Says 'Process of Making South Part of America Is Being Foolishly Sabotaged'

Florence, S. C.—Chief of Police Julian Price, whose men arrested NAACP Washington Bureau Director Clarence Mitchell in February, was in a front seat as a spectator when the latter spoke at a Florence NAACP membership meeting here last week.

Prior to the meeting, the Rev. J. J. Abney, pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, received a telephone call warning him that if the meeting were held in the church it would lose its tax exemption. The meeting was held in the church.

Telephone Calling

When newspapermen asked Mr. Price why he attended the April 22 meeting, he said: "There has been a lot of telephone calling relative to this meeting. I don't want another Alabama or Mississippi incident in South Carolina. That's why I am here."

In his speech, Mr. Mitchell praised Florence citizens who rallied to support him when he was arrested. He condemned the White Citizens Councils as a movement which results in violence of the type used on singer

Nat (iKng) Cole in Birmingham, Ala., recently.

"The process of making the South a part of America is being foolishly sabotaged by those who seek to line up the good people of the area with the forces of lawlessness and disruption."

Right Way Is on the Left—Facing Traffic

The hazards of walking along a road with your back to traffic are receiving special emphasis throughout the state this month.

The May AAA safety poster which the Motor Club of Iowa has distributed to all elementary schools in the area it services bears the warning, "Walk On Left Facing Traffic."

Ask Citizens' Aid In Deciding Time Change-Over Here

Councilman Robert Conley's proposal to put Des Moines on daylight saving time this summer comes up for the second time of its three required readings at the council meeting Monday morning.

Mayor Ray Mills said he hadn't definitely decided whether he favored the time changeover. He urged Des Moines residents to tell him their sentiments, by sending their preference, for or against the changeover, by phone, in letters or on cards.

The measure would make "official time" advance by an hour at 2 a. m. May 20, with the daylight time remaining in effect until 2 a. m. Sept. 23.

Black Middle Class—Again

Washington, D. C.—We appreciated a letter to the Editor of the Journal and Guide (Norfolk and points East), written from Virginia Union University by a Mrs. Olive Layton Harris, in which she disagreed with our comment on E. Franklin Frazier's "Bourgeoisie Noire" and Fred Morrow of the White House staff—Fred has taken the North Carolina "Guardsmen" to task for spending money on a vacation cruise. He thought they should have used it for a more worthy purpose.

Critic's View

Most of Mrs. Harris's long and interesting letter set forth her views—which are shared by many—on what could be accomplished, economically and civically, if only Negroes pooled their resources as a group, and spent less for non-essentials. And, as so often happens, she pointed to the respect which Jews as a people command by virtue of their financial competence.

No Correlation

This is, of course, no correlation between the basically agricultural background of the Negro, and the historically commercial background of the Jewish people, forced off the land, through the centuries, by proscription. By way of the figures, which, unfortunately, will not "substantiate her observations," we have asked Dr. Frazier to send the lady a copy of his Alain Locke Conference address (1955) to which we referred. She will find in it much of the data she seeks.

15th Anniversary Of Series E Bonds

A recent announcement stated that individual Iowans own series E and H United States savings bonds worth more than 1.3 billion dollars.

May 1, 1956, marked the 15th anniversary of series E savings bonds, the most popular investment for individuals in world history. Iowans consistently have been among the heaviest per capita buyers.

During the 15 years, citizens of Iowa have invested well over two billion dollars in series E and H bonds.

Current value of the E and H bonds still held by the owners is estimated at more than $1,300,000,000, which is almost double the amount of Iowa's total bank deposits in 1940, including public funds.

Home Owners, Residents Complain to Yelping Dogs, Odors, Roaming Cats

Property owners and residents in the vicinity of the Animal Rescue League's shelter at 914 Fourteenth street, this week voiced their feelings against the barking of dogs, odor of dead animals and the proposed expansion of the facilities.

Construction of 60 kennels on a permanent basis has been started by the league at its shelter, the city council was told Monday.

Approved

Administrative Assistant Walter Voss quoted the league's managing director, Max D. Finch, as saying the expansion was approved by the board of directors and the league's attorney.

The council agreed informally to investigate the complaints. Voss said Finch earlier last week agreed to hold up the construction but then informed city officials Friday of the decision to begin the project.

Voss said the project also includes remodeling of a house on the property for clinical purposes.

Make Protests

Four Negro residents of the neighborhood appeared before the council last week, complaining that: "You get no sleep. The barking of the dogs won't let you." "I can look right out of my breakfast table window into the pens . . . I have seen them chop heads off of dogs and leave them there." "The odor from dead dogs at the shelter lingered in nearby houses for two or three days."

The council agreed informally to investigate the complaints.

Two members of the neighborhood, Mrs. Hurlie Wyatt, 1323 Crocker street, and Mrs. Sylvester Forrester, 914 Fourteenth street, returned to the city council on Monday to continue their protests.

"They keep telling us that just four residents in the neighborhood are complaining, and now, this week, just two of us," Mrs. Forrester related.

Started 8 Years Ago

"I started about eight years ago making protests about the conditions; and, last summer I thought I was going mad. It was so hot and there were about 150 dogs at the shelter at one time—all barking."

"I have received a number of telephone calls and threats since I started protesting the conditions," Mrs. Forrester revealed.

"After asking me if I was Ruth Forrester, they would say: 'I want you to know that the dogs are as good as you are—and I'll turn every dog on you.'"

Told Police

Mrs. Forrester said: "This really did upset me. I told the police about it and they promised to patrol the district."

"I have told them that we can't move out of this. You won't let us move into your neighborhoods."

"They keep this place on the corner looking like a regular dump—and, I don't appreciate living in a dump. I wasn't born in one," Mrs. Forrester talked.

She related that she was born at Twenty-Eighth Street and Gran Avenue, and after pausing, she queried: "When could I move into the Hamilton Apartments, built on the land on which I was born? Negroes do not live out there now."

Barking Dogs

"It's embarrassing to me. Relatives and friends don't want to come to my house because they can't stand all of those barking dogs."

"We have our home paid for now. If I tried to sell, I couldn't get even

Urge Federal Court to Ask Prince Edward School To End Segregation Now

Richmond, Va.—NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund attorneys asked the Federal court this week to order the Prince Edward School Board to make an immediate start toward desegregation of its public schools. The court was also urged to set the September term as a deadline when integration should start.

The request was made in a motion filed Monday with the Federal District Court in behalf of several Negro students and their parents. The motion called upon the court to issue a permanent injunction prohibiting Prince Edward school officials from using race as the basis of determining admission to the public secondary schools, and to order the School Board to file "interim reports" showing the plans and steps taken toward compliance with the May 31, 1955 Supreme Court implementation decree.

Openly Declared

Prince Edward County was a defendant in the school segregation cases decided by the U. S. Supreme Court in May, 1954. School officials have since openly declared that they will close the schools rather than comply with the Court's mandate.

Attorneys for the Negroes accused county officials of taking no "substantial action toward formulation of policy and plans" to desegregate the classrooms. They charge further that school authorities "will indefinitely continue to do so" unless specifically ordered by the court "to make an immediate start toward desegregation and to complete this by a prescribed period of time."

NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund attorneys for the Negro students and parents are Thurgood Marshall, Director-Counsel of Legal Defense in New York, and Spottswood W. Robinson, III and Oliver W. Hill, of Richmond, Va.

A LA CREOLE
Buttered Spinach
Mexican Corn
Hot Biscuits
Fruit Compote Cookies

INGREDIENTS:
1 1/2 cup butter or margarine
1/3 cup all-purpose flour
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 teaspoon paprika
1 1/2 teaspoon poultry seasoning
1/2 teaspoon black pepper
1 ready-to-cook young chicken, 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 pounds, cut up.
1 cup uncooked white rice
1 cup chopped green pepper
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 1/2 teaspoon black pepper
3 cups hot chicken broth made by cooking backs and neck in water
2 large tomatoes, cut into wedges

METHOD: Light the oven and set at 400°F. Place the butter or margarine in a large all metal skillet, baking pan or baking-dish in which the chicken will be cooked. Place this in the oven until the butter or margarine melts. While the butter or margarine is melting, wash the chicken in cold water. Pat dry. Put the flour, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, paprika, poultry seasoning and 1/2 teaspoon black pepper in paper bag. Add one piece of chicken at a time. Shake bag to thoroughly coat each piece of chicken with the flour mixture. Place the chicken in the hot melted butter or margarine, skin side down. Bake, uncovered, 25 minutes at 400°F.

Arrange rice, green pepper and onion under the chicken, turning the chicken so the skin side is up. Sprinkle the rice with the 1 1/2 teaspoons salt and 1/2 teaspoon black pepper. Slowly pour the hot chicken broth over the rice. Make certain all the rice is under the broth. Arrange the tomato wedges over the chicken and rice.

Return to the 400°F. oven and bake, uncovered, 45 minutes or until the rice is tender. If the mixture becomes too dry, add a small amount of chicken broth or water.

If desired, serve from the dish in which the chicken was baked. This recipe makes 6 servings.

Misquoted Says King Cole; Will Cooperate with NAACP

New York—Singer Nat (King) Cole, told the NAACP this week that he is "in accord with" its work and "shall cooperate . . . to the fullest extent" with "the work that you and all right-thinking organizations are doing to help all of our causes."

Mr. Cole's telegraphed message was received at NAACP national headquarters on April 16. It was in response to an invitation sent to him by Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary, inviting Mr. Cole to enlist in the NAACP and its crusade against racism.

Mr. Cole was attacked by several men on April 10 while performing at the Municipal Auditorium in Birmingham, Ala., allegedly as part of a decision made by White Citizens Councils members to stop "Negro music." The entertainer escaped serious injury, and subsequently said

GOP Not Endorsed, NAACP Is Non-Partisan

New York, April 20.—The NAACP policy is firmly non-partisan and his Chicago speech of April 11 was not a call to Negro voters to support the Republican party, it was declared here April 20 by Roy Wilkins, executive secretary.

"The exact text of the Chicago remarks was not published, but instead interpretations were used," Wilkins said. "A small section of the speech dealt with the fact that Senator James O. Eastland of Mississippi is now chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee and voters were called upon to consider this and other problems with the suggestion that if necessary we might help our brothers in the South by the way we vote in the North."

"The NAACP is firmly non-partisan. That policy will be continued and observed by me. The civil rights issue is squarely in the national political spotlight and every statement upon it is viewed politically by partisans of both major parties. We run a risk whenever we urge any type of action on this issue, but it is a risk we take without giving allegiance to either party. We believe it our duty to keep pounding for civil rights, seeking action by both parties on the bills now before Congress."

he will no longer perform in the Deep South.

On April 18 maximum penalties were given to four of Mr. Cole's attackers by a Birmingham municipal judge. The defendants received sentences of at least 108 days in jail and fines of $100 and costs. Two other attackers are awaiting trial in Birmingham on charges of assault with intent to murder. The latter charge carries a penalty of from two to 20 years in prison.

In his message to the NAACP, Mr. Cole stated he was misquoted in "certain newspapers" that he would not support the NAACP. "They are utterly wrong in saying this," he declared.

'Some Children Have Periods When They Are Bothered by Having Their Parents Leave

BY LLOYD LOVELL

Mrs. Hughes was exasperated and embarrassed. "Oh! I just don't know what's got into that child. She never used to act this way with babysitters, but the last few times we've tried to go out, she's just had fits! I'm afraid we'll just have to stay home. Mr. Hughes will take you home, and I'll pay you for the time you would have been here. Honestly, I don't know what to do—it just makes me seethe, but I can't just tell her that we're students."

The present grant to the Negro College Fund raises to $150,000 the total given that organization by U. S. Steel Foundation since 1954. That year, the Foundation gave $100,000 to the setup of capital funds effort. The balance has gone to operating expenses. The 1956 grant raises the previous level of contributions to the current operating expenses of the member schools.

General Conditions

In making these grants, the Steel Foundation took cognizance of the general conditions needing financial aid in the total educational framework of the country, according to Roger M. Blough, chairman of both the Foundation and U. S. Steel Corporation.

"The increasing student population and the too-long deferred attention being given to physical needs," Mr. Blough said, "point to a potentially serious situation. This has been reflected in the urgent appeals for capital grants which have been received from hundreds of institutions."

The United Negro College Fund, of which Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, former president of Tuskegee Institute is chairman, is now in the midst of an annual effort to raise more than $2,000,000 for Negro college operations. The work of the Fund is divided into efforts to secure aid for both current operations and long-range endowments.

going out, and then go out, when she gets so upset about it, can I?"

"The babysitter smiled sympathetically. 'Some children just seem to have periods when they're especially bothered by having their parents leave,' she said."

Things That Might Help

"Even those who used to be just fine seem to get upset sometimes. But there are some things that might help. Some time when you want to go out, I might come over early, so I can just sort of be around while she's getting undressed, and then maybe I can help tuck her into bed. That way I can do things in the way that she's used to having them done at bedtime, and she'll get used to my being here at her bedtime. I have a couple of little toys that I could bring over for her to play with before she gets ready for bed, too. You might tell me about any things that she especially likes to do, that she doesn't often get to do, and I could do them with her."

Mrs. Hughes thought these were good suggestions. "But what if we do all of these things and she still fusses?" she asked.

"Well, perhaps you can be gentle but very firm in explaining that it's something that you and your husband want very much to go to. You can explain that I'll telephone you if anything happens. She may fuss a time or two, but I think she'll soon be less unhappy about knowing that you're going out."

The Hugheses found that these suggestions didn't work an immediate cure, but they did help to smooth the problem. They also noticed that having the same sitter as much as possible made it easier for their daughter. A little extra attention at supper and bedtime helped, too, as did their matter-of-fact attitude about going out. Eventually their leaving became more casual both for them and for their daughter.

Beware of covetousness, for a man's life consists not in the abundance of the things which he possesses.—(St. Luke 12, 15.)

The greatest of all human possessions is within everyone's reach, the easiest to acquire, and the most lasting—for it is peace of soul and mind, gained through loving God with all one's heart, thus to receive His love, without which worldly wealth is ashes.

enough out of it to make a down payment. My boy (Sylvester, Jr.) was trying to get a place out on Twenty-Sixth street. It was an old dilapidated house—no sidewalks—the basement you couldn't even stand up in. They wanted that boy to pay $10,000! They (white families) can buy a brand new house for $8,500. We have to pay dear for these old homes the other people have worn out.

"Now they have put the dogs in with us; and, they tell us that this property isn't fit for anything else." Mrs. Forrester talked, wearily.

Express Opinions

Some other residents in the vicinity of the league's shelter expressed their opinions about the conditions that exist in neighborhoods in which Negro residents are almost forced to live.

Mrs. W. M. Wilkinson, 951 Fifteenth Street: "I do think something should be done. I never did approve of having the Animal Rescue League shelter there. If it was on the other side (referring to white residential areas) it would have been moved long ago. Just because it is a colored neighborhood they just don't care. When the wind blows, we have been saying that what we smell was the packing house, when all of the time it could be that (dog shelter). Of course, the packing house is a long ways from here."

Nerve Wrecking

Mrs. Helen Wimberly, 1127 Eleventh Street: "Many times I hear those dogs barking early in the morning. I have thought how nerve wrecking it must be to those people who live in that neighborhood. I think it is terrible that they have to put up with it and I feel that if the shelter were in a different section of the city, there would be no quibbling about it; it would have been put on the outskirts long ago. I think it is just terrible that it is kept there."

Mrs. G. W. Robinson, Sr., 1009 Twelfth Street: "It is meanness for them to keep the dogs in town in an area where people live."

Mrs. Adam B. Johnson, Sr., 1112 Fourteenth Street: "I feel that it is terrible to have all of that in a neighborhood where people live. You can't sleep. It should be moved out. It is just like making a dump in your front yard. I hear the barking at night, in the summer time,

Joseph Lovejoy Seeks Sheriff Post in Election

Joseph E. Lovejoy, 1658 E. Walnut st., 44 year old Furniture Company owner in Lee Township, has

A resident of East Des Moines over forty years, Lovejoy is married and has three children. He is a veteran, having served with the U. S. Marine Corps in World War II. He was employed by the U. S. Postoffice for nineteen years until going into the furniture business.

Lovejoy Furniture Co., 1658 E. Walnut st. He graduated from St. Peter's parochial school and Dowling High school.

Mr. Lovejoy has been an active member of the American Legion, Forty & Eight club and Local No. 44 NFPOC.

Luka to Seek Coroner Post

Dr. Leo D. Luka, 45, osteopathic physician and surgeon and Wilden Osteopathic Hospital pathologist, announced Thursday he will seek the Democratic nomination for Polk county coroner in the June 4 primary.

Dr. Luka, 3026 Wright street, was acting coroner in 1949 and 1950. He attended Wartburg College, Drake University and Still College of Osteopathy and Surgery. He did graduate work at Still and near Vienna, Austria.

Dr. Luka is married and the father of two children. He belongs to the Moose lodge and county, state and national osteopathic societies.

just bad. Animals are all right but you don't want them under your nose. If you wanted sell you couldn't get anything for your property. This is all we have and it has taken years to get. I'm in favor of them moving it."

Dogs Yelping

A. P. Trotter, 934 Fourteenth St.: "Anybody who is trying to sleep, I don't see how they can do it. Even this past Monday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock you could hear the dogs yelping. Maybe, people are not trying to rest at that hour, but it's certainly disturbing. What I'm favorable to is getting a court order. We discussed it in one of our meetings this week. They bring all of the dogs in front of the people. Already, this has killed all of our property in this neighborhood."

Mrs. Oscar Lewis, 1009 Fourteenth Street: "I don't think it very wise to have those dogs in residential areas. You can hear them squealing up as far as I live and when the wind blows you can smell the odor. I think it is ridiculous. They should be moved out. People have been kicking for years and it is too bad that something can't be done. They wouldn't do it to people living in other neighborhoods."

Should Be Moved

Mrs. Marie Kiser, 1106 School Street: "I've heard the dogs barking and I do think that they should

Seats Going Fast For Belafonte in 'Sing Man, Sing'

Seats were going fast this week for the Harry Belafonte appearance in "Sing, Man, Sing", to be staged at KRNT Theater Thursday night, May 10, at 8:30 o'clock.

The musical show, starring Belafonte, is a revue told in three acts by a company of 45. Celebrated as a folk singer, Belafonte will offer hilarious calypsos, poignant spirituals, love songs.

Members of the cast are: Belafonte, "The Prophet" and as "He," Margaret Tynes as "She," Mary Hinkson as "Dancing She," Alvin Ailey as "Dancing He," Michael Evans as "The Observer," Ken Clifford as "Big City Man," Art Dikks as "The Buddy," and in the chorus of "They" are Joe Boatner, Dorcyce Brown, Betty Chretien, William Glover, Peg Hadley, Neal Kenyon, Cynthia Misrock, Vicki Panvini, Howard Roberts and Greta Wolff.

Guitarists are: Millard Thomas and Frantz Casseus. Musician numbers will include: "Creation," "I Need She," "We'll Call It Love," "Man Smart," "The Blues Is the Man," "I Don't Give A Damn," "Contagious," "The Flood," in act one.

"Hosanna," "Wedding Song," "Eden Was Like This," "Big City Story," "There Is A Sound," in act two; and "Shenandoah," "John Henry," "Jump Down, Spin Around," and "I Found Me," will make up act three.

be moved to some outlying district. I'm sure that they wouldn't have all of that out in a white neighborhood."

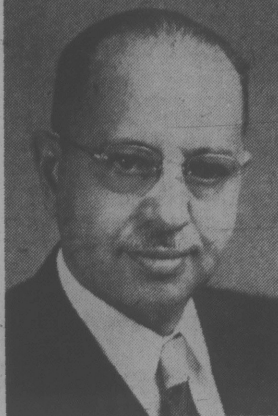

Rev. J. R. Reese, pastor of Kyles AME Zion Church, 907 Fifteenth Street: "From what they say, I don't think I would like to live next to it. I think it should be moved. It would be better."

Mrs. Rose Brooks, 1303 Crocker Street: "The dogs are really annoying. I have roomers and they can't rest. I'm definitely for the removal of them; and I'm definitely against it in the neighborhood."

Cats Roamed

Rev. E. N. Warren, 955 Fourteenth Place: "I wrote a letter to the council about a year ago to correct some things (at the shelter). The neighborhood got infested with cats. I think people were bringing cats and dogs to the neighborhood at night and expecting the rescue league to catch them. There were a lot of stray dogs and cats running through the neighborhood. I know it (shelter)

Morrow Appraiser For Highway Work

F. O. MORROW

F. O. Morrow, 709 Boyd street, of the real estate firm of Morrow and Son, was appointed recently to serve as an appraiser for primary No. 117 road work in Jasper County.

An appraiser from each county through which the highway passes was named by Ed Scoville, sheriff of Jasper County. The appointment was in recognition of Mr. Morrow's knowledge gained over a long period of time as a dealer in real estate.

shouldn't be in a residential area, but I don't think anything can be accomplished unless the people go at it the right way—see if the neighborhood is zoned for it and get a lot of petitions. You've got to get an attorney to look into it."

Mrs. French Brown, Jr., 933 Fourteenth Place: "I hear those dogs barking and they almost run me crazy. In the summer when all of the windows are up, the dogs wake you up about 4:30 o'clock in the mornings. It is just so funny that they have something like that in our residential area. We have to take what we can get in a neighborhood. I don't feel that we should have those dogs, too. It's just terrible and something should be done about it."

Mrs. Guy E. Greene, 1412 Center Street: "I would like to see the Animal Rescue League's shelter go out of the neighborhood. It should be moved to the outskirts of the city. Right now, we have a nuisance of cats—and we would like to get rid of them."

Mrs. Ollie Holmes, 1324 Day St.: "Some mornings all of the dogs get to barking at once. I don't think a place like that should be in a neighborhood where people have to live. I think it should be out on the edge of town. Certainly, they wouldn't put it in any of the white neighborhoods."

John M. Estes, Sr., 811 Fourteenth Street: "I would not want to live in a neighborhood with all of those dogs. I would not want them around in any neighborhood where people have to live." Residents plan to continue their protests to the city council next Monday morning.

Jackie Dares Anyone To Drop Ball on Him

New York (CNS)—The Dodgers picked up against the New York Giants from where they left off last year. But especially was it good to see the "young" Jackie Robinson out there on the base paths as daring as ever.

Jackie stole home—his nineteenth steal of home since entering the major leagues. Some disputed Jackie reaching home safely, but the "old" Robinson's tongue was quick to answer: "I made my bluff and when I saw Hearn (Giant pitcher) start pumping a second time, I just kept going, that's all. And I'm not saying anything else. But don't let anyone drop a ball on me. If they do, I run their pants off."

Robbie here was referring to Dusty Rhodes' momentary bobble of the ball in the 7th when Jackie scooted to second.

All you human creatures of nature who have been enjoying that sweet sleep, at least until the light of day arrives each morning, might drop the Des Moines city council a letter to that effect before next Monday—or, if all goes the way of the council—you will be waking up the birds on the city's new daylight-saving time schedule.

Seems like this is an era of new schedules for doing the same old thing. By the time you get used to one routine and have it working well, some special interest groups come along and change everything. No wonder there is so much confusion—so much mental breakdown in our cities today. Much of it is the result of unfair legislation—and the poor working person is a puppet, tossed from pillar to post in his daily battle for an existence on this earth.

Since the beginning of time—"God called the light day—and the darkness He called night." That should be the best schedule for man—bird—and beast.

Residents from the area of the Animal Rescue League's shelter house at 914 Fourteenth street plan to return to the city council next Monday morning to continue their protests against "nerve-wrecking" barking of the many dogs at the shelter, the dog odor that permeates the neighborhood, the building of sixty more kennels in the block.

If you are any of the residents who have been annoyed and disturbed, write your complaint to the city council; or better, yet, be at the city council meeting at the city hall next Monday morning.

A travel note arrived recently from Mr. Oval Carter of 1180 Fourteenth street, who had stopped in Birmingham, Ala., at the swank A. G. Gaston Motel, "designed with a traveler's comfort in mind," the picture folder of the motel advertised.

Operated by A. G. Gaston, a Birmingham Negro business man, the motel featured: thirty-two units (double and single), completely equipped restaurant, spacious parking court, beautiful patio, telephone in each room, beautifully appointed

Benefit Dinner in Detroit Grosses NAACP $31,000

Detroit—With the support of the city's top leadership in the professions, industry, politics, business and organized labor, the Detroit branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People took in more than $31,000 at a $100-a-couple dinner meeting here last week.

The dinner, organized by the popular Detroit physician, Dr. Alf E. Thomas, Jr., chairman of the branch's Fight for Freedom Fund drive, was attended by more than 600 persons who turned out to hear addresses by Thurgood Marshall, NAACP special counsel, and Hobson Reynolds, director, civil liberties department of the Grand Lodge of Elks.

Brilliant Affair

The brilliant affair set a precedent being the first large-scale $100 dinner promoted by a group of civic-minded Negro leaders for the benefit of the NAACP or a similar organization. In New York, Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary, expressed the hope that the Detroit dinner would inspire branches in other cities to hold such affairs.

Dr. Thomas and members of his committee, the NAACP leader sent "a special word of thanks and congratulations" and said that "the goal we all seek is nearer because of the dedication of the people gathered at this Freedom Fund dinner of the Detroit branch of the NAACP."

A group of twelve couples served as sponsors of the dinner, each contributing $300 in addition to the price of their dinners. In addition to Dr. and Mrs. Thomas, the sponsors included Dr. and Mrs. W. H. M. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Melvin Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Howell, Dr. and Mrs. Guy Saulsbury, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Ralston, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Preston, Dr. and Mrs. B. T. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Thomas, Dr. and Mrs. Rudolph Porter, and Dr. and Mrs. Edgar Keemer.

The dinner was held on April 15 at Detroit's famed Latin Quarter. Edward M. Turner is president of the branch and Arthur Johnson is executive secretary.

Katherine Dunham in Las Vegas, Gillespie Touring Mid-East Making Friends for United States

BY DOLORES CALVIN
New York—(CNS)—Mr. Johnson closing on Broadway despite critics' raves. "Mr. Johnson" which has been a magnificent vehicle for the talents of Earle Hyman—and one of the few touching stories with a race theme in many a moon—is closing May 5.

It opened March 29 to good reviews by the hard New York critics but it still couldn't make the grade.

Josephine Premice is another race star we'll be sad to see leave because of the close-down. She, too, was having a "field day" in her first straight dramatic role plus she was getting a cut-in on the profits. All involved in "Mr. Johnson" had made a beautiful production of the play. Perhaps it just didn't catch on because of its theme—a tragedy involving a happy and carefree government worker in the West Indies who becomes torn between love for his people and trying to do his job for the white man.

Ironically, "Mr. Wonderful"—the Sammy Davis starrer—which didn't get good reviews seems to be holding its own. It's playing to good audiences all because Sammy sells the musical.

Katherine Dunham in Las Vegas with her troupe. She's sharing the lights with the Lillian "I'll Cry Tomorrow" Roth. Hazel Scott doing quick bookings though she's more than filled up. Count Basie to Chicago's Blue Note.

Dizzie Gillespie's tour through the Mid-East for the State Department is doing just what the top brass had hoped—making friends for Uncle Sam. The 18 piece jazz band has been playing to packed houses at $2 and $3 a seat and this is supposed to be the highest amount ever paid to hear a concert in these parts—jazz or otherwise. Dizzy and his men are on their way now to Ankara, Turkey before doing Yugoslavia and Greece before heading home.

Store-front churches in Harlem willing to pay cash to get radio time. Only independent radio stations give time to the major churches. . . . Maybe someone will take their money, before long.

Green Pastures—remember it in the good-old-days with Richard B. Harrison—will be one of CBS's spectaculars in '57. Just who will star is not known. . . . If only Harrison could have lived to do "De Lawd" for this generation.

And speaking of Nat King Cole, Paramount is rushing for release "The Scarlet Hour" since Nat is a featured "guest star" in the flicker. It will get an across the board treatment, playing from the coast to Philadelphia and include Atlanta, Ga. . . . Nat, meanwhile, will go on to Chicago from Ed Sullivan's telecast to rest.

Ink Spots on a new kick. Still calling themselves "America's No. 1 Quartet"—only we ask which "Ink Spots". . . .

SUPPORT THE UNITED NEGRO COLLEGE FUND DRIVE

The United Negro College Fund has begun its fifth annual drive. Des Moines is asked to raise fifty-five hundred dollars, the same goal as that of last year even though the national goal has been increased from one million seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, the sum set for last year to two million in 1956.

Since the Supreme Court decision in 1954 outlawing segregation in public school, there are those who felt that the United Negro College Fund drives would not be needed.

This is far from correct. After all, 90% of the Negroes are in the south. The thirty-one accredited schools included in the fund serve most of them and even though integration is the law, it will require a long period of time to get Negroes into the white schools which could not accommodate all of them anyway.

Then, too, white students will be going to some of these thirty-one schools so the rule will work both ways.

Heretofore, these schools have made individual solicitations in order to supplement their income. The United Negro College Fund proposes to raise about ten per cent of the annual budget of the member schools. The plan is more efficient and less cumbersome.

Most organizations and many individuals will be called on as usual to help make the 1956 effort successful. Des Moines has done a good job in the past. Let there be no let down this year.

****
If ever the old saying, a drowning man grabs at straws, fitted a situation it is the effort upon the part of the enemies of racial equality to discredit the Negro and that grand organization, the NAACP, which has spearheaded the movement which has brought the whole system to a head.

SEGREGATIONISTS GRABBING AT STRAWS

The latest move is the outlawing of the NAACP in Louisiana. Unfortunately the NAACP, operating on the theory that a law abiding organization would not be classed along with the Klu Klux Klan and thus was not subject to the same penalties, was caught in the net. But unlike the southern diaphanous, they obey the law as laid down by Louisiana courts until such time as the case can be decided by an appellate court.

Then, too, these same folks continue to complain about interference by outsiders with their system which has enabled Negroes and whites to get along together in the south; there are others, even some, in the north, who fear that integration is being pushed too fast; that gradualism should be the best method of dealing with the situation.

Negroes and their friends have worked at this job gradually for ninety years and they realize that unless the tempo is stepped up, it will take ninety more to get results. They know that every step of the way has been made in the face of opposition from those who opposed the enjoyment of these rights; that every community may take a different period of time to do the job. But they are opposed to those who are not willing to begin to obey the law realizing that delay means never.

Fortunately, the NAACP and its followers have been on the side of law and order while their opponents have been on the side of mob violence, economic sanctions and refusal to abide by the law as laid down by the courts.

The NAACP has been forced to finance this fight out of its treasury while the opposition has used tax money, paid in part, by Negroes themselves, to try to stem the tide.

The fight will go on. It must go on for the south has an element grabbing at straws as the tide of the Negro rights. Yes, they tion," Mr. Mitchell declared.

Expressed Regret

Chief Price, who is said to be a member of the White Citizens Councils, expressed regret for the arrest on Feb. 7, explaining that he was out of town when the incident occurred.

Mr. Mitchell was arrested on that date when he attempted to enter a Florence railway station waiting room. Although no signs designated the room as "whites only," three local policemen took Mr. Mitchell and the Rev. Horace Sharper of Sumter, S. C., to the local police station. The two men were charged with resisting an officer in performance of his duty, but the charges were dropped.

provisions in the New Yorker's measure and is a good bill," Mr. Wilkins asserted.

The hostility of the southerners in the Rules Committee, including that of the chairman, Representative Howard W. Smith (D., Va.), "need not be an insurmountable obstacle provided northern Democrats and Republicans cooperate, as they did in the Judiciary Committee, to get the bill to the House floor. Only through such cooperation," the NAACP leader said, "can we hope to achieve our legislative goal."

Proposals

The Administration bill which, as far as it goes, is practically identical with Mr. Celler's proposals provides for:

1. Establishment of a bi-partisan commission on civil rights;
2. Creation of a new civil rights division within the Justice Department;
3. Protection of the right to vote;
4. Authority for the Attorney General to institute suits involving civil rights violations instead of leaving it to the aggrieved person as the law now provides; and
5. Direct action in federal courts on civil rights complaints which now have to be first heard by state courts.

The NAACP, Mr. Wilkins declared, "is depending upon both parties to carry the ball in the fight for civil rights which is a non-partisan objective in which every American has a stake."

"way back," and were reared integrated, in "Old Cambridge," around the corner from Harvard, where ostentation is still considered one of the seven deadly sins. We agree completely that it has no place in culture, but know that this is a lesson which must be learned by all "rising" people, black or white—and there are as many kinds of Negroes, culturally speaking, as there are of any other group.

The appointment of Dr. Frank M. Jumping the Bus Decision Gun
Faces all over town were red, last week, as desegregation-happy reporters, rushing too fast on the Supreme Court's order dismissing the South Carolina bus company's appeal, jumped to the conclusion that another nail has been driven in the transportation-segregation coffin—and put every paper in the town on the spot!

What the Court did, as its reference to a similar case (non-racial), Slaker v. Connor, was to rule the appeal "frivolous" because it had been brought before the Supreme Court before a lower court decision had become final. At this point—as lawyers here unanimously agree—all else is assumption and wishful thinking. In all likelihood, however, the Fleming Bus Case will work its way back to the Supreme Court, properly channeled, before long.

In the meantime, bus companies, correctly reading the handwriting on the wall, are moving toward integration by declining to enforce segregation. Which is progress.

Hank Aaron May Win National League Batting Crown

New York.—Hank Aaron, the Milwaukee Braves' sensational young right fielder, is the man to beat for the National League batting crown, the new issue of Look Magazine predicts.

Aaron, a 22-year-old Negro from Mobile, Alabama, fashioned a 1955 batting average of .314, tying him for fifth in his record big-league season. Hank is a "3-L hitter," Look says, "lean, loose and lethal. His batting secret is his supple, powerful wrists."

HEALTH FOR ALL

A BREATH OF AIR

"It's a great place to visit, but I wouldn't live there if you paid me." Those classic words have been spoken by many a country or small town dweller returning home after a visit to the city. The next words usually are: "I couldn't get a breath of fresh air."

For at least a hundred years people have complained about the city air, that irritating mixture of industrial fumes, smoke from thousands of home chimneys, with a small proportion of oxygen. The "black fogs" of London were famous long before modern "smog" descended upon us. Of course, the fumes of today seem to have special qualities. What came out of Grandpa's chimney didn't melt the nylon stockings off Grandma's legs. But then she didn't have nylons.

Air Pollution

Today, the problem of air pollution is spreading outside the city limits. Many new factories are being located in the country and in small towns. Exhaust gases of cars, trucks, and buses are borne on the bucolic breeze. Unless country people who treasure their clean air do something to prevent pollution, they may be driven to live in cities like Pittsburgh and St. Louis which have done something about cleaning up the air.

There are preventive measures that work. Almost 50 years ago it was discovered that electrical precipitation of industrial gas could help prevent air pollution, as well as recover valuable by-products. Chimney filters and "scrubbers" can be used by industry. Householders can be urged not to burn trash. Efforts can be made to locate atomic energy plants where there will be the least danger of adding radioactive dust to the problem.

The problem of getting and keeping clean air in this industrial age is far from simple. Scientific research hasn't yet found all the answers. But communities can keep air contamination to a minimum by a cooperative effort using all the knowledge now available.

Not a Wetter Saturday For Drake Relays

We doubt very much if there was ever a wetter Saturday for the Drake Relays than last week. Friday was a nice day except that the temperature kept dropping and made the last two hours uncomfortable.

In the broad jump the critics or dopsters didn't give Lewis Watkins of Lincoln U., Jefferson City, much more than an outside chance. But the guy took off with the fourth best jump in Relay history and wound up in front. Hank Philmon of Iowa State, winner at Kansas, was third. Don't know if the committee ever threshed out his eligibility. If he is declared out because of a six weeks term at another school, that would put Philmon second.

Wheeler's Race

Ted Wheeler of Iowa turned in the first of his great race to give Iowa a victory in the sprint medley. Caesar Smith demonstrated that he isn't out of place by holding his own with the best.

Iowa State with Philmon running first and Graves anchoring qualified in the four-forty relay, but a pulled muscle by Hank ruined whatever chance the Cyclones may have had to pick up medals.

Jones in Second

Iowa's Deacon Jones who was expected to win the mile didn't do any better than second and didn't seem to mind it a bit. Aside from Aubrey Lewis of Notre Dame, a muscular halfback who got second in the quarter-mile hurdles, Negroes were shut out in the special events. Lewis also helped his school to place in the short relays.

Iowa U. lost a chance to win three relays when Smith started his anchor bid of the mile relay too soon and couldn't keep his pace to the tape. So the Hawks finished second.

Saturday in the cold rain Iowa brought up a medley relay team in which Cap Ennis and Caesar Smith ran their legs off, but were in fourth place when the long Wheeler got the baton. It was the same old story. Ted leading the Notre Dame anchor man, a five-miler, to the tape and we concluded that three quarters of a mile wasn't Caesar's distance.

THE NIGHT IS DARK

The night is dark
And the street is wet
With a softly falling rain.
The street lights glow
In a yellow row
Like flowers along a lane.
And coming home
In the silvery mist
With the cool wind in my hair,
I cannot help but lift my face
And whisper a little prayer.
Dear God, when the night is

PRAYER

Lord—in the darkness of this night, pray wilt Thou guide—keep us right.
Then shall we journey by Thy star to lead us as we travel far...
Lord—keep our hearts, forever true,
our sore-tried souls will then endure;
through every test this world will try until we meet with Thee—on high...

Course at YWCA To Begin May 8

A Refresher Golf Course for women golfers is being announced by the Y.W.C.A. Scheduled for members of winter and spring golf classes at the "Y" and other experienced golf-medley. He simply stayed right on the heels of the leader than ran away in the stretch.

Oh yes, in that record-breaking century, Covington of Northwestern finished third, a mile and a half behind the leaders.

After the hundred, everybody who had any sense went home and those who did stay tried to get into the press box.

High School Section

There wasn't too much action in the high schools. Tech's Morton Graves got, you guessed it, third place in the broad jump. That boy will have the biggest collection of third place medals you ever saw. North High stood out in the prep circles like a sore thumb and made the best marks of the local schools. We would like to mention names, but our program got so soaked and so did our copy of the results that we usually copy from.

In the grade school shuttle scramble, we mean race, it was fun to see the schools of Irwin and Crocker race out in front, as it was to watch the kids in the junior high relays.
