Ambassador To Liberia and Family

AMBASSADOR RICHARD L. JONES, MRS. JONES AND SON RICHARD, III

Washington, D. C.—In the presence of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, Richard Lee Jones was sworn in June 8 as United States Ambassador to Liberia.

Mr. Jones, a Chicago business man and civic leader, was born December 21, 1893, in Albany, Georgia. He attended the University of Cincinnati, and later the University of Illinois, from which he was called in 1917 to serve with the United States Armed Forces in World War I.

In 1920-22, General Jones helped to organize the First Standard Bank of Louisville, Kentucky, and served as its cashier from 1920 to 1922. From 1927 to 1928, he was business and advertising manager of the Chicago Defender.

Capital Close-Up From Washington

BY CONSTANCE DANIEL
Paul Cooke's Teaching Integration Dr. Paul Cooke of Wilson-Miner Teachers College, one of the Capital's most hard-working and effective integrationists, is conducting a workshop on school integration, this summer, at Howard University. Dr. Cooke, raised in the block where he teaches, is second generation of a family that has made integration in the Capital its concern. Young Dr. Cooke has been working at it ever since he was old enough to insist on being heard.

His University workshop, which is being held from June 20 to July 1, will cover the status of racial integration in American life—in employment, housing, public accommodations and transportation, politics and church. The status of the school cases subsequent to the recent decree, will be presented by counsel for the plaintiffs in the cases. The announced purpose of the workshop is "to recognize and then study the major aspects of school integration." Philosophy, principles, methods, techniques of the school and community will be studied, with consultants from government agencies, religious and community groups, as well as from education, advising and counseling. A perfect field case awaits

Florida Governor Orders Official Probe of Case

Tallahassee, Fla.—(CNS) — New evidence in the notorious Groveland rape case of '49 has caused Governor Leroy Collins to order an official check on it. Key Negro citizens appeared before the State Pardon Board stating how they were convinced of the innocence of Walter Lee Irvin, one of four Negroes accused of raping a young white housewife in Groveland. The incident set off a series of reprisals against Negroes in the area.

New evidence consisted of statements by the local doctor that no evidence of rape could be found on the young housewife. This impressed the Governor as he said that attorneys interested in the case had told him that no medical testimony had been produced by the state that a rape actually occurred.

Hank Thompson Ailing

Milwaukee, Wis. — (CNS) — Though he's still complaining of chest pains, Hank Thompson is very much in the Giant lineup. Recently he was a patient of Medical Center where he was sent to check up on the on-off pains. Doctors there could see nothing serious. Hank continues to play but misses batting drills.

Crazy Horse Memorial Is Assailed by Cong. Diggs; Would Spend $258,000

Washington, D. C.—Congressman Charles C. Diggs, Jr. (Michigan Democrat) is vigorously protesting a bill approved by the House Interior and Insular Affairs Committee appropriating $258,000.00 for the creation of a memorial honoring the legendary American Indian Chief, Crazy Horse.

Diggs, a member of the committee, is opposed to the idea of the government funds being used to construct memorials for any particular racial or nationality group. He feels that any of this type should be one which "encompasses the representation of each group and indicates that all Americans of various races have made some major contribution to our culture."

Opposed Similar Bill

Representative Diggs made it plain that he has the same opinion of a similar measure suggesting a memorial to Booker T. Washington. He noted, however, that the Washington Bill has been ignored by the committee for the past ten years.

The young Michigan lawmaker insists that group commemorations should have "A theme based on the cultural pluralism that has made America great."

"To spend $258,000.00 of federal money which comes from taxpayers of all groups to memorialize one particular group at the exclusion of all others," Diggs told the committee, "Does not conform to our democratic philosophy."

Congressman Diggs promised to carry his fight against the Crazy Horse Memorial to the House floor.

Many Other Ways

While stating his intent to fight the bill, Diggs declared that there is no member of the Interior and Insular Affairs Committee who is more sympathetic than he to the problems of Indians. His general sympathy and concern with regard to problems facing all minority groups, he said, has been well established.

St. Louis Papers Censor Newcombe For Going to Bag

St. Louis—(CNS)—St. Louis' newspapers had a field day criticizing Big Don Newcombe's mannerism of going to the resin bag between every pitch. They tried to label him a showoff for the mannerism which has delighted the fans who root for the big fellow each time at bat.

Newcombe will tell you that it's no mannerism—this calling for the resin bag so much, for his reason is to keep him out of court. Six years ago, in a game against Philly at Ebbets Field, the bat slipped out of Newk's hand and hit a spectator. The woman claimed injury to her arm and sued for $3,500. The case has just been settled out of court for $250.

Hands Perspire

Says Newk: "My hands perspire more than most guys! I have to go to the bag a lot; sometimes two and three times a pitch."

When asked why others didn't do it, he said: "Other guys use pine-tar on their bat handles. But I can't use it because it makes my hands too sticky and I wouldn't be able to pitch."

Thus the mannerism will stand. And it plus Newcombe's 405 hitting and his pitching (11-1) make him one of the biggest drawing cards in baseball.

8 Democratic Congressmen To Join Under Powell for Civil Rights Legislation

Washington, D. C.—Eight Democratic congressmen announced Sunday they have joined under the leadership of Representative Adam Powell (Dem., N. Y.) to plan strategy for bringing pending civil rights legislation to the house floor.

Despite recent gains in the field, they said, some "glowing promises" made at election time have yet to be fulfilled.

Caused Stalemate

Powell is the sponsor of an anti-segregation amendment which has stalemated action on President Eisenhower's military reserve measure.

The President, calling the administration's record good on civil rights matters, has criticized the amend-

Services for Mrs. Roy Walker, D. M. Resident 43 Years

Services for Mrs. Roy Walker, 73, of 921 Twelfth street, were held Wednesday afternoon at Corinthian Baptist Church, with the Rev. N. R. Olphin, officiating. Burial was in Glendale Cemetery.

Mrs. Walker who had been ill two years, died Sunday night, June 19, at her home.

Born in Bumpkin County, North Carolina, Mrs. Walker was a resident of Des Moines 43 years. She was a member of the Corinthian Church and the Princess Zorah Chapter, No. 10, of the Order of Eastern Star.

Surviving are her husband; a son, James Gray, and a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Franklin, all of Des Moines.

Out-of-town relatives attending the funeral included: Mr. J. A. Moore of Parsons, Kas., Mrs. Josephine Burton and Mrs. Gladys Payne, both of Kansas City, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. James Farnsworth of Merriam, Kas., Mrs. Glorine Zenor of Davenport, Mrs. Blanch Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jackson and Mrs. Pinkie Holloway, all of Gallatin, Mo. ## Pope An Oriole Now

Baltimore, Md. — (CNS) — The trade deadline caught Dave Pope out as an Indian but in as a Baltimore Oriole. The husky Negro outfielder was not indispensable to the Indians who let him go with veteran Wally Westlake in exchange for Billy Cox, infielder and Gene Woodling plus some cash. Pope has been used only part time with the Indians but boasts of a batting average of .297.

Segregation Ends In El Paso Schools

El Paso, Tex.—The El Paso school board voted 6-1 Tuesday night to abolish segregation in the public schools.

El Paso thus became the first major Texas city to end segregation in accordance with supreme court decisions.

There were 712 Negro pupils in El Paso public schools last school year. There is a single Negro school in this metropolitan area of more than 182,000 persons.

Delegates Convening in Atlantic City; Editor to Get Spingarn Award

Atlantic City, N. J. — The establishment by the NAACP of a Walter White Memorial Fund as a fitting tribute to the organization's late executive secretary was to be disclosed here this Wednesday afternoon by the Association's board chairman, Dr. Channing H. Tobias, in an address prepared for delivery at the NAACP 46th annual convention.

The six-day convention will close Sunday afternoon, June 26, with a mass meeting to be addressed by the Association's new executive secretary, Roy Wilkins. Registrations indicate an attendance of 750 delegates from at least 30 states and the District of Columbia. In addition to the school segregation issue, delegates will consider civil rights programs in such fields as legislation, employment, housing, transportation and recreation.

By action of the NAACP board of directors, Dr. Tobias' address explains, the organization is "calling upon every member and friend of the NAACP to contribute annually at least one dollar to this fund over and above his membership fee."

The Association now has a quarter-of-a-million members as well as a large number of friends who contribute to its financial support.

Adequate Funds

Maintaining that "the attainment of our goal can be assured only if we have adequate funds with which to work," the board chairman's speech declares that "we know of no better way to pay tribute to the memory of our beloved leader than the establishment of a Walter White Memorial Fund to carry on the work to which he was dedicated."

Mr. White died this past March and was succeeded by Roy Wilkins, former administrator of the organization.

"Various proposals have been advanced as to ways and means of permanently commemorating our departed leader," Dr. Tobias' address notes. The board has given due consideration to these proposals and has arrived at the conclusion that the kind of memorial Walter himself would want would be a fund to assure the completion of our work on schedule—by Jan. 1, 1963, the one-hundredth anniversary of the Emancipation Proclamation."

"Fight for Freedom"

The reference to the Jan. 1, 1963 deadline is to a proposal that Dr. Tobias advanced at—and which was unanimously adopted by—the NAACP's 1953 annual convention. At that time the board chairman called for a speed-up of the NAACP's work, to be underwritten by a fund of one million dollars a year raised by the organization, in order to achieve the Association's goal of full citizenship rights for Negroes by the centennial of Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation in 1963. The concerted drive was named the "Fight for Freedom campaign."

New Civil Defense Signals, Two Things to Remember; 'All Clear' Eliminated

New Civil Defense public action signals have been announced by State Civil Defense Director C. E. "Ben" Fowler.

Made necessary by developments in research on the potential danger of hydrogen bombs, with particular respect to radioactive fall-out, the new signals are designed to afford greater protection to the general public and, at the same time, are simpler than the system previously used. The plan announced for Iowa conforms to the signal system now recommended for the nation by Federal Civil Defense Administration.

Standard Signals

Standard Civil Defense action signals to be sounded by public warning equipment (sirens, horns, whistles, or other similar devices) are as follows:

Alert Signal: A steady blast of three to five minutes duration. Meaning—The public is to act according to the operations plan of the local Civil Defense authorities. (In all areas, this signal will mean that Civil Defense forces are to mobilize. In certain target areas, it may mean the activation of previously planned evacuation procedures. In every case, it means that the public should listen to the radio for further instructions.)

Take Cover Signal: A wailing tone or a series of short blasts of three minutes duration.

Meaning—Attack is imminent and the public must take the best available shelter.

'All Clear' Eliminated

Since hazard of radioactive fall-out may preclude bringing the public out of shelters in all areas simultaneously, the former "All Clear" signal has been eliminated. Instructions to come out of shelter will be given by other means of communication—including radio, public address system, and person-to-person contact by wardens, police, and other officials.

Based on information received from the FCDA Warning Officer, the State will give local communities the best available estimate of the situation including the probable nature and time of attack.

The public is asked to destroy the previously distributed "alert" cards which gave the signals formerly used.

Must Keep Plans Fluid

In announcing the new signals, Fowler, State Civil Defense Director, said: "The change in public action signals is in line with the constant effort in Civil Defense planning to keep abreast of the scientific developments in this field.

"If we are to provide maximum protection for our people, we must keep our plans completely fluid and up-to-date.

"Under the new system, the public needs to keep in mind only two things—first—when hearing a steady blast of a warning device, listen to the radio for information and instructions; and, second—when hearing SEE PAGE SIX

Report Mother of Four Children, Missing

Police were asked Tuesday to aid in a search for Mrs. Vivian L. Sharp, 30, who disappeared Monday from her home, 1005 Ninth street.

Mrs. Wood, mother of the missing woman, said Mrs. Sharp has been in ill health. She was described as weighing about 148 pounds and about 5 feet 5 inches tall. She was believed to have been wearing a pink dress when she left home early Monday, O.Mrs. Wood said. She is the mother of four children the youngest a week old.

Shades Of Summer Lamb

There's many a year-round food that spells cool eating for summer if you know just one little trick to make it different. Take lamb for instance.

Lamb's at its best when it's hot. So by all means serve it hot. And of course, always season it before cooking with liberal shake of Accent for natural flavor. Then—special dress for summer—cook shoulder lamb chops with this tangy sauce, brushed on during cooking with a mint switch. Chops come off the grill piping hot, yet minty cool in taste and oh so appetizing.

Serve them inside—or grill and serve on your porch or terrace. Whatever the setting, these lamb chops will fill the family's fondest desires for a satisfying hot-weather meal.

Grilled Shoulder Lamb Chops

- 1/2 cup orange juice
1/4 cup lemon juice
1 tablespoon sugar
1/2 teaspoon marjoram
1/2 teaspoon rosemary
1/2 teaspoon Accent*
1/2 teaspoon salt
Few grains nutmeg
Bouquet of fresh mint
4 double shoulder lamb chops, boned and rolled

Combine all ingredients except mint and chops. Let stand 1 hour. Tie mint bouquet in cheesecloth. Dip chops in sauce; place on grill. Turn frequently, brushing each time with sauce, using mint "switch" as a brush. Broil 15 to 25 minutes, depending on degree of "doneness" desired. Makes 4 servings.

Elston Howard Continues to Shine As Yankee

New York — (CNS) — The trade deadline came and went for the Yankees and any reference to trading to star Elston Howard for a much needed pitcher may have been considered but certainly mixed by the front office. For Howard—the Yanks' first Negro—is continuing to shine as a Yankee.

Mgr. Casey Stengel calls him a "four-way guy" — a catcher, right fielder, left fielder and a solid gold pinch hitter. He's terrific under pres-

Flavorful Biscuits Make Luxury Shortcake

Biscuits made with margarine add a luxury touch to Strawberry Shortcake

Strawberry shortcake is only as good as the biscuits that are its foundation. Light, fluffy, tender, they absorb the delicious berry juice. When they are made with margarine, they make the berries taste extra good.

Biscuits for shortcake are best when they are a little richer than when they are served as hot bread. A hint of sugar gives them just enough sweetness to blend with the sweetness of the sugared berries. Both the margarine and the sugar help the biscuits brown lightly to give added attractiveness.

For an extra touch of flavor and luxury, split the biscuits as soon as they come from the oven. Spread them generously with soft margarine. Then heap sweetened berries and whipped cream on them and serve.

STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE (6 servings)

- 2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
2 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
6 tablespoons margarine
1 cup milk
1 quart strawberries
1/2 pint whipping cream

Sift together into bowl the flour, baking powder, sugar and salt. Cut in margarine until mixture is like coarse corn meal. Add milk and stir until flour is just moistened. Turn dough out on lightly floured board or pastry cloth. Knead lightly five or six times. Roll out dough one-half inch thick. Cut into rounds with 4-inch biscuit or cookie cutter. Bake biscuits on ungreased baking sheet in hot oven (450° F.) 12 to 15 minutes. When slightly cooled, spread biscuits with soft margarine. While biscuits bake, wash and hull berries. If berries are large, cut some in halves. Sprinkle a little sugar over berries. About 1/2 cup sugar to 1 quart of berries is a good proportion. Cover and set into refrigerator until ready to serve. When ready to serve, whip cream. If desired, add 1 teaspoon powdered sugar to whipped cream. Place one biscuit on each dessert plate. Cover with cleaned sweetened strawberries and a generous spoonful of whipped cream. Cover with a second biscuit, more whipped cream and berries.

Under-Bed Toy Box

TOY storage is a constant problem in the home with children—particularly following Christmas and birthdays, when the supply is increased. Having a convenient, yet out-of-the-way, storage box gives the child excellent training in putting away his belongings and gives Mother a big lift, too. Under-the-bed storage is excellent, especially when the box has casters for easy removal and a lid to keep out the dust. Such a box, as illustrated, may be constructed in the home workshop of materials carried by lumber yards.

Required are suitable lengths of 3-inch x one-half inch lumber for the back and two sides of the box, a front of 1" x 10" lumber, sufficient Masonite 1/2" Tempered Presdwood for the bottom and top, casters, hinges and bolts and nuts to attach them.

The wider piece of lumber on the front improves the appearance of the box when it is under the bed. Prime and paint the box in a color to match the furnishings of the room.

MORE DES MOINES HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES BUSY GETTING JOBS AND PLANNING CAREERS

MARY LOU STROTHER-SHARP
East High School Graduate Mary Lou Strother-Sharp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Strother, 1018 12th street, was news editor of the Scroll Staff, the school paper; student teacher, member of clerical staff; ushered for the school assemblies; was announcer and reporter of KDPS, the radio station at Tech High. Previous to her enrollment at East, she attended North High School. This spring she had the pleasure of being a Drake Relays attendant to the Relays Queen. Next month, Mrs. Sharp will join her husband, Cpl. Fred Sharp, in California, where they will make their home.

GORDON F. WOLDER
Since graduation from North High School, Gordon Wolder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Wolder, 1144 18th street, has attended an annual meeting in St. Paul, Minn., the Five States Sunday-School and BTU Congress. He is president of the Corinthian Baptist BTU. At school he lettered in golf, was a member of the Booster and Senior Banquet committees, homeroom vice president, and liked commercial drawing. He has worked with the Cub Scouts and serves on the dance committee of Willkie House.

SANDRA MAE WILSON
North High School Graduate Sandra Mae Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Helen Wilson, 1146 12th street, and Mr. Wallace Wilson of Ottumwa, Ia., is planning to attend Drake University in September to study in the field of fine arts.
During her high school career Sandra took part in the following activities: S u b - D e b, Cosmopolitan, Spanish clubs, tennis, intramurals, cheer leader and Senior homeroom representative.
In the community she is a member of the YWCA, the Majorettes of Hawkeye Elks lodge No. 160 and a member of Corinthian Baptist church where she is an usher and one of the Jubilarians.

DAVID WALTER JACKSON
East High School Graduate David Walter Jackson, who resides with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. David Mash, 1651 Walker street, was among the top-ranking students, scholastically, in his graduating class. He liked history, typing, sports and woodwork and in the latter class made several handsome pieces of furniture that grace the homes of his grandparents and his mother, Mrs. Myra Jackson. Among the pieces were coffee and end tables. His plans are not definite for the future and at present he is seeking employment. His favorite sport is baseball. He attends Bethel AME church.

SUZANNE WELLINGTON
Among the top-ranking students in the North High School's graduating class was Suzanne Wellington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rueben Wellington, 1122 11th street. She was active in the school's A Capella choir. A member of Corinthian Baptist church, Suzanne sings with the Chancel Choir of St. Paul AME church. She is employed as a long distance operator at the Northwestern Bell Telephone Company.

MARION GERALD MORRIS
Since graduation from East High School, Marion Gerald Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Morris, Sr., 1331 E. 17th Street Court, has been seeking employment and finding much time to work on his favorite hobby, the making over of old clocks and the rejuvenation of non-working typewriters. He hopes one day to go into the career of clock and typewriter repairing. At East he liked mathematics and auto mechanics. He was a member of the golf, chess and checker club. He was also active in the High YMCA.

WALTER DANFORD MURRAY
After graduation from East High School, Walter Danford Murray, 1301 Maple street, left for San Antonio, Texas, to begin military training at the Lackland Air Force Base. He is hoping to study in the field of photography.

MILDRED WILLIAMS
East High School Graduate Mildred Williams is planning to enter, this summer, the Crescent School of Beauty Culture to learn to be a beauty operator and, one day have her own shop. At East she was a member of the Senior Zeta, Modern Miss; KDPS, school's radio recorder; Scroll Staff; G.A.A. as a swimmer. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Frazier, 1633 Buchanan street, she is a member of the Union Baptist church. As a graduation gift, she took a trip to Minneapolis, Minn.

Gets Recognition For His Art Work

MR. PROFRO PROFORO
Recognition came to one of Youngkers, department store, porters last winter when a collection of pastel paintings he had done in charcoal, was exhibited in the store's Fifth Floor gallery.
The employee, who has been painting since he was a lad, is Profro Proforo, 1180 13th street. He began working at Youngkers in April, 1952, and during the latter part of 1954, while talking with the store's president, Morey Sostrim, Proforo mentioned his art and Mr. Sostrim asked to see some of his work, which later was viewed by Miss Mary Williamson, personnel director, and an exhibition date arranged.
Proforo came to Des Moines early in 1951 to enter Drake University, but did not begin until the next February. He now is classified as a junior in the School of Fine Arts and is working towards a degree, he said.
After graduation Proforo wants to specialize in fashion illustration and portrait painting.
Born in Newberry, S. C., to native Cubans, he was reared by his sisters in Chicago, Ill., where he was graduated from the Englewood High School.
Getting an education, has not been easy, he revealed, but he plans to reenter Drake university this Fall, after missing the Spring semester.
Two of his paintings, an original, showing a cat playing with a ball of yarn, and the other, a clown, will be included in the Summer exhibitions to be shown at the Des Moines Art Center, he revealed.

Capital Close-Up

his course, namely:
The Metropolitan Police Boys Clubs
The clubs, organized on a segregated from-top-to-bottom basis, are now over twenty years old. They are not "private" clubs, but quasi-public, with approximately one-third of their funds coming from citizens taxes. (In "funds" we are including cost of public premises occupied, light and heat used, and the salaries of uniformed policemen making house to house canvasses every year, to solicit funds. When the Board of the clubs was first set up, it offered one or two advisory positions to Negroes, but refused to include them on the policy-making body. It still does. Religious and civic organizations have taken action, and appealed repeatedly to the Commissioners of the Voteless Capital, as recently as last week. "Timing" argued as the crux of the matter by Chairman of Commissioners Samuel Spencer, is out as a reason. The Clubs have made no effort and obviously have no intention of falling in line with the letter or spirit of the President's efforts to desegregate the Capital. All concerned with integration agree that patience here has ceased to be a virtue. NAA-CP action is anticipated in the very near future. Dr. Cooke's classes will have a very live case before them. Attorney Thurman Dodson is chairman of the NAACP's Legal Redress Committee for the District.

Letter from Georgetown
Charles E. Williams, associate professor of law at Florida A and M University, received the doctor of juridical science degree from Georgetown University, here, last week—the first Negro to receive this degree from Georgetown, and the second person to earn it, there, during the last ten years. This is Dr. Williams second Georgetown degree. He received the master of laws degree there in 1952.
Nursing School sophomore Katherine White, who won a Georgetown "C" for sailing, was the first woman in Georgetown history to receive a major athletic award.
This is significant news, for it has been only a few short years since the prosperous daughter of Georgetown, may still reside at Georgetown when her centennial is reached."

The pendulum swings. We have all been indebted for a quarter of a century, to the Rev. Edward C. Kramer, Director General of the Catholic Board for Mission Work among Colored People, (New York City) for devoting time and travel to research on Father Healy and his family, all of whom "went into religion." The results of his research, which once caused consternation, should now—

Here Is a Beautiful Bride's Cake Easy To Make with White Cake Mix

If there's going to be a wedding at your house or if you want to delight one of your friends who's going to be married, here's an idea: make a bride's cake of white cake mix.

It's a lovely cake, quick, easy and beautiful. And inexpensive, too. Just figure it out for yourself—three packages of Instant Cake Mix, three and a half cups of milk, and sugar and egg whites for frosting. It cuts into pieces enough for 25 or 30 people, downy light and delicious, a bride-cake masterpiece.

After you've frosted the cake smoothly, you can decorate it with flutings and curls on top with a pastry tube, and for extra trimming add a few little birds or flowers sold for cake decorating. Practice with the pastry tube by squirting a sample of your frosting on a piece of waxed paper. You can scrape up the practice frosting and put it back in the tube to use again, so no waste is involved in perfecting your technique.

WEDDING CAKE
(Two-tiered oblong cake for 25 to 30 people)
Preparations. Line 13x9x2-inch pan and 9x9x2-inch pan or bottoms with paper. Start oven for moderate heat (350°F.).
3 packages Swans Down Instant Cake Mix
3 1/2 cups milk
Combine contents of two packages Swans Down Instant Cake Mix in mixing bowl. Add 1 cup milk. Blend, then beat 2 minutes. Add 1 1/4 cups milk. Blend, then beat 1 minute longer.

Pour batter into prepared 13x9x2-inch pan. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 65 minutes, or until done. Remove from oven and increase oven heat to 375°F. Cool cake in pan 10 minutes, then turn out on cake rack to finish cooling.
Place contents of third package of Swans Down Instant Cake Mix in mixing bowl. Add 1/2 cup milk. Blend, then beat 2 minutes. Add 1/2 cup milk. Beat 1 minute longer.
Pour batter into prepared 9x9x2-inch pan. Bake in moderate oven (375°F.) 30 minutes, or until done. Cool.
Frosting. Prepare seven-minute frosting, using 2 egg whites. Then place the large cake on an attractive oblong serving plate or tray. Spread top and sides of cake with frosting. Trim the 9x9x2-inch cake to measure 9x7x2-inches by cutting a 1-inch slice from opposite sides of the cake. Place on top of the frosted layer, centering evenly. Prepare another batch of seven-minute frosting and spread on top and sides of small cake, reserving some for decorating. With a knife, go over entire cake, making a smooth flat surface for decorating.
Decorating. Using a pastry bag or decorating tube, decorate frosted cake as desired with the reserved frosting. Place wedding bell or other suitable ornament in center of top layer, if desired.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Haynes of Chicago, Extended Courtesies

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Haynes, Sr., of Chicago, Ill., were recent house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Haynes, Jr., and family of 1430 Second Place. The visitors spent part of their three weeks vacation in New York before motoring here.

During their stay they were extended many social courtesies. Mrs. Ruby Cooper, mother of Mrs. Haynes, Jr., entertained at a 6 o'clock Sunday dinner at her home, 1435 Second Place. The visitors went to Orlabor, Ia., where they saw their daughter-in-law sing with the Choral Gospel Singers.

The Haynes', Jr., were hosts at a going-away party. Sharing the courtesies were: Messrs. Lafe Fowler, Jr., Melvin Carr, Duke Elligan, Curtis Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Robert King, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kaiser, Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor.

Mr. Haynes, Sr., is a former Des Moines resident.

Susan Strothers In Dance Recitals At Perry, Boone

Susan Strothers, daughter of Mrs. Anna Strothers, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Scott, 911 S. E. 11th street, was presented in Betty Mae Harris' twenty-eighth anniversary presentation, "The Talk of the Town," Monday and Tuesday, June 6-7 at the Perry High School auditorium and the Boone High School auditorium, Thursday and Friday.

Susan was presented in a ballet solo number as "Our Little Susie" to the "Butterflies in the Rain" in white taffeta and nylon net ballerina length costume, trimmed in red roses and sequins, which also decorated her white bonnet.

Susan also soloed in "Lovely Hawaiian Dreams," on a Hawaiian beach setting. Juniorettes and Ancient Feather Gourd—Senior group in Strobelite, formed circle. Susan made entrance from middle curtain, danced to the "Little Brown Gal," as the dancers sang. Then joined by teacher and assistant teacher, Betty Mae Harris and Dixie McLeahan, danced the Uli Uli, Double Gourd Hula and Wally Pratt.

D. M. NAACP Branch Meets June 28

By BESSY L. GREENE
The Des Moines Branch of NAACP will hold its monthly meeting Tuesday, June 28, 8 p. m., at Wilkie House, 900 17th street. The membership at large is urged to attend.

Archie M. Greenlee, president, a delegate from the branch, is attending the National NAACP Conference in Atlantic City, N. J. Others attending, with registration fees only, given by the local branch, are: Mrs. Georgine C. Morris, Mrs. Clara Bayles and Mrs. Donna Greenlee.

Organizations Join

The clubs, churches, organizations and auxiliaries that have obtained a 1955 membership in the branch's campaign are:

St. Paul AME Church, Mary Church Terrell No. I, Princess Zorah Chapter, Mary Church No. II, Atelea Guild, Monarch Club, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, the Craftsmen's Club, T.O.B. Club, V.F.W. Auxiliary No. 5487; Rose Temple No. 33 of Daughter Elks; DeLuxe Club, Three Purpose Club, Doric Lodge No. 30, Silhouette Club.

Community Chest Director Chester Fischer Resigns

Community Chest executive director Chester H. Fischer has resigned to accept a similar position with United Community Services of Omaha, Nebraska. He will leave Des Moines July 15 as a result of what he describes as "an unusual opportunity for advancement which I feel I must accept."

Fischer's resignation was in the form of a letter submitted June 14 to the Chest board of Directors as they met to consider 1956 budget requests for several of the member agencies. It was formally accepted by Sherry R. Fisher, president of the board.

A replacement is being sought through Community Chests and Councils of America in New York and other sources. The national group which serves over 1800 chests and funds in the United States maintains a personnel department with records on experienced executives in this vital community area.

"Since Chet has expressed the desire to remain in Des Moines until budget hearings are completed and the fall United Campaign goal set, we anticipate no lag in our progress toward providing for the needs of the 33 United Campaign agencies for 1956," Mr. Fisher said.

"Assisting the volunteers of our board of directors, we have a small efficient paid staff. They will carry on without hesitation, as will our volunteer campaign chairman, Philip Jester and A. Paul Thompson," the board president stated.

Personal Touch
By MARIE ROSS

Mrs. Gertrude North, local educational director for Daughter Elks of Rose Temple, revealed this week that when she and Mrs. Beatrice Wallace—Washington, state educational director—entered Miss Ardeth Jacqueline Perkins in the Elks oratorical contest, several years ago, they were thrilled with the oratorical abilities of the then Valley High School student, Miss Perkins.

Hoping that their candidate could win one of the Elks' $1,000 scholarships, to complete a college course, they journeyed with her to contests in Oklahoma City, Okla., and Omaha, Neb.; and, also pulling for Miss Perkins was Norville Tillman, then exalted ruler of Hawkeye Elks Lodge, and J. G. Browne, a local educational director.

"All of four hopes were realized when Jacqueline received her degree, June 10, from State University of Iowa, after having gone to college on the Elks $1,000 national scholarship," Mrs. North remarked.

Miss Perkins is the daughter of Mrs. Musette Perkins of West Des Moines, and her father is Mr. E. W. Perkins of Portland, Ore. ....

Mrs. North cited other Iowans who previously won Elk scholarships. The first $1,000 educational award went to Anastacia Scott, who was graduated from Wilberforce University in Ohio. She was the daughter of a former Des Moines minister, the Rev. P. L. Scott, then pastor of St. Paul AME church.

The next $1,000 scholarship was granted to Mr. Artie McNair, an East High School graduate, who earned his degree from Drake University.

Mr. George Lee of Memphis, Tenn., is grand director of the Elks Educational department.

A bus-load of youth, members of the Elks Drum and Bugle Corps and Majorettes, will leave Des Moines Friday for Denver, Colo., where they will compete in contests at the annual Middle States Elks Convention which convenes from June 26 to 29.

The Des Moines youth have been marching, beating drums and blowing bugles for weeks, getting prepared for the stiff competition they will meet when they compete against drum and bugle corps from some of the eight other states in the Middle States Association.

Miss Frieda Garland, lieutenant-colonel in the Antler Guard, and instructor of the majorettes and drill teams, was all thrilled this week as she anticipated an exciting trip for the youngsters.

MR. AND MRS. WILL E. REEVES

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Frye, 1126 10th street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Cassie, to Mr. Will E. Reeves, which took place March 16, 7:30 p. m., at the home of the bride's parents.

The Rev. Seymour Gaines officiated at the wedding. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Bailey.

Guests at a small reception which followed were: Mr. and Mrs. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, Mrs.

Mary K. Monroe, and Mr. Irvin Turpin.

Mrs. Reeves, formerly employed at Mercy hospital, was believed to be one of the first Negro ward secretaries there.

Mr. Reeves is a barber with the Chicago Barber Shop in San Francisco, Cal.

In San Francisco, where the couple resides at 1945 Pierce street, Mrs. Reeves is planning to enter a school of nursing.

Chaperones will be Mrs. Ethel Fletcher and Mrs. Bernice Carter for the girls; and Messrs. Jack Manuel and Gilbert Randle for the boys.

Among the teen-age majorettes who are rushing around getting ready to catch the bus are: Marian Solomon, lead majorette; and Lucille Long, Myrtle Lanier, Betty Lou Parsons, Gaynelle Whiteside, Betty Wilson, Carolyn Shade, Barbara Hall, Peggy Hall, Charlene Spencer, Rosilee Johnson, Rose Lamay, Mary Dean Johnson, Sharon Smith; and two sets of twins, Wanda Ashby and Sandra Shade, and Betty and Audrey Christopher.

They will travel in comfortable pioneer pants and shirts; take one dress-up outfit; cosmetics, cameras, and two majorette costumes.

The group will arrive Saturday morning in Denver, and get ready for a tour of the many Colorado beauty spots in an around Denver.

Miss Garland will leave Friday night on the second chartered bus that will carry other Elk members to the convention.

From Des Moines, heading the officers of the Women's division of the Association will be Mrs. Victoria Hendricks, president, who will leave Friday.

One of the nurses on the bus with the youth will be Mrs. Jessie Mae Edmond.

Spent the week end trying to round up more of the young men high school graduates, who had not responded to letters, cards or phone calls.

I did manage to catch Marion Gerald Morris by phone at his home during suppertime. He had not done anything at school, to write about, and wasn't planning anything but "pleasure" for the future — as if school life had been hard. He was in a hurry, too, and when I reached his home a bit later and talked with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Morris, of 1331 E. 17th Street Court, they told of hobbies and dreams of their son.

One table held several old clocks and typewriters that Marion had salvaged from places where people discard things that won't run or work.

"You should have seen that old typewriter. No one would have thought that it could ever write like that when Marion brought it home. Someone had pitched it out in the junk," Mrs. Morris talked proudly.

"Then Marion got to tinkering with it, cleaned it up and put parts on it and it looks right nice now and works."

Several old clocks that had been

New York—(CNS)—Those Roving Stars: Billy Eckstine going such great guns in Europe that he'll stay over until the fall. Billy's doing Belgium July 11-24, returns to England, then back to Belgium for a July 24 week and then again to England for August 1. On these jumps Billy's being nicely received that it gives him the hope he'll be back at the very top in no time.

Cab Calloway in Mexico City and liking the climate so very much . . . Pearl Bailey—now that "House of Flowers" is behind her—is set for the Flamingo in Las Vegas for August 25. And speaking of the dazzling "House of Flowers" which just closed, one Broadway star said, "It missed by just an inch of being a hit." A hit in the class of "Guys and Dolls" and the other top ones.

When Dorothy Dandridge took time off from her six week Waldorf-Astoria stand to go to the Cannes Festival in France, it was Hildegarde, no less, who subbed for her those four days . . . There was a time when our Negro stars would do anything to sub a few days in so lush surroundings as the Waldorf. Now it's the other way around, for Hildgarde was trying out the Waldorf for size—having broken with her old management and with it several of her former classy spots.

Where are those Giant fans in New York??? Last year they were all over the place—turning up when you least wanted to see them. This year Harlem has gone a la Dodgers. That Harlem is fickle, is obvious. . . . Sending top glamour reporters to the Moulin Rouge in Las Vegas on free trips, certainly did pay off in publicity for the new club. Many of our newspapers gave it front page headlines . . .

Thelma Carpenter—turning philosophical—said "Sometimes when you miss an important date—one that you felt surely was yours—you find many a time another one come along far better than the first."

Rightly Guided, What Child Learns at Home Will Function in Other Situations

BY MAY P. YOUTZ, ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR

"Daddy, there's a little boy at preschool who hasn't learned how to take turns," said three-year-old Marjorie as she returned home one day. When told of this later, one of the psychologists at the Research Station said, "It's interesting that Marjorie talks about that in terms of learning and not in terms of good and bad."

And possibly if Marjorie had been brought up two generations ago she might have reported that a bad little boy at preschool wouldn't take turns.

Evidently Marjorie had parents who realized that she began to learn as soon as she was born—that behavior is not inherited. How can we "set the stage," so to speak, for our children to learn desirable ways?

To Denver Meeting

MRS. JESSIE M. EDMOND

Mrs. Jessie Mae Edmond, grand organizer of Purple Cross Nurse of the State of Iowa, for IPBOEW, will leave Friday on the chartered bus for Denver, Colo., to attend the Midwest States Convention of Elks, convening there June 26 through 29.

There isn't space to review all aspects of learning. But here are a few things which might help: give simple directions when asking a very young child to do something; make one suggestion at a time; be sure that the child is capable of doing what you ask; see that he has immediate satisfaction when what you have asked for is done—this may mean only a word from you, and your attention is sometimes all a small child will need; if, as the child grows older, he offers to help, let him; never "do over" what you asked him to do.

What has all this to do with learning? A great deal. Much of the child's life is concerned with activity, and someone, in fact, has said he learns with his whole body. Rightly guided, what he learns at home will function in other situations.

Practice helps if he is learning new skills. Study has discovered that practice spread over several days is better than practice all done in one day.

Praise is essential. It keeps endeavor on a positive basis.

Handy Jim's FIX-UP TIPS For the Home

Freshen Old Furniture
MUCH old furniture still is useful, but its appearance is against it. Yet, it's too good to give away and not old enough to be considered antique. What can be done? A bit of ingenuity and effort will transform an old dresser into a thing of modern beauty — and at small cost. Note the "before and after" sketches of the same dresser. There's quite a change!

In general, removal of the gingerbread from the dresser is the first step in the renovation. A recessed wood base, instead of legs, does much to modernize the piece. Most likely, the top has been scarred. Easiest cure is the addition of a panel of Masonite Tempered Presdwood, 1/2" thick. This then may be primed and painted. Alternates might be black Presdwood, or Leatherwood, a textured hardboard. One of the gay plastic-surfaced hardboards would be suitable, too, as they are resistant to stains and cigarette burns. Various colors and patterns in Marlite are available. Matching material, if needed, may be used to re-cover dingy-looking drawer fronts. Standard 1/2" Presdwood is excellent for replacing cracked drawer bottoms and dresser backs.

TENTH ANNIVERSARY OF INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

This week marks the tenth anniversary of U. N. Organized about the close of World War II just as the League of Nations was following World War I, high hopes were entertained that it would be a deterrent against future wars.

UN has gone much further. Organized on a most pretensions scale, more nations have joined in; member nations have remained on the job, rough at times, and some outstanding accomplishments have been marked up.

The very fact that representatives of member nations have kept together, trying to work out problems on a mutual basis, means much and as President Eisenhower said in welcoming the delegates Monday that America stood ready to explore every avenue to perfect peace, so has UN in an effort to work out problems of the world, whether parties involved were members or not.

There are those in America today who don't want UN to succeed. Generally, they are so selfish to believe this country can go it alone or that membership in the body might encroach on the authority of the United States.

Of course, membership in any organization requires giving up some things which the parties might do if operating alone. It is one incident of cooperation. But this is not serious; simply a smoke screen.

America insisted on the veto power in the security council just as the minority has been able to block much legislation in the U. S. Senate. And it has embarrassed our delegates on many occasions. But we made the bed hard and must sleep in it.

DES MOINES PROGRAM FOR INTEGRATION SUCCEEDING

Last week, as a part of the anniversary edition, pictures of many Negro high school groups were included along with a statement of each as to his plans for the future. The statements were most indicative of the progress Des Moines is making in the integration of Negroes in decent employment.

There was a time when practically every girl graduating from high school and seeking office employment began her career in the Bystander office. Many are doing excellent jobs today. No longer is this necessary for many of the larger employers are accepting them as beginners.

Of particular interest is the fact that three of the large insurance companies: Equitable Life, Bankers Life and Central Life are employing some of these youngsters. These opportunities encourage youngsters to pursue their course because there is a chance in the future. These companies are singled out because they are recent participants in the integration program.

The Bystander has had no little part in this successful program. But the job does not stop here for it is now up to these youngsters to stabilize that employment; its up to them to take their responsibility in the community and do their share of the job that others may come; that others might go higher.

TIME HELPS SOLVE THIS PROBLEM

The School Board at El Paso, Texas has voted 6 to 1, to integrate the public schools beginning the 1955-56 term.

Just as El Paso has done, so are many other school boards in the South. Among other things, they see in integration the saving of lots of money for it is cheaper to maintain one school system than two.

In spite of the raving and ranting by politicians in some states, time will catch up with them and integration will be complete. Fundamental citizens and the South will not wish to be labeled outlaws.

46th NAACP Meet

Wednesday afternoon inferred that the special campaign so far has been a success. Reviewing "first full year of the campaign," it announces that a total of $1,072,544 in general, legal and local funds was raised by the NAACP in 1954, and that these funds enabled the organization to intensify its work.

'Significant Event'

The address asserts that "the most significant event of this year has been the Supreme Court's ruling of May 31 re-affirming and implementing its historic decision of May 17, 1954, which laid down the principle that segregation in publicly-financed education is unconstitutional."

"Many southerners who were at first entranced by the disarming simplicity of the Court's language (in the May 31 ruling) have taken a second look and now realize that they were not given an indefinite time in which to start desegregation," the Tobias speech says. "They are beginning to realize that the Court did not give them until next year, or to the year 1975. Governor Hodges of North Carolina and others have awakened to the realization that the Court means for them to start desegregation now. Today is the deadline, not 1956 or 2045—the date acceptable to the Attorney General of South Carolina."

'Well on Way'

Summarizing NAACP progress to date, the board chairman's message observes that "we have not reached our goal, but we are well on the way. Only our apathy or a complete reversal in the present climate of opinion can halt our forward march."

Dr. Tobias' address was to be given on the first full day of convention sessions. Tuesday night he was scheduled to join with three other NAACP officers in a memorial service for Walter White. Other NAACP officers who were to pay tribute to Mr. White at the memorial meeting were Arthur B. Spingarn, president; Roy Wilkins, executive secretary; and Miss L. Pearl Mitchell of Cleveland, Ohio, a vice president.

Carl Murphy of Baltimore, Md., editor and publisher of the weekly Afro-American newspapers, will be awarded the 40th Spingarn medal by the NAACP Sunday.

Crazy Horse Memorial

Diggs pointed out that if the Congress really wishes to memorialize the contributions made by Indians to American progress and culture, there are many ways in which the objective could be accomplished with greater benefit to the group.

There are several measures now pending in Committee, he said, such as House Bill No. 5838 to provide that payments be made to certain members of the Pine Ridge Sioux Tribe of Indians as reimbursement for damages suffered as the result of the establishment of the Pine Ridge aerial gunnery range, and to provide a rehabilitation program for the Pine Ridge Sioux Tribe of Indians. There are other measures to make adjustments for inequitable treatment in the past and present of various segments of the Indian population.

Diggs said that memorials for particular groups should be privately financed; that only in such case as a memorial gave recognition to the contributions made by all of the races forming a part of American society and culture would he favor its erection out of government funds. In keeping with his position, Congressman Diggs stated that he is preparing to introduce a bill to set up a commission whose purpose would be to plan the establishment of a memorial reflecting the inter-cultural contributions of Americans of all racial groups.

Bug and Insect Time

"Summer time is bug and insect time." Said Dr. Abraham Gelperin, Director, Des Moines-Polk County Department of Public Health. "We do not welcome, but we will be greeted by flies, mosquitoes, chiggers, ticks and other insects. These are sometimes annoying, they may bite or they may spread disease. We should understand how they may harm us and what precautionary measures to take."

In our County, mosquitoes are merely annoying and rarely do they carry disease. They breed in stagnant pools of water that may accumulate around a home. Eliminate these breeding places and use spray material, we can then control the population.

Flies may spread typhoid fever, dysentery and tuberculosis. They feed and breed in filth. Eliminate the feeding and breeding places by keeping garbage in metal cans with tight fitting lids. Clean up piles of manure and organic wastes. Don't forget the DDT or like sprays.

Chigger Bite

A chigger bite is even more bothersome than a bite of a mosquito. The larval form burry themselves in your skin and cause itching. Taking a bath soon after exposure will wash off most of the larvae before they burrow into your skin. Spray your yard if chiggers are unwelcome boarders.

Another pest you may find in the woods is the tick, which sometimes spread Rocky Mountain Spotted fever. A tick takes a rigid hold when it bites, be careful when removing it, so that its head is not left in the skin.

"You won't be able to get away from bugs and insects completely this summer," concluded Dr. Gelperin "but you can eradicate some of them and relieve the effects of others. You not only will be saving yourself a lot of discomfort, but you may prevent illness in your family by cleaning up your yard thus eliminating the homes of these pests."

The crop of youngsters gets smaller each year and we can't get any of them to really live tennis. So we find ourselves the only Negro club in the country running a practically white meet. That is a fine thing, but in order to preserve our tennis and our tennis meet, if we want to do so we have to come out with something. We find ourselves bracketed by us to the players are more important than ours.

How are we going to make ours an important meet again? A USLTA sanction might do it. If not, we will slowly slip back to the days of our Hilltop closed meets.

Young Winston, who is 18, was graduated from Banneker High School here, four years ago, and entered Hotchkiss the following Fall. At Banneker he was active in dramatics and was known as a "regular boy." At the Connecticut school he was a three-letter man, playing football, starring at track, an award for excellence in English, and a scholarship to Harvard University; which he will enter this Fall.

JUNE WITCHERY

June witchery—of thee I sing the precious moments that you bring, upon the screen of memory...

Producing magic interludes

Capital, modestly ascribe his interest in learning to the influence of his late grandfather, who was active in education at Manassas Institute and at Blackstone, Va. His sister, Judith, is a 1955 graduate of Dunbar High School. The Winston family, Unitarians, are all members of All Souls Unitarian Church, whose minister, the Rev. A. Powell Davies, recently received an award from Inspiration House, and the Honorary Phd degree from Harvard University, in recognition of his devotion to the cause of integration. The five Winston children are all members of All Souls' Sunday School.

of lovely June—in many moods, her foibles, frills and fantasy. Celestial strains of song arise rise with dawn's glory in the skies, its love, O lovely melody...

Those tender scenes—etched by the beams of lovers moon above—that gleams, sheer ecstasy, June witchery.

BY ALLEN ASHBY

It won't be long until the Des Moines Open Tennis Tournament will get underway. The meet was an outgrowth of the old Hilltop meet which used to be for Negroes only. Right after the war, young men were scarce and tennis suffered quite a let down. Then to further stimulate interest, the Hilltop meet was made into an open affair.

The idea was that our own prospects would develop to the point where one of them would win the thing. But our crop of tennis players didn't take tennis seriously enough to really get good. Oh, they played often enough, but they didn't realize that playing top notch tournament is a way of life.

So we haven't come up with a champion yet. Now, we have enough money and prestige to bring in some good Negro players who might steal the show.

But now there is another problem. The tennis powers of Des Moines have begun to enlarge their own program so they schedule meets and matches right on top of our own that used to be the main attraction for the summer.

Now the Langston Hardaway men's singles trophy is about the only thing the other meets can't compete with. When that is retired our Des Moines Open will have served its purpose. Now, we are at the crossroads. Either we bring up some good reason for keeping the meet alive or it will have gone by the boards.

The guys who used to live for tennis have just about all retired. A couple of them are still hanging on and that is just what they are doing.

How to Even Up Chair Legs WHEN a chair is out of level, one method of evening the legs is to trim the legs which are too long. A simple method of performing this tricky operation is described in Family Handyman.

Form a tube of paper, fastening it together with paste. Now slip it over one leg, cutting off the tube at the exact tip of the leg as the other end rests on the rung. To assure getting each leg the identical length, slip the tube over each other one in turn, marking them to the same length. Now adjust the length of the tube to the shortest leg and mark all others for cutting.
