Pheasant Hunter Is Heart Fatality

Services for Harry Parker, Des Moines Resident 41 Years

Services for Harry Parker, 72, of 1926 Easton boulevard, were held Monday afternoon at the Maple Street Baptist church. Burial was in Glendale Cemetery.

Mr. Parker died Nov. 10 at Mercy Hospital. Born at Renville, Ohio, he had lived here 41 years. He was a retired coal miner. Survivors include his wife, Cornelia; three daughters, Mrs. Harry Parker Pansy Lyles of Ottumwa; Mrs. Kathryn Majors and Mrs. Marie Murray of Los Angeles, Cal.; five sons, Ralph, Samuel, Percy and Kenneth of Des Moines and William of Waterloo; four sisters, Mrs. Gertrude Carl, Mrs. Florence Johnson, Mrs. Gene Thomas and Hazel Parker, all of Des Moines; and four brothers, Donald, Bert and William of Des Moines and Theodore Parker of Chicago, Ill.; 26 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Capital Close-Up From Washington

Veteran's Return
Washington, D. C.—The Nation's best-loved veteran and first exponent of peace returned to the Nation's Capital on Veteran's Day, last week. Dwight D. Eisenhower, President of All the People, was back among his friends at his temporary home at the White House, and his permanent home in near-by Gettysburg. The huge "Welcome Home Ike" banner at the end of Memorial Bridge, leading from National Airport, the United States and Presidential flags and the scores of thousands of cheering fellow-citizens along his route to the White House must have been a heart-warming demonstration of the public's affection. "Spelling out" the hero behind the demonstration were the National Guard and service units, and the school bands—all desegregated—and the headlines of the day before his arrival, "Ike Decries Weapons Race," "Gladys Duncan to Democratic Club" Last month, Mrs. Gladys Duncan, president of the Washington Chapter of Americans for Democratic Action, sponsored by Mrs. Daisy Harriman, former Ambassador to Norway, was admitted to membership in the Woman's National Democratic Club, here. Our information is that no Negro had previously applied.

"Just Pull Lever 26"
Returning from the Elections Board's first public hearing on the new Primaries Law for the District, we were struck, when we picked up some papers from "Down Under," to find them loaded with advertisements from white candidates for office, seeking the Negro vote. One that intrigued us carried the candidate's picture, with a "Just Pull the Lever" caption, above it. Many others carried a lever number, less conspicuous.

Hold Rites for Earl McCaune at Mt. Olive

Services for Earl McCaune, 57, of 521 E. E. Fifteenth court, were held Tuesday afternoon at Mt. Olive Baptist church, with burial at Glendale Cemetery. Mr. McCaune died Nov. 11 at Broadlawn General Hospital. He had been ill seven years. Born in Topeka, Kas., Mr. McCaune lived in Des Moines 38 years. He was a member of Mount Olive Baptist Church. Survivors include his wife, Syble; a son, Arthur, Des Moines; two stepsons, Earl Colton, Marshalltown; and Henry Colton, Des Moines; two daughters, Mrs. Louise Campbell and Evelyn, Des Moines; and seven grandchildren.

To Gettysburg

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER
Gettysburg, Penn.—For the first time since his heart attack Sept. 24, President Eisenhower went to work Monday morning. He expects to get in some office routine at Gettysburg. An office has been set up for him in the post office. President Eisenhower left Denver, Colo., for Washington, D. C., Nov. 11, after expressing thanks to all who have aided him in his illness.

James N. Harris Held On Narcotics Charge

Judge Howard W. Brooks ordered James Nathaniel Harris, 27, held in jail in lieu of $2,000 bond pending action of the Polk County grand jury on charges of illegal possession of $300 worth of heroin and $75 worth of marijuana. Harris pleaded innocent in municipal court here Monday when arraigned. Last employed to shine shoes in a barber shop here, he gave his address as 822 Sixteenth street. Capt. Louis J. Volz, head of the police liquor and vice bureau, said Harris was arrested about 11:50 a. m. Saturday as he stepped off a train at the Rock Island depot here. Detectives James Moran and Lester Kellogg said they found the narcotics in the pocket of a shirt Harris was wearing.

For Own Use
Volz said Harris claims he purchased the narcotics for his own use. Volz said Harris was watched by officers after his name had been found on a customer list of a man recently sentenced to a five-year prison term on a narcotics charge. Volz quoted Harris as saying he started using narcotics about a year ago "just out of curiosity" and when his source of narcotics no longer was available here he made trips to Chicago to buy heroin and marijuana.

Canadian Agent Claims Jo Baker Tried to Leave for France Without Paying Him

Quebec City, Canada — (CNS) — Glamorous Josephine Baker ran into a pack of new woes this week when her sailing to France was detained by her Canadian Agent, Don Brown who claims she owes him 10% on all of her Canadian bookings plus clothes and other items which she bought in the country and charged to him.

Brown cited that Josephine also owes her booking manager William L. Taub the sum of $10,839 in back fees. He claims that La Baker signed over her jewels, furs and clothes to him as a guarantee but then was planning to sail on the liner Homeric for France.

Josephine is scheduled to go before the Superior Court this Tuesday for a preliminary hearing of fraud charges as brought by Brown. She has pleaded innocent and has been released in $5,000 bail. She locked herself in her suite at the Chateau Frontenac Hotel and refused to talk to anyone. Brown says he will sue

Great Uncle of Till Boy Replaces His Mother, Mrs. Bradley on Speaking Tour

New York — Following failure of Mrs. Mammie Bradley, mother of Emmett Till, to undertake a tour of West Coast cities in accordance with terms agreed upon with the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary, announced termination of NAACP sponsorship of any future meetings for her and substitution of Moses Wright for the far west tour.

Terms Agreed
Mrs. Bradley was scheduled to leave Chicago on Nov. 7 for a series of 11 NAACP-sponsored meetings in Washington, Oregon, California, Arizona, Nevada, Utah and Colorado. However, on that day, she informed the NAACP, through Mrs. Anna Crockett, her personal representative, that she would not make the tour unless given a flat fee of $5,000 plus all expenses or a lesser guarantee plus expenses and one-third of all funds collected at the meetings. Early in October, Mrs. Bradley came to the national office of the NAACP and asked for Association sponsorship of her appearances. Terms were agreed upon and Mrs. Bradley spoke under auspices of NAACP branches in a number of eastern and midwestern cities.

Mr. Wright, great uncle of the slain Chicago boy, was secured to replace Mrs. Bradley on the western tour. As previously scheduled, Mrs. Ruby Hurley, NAACP southeast regional secretary, is also addressing the series of meetings. Mr. Wright was flown to Seattle for the opening meeting on Nov. 9, after having testified the previous day before the LeFlore County grand jury in the kidnap charges against Roy Bryant and J. W. Milam who had admitted taking the boy from his uncle's home on the night of August 28. The all-white grand jury refused to return an indictment. In announcing the termination of the arrangement with Mrs. Bradley, Mr. Wilkins said that "NAACP does not handle such matters on a commercial basis."

Church to Remain Closed Until 'Communities Show Willingness to Accept'

Jesuit Bend, La.—Controversy over a Negro priest continued to close the Catholic church in this small Louisiana town.

Some 200 parishioners in the area — rich in the history of early Jesuit exploration — sent a petition Wednesday to Archbishop Joseph Francis Rummel in which they declared: "If no white priest is available, let the church remain closed." The archbishop closed the church early in October when a Negro priest was told he could not say mass there. Archbishop Rummel declared the church would stay closed until any priest assigned was acceptable to the community. In a letter to members of the church and missions, Archbishop Rummel told of the arrival of the Negro priest at Jesuit Bend Oct. 2, and added: "He was approached by several members of the congregation and informed politely but in unmistakable language that he was not to celebrate holy mass in that mission chapel. 'The only reason alleged was the fact that he is a member of the Negro race.'"

Violation
The archbishop called the incident "clearly a violation of the obligation of reverence and devotion which Catholics owe to every priest of God, regardless of race, color or nationality." "Under these circumstances and because the shortage of priests is such that we cannot replace the reverend father in question at the present moment, the archbishop said, he was ordering the restrictions until members of the three communities "express their willingness to accept whatever priest we find it possible to send them." The Rev. Clement Meyer, pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, identified the Negro priest as the Rev. Gerald Lewis of St. Augustin's Seminary, Bay St. Louis, Miss. In explaining the parish's stand, a spokesman said: "The archbishop is trying to compel us to go against the way we were raised and the things we believe in." The petition described the archbishop's action as a step toward "racial integration . . . contrary to the teachings of the church, church organization, school and family."

Voters Registrars Resign After 22 Negroes Win Suits

Cuthbert, Ga.—Cuthbert County's three voter registrars resigned last Thursday in protest of a federal court verdict awarding $880 in damages to 22 Negro residents on a complaint that they were unjustly deprived of voting rights.

The registrars, R. S. Banks, C. C. Martin and J. W. Lay, tendered their resignations with a suggestion that the grand jury at the current court term might submit names of successors. Registrars are appointed on jury recommendations.

'Harassed'
The three complained that they had been "harassed, worried and brought into federal court . . . despite that the acts charged against them were done in complete good faith."

A warning by counsel for the Negroes that similar suits may be brought in behalf of other Negroes, the registrars added, constitutes "a continuing menace, threat and intimidation."

Such a situation, they declared, hangs over them as a menace "should they examine the qualifications of any person as a voter."

The federal court judgment directed that the $880 damages be paid equally by Banks, chairman of the board. SEE PAGE SIX

Kansan Motored Party Of Sportsmen from Lawrence; Was World War 1 Veteran

The pheasant hunting season which opened in Iowa last Saturday and brought many visiting hunters to the state, ended Sunday for Theodore Hamilton, 58, of Lawrence, Kas., who suffered a fatal heat attack while hunting on a farm, seven miles north-east of Grundy Center, Iowa.

Hamilton, who drove a hunting party from Lawrence, last Friday, was guest of J. Walter Thompson, 1548 Lyon street.

In the hunting party with Hamilton were Judd Smith, and a Mr. Suttles who accompanied Hamilton here from Lawrence; Willard Cushingberry, Mr. Thompson and his son, Dennis, of Des Moines.

"We had hunted all day Saturday and tramped through fields and over the farmlands looking for the birds," Thompson revealed.

Illinois Governor Asks Federal Probe In Slaying

Springfield, Ill.—(CNS) — Illinois' Governor Stratton — whose name is being mentioned as a possible republican presidential candidate in 1956 — sent a letter to Attorney General Brownell this week asking that the case of Emmett Till get a federal investigation.

Stratton cited that Emmett — a "citizen of Illinois was abducted and brutally murdered. . . . It now appears that those responsible for this tragic crime are not being brought to justice."

Stratton made public his letter after the LeFlore County grand jury in Miss., refused to indict Roy Bryant and J. W. Milam for kidnap-ing Till. Said Stratton: "the Till case should not be allowed to drop at this point. Somebody murdered that boy and should be made to pay for it."

Washington, D. C.—(CNS) — Dr. T. R. M. Howard, who operates a hospital in Mound Bayou, Miss.—the all-Negro community 50 miles from the scene of the Emmett Till "trial" is touring the country for the NAACP speaking on race violence in the south.

Dr. Howard was in the courtroom throughout the trial in Money, Miss. He is hoping to arouse a vigorous protest from Negroes against "mississippiism."

LeFlore Grand Jury Fails To Indict Kidnappers; Asks FBI To Investigate Case

New York — Attorney General Herbert Brownell has again been called upon to intervene in the kidnaping of 14-year-old Emmett Till in view of the acquittal of his accused killers and the refusal of the LeFlore County grand jury to indict them on the kidnap charge.

In a telegram to Mr. Brownell, Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary, today pointed out that the jurors in the murder trial based their verdict on the claim that the body was not that of young Till, who has been missing since August 28.

If this is so, Mr. Wilkins told the Attorney General, "the clear presumption is that his (Till's) kidnapers have carried him across a state boundary bringing the case within the jurisdiction of the Federal Bureau of Investigation under the Lindbergh act."

Clear on All Counts
Greenwood, Miss. — A LeFlore County grand jury Wednesday declined to indict two white men on charges of kidnaping Emmett Louis Till, 14-year-old Chicago, Ill., Negro. The decision freed Roy Bryant, 24, and his 36-year-old half-brother, J. W. Milam, of all charges in the famous case.

Freed at Trial
A trial jury in nearby Sumner six weeks ago found the white storekeepers innocent of murdering Till. Circuit Judge Arthur Jordan announced the grand jury's decision to ping Till. Said Stratton: "the Till case should not be allowed to drop at this point. Somebody murdered that boy and should be made to pay for it."

How to Cut Square Opening

TO CUT a square or rectangular opening with round corners in a piece of wood or similar board, holes of the proper radius should be drilled at the corners. Then you can saw straight down from one hole to the next. This will assure that the opening will be of the dimensions wanted and that the corners will have the correct radius. To cut a similar opening with square shoulders, use a similar technique, drilling small-diameter holes at the corners with their outer edges tangent to the sides of the rectangle. Proceed as above. Then square off the small arc in each corner with a file! —Illustration, courtesy of Popular Mechanics.

- (1) Stuff turkey and neck cavity.
- (2) Place turkey, breast up, in a pre-heated 325°F. oven.
- (3) Garnish roasted turkey with frosted grapes, and serve.

Oyster-Rice Turkey Stuffing Is Elegant

This Oyster-Rice Stuffing is a "must" for that turkey (or chicken) you're planning to roast. It's easy to make because there's very little chopping to do and no bread crumbs to bother with.

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 cup uncooked white rice
- 2 cups water
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 3 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1 cup chopped celery
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper
- 1/2 pint oysters
- 1/4 cup water or turkey broth

METHOD: Put the rice, water and salt in a 2-quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat as low as possible. Cover the saucepan with lid and leave over this low heat 14 minutes. Remove from the heat but leave the lid on 10 minutes.

While the rice is cooking, melt the butter or margarine in a saucepan. Add the onion and celery. Cover and cook over a medium heat until tender, stirring occasionally. Stir in the black pepper. Add the onion and celery to the rice mixture. Add the oysters and water or broth and mix gently.

This stuffing may be prepared ahead of time so long as the liquid is not mixed with the dry ingredients until the turkey is to be stuffed and cooked. The turkey should be stuffed just before it is placed in the oven. It should not be stuffed and refrigerated. Extra stuffing may be baked in a separate pan or made into dressing balls. Allow 1/4 cup of stuffing for each pound of poultry, dressed weight, or 1 cup for each pound ready-to-cook weight. This recipe makes 4 1/2 cups of stuffing.

How to Bake the Turkey: Remove pin feathers from turkey and singe if necessary. Remove any bits of lung, kidney, etc., remaining in turkey. Wash and rinse inside and outside with cold water. Wipe dry. Rub cavity lightly with salt. Put enough stuffing into the neck of the turkey to fill it out nicely. Fasten the neck skin back with a skewer. Stuff cavity well—but do not pack stuffing tightly as it expands during roasting. Shape wings ("akimbo" style) bringing wing tips on to the back. Place skewers across stuffing opening of turkey and lace shut with cord. Tie legs to tail. Grease skin thoroughly with fat. Place the turkey, breast down, on a rack in a shallow pan. If the bird is very large and difficult to turn, place breast up and leave in this position throughout the roasting. Lay fat-moistened cheese cloth over the turkey. Do not cover with a lid. Do not add any water. As cloth dries out, moisten with fat from the bottom of the pan. Roast until done, following the timetable below. Garnish turkey with frosted grapes made by dipping grapes first in beaten egg white, then in granulated sugar.

spicuously placed. Below, among the candidates' credentials, were lines committing them to bettering the lot of the Negro—some naming housing, some hospitals, several (which we think significant) "the same courtesy toward colored and white." As our friend, Lewis Swingler of the Tri-State Times, (Memphis) topped his editorial, "The Vote's the Boss!"

Council Committee Chairmen

George O. Butler, president of the Federation of Civic Associations and Vice-President of the Washington Urban League, and Realtor James E. Scot are among the seven chairmen of Urban Renewal Council subcommittees. Mr. Butler chairs the subcommittee on Education and Public Liaison, and Mr. Scott the subcommittee on Relocation.

Junior High Teachers

A single District of Columbia Junior High School Teachers' Association emerged, this week, replacing the former segregated white and Negro associations. Assistant Superintendent Cantrell asked them to regard themselves as "one group of teachers," working for the development of all children. . . . urged them to blend character training with the teaching of subject matter.

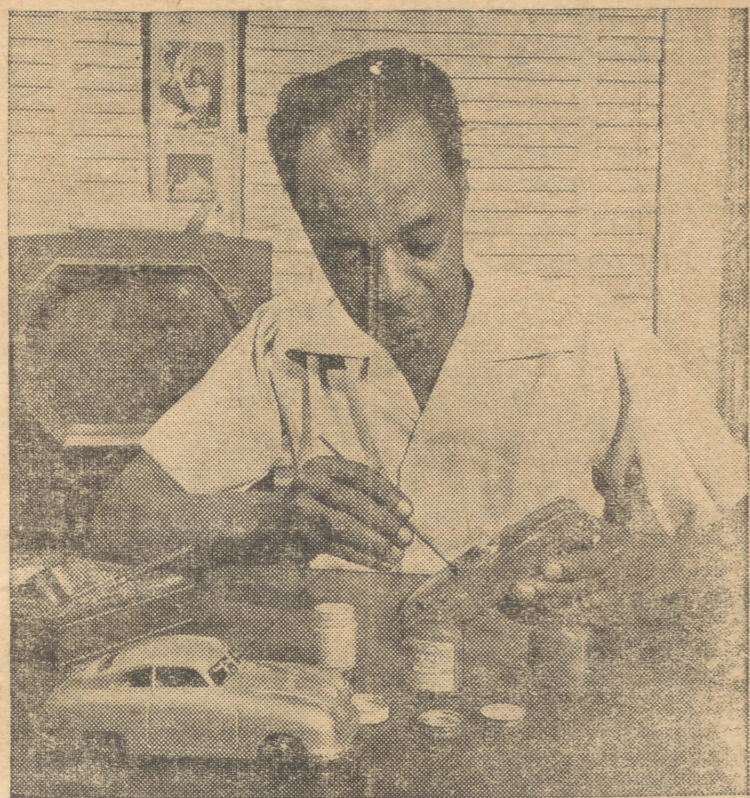

Dr. Franklin's Next Project

As we said, last week, we were most sorry that we were obliged to the Press Club on the History of Jim-Crow. His intensely interesting and informal presentation was matched in interest by the questions asked, which he answered freely and fully. These questions included the emergence of hostile attitudes toward the Negro at times of greatest Negro advance; the attitudes of younger Southern whites with relation to those of their elders; and the comparative attitudes of younger Negroes and their elders—all with reference to recent legislation and resistance to legislation.

Inevitably the question arose as to which variety of "Uncle Tom" was the worst—the older accommodationists and their fairly stereotyped practices, or the current crop without reference to individual age, which has become more skilled in the unhappy art of racial appeasement, and practices it more deftly. The overwhelming consensus of opinion, among both newsmen and visitors, was that the current crop was by far the worst and most deadly.

Dr. Franklin, who was in New York, last week, attending Fisk University's Trustee Board meeting, will soon be paying his literary respects to the Uncle Toms and their feminine counterparts, past and present—helping to unravel their causes and effects.

the Camera Guild

Hobbies and photography go together. Take pictures of various members of the family working on their hobbies, as well as close-ups of the items they make or collect.

Collect With Your Camera

It's fairly safe to say that practically everybody has some kind of pet hobby—whether it's collecting rare stamps and coins or just old fishing hats and string! And we've always felt that one of the nicest things about photography is the way it can aid and complement the pursuit of almost any other hobby.

In fact, it is only by means of picture-taking that many hobbies can become "collecting" hobbies at all. If you're interested in bridges, old buildings, art treasures, railroad engines, aircraft, sailing vessels or old automobile models, your camera is the only method by which you'll be able to bring home items for your collection.

Many "collector's items" are fairly small objects, and you'll be shooting them indoors. The easiest method of providing the artificial light you need is using a synchronized flash attachment on your camera. But, if you prefer, you can illuminate your collection with photo-flood lamps or ordinary household light bulbs and then make a time exposure.

In either case, if the items are small, you will want to take close-up shots. With a box-type camera, you'd normally be shooting at a distance of about six feet from your subject. If, at this distance, your subject seems lost in the middle of the viewfinder, you'll do well to get a simple close-up attachment that will allow you to move in to three and a half feet.

—John Van Guilder

Desegregation Food for Thought

October figures for District of Columbia school enrollment, just released, show a figure of 107,645 pupils, of whom 38,768 or 36 percent are white, and 68,877, or 64 percent, are Negro. The population figures, almost exactly in reverse, show 802,178 (1950); 1955 figure is 802,172 with the Negro population of 284,313 equaling 35 percent, and the white population of 517,865 equaling 65 percent.

In terms of opportunity for work in the District Government, Negro policemen are now 240 out of 2234 or 10 percent of the total, and Negro firemen are 117 out of 1041, or 11 percent of the total. In 1938 there were 36 Negro policemen equalling 2.8 percent of the force, and 17 Negro firemen equalling 1.9 percent of the force. Negro policemen decreased in number between 1928 and 1938. The number of Negro firemen—17—was static from 1918 to 1938, a twenty-year period.

The background is bad, but the foreground is hopeful. The Capital now has above 192 thousand Negroes of voting age, and the Capital now has the beginnings of a vote.

Asking Child's Permission to Use His Property is Setting Good Example for Him

BY MAY P. YOUTZ

"Shall I put my lovely vase out of reach of my baby or let him handle it? I'm really afraid he will break it."

Another mother in that study group answered the question—with seven children, she'd learned a lot about handling them! She said, "The other day I brought home a length of bright colored cloth for a dress for one of my daughters. The baby was at hand to see me open the package. He reached for it but I asked him to come with me while I washed his hands and dried them thoroughly. Then I let him touch and pat the pretty goods for quite awhile. Finally, I said, 'This is mother's—then I handed him one of his favorite toys, and said, 'This is yours.' Then I put the new material on a high shelf."

She added, "We never know when the love of beauty begins to develop. We all want our children to be aware of beauty. Touching and looking at the dress material, for instance, seemed to satisfy my baby."

The mother who asked about her beautiful vase had her answer: "Let the child under supervision touch and handle the lovely vase, then give him something that is his, putting the vase up out of temptation's way."

A certain phase of property rights is also developed in these examples. The young child cherishes his toys as his very own. "My truck, my dolly, mine, mine" are heard often.

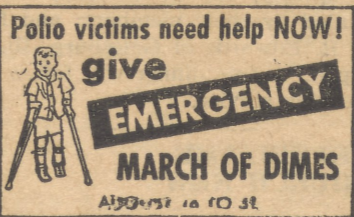

As he grows older and acquires more things, he still cherishes them—witness the storm if mother while housecleaning dares invade his room and throw things away!

In establishing the very important habit of asking permission to borrow before taking anything belonging to the child, example is extremely important. If father, for example, wishes his son to ask permission before using expensive tools, he must not help himself to materials which his son is keeping for special purposes—such as wood for an airplane. Example is a potent teacher.

Marmalade Glaze Coffee Cake

It's simplicity itself, yet this quick coffee cake topped with shimmering orange marmalade makes a dashing entry on your breakfast or tea time table.

For economy and enjoyment, headline coffee cakes and other good breads in your menu planning. They are wonderfully easy to serve, especially when you buy them ready-made from your baker, who offers a tempting assortment daily.

Or, there are many kinds of breads that you can make quickly at home—including rolls, coffee cakes, loaf breads, and biscuit and muffin specialties. Marmalade Glaze Coffee Cakes is in this class, and it makes a colorful addition to the menu for under 40 cents.

Spoon your favorite marmalade into a greased 8-inch square pan for the pleasantly tart topping. Prepare a quick coffee cake batter and pour over marmalade. Serve hot as it comes from the oven, along with cereal and milk topped with sliced bananas for a good breakfast. Since Marmalade Glaze Coffee Cake is made from enriched flour, milk and egg, you can be sure your family is getting valuable vitamins, proteins and iron in one package.

Molasses Orange Bars

An unusual flavor combination—molasses tang with sparkling orange—makes these bar cookies a delight to eat. They're quick to make, too.

If you like to serve snacks and desserts that are nutritious as well as taste-pleasing, plan to make the molasses orange bars pictured today. Both enriched flour and molasses are excellent sources of food iron, and in addition enriched flour contributes essential B-vitamins, protein and food energy.

A new quick-mix method for making these bar cookies enables the home baker to turn them out with a minimum of time and effort. Sift dry ingredients into a bowl, sprinkle with orange sugar, and then add remaining ingredients. Stir to blend, then beat two minutes. It's as easy as that—your cookies are ready for the pan. These "in-a-bowl" cookies make a saving on dishes, too.

A simple topping of sugar mixed with grated orange rind is spread over the cookies before baking. They may be frosted later, if desired.

Molasses orange bars are perfect dessert companions with apricots, apple sauce or other fruits. Or have them with milk, hot chocolate, or coffee.

MOLASSES ORANGE BARS (Quick-Mix Method)

- 1 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon soda
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon grated orange rind
- 1/2 cup new-type shortening
- 1/2 cup molasses
- 2 eggs
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1/2 cup Orange Sugar

Sift together flour, baking powder, soda, salt, and sugar. Sprinkle orange rind over flour mixture. Add shortening, molasses, eggs, milk and vanilla extract. Stir to combine ingredients.

then beat 2 minutes. Pour into greased pan 9x14 inches. Sprinkle with Orange Sugar. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 30 minutes. Cut in bars or squares.

Orange Sugar
2 teaspoons shredded orange rind 1/2 cup sugar

A Statement to Telephone Users

A small increase in the rates for some long distance calls between telephones in Iowa is made necessary by further increases in the costs of providing service. The change will be effective November 28, 1955.

The increases will amount to only 5c for the initial three-minute period for most station-to-station calls—some calls will not be changed.

For person-to-person calls, the increase will be either 5c or 10c for the initial three-minute period. Most person-to-person calls will be affected. However, some will remain unchanged.

The costs of providing telephone service have continued to increase substantially while telephone rates have been at their present level.

This has been true of wages, which have had to be increased because of the continuing upward trend of wages generally.

Prices of equipment, material and supplies are higher, which continues to raise the investment behind each telephone as well as increasing operating expenses.

Taxes continue to be a heavy cost of furnishing telephone service.

Total costs have increased to the point where they cannot be met through operating economies. In order to assure continuing good and reliable telephone service, this repricing has become necessary.

If you wish further information, we should appreciate your calling our Business Office.

Burns' Vesper Hour To Feature Organ Recital Sunday

The Vesper Hour at Burns Methodist church, 811 Crocker street, Sunday, at 7 p. m., will be featured with an organ recital with Mrs. Walter Hinrichs, Jr., as guest organist. Her program will include: Prelude, "Arioso" (Handel); "Musette" (Bach); "Toccata," in D. Minor (Bach); "Ode To Thanksgiving" (Beethoven); and hymn tunes, selected.

This program will be supplemented by numbers from the Steward Board Singing Ensemble which will include "Whispering Hope" (Clide Willard); anthem, "Come Unto Me All Ye That Labour" (Pears); and a group of Negro spirituals by Work Brothers. Rev. H. W. James, pastor of Burns church, will sing "How Long Wilt Thou Forget Me, O Lord" (Hoffmeister); and, "The Voice in the Wilderness."

Mrs. Georgia Add will be the accompanist for the Singing Ensemble. Mrs. V. V. Cropp's president of the Steward Board.

Guest Ministers at New Jerusalem

Elder J. C. Lewis and congregation of Waterloo, Ia., will be with New Jerusalem Church of God in Christ Tuesday night, Nov. 22. Rev. W. M. Willis of Lovilla, Ia., will appear Wednesday, Nov. 23. Elder Wilbur McDowell of Moline, Ill., will be guest speaker Saturday night, Nov. 26.

Free Thanksgiving dinner and special services will be held at New Jerusalem church Thanksgiving Day. Rev. M. W. Goodman is pastor.

FURNITURE IS SUDS SAFE

Sponge upholstery with thick suds. Then rinse with a clean damp sponge and wipe dry.

Since colorful upholstery on your furniture is the main eye-catcher in your room, it must be kept bright and clean to look well. Besides, clean furniture lasts longer. Luckily plastic upholstery, and most fabrics, can be sudsed off safely if you know how.

Use thick warm soapsuds to lather over plastic upholstery on your sofa and chairs, but don't get it dripping wet. Rinse quickly with a clean damp sponge or cloth, and wipe dry.

If upholstery fabric can stand plain water, you can wash it with "dry" soapsuds. To make this, use your egg beater to whip some soap in a little water until the lather stands in stiff peaks like meringue. Work these thick suds over a small section of the upholstery with a circular motion, using a cloth, sponge, or brush. Scrape off the soiled suds with a spatula; then wipe the surface twice with a clean rinse cloth wrung almost dry so no water can soak into the fabric. Let the sections overlap as you go along until the entire piece is clean.

While you're at it, suds off the wood frames of your furniture the same way and apply fresh wax or polish.

Visitor from Kansas

MRS. L. A. DAVE

Mrs. L. A. Dave of Kansas City, Kas., who spent nearly two weeks here on a vacation, was house guest of her daughter, Miss Marie Ross of the Iowa Bystander.

Holiday Thursday; News Deadline Monday

All news items, personals, club and church reports for the issue of November 24, Thanksgiving Day, will be published one day earlier next week. The deadline is Monday noon, instead of Tuesday. Phone or write to the news department this week end.

Personal Touch By MARIE ROSS

When Mrs. L. A. Dave of Kansas City, Kas., my mother, arrived here the latter part of October for a two-week vacation, she had informed me that she wanted to "get around Des Moines."

I took her at her word and planned places for her to see each day. Friends learned that she was here and invited us to their homes for sumptuous meals.

After the first week of going around on a reporter's beat with me, my mother began to work on her feet nightly. About the eleventh day, when we were rushing about the State Capitol ground, seeing the building with a cold wind lashing here and there, browsing over the floral exhibits and admiring the mum show at the Municipal Greenhouses, Mom began to get homesick and decided to leave while she was still in one piece. Last Tuesday morning she was on the 2 o'clock train heading for home, before the sun rose again. At home now, she has been catching up on rest and sleep.

Mrs. Dave at the State Capital Building; and seeing the Mum Show at the Municipal Greenhouse.

Mrs. Ruth Forrester of 914 Fourteenth street, who makes frequent visits to the Veterans Hospital at Knoxville, Ia., to bring cheer to some of the patients, made a frantic plea for help in contacting some of the young women here to go on the trips.

Each month the hospital has a party, featuring a "real live band" for the patients.

Alternatively, the Lincoln Auxiliary of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars take a bus-load of members down to the hospital to entertain the patients. At the last party, just eight

Dilettante Art Show Ends; Prizes Given; Miss Slaughter Speaks

Winners of awards in the Dilettante club's twenty-second annual art exhibit, were presented cash prizes last Sunday afternoon at Willkie House.

Sweepstake winner was Ed Cullin, Des Moines Tech High art student. First prizes went to: Karen Nash, Louise McCall, Phyllis Don Howe and Roberta Hefner, all of Tech High; and George Jackson of East High.

Second prizes were won by: Judy Taylor, Marilyn Slaymaker, Lyle Hale, Karen Nash, all of Tech High; and Gretchen Hayter.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Betty Slaughter, coordinator at Des Moines Art Center, who answered many general questions about art, in a "Letter on Art." She urged her listeners to "keep open minds as well as eyes", and, "to get acquainted with paintings—look at them more than once."

Mrs. Korinne Jackson, program chairman presided, and presented a group of her music students, who played piano music during the program and tea.

Prizes were presented by Mr. Leroy Mitchell, exhibit director. Remarks were made by Mrs. John E. Johnson, classification chairman. Mrs. Nellie Esters is president of the Dilettante club.

women went to the party on the bus, Mrs. Forrester revealed.

Many of the patients are Korean War veterans and "they just love to dance—and do some of the 'jumps' and jitter-bugging; and, with rheumatism in one knee, I am not much good at the party," Mrs. Forrester talked.

She said that the hospital is planning to cut out the dances for the patients, if more women are not available for the party.

The hospital furnishes a chartered bus, picks up the passengers at 6:30 p. m. here, takes them to Knoxville and returns them here by 10:30 p. m.

Any young woman wishing to go on the trip to cheer the patients at Knoxville, on Friday, Nov. 18, may contact Mrs. Lillian Garrett, 1219 Nineteenth street.

Visiting in Des Moines through the Thanksgiving Holiday is Mrs. Jeanette B. Stewart of Atlanta, Ga., who is guest at the home of Mrs. O. L. Glass, 1517 Second avenue, while visiting her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Catherine Stewart, and her grandchildren, Louise and Robert Stewart.

Mrs. Stewart, who last week ended twenty years with Morehouse College, where she served as official hostess for the school, will go from here to Bishop College, Tyler, Texas, to visit a daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Stewart Curry, wife of Milton K. Curry, president of Bishop.

As official hostess at the men's college, Morehouse, Mrs. Stewart revealed that her duties included looking after some of the social functions for the men, chaperoning their parties, and taking charge of guests at the college, which is headed by Dr. Benjamin Mays.

Prior to her work at Morehouse, Mrs. Stewart lived for 28 years at Tuskegee Institute, Ala., where her

MISS SYLVERTA WIMBISH

Miss Sylverta Wimbish, 1514 Walker street, who on August 23 was graduated from the Crescent Beauty School here, is now an operator at the Modern Beauty Salon, 822 E. Sixteenth street.

Miss Wimbish, formerly, graduated from the Madam C. J. Walker Beauty School of Houston, Texas. She operated the Wimbish Beauty Shop in Luling, Texas, before coming to Iowa.

Here, she is a member of Union Baptist church and is active in the church's senior choir.

husband, Mr. Alexander R. Stewart, was personal business agent to the first president, Booker T. Washington and looked after his estate after Mr. Washington's death, she talked.

While at Tuskegee, Mrs. Stewart said: "I could not see raising a family and working. After the children were ready for college, I took a job as assistant to Mrs. Moton, the director of Industry for Girls."

Born in a "missionary school," now Spellman College, Mrs. Stewart said her life has been one of working with and meeting people.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Fowler, Des Moines chemist, who has been in Saignon, Veit Nam, since last March, as a member of the Foreign Operations Administration staff, has written some interesting letters about her experiences, in letters to her mother, Mrs. Olin Cooper of 1112 Eleventh street.

During the summer months Mrs. Fowler is getting settled in new living quarters, about which she wrote July 11:

"I have been here four months today . . .

"My new apartment is very nice. It is twice as large as I had, with a large double veranda with beautiful flowers and pella blinds; and, a large living room, bedroom, bath tub—the first tub bath since I left the States; a nice sized kitchen and large clothes closet.

"I bought some shelves for my what-have-you's—and the girl who just vacated it had a bar and three stools she sold me of Rattan which sat in a corner of the room and is perfect for keeping the stuff since it makes too much trouble in the kitchen.

"They are re-covering and painting everything and that new dragon material that I brought over for curtains, I am using to have a bed spread made with green skirt and black bolster . . . I am so happy to have some of my things from home . . .

"My groceries that you sent were just right. Canned orange juice never tasted so good; believe me.

"The church is right across the street so I can go oftener . . . I have several lizards sitting up on the ceiling catching bugs and watchin me as I write.

Learning Vietnamese

"I have real full evenings," the Iowan penned on July 25. "Two nights I take Vietnamese lessons. One or two nights I teach English to Vietnamese and get a massage three evenings a week. When I go to dinner, it is after the massage.

"I also sent some pictures I took at Bangkok. Some of them are overexposed; but, I bought a light meter and should have better luck now. Go down to the camera shop and get one of those little hand viewers . . . when I come home I will bring a big one (projector) from Hong Kong. Marie Ross has a large one. Maybe she will come up and show them to you on her projector.

On September 30, Mrs. Fowler wrote:

"I have been going to a lot of parties lately and I met the Indian Consul who invited me to his house Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock for cocktails, and, to dinner Thursday of next week. I am going to dinner tonight to watch the Moon festivities and Saturday night to the Phyors.

"Oct. 5, Holly's have me for dinner. They were the Negro couple at Majestic Hotel.

"I have plenty to do and the time passes very swiftly . . . I am going to a formal at the American Ambassadors and Mrs. Reinhardt. The fourth time there.

Moon Harvest

"The Chinese are having a celebration and Moon Harvest and some Moon Cakes. They are sweet potato pies, small and fried, and have a pie crust all over them. I don't know what's in the others. I think, blueberries or black beans. I don't know which; but, very rich and you eat a very little of it each morning for your luck for the day."

DIFFERENCE IN MORAL OPINIONS

It often is said, even by northerners who have spent some time in the South, that Southerners living there know best how to treat the Negro.

In fact a Mason City, Iowa woman wrote in the Des Moines Register public opinion column recently claiming just such experience.

These same people say the southern white man is the Negro's best friend because he will feed him (give a handout) when he is hungry and cite individual cases showing how one here and there found in distress has been helped.

One of the rights enunciated in the Declaration of Independence and carried over into the constitution is the right to be secure in ones home and to have the state prosecute the defendant when a crime has been committed.

Few people expected the murderers of the Till boy to be convicted but some of these same people thought the grand jury would not refuse to indict them for kidnapping.

Today, America is spending a lot of time talking about the rights of oppressed people; about how Russia is blocking world peace. And this is as it should be.

These injustices can go unnoticed for convenience, but they eat at the vitals of the nation.

MORE BLOWS TO JIM CROW AND SEGREGATION

Every week the United State Supreme Court knocks another prop from segregation and Jim Crow. This week it ruled that an Oklahoma law designating a candidate's race opposite his name on an election ballot is unconstitutional.

How ridiculous can laws get? Now that candidates are announcing their candidacies for national contests, they are going to be questioned on their stand on those decisions.

It will be interesting to watch how they take the medicine or whether they take it at all. For instance will Mr. Stevenson or Senator Kefauver call for the observance of the school segregation decision?

THANKS FOR PRESIDENT EISENHOWER'S RECOVERY

President Eisenhower has recovered sufficiently from his recent heart attack to return to Washington and on to Gettysburg to further recuperate. There is much relief among the people of America, and the world too for that matter, and it is hoped that he may be at himself shortly.

The president is one of the most popular heads of government America has had for his whole career has been a series of crowning successors. This present one is no exception to the rule.

The American people are fortunate that Mr. Eisenhower is at the helm of state. We are not engaged in a fighting war; we have those countries which tend to upset the peace on the defensive; he has been a strong moral force in the country; prosperity is at its highest level in history and in spite of the absence of Mr. Eisenhower from Washington for several weeks, things have moved along with government operation well in hand.

Of course, there are those who are dissatisfied with the administration but they are the outs or those who expect the federal government to step in and run about every type business in competition with private business. This is their privilege.

The Bystander hopes for the President a complete recovery and that he will be able to lead the nation another four years.

Kidnap Case

SEE FRONT PAGE grand jury included Sheriff George Smith and Deputy John Ed Cothran. Sheriff Smith and his deputy had told the murder trial jury that Bryant and Milam admitted taking Till from Wright's farm shack in nearby Money, but said they freed him unharmed when they found he was the wrong Negro.

Reed's testimony had placed Milam with Till several hours after the two men said they released the Negro boy, who was vacationing in Mississippi when he disappeared.

The two Negroes returned to Mississippi to testify before the grand jury. They went to Chicago after the murder trial because they said they were afraid to remain in Mississippi.

Win Voting Suit

The award was made by a jury after United States District Judge W. A. Bootle had directed a verdict of guilty against Banks and Martin on charges of conspiring to deprive the defendants of their voting rights.

Long Distance Rate Slightly Higher

A small increase in rates for some long distance calls between telephones in Iowa, effective November 28, was announced today by the Northwestern-Bell Telephone Company.

The increase, the announcement said, will amount to only 5c for the initial three-minute period for most station-to-station calls. Some station-to-station rates will not be affected. For person-to-person calls, the increase will be either 5c or 10c for the initial three-minute period.

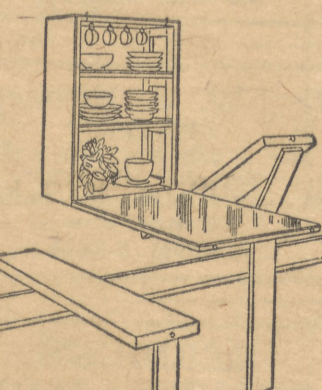

The announcement said that the costs of providing telephone service have continued to increase substantially while telephone rates have been at their present level and that the continuing upward trend of wages generally has made increased telephone wages necessary. It was pointed out, also, that prices of equipment, materials and supplies are up, which results in high investment behind each telephone as well as increased operating expenses, and that taxes continue to be a heavy cost of furnishing telephone service.

All of this adds up, the announcement continued, to the fact that total costs have increased to the point where they cannot be met through operating economies and, in order for the company to assure continuing good and reliable telephone service, the repricing is necessary.

Novel Table for Cottage Folds Against Wall

A COMPACT, out-of-the-way table and benches suitable for a camp cottage will be a pleasure to build and a delight to the family because of its novelty.

The table top, when folded up, serves as a door for the wall cabinet. Because it will wear long and is easy to keep clean, Masonite 1/2" Tempered Presdwood is used to surface the lumber framing of the table top.

The cupboard is built of 1-inch lumber framing, covered with Tempered Presdwood. Shelves are similarly constructed.

Note the hinges which permit the table and benches to be pushed out of the way, against the wall, to which they are fastened with hooks.

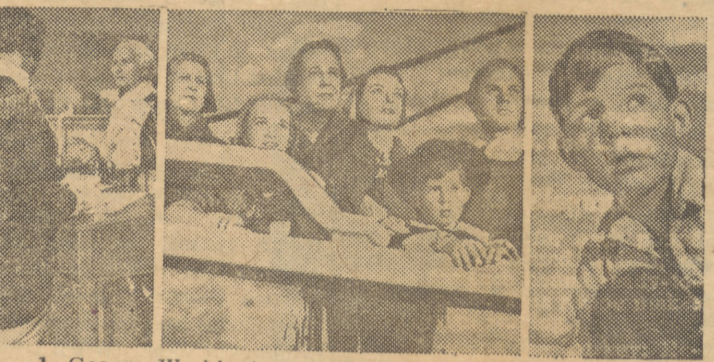

Panels of Presdwood can be used effectively in other ways at the summer cottage—to cover unsightly interior walls, for converting a large room into smaller ones, corner closets, floors, fish cleaning and bait cutting boards, sunshades at the beach, or resurfacing old picnic tables.

"American Thanksgiving"

THE TRADITIONAL DAY OF THANKS for the good things bestowed on its people by gracious Providence is as old as the story of our Pilgrim fathers in America. The Mayflower settlers were the first to set aside a day for "the giving of Thanks to God" and their guests at the first Thanksgiving included nearly one hundred Indians who had helped them through the first, terrible winter.

The story of Thanksgiving, from the time of our Pilgrim fathers through "turkey day," as it is often called, is the subject of "American Thanksgiving" on "Du Pont Cavalcade Theater," scheduled for many ABC-TV and selected spot stations between November 22 and November 23.

1. George Washington, as played by Richard Gaines was heard to refer to the day as "a local festival" when he was encamped on the Boston Common during the American Revolution. 2. The spirit of our forefathers as played by the Pilgrims in the scene above was kept alive, however, and Abraham Lincoln was the first American President to officially declare a National Thanksgiving Day. 3. Stephen Wooten, above, appears as a youth at the first Thanksgiving, and, in the lower picture, as the son of a modern, American family gathered about the festive board. (ANS)

Moore to Lay Title On Line in London

New York — Archie Moore has agreed to lay his light-heavyweight title on the line for the fifth time when he meets Yolande Pompey of Trinidad January 10 in London. The contracts were signed, sealed and delivered at the IBC headquarters with Moore and his manager doing the main signing.

Pompey at 26 is third ranking 175 pound contender with 21 knockouts to his credit. He lost his only two to Bobby Dawson and Moses Ward. He ought to prove a formidable challenge to the 38 year old Archie whose 39th birthday will come before the fight.

Talk of Newcombe To St. Louis

Brooklyn, N. Lane likes the "big deal" and he has the Busch beer fortune to back him on any scheme. He's deep in conversation with the Brooklyn Dodger brass and reports have it that Frank would certainly like to bring Big Don Newcombe to the Cardinals. The Dodgers might listen if the price is big enough.

Keep Drawer Knobs Tight

USE of a lock washer can keep a knob screw on a drawer from turning, according to Popular Mechanics. The special washer should be placed between a flat washer and the head of the screw. If it is located against a wooden surface, it will sink into the wood and lose its locking ability. The same principle can be applied to keep wooden knobs tight on the lids of pots and pans.

Traditional House Design From Small Homes Guide

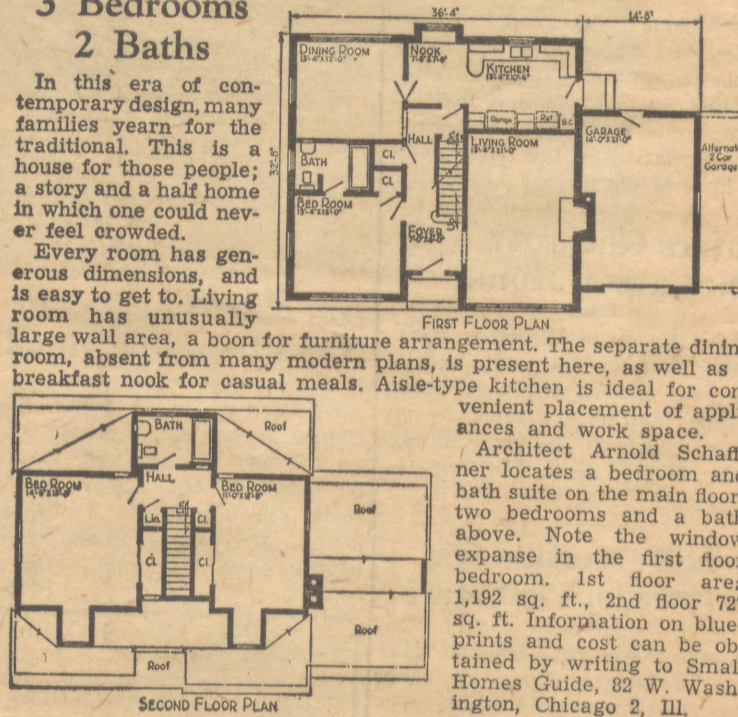

3 Bedrooms 2 Baths

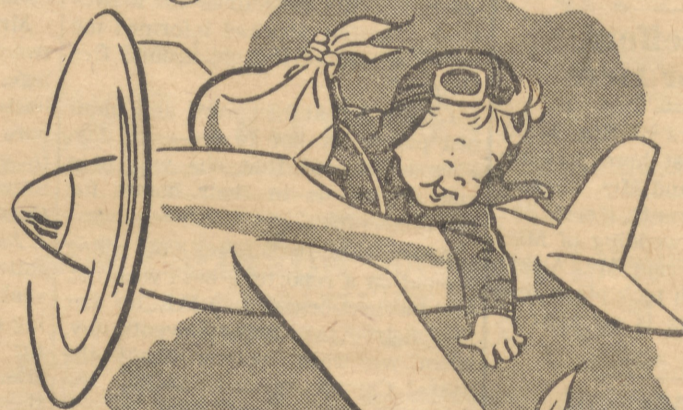

In this era of contemporary design, many families yearn for the traditional. This is a house for those people; a story and a half home in which one could never feel crowded.

Every room has generous dimensions, and is easy to get to. Living room has unusually large wall area, a boon for furniture arrangement. The separate dining room, absent from many modern plans, is present here, as well as a breakfast nook for casual meals. Aisle-type kitchen is ideal for convenient placement of appliances and work space.

Architect Arnold Schaffner locates a bedroom and bath suite on the main floor, two bedrooms and a bath above. Note the window expanse in the first floor bedroom. 1st floor area 1,192 sq. ft., 2nd floor 727 sq. ft. Information on blueprints and cost can be obtained by writing to Small Homes Guide, 82 W.
