Racial Provincialism Assailed by Writer

New York—The American Negro, by thinking only in terms of civil rights in his country, is unwittingly supporting the formation of a "garison state", emerged in hostility and hatred by colored peoples the world over, warns William Worthly, in the October issue of The Crisis, official organ of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Mr. Worthly asserts that the foreign aid program of the United States is regarded by the colored peoples of the world as a rejuvenated policy of economic imperialism in a revealing article entitled "Of Global Bondage."

Moreover, he said, the growing tide of economic expansion and foreign exploitation has become the unfortunate means by which the United States seeks to assure herself an upper hand in the polarized struggle for world power. This is especially dangerous to the Negro, who entertains illusions about his growing stake of "equality" in an economic and social order that is not only doomed, but is a menace to mankind.

As report, issued by the Chicago branch of the NAACP, on the Trumbull Park Homes situation appears in this issue, as well as an editorial on the desegregation of schools and a review by Henry Winslow of Tell Freedom, an account, by Peter Abrahams, of his childhood in the slums of Johannesburg, South Africa.

He said he had been drinking all day and didn't remember being at the service station.

Hackney's attorney said he would appeal the case and Judge Brooks set the appeal bond at $400.

United Nations' Day Sunday, October 24

This is United Nations Week, when religious and peace-loving people throughout the world are asked to pray for the UN. Like the Constitution of the United States, the UN Charter does not name God, but the UN General Assembly opens its meetings with a moment of silence so that each delegate may offer his own silent prayer. And a meditation room in the General Assembly Building is open for delegates, employees and visitors at all times.

United Nations' Day is Sunday, October 24.

Haiti Asks for Aid from U.S. For Hurricane Victims

Washington, D. C.—(CNS)—Haiti has asked the United States to aid her with food and medical supplies for her people who were victims of Hurricane Hazel.

According to Haitian Ambassador Jacques Leger, who made the appeal, nearly 100,000 Haitians were victims for the whole town of Geremie with a population of 68,000 was destroyed and the town of Lescaives with a population of 71,000 was half destroyed.

Acting Secretary of State Herbert Hoover, Jr., promptly sent to the Haitian government that the State Department and the Foreign Operations Administration was studying the request.

Meanwhile, 18 helicopters have already reached the tiny country aboard the U. S. aircraft carrier Saipan. The carrier was loaded for rescue work before the hurricane had struck Haiti.

Georgia Contractor In Election Has 'Night of Terror'

Ocala, Ga.—A Negro contractor said Oct. 13, his short-lived candidacy for city councilman resulted in a "night of terror" for his family.

Ernest Davis said he entered the council race Oct. 11, after consulting white officials and voters who told him they had no objections.

Police Uniform

He said two men in a police car, one of whom was dressed in a policeman's uniform, visited his home shortly after midnight Monday and ordered him and his brother, Curtis Davis, to get into the car.

Davis said they got into the back seat and "the man in uniform told me things had gone as far as they could go. He said he was going to kill me if he went to hell for it."

The uniformed man pulled out a pistol and fired into the back seat, Davis said, "the bullet going between me and my brother."

"My brother jumped out of the car," the contractor said, "and ran across a field. The driver of the car scuffled with the uniformed man for the pistol, and told me to get out and go into the house."

He reported the automobile "kept going back and forth in front of the house all night and my family and I spent a night of terror."

Wednesday he withdrew from the election race.

Expect 75 Iowa Newsmen for Newspaper Conference

Iowa City, Iowa—Approximately 75 Iowa newspaper editors and publishers are expected to attend the annual fall newspaper conference at the State University of Iowa Oct. 29-30, according to conference director Wilbur Peterson, assistant professor in the SUI school of Journalism.

One of the highlights of the conference will be the address, given at the conference dinner by W. A. Blake, director of community relations for the Inland Steel company of East Chicago, Ind., and for 27 years a leading Midwest football official.

Walter Steigleman, associate professor of journalism at SUI, will act as toastmaster for the dinner, scheduled for 6:30 p. m. Oct. 29 in the River room of Iowa Memorial union. Paul Brechler, SUI athletic director will also speak briefly to the group.

Dedication of an early model printing press, discussions of mutual problems facing publishers and editors, and talks by several of the Iowa newsmen are also scheduled for the two-day conference.

Rev. E. G. Scott of Michigan to Speak at Corinthian Sunday

REV. E. GLADSTONE SCOTT

The Rev. E. Gladstone Scott, pastor of Friendship Baptist church, Lansing, Mich., will be guest speaker here Sunday afternoon and evening Oct. 24 at the Corinthian Baptist church, Ninth and School streets, for the annual Men's Day services.

Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock, the Rev. N. R. Olphin, pastor of Corinthian, will preach. Music will be offered by the Spiritualaires of Maple Street Baptist church. Mr. William Anderson will read a paper, "Men of the Church."

Sunday, at 3 p. m., prior to the presentation of the Rev. Mr. Scott, the former Des Moines and Iowa minister, the scriptures will be read by Mrs. James Harris, and Mr. Christopher Moore will be soloist.

Sunday at 7 p. m., the Burns Men's chorus will be guests and the Rev. Mr. Scott will preach. Mr. A. P. Trotter is chairman of the Men's Day program.

Democratic Mass Meeting Oct. 26 At St. Paul Church

REV. PAUL TURNER

The Rev. Paul Turner of Chicago, Ill., will address a mass meeting and Democratic rally at St. Paul AME church, 12th & Crocker street, Tuesday night, Oct. 26, 8 p. m.

This rally for the Democratic candidates for national, state and county office, is being sponsored by the Roosevelt Democratic club of which Mr. James Rhodes is president.

Rev. Mr. Turner is deputy housing administrator for the city of Chicago, and a practicing attorney having received his degree in law from the university of Minnesota. He is also a concert singer and organist having appeared in Des Moines several times.

This rally will highlight the campaign efforts of the Roosevelt Democratic club for the coming election on Nov. 2. The Democratic candidates will be presented.

This is an open meeting and the public is invited to attend, Mr. Rhodes, president said.

NAACP Branch To Meet Oct. 26

The Des Moines branch of the NAACP will meet Tuesday, Oct. 26, 8 p. m., at the Crocker YMCA, 1333 Keo-Way.

'Supremacy of Any Racial Group Doomed,' Veteran Leader Tells Carolinians

Spartanburg, S. C.—U. S. racists are the "most effective" American allies of international communism, an eminent churchman and civil rights leader asserted here Oct. 15.

Dr. Channing H. Tobias, chairman of the NAACP board of directors, pointed out that America's undemocratic race practices make her an easy mark for Soviet criticism aimed at "wooing not only the blackman of Africa but also the brown and yellow peoples of the Orient and Latin America."

The retired director of the Phelps-Stokes Fund spoke at the 14th annual convention of the state conference of NAACP branches.

Small Band

American communists are a "small discredited band," Dr. Tobias observed, but the "advocates of 'tandemism' in race relations" are a necessary aid to Soviet denunciation of the United States.

No Legal Way To Avoid Integration: Law Dean Admits

Washington, D. C.—(CNS)—The Dean of George Washington University Law School admitted to a meeting of college women that there was just no legal way to avoid integration.

Moreover, Dr. John T. Fey pointed out that the Supreme Court will soon be implementing their decision and most likely will refer any "defiance" cases to local courts.

To Dr. Fey, the movement of certain public schools to become "private" is unconstitutional and violation of the 14th Amendment. He also cited that the certain statements by the Governors of the Southern States do not necessarily reflect the opinions of the educated groups who want integration.

Maintaining that race relations in the State of South Carolina "cannot remain unaltered," the civil rights leader declared that "white supremacy, of the supremacy of any racial group, is doomed."

"Neither science nor morality recognizes inferior or superior races." "The rejection of science and religion by the racists creates a crisis throughout the world," the civil rights leader contended.

Urges Action By Byrnes

Dr. Tobias recalled that nearly 10 years ago James F. Byrnes, then Secretary of State, had, while urging him to accept a diplomatic post, explained that he, Mr. Byrnes, had given up his exalted position on the U. S. Supreme Court because he did not want to sit on the bench and review old cases while "outside the world was on fire."

"In the light of that incident," Dr. SEE PAGE SIX

Bowles To Speak At NAACP Meet

Peekskill, N. Y.—A local officer of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People said last Saturday Bryant W. Bowles has accepted an invitation to address the N. A. A. C. P. state convention here Oct. 24.

Bowles has been fighting desegregation of schools through his National Association for the Advancement of White People.

The Peekskill N. A. A. C. P. invited him to reply in his speech to this question:

"Has the picture of an irresponsible anti-Negro demonstration promoter that has been drawn of you been erroneous or unfair?"

Ousted Milford Pupils Are Sent Back to Negro School Until Controversy Is Over

Melford, Del.—Ten Negro pupils, ousted from Milford's all-white high school, Monday obeyed an order from the Delaware state board of education and reported for classes at the all-Negro high school at Georgetown 16 miles south of here.

The state board Sunday had ordered them to the William C. Jason school and arranged for transportation. James Webb, principal of the school, said their enrollment was only on a temporary basis.

He said they will go there only until the controversy over attending the all-white school here is settled in the courts.

Away From Classes

The pupils have not attended classes since early this month, when their enrollment at the Lakeview Avenue school here was canceled because about 70 per cent of its 1,562 white pupils boycotted the school.

Meanwhile, Vice-chancellor William Marvel will hold a hearing Tuesday in Wilmington on a request by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People for an injunction to restrain the Milford school board from keeping the 10 students out of the high school.

Marvel already has ruled that the Negroes have the right to attend the Milford school, but has not issued an injunction.

Instruct Police

Meanwhile, the Milford board asked Mayor Edward C. Evans to instruct police to arrest any persons who assemble in front of the all-white school. Small groups were in front of the school on the days the school was boycotted.

Bryant Bowles, head of the National Association for the Advancement of White People, told a mass meeting of 3,000 persons Sunday at a nearby Harrington airport to "let your conscience be your guide" in deciding whether to keep white children out of school if the Negroes should return to the Milford school.

Iowa's College Enrollments Increase By 3,000 Students

Enrollments in Iowa's 50 public and private colleges and universities is higher by 3,189 students this fall than it was in 1953-54, the Iowa Development Commission notes.

A total of 36,453 students are enrolled throughout Iowa, this fall, according to a report released by the Iowa College Presidents association, with an increase in freshman students of 1,590 and an increase of 354 transfer students with previous college experience. The number of student veterans using the G. I. Bill increased also, from 3,089 in 1953 to 4,548 this fall.

Iowa's 23 junior colleges, including seven privately owned institutions, have 3,337 students enrolled, this fall, an increase of 13 per cent over the 1953 total of 2,949 students enrolled.

Seeks Reelection

Congressman Paul Cunningham, who has represented the fifth Iowa Congressional District since 1941, is a candidate for re-election on the President Eisenhower to eliminate all second class citizenship in America. He deserves re-election.

REP. CUNNINGHAM

Republican candidate. The district comprises Polk, Dallas, Marion, Story, Madison and Warren counties.

Elected to congress in 1940 Rep. Cunningham soon became an able aggressive representative and has reached the status on important committees which ordinarily requires years to attain. Citizens of the fifth have been fortunate to have him represent their district.

Representative Cunningham has not been unmindful of his obligation to represent all citizens; he has given his vote and influence to every civil rights measure in the house during his service and fully supports

When the Frost Is on the Pumpkin

FOR A UNIQUE FLAVORFUL GINGER PUMPKIN CAKE use a downy textured cake flour, with a combination of spice and rich pumpkin. Then as a special decorative treat try your hand at frosted pumpkins made from the same luscious frosting base that covers the entire cake.

GINGER PUMPKIN CAKE

2 1/4 cups sifted cake flour 1/4 teaspoon ginger
1/2 cup granulated sugar 1/2 cup butter or margarine
3 teaspoons double-acting baking powder 1 cup firmly packed brown sugar
1/2 cup canned pumpkin
1/2 teaspoon soda 1/2 cup buttermilk
1/2 teaspoon salt 1 egg
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon 2 egg yolks

1. Into sifter, measure sifted flour, sugar, baking powder, soda, salt, and spices.
2. Into mixing bowl, place butter; stir just to soften. Add sifted dry ingredients, brown sugar, pumpkin, and 1/4 cup of the buttermilk. Mix until flour is dampened. Then beat 2 minutes at a low speed of electric mixer, or 300 vigorous strokes by hand.
3. Add egg, yolks, and remaining 1/4 cup buttermilk. Beat 1 minute longer in mixer, or 150 strokes by hand.

BAKING. Pour batter into two round 8-inch layer pans, which have been lined on the bottoms with paper. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 30 minutes. Frost cake with seven-minute frosting, reserving some frosting to make pumpkins.

TO MAKE PUMPKINS, trim off 1/4-inch from tops of 2 marshmallows. Press cut sides of marshmallows together. Stick toothpick through marshmallows to hold them in place.

Tint reserved frosting bright orange with red and orange coloring; spread on marshmallows. Then with top of a demitasse spoon, make indentations to resemble a pumpkin. Place on cake. Use half of a long green gumdrop for the stem. Use half a marshmallow for each pumpkin on side of cake. (ANS Features)

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF AMENDED AND SUBSTITUTED RENEWAL ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION (WITH PERPETUAL EXISTENCE) OF FIRST INSURANCE FINANCE COMPANY

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that at a special meeting of the stockholders of First Insurance Finance Company held in Des Moines, Iowa on the 17th day of July, 1954, Amended and Substituted Articles of Incorporation (with perpetual existence) of First Insurance Finance Company were adopted provided in substance as follows:

1. The name of the corporation is First Insurance Finance Company. Its principal place of business is in Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa.
2. The general nature of the business to be transacted is to engage in the business of lending money to persons, firms or corporations, to incur indebtedness or borrow money for the purposes of the corporation and to issue bonds, debentures, stocks or other obligations of any nature, to sell, pledge, discount or otherwise dispose of such bonds, notes or other obligations of the corporation for its corporate purposes; to have and enjoy and exercise all the rights and powers pertaining to the ownership of any stocks, bonds, evidences of indebtedness or other securities, including the right to vote the same, except that the shares of its own capital stock belonging to the corporation shall not be voted; to have offices within or without the State of Iowa and carry on any of its operations within the United States; to purchase or otherwise acquire, own, hold, mortgage, sell, convey or otherwise dispose of property, real or personal, necessary or convenient for the conduct of its business; to engage in or conduct the business of businesses of manufacturing, assembling, or producing goods, wares, merchandise, commodities or any type of personal property; to engage in the business of buying, selling, owning or otherwise dealing in any and all kinds of property, real, personal or mixed; to enter into and perform contracts of any nature; to apply for, secure, own, hold or dispose of patents, patent rights, copyrights, trade-marks or trade names; to hold shares of its capital stock and to transfer the same at such prices as may be determined by the Board of Directors.

3. The authorized capital stock of the company is $200,000.00 divided into 2 classes:
Preferred Stock in the amount of $150,000.00 divided into 15,000 shares of the par value of $10.00 per share;
Common Stock in the amount of $50,000.00 divided into 50,000 shares of the par value of $1.00 per share.

The Preferred Stock shall be entitled to preferential dividends at the rate of 6% per annum before any dividend of shares of Common Stock is in service to the Common Stock in the event of voluntary or involuntary liquidation. In the event cumulative dividends are in arrears for 2 years then so long as there shall be any arrears of cumulative dividends the holders of Preferred Stock shall be entitled to vote at the election of directors and for all other corporate purposes. Such voting power shall consist of 10 votes per share for Preferred Stock and shall continue until all arrears of cumulative dividends shall have been declared and paid. Preferred Stock shall be callable at any time at the option of the Board of Directors upon payment of the full par value of such stock plus a premium of 2 1/2% upon the par value thereof plus all unpaid and accumulated and current dividends except as expressly provided in the Articles the holders of Preferred Stock shall have no right to vote either at elections of Directors or at any other corporate proceedings or meetings or to receive notice of elections, proceedings or meetings.

4. The corporate existence of the company commenced October 15, 1954 and by the provisions of the Amended and Substituted Renewal Articles of Incorporation the corporate existence of the company shall continue PERPETUALLY as now provided by law.

5. The annual meeting of the corporation shall be held on the third Monday of the month of May at the principal office of the corporation at which time a Board of Directors of not less than 3 nor more than 9 shall be elected. Members of the Board shall be elected by the stockholders at the annual meeting of the corporation. Dr. C. L. Hill Still President Of Wilberforce University

Detroit, Mich.—Writing in the Oct. 16 issue of the Detroit Tribune, Julian C. Wyche gave the following information about church affairs in the Detroit area. The story revealed: "Dr. Charles L. Hill is still president of Wilberforce University."

"The Rev. J. A. Charleston is still pastor of Detroit's Ebenezer A.M.E. church."

"The Rev. Granville Reed, former pastor of St. Stephens, is now pastor of St. Paul A.M.E. church of Detroit. "These revelations were made Tuesday evening by the Rt. Rev. George A. Baber, prelate of the 4th A.M.E. District."

"Dr. Hill was reported to have resigned from his Xenia, Ohio, post as of Oct. 1 to become pastor of Ebenezer A.M.E. church in Detroit upon appointment by Bishop Baber, whose diocese includes Ohio."

"Meanwhile, the Ebenezer congregation was a sore-spot over the recent transfer of Rev. Mr. Charleston as pastor in place of the Rev. Carlyle Stewart, who was assigned to Detroit's St. Paul. Rev. Mr. Charleston had been minister of St. Paul for nearly 23 years."

Approve Minister

Bishop Baber said he looked into the Ebenezer controversy Sunday and found that only a fraction of the members had not approved of the newly assigned minister.

"It was a situation in which the vast majority were for Rev. Mr. Charleston, and I am sure that the friction has been erased, the 4th district prelate revealed.

"Sunday also marked the opening of a new church, People's Community, organized by Rev. Carlyle Stewart as interracial, independent and non-denominational."

"This does not mean that Rev. Mr. Stewart has left the A.M.E. church after 39 years," stated Bishop Baber.

Assignment Adequate

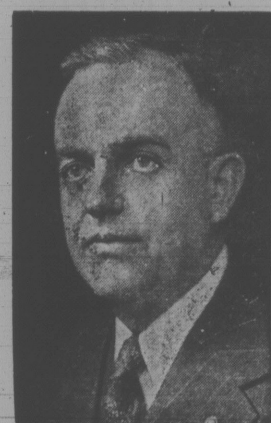

"The assignment of Rev. Mr. Reed to St. Paul by Bishop Baber was viewed as adequately filling the pulpit with a veteran minister and dynamic preacher as expected by the congregation.

"Dr. Hill allegedly resigned his position upon pressure resulting from accusing Bishop D. Ward Nichols, prelate of the 1st A.M.E. District, of withholding $7,000 earmarked annually by the church for its university property."

"Bishop Barber stated that he had not made any appointment for Dr. Hill, thereby he was still to be considered president of the church's university, since Dr. Hill had not notified him of submitting his resignation."

No Connection

"He added that publicity of Dr. Hill, esteemed nationally as an orator, being appointed pastor of Ebenezer had in no way any effect on the friction caused by the transfer of Rev. Mr. Charleston to the church."

"Press reports last week had Dr. Gilbert H. Jones, vice-president of the university and Dean of the college, automatically becoming acting president."

"The Board of Trustees of the University, solely empowered to hire or fire the president, convenes in June, 1955, but could act if necessary at a special call meeting."

Pep Convocation

Homecoming activities will begin Friday morning with a pep convocation for students and alumni in the Drake auditorium at 11 a. m. At the meeting, the Drake team of 1934 and could see someone who would see that she got home. Reluctantly, I continued on my errand and ran into Mrs. H. N. Wilcots of 1104 Seventeenth street, on bus. We started chatting and she revealed that she was on her way to the home of an old friend, Mrs. Ashley, for a visit. Just like an answer to a prayer, Mrs. Wilcots got off the bus, immediately went to the doctor's office and escorted Mrs. Ashley home.

Another blind resident who has subscribed to the Bystander for years ordered her paper stopped because she had no one to come in to read the paper to her each week. If anyone has time for such a deed, let me know.

Watch Child Bathe While You Cook

For a shortcut in bathing young children, let them use the kitchen sink. Even child care experts recommend what some mothers have been practicing for years—permitting a bath in the kitchen before meals.

Then, when small children come in all sandy from play, you can keep a wary eye on their splashing and watch the kettle at the same time. The youngsters enjoy this, and it saves mother a lot of excess steps—but for sanitary reasons, of course, the sink must be suds-scrubbed before and after each bath.

WE ARE STILL FAR FROM THE GOAL

Many southern people boast that they know how to treat the Negro and will do a better job of dealing with him than the northerner. This comes from those who believe that the Negro "should stay in his place."

This advice might apply to individuals but certainly not the race as a whole.

Last week, a prominent Negro contractor in Georgia decided to run for the City council in his home town. However, before making his announcement he consulted some of the so-called powers that be whether the step should be taken. He got the go ahead sign and announced his candidacy.

Others thought differently and who but a couple of policemen took him, along with his brother, for a ride. Only by quick thinking and hard fighting were they able to save their hides.

It sounds ridiculous that in the "free world" (and the term is used advisedly) a citizen must get the consent of another citizen to run for office although the constitution of that and other states give him a legal right to do so.

In other words, the law says one thing; the code of ethics another. And these ethics are mob rule. Its the kind of thing which has raised its head in Delaware, Maryland and the District of Columbia; disrespect for law and order.

The human race is moving forward and the Negro, being a part of the human race, is on the move. He like his white friends, is not satisfied with second class citizenship and all the inequalities and injustices that go with it. So that in all activities he expects and should take his place in the movement for a better life for all.

There are some who object to this line of reasoning and they are those who want to "keep the Negro in his place."

DES MOINES CITIZENS
SUPPORT UC DRIVE

Community Chest drives are being made in most communities to care for charities in their respective localities. Des Moines is no exception for United Campaign workers have already accomplished a large share of their task.

Over the years Des Moines has been fortunate in meeting its quota. The Bystander remembers well when most of the 31 agencies included in the UC had individual drives.

That has been stopped by including them all in one solicitation.

Fortunately, the Community Chest boards have been objective and unselfish operating on an efficient basis and vitally interested in the welfare of all the people of Des Moines.

And the agencies operated by the Chest without being unduly circumscribed by the board have done a good job and are a credit to Des Moines. In fact, the agencies carry on such diversified programs that each citizen is touched by one or more of them.

These are the reasons why Des Moines has been able to meet its annual quota for the United Campaign; they are the reasons why its citizens will continue to see that the job is done well.

LITTLE JUDGMENT
USED HERE

Many people don't understand the meaning of the principle that every fellow is entitled to express his views. That's true. But it has limitations. Nobody need be forced to hear a fellow's views. And this is where the Peekskill, N. Y., NAACP member made the mistake of inviting Bryan W. Bowles of the NAACP to appear before the New York State NAACP Conference.

As a matter of fact the question of the legality of racial segregation in public schools is no longer debatable, the Supreme Court having declared what the law is. The only remaining question is the best method of carrying out the court's decision.

People who have worked in the NAACP and kindred movements find crackpots within their ranks just as any other organization. And this is just about the size of the gentleman in Peekskill.

United Campaign
In Action

BY BILL HECKMAN

As you read this United Campaign may have gone "Over the Top" or it may not. If it hasn't it will be a mighty long week end for yours truly. The hours will drag until the final report luncheon for UC solicitors—at the YMCA Tuesday noon. (Incidentally, each of those solicitors pays for his own meal at all of the report luncheons.)

I have no crystal ball but I do have a lot of faith in the citizens of Des Moines. I've been here only a

Tobias asserted, "I respectfully urge the now Governor Byrnes, faced with the responsibility of influencing implementation of the Supreme Court school decisions in his state, that this be done in the light of the present international situation, rather than in the light of local prejudice or political expediency, for the world is still on fire."

Other speakers scheduled to address the three-day meeting included Thurgood Marshall, NAACP special counsel; Herbert Hill, labor relations assistant for the Association; M. J. Perry, Spartanburg attorney; and C. S. Sampson, Greenville attorney.

Sugar Really Has
That 'Urge to Fight'

New York—(CNS)—It seems that Sugar Ray Robinson isn't kidding about his fight "comeback." As the 34 year old star put it, "I got the urge to fight again."

He's already started his active training and hopes to be ready for his initial tuneup bout within ninety days. But he adds there is an "if" to the whole thing. And it's this: "If I find in training that I cannot regain the condition of which I was so proud then, I'll call the whole thing off and go back to dancing."

Final Decision

Confident and happy as in the old days, Ray told how the final decision as to his fitness would come from Dr. Vincent Nardiello, George Gainford, his former manager and his trainer, Harry Wiley.

Robinson has two reasons for coming back after 22 months of easy living. One is that he could use the money. "Everybody can use a buck, can't they? I'm not as well off as I was." Here he hastened to add that his investments were doing quite well.

First Retired

His other reason is an ambition to become the first retired champion ever to regain his title. Then he would be outdoing such heroes as Jack Dempsey and Joe Louis. Such a feat could lead him into politics and any number of places.

"Sugar" looks good at 157½ pounds—just a half-pound over the weight he carried against Joe Maxim in his last fight. He also contends that dancing has helped his legs so that he just might make it.

few months but seeing the way in which the flood was handled last summer was very convincing. As a result, my hopes are high that this year's UC goal for 33 essential community agencies will be met.

Three Years Old

United Campaign is only a three year old, so we can't expect everyone to know everything about it. Anyone who has received service from a UC agency knows more than the average. So does the person who has taken a UC tour. So does anyone who does volunteer work for the United Campaign. But there are still plenty of questions. And there is always that spook that haunts me night and day—Resistance-to-giving.

HEALTH FOR ALL

The "Angelic" Invalid

Anyone who has been an invalid or who has cared for one knows that physical illness can seriously affect the personality. Especially during an illness such as tuberculosis which may require months of treatment, the patient's behavior may change so much that he seems a different person. Unfortunately, he does not always become the angelic invalid we read about in novels.

The modern doctor thinks in terms of "psychosomatic medicine." His patient is not a machine with parts that need repair, but a whole human being. He knows that purely physical derangements, such as fever, can cause temporarily disturbed emotions. He knows also that the way a patient feels about his illness may not only keep him from following prescribed treatment, but actually make him worse or cause some new physical upset to complicate the original illness.

The only way I know of to make that haunting ghost less than king size is to keep explaining, explaining, explaining. I never convince. Some people will always think the Cross is just a couple of splintery pieces of wood.

But I believe that most people will understand anything if they are given enough of the facts.

I'd like to give everybody those facts today or at the latest tomorrow. I have them. I know almost all the reasons why UC is a good thing and worth backing each year.

Worrying

That's why I'm worrying. If UC is over the top, I'm worrying about next year. If it isn't I'm worried about what happen between now and October 26th—the last day of this year's drive.

It's hard to wait, not knowing. Not knowing whether enough people understand enough about the United Campaign. Not knowing how many are behind Resistance-to-giving, blowing more and more air up un-

His Family

Uncertainty about himself, his future, his family is perhaps most difficult for the TB patient to endure. Unless he is reassured by the attitude of the people around him and by learning the facts about his disease, he will have to relieve the stress of intense anxiety in some way. He may do this by giving up adult behavior.

He may display childish irritability, tantrums, and unreasonable demands. Other patients may react as submissive, well-behaved children. They may become over-dependent on the doctor and on receiving treatment, and resist any effort to break the bonds. Still others release their anxiety by becoming hostile and aggressive, and try to hurt themselves and others. The type of reaction, of course, depends on the basic and sometimes hidden personality traits the sick person brings to his new situation.

By facing the psychologic problems of illness frankly and with sympathetic understanding, the family of the TB patient can make an important contribution to his welfare. Satisfying his mental and emotional needs can be just as important as performing the mechanical tasks of nursing.
