National Club Women's Head Urges Training for Intergroup Understanding

"We must think of terms of desegregation on all levels," urged Mrs. Irene McCoy Gaines, president of the National Association of Colored Women, (NACW) Sunday afternoon at the Corinthian Baptist church.

Choosing as her subject "Better Human Relations," based on "Brotherhood" for the afternoon meeting of the Corinthian Women's Day, Mrs. Gaines referred to the recent U. S. Supreme Court's decision outlawing of racial segregation in nation's public schools stating that "it is the goal that we must reach."

"Intergroup understanding must be clearly taught," she stressed, adding that training for intergroup understanding is as necessary as training for military work or coaching for elections.

She commented upon Vice President Richard Nixon's world tour after which he cited that three-fourths of the peoples of the world, the darker races, were "looking askance at the plight of the darker races in America."

Serious Thought

President Eisenhower, she said, has asked all religious, community and individual organizations to sponsor brotherhood programs this year and to give the most serious thought to the meaning of brotherhood.

"I find that we need to be prepared for this program of integration," Mrs. Gaines repeated as she pointed out her suspicions of "some of our outstanding women's thinking."

"They do not want to integrate the churches and the schools. 'All of that is faulty reasoning and needs more interpretation to people who think that way."

"It is necessary for us as members of the Christian church and of the Association (NACW) to do something about this," she said.

Teach Children

"We should teach our children that there is a mixture of races and blends in America—but we are all Americans."

"All of the races that man has heard of are here. America is busy building a people. So we have black, white, yellow, red, brown; we have Catholic and Protestant, Christians and Jews."

"We Americans are of all soils but we have a voice and a common devotion to liberty. That is the basic difference between democracy and communism."

"We are to practice democracy if we are to keep it and not lose it to

Los Angeles Firemen Try Barring NAACP Lawyers From Integration Hearing

Los Angeles, Cal.—The weight of 600 brawny City firemen, planted against the door of the Fire Commission hearing room October 8, barred lawyers for the NAACP from the hearing for more than a half an hour, and turned the Los Angeles Fire Commission Building into a seething cauldron of racial tension.

Comments were heard on all sides in the chamber of "It can happen here," just as "it," shameful racial outbreaks, had been happening in Baltimore, Md. and other Dixie cities all week as valiant Negro school children pressed forward in their determination to exercise their constitutional right to enjoy integrated public education.

The disturbance took place at 9 a.m. as NAACP attorneys Edward

Sought Admittance

Carter Maddox, Herbert Simmons, Thomas G. Neusom, Carl Earles, and Jack Tenner presented themselves for admission to the chamber where Maddox planned to read a statement, calling for immediate transfer of firemen from jim crow stations 14 and 30 to other stations about the city, and the transfer of white firemen to the two all-Negro stations.

But for the firemen's lack of imagination in admitting a white lawyer, who was not recognized as a co-counsel for the NAACP, the NAACP lawyers would never have been admitted at all.

Hero of the skirmish was Tenner, who after gaining admission, told the Fire Commission of the barricade against his fellow attorneys.

In an ironic twist to the incident, the Commission instructed Fire Chief John Alderson, who has stubbornly refused to integrate the Department, to go out and escort the Negro lawyers in. Alderson did.

Pushed Back

The attorneys said that every time they tried to push their way to the door, they were pushed back; but that a way was cleared for white people to enter the chamber.

The incident called out not only the Police Department to quell the riot, but the Fire Prevention Bureau, which had to call to the attention of the Alderson forces that they were violating their own law in blocking the passageway.

With this warning and the arrival of police, the disturbance was put down.

While there may have been individual policemen in the mob, police spokesmen emphasized that the Alderson forces have no supporters in the Police Department officially.

Policemen present, even plainclothesmen, were on duty, called to

Suggested For High Court Vacancy

San Francisco, Cal.—Chief Judge William Dunham of the U. S. Ninth circuit court of appeals suggested in a telegram to President Eisenhower Monday that Judge William Henry Hastie "would have serious consideration" for vacant post on the U. S. Supreme Court.

Judge Hastie, 50, is a member of the U. S. Third circuit court bench in Philadelphia, Pa.

The supreme court vacancy resulted from the death of Justice Robert H. Jackson.

Carver Club to Hear Candidates Oct. 19

The Carver Republican club will hold a meeting Tuesday, Oct. 19, 8 p.m., at the Crocker YMCA, for all candidates. The meeting is open to served. President is Chester Jones; and vice president, T. J. Bell.

American Jewish Congress Urges Immediate Action Against School Hoodlums

New York.—The U. S. Attorney General, Herbert Brownell, Oct. 6 was urged by the American Jewish Congress to take immediate measures against persons violating Federal laws by attempting to defy the Supreme Court's decision barring racial segregation in the public schools.

In a special message to the Attorney General, Mr. Shad Polier, chairman of the executive committee of the American Jewish Congress, noted that the Supreme Court's decision last May was "one of the most effective blows yet struck in this nation's struggle to maintain its democratic institutions against erosion from within and subversion from abroad."

LOSE GAINS

If the current efforts to annul this decision are successful, "we would lose the great gains in prestige and influence that the decision won for us in the eyes of the world," Mr. Polier declared.

"The United States Government cannot act on the assumption that the Supreme Court decision is self-executing. Certainly it must view with profound concern the acts of persons who seek to prevent citizens from exercising their newly declared right."

The hoodlums who recently defied the law in our nation's capital as well as in Delaware, Maryland and West Virginia are openly violating the Federal civil rights laws. The Department of Justice should make plain, by maximum mobilization of its resources, that these outrages will not be tolerated.

"The Supreme Court decision has been accepted and successfully put into operation in many parts of the country. It is plain that the great precept it establishes is workable and will ultimately be accepted by all our people. The recently reported outrages are the exception. Yet there is real danger that they will encourage similar disturbances. It is therefore all the more important that the law-breakers be dealt with energetically before the contagion spreads."

Marian Anderson Signed For Role In Metropolitan Opera

MARIAN ANDERSON

New York, N. Y.—The Metropolitan Opera said Marian Anderson, famous American contralto, was signed Thursday to sing in an opera this winter. She is the first Negro singer ever to appear with a Metropolitan cast.

Rudolf Bing Metropolitan general manager, said Miss Anderson will sing the role of "Ulrica," a fortune teller, in Verdi's "The Masked Ball" early in January.

Very Happy

"I'm very happy," said Miss Anderson. When a photographer asked for a smile to prove it, she complied, but added:

"The happiness is inside."

It will be her first operatic role here or anywhere. Miss Anderson once was a cause celebre when the Daughters of the American Revolution in 1939 refused her the use of Constitution Hall. Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt resigned from the D.A.R. as a result. Subsequently Miss Anderson sang at an open air Easter concert at the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D. C., to an audience of 75,000.

At White House

President Roosevelt invited her to sing at the White House when the late King George VI and Queen Elizabeth visited there.

Born of poor Negro parents in Philadelphia, Penn., Feb. 27, 1908, Miss Anderson began singing at the age of six in a church junior choir. She has a full classical education and sings in nine languages.

Miss Ross Among Four Iowa Press Women Honored

Four Iowa Newspaper women who won journalism achievement and national writing contest awards this year were honored last Saturday by 35 members of Iowa Press Women (IPW) Inc., at the fall conference in Hotel Kirkwood.

They were: Jeanette Stien, women's page editor of Ottumwa Courier; Bertilla Hogendorn, co-editor of the North English Record; Marie Ross, news editor of Iowa Bystander, Des Moines; and Marcella Rossiter of Manly, Ia.

Mattie Dykes, professor of English at Northwest Missouri State College at Maryville and past president of the National Federation of Press Women, spoke.

Mrs. Helen Vandenburg of Shell Rock, Ia., IPW president, presided.

Surviving are his widow, Lillian, and two brothers, Harrison, Des Moines, and Angus, who lives in Illinois.

Denounces 'Mob Rule' Demonstrated in Milford; Promises Law and Order

Georgetown, Del. — Denouncing "mob rule" as having taken over in Milford, under a "leader peddling hypocrisy and prejudice," Attorney General H. Albert Young of Delaware pledged in court here Tuesday that the state's governor and its two United States senators were prepared to lead 10 Negro children by the hand into the Milford High School if the court ordered the board to readmit the pupils.

Young declared that the full authority of the state would be brought to bear to preserve law and order.

Young appeared as a friend of the court but in his official capacity as attorney general, in the court of chancery before Vice-chancellor William Marvel.

NAACU Hearing

The hearing involved a petition by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People on behalf of the parents of the 10 Negro children.

The parents had demanded a temporary injunction restraining the school board in Milford from re-segregating the school.

After arguments by both sides, and Young's dramatic statement

Wade H. McCree, Jr. Named Michigan's Circuit Court Judge

Lansing, Mich.—Michigan's circuit court bench has its first Negro judge. He is Wade H. McCree, Jr., 34, Detroit lawyer, who was appointed Oct. 8 by Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

McCree is a veteran of World War II combat service in Italy and member of the state workmen's compensation commission. A native of Des Moines, Ia., he was educated at Fisk University and the Harvard University law school. He is married and has a daughter, Kathleen, 7.

McCree was appointed to fill the vacancy left by the recent death of Adolph F. Merschner. The circuit court is second only to the state supreme court in Michigan.

Bryan W. Bowles, Age 34, NAAWP Founder Has Run Afoul of Law Many Times

Wilmington, Del.—(CNS)—Bryan W. Bowles, 34-year-old founder and president of the National Association for the Advancement of White People, has managed through his chief job of segregation strategist to gather nearly 31,000 members of the NAAWP and a treasury of nearly $150,000 from $5. fees.

He's also managed to run afoul of the law many times—his most serious is his current arrest by Delaware authorities for the part he played in the Milford, Del., flareups.

What is he like and what motivates him? He's a soft spoken young man, who talks with a southern drawl most freely of his crusade of hate which has at its main purpose to prevent integration of whites and Negroes particularly in the public schools.

Blames Others

If you ask him about his own encounters with the law, he will charmingly blame others for his mistakes. He was born in Florida, became a Marine sergeant, then a part owner in the Bryant Roofing and Home Corp. and now president of his current money-making setup.

On as many as five occasions in Baltimore, Bowles has been arrested

Vice-Chancellor Marvel reserved decision and adjourned court.

The courtroom was crowded, largely by supporters of Bryant W. Bowles, founder of the National Association for the Advancement of White People.

Young added to his statement denouncing "mob rule" that "if it becomes necessary for the governor and our United States senators to lead these Negro children by the

Student Group Picks Former D. M. Man

LAWRENCE HOWARD

The United States National Student Association announced Wednesday the selection of Lawrence Howard, 27, formerly of Des Moines to serve on a five-man team which will observe academic conditions in Africa.

Howard, son of Charles P. Howard, former Des Moines attorney, now of Chicago, Ill., attended East High School and was graduated from Drake University with bachelor of arts degree in 1949.

He received a master of arts degree at Wayne University, Detroit, Mich., in 1950 and is currently studying for a doctor of philosophy degree in government at Harvard University in Cambridge, Mass.

Other members of the team represent Great Britain, the Philippines, Norway and Africa. The team will leave for Africa this month and return in December.

Under Scrutiny

All of these entanglements with the law, Bowles will explain away glibly when questioned, claiming the five convictions for failure to pay wages involved Negro workmen who refused to come to his office to collect for "failure to pay wages" and "unlawfully with intent to cheat and defraud." In all instances he paid fines of $25. and costs. He also has been arrested for "false pretense." He's wanted in Tampa, Fla., for a bad-check charge. He's been sentenced to the House of Detention for one year and then put on probation.

N. D. McCombs Returns Home

Des Moines School Superintendent N. D. McCombs is convalescing at his home, 326 Fifty-sixth street, after treatment at Iowa Methodist Hospital for virus pneumonia.

McCombs earlier had been confined to the hospital for nearly 16 weeks after suffering a heart attack at his home last May 13. He was readmitted to the hospital Sept. 20 and dismissed this week.

Fort Dodge Children Gassed In Parked Car, Revived

Fort Dodge, Ia.—Four children were overcome and another made ill by carbon monoxide gas last Wednesday night in Fort Dodge but all five of the youngsters were back to normal Thursday.

Four children of Mr. and Mrs. Rayford Johnson of 408 Third avenue south and another a son of Johnson's sister, Mrs. Teola Mercy, were in a parked car at the Drive-in theater.

With the children were Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Mercy.

Waiting in Line

The group was waiting in the car in line at the Drive-in theater drive, way before the ticket booth opened. When the children became ill, they left the theater and returned home where the condition of the children became worse.

Four of the youngsters were taken to Mercy hospital by a police squad car.

One of them, Ivory Nathan Johnson, 2, was given oxygen to revive her, and the other three were kept under observation until they were back to normal. Mrs. Mercy's child, John David, 9, was not taken to the hospital.

The other Johnson children are Raymond Lee, 4; Albert Lee, 3; and Tommy Lee, 2 months.

Motor Running

The group arrived at the drive-in at about 6:30 p. m. and waited there with the car's motor running until about 7 p. m. when the children became ill.

All four of the Johnson children passed out and regained consciousness before the police car arrived but the two-year-old passed out again en route to the hospital.

Added Energy for Football Players

EVERY FOOTBALL TEAM HAS SUBSTITUTES... but there's no substitute for a good breakfast for providing energy and stamina needed by football players—young and old. So, if your son hasn't made the team this year, it may be that he isn't eating fruit, crisp, ready-to-eat cereal, bread, butter and a beverage each morning.

When he makes that first string team, celebrate by baking a batch of these flavorful Gingerbread Pennants. Made from a simple, wholesome recipe developed in the test kitchens of the Kellogg Company.

GINGERBREAD PENNANTS

1/4 cup butter or margarine 1 1/2 cups sifted flour
1/4 cup sugar 1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1 egg 1/4 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 cup molasses 1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup Kellogg's All-Bran (ready-to-eat bran) 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 cup cold strong coffee 1/2 teaspoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon ginger

2 cups confectioners' sugar 3 tablespoons hot milk
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

Blend butter and sugar thoroughly; add egg and beat until light and fluffy. Stir in molasses, All-Bran and coffee. Sift together flour, baking powder, soda, salt and spices; stir into first mixture. Spread in greased 13 x 9-inch pan. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) about 30 minutes. While cake is still warm, cut into pennant shapes. Combine sugar with milk; add vanilla and beat well. Letter pennants with icing.

Yield: about 2 dozen pennants. (ANS)

Howard is president.

Chest Drive

It's Red Feather time in Fort Dodge. The Community Chest Drive go off to a start Oct. 12. The campaign will end Oct. 22. A goal of $55,000 is the quota.

Nine local agencies are benefitted by the Chest fund. They are: The Fort Community Nursing Service, Isabella Hall, Salvation Army, Western County Welfare Association, YWCA, YMCA, Camp Fire Girls, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts of America.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Brown of Milwaukee, Wis., former Fort Dodge residents were here on a two weeks' vacation with Mrs. Brown's mother and sister, Mrs. Lula Russell and Mrs. Irene Fox. Many social courtesies were given in honor of the Milwaukeeans. Mr. and Mrs. Brown left last Saturday for their home and Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Fox accompanied them.

Life Membership

Ernest Taylor, over 80 years old, and a Fort Dodge resident for over 60 years, will be given a life's membership in the Masonic lodge of Iowa (P. H. A.) by his local lodge, Solomon Lodge No. 45.

The award will be made Sunday, Oct. 17, 2 p. m., at the Second Baptist church, 19th street and 4th Ave., S.

Duck Season Opens: Prospects Good

Friday is D. Day for thousands of Iowa nimrods as the 1954 Iowa waterfowl season begins.

With the wettest fall in several years, prospects for this year's season are good. Heavy rains in many areas have filled sloughs, ponds, and lakes, and although federal and Canadian authorities say Iowa's duck supply will be lower than usual, many hunters are optimistic. Most ponds and marshes that were nearly dry last fall are now well-filled with water.

This year's season will extend from October 15 through December 8. Shooting will begin at noon on opening day and one-half-hour before sunrise on all other days of the season.

Daily shooting will end one hour before sunset, except on Iowa portions of the Missouri River, where daily shooting will extend to sunset. Daily sunrise-sunset time schedules have been released to all local newspapers of the state, and may also be obtained from the Conservation Commission in Des Moines.

Student Strikes in Washington and Baltimore End

New York—Student strikes against integration of public schools in Baltimore and Washington had apparently abated toward the end of the week as school authorities in both cities made it clear that there would be no capitulation to the hate-inspired demands.

Back-to-school movements developed last week in both cities with school authorities warning that punitive measures would be taken for further unexplained absences. Both cities today reported nearly normal attendance in all schools. There were some holdouts at Anacostia and Eastern High Schools in Washington whose students had been encouraged to continue the strike by Congressman James C. Davis (D., Ga.).

Nixon Intervenes

The strikes were forthrightly condemned by Vice-President Richard M. Nixon who pointed out to Delaware parents that his two daughters were attending school in the racially integrated system in the District of Columbia. He repeated his appeal to halt racial discrimination in a statewide radio broadcast and later reiterated his opposition to the strikes in a speech in Omaha, Nebraska.

Meanwhile, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People called upon Attorney General Herbert Brownell "to make it clear to all concerned that the full force of the federal government stands behind the local school boards involved in effecting a transition from segregated to desegregated schools."

Direct Violation

The telegram, signed by Thurgood Marshall, NAACP special counsel, blamed the so-called National Association for the Advancement of White People for provoking the strikes. "Such action," he charged, "is not only reprehensible within itself but is obviously in direct violation of the civil rights laws of the United States guaranteeing and protecting American citizens in the exercise of their constitutional rights." The Attorney General was asked to deal "vigorously and promptly" with violators of the civil rights laws.

The Congress of Industrial Organizations and the American Jewish Congress also called upon Mr. Brownell to take effective action to protect Negro children in the enjoyment of their newly affirmed rights.

Delaware Governor Blamed After an on-the-spot investigation in Milford, Del., Dr. Kenneth B. Clark NAACP social science consultant and New York City College associate professor, reported that "Governor J. Caleb Boggs played a major role in this travesty."

The Governor, Dr. Clark asserted, "was hesitant and indecisive at the crucial initial stages of lawlessness. He contributed to the duration and intensity of defiance by his willingness to make concessions to those who threatened violence. He was in Milford when one of the earlier hysterical mass meetings were held. The pattern of lawlessness was clear at that time. Yet he refused to make a public statement censuring the methods of the mob. This is in striking contrast to the eloquent appeal for common decency and respect for 'American tradition' made by Vice-President Nixon on his recent visit to Delaware."

Suit Filed in Delaware

Hearings on a suit filed by NAACP Attorney Louis Redding in behalf of the 10 Negro children ousted from the Milford High School was heard on October 12. Mr. Redding filed papers in the Chancery Court at Georgetown on October 2 seeking to enjoin the Milford School Board from excluding the Negro children enrolled in the high school.

Atty. Ted Sloan 'Big Brother Night' Speaker Oct. 21

The Olympian Club's third annual "Big Brother Night" scheduled for October 21 at the Willkie House promises to be another great evening of fellowship for men and boys of this city.

Designed to stimulate a closer adult-youth relationship among all races and creeds, "Big Brother Night" will emphasize again the values of brotherhood, good citizenship and fair play.

Attorney Ted Sloan, former Drake University all-American football star will be the principal speaker.

Included on the program will be the presentation of the Olympian Club's community service awards to Rev. Patrick D'Ostilio and Fred O. Morrow, Sr.

Caesar Smith, brilliant North High School athlete, and his coach, James E. Lyle also will be honored. Caesar has been named "Coach of the Year".

An outstanding feature of "Big Brother Night" will be the appearance of King Cole, one of Iowa's most versatile entertainers who will headline the novelty acts on the program along with Harold Flax' harmonica ace and Peter and Davis' pantomime artists.

The program will open at 7:30 p.m. with a song fest led by Ray Harrison, attorney and director of the Sylvan Theater community sings held each summer at Greenwood Park.

A limited number of tickets remain for "Big Brother Night" and can be secured from the Olympian Club members or by contacting Geo. Robinson, Jr., general chairman.

Army Streamlines Mailing Address To Overseas Personnel

Army efficiency has snipped a line from its overseas address system and eliminated the phrase "c/o Postmaster" from the mailing address to personnel in Europe, the Far East and other trans-ocean points, it was learned Oct. 8 from Colonel John N. Green, Chief, Iowa Military District.

The new streamlined address, now three lines instead of four, was adopted on October 7. It will simplify the mailing process for letter-writers and for postal clerks. A glance at the last line will indicate the routing of mail to the proper channels.

As an example, APO mail should now be addressed in this fashion: Pvt. John Doe, RA 32000000 Company A, 167th Infantry APO 801, New York, New York

This is the first change made in APO procedure since June 23, 1941. The new plan is also being adopted tradition handed down for ages, the handshake is completed with a snap of the fingers in which the thumb and middle finger are used.

Sometimes a double snap is given followed by placing the right hand over the heart. This handshake signifies that no animosity or ill feeling exists between the two participants in the greeting.

Georgia Supremacists Get Setback as Leaders Move

Chicago, Ill.—White supremacists in south Georgia received a setback this week when a move by leaders of the Moultrie, Ga., local of the CIO United Packinghouse Workers of America to switch affiliations of over four hundred union members to the AFL Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America was ruled out of order by impartial umpire David L. Cole.

The ruling was the first to come under the AFL-CIO "no-raiding" agreement signed last June, which binds ninety-four AFL and CIO unions to refrain from raiding each other's membership.

Anti-Negro leaders of UPW Local 269 sought to engineer the bolt following demands from the national organization that they take steps to eliminate segregated dressing rooms

'Progress of Freedom in USA' on Herald Tribune Forum

New York, N. Y.—"The Progress of Freedom in the U. S. A." will be the over-all theme of the twenty-third annual New York Herald Tribune Forum to be held on Monday and Tuesday evenings, Oct. 18 and 19.

The first session, to open at 8 p.m. on Oct. 18 at the Hunter College auditorium, 69th St. between Park & Lexington Aves., will be devoted to discussions of progress toward integration in the schools since the May 17 Supreme Court decision directing the end of racial segregation in education. Key figures in the controversy over segregation and educational and civic leaders directly concerned with the problem will participate in the discussion which will include a consideration of segregation in New York City schools.

The second session, to begin at 8 p.m. the following evening in the ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria, will be concerned with national progress under the first Republican administration in twenty years. Five Cabinet members will be present and will be questioned by experts from various fields. The Democratic and Republican candidates for governor of New York and Senator from New Jersey will also be on the program.

by the Air Force.

Xmas Packages

Christmas packages for military addresses overseas should be mailed between October 15 and November 15, Colonel Green said.

Boxes should not exceed 70 pounds in weight and 100 inches in length and girth combined. They must be double-faced corrugated cardboard, strong wood, metal or fiberboard, tightly packed, securely tied with strong cord, and the loose flaps sealed with gummed tape.

The inclusion of matches of all kinds and lighter fluid is prohibited.

and other facilities in the Swift & Company plant where the union holds bargaining rights.

Walter Lassiter, president of the Moultrie union, told the press, "We don't want to mix the races," in explanation of the sought-for transfer to the AFL union, which granted secessionists a charter and requested the National Labor Relations Board to hold an election to determine the future bargaining agent for the Moultrie group.

Violation

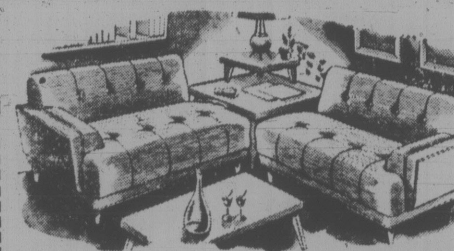

The rebuff came as umpire Cole told top officers of the Meat Cutters union that their action was a violation of the "no-raid" agreement previously signed between the AFL and CIO organizations. The CIO group has represented the Moultrie workers for ten years.

In a radio broadcast to Moultrie unionists, UPWA international President Ralph Helstein reaffirmed his organization's historic anti-discrimination policy. Citing the Supreme Court decision on the school segregation case, Helstein declared that discriminatory racial practices were un-American and contrary to sound union principles.

 The Way to Go

One of those big, gleaming coast-to-coast buses roared the other day, and someone mentioned how much travel had changed since the good old days.
 "How do you mean, good?" laughed Carl. "You call slow schedules, rough rides, poor connections, and frequent breakdowns good? Not for me!"
 No, and not for me, either. Give me today's transportation. It's fast and comfortable, and I can take my choice of rail, plane, bus, or my own car.
 When you come right down to it, freedom of choice should go with everything. Take refreshment for example. Freedom to choose is important because different things hit the spot with different people.
 With me it's a temperate glass of beer. Now, lots of folks agree with my choice, but not all. Some have different preferences of their own. Seems to me each of us should choose what he likes, and let the other fellow have the same privilege. That works out fair for everyone, whether we're choosing ways of going places or refreshments to enjoy.

United Campaign

BY BILL HECKMAN

By now many of you have been contacted for your gift to this year's United Campaign. During the past weeks and especially the last ten days, we have heard rumors and questions galore. It seems there is still a lot people don't know about the United Campaign. This is understandable. After all, U. C. is only three years old. I imagine the American people now know a lot more about democracy than they did when the U. S. A. was a child of three. Perhaps answers to a few of the questions asked about U. C. may help.

WILL PART OF MY CONTRIBUTION GO TO BUILD A COMMUNITY CHEST HEADQUARTERS?—No. If and when a Community Chest building is constructed, all the money will come from a special fund set up in accordance with the will of Henry B. Hawley, Des Moines insurance executive and philanthropist.

Money raised by the United Campaign for the 28 Community Chest groups is strictly for operating expenses of those groups through all of 1955. Each has some income, but not enough. If it were not for the United Campaign each would have a big deficit.

DOES UNITED CAMPAIGN COLLECT FUNDS FOR POLIO?—This year, as last year, the Sister Kenny Polio Foundation is one of the 33 agencies. If the needed $134,773 is raised, Sister Kenny will receive $17,800. This is for maintaining Sister Kenny therapists in our hospitals here in Des Moines, the number of these being determined by the number of persons suffering from polio. Some of the money also goes to train more Sister Kenny therapists.

Only in the very first United Campaign was money raised for the March of Dimes Polio group. Having learned that national policy prevents this polio foundation from accepting the funds UC raised, we have not again raised funds for them. The money raised, except for a few expenditures, is still available. It appears as if it never will be accepted by the National Foundation. Therefore, the money will be used by UC FOR POLIO NEEDS IN DES MOINES, in the near future.

I THOUGHT THE YMCA WAS IN THE UNITED CAMPAIGN; HOW COME THEY ARE GOING TO HAVE A SPECIAL DRIVE FOR A NEW BUILDING?—The Campaign raises funds for operating expenses of the agencies. Each group reserves the right to conduct what is called "A capital fund drive." That is, a drive for funds for a new building, or major repairs or additions to an old one. UC does have a small rehabilitation fund to take care of minor repairs. We must keep in mind that UC is like a state. It gives up certain powers to UC. It retains other rights and privileges. This is the American way.

Touch

By MARIE ROSS

For having a deep appreciation of good music and a willingness to share a part of their busy lives in "singing for the fun of it" really rewarded a group of Flint, Mich., singers who appeared in Des Moines at St. Paul A. M. E. church last Saturday evening.

About forty employees of the AC Spark Plug Division, General Motors Corporation, in Flint, known as the AC Choral club were given a good-will trip, flown to Des Moines in four General Motors planes, housed at Hotel Fort Des Moines, transported in chartered busses about town to their concert here; then, Sunday to the Veterans Hospital at Knoxville, a. where they gave another concert, and flown back to Flint that evening.

This was the group's "most thrilling" engagement. Many of them had participated in programs, in and around Flint, but only few had been flown to any of their performances.

The AC Choral Club, one of the four employe musical activities among the best industrial musical organizations in the country, is under the direction of Edgar Gosney, Wade Jones, assistant director; and H. Paul Allen, accompanist.

After their concert here, the sponsoring group, the St. Paul Men's chorus entertained the visitors at a reception where they met former friends and made new ones.

Well known to many here was the accompanist, H. Paul Allen, who revealed that he had directed the St. Paul choir for about six months during the pastorate of the late W. E. Guy. It was through Mr. Allen's contacts that AC choral club "came this way," Director Gosney stated.

In another group Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Martin, St. Paul members, found two of the singers who at one time had lived in their home town in Missouri. They were Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Renfro.

Introducing herself to many of the visitors was Mrs. Delores Peguese, another St. Paul member, who had more in the back of her mind than just being friendly. She realized that each of the singers worked on a different part of a motor car, and that if she met enough of them, well—she might be fortunate.

Shifting to a very serious expression on her face, after greeting some of the guests at a table, the Iowan remarked: "I wish one of you could send me a new car."

The guests smiled and one, Mrs. Virgie M. Wickware offered to send a frame—for she worked on frames. Mrs. Renfro who had revealed that her part on the assembly line was in the dial section—suggested send-

One of those tiny dial hands. Mrs. Elizabeth Goodwin, a heater control machinist, was willing to add her part.

Mrs. Ardella Hall said she was a ballistic gauge operator; and, immediately I asked Mrs. Pogues what she would do with a machine gun on a car she would assemble?

When another singer informed that she worked on airplane parts, the Iowan gave up the idea of trying to have enough parts sent to her for her own assembling. Instead, she got busy collecting tiny gold spark plugs from the singers' lapels.

We did all right getting the gold spark plugs as souvenirs—and some of the singers promised to send us silver park plugs to link with the gold ones.

Rev. Luther H. Smith Impressed by Widespread Building Programs for Expansion of Religious Activities

On his recent 3,000-mile trip through the Eastern states, the Rev. Luther H. Smith, 901 Twenty-third street, noted a widespread building program by religious organizations to take care of growing church schools and welfare needs, he said.

Concluding comment of his trip, which began in the Oct. 7 issue of the Bystander, the Rev. Mr. Smith wrote:

"The latter part of June on a Sunday I boarded a Greyhound Bus for the first time. I can say they don't exaggerate in their advertising descriptions of the attractiveness of their service and scenic grandeur. I arrived at New York City about 1 o'clock after leaving Washington at 7 a. m. No lay over and I was at Schenectady, N. Y., about 6:15 p. m. where Luther and his family met me. I greeted my 7 month old grand child for the first time. We hit it off at once.

Ivy club members attending were: Beverlee Oliver and Gertha Jones, Des Moines; Irene Hayes, South Sioux City, Neb.; Joan Smith, Tuskegee, Ala.

Active Alpha Kappa Alphas present besides Mesdames Bruce and Fowler were: Elaine Estes, Billie Jean Morrow, Kitty Wallingford, Marian Morrison, Ada Graham and a new member on the Drake campus, Irene Forch of Kansas City, Kans.

pleasant experiences will be popping up at unexpected moments. It happened this week when Mrs. Ethelda Robinson 1143 Fourteenth place, phoned an item to the paper.

I think it started with the weather for a good day, here this week when the storm clouds and rain moved elsewhere was something to talk about. (Remember the terrific storm Sunday morning.)

During Mrs. Robinson's vacation in and around Oakland, Los Angeles and San Francisco, Calif., she and her two small children, and her sister, Mrs. Dortha Weathers, of Oakland, had several enjoyable nights sleeping out under the stars at a Rangers' station.

"The nights got so cool that we sat in a car and played cards by a lantern, while the children played with their dolls.

"In the mornings we got up, started a fire with our own wood, in one of the many fire-places and cooked our breakfast outdoors, walked barefoot in the sand. It seemed so warm, yet it was cool enough to see one's breath.

"We caught fish and cooked it for our supper and just had such a

Socialite Queens Plan Annual Ball On October 16

The Socialite Queens met with Mrs. Lessie Garrett of 1219 19th street on Saturday evening. Mrs. Luberta Dixon and Dorothy Garrett were associate hostesses. Final plans were made for the annual ball to be held Oct. 16.

grand time that my husband, (Mr. Milburn Robinson) is planning to go back with us next summer," Mrs. Robinson talked.

She said she took her camera, but had bad luck with her photography and brought back "four rolls of nothing." She also visited her mother Mrs. G. M. Pride who lives in Los Angeles.

At the fall conference of the Iowa Press Women, at the Hotel Kirkwood last Saturday, it was a pleasant experience to be one of the four Iowa newspaper women to be honored for journalism achievement and national writing contest awards this year.

During the noonday luncheon meeting, President Helen Vandenburg of Shell Rock, Ia., heaped praise and presented me a gift for having been one of the two Iowans who won awards in the writing contest of the National Federation of Press Women. (See Story Front Page.) My two awards were for a first place radio program script, "Voices in the Wind," and a third place women's department in weekly papers, from society pages in the long over fine three and four lane highways through beautiful mountain scenery that was really breath taking, we visited Saratoga Springs and Lake George, Mt. Defiance, Ticonderoga, Lake Champlain, and historical battle scenes of the war with the Indians and Red Coats during the Revolutionary War.

Particular Interest

"Two places I came near omitting, the zoo at Rock Creek Park, Washington, D. C. This was of particular interest to me because they had an old fashioned water wheel mill built about 1820. I once wanted to bring to Des Moines market corn meal ground by this type of mill. The animals at the zoo were numerous and very interesting.

"The other spot was the United Nations. We had been dinner guests of young Buddy Glass in his nice new home at Roosevelt, L. I. He also has a family of 2 children. He showed us about and explained many interesting points about the U. N. so much in the news of the world. Buddy has a nice position with the organization. We saw a $50,000 Oriental rug hung on the wall of the U. N. building.

"By next year the $300,000,000 Thruway from New York City to Buffalo will be finished and it will be worth seeing. It will be even grander than the Pennsylvania Turnpike or the New Jersey Turnpike. Travel is really educational."

New Program Plans For Young Workers Approved by YWCA

A wide variety of new program possibilities for young workers was approved by the YWCA Young Adult Committee, at its week end meeting under the chairmanship of Mrs. M. R. Thomas.

Such features as trips and outings, TV parties, Hobby nights, Courtship and Marriage series, Skill groups, Job security series, Getting Along with One's Family, Keeping Up With The World, Fun With Food, will be on a coed basis with opportunity for lots of sociability and fun.

Special features for young women include series on "Beauty Within the Budget," Ways of Reducing that 'Stenographer's Spread,' Decorating One's Apartment—on a shoestring, Diet and Weight Control.

Young workers are asked to send special interests by phone to Virginia Black, new Young Adult program director, at the YWCA, 4-5171. Each group will start as soon as sufficient interest is registered in that program. Other program can be added as interest is registered at the YWCA.

Iowa Bystander, which are my job to edit, along with other news matter that appears in the paper each week.

And while on the subject of "editing the weekly news," I hope that some of their regular reports who send in their items with postscripts "please print as written" or "do not change my news"—will not think that I made a few changes here and there just to win an award. A correction now and then, the insertion of a date, the re-phrasing of a sentence, the boiling down of a thought—all the busiest editing—are done with the purpose of making a more readable paper that conforms with the rules and regulations of the press. Sometimes, the weekly paper is more lenient about editing.

Participates In Conference At Iowa University

Iowa City, Iowa.—Older people should "redognize and accept their responsibilities along with the rest of us," Nathan W. Shock, chief of the section on gerontology in the National Institutes of Health, said Monday night at the State University of Iowa.

Speaking before the third annual conference of the university's Institute of Gerontology, Shock said problems of the aging become accentuated when society sets older people apart for special consideration and denies them an opportunity to accept their responsibilities.

The conference, which was held in the Iowa Center for Continuation Study, began Oct. 10 and ended Oct. 11.

During the round table discussion on problems of aging, Mrs. Lillian Edmonds, director of Willkie House of Des Moines, was one of the participants.

AMERICA MUST FERRET OUT SUBVERSIVES

Few people have any idea the extent a rabble rouser can influence Citizens with a supposedly reasonable amount of intelligence against the very things we hold to be the fundamental principles of the American system of government. And that is just what happened in Delaware, Maryland and the District of Columbia as crackpot agitators spearheaded the mobs whose members rebelled against the law as declared by the U. S. Supreme Court—desegregation in the public schools.

Many good people in this country—in the world in fact—marveled how Hitler was able to fool the German people almost to the point of destroying their country as he persecuted the Jews, made life miserable for those who refused to follow him and led his followers to believe he would conquer the world.

But America cannot be too sure what it has in its midst. Such men as Gerald K. Smith, Governor Tammidge and now Bryant Bowles, the self-styled leader of the National Association for the Advancement of White People (actually it is an association to retard the progress of all people) in the name of free speech are doing America just about as much harm as the communists for they seek to divide the people just as Russian agents do in their infiltration tactics.

An Associated Press story in the Des Moines Register illustrates the extent to which some people carry their hatred.

"Before Bowles returned seven speakers kept up a drumfire of criticism of officials who had ordered Bowles' arrest."

"One of them, the Rev. Claude Lynch, of Kenton, Del., who identified himself as an evangelist with a church in Kenton, said 'the Jews are backing the colored people 100 per cent.'"

Of course this is simply an appeal to prejudice and brings out in the open the whispering campaign that is heard every day. Undoubtedly, not only Jews but all other Americans who are interested in the welfare of their country are backing Negroes in their fight for civil rights.

It appears that some public officials in Delaware have the foresight and courage to make life miserable for the self-styled leader. They set an excellent example for if such people are allowed to peddle their wares unmolested, God only knows where America is headed.

U.N. HAS EARNED ITS SPURS

Next week the people celebrate the ninth Anniversary of United Nations. Special programs will be held in many cities over the nation sponsored by various organizations. Des Moines will be no exception to the rule.

Many predicted a short life for UN and during its existence there are those who have leveled abuse at it; some have even argued that America should pull out and go it alone.

Like the League of Nations, UN was founded during the close of a World War. It was easy to convince the most skeptical person that some type of international alliance would stave off another war.

The League of Nations did not do so well greatly because it was the putting together of a new idea—one which had few precedents to go by. But UN profited by the League of Nations. UN has not cured all the ills of the world and it won't undoubtedly much goes on there which might well be left out. But like many representatives in the U. S. Congress, much of the praise is for the folks back home.

Nine years is a short time as far as history goes. But it is a long time considering the widely divergent interests with which the organization is required to deal. And although the situation has been quite critical at times, the organization continues to function. Nobody has walked out and gone home to stay.

And the very fact that those representing those widely divergent interests have remained on the firing line (without the use of guns and bayonets) shows that much is being accomplished which otherwise would go untouched.

America has a great stake in UN. Most representatives there have had their countries overrun and/or devastated by war since the turn of the century. They have suffered immeasurably. America has not been so unfortunate. Generally its citizens have profited by these wars. Their homes, their farms, their factories have remained intact. New war weapons may make a different story should World War III come. So from a selfish standpoint, UN helps our cause.

But that is only the selfish side. America has much to give other countries. They have much to give us. And there is no better way to carry on this reciprocity than by working out common problems together. That is what UN aims to do.

hand, after a decree of this kind (that is, a decree by the chancery court overruling the school board) into the school, they will do so."

lect and he refused to go where they wanted him to.

Though his whole activities are under scrutiny of the Delaware Attorney-General for it is in Delaware that NAACP is incorporated, Bowles is determined he will come through it okay. He envisions at least 50,000 members in his organization with an airplane owned by the organization so that it can spread its crusade the fastest way possible.

the enemies of freedom who are working while we are asleep," Mrs. Gaines continued.

List Goals

Mrs. Gaines listed some "goals to strive for" in the efforts to make democracy work.

"First is our thinking and treatment of so-called aliens," she listed, pointing out that the early American came to this land to escape the tyranny in Europe, just as Negroes have migrated from the South to the North.

"Next goal is our Christian treatment of the Jews."

"Some of the poison of Europe has spilled over on our side" with anti-Semitic literature and whispering campaigns.

"This is the Hitler influence at work," she said emphasizing that the "American Jews are Americans."

In her next goal, "Justice for the Negro," Mrs. Gaines discussed many of the racial prejudices against the Negro that still exist in employment, the armed services, "yet our boys are asked to enlist to defend democracy."

"There are Jimcrow churches. We were forced to have our Jimcrow churches; but, now the movement is to get integrated churches," she said.

Housing Examples

About the prejudices and racial hate that exist in housing, Mrs. Gaines, a resident of Chicago, Ill., reminded that "we still have notable examples of that in our Trumbull Park housing addition."

"If you are white you can live where you want to—if you are a gangster or a roustabout; but if you are colored you can't live where you please except in ghettos—free from being bombed," she compared.

As president of the national organization of federated Negro club women, Mrs. Gaines travels extensively throughout the country. From her recent experiences, she pointed out hopeful "signs of the time"

Cooperation

In LaGrange, Ga., at a meeting of the Georgia colored club women, the white club women entertained them in their new club house.

"That was down in Georgia. Wasn't that remarkable!" she praised.

In Los Angeles, Cal., Mrs. Gaines told of the "full integration" of the colored federated club women with the Jewish women who "came out in mass to the meetings, paid their registration fees, and then gave several affairs to honor the colored women."

"Those are steps in the direction of total integration," she remarked. In Harrisburg, Va., where Mrs. Gaines went to another state federated meeting of colored women, she was guest in the home of one of the old Virginia families, where her wealthy white hostess "waited up each night to have coca and wafers" with her before retiring," the Chicagoan related.

"Only through such cooperative efforts are we given the opportunity of coming into closer relationship with the other fellow. When we have these cooperative experiences we will find that all men are brothers."

Mrs. Gaines addressed the Corbin. Your merchant uses part of the money you spend to pay for advertising. Ask him whether he spends any of it with The Bystander.

HEALTH FOR ALL

No Athlete's Heart

"Athlete's heart" is a myth, judging by results of a series of tests made recently on former champion athletes. It used to be said that athletes suffer enlarged hearts and die of heart disease before their time. The fact is that former athletes are in better condition than the average middle-aged man.

The average former athlete tested had a more efficient heart and blood circulation, better feet, stronger hands, wider shoulders, smaller hips, and less bay window than others of his age. Their general condition showed they are more ready for action and better able to tolerate stress. They are more agile and have better muscular endurance.

There were, of course, a few exceptions—men who, after winning a title, lapsed into a sedentary life, ate heavily, smoked and drank to much, and so tore down the magnificient physiques built up by athletic training. Those who kept active, however, are physically superior, and so is the average of all the champions tested.

But what of the man who has never been an athlete, who has led a sedentary life until reaching middle age? He is somewhat overweight, has rising blood pressure and sluggish circulation, doesn't sleep well—just doesn't feel very well. Can he change his ways and start to improve his condition, or is it dangerous for him to begin to be physically active so late in life?

He can and should begin to recondition himself, with the approval and guidance of his doctor. With conscientious exercise in moderation and with a sensible diet, he can lengthen his life and make it well worth living.

SPORTS

BY ALLEN ASHBY

The Old Timer walked into the shop Monday morning, then chewed off half a plug of tobacco and spat at the cuspidor so hard that we jumped back from the spray.

"Well, Iowa blew one. Not too much of a surprise; but I'll bet Evashek is bad company today."

"What do you think happens?" The Old Timer looked over his glasses. "Football is sixty percent spirit and will to win. Michigan had it—Iowa didn't."

"But weren't the Iowa guys tired?" "Bah, in my day you went out to play sixty minutes and we played sixty minutes."

"Now a guy plays half a game and he is exhausted. If you are in shape you don't die that soon. I used to play school ball Saturday and semi-pro ball Sunday."

"But that guy catching passes. You don't have to be big to catch passes. All you have to do is out-manuever the other fellow and that doesn't take size. Just thinking and handling your feet."

What about the time Reuben didn't throw to Vincent when he was in the clear? He ran instead.

What about the time Heuben didn't throw to Vincent when he was in the clear? He ran instead.

"Every passer has two choices. Sometimes he looks and sees his first choice covered. By then the boys are after him so fast he has to run and if his second choice was hanging by his heels from the crossbar the passer is so busy running he couldn't see the man. That could have easily been true in Reuben's case. How about Ohio State? "They must have a good defense because Caroline and Bates can double up and go down the middle with the best of them. But don't let that big score fool you. After a team gets about three markers the rest come easily. A few bad breaks, gambles that backfire, and you have twenty more points."

Can Iowa beat them? "Iowa can beat anybody on some days."

Well, I gotta go and the Old Timer got up and stormed out the door.

Local—A fellow who hasn't had a fair break all season is Drake's Gene Hendrix. The big fellow can really crack a line. Might run right through a trick walk, he hits that hard. Too bad he doesn't have a veteran club behind him. But wait until next year.

High School—We watched East High dedicate the new stadium by dusting Mason City. We saw what makes the Lee Township club click and also saw the secret weapon that might make Roosevelt have a bad night. Somebody has been teaching Chuck McKerry the big time tricks and has done a good job. It will be hard to find a better back than Chuck was Saturday. Jim Clarke is becoming a very valuable player. Does most of the passing and all the kicking; hits like a ten ton truck on defense and passes.

The secret weapon East might uncover is a young man named Harvey. He is going but faster than thought. By the Roosevelt game we figure he will have been taught to handle that speed and will run the ears off the Rough Riders.

In Memoriam

In memory of my brother, Eugene Thomas (Buster) Brown, who passed away one year ago Oct. 11. He is gone but not forgotten; and as dawn another year.

In my lonely hours of thinking, Thoughts of him are always near. Days of sadness will come o'er me, Friends may think the wound is healed.

But they little know the sorrow, That lies within my heart concealed.
