Capital Close-Up From Washington

BY CONSTANCE DANIEL

(How to Remain Governor of the Virgin Islands: Notes from Natives)

Washington, D. C.—Archibald Alphonse Alexander has been and will soon be gone, as Governor of the Virgin Islands. Walter Arthur Gordon will soon be living in the executive mansion on Government Hill, at St. Thomas. The question in many minds on this end of the half-day flight to the Leeward Isles, is: "How long will he be able to stay there?"

Those who have raised this question most often have seldom had Mr. Gordon in mind as an individual. They were expressing concern about tensions. So we asked several well-known Virgin Islanders, educated in "The States" and long residents here, for their views on the matter. In a nutshell, this is what they said:

"Low Threshold of Insult"

Any new Governor should go slow for several months, and in that time—while attending to routine business—should try to understand the people and make them his friends. By custom, Virgin Islanders, literate, "proud and with a low threshold of insult," are more European than American. They are more formal. American hail-fellow-well-met offends them. They stiffen at reference to "Dick Nixon, the Vice-President," or even to "Joe Smith, the school teacher," who, to them are always "the Vice-President, Mr. Nixon" and "Mr. Smith, the school teacher." The barefooted marketwoman is still "Mrs." and not "Mary" or any other familiarity.

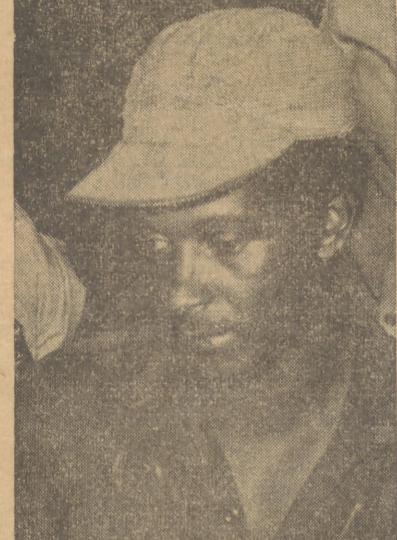

They point out that Federal Judge Herman Moore has taken time to learn the people and has come closer to them than any Governor. They attribute the distance between Governor and governed to an all-American "palace guard" which leaves the Islanders out in the cold, unable to interpret anything to anybody—give SEE PAGE SIX

Fort Dodge police apprehended Culps near a grocery store in the Pleasant Valley section of Fort Dodge, several hours after tragedy.

Clear Doubt; Mother Had Casket Opened to Exhibit 'What They Did to My Boy'

Sumner, Miss.—A grand jury Tuesday indicted two white men on charges of murder and kidnaping in connection with the death of 14-year-old Chicago Negro.

The Tallahatchie County grand jury returned the double indictments against Roy Brandt, 24, and his half brother, J. W. Milan, 36, in the kidnap-slaying of Emmitt Till for allegedly whistling at Bryant's wife. The abduction occurred Aug. 28 and the body was pulled from the Tallahatchie River three days later.

Removes Doubt

The indictments apparently cleared up any doubt as to the identity of the body.

Till allegedly wolf-whistled at Mrs. Bryant in the Bryant store at Money, Miss., near Greenwood, Miss.

Till was taken from the home of an uncle, Mose Wright, near Money in Leflore county, on Aug. 28.

Bryant and Milan said they freed the youth, but have made no statement since the body was found three days after the boy disappeared.

Earlier the jury had called Dr. L. B. Otken, a white physician who had examined the body, and Chester A.

Miller, a Negro mortician. Dr. Otken examined the body when it was pulled from the river.

Claim Body

Till's relatives claim the body was that of the youth. Dist. Atty. Gerald Chatham of Tallahatchie County had said Dr. Otken told him he doubted the body could deteriorate as much in three days as the body pulled from the river.

Tallahatchie County Sheriff H. C. Strider had testified before the jury Monday that the body appeared to be that of an older person.

Funeral services for Till were scheduled Tuesday in Chicago.

Guard Jail

The casket was opened to public view at the insistence of Till's mother, Mrs. Mammie Bradley, 33, who said she wanted others to "see what they did to my boy."

Bryant and Milan are being held in LeFlore County jail, where national guardsmen and deputies are patrolling the grounds after both Strider and LeFlore County Sheriff George Smith received threats against the two accused men.

Dodgers to Clinch As Quickly as Possible

Brooklyn, N. Y.—(CNS)—With the magic number down to eight, the Dodgers still are taking no chances with "experimentation" or discussing World Series players, etc.—for they are out to wrap up the National League pennant as quickly as possible.

NAACP Say Mississippi In Drive to Keep White Supremacy by Lynching

New York—Following the lynching in Mississippi of a 14-year-old Negro whose body was found Aug. 31, the top officer of the NAACP charged that "it would appear from this lynching that the State of Mississippi has decided to maintain white supremacy by murdering children."

In a statement, issued Aug. 31, Roy Wilkins added: "The killers of the boy felt free to lynch him because there is in the entire state no restraining influence of decency."

Mr. Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary, simultaneously dispatched a telegram to the Hon. Hugh White, governor of Mississippi, asserting:

Citizens Call

"... All decent citizens throughout the nation call you to use all the powers of your office to see that the lynchers of 14-year-old Emmett Louis Till are brought to justice. We cannot believe that responsible officials of the State of Mississippi condone the murdering of children on any provocation."

A reply received from Gov. White at NAACP headquarters here Sept. 1, said, in part:

"Parties charged with murder are in jail and I have every reason to believe the courts will do their duty in prosecution. Mississippi does not condone such conduct."

Victim Kidnapped

The youthful lynch victim, who was visiting an uncle in Money, Miss., while on vacation from his native city of Chicago, was kidnapped from his uncle's residence on Aug. 27 by two white men and a woman. Roy Bryant of Money, and his half-brother, J. W. Milan of Glendora, Miss., admitted kidnaping the boy but insisted they released him unharmed. The two men, arrested for kidnaping, now are being held on a murder charge.

The woman in the case, Mrs. Bryant, has disappeared. A warrant charging kidnaping has been issued against her.

Boy Shot

The body of the schoolboy was found in the Tallahatchie River near Greenwood, Miss., with a bullet through the head. The boy's head also bore the marks of a beating with a heavy instrument.

Cause for the lynching is said to be Mrs. Bryant's offense because the 14-year-old lad whistled at her.

Minoos Carrying The Sox—on First Real Hitting Spree

Chicago, Ill.—(CNS)—In there fighting hard for their first American League pennant in 37 years, are the Chicago White Sox, but pacing them on the offensive is none other than flashy Minnie Minoos, who has "come alive" in the nick of time to the Sox.

Minnie, who had been quiet for so long that the Sox were nearly frantic, is now the league's hottest hitter. In his last 25 games, he has hit safely in 24 for a .542 average. Now his season's average is .295—a long way for the low .257.

35th Northwestern Annual Conference Ends; Many Here for Appointments

"Our biggest problem is not our neighbor next door, but ourselves," the Right Rev. George W. Baber of Detroit, Mich., spoke last Sunday as he addressed the ministers of the thirty-fifth annual AME conference which ended a four-day session at the St. Paul AME church.

In a message before the reading of appointments of the ministers of the Des Moines and St. Paul (Minn.) districts, Bishop Baber, prelate of the Fourth Episcopal District of the Northwestern conference, told the brethren that "our greatest enemy is not the man across the street, but the man who lives inside of us."

"Some men make the same mistakes. They go to a charge and for a time, everything is wonderful. After a while, one by one, they develop enemies. By the time the year is up, they got the whole church angry with them."

He criticized "quick tempers, saying harsh words, getting too important and saying: 'I'm the law—if I don't have my way, I'm going to break the thing up!'"

"It must be a good feeling to feel that you are better than others—that 'I'm the chief mogul—the head man'. It must be wonderful to pat yourself on the back—but you are so lonesome," the bishop preached.

Bishop Baber emphasized that Jesus said: "If any man come after me, let him take up his cross and follow me;" and, that "the church is the place where you come in your weaknesses your strength to get in contact with God so that you can stand on your feet and walk out and meet the problems of the world."

Missionaries Meet

The thirty-fifth session of the Northwestern annual conference opened August 30 with the convening of the Conference Branch Missionary Society, headed by Mrs. Charles H. Copeland of Cedar Rapids, for a two day meeting which ended August 31 with a banquet reception.

Seated at the guest table of the banquet were: Rev. and Mrs. John Clinton, Rev. and Mrs. Norman R. Olphin, Rev. and Mrs. H. W. James, Mayor and Mrs. Joe Van Dresser, SEE PAGE FOUR

Sesame Puffs Go With Frozen Fruit Salad

Fragrant, warm Sesame Puffs with margarine give appeal to frozen fruit salad.

A frozen fruit salad is at its cool best when a hot bread is served with it.

Bread and margarine are an excellent foundation for summer eating. One leading nutritionist says that menus planned around bread and spread, citrus and milk are tops nutritionally. And, says he, the idea that bread and margarine are fattening is old hat. It might have been true in the days when bread was not enriched and when margarine did not contain vitamin A. But nowadays, with their fine food values, these basic foods ought to be included in every meal, even in the diets of those seeking to lose weight.

To go with a frozen fruit salad and to make the menu a complete meal, it would be hard to find a bread more delicious than Sesame Puffs. They are easy to make and they keep well for several days. Any left over can easily be reheated in the top of a double boiler, or foil-wrapped in the oven.

Sesame Puffs are made from a yeast-leavened batter. It need not be kneaded, only stirred and perhaps beaten a bit to make it extra good. Since the batter contains milk and eggs along with margarine and enriched flour, the puffs are practically a meal in themselves. To make them extra easy to mix, the recipe calls for dry milk. This means there is no bothersome scalding of milk and that extra pan to wash.

If any of the men in the family belong to the "no salad for me" brigade, these cloud-light hot little rolls may help them change their minds.

SESAME PUFFS
(about 30 2 1/2-inch puffs)

- 1 1/4 cup warm water
- 1 package yeast
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 3 3/4 cups sifted flour
- 4 tablespoons dry milk solids
- 1/2 cup melted margarine
- 2 eggs
- 1/2 cup sesame seeds

Measure warm water (100° F.) into 3-quart bowl, or into large bowl of electric mixer. Sprinkle yeast over water and let stand 5 minutes. Add sugar, salt, 2 cups flour and dry milk solids. Mix smooth. Stir in melted and cooled margarine. Add eggs and beat until smooth and shiny. Add remaining flour and mix well. (Batter should look glossy.) Cover and set in warm place to rise until doubled (about 1 hour). Stir down and drop by tablespoonfuls into well-margarined muffin pans. Fill each muffin cup half full. Sprinkle a teaspoon of sesame seed over batter in each cup. Let rise until doubled (about 45 minutes). Bake in moderately hot oven (400° F.) 20 to 25 minutes, until golden brown. Remove from pans at once. Serve warm or cold with margarine.

Mrs. Pauline B. Humphrey, Re-elected Vice President at National Convention Of Beauty Culturists League in D. C.

Pauline B. Humphrey, president of Cosmetiste No. 1 Chapter of Iowa, was elected one of the vice presidents of National Beauty Culturist League Inc. for the fourth year.

The Mesdames Louise Whitehead and Alice Martin of Waterloo, Cottie Lucas, Pauline B. Humphrey and Miss Sadie Jones of Des Moines were Iowa's delegates to the National convention held in Washington, D. C.

The Mesdames Whitehead, Martin and Jones attended the national institute which enabled the Cosmetiste chapter of Des Moines and Waterloo to form a new chapter of the National Theta Nu Sigma Sorority. Mrs. Humphrey was named president; Mrs. Whitehead, secretary; and Mrs. Lucas, treasurer.

Miss Sadie Jones was elected treasurer of the 1956 Institute class.

Mrs. Lucas is chairman of B.V.C., for Iowa and Mrs. Ruth Moore is chairman of the Good Will Committee in Iowa.

Some of the highlights of the convention were: annual dawn breakfast of the Theta Nu Sigma sorority, climaxing the successful Institute week; a worship at the Mount Carmel Baptist church, a dedication of the Hall of Fame Shrine, the national home of Beauticians at 25 Logan Circle, which has been newly decorated in a modern way. The Starlight Banquet was held at the Willard hotel and featured the life of the "most dynamic" national president, Mrs. Cordelia Green Johnson, The Starlight Queen Contest dance at the Casino Ball Room and there was a Hall of Fame Variety Tea.

Backing NAACP

The N. B. C. L. went on record as backing the N. A. A. C. P. and chairmen were appointed for each state. Mrs. Alice Martin from Waterloo is co-chairman for Iowa.

The beauticians importance in political actions was discussed.

Mrs. Pauline B. Humphrey is now a member of the N. B. C. L.'s chosen "one hundred group" and was given an award for outstanding contributions to the organization and civic affairs.

Mrs. Humphrey was one of the group of beauticians who formed the national sorority for beauticians in Washington, D. C., several years ago thinking it would elevate the standards of the profession. She will be one of the National executives who will go to Nassau in January 1956 to make a plea to the government for beauty legislation there.

Getting Special Training

While attending the National Convention of Beauticians, Mrs. Pauline B. Humphrey took special training in Washington, D. C. in hair cutting and shaping from Professor Elia of Orange, New Jersey, who is an internationally famous hair stylist.

She also assisted Mr. Orville Nelson of the Wavo-Culture processing method in his booth and also in his private clinics at the convention.

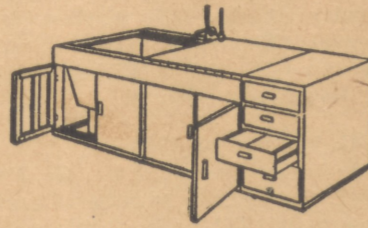

She is now in the process of making style sheets for the House of Nelson Products. Special techniques of finger waving and styling over processes are being given at Crescent Beauty School by Mrs. Humphrey for men and women.

Enclose Laundry Tubs

STORAGE is a "must" in the laundry, but oftentimes it is makeshift and unsatisfactory. Wise homemakers can readily make a combination linen chest and laundry supply cabinet which will serve also to hide unsightly stationary tubs.

As shown in the illustration, the handyman can enclose the tubs, construct a chest of drawers next to them, and create a handy clothes sorting table on top. To do the best job from the standpoints of cost, appearance and long life, he should build a framework of 2 by 2-inch lumber and cover it with smooth Masonite Tempered Presdwood, one-quarter inch thick.

Drawer construction can be simple. Just form the framework of lumber and attach a bottom of Presdwood. Wooden slides attached to the cabinet and sides of the drawers complete that part of the project.

The lumber framework for the enclosures should be no farther than 16" apart. Swinging doors to enclose the tubs may be made, too, as illustrated, or sliding doors of Tempered Presdwood unframed, may be made. They will slide in grooves cut into the cabinet floor and upper framework.

Prime and paint the installation for the best appearance.

Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reasby of Waterloo; Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Wilson of Cedar Rapids (Mr. Wilson was a member of the former Buxton Wonders baseball team); Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jackson, Mrs. Kathryn Carr, Gwenette Burkett, Miss Jacquelyn Wright, Miss Loretta Burkett, Mrs. Chester Bagsley, all of Waterloo; and Mrs. Josephine Jenkins of Milwaukee, Wis.

Celebrating his birthday at one of the tables was Mr. Everett Johnson and his family, who for a number of years came from Lovilla. Last year they moved to Des Moines.

Mr. and Mrs. John Young of St. Paul, Minn., were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Broddus.

Even after so-called thorough cleansing with regular cleansing cream, Lucky Heart's new Deep Down Liquid Cleanser wipes away more dirt and make-up!

New Liquid Skin Cleanser Cleans Deeper, Supplements Natural Oils

Every fastidious woman knows how wonderful it feels to be really clean—to get rid of the day's dirt and dust and perspiration. And now comes a new kind of liquid skin cleanser by famous Lucky Heart Cosmetics that really penetrates down into the pores to bring out all the dirt!

Appropriately named Deep Down Cleanser, the new product brings a refreshment that actually makes a woman feel younger and lovelier. It rids the skin of stale cosmetics, dried perspiration and all the various kinds of surface matter that clog pores and encourage blackheads and other blemishes.

One of the finest things about this is that it is generously Lanolin enriched so that while it quickly and effectively cleans the skin it also supplements the necessary natural oils which are regularly thrown off and lost through the natural drying process of age, changes in weather and so forth. It tends to keep skin with that wonderful, dewy-fresh look we all admire in a fine young skin. The attractive, unbreakable plastic bottle makes application easy. And the makers have run extensive tests that prove that this easy-on liquid cleanser will remove more dirt and make-up even after a supposedly thorough cleansing with regular cleansing cream.

Deep Down Cleanser is available only through your neighborhood Lucky Heart Representative. During September and October only, there is a special introductory price of just $1.35 plus tax. In addition, there is a special Lucky Heart Jubilee offer of a $1.25 pair of first quality 51 gauge, 15 denier, full fashioned nylon hose made by a well-known hosiery manufacturer in the popular Red Fox shade. And they're yours at an unbelievably low price of 54¢ with any purchase of Lucky Heart Cosmetics amounting to $1.50, just during September and October. This sounds like a splendid time to see your Lucky Heart Representative about this wonderful new Deep Down Cleanser! You can get the name of your Lucky Heart Representative by simply writing Lucky Heart, Memphis 2, Tenn.

A CROCHETED hat will lend charm to both winter coats and spring suits. Jule Kaga

A fruit and nut-laden loaf of Jule Kaga served with frosty fruit juice evokes a gay holiday mood for an early morning breakfast.

Warm buttery slices of Jule Kaga will surely delight Christmas callers. This Norwegian Christmas bread has an unusually good flavor created by ground cardamom, candied citron, raisins and chopped almonds.

Few things can compare with the fragrance of freshly baked bread. Especially at Christmas time, baking becomes a part of the gay holiday festivities.

The ingredients for this oven-fresh bread make their own contribution in nutritional value. Milk, sugar and eggs skillfully supplement the food value of the enriched flour. Many of us don't realize that enriched flour offers three B-vitamins, food iron, plant protein and food energy.

Serve Jule Kaga just fresh and warm from the oven with mugs of hot chocolate. Perhaps you will want to feature it at a holiday brunch. Or, slice it thin and spread with cream cheese making delectable sandwiches to serve with hot spiced tea to holiday callers. The family will eat generously when slices of this bread are toasted for an early morning breakfast.

The baker helps make your task of feeding the family a nourishing breakfast an easy one. When there is no time for baking, select a coffee cake from the bake shop. The baker has fashioned both traditional and new coffee cakes with tempting fillings and toppings. Wrap aluminum foil around the coffee cake and warm in the oven. This will give it a "fresh-from-the-oven" goodness.

JULE KAGA (Norwegian Christmas Bread)

- 2 packages yeast, compressed or dry
- 1/4 cup water (lukewarm for compressed yeast, warm for dry)
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 3 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour (about)
- 2 eggs
- 1 1/2 teaspoons ground cardamom
- 1/2 cup chopped candied citron
- 1/2 cup seedless raisins
- 1/2 cup chopped, blanched almonds

Soften yeast in water. Scald milk. Add sugar, salt and shortening and cool to lukewarm. Add 2 cups flour and mix well. Add softened yeast and eggs and beat well. Stir in cardamom, citron, raisins and almonds. Add enough more flour to make a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead until smooth and satiny. Place in greased bowl. Cover and let rise in warm place until doubled (about 1 1/2 hours). When light, punch down and divide into 2 equal portions. Let rest 10 minutes. Shape each portion into loaf and place in greased bread pans. Let rise until doubled (about 1 hour). Bake in moderately hot oven (400°F.) 10 minutes. Reduce heat to moderate (350°F.) and bake about 45 minutes longer. Makes 2 loaves.

Bishop Baber Asks Ministers 'How Do You Get Along with People?' in Lecture on 'Business of Human Relations'

BY MARIE ROSS

During the reading of the ministers' reports at the thirty-fifth annual session of the Northwestern Conference of AME Church's Fourth Episcopal District, in session at the St. Paul AME Church here, Bishop George W. Baber of Detroit, Mich., presiding, took time out for a heart-to-heart talk on the "Vital Business of Human Relations."

"Everything sifts down to this business of human relations. It is vital," Bishop Baber said and he queried: "How do you get along with people?"

"Most of the troubles preachers have are because they are not kind enough.

"God knows you don't have to get back at people through the pulpit. Why be fighting all the time? No one ever won a war. War makes seeds for another conflict. Turn them over to the Lord. You last longer and you sleep better.

"Stay on your knees. God will fight your battles for you. I have seen it work out.

"There's no substitute for kindness. That is your biggest weapon as a preacher; not your degrees. They don't mean a thing. People get sick of your degrees, your brilliance. Everything sifts down to how you get along with people.

Stay Your Distance

"Sometimes preachers get too thick. Stay your distance be just near enough to be far and far enough away not to be too close.

"Don't get too thick with one woman or man—I'm speaking to the ministers wives, too.

"This buddy business is not good. It gets messy after a while. Buddies get to know all of your business; they know all about you. Soon it gets to be everybody's business. If you've got a parsonage, stay in it. I'm telling you, I have seen this thing across the years.

Praise Your Wife

"Some preachers think their wives can't help them. Buddy, you are wrong. Congratulate her. Don't be saying: 'the lady across the street looks so nice all the time.' Say nice things about your wife. She looks pretty too. If not, you had better buy her some clothes, send her to the beauty shop and fix her up.

"Stay humble and tell yourself everyday that you are not so hot. If you get humble God can lift you up. If you put yourself up, God can't help you.

"Nobody must come to your church. They come because they want to serve God. You can't club the people into your church, but, you can love them into church.

"Love all the members. Don't have any pets. Keep petting a dog and he will lick you in the face.

"This business of human relations is vital. It is not how you start; it is how you finish. Don't magnify how you start—but how you finish. I'm telling you brethren.

"Some say you can't teach an old dog new tricks. You can let him know when he gets his head bumped that if he had listened to you, he wouldn't have gotten his head bumped.

"Only God can help you get along with people. I used to have to pray over it. You have some people in the church who are problems and yet you have to work with them.

"People are going to talk about you. Let them say what they want; but, be sure you know you are doing the thing that is right. Be gracious to people. Oh, you don't know how happy it makes me feel to hear someone say that our minister is a gentleman," the presiding bishop emphasized as he repeated that "this business of human relations is vital."

Car Not a Taxi

"Continuing he advised that "I don't think it is good for preachers to be riding the young members home in their cars. It is not good. Your car is not a taxi. It gets people talking about you, especially, if you ride one too often. Don't ride the young sisters around too often. It may sound silly, but it is sensible. Keep your feet on the ground. You will be not nearly as cute as they make you think you are.

"There is no love where there is not a moral content involved. If a thing is not good; it is not love. Anything is, love is decent and honest. So you got to guard your reputation in the community. You got to get along with people; wish them all well.

Good to Marry

"It is a good thing to marry—Better to marry than to have all of the cheap, embarrassing comments about you. Marriage is honorable.

"Men have too many other men hanging about their homes. We have developed in our society a homosexual relationship—men running with men, women running with women. It is wrong. All decent relationship between men and women, with the sanction of God, is right. You see all of these mixed up relationships. Might as well live above the fog.

"The church is to set the standard of a high morality. Jesus is the pattern of life. It costs to be a christian, but it pays.

About Drinking

"Many a man is put on the wrong track by people encouraging him to drink. Some things are not wrong in themselves; but, it is the effect. If I wanted to drink some grape juice that was rather warmed up, I would drink it with my wife at home. I certainly would not do it in public.

"I want you to succeed," Bishop Baber concluded and he called for the reading of the next church report.

Personal Touch
By MARIE ROSS

During the past month, it was my pleasure to meet a lot of men—down at Iowa State Penitentiary, then up to Camp McCoy, Wis., where the army reservists were in summer training.

When the month of September arrived, a number of ministers had come to Des Moines for the Northwestern Annual AME conference; and hundreds of other visitors Labor Day events; the annual homecoming picnic of the Buxton clubs, and the Gala Day celebration of the Shrine.

So many activities were going on during the holiday week end that one person had to be a half-dozen beings in order to get around to see all of the events and the visitors.

At the Buxton clubs picnic, I ran into several who said: "I am enjoying keeping up with your trip to Camp McCoy." At the Conference Workers tea and during the sessions of the conference, many persons stopped to let me know that they were "keeping up with your trip."

With all of the activities and events going on during the week end, I could see all of my readers who are "following" the trip being held up at that rifle range, where the column ended last week—wanting to go on to the machine gun ranges, see the mortar firing, climb the observation posts, hear a muzzel burst on one of the big guns, see an officer shed tears while he waited moments to learn if any of the men on the battery, firing the 155-millimeter guns, had been injured when the shell exploded.

There's plenty more to write about Camp McCoy and the activities of the 103rd "Cactus" Infantry Division and its commanding general, Major Gen. George Olmsted who made all of the members of the presslift,

Patricia Lou Wyant Weds Joe Louis Calhoun

MR. AND MRS. JOE LOUIS CALHOUN

Miss Patricia Lou Wyant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucian P. Wyant, Sr., of 912 E. 14th street, Saturday, August 27, became the bride of Mr. Joe Louis Calhoun of Wynnewood, Okla., son of Mrs. Mary Jane Calhoun of Wynnewood.

The 7 o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. George W. Jones at the Ford Temple Church of God in Christ, E. 17th street and University. Mrs. Orzola Dudley was organist.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of yellow tulle, fashioned with an ankle-length full skirt, and a matching veil. She carried a bouquet of white and lavender gladioli.

Attendants
Miss Jacqueline Doyle, maid of honor, wore a pastel blue dress and carried white and yellow gladioli.
The bridesmaids were Mrs. Kathryn Scott, Miss Mary Miller, and Miss Billie J. Wade, cousin of the bride, junior bridesmaid. Each was dressed in pink and carried yellow and lavender gladioli.

Mr. Robert E. Carson, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Messrs. James Wade, Leonard Wade, uncles of the bridegroom; and Lucian Wyant, Jr., brother of the bride.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Wyant, wore an aqua colored dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

Reception

The reception followed in the church dining room. Hostesses were: Mesdames James Wade, Leonard Wade, Alma Berry, Kitty Lighon, Misses Edna Thomas, Beverly Jones, Shirley Berry, Sharon Kay Wade.
The couple is residing at 1252 E. 18th street, Des Moines.

World War II, she lived in Germany for six months with her former husband. She is anticipating a trip to Haiti with Bishop Baber when he goes there the early part of next year to dedicate a church.

Asked what was her hobby, Mrs. Baber replied: "I love to write."

Missionary from Haiti

Rev. Ida O. Helgen, missionary from Haiti, spoke briefly about the work of Haiti Inland Mission, Inc., located at Port-au-Prince.

"All of you would be greatly ashamed if you could see the conditions in Haiti," which she referred to as the "most backward island of the Caribbean"—the "problem child."

The Rev. Mrs. Helgen, who has been in missionary work for 15 years, has been in Haiti nearly four years, she said. The Hurricane "Hazel" brought "unspeakable tragedy" to the island last year; and now "people are starving to death," she related.

The Haiti Mission, an interdenominational and faith mission, has two projects, a book store and a gospel center where Bible classes could be taught and gatherings held, the Rev. Helgen informed.

The nine missionaries connected with the Haiti Mission conduct mobile Bible classes in many of the rural areas, trying to raise the moral standards of the people.

"Common law marriage is pretty much all through the island," she said, as she made a plea for a "real revival in the church."

"When I see the vast amounts being spent on luxuries and selfishness,

Mrs. Baber, the daughter of an AME minister, the late Rev. W. E. Mayfield of Michigan City, Ind., was the widow of Col. Wendell Derricks of Chicago, Ill., a commander in the 92nd Division in World War II, who died in 1947.

Born in New Orleans, La., she was reared and educated in Rockford, Ill., and at Hampton Institute, Va., of which she is a graduate. She taught for a number of years in the public schools of Durham, N. C.

In Chicago, she was active at Quinn Chapel AME church; Veterans Hospital work; and Hampton Alumni Association.

She is fond of traveling. During

The Joe Washingtons Back from South

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Washington, 1416 Crocker street, returned this week from Baton Rouge, La., where they were called to attend the funeral of Mr. Washington's sister, Mrs. Sylvia Nelson.

Visit in Kansas City

Mrs. William Potts and son spent the week end in Kansas City visiting relatives and friends.

I wish that a little could be spent on Haiti," she pleaded.

Dr. Alice Thompson, who heads the Nora F. Taylor junior society of the Bethel AME church at Muscatine, Ia., was accorded honor and praise of the annual conference for a community project that the junior society sponsored.

Mrs. Thompson informed that the youth of the society had printed on cards, Bible sentences to be used as table blessings in hotels, dining rooms and restaurants. The short blessings were designated for the Jewish, Catholic and Protestant faiths.

"All of the eating places have these printed blessings on their tables, as courtesy of the young people's department of church," Dr. Thompson talked. Twenty-three youth are in the society and their age groups are: 4 to 6, 6 to 9 and 9 to 16.

The young people at the Bethel church in Muscatine maintain a playground at the back of the church grounds, where there are swings, sand boxes, tables and entertainment for children, supervised by Mrs. Audine Davis.

Dr. Thompson, who has resided in Muscatine for 50 years, has operated a chiropractic business at 110 W. Third street for 37 years.

On a vacation from her work as director of a convalescent home in Detroit, Mich. was Mrs. Oradell McCants, who was visiting the annual conference with her sister, Mrs. Cynthia Foster of St. Paul, Minn.

Mrs. McCants was en route to Kansas City, Mo., to attend a national convention of convalescent home operators meeting at the Muebach Hotel.

vacation, Mrs. Louise Ware, who with her husband, Eustace, and family motored east, sent back travel notes from Maryland State College at Princess Anne, Md.

The Sam Parker Family Returns from Vacation Motor Trip to California

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Parker and children, Izetta and Clyde, 920 Dixon, returned last week from an 18-day vacation trip to the West.

Enroute, the Parkers stopped in Omaha where they were guests of Mr. and Fonsie Shelton, and family, who accompanied them to Pine Cliff, Colo., for a stay at the Winkas cabins, located in the Rocky mountains, 8,000 feet above sea level.

While there Mrs. Parker revealed that their family had to burn coal and put on their winter attire, to keep comfortable in the cold, damp weather; and, that after two days of mountain life, they were ready to move westward.

In Colorado they visited Mr. and Mrs. Roberts in Pueblo; and the tourists sights in Colorado Springs.

The Parkers stopped in Flagstaff, Ariz., with Mrs. P. Poke; visited in Gallup, New Mex.; went to Nevada, where they "enjoyed immensely" their stay at the million-dollar hotel, you about fishing from Uncle John's cabin cruiser; tennis here on the campus and all these wonderful dishes Aunt Jennie V. cooks." And, then from Washington, D. C., she penned: "Could not leave this beautiful city and wonderful friends without sending you a 'hello' from all of us."

A vacation note came from Mrs. Gertrude Moore, with a picture of the "Monument to Massacre of 1857" on W. Okoboji lake, and a clipping of Harlan Miller's "Over the Coffee" column for August 24, which sketched the history of family killed nearly 100 years ago, for whom the monument was erected. I hope by the time Mrs. Moore returns home here, Sept. 15, that I will have finished "translating" Mr. Miller's column, in order to get the historical background.

Ran into Miss Mattie Burke, children's librarian at the Brooklyn, N. Y., public library this week, spending her vacation here with her parents.

Conference Visitors At M. B. Doyle Home

House guests of Evangelist M. B. Doyle were: Rev. Ben H. Lucas, Rev. W. L. Childs, Presiding Elder J. D. Coston, all of Chicago, Ill., and L. Williams of Burlington, who attended the AME conference here.

Mrs. Doyle left this week for St. Paul, Minn., to visit relatives and friends.

To Memphis

Mr. and Mrs. Gaither and Mrs. Sadie Hammett Jackson, 1115 Eighth street, left Sept. 3, for Memphis, Tenn., to attend the National Baptist Convention.

MISSISSIPPI IS ON THE HOT GRIDDLE

Mississippi, like some of her sister southern states, finds itself on a spot which they are sorry for at this particular time.

Taking a cue from some of those "best people" and mad anyway because Negroes are making progress, the poor whites decide to use "illegal methods" to intimidate them.

Gov. Stratton, who is opposed to integrated schools, recognized that Mississippi had been placed in a very awkward position and promised punishment for the wrongdoers.

Some see in such incidents lawlessness which they did not anticipate when they sought to flaunt the law of the land.

Of course, there are white people in Mississippi who do not approve the intimidation and discrimination which go on against Negroes over the years.

Three Mississippi daily newspapers condemned the kidnap slaying and called for vigorous prosecution.

LITTLE INTEREST IN CITY ELECTION

For fear many have not been alerted, lately, Des Moines holds an election this fall: primaries October 25, if one is necessary, and the general election November 8.

Two members of the City Council are to be elected; four judges, a clerk and bailiff of the municipal court.

To date the number of candidates for these offices is disappointing. In fact, it appears that some officers will be elected without opposition.

And in spite of the ardent pleas of interested groups, the vote gets smaller and smaller at each election.

Des Moines operates on a city council-manager form of government. A very fine group, known as the good government committee, not only succeeded in selling Des Moines votes this new form of government but they have also helped to elect candidates favorable to that program.

Fortunately the candidates they backed have been excellent. They secured an able manager and the whole program has been most satisfactory.

But the system has killed interest in elections. Few candidates care to make races for the jobs; no big issues are debated in public meetings so with few candidates and uninteresting issues before the voters, voters don't seem to care to go to the polls.

Of course, city problems are as great as ever, good public officials are as important. Whether ten or seventy-five per cent of the people vote, taxes will be just the same but it does indicate a lack of interest in civic affairs when the people don't go to the polls.

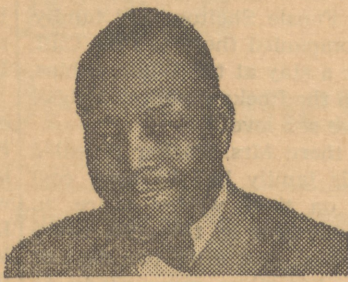

United Campaign In Action

I guess I'm a limb-lover. Anyway here goes again. I'm willing to put myself out on that limb, if you're willing to send in the questions about United Campaign that you and your neighbors need answered.

The United Campaign-Community Chest address is 615 Locust St. We'll welcome your cards and letters and answer them as promptly as we can. You can send a question, or two, or ten, today or next week or even during the campaign.

We give our 3500 volunteers as much information about the UC agencies as we can in the time they have to spare for helping us. But don't expect the man or woman who calls on you sometime around Oct. 14 to know all the answers. That's my job. And my suggestion, my hope is that all the questions will be asked and answered before the volunteer knocks. That will make it easier on the volunteer at least. And I think it will make for more satisfaction in the heart and mind of each individual giver. He'll know UC is the label for a good thing in a good community.

WILLIAM G. BLACK

New York, N. Y. — William G. Black, 47, the nation's foremost Negro advertising executive and president of Interstate United Newspapers, Inc., died early Saturday morning in Sydenham Hospital, New York City, after a prolonged illness. Services were held in Washington, D. C.

As head of an organization that served as the national advertising representative of the largest block of Negro newspapers in the world, Mr. Black was largely responsible for making national advertisers conscious of the vast potential of the Negro market.

Some fourteen years ago the owners of Interstate United Newspapers, having heard of Mr. Black's reputation, secured his services as sales manager. An indefatigable worker, Mr. Black plunged into his new work with characteristic enthusiasm.

At a time when Negro newspapers subsisted largely on small mail order and charm ads, Mr. Black, through his untiring efforts was soon able to prove that the Negro press could be profitably used by major advertisers as a medium for their products.

A pioneer in the field, Mr. Black introduced many of the advertising innovations in wide use today. Among these are the use of Negro models, sales personnel, and point-of-sale merchandising.

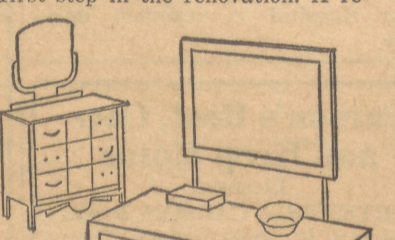

Freshen Old Furniture

MUCH old furniture still is useful, but its appearance is against it. Yet, it's too good to give away and not old enough to be considered antique.

A bit of ingenuity and effort will transform an old dresser into a thing of modern beauty — and at small cost. Note the "before and after" sketches of the same dresser. There's quite a change!

In general, removal of the gingerbread from the dresser is the first step in the renovation. A recessed wood base, instead of legs, does much to modernize the piece.

Most likely, the top has been scuffed. Easiest cure is the addition of a panel of Masonite Tempered Presdwood, 3/4" thick. This then may be primed and painted. Alternates might be black Presdwood, or Leatherwood, a textured hardboard. One of the gay plastic-surfaced hardboards would be suitable, too, as they are resistant to stains and cigarette burns.

Matching material, if needed, may be used to re-cover dingy-looking drawer fronts. Standard 3/8" Presdwood is excellent for replacing cracked drawer bottoms and dresser backs.

ed and answered before the volunteer knocks. That will make it easier on the volunteer at least. And I think it will make for more satisfaction in the heart and mind of each individual giver. He'll know UC is the label for a good thing in a good community.

Hoping it's the sound of pens being filled I hear, I'll sign off and await the mailman's arrival.

HEALTH FOR ALL

TEN YEARS AFTER

Patsy was in bed in the hospital. She had been there a long time, more than a year. Far advanced pulmonary tuberculosis, the doctors said. She was a very sick girl, and she wasn't getting better.

That was a little over ten years ago. Now Patsy is married, the busy mother of three active children. When she goes out fishing or to a dance with her husband, she remembers that first shot of streptomycin.

Today, the drug, much improved, is still being given with success to TB patients. But it has been joined by other drugs such as PAS (paraminosalicylic acid) and isoniazid which improve even more the TB patients of getting well.

The happy ending of Patsy's story has been duplicated tens of thousands of times in the short history of antituberculosis drugs.

This column is sponsored, in the interest of better health, by: Polk County Tuberculosis & Health Assn.

many others. In a scientific paper reporting on Patsy's story, the doctors who pioneered in streptomycin recalled that experiments to determine the effect of the drug on TB were still in progress when Patsy got her first shot.

Because of lack of knowledge about the drug and the extremely limited amount available, very small amounts were given at first. Later, dosage was increased. Two and a half years after her first dose of streptomycin Patsy left the hospital, her disease arrested. Regular check-ups have shown that she is keeping well in spite of a very active life.

Among the independents, Notre Dame has become used to seeing Negroes on the team. The Irish will probably field one or two others this year.

The pro teams have reached into even the smallest Negro colleges and come up with stars. Some of them are as big and fast as any found anywhere.

The backs range from two-twenty to one-forty and are for the most part too short to defend against passes to such fellows as Lund of Purdue and Campbell of Indiana. But you know they are coming along when the pros keep an eye on them.

Their recommended way to remain Governor of the Virgins is to respect their very old culture, leave the big stick and the icy stare at home, listen and make friends with The Governed. Forced feeding, they say, won't do it.

Local

Here at Drake they will miss Gene Hendrix. They might have a good season but our guess is that the Bulldogs won't.

The local high schools will start butting heads this week. Have slipped around to watch the boys work out and expect some pretty good things of East. North will be awfully tough before the season ends and will surprise someone.

We have enough Negroes around town to field a pretty fair Sunday football team. The outfit would be hard to handle and in shape would be good to watch.

The catcher of the professional ball that was shown here a few years back was not as good as the old Sunday outfits used to put up. The rivalries were fierce and keen. Brother frequently played against brother in their games. Great was the clashing of heads when these clubs met. Really made for some dog fights.

Would like to see Iowa State and Denver U. come together next week end. Maybe our luck will last and we might.

NEW HEARTS

New hearts are like a flower—that buds and swells to bloom, awakened by the loving hand—that knew the Upper Room. Fragrant is the new-born soul—a blessing from on high, nurtured by good earth and rain, and warm sun in the sky. Asking nothing, giving joy, pleasure to the eye, the mind; tender, sweet, with loving mein—

a boon to all mankind. Never bruise the precious petals—kiss them gently—to caress, they're new hearts of His creation; thriving on His blessedness. —Glenn A. Gallagher (First American Serial Rights)

if our fellow-Americans tried to raise their "low threshold of insult," which greatly detracts from the logical presentation of their problems.

School Desegregation in the Capital Dr. Harry J. Walker of Howard University's Department of Sociology, and Dr. Robert T. Bower, Social Science Director at American University, presented an analysis of the Capital's first year of school desegregation, at a joint meeting of the Society for the Study of Social Problems and the American Anthropological Society, at the Shoreham Hotel, here, last week.

Cityward movements following World War One, with consequent wider contacts and the rise of large Negro communities within cities, increasing the effectiveness of organized protest, developing new leadership and political power, important in national politics and affecting national policy on race relations, were presented as the pre-1950 background for school desegregation, here.

Survey High-Lights

High-lighting the survey team's findings were samplings of integration attitudes in the Capital, covering 591 individuals, which showed:

—Professional and white collar workers, younger, better-educated and financially secure white citizens leading the one-third responses from this group which were favorable to the Supreme Court's school desegregation ruling, fully or with qualifications.

—Ninety-four percent of all Negroes questioned in favor of the ruling; three percent in favor with qualification; none disapproving.

—Jews, Catholics and Protestants approving, in that order.

—Adults with children under 18 more favorable than those without them.

Pupil Performance

On the appreciably lower pupil performance scores of predominantly Negro schools, Walker and Bower found that explanations for the differential included: (1.) lack of equal facilities for teaching, in the former Negro schools; (2.) overcrowding and larger classes; (3.) "and as a few teachers have privately stated," poor quality of teaching stemming from low morale and lack of interest resulting from dissatisfaction with inferior facilities and segregation, itself.

Discussion of the adjustment of white and Negro pupils, three-fourths mixed by the end of the first school year, with 122 out of 163 schools integrated, pointed to behavior problems of Negro pupils, apparently ignored under segregation, now being brought to light by desegregation; Negro teacher adjustment was found to reflect differences in Negro-white social-status values, as applied to teachers, with the greater "authoritarian" attitudes of Negro teachers reflecting the same phenomenon.

The whole survey, presented on two days as "The Merger of the White and Negro School Systems of the District of Columbia" is a factual and powerful documentation which, we think, should be at the hand of all concerned with desegregation, in and out of schools.

Pilot Study on Maladjustment A pilot study on the type of individuals reflecting maladjustment due to desegregation experience, and related social factors, will be undertaken, this fall, by the same team of sociologists, under a grant from the National Institute for Mental Health.

The Elks Head Westward Grand Secretary William C. Hueston, Grand Legal Adviser Perry W. Howard and other big Elks were back in the Capital, last week, after what Perry Howard called "the finest convention in thirty years," at Atlantic City. The Trezz Anderson commotion fizzled out as we predicted months ago. Dark Horse Hobson Reynolds did not run—since Old Schoolmaster "Bill" Hueston did not bow out. Looking toward next year's Grand Lodge, which will meet in Los Angeles, Grand Exalted Ruler Robert H. Johnson will soon make a whirlwind campaign for new membership, in the West. Expansion into Africa is also being considered.

Lynching of Schoolboy SEE FRONT PAGE mother lives, the local NAACP branch telegraphed President Eisenhower and Attorney General Herbert Brownell for a federal investigation of the crime.

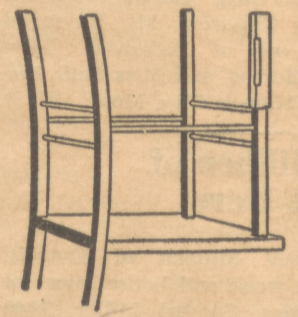

At a press conference, Governor White announced that he has instructed the district attorney to make a complete investigation of the killing. The last recorded lynching in the U. S. occurred in 1951, in Winter Garden, Fla., according to NAACP records.

How to Even Up Chair Legs

WHEN a chair is out of level, one method of evening the legs is to trim the legs which are too long. A simple method of performing this tricky operation is described in Family Handyman.

Form a tube of paper, fastening it together with paste. Now slip it over one leg, cutting off the tube at the exact tip of the leg as the other end rests on the rug.

To assure getting each leg the identical length, slip the tube over each other one in turn, marking them to the same length. Now adjust the length of the tube to the shortest leg and mark all others for cutting.
