

Probability

On January 1 of this year, I received a number of newspaper clippings from a white editor of the Greenville Press, Greenville, South Carolina. All of the clippings contained articles by prominent southern Negroes upholding segregation in southern public schools. They contend if segregation is abolished in southern schools, it will put a large number of Negro teachers out of employment. That could be probable, but if the educational system in the southern states was founded on an equal basis there is a probability it would put as many white teachers out of employment as it would Negro teachers.

From this point of view, if segregation was abolished in southern public schools and teacher colleges, Negro students attending non-segregated teacher colleges would have an equal opportunity to acquire the same standard of training as would the white students and when the board of education issued a call for teachers, students making the highest grades in their examination for teachers—regardless of color—should have first preference and be allowed to teach both white and colored in non-segregated public schools.
