Wilkins Warns Both Major Parties

Named Assistant County Attorney Here

ATTY. WILLIE STEVENSON GLANTON

Mrs. Glanton Believed to Be First Woman Assistant County Attorney Here

Believed to be the first woman ever appointed as assistant county attorney in Des Moines is Mrs. Willie Stevenson Glanton, whose appointment was announced June 26 by County Attorney Leo Tapscoff.

She will succeed her husband, Luther T. Glanton, Jr., whose resignation as an assistant county attorney was effective June 30.

Glanton is resigning to enter full-time private law practice. He and Mrs. Glanton, 32, have a law office at 926 Ninth Street.

"Ability"

The appointment of Mrs. Glanton, who was admitted to the bar Oct. 10, 1953, was to be submitted by Tapscoff Tuesday to the board of supervisors for approval.

Officials said she is believed to be the first woman ever appointed an assistant county attorney.

Tapscoff said he selected Mrs. Glanton "on the basis of her ability, competency and qualification as a lawyer."

Work

He said all child desertion cases will be handled by her as well as other work of the office. Mrs. Glanton's salary will be $4,680 a year.

Born in Hot Springs, Ark., Mrs. Glanton received her bachelor of science degree in 1942 from Tennessee State University at Nashville, Tenn. She received her law degree in 1948 from the Robert H. Terrell Law School in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Glanton was a legal assistant for J. Flippen Derriotte of Washington, D. C., from 1948 to 1951.

Moved Here

She moved to Des Moines in 1951.

Texans Sue Unions For $500,000

Houston, Texas.—A suit asking $500,000 damages and a permanent injunction against alleged discrimination by Sheffield Steel Corp. and the United Steel Workers union was filed in federal court Friday by five Negroes.

The plaintiffs allege the company and the union entered into a discriminatory contract that has provided separate lines of progression and seniority for white employees and for Negroes.

The suit alleges this is an "attempt to relegate the plaintiffs to the most menial and least remunerative positions."

Confirmation of New Des Moines Job Discrimination Commission is Delayed

Des Moines' first commission on Job Discrimination ran into difficulty in the city council meeting Monday with a letter from David R. Miller, president of Peanut Products Co., one of the five men named recently by Mayor Ray Mills for appointment on the commission.

No vote was taken at this meeting with all five councilmen present. A week ago, a motion to appoint the five-member commission failed on a tie vote, 2 to 2.

Letter

"If the entire commission can not be approved by unanimous vote of the city council, please consider this letter as granting permission to withdraw my name as an appointee," Miller wrote to Mills.

"I want it clearly understood," Mills said, "that the (prospective) appointments were discussed with the city council (informally before its formal session) two weeks ago."

Councilman Allan W. Denny said he was not present at that time. Mills replied that such a matter could not be delayed because of the absence of a councilman.

Turk

A week ago, Denny and Councilman Charles F. Iles voted against appointment of the five men proposed by Mills, who was absent. Councilman Robert E. Conley made the motion for the appointments, and Councilman Frank W. McGowan supported him.

"I think there is only one (prospective) member who is strong labor, if that is what the inference is," Conley said Monday.

The one, he said, was Sam Turk, a labor co-ordinator.

Others

Conley added that James T. Caffrey, of the rubber works union, another prospective appointee, was in the Good Government Association. He added that the wife of Luther T. Glanton, Jr., an attorney also proposed for appointment, also was active in the association.

(Joseph A. LaCava, an advertising agency executive, was the fifth prospective appointee.)

Conley and McGowan were opposed for election by candidates sponsored by the Good Government group.

"I think it's a slap in the face to these people when their names are brought up (for appointment) and they're slapped around like they were last week," Conley said, referring to the vote.

Race Problem Seen More Important Than A-Bomb Or Juvenile Delinquency

New York.—The race problem, a recently-completed national survey discloses, is considered more important by the American public than the atom bomb, international hostility, juvenile delinquency, or any other problem. It is the most frequently mentioned problem in the U.S. today.

In the second of a series of articles based on the first national race problem survey, the July Catholic Digest reveals that North and South, Negroes and whites combined, the Negro-White problem is viewed as most important by 45% of those interviewed. Juvenile delinquency trails far behind with only 36% considering it most important, while 32% regard the atom bomb as the big problem.

While more than half of the northern whites and Negroes of both sections think of the problem in terms of white prejudice, fear, and hatred, (and the resulting discrimination and inequality), only about one-fourth of southern whites would accept a definition along these lines.

Nearly half the southern whites think that the real problem is segregation. In response to the query "What would you say seems to be standing most in the way of solving the Negro-White problem today?", prejudice is the obstacle named by most people, even among southern whites. But, in the opinion of Negroes and northern whites, the southern whites themselves are the second most serious obstacle.

"Major Difficulty"

Among southern whites, although 24% see "prejudice" as the major difficulty, 14% think desegregation blocks a solution, and 10% say it is "agitation and publicity".

Most people also, the Catholic Digest survey shows, think the race problem a difficult one to solve. The definition "hard problem" was given by 86% of northern whites; 88% of southern whites; 81% of the northern Negroes, and 72% of southern Negroes.

Negroes; however, are much more

National Boy Scouts Jamboree July 12 at Valley Forge

The 1957 Boy Scout Jamboree Committee of the Tall Corn Area Council has begun the preliminary spadework on the project of preparing to send six troops and leaders to a National Jamboree July 12th-18th at Valley Forge next year. The Tall Corn Area Council encompasses Polk, Boone, Jasper, Poweshiek, Madison, Warren, Dallas, Guthrie, Tama, Hardin, Marshall and Story counties.

This committee held its first meeting June 21 noon at the Shrine Club in Des Moines. Members will attempt to recruit 222 boys and 18 leaders for this fourth National Boy Scout Jamboree.

Phases of the project discussed at the first meeting included transportation financing, leadership and troop selection. It was also decided that applications for the Jamboree will be available through the Council Commissioner's staff after July 14.

A preliminary estimate has made that total cost per boy to attend the Jamboree will be less than 300.

Dr. Bunche Would Live In Washington Now

New York City, N. Y.—The Hon. Ralph Bunche, Under Secretary of the United Nations, on March 14, 1955, when interviewed by the "C.I.O. News" was asked this question: Reporter:

Q. "You said in 1950 that you would not live in Washington, D. C., because of the discrimination prevalent then. Would you live there today?"

Dr. Bunche: A. "The answer is yes. If my work took me to Washington, I would live there. There have been some remarkable changes in Washington. The restaurants, theatres, hotels—and now the schools—are opening up to Negroes."

Call for End to Racial Bias in Housing Market

Omaha, Neb. — Congregational Christians June 26, called for an end to racial discrimination in the housing market.

The church's general council asked steps to "promote racial inclusiveness" in denominational colleges and other institutions.

Delegates representing 1,350,000 Christians also took these other actions:

Declared no federal officer "should be given power to adjudicate organizations or citizens as subversive."

Urged congressional committees to "safeguard the civil liberties" of witnesses, including giving them the right to face any accusers.

Condemned special "loyalty oaths" as a requirement for employment, residence in public housing or other citizen privileges.

Asked American leadership in achieving a "substantial reduction of armaments" with "safeguards against evasion of agreements."

Opposed "any intensification of nuclear weapons tests that would

Six Men Arrested In Dice Game

Police said they broke up a dice game in the 600 block on E. Livingston Avenue Friday night and arrested six men on charges of unlawful assembly. Each was fined $10 by Municipal Judge Ray Harrison.

Patrolmen in a squad car discovered the game when they noticed a large gathering and stopped to investigate.

The men and the addresses they gave:

San Francisco Thronged By 1,000 Negro and White Delegates from 38 States

San Francisco, Calif. — With the conventions of the major political parties at hand, Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary, warned that Negroes would demand "strong civil rights planks in the platforms of both major parties" in an address at the closing session of the Association's 47th annual convention here July 1.

"Because much has happened since 1952, these planks must be much stronger than those of four years ago," he told the 1,000 NAACP delegates as they prepared to depart for their homes in 38 states across the nation.

Open Defiance

"We now have the Supreme Court decision in the school cases, and the rulings on public recreation and travel discrimination," the NAACP leader pointed out.

"We have had Montgomery, Alabama, with all of its implications. We have had open defiance of the Supreme Court and the Constitution. We have had nullification resolutions and a congressional manifesto insulting the highest court in the land and advocating virtual rebellion.

New Situation

These developments, Mr. Wilkins declared, have created a new situation calling for affirmative action. "No party platform that ignores these developments and pretends that 1956 is the same as 1952 can command the allegiance of Negro voters and of other Americans who love their country," he asserted.

"It will not be sufficient to state that the Supreme Court has spoken and that its decision is the law of the land," he warned. "There must be a declaration pledging affirmative action to see that the Court's decision is made effective, that prompt beginning in good faith are made toward school desegregation. The use of the power and prestige of the federal government, especially those of its executive and legislative branches."

Tallahassee Bus Protest Heads Threaten Extension Of Boycott to Merchants

Tallahassee, Fla. — Tallahassee's city bus system, Cities Transit, Inc., appeared set to shut down June 30 due to a financial pinch brought on by a boycott of Negro riders. The boycott started a month ago.

If the bus company shuts down, Florida's capital city's only form of public transportation will be taxis. About 1,500 persons have been using the buses during the boycott.

60% Drop in Business

The company said its business had dropped 60 per cent since the boycott started.

The Negroes have expressed determination to continue the boycott until they have won integrated seating.

Incident on Bus

The boycott stemmed from arrest of two coeds at Florida A. & M. College for Negroes for refusing to move to the rear of a crowded bus. Charges against them were later dropped.

Tallahassee is a city of 40,000 population, about one third Negro.

The leader of the boycott that caused suspension of city bus service here, threatened Monday to extend the boycott to downtown white merchants unless what he called "police intimidation" is stopped.

chants unless what he called "police intimidation" is stopped.

The Rev. C. K. Steele, president of the Negro Inter-Civic Council, told a mass meeting of about 500 council members Sunday night:

"It really appears that our city policemen have decided to run us out of town—that is off of Monroe and Adams streets (the main business streets)."

Traffic Cases

"It seems they don't recognize that we are in town not to break laws, but to pay bills and give business and patronage to stores that are friendly to us there."

"If they continue their police intimidation it will finally become necessary for us to stay out of town and make other arrangements."

Chief Frank Stoutamire denied any intimidation of Negroes by city police.

Stoutamire said police are cracking down more vigorously on traffic violators but he said this is a general crackdown aimed at all law breakers, white and Negro.

Fewer Arrests

A check of police records showed four fewer Negroes were arrested on traffic charges from June 12 to June 29 than during a similar period in May.

The boycott in protest against segregated seating, resulted in suspension of service Saturday by Cities Transit Co., which had operated the city bus franchise since 1940.

Freshen Old Furniture

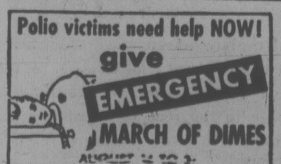

MUCH old furniture still is useful, but its appearance is against it. Yet, it's too good to give away and not old enough to be considered antique. What can be done? A bit of ingenuity and effort will transform an old dresser into a thing of modern beauty—and at small cost. Note the "before and after" sketches of the same dresser. There's quite a change!

In general, removal of the gingerbread from the dresser is the first step in the renovation. A recessed wood base, instead of legs, does much to modernize the piece. Most likely, the top has been scarred. Easiest cure is the addition of a panel of Masonite Tempered Presswood, 1/2" thick. This then may be primed and painted. Alternates might be black Presswood, or Leatherwood, a textured hardboard. One of the gay plastic-surfaced hardboards would be suitable, too, as they are resistant to stains and cigarette burns. Various colors and patterns in Marlite are available.

Matching material, if needed, may be used to re-cover dingy-looking drawer fronts. Standard 1/2" Presswood is excellent for replacing cracked drawer bottoms and dresser backs.

Shades Of Summer Lamb

There's many a year-round food that spells cool eating for summer if you know just one little trick to make it different. Take lamb for instance.

Lamb's at its best when it's hot. So by all means serve it hot. And of course, always season it before cooking with a liberal shake of Ac'cent for natural flavor. Then—special dress for summer—cook shoulder lamb chops with this tangy sauce, brushed on during cooking with a mint switch. Chops come off the grill piping hot, yet minty cool in taste and oh so appetizing.

Serve them inside—or grill and serve on your porch or terrace. Whatever the setting, these lamb chops will fill the family's fondest desires for a satisfying hot-weather meal.

Grilled Shoulder Lamb Chops

1/2 cup orange juice
1/4 cup lemon juice
1 tablespoon sugar
1/2 teaspoon marjoram
1/2 teaspoon rosemary
1/2 teaspoon Ac'cent*
1/4 teaspoon salt
Few grains nutmeg
Bouquet of fresh mint
4 double shoulder lamb chops, boned and rolled

Combine all ingredients except mint and chops. Let stand 1 hour. Tie mint bouquet in cheesecloth. Dip chops in sauce; place on grill. Turn frequently, brushing each time with sauce, using mint "switch" as a brush. Broil 15 to 25 minutes, depending on degree of "doneness" desired. Makes 4 servings.

Mrs. Fauset Joins Women's Division

New York, N. Y.—Mrs. Crystal Bird Fauset of Philadelphia, Pa., a former official of the Democratic National Committee and the first Negro woman in the United States elected to a state legislature, has joined the women's division executive staff of National Citizens for Eisenhower.

She will serve as Special Assistant to the National Co-Chairman, Mrs. Dorothy D. Houghton, who announced the appointment at Citizens For Eisenhower national headquarters, 45 East 47th Street, New York City.

Political 'First'

Mrs. Fauset, now a registered Republican, began her long affiliation with the Democratic party in 1936 as Director of the Democratic National Committee's campaign activities for Negro women, a post to which she was reappointed in 1940 and again in 1944.

In 1938, Mrs. Fauset was elected to the Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as a Democratic Representative from Philadelphia—a political "first" since it was the highest elective office ever held by a woman of her race.

In the fall of 1944 the combined pleas of Republican Negro leaders together with the liberal record of Gov. Thomas Dewey's New York State administration toward minorities impelled Mrs. Fauset to become a Republican. Consequently she was named Adviser to the Republican National Committee's Negro Women's campaign activities division.

Broad Experience

The new aide to Mrs. Houghton is a graduate of the Boston (Mass.) public schools and Teachers College, Columbia University. With a wide background of service to her adopted state of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Fauset is a past vice-president of the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia and in 1950 visited India as a guest of the New Delhi government.

Two years later, the University of Pennsylvania sent her on an educational mission to Nigeria, West Africa. In 1955, Mrs. Fauset was awarded Pennsylvania's Meritorious Service Medal—the Commonwealth's highest citizen award.

The right of full franchise outside the District by absentee voting or by residence beyond the District limits, in nearby Maryland or Virginia—and fractional franchise here; the indifference of Congress to any exercise of citizenship in the District, as shown by its failure to provide sufficient funds to cover the necessary provisions for primary registration and elections; and, most marked of all, the cynical disregard of the Federal City other than as a pork barrel to be emptied and tossed aside, or a self-promotion springboard, to be used and kicked over.

The Inquisitions are Aimed at You!
So now, the latest developments—Congressional inquisitions—have descended on your Captive Capital, hurting and hindering us, but aimed directly at you, the voters back in the States, who send these citizens from Far Corners and Wherever, to Capitol Hill.

Says Civil Rights Question 'Major Issue Our Time'

Cincinnati, Ohio—The civil rights question is singled out as "a major issue of our time" by President Ralph Helstein of the United Packinghouse Workers of America, AFL-CIO, in a report intended for delivery to delegates to the union's international convention opening here June 18.

Helstein released the text of the Officers Report prepared for study by the 800 delegates now registering here for the meat union's 10th Biennial Convention.

Developments

Helstein declared that there have been "brighter and more hopeful developments" on the national and international scene since the union met two years ago. He hailed the Supreme Court decisions banning racial segregation and declared the court had "awakened the responsible citizenry of the nation to the shame of segregation and all forms of discrimination both in the north and in the south."

"If the labor movement is to survive as an instrument for democratic progress, it must take the lead in combatting all forms of discrimination," the union President said.

Scores Bias Gains

The report detailed anti-discrimination gains scored by the union in various parts of the country including the south since the organization's 1954 convention.

Other gains for civil liberties seen by Helstein include the downgrading of Senator McCarthy and the appearance of former Sen. Harry Cain, now head of the Subversive Activities Control Board, as a vigorous voice of protest against invasions of constitutional liberties by the government's security program.

Helstein reviewed the economic gains made by the union membership, noting a total of 19 cents-per-hour in wage increases negotiated in the meat packing industry since 1954. He reported an additional $2 million yearly in job rate adjustments based on the work of UPWA's wage rate department.

Renewed Drive

A renewed drive for a wage increase and a shorter work week in the industry was foreshadowed in the report.

Helstein said that growing automation seating a "lily-white" delegation from Mississippi, over National Committeeman Howard's truly Republican, racially-mixed delegation of nine Negro and six white delegates, with nine white and six Negro alternates. Any such concession, should it happen, would be a major setback to GOP advancement.

What's About Eartha Kitt's New Admirer?; Belafonte Draws Biggest Crowd; Count Basie at Castle Hill

New York.—(CNS)—Rose Morgan-Louis is back on the job at her stunning Rose Morgan House of eBauty in New York. Mrs. Louis had been suffering from nervous exhaustion and was warned by her doctor to take it easy. Now the bride of Joe Louis is slowing down considerably though it's difficult with two careers under the same roof.

Louis Armstrong and Sammy Davis, Jr. were simply magnificent in giving themselves to the TV marathon for Muscular Dysentrophy as staged by Jerry Lewis and Dean Martin. Sammy sang and sang, danced and danced and then added a number on the drums. Louis sang and played in the wee hours of the morning. The whole affair was a local New York telecast.

What's this about Eartha Kitt having a new admirer in the heir to the A and P millions and he bringing her home to mama? But Eartha was supposed to have been quite haughty about it all and handled herself rather badly though she didn't dampen the ardor of her admirer. Eartha's always been able to attract men with loot but holding on to them—either she just doesn't care or else she just enjoys toying with them all.

Harry Belafonte drew the biggest crowd in the 39 year old history of Lewisohn Stadium with 25,000 admirers on the inside of the huge amphitheater and thousands outside trying desperately to get through. It was a terrific tribute to so nice a guy as Harry. With that kind of box office appeal, he can name any price in the books and get it.

New and Different Experiences Do Have Formulative Influence

Seventeen-year-old Tom returned home recently from a summer vacation after completing his third year of attendance at a military high school in another state. After he had been home a week he told his father that he was not sure he wanted to return for his senior year. "I think the school is making me a snob," he said. "The other fellows notice it. We used to be such good friends, but now we just don't have as much fun together, and we don't talk about the same things."

Tom's father was ready with this explanation: "What's happening to you is one of the natural steps of growing up. When you lived in the neighborhood with the boys and went to the same school with them, you and they spent most of your waking time doing the same things and thinking about the same things."

"When you moved away to school, you began doing different things and became interested in activities which you no longer shared with them. And that was true of the boys who stayed here. You probably didn't even hear about the time the truck went into the river and all the boys in town waded in and helped unload the truck so it could be towed out. It was a big event for them! "When I was in the service I shared most of my activities with a small group of men. They were my best friends, and I'll never forget them. But for 10 years we've gone different ways. When we meet now, we talk about the things we used to have in common, but our present interests and activities are often dissimilar. That doesn't mean I'm a snob or that they are, or that you are. It just means that we have grown apart. I think that this is inevitable."

New and different experiences do have a formative influence. Separation in time and distance do lessen the areas of shared activities and experience.

Observe Basic Rules for Packing Travel Case And Worries of Wrinkled Clothes Will Disappear

Packing a travel case need not be a chore. Follow a few basic rules and the worries of wrinkled clothes will disappear into thin air. No matter what style traveling case is used, the packing principles are the same:

1. Don't overload your case, but do pack so that nothing moves around.
2. Place shoes and heavy things at one end of bottom of bag and cosmetic case at other end of bottom of bag. Stockings, lingerie, blouses should be in the middle. Tuck in the little things like belts around the edges.

Suits and Dresses

3. Suits and dresses are next. Place pleated tissue paper or cleansing tissues in folds to avoid creases.
4. Night clothes on top for easy accessibility. It's a good idea to bring along a raincoat and umbrella—place them on top also.
5. Pack light. Plan to wear

Sunday will be fellowship service at the Christ Sanctified Holy Church at 1247 McCormick Street.

Abolish Central (Negro) Jurisdiction

Dayton, Ohio—The steps that are being taken in the Methodist Church to abolish the Central (Negro) Jurisdiction and to bring about integration was lauded by Dr. Ralph T. Templin a professor at Central State College, Wilberforce, Ohio, when he spoke here Friday night (June 20) to a sub-district meeting of the Columbus District of the Lexington Conference in the McKinley Methodist Church.

Dr. Templin, who was the first white minister to be admitted into a Negro conference of the denomination, in 1954 said that he was encouraged to believe that the Central Jurisdiction would be abolished in his own life time.

Dr. and Mrs. Templin served fifteen years as Methodist missionaries in India and they believe that they were expelled from India because of their stand on the race question. Dr. Templin told the representatives of the six churches of the sub-district that he and Mrs. Templin considered themselves just as much missionaries here in America as they were in India. He is director of the Wesley Foundation at Central State College.

Escoe Talks on Foremost Issue To St. Louisians

St. Louis, Mo.—Civil rights is one of the foremost issues in our nation's capitol and despite bitter debate "informed observers believe that out of this session of Congress will come the first civil rights legislation to be enacted by that body in 75 years," declared J. Delmas Escoe in speeches here last week.

Escoe is associate counsel of the Senate Sub-Committee on Constitutional Rights. Senator Thomas C. Hennings, Jr., (Dem. Mo.) is chairman of that sub-committee.

Four Bills

Speaking before a regular branch meeting of the St. Louis NAACP and a luncheon of the distinguished Century Club of the Pine Street YMCA, Escoe pointed out that the sub-committee this year reported favorably four bills to strengthen federal protection of civil rights. He listed the bills as (1) to establish a Civil Rights division in the Department of Justice, (2) to protect the voting rights of all citizens in federal elections and primaries, (3) to protect members of the Armed Forces against bodily attack, and (4) an anti-lynching bill.

Escoe, former city editor of the Kansas City Call and a practicing lawyer, said as a campaign issue in an election year, "civil rights threatens to dwarf and to submerge all other issues, even including the controversial farm program."

"This is as it should be," the speaker declared, "for there is nothing more important to the American form of government than the guarantee to every citizen of our country that he shall not be denied those basic rights which are the very hub and springboard of democracy."

In Vanguard

Escoe pointed out that Senator Hennings has been "in the vanguard" of those dedicated to the preservation of the rights granted under the Constitution. Hennings, a member of the House of Representatives more than 20 years ago, introduced his first civil rights bill. In 1940, during a debate on a peacetime selective service measure on the floor of the House, he urged full utilization of Negro manpower in the armed services as well as in defense industries.

It was he who in the Senate last spring introduced the resolution to appropriate funds for a broad and intensive study of our Constitutional Rights, the speaker said.

Extends Hatch Act

Escoe declared that the bill to protect the citizen's right to vote extends the Hatch Act, as now written, to include primaries and special elections of federal office holders in all states.

He described the proposal to strengthen civil rights laws, within the Department of Justice, as an elevation of the Rights' Section of the department to the status of a division. Such a division would be headed by an assistant attorney-general.

The new anti-lynching bill provides penalties ranging from $1,000 to $10,000 and one year to twenty years in prison for persons taking part in lynch mobs. It further provides penalties of $5,000 and five years imprisonment for public officials who fail to use "all diligent effort" to protect the victims of lynchings or attempt lynchings.

Through this contest we hope to give them the national recognition they deserve and make it possible for at least one of them to participate in our Party's most significant gathering, the Democratic National Convention."

They will attend the Kansas City Athletics vs. New York Yankees baseball game Sunday afternoon, returning to Des Moines Sunday evening.

In the downtown area not far from the U. of Alabama. These were the regular facilities which everybody used, (White and Colored). In Corinth, Mississippi, I was addressed as "Sir," at another filling station. Of course, there were places with separate facilities for white and colored but these were very clean and the service was very cordial.

"In my home town of Bessemer, Alabama, white boys will carry your groceries out of the store just as quickly as a colored boy. This was not so when I lived in Alabama in 1942. I do not propose to paint a rosy picture of race relations in the south but indications are that they are better now than they were when I last lived there.

Home Owners

"Of course, by far, the most impressive sight which we beheld was the large developments of Negro home owners.

"In Birmingham, Alabama, Negroes live in housing developments very similar to those being developed in the city of Des Moines which are exclusively for so-called white people. It was truly a sight for sore eyes—eyes tired of looking upon inferior housing being pawned off on helpless Negroes for large sums of money.

"My wife, Margurite, (native Iowa) was so overjoyed that she would not mind living in the South now. She had never been to the deep south before. The general picture which we got of Negro life was one of progress and prosperity."

Bolster the Will Power to Include A Sensible and Not a Starvation Diet

"My bathing suit doesn't fit me this year, I must do something about it." This is a statement often heard now that we are attracted to swimming-pools for recreation and pleasure.

"Don't try to correct this condition by fads and fallacies," said Dr. Abraham Gelperin. This may ruin your health. Instead try important factor of will power.

"Mary told me about a diet that takes a lot of pounds off in just a few days." This is a statement often heard and dangerous to follow. It is dangerous because it cuts out everything in the diet but a few foods and usually is short of the necessary vitamins and minerals.

Not Too Many Stick

"It is fortunate" said Dr. Gelperin, "not too many stick to this type of diet long enough to really harm themselves."

"I have used massage, baths and exercise," said one woman to another and still I can't get down to my bathing suit size." These are of value, but the only reason people gain weight is that they consume more calories than their body can use and store the extra calories in fatty tissue. The only way to lose weight is to eat food that contains less calories so that the body can use its fat.

Decreased Consumption

Dr. Gelperin stated that some of these fallacies may have value, but

WEIGHTY PROBLEM

The National Education Association is holding its annual meeting in Portland, Oregon. One of the prominent issues with which the association will deal is that of integration. This, of course, is correct and proper for it is the teacher who, in a large part, is called upon to make integration succeed.

Many members, of course, are from southern communities and even though some may be sympathetic or believe in the program yet refrain from taking a favorable stand for fear of repercussions back home.

One resolution proposes that the association appropriate $50,000 to help teachers who have been dismissed because of their stand on segregation. Maybe the resolution will not pass but it should for if a member is dismissed from a job simply because he wants the law of the land enforced, then the organization displays a patent weakness unless it tries to help him.

People form such organizations for their mutual protection. This is true of labor unions and other such organizations. Certainly any such group should come to the defense of its members when they are being unjustly dealt with. When they do otherwise, they don't justify their existence and the dues paid by the members simply help to give some fellow a job.

MUCH FOR MISSIONS ABROAD

There is an old saying that many people are liberal in their donations for foreign missions but very little for home missions.

No more glaring example could be witnessed than that of a resolution introduced in the senate this week commending and expressing sympathy for the labor forces in Poland who have been rioting in Posnan against unfair treatment which is being heaped upon by the Communist satellites.

Of course, we are sorry for any mistreated people and have shown it by the dumping of billions of our hard earned dollars in the form of foreign aid over the past few years.

But what about the oppressed people at home? There are many. Right here at home, hundreds of people are being persecuted simply because they wish to enjoy the rights guaranteed by the U. S. Constitution. And yet these great U. S. Senators have nothing to say; nothing in their defense or in opposition to the perpetrators.

Maybe the resolution will pass. Congress does some silly things and like Secretary of Defense called them "phony."

SOME HAVE THE COURAGE TO ACT

It has just come to light that the Weitz Company owners of the Waukon Village has leased an apartment to a Negro couple, Dr. and Mrs. Francis Batitts. Dr. Batitts will intern at Veterans Hospital.

Fortunately, there has not been much unfavorable comments, and a good guess is that the whole affair will pass off without unfavorable incident.

No doubt, some people don't know that Negro and white students are living side by side in the dormitories of Iowa's state schools all without unfavorable incident.

Many people don't realize that several Negro couples have lived in the Fort Des Moines housing project for years without unfavorable incident of any kind. In fact, some have been elected as officers of the civic organizations of the housing project.

If young white and Negro people can live in the same dormitories without unfavorable incident; if young white and Negro couples can live in the Fort Des Moines housing

Must Show Way

Quoting President Truman's declaration to an NAACP convention in 1947 that "the federal government itself must show the way," Mr. Wilkins said: "This is in sharp contrast to the neutral role being played on school desegregation by the White House. The White House cannot be neutral when our Supreme Court is under attack. It cannot be neutral when the very foundation principles of our domestic government are being challenged in crude and arrogant fashion. It must lead the way toward law and order."

Mr. Wilkins reviewed the history of the Negro's struggle for his rights in this nation. "This struggle is not new," he said. "It has simply become sharper in recent years and attracted more public attention."

Largest Convention

With a registration of 1,000 delegates and alternates, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People closed its largest convention. Negro and white delegates from as distant points as Alaska and Florida assembled here to map the course of NAACP action on the civil rights front. Thirty-eight states, the District of Columbia and the Territory of Alaska were represented among the 1,000 delegates.

In addition to the mass meetings which attracted 5,000 visitors nightly and on Sunday afternoon, a series of workshop sessions were held during the six-day convention which opened in San Francisco's famed Civic Auditorium on June 26. The workshops were devoted to study of ways and means of developing community action programs to secure desegregation of all public facilities, accommodations and services, to eliminate housing segregation, and to secure new job opportunities.

Also covered by the workshops were discussions on political action for civil rights and on public relations; membership and fund raising. Discussion leaders and consultants included specialists in their respective field. The sessions were scheduled so that all delegates had the opportunity to participate in all of the workshops.

At the opening of the convention the delegates were welcomed by Mayor George Christopher; C. L. Dellums, chairman, the NAACP's West Coast Regional Committee; and R. J. Reynolds of San Francisco who served as general chairman of the branch's convention committee.

ring to the opposition of Denny and Iles.

Response

Denny responded that he had said previously that he "didn't care for the way that the commission was set up." He added he was not present when council members discussed the prospective appointees.

Mills suggested Denny propose some persons for appointment. "I told you (previously) the members of the old commission (the separate Commission on Human Rights) were satisfactory to me," Denny retorted.

"Any 5 of 9"

Denny added later that he meant he would consider any five of the nine members of the Human Rights commission, in operation before the Job Discrimination commission was established, as satisfactory for the new commission.

Iles said he believed a single commission would "work better." The new commission, which would have enforcement powers, is to be concerned solely with discrimination in employment. The Human Rights commission has a broader program, which is on a voluntary basis.

Miller said in his letter: "Because of the important function of the Des Moines Commission on Job Discrimination, its members would have to act on a fair, unbiased and unprejudiced basis."

"I believe, therefore, that the city council should have the opportunity of considering every member who

HEALTH FOR ALL

New Tools

Sometimes it seems that man is in a constant struggle with the machines he invents. He creates the monster, and then for a while he is scared to death of what it will do to him. He finally learns how to use it. It becomes one more of his tools for better living.

Back in 1895 when Conrad Roentgen announced the discovery of the X-ray, there was a sensation. Newspaper and magazine writers, fascinated by the possibilities, published bizarre speculations on the uses to which this strange ray could be put. They were serenely untroubled by scientific fact, so that what they wrote had all the charm of fantasy and the excitement of flying saucers.

Serious Victorians were horrified. There was something not quite "nice" about the whole thing. Enterprising British merchants sold X-ray proof underclothes to fastidious ladies. A bill was introduced into the New Jersey legislature prohibiting the use of the "X-ray opera glasses" at the theatre.

In time the sensation died down, of course, and people came to accept the X-ray for the valuable medical tool it is. Nowadays, the X-ray bus comes to town and we all troop over and get in line. In less than a minute the machine takes a picture that will indicate whether or not we have healthy chests. We know that many unsuspected cases of tuberculosis have been discovered in this way.

SPORTS

By ALLEN ASHBY

We get a kick out of the yells of the rest of the National League fans when they yell that the ballot box was stuffed for the All Star game. There very likely was an organized campaign to get the Cincinnati players on the team. But this was no more than the organized effort of Negroes to put Negroes in the All Star team. And they made it too.

Maybe there will have to be another of picking the team if they are to prevent this ballot box stuffing by organized groups.

Track

The Olympic team this year is so loaded with Negroes that they are running over each other. We don't know how it could be done, but there ought to be a different way of choosing the team. Too many top notch performers are left behind. The road is a long rough one. Let one great star have a bad day or stumble and he is done. There are so many great track and field stars who get shut out that the man who said he could leave the Olympic team home and win this with a bunch of also rans, was right.

Certainly would like to have seen May Whitfield and Dillard make it, but the kids ran too fast. But we are really glad to see Deacon Jones and Wheeler make it.

Fred Lucas of East High nearly made the final tryouts. Ran a two-twenty fast enough to have won the thing in former years.

Tennis

By the time you read this the Wimbledon finals will have been played. Maybe Althea made it. Maybe she didn't, but she opened the way

We know that many lives have been saved because of early discovery of TB by the X-ray.

It's odd to recall the words of an editorial in the 19th century magazine commenting on the "revolting indecencies" of the X-ray: "Perhaps the best thing would be for all civilized nations to combine to burn all works on the roentgen rays."

There are times when we may feel the same about atomic energy or automation. It's a fair hope that, in 50 years, those inventions, too, will be quiet servants of man's welfare.

Two-thirds of the line's business came from Tallahassee's 14,000 Negroes. About 1,000 Negroes rode the bus daily compared to about 500 from Tallahassee's white community of 26,000.

Steele said police are rude and subject Negroes at police headquarters to a "third degree" for violations that ordinarily mean nothing more than a violation ticket placed on the windshield.

The council's transportation committee plans to use a church-owned bus and two station wagons to augment a volunteer car pool that has given rides to Negroes during the past month.

constitute a threat to world confidence in our peaceful intentions." Called for larger American programs of aid to economically depressed areas.

The council pledged its "support of nonsegregated practices in selling, buying and leasing property," and urged real estate agents to do the same.

Support to Colleges

It also asked church support be extended to colleges, churches and other agencies that "are endeavoring to move toward racial inclusiveness."

This represented a modified version of an originally stronger resolution that would have made "racial nondiscrimination" a criteria to determine eligibility of colleges and other agencies for aid.

Congregational Christians now help support 22 colleges, some of which do not admit Negro students. Dr. Thomas Anderson of Atlanta, Ga., urged the revised phrasing, saying it "leaves a certain latitude."

What's With Willie
Mays' Baseball Touch?

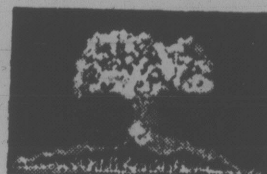

New York.—(CNS)—Willie Mays—the boy wonder of the Giants in bygone years—is having such a disappointing year so farm that few newspaper folks hang around him.

His marriage caused Willie to lose his baseball touch? Or is it just the general sluggishness of the Giants as a whole that is contagious enough to catch onto Willie?

Even Giant manager Bill Rigney is completely perplexed by wonderless Willie. "Frankly he puzzles me. It looked for a while last week that he was coming on. But now he has slipped back again. Willie is swinging as hard as ever, except that the ball is going straight up in the air instead of soaring toward the fences.
