Pedals Mile from Court to Rescue Spring Tonic

Patten, a widower living alone—was hearing a case in Judge Don L. Tidrick's court.

Rises, Addresses Judge

At 10:30 a.m.—an hour and a half after the trial had started for the day—Patten arose from his chair and addressed Judge Tidrick:

"I wonder if it would be possible to have a recess," he said. "I'm 'batching' and I forgot and left something home cooking. I'm worrying for fear it will burn up."

Judge Tidrick asked Patten how long it would take him to get home and back.

"Fifteen minutes," said Patten.

"Where do you live?"

"At Fourteenth and Center streets."

"How do you expect to go that far and back in just 15 minutes?" the judge asked.

The distance from the Municipal Court Building at E. First street and Court avenue to Fourteenth and Center streets is just about one mile.

Patten explained he rides to and from the court on his bicycle and had clocked himself. "I promise to get back here in time," he said.

Judge Tidrick ordered the recess and Patten stepped briskly out of the courtroom. He was back in exactly 15 minutes.

"It was a batch of rhubarb, judge," said Patten as he resumed his seat in the jury box. "I need it for a spring tonic. It thins out the blood."

Harry Belafonte Is Divorced

Las Vegas, Nev.—Singer Harry Belafonte was 30 Friday—and single again. His wife Frances divorced him Thursday.

Belafonte, who is singing at a Las Vegas hotel, did not appear in court. The charge given was mental cruelty, but the court proceedings were private and the records of the case were sealed.

Mrs. Belafonte was given custody of their two children, Adrienne, 7, and Shari Lynn, 2. The Belafontes were married in 1947.

Patten, six times a grandfather and twice a great grandfather, has been riding a bicycle 10 years. He said he had never had an accident.

"I do all my shopping and the chores people normally do in a car on my bicycle—and I have no parking problems," Patten told the judge.

Has Printing Shop

Patten, a printer, has operated a printing shop next to his home 35 years.

Patten was one of two men on a jury hearing a driving while intoxicated case against Robert L. Dammerville, 30, of 2129 E. Fifth St. The jury returned a sealed verdict late Friday afternoon.

Rowan Finds Thousands of Indians Doomed to Lives That Nourish Stereotypes

New York, N. Y.—"Hardly a tomahawk's throw" from the sleekly modern Minneapolis Tribune building, wrote Tribune Reporter Carl Rowan last week, thousands of Indian families huddle in "the dark, squalid, bug-infested dwellings that fit society's idea of what an Indian wants or deserves." Time Magazine's March 4 issue reprinted.

Flocking out of barren, overpopulated reservations in hope of finding work in the cities, reported Rowan, they soon "drift into a world of dark hopelessness." In Minneapolis, so-called "City of Hope," there are 8,000 Indians, but few employers will hire them. Jammed into rickety-tenements and Skid Row hovels, said Rowan, most of them are doomed to lives that nourish "every stereotype about 'drunk,' 'dirty,' 'irresponsible' Indians."

Cause and Effect

A Negro who has won four national awards for stories that have taken him from the Deep South to the Far East, Carl Rowan, reporter and author ("South of Freedom"), brought to his 15-part Tribune series a mixture of shrewd news sense and a personal kinship with the Indian—the other "American who is not quite an American."

In six months on the story, he

Tallahassee Students Get 60-Day Sentence $300 Fine For Integrated Bus Riding

Tallahassee, Fla.—Municipal Judge John Rudd Monday ordered three university students to serve a 60-day jail sentence and pay a $500 fine for violating Tallahassee's bus seat assignment ordinance.

The sentence was the maximum provided in the ordinance which requires bus drivers to seat riders in numbered seats on the basis of weight distribution, health factors and other considerations.

The students' attorney, Francisco Rodriguez of Tampa, announced an appeal would be taken to circuit court.

Sightseeing Tour

Those sentenced were Joseph Spagna, 25, white student at Florida State University, and Leonard D. Speed and Johnny Herndon, students at Florida A. & M. University for Negroes.

The three students were arrested Jan. 19 and convicted last week.

They were on a "sightseeing tour" with three other persons when they left their assigned seats and rode beside each other in integrated fashion.

City Solicitor Edward J. Hill told the court the city has a legal right to set up a seat-numbering arrangement. He said the Pullman Company, the airlines and railroads at times used numbered seating arrangements.

The ordinance was adopted Jan. 7 after Tallahassee Negroes began their "ride integrated" bus campaign. It does not mention racial segregation.

Two of the students, Herndon and Speed, are challenging the ordinance in a federal suit.

Theo. Gatewood Pleads Innocent To Three Charges

Theodore Gatewood, 22, of 1627 E. Walker Street, pleaded innocent Monday at his arraignment before Municipal Judge Ray Harrison to charges of larceny of a motor vehicle, driving without a license and failing to leave his name at the scene of an accident.

Gatewood was held in Polk County jail in lieu of $2,000 bond.

Gatewood was arrested last Saturday night near Adel after a police chase. Officers said the car he was driving overturned in a ditch along Highway 6 near Adel after being chased at speeds up to 100 miles an hour.

Gatewood was taken to Broadlawn General Hospital, where attendants said he apparently suffered only shock.

The car was one of two reported missing earlier from the Holmes Oldsmobile Co., 808 Sixth ave.

Highway Patrolman Ray Thompson said he spotted the car about a mile west of Wauke on Highway 6. He said it was weaving to the road and he "thought the driver was drunk."

Sped Away

Thompson said he tried to stop the car but it sped away and he gave chase.

About a half-mile east of Adel at a rise in the road, Thompson said the car came upon a slower vehicle and in attempting to pass it was blocked by an approaching semi-trailer truck.

When Gatewood braked the car, Thompson said, it spun end over end into a ditch.

Thompson said Gatewood was trapped in the car until the door could be forced open.

Des Moines police said they learned the car was missing after they

Named to U. S. Court Position

SCOVEL RICHARDSON

Washington, D. C.—President Eisenhower Monday nominated Scovel Richardson, now chairman of the parole board, to be a judge in the U. S. customs court.

Richardson, 45-year-old Negro, would succeed the late William A. Ekwell, who died last October.

Richardson, a Republican, has been a member of the parole board since 1953. Prior to that he was dean of Lincoln University law school at St. Louis, Mo.

Four Children Perish in Blaze

Milwaukee, Wis.—Four small children who had been beaten and sent to bed for playing with fire died Friday barely an hour later as flames burst through the room where they had been ordered for punishment.

Milton Bartelson, 32, their father, dashed to safety down a stairs after he awakened from a nap in the same room to find "fire all around me."

He tried to re-enter, but flames drove him back. Later he tried to crawl up a ladder and get through a window, but was restrained by firemen.

Eighty Michigan Doctors to Aid Of Negro Physician

Muskegon, Mich.—Eighty doctors, most of them white, are taking over the practice of a Negro physician stricken with tuberculosis.

The fees will go to their ill colleague, Dr. Edward Williams, 45. He will be confined in a sanatorium at least a year, doctors said.

The 80 helping doctors are members of the Muskegon County Medical Society. They are visiting Dr. Williams' patients at home and in hospitals. Dr. Williams has a large practice among Muskegon's 15,000 Negroes.

His secretary said: "Dr. Ed gave so much time to others he seemed never to have time to rest himself." Other associates said he had not taken a vacation in seven years.

Louisiana-Owned Firm in St. Paul Told to Refuse Negro Women in the North

Minneapolis, Minn.—Three St. Paul women who were refused a course at a slenderizing and health service plan to seek criminal action under the Minnesota equal rights law against a Louisiana-owned St. Paul firm. They were refused because of their race.

The firm is the Alvin Roy Slenderizing Studio, 32 E. Seventh St., St. Paul.

Two of the women, Mrs. Ruth Payne, 612 West Central and Mrs. Lola Finney, 437 Rondo, in answer to advertising in the St. Paul daily papers went to the studio Feb. 6 for an appointment made by telephone.

At the studio they were told that because of the rush of new business they could not be enrolled until Feb. 25.

Shown Accommodations

During the interview they were shown the accommodations and machines which the salon offered and told to return on Feb. 25.

In the meantime, a sister of one of the women, Mrs. Beatrice Coleman, 813 West Central, wife of St. Paul fire captain, Leroy Coleman applied for the courses and asked to be enrolled at the same time Mrs. Finney, her sister and Mrs. Payne were to begin the course.

When the three women went to the studio on Feb. 25, they were hurried

Hails New African Nation As 'Inspiration to Peoples Yet to Achieve Freedom'

New York—Ghana, which became a self-governing member of the British Commonwealth on March 6, has been hailed by the NAACP Board of Directors as an "inspiration and encouragement to peoples and to countries yet to achieve their freedom."

Ghana united the Gold Coast, a British Colony, and the UN trusteeship territory of British Togoland. The new nation was also the subject of special felicitations from Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary, and The Crisis, the Association's official journal.

Independent

In a unanimous resolution adopted at its regular monthly meeting, the Board of Directors declared that "the emergence of Ghana as a new and independent nation . . . presages the complete reclamation of the Continent of Africa by its indigenous peoples."

"We extend hearty felicitations to the people and government of Ghana and wish for them every success in this great new venture," the resolution continued. "We are confident that Ghana will play a significant role in the family of nations and will give further inspiration and encouragement to peoples and to countries yet to achieve their freedom."

The resolution was transmitted to Kwame Nkrumah, Prime Minister of Ghana, by Mr. Wilkins, who, in a separate message to the Prime Minister, expressed regret that he would be unable to attend the independence ceremonies in Accra on March 2 to 10, to which he was formally invited by Mr. Nkrumah. He expressed the hope that he would be able to visit Ghana "at a time in the not too distant future."

Mr. Wilkins conveyed to Mr. Nkrumah his own "personal felicitations and prayers for the success of the new nation of Ghana."

Self-Discipline

"Many of us in America know of the years which devoted and dedicated leaders of your country have given in work and sacrifice, in training and self-discipline and in inspiration and guidance, to bring a proud people from colonialism to independence and self-government," he told the Prime Minister.

"I salute, of course, all the people of your country, but I offer to you, as the inspired leader, a special word of congratulation and good wishes for the future."

Crisis Editorial

Ghana is saluted in the March issue of The Crisis, in an editorial which expresses the hope that the new nation's achievement will "fore-

Celebrates New Nation Ghana

MAHMOOD ADANSI

Among the African students around the world who hailed the independence of the Gold Coast, which became a self-governing member of the British Commonwealth on March 6, was Mahmood Adansi, native of the Gold Coast, a graduate student at Iowa State College, Ames. One of the 600 students in Des Moines Saturday and Sunday for the fourth annual Foreign Students' Week End, he addressed at tea Saturday celebrating the new nation, Ghana.

Adansi, who has a teaching assistantship in botany, will get his master's degree at the end of the winter quarter at Iowa State College.

Says Mississippians Are American Refugees from South Who Want to Vote

Washington, D. C.—A Mississippi-born Negro now living in Chicago testified Thursday that Negroes in Mississippi who want to vote are subjected to "intimidation, violence, and fraud."

Gus Courts testifying before a senate judiciary subcommittee at a hearing on civil rights legislation, said he was shot in his Belzoni, Miss., grocery store Nov. 15, 1955, after he had taken a leading part in trying to get Negroes registered to vote.

Another Negro witness, the Rev. William Holmes Borders of Atlanta, Ga., declared that "the only way whites can keep democracy for themselves is to give it to everybody."

Tells Intimidation

Courts said the Negro vote in Mississippi is kept small because of the "intimidation" and other practices of "those who operate the election machinery and their associates."

Reading from a prepared statement, he continued: "Not only are they killing the colored people, who want to vote and be citizens, but they are squeezing them out of business, foreclosing their mortgages, refusing them credit from the banks to operate their farms."

'Flee In Night'

After saying he had to leave "my $15,000-a-year grocery business, my trucking business, my home, and everything," Courts said:

"My wife and I and thousands of us Mississippians have had to run away. We had to flee in the night. We are the American refugees from the terror in the south, all because we wanted to vote."

Courts testified that "although there are 497,000 potential colored voters in Mississippi, only 8,000 are now on the books." He said that in 1955 "the White Citizens Councils, through the registrars, purged about 12,000 Negroes off the registration books."

Should 'Speak Out on Integration'

Knoxville, Tenn.—Methodist bishops should speak out on integration and other social issues, encouraging the clergy under their supervision to help mold public opinion at the community level, according to Bishop Richard C. Raines.

Fort Dodge, Iowa

By C. L. HOUSE

Fort Dodge, Ia.—Seven precinct polling places for the annual Fort Dodge School election March 11 have been announced by the Fort Dodge Community School District Board of Education. Monday the polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. for voters to cast their ballots. Two vacancies on the board of education of the district and the position of board treasurer are to be filled at the election. Voters will also decide whether the central school on a tax increment in crop land, the race track, and the new school of 2½ miles for the purchasing of grounds and construction of schools should be continued for another ten years. The precincts for the school election have the same boundaries as for the general election, except in four cases.

Fancy Salmon Sauce on Rice

Red pimientos and sweet pickle relish are the flavor boosters in this salmon main dish. The quickly made salmon sauce looks so tasty over tender white rice. The hard-cooked egg garnish is an easy trick, and with colorful paprika you have a magnificent main dish beautiful enough for a real fancy meal.

INGREDIENTS:

- 2 hard-cooked eggs
- 2 cups water
- 1 cup uncooked white rice
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 lb. can salmon, flaked
- Milk
- 1 10½ oz. can condensed cream of mushroom soup
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon black pepper
- 2 tablespoons chopped whole canned pimientos
- 2 tablespoons sweet pickle relish
- Paprika

METHOD: Put the eggs on to cook. After eggs are hard-cooked, cool quickly in cold running water.

Put the water, rice and 1 teaspoon salt in a 2-quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat down low. Cover with a lid and simmer over this low heat 14 minutes. Remove the saucepan from the heat but leave the lid on 10 minutes. Drain the salmon juice into a measuring cup. Add milk to make ½ cup liquid.

Put the mushroom soup in a 2-quart saucepan. Stir in the milk mixture, ½ teaspoon salt, pepper, pimientos, pickle relish and the salmon. Place over a low heat until very hot. Stir occasionally. Separate the hard-cooked egg yolks from the whites. Cut the whites into thin pieces. Just before serving, mound the rice around the edge of a large platter. Spoon the salmon sauce into the center and over some of the rice. Press the egg yolk through a strainer and cover the center of the salmon sauce with the sieved egg yolks. Sprinkle some paprika on the egg yolks and the white rice. Place the egg whites around the edge of the salmon sauce. Serve immediately. This recipe makes 8 servings.

Pillow cases decorated with crochet in colorful floral designs are the newest trick to beautify your bedrooms. Pastel pillow cases are extremely effective trimmed in this way. ## Cheese Mold For Fresh Fruits

EVERYONE LOVES fresh fruit and there's a beautiful selection at this time of year. So here's a cheese mold to enhance the fruit flavor, made with instant powdered cream that has recently become so popular. Use it with your favorite fruits for salad or combination salad and desert. It's a real winner.

PREM CHEESE MOLD

- ½ cup instant cream
- ½ cup boiling water
- 1 teaspoon unflavored gelatin
- 1 tablespoon cold water
- 1 8 oz. package cream cheese
- 1 cup creamed cottage cheese
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ cup sliced stuffed olives
- ½ cup chopped nuts

Dissolve instant cream in boiling water. Soften gelatin in cold water, add to instant cream and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Add instant cream mixture gradually to cream cheese, mixing until blended. Stir in remaining ingredients. Turn into 3 cup ring mold. Chill several hours until firm. Unmold on bed of greens and surround with fresh or canned fruit. Makes 8 servings. (ANS)

Fish Fillets:

- 1½ pounds fish fillets
- 4 cups Kellogg's Corn Flakes
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 1 cup milk
- 4 teaspoons salad oil

Vegetable Rings:

- 3 cups drained cooked peas
- 4 cups seasoned cooked rice
- ½ cup chopped parsley

Curry Sauce:

- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- ¼ cup minced onions
- 2 tablespoons flour
- ¼ teaspoon sugar
- ¼ teaspoon ginger
- 1 cup milk
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- 2 teaspoons curry powder

Cut fish into serving pieces, allowing ¼ pound for each serving. Crush Corn Flakes into fine crumbs. Combine salt and milk. Dip fish in salted milk, then into crumbs; arrange on well oiled baking sheet. Sprinkle with oil. Bake in extremely hot oven (500° F.) about 12 minutes.

Melt butter in small saucepan; add onions and cook until tender but not brown. Stir in flour, curry powder, sugar and ginger. Add milk slowly, stirring constantly; continue cooking over low heat until mixture thickens, stirring occasionally. Stir in lemon juice just before serving.

Place a ring of peas on a large serving plate or platter. Combine rice and parsley and place around peas in a ring; fill the center with oven-fried fish. Serve curry sauce in separate dish. Yield: 6 servings. (ANS) tions according to seniority of appointment. Career substitutes are required to be available for duty on short notice, and generally, they will be working every day.

Louisiana-Operated Firm in St. Paul Refuses Negroes

riedly ushered into a room off the waiting room. There they were told that they could not be taken until the middle of March.

New Applicant

In the meantime one of the women heard the receptionist scheduling a new applicant, a white woman, for the next class. Thereupon the three women asked to see the manager.

Al Brumgardt, the manager, invited them into the conference room and admitted the women's claim, that he could not accommodate Negro women, because the firm, which owned the business, from its headquarters in Louisiana had ordered studios operated in the north not to enroll colored women in their courses.

The three women conferred with Assistant County Attorney Wm. F. Desmond, who they claim, told them that the refusal of service was not a violation of the equal rights law, but also advised them there was cause for civil damages, and suggested that they hire attorneys.

The three women reported the affair to the St. Paul Urban League. Through the Governor's Human Rights Commission an opinion was secured from the Attorney-General's office which said the alleged incident was a violation of the state civil rights law.

Further effort will be made to interest the Ramsey county attorney's office in the law violation by the three women.

Bon Amies Newly Formed Social Club Of Denver Couples

Denver, Colo.—On Friday, January 11, a group of young married couples, Bon Amies, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Coons, Jr., 3305 Cook Street, Denver, to form a social club for the social, physical and emotional development of the community.

An election of officers for the group was held as follows: Mr. Daniel Euell, president; Mr. Curtis B. Freeman, vice president; Mrs. Joann McQuiry, secretary; Mrs. Gloria Freeman, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Jeanette Coons Jr., treasurer; Mr. Earl Turner, sergeant-at-arms; and Mr. Harry Coons Jr., parliamentarian. These officers will hold office for one year.

The meetings are held twice a month, one being a business and one a social meeting, which are held at the Glen-Arm Center. The club will make contributions to the Center, which will help to send boys to camp each year. The club will also take part in the many projects of the Center, which is city owned.

At the present time, the club is bowling as a team, which is only one of the many sports that it plans to participate in, most of them which will consist of working with the teen-age children of the neighborhoods and who also are active in the Center.

The twelve charter members are couples from different states who have lived in Denver for several years. They are: Messrs. and Mmes. Daniel Euell, Kansas City, Mo., Curtis B. Freeman, Minneapolis, Minnesota, Harry Coons, Jr., Georgia; Sidney McQuiry, Des Moines, Iowa; Leon Miller, Des Moines, Iowa; Earl Turner, Des Moines, Iowa.

The next meeting will be held at the Glen-Arm Center on Sunday, March 10, at six o'clock. All members are urged to be present so that the by-laws may be voted upon and the charter be drawn up.

Princess O'Ziel Chapter Sponsors 'Friends' Night'

Princess O'Ziel Chapter No. 9 met Feb. 28 at the Masonic Temple and sponsored a "Friends' Night." Each officer asked one holding the same office from one of the other two chapters to a guest for the evening.

Following the opening ceremonies each officer presented her guest with a corsage.

Guests were: Mrs. Felice Rhodes, worthy matron, Delores Peguese, associate matron, Hiawatha Potter, conductress, Leona Jordan, Warder, Anna Brooks, Electa, all of Olive Branch Chapter No. 32; James Newsome, worthy patron, Oseola Sims, treasurer, Veltira Brown, secretary, Maxine Watkins, associate conductress, Mabel Weathers, Adah, Elsie McGee, Ruth, Bertha Wolder, Esther, Catherine Durden, Martha, all of Zorah Chapter No. 10.

Also present were Mrs. Maude M. Brewton of Mason City, past grand worthy matron; Mrs. Orea Bulce, grand secretary; Mrs. Bertha Wolder, grand associate conductress; Mrs. Leona Jordan, grand royal matron of the Amaranth of Des Moines; and Mrs. Jennie Smith of Olive Branch Chapter.

Refreshments were served by the entertainment committee.

The next meeting will be Thursday, March 28, at the Masonic Temple. The worthy matron has asked all members to be present for a group picture to be made for the souvenir album celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of Electa Grand Chapter.

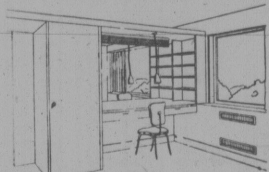

Mrs. Rose Johnson is worthy matron; Gus Smith is worthy patron; and Mrs. Lessie Garrett is reporter.

A Room for Two Children

WHEN two youngsters occupy the same room, ordinarily they have little privacy. However, by using a bit of imagination and ingenuity, the fix-it-them-selves family can create a room that has two of everything, plus built-in privacy.

First, the room is divided by means of an extra-wide divider desk and closets. This way, there'll be a separate study and clothes storage area for each child. The separation of the space is completed by a sliding door.

Other features may include a radiator enclosure, fluorescent lighting, spacious drawers in the desks and an attractive soffit.

Use of Masonite hardboards for the closet walls, desks, soffit and as underlayment for the flexible floor covering makes such a room improvement both economical and easy. A large variety of hardboards for these purposes are available at lumber yards.

Hardboards made by Masonite Corporation, the pioneer producer, are made by exploding clean wood chips in huge guns and then compressing the fibers into thin, strong panels under extreme heat and pressure. Being all wood, these panels may be worked and finished like wood.

For a free plan detailing how to create a youth room for two, write the Home Service Bureau, Suite 2037, 111 West Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill., requesting plan No. AE-265.

Backers of Ella Fitzgerald Getting Smart; Louie Jordan Plays in London; Nat King Cole Enjoyable in 'Istanbul'

With Dolores Calvin

New York City—(Calvin News Service)—Even before the sun thought of rising—at the hour of 4 a.m.—teenagers were groping their way to the Paramount Theatre in practically dead of night, many with lunches and all with the determination of getting on time to be sure of a seat to see the two-in-one show at the Paramount—with Alan Freed leading the group like a Pied Piper.

In addition to the great rock and roll stage show, Alan Freed and another group of such stars appear in a film called "Don't Knock the Rock"—so the crowd really got their money's worth. Over 3,500 youngsters, out for George Washington's Birthday, milled around the theatre, buzzing like at a clambake parading up and down the marble staircase, making themselves at home—staying for 3 or 4 shows. Though the film was termed "mediocre," except for those who are real addicts of the rage, the plot is flimsy but the music is hot.

Most notable is Little Richard, who plays the piano from a standup position—which reminds us, in a small way of Maurice Rocco. The Lindy hoppers are also good, and they add but caused the old theatre to rock and roll itself. Police, we should add, had to be called out to keep the outside crowd in order as they clamoured to get in for the first showing. Regardless of the 4 a.m. start—many missed the first show.

Though Eartha Kitt spoiled us as far as playing "Mrs. Patterson" is concerned, we hear the new version at the Davenport Theatre, with all unknowns cast, is "superior to the original." Impossible, we say, as who else but Eartha could have that lazy lilt in her voice. Yet the charm of Cleopatra? Arthur Godfrey and wife off to Africa for a four week safari where they expect to meet everything, including head-hunters.

Ella Fitzgerald's backers are finally getting smart and treating the star like the great gal she is—they hired a page ad in Variety, the show-business bible, to thank the people of her profession for their kindness during her recent illness. Incidentally, they should be smart also and halt those most unattractive pictures of Ella appearing of album covers.

Sammy Davis, Jr., whose show, "Mr. Wonderful" was buried in true show business tradition after the last performance, can finally breathe again—without having to make a matinee, a quick dinner and then an 8:40 curtain. With John Cassavetes of "Edge of the City" getting a beautiful long-term contract with MGM, we ask what's in store, permanently, for Sidney Poitier—who, in our opinion, should have been nominated for a best supporting role in the Oscar deal.

Despite the almost no ballyhoo on the fact that James Edwards appears in "Battle Hymn" when it opened here—(Rock Hudson, its star, is doing a terrific public appearance tour of major cities), the picture grossed $33,000 for the first week. Two other top flickers showing Negroes in servant roles: "Written On The Wind" with Maide Norman seen in three fleeting glances as the maid, Roy Glenn as a cab driver in "Oh Men, Oh Women."

Dorothy Dandridge copped the Urban League's American Teamwork award with Glenn Ford, who is known for his teamwork ideas, sharing the honors. Sad to note the closing of Le Reuban Blue, where we remember most Maxine Sullivan, the Loch Lomond girl got her start there many years ago. One of the oldest, it closed to make way for a new site of office buildings.

Louis Jordan, who recently played London, busy back in the states recording calposos for Mercury, a film which wanted him more than 10 years ago when they were first getting started (they built Frankie Lane)—but Jordan was tied then to Decca. This union may prove the break Jordan has been wanting to ride back to the top.

WHERE THE STARS ARE PLAYING: Billie Holiday at Pack's in San Francisco. Deep River Boys at Lake Club, Springfield, Ill. Count Basie at Royal Festival Hall, April 2nd. Tickets already sold out for his first date in London.

We'd like to add our bit—that Nat King Cole was most enjoyable in his effective role as Danny in "Istanbul" and the small scene had class—as far as race relations was concerned. First, the spotlight hit Nat as he entered—and stayed on him mostly throughout his song (many times, the entertainer is deemed secondary to the story and merely supplied as background music)—secondly: he was invited over to join Errol Flynn and the new star, Miss Cornell Borchers (who is very much like Ingrid Berg-

Lincoln University Music Student Is Auditioned at Metropolitan Opera

Jefferson City, Mo.—Miss Frankie Weathers, a junior music student at Lincoln University in Missouri and recent winner of the Metropolitan Regional Auditions held in Tulsa, Oklahoma on January 26 and 27, was given an audition at the Metropolitan Opera in New York City on Tuesday, February 19.

The Committee of the Metropolitan Opera audition was composed of maestros, conductors and staff members. The group made several suggestions for Miss Weathers' further training among which a plan for her to complete studies for the Bachelor of Music degree at Lincoln in 1958.

and a repertoire of roles and arias which will be a part of her work in the studios and opera workshop of Lincoln's Department of Music.

In addition to the Metropolitan Audition, arrangements were made for Miss Weathers to be heard by Gian Carlo Menotti, distinguished contemporary composer of several operas, one of which is "The Saint of Bleecker Street" that was a part of the young soprano's repertoire. Miss Weathers received the highest commendation from Mr. Menotti and an autographed album of the opera.

Dr. O. Anderson Fuller, head of the department of music at Lincoln, and Mrs. Fuller traveled with Miss Weathers and he served as her coach and accompanist in New York.

Movies for Christmas

If there is any season of the year that calls for "lights, camera, action" it's Christmastime! While home movies are good the year-around, they're never better than when they show the family observance of the holiday season.

We've got a suggestion today—a suggestion for the families that don't have movie cameras. It's that you give one to yourselves for Christmas, and do it a little ahead of the big day. You know, half the fun of Christmas is getting ready for it. No matter what type of picture record you shoot, it ought to cover the days in which the air is tingling with anticipation of happy surprises and good things coming up. The favorite people in your life are at their best—and that's the best time for picturing them.

But getting back to the movie camera as a gift from the family to the family. It needn't be an expensive gift, you know, because not only are there movie cameras as simple to operate as the familiar box camera, they're equally low in cost, comparatively speaking.

For less than $50—you can be all set for both indoor and outdoor movie making with a kit including camera and light bar. The light bar makes your indoor movie making as easy as flash snapshotting. It is simply a bar with a screw in the center that fits into the tripod socket of the camera. On either end is a big photoflood reflector bulb.

As you shoot, you carry your light right with you. You know that there's always enough illumination to cover whatever action you see in your viewfinder.

Must Love Yourself, Neighbors and God Says Dr. King

Richmond, Va.—"You must love yourself, your neighbor and God if you are to have a complete Christian life, Dr. Martin Luther King declared Friday in the closing sermon of the Annual Week of Prayer at Virginia Union University.

A total of 15,000 persons attended the series of religious services during the week-long observance sponsored by the School of Religion.

Dr. King, leader of the Montgomery, Ala. bus protest, spoke on the topic: "The Dimensions of a Complete Life." He said life should have length, breadth, and height.

He defined "length" as "forward push in your life work."

Dr. King continued:

Outward Concern

"Breath is that outward concern for others," the lack of this quality in our international life has led to strife, he said.

"The rumblings of discontent in

Says Fish Fries, Baby Contest, Raffles Not 'Christian Way' of Supporting Church

Indianapolis, Ind.—Fish fries, baby contests, raffles and other kinds of entertainment are not the "Christian way" of supporting the church, according to Bishop Matthew W. Clair, Jr., of St. Louis, when he spoke to the seminar on Stewardship held here in the Simpson Methodist Church, Feb. 16-17, under the auspices of the Board of Lay Activities of the Lexington Conference of The Methodist Church.

Bishop Clair, who is the presiding Bishop of the St. Louis Area, said that in giving suppers and the like Africa and Asia is the revolt against the imperialism and colonialism perpetuated by Western civilization for so many years. Unless the nations of the world come to see that we were made to live together, we will destroy ourselves with our own instruments.

The speaker pointed out that nations are not independent, but interdependent.

Shortly after his speech, Dr. King, pastor of the Dexter Avenue Baptist Church in Montgomery left for New York City. On Saturday he is scheduled to leave the United States on the first leg of a trip to the African Gold Coast country of Ghana, where he will participate in founding ceremonies.

Personal Touch By MARIE ROSS

Students representing 90 of the world's nations were in Des Moines Saturday and Sunday for the fourth annual Foreign Students' Week End. If you were one of the residents who helped entertain or who took the opportunity to attend some of the many many events planned for the 600 guests who came, and, witness especially the International Fiesta, you should by now have earned that feeling of having traveled around the world.

Extensive were the plans to bring these students from Iowa junior colleges, colleges and universities to Des Moines, under these sponsorship of the Iowa Board of International Education and about 100 other organizations here. Registration was at the YWCA.

If you were one of the fortunate residents with plenty of time you witnessed the continent exhibits, native dancing, listened to discussions, saw handicraft, attended luncheons and teas and met some foreign students in their colorful costumes.

One of the special events of the Saturday afternoon program was a tea at Esther Hall, the African continent center, celebrating the independence of the Gold Coast and the new nation Ghana.

African students attending Drake, Simpson College, Iowa State, State University of Iowa, Dubuque University, Palmer School at Davenport, were at the tea and talked freely about their homelands. Some of the students were from Liberia, Nigeria, Uganda, Ethiopia, the Gold Coast and other parts of Africa. About 45 attend schools in Iowa.

Ed Thompson from the Gold Coast a student in agronomy at Iowa State College, Ames, had mixed emotions as he talked of his country's independence.

A student at Iowa State College, he wants to stay in this country to get a doctor of philosophy degree in agronomy then go back to the new nation, Ghana, to help his people.

Mahmood Adansi of the Gold Coast, who has a teaching assistantship in botany at Iowa State College, Ames, revealed that he is to receive his master's degree at the end of this quarter. He did undergraduate work at Hampton (Va.) Institute. He spoke at the tea.

Two young women from the Gold Coast, Misses Clara Inkunisa and Maude Dagadu, are studying dietetics at Iowa State College. In a chat they revealed they haven't gotten used to Iowa's weather.

"It's either too hot or it's too

Miss Edith Redd of Chicago, Ill., was home for the week end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reed. She and her mother attended the wedding of Miss Dorsyle Freels in Omaha, Neb.

Administrative Council to Meet

The Administrative Council will meet Sunday, March 10, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus McCraven, 813 Grove Street. All members are urged to attend. Mrs. Helen T. Carter is president; John M. Danforth is secretary.

"Here everything is frozen—nearly all of the vegetables we eat have been frozen. We eat the ghost of chicken. It has been frozen. It doesn't taste the same as fresh chicken," Clara lamented.

The two young women want to go back to their native land to work in hospitals.

Chatting with other guests and showing exhibits of their lands were Chori D. Chori, last June graduate of Drake University, who heads the African student group and William Adeniran Odolowo, studying entomology at Iowa State College, both of Nigeria; Cape Palmas and Herbert Bravr, both of Liberia, also Iowa State College students; William Jones of Liberia, a civil engineering student at Simpson College, Indianola.

Among the guests from Iowa University, Iowa City, were Abraham Segid of Ethiopia, an engineering major, who wants to go back to his country to build roads; Abubel S. Ahmed, also an engineering student. From Grinnell College were: Paul Lamptey of the Gold Coast; Victor N. Dibia from British Cameroons, studying agricultural economics.

Forming acquaintances was John Agore from Uganda, pre-medicine student at Dubuque (Ia.) University. Also of Dubuque University were Miss Barbara Beale of New York City, a senior, who plans to teach

Dates and Dating At YWCA Each Tuesday Evening

Dates and Dating—a concern of every junior high school age girl—is the subject of four discussions which began Tuesday evening, Mar. 5, and will continue Mar. 12, 19, and 26. Mrs. Ione Baal, well known teacher and lecturer on subjects of interest to girls, is the speaker opening each session. Most of the one and one-half hour period (7:00 to 8:30 p.m.) however, will be given to questions and answers and exchange of experiences and ideals. The first meeting defined—listed qualifications of the boy a girl would like to date, give instruction on how to invite a boy on a date, the best ways to accept or decline a date and discuss the age at which a girl should start having dates.

The series has been planned by the Junior High Y-Teen Inter-club Council. Carolyn Hill, Council President presents the speaker. The council is made up of representatives from city-wide Y-Teen Clubs. "All girls of Junior High School age are invited to attend the series for which the registration fee is 50c.

after graduation; and Winfred Wellington, an American Indian from Sacaton, Arizona. He is studying for the ministry, and after graduation plans to go back to the reservation near Pima, Arizona, to teach in a reservation school.

In a chat with Wellington, he was reluctant to talk about racial experiences and prejudices he met while trying to get an education. "At first I was sensitive, but I have become hardened," he said. He revealed that he wanted to learn "all about Christianity—to go back to teach his people."

"With all of the slings and arrows of outrageous discriminations and prejudices, it is rather difficult, isn't it?" I queried. The American Indian student agreed.

Sunday afternoon, sightseeing on the Iowa State Capital grounds, I ran into more foreign students. In a group who posed for pictures were: Ahmad Fahdl of Iraq, a student of farm operation, Louis L. Smith of Haiti, West Indies, a graduate student of economics, William Odolowo of Nigeria, Manuel Mateos of Spain and Louis Ollivier of Bretagne, France, all attending Iowa State College at Ames.

Some of the Foreign Students Week End committee members still resting up this week when I contacted them. Mrs. Maxine Watkins who worked closely with some of the students from India, had just about lost her voice when I met her on the statehouse grounds Sunday. By the middle of the week, she still was trying to find it.

Mrs. Elinor D. Robson, whose home has been referred to for several years as the "international house," and who originated the week end program, was asked if she had recovered from her busy week end, replied on the phone. "No, I'm still dead."

Foreign Students Bring Customs From Around World to Des Moines; Appear in International Fiesta

"Around the World in Less Than Two Days" easily could have been a theme of the fourth annual Foreign Students' Week End here Saturday and Sunday when about 600 foreign students attending junior colleges, and universities in Iowa, were in Des Moines as guests of the Iowa Board of International Education and other organizations.

Busloads of students arrived Saturday morning, registered at the Des Moines YWCA, then went to respective continent centers, where exhibits, native arts, discussions and teas were held.

The centers, located in the vicinity of the YWCA and KRNT Theater, bore large signs designating the continent: Africa at Esther Hall; America at St. Paul's Episcopal Church; Eastern Asia, First Baptist Church; Western Asia, First Methodist Church; and Europe, Central Christian Church.

Gold Coast Tea

Among the prominent affairs of the afternoon was a tea for the African students, celebrating the independence of the small African colony, the Gold Coast, which on March 6, became a free power, known as Ghana.

Approximately 45 African students in the various colleges and universities in Iowa, are under the continent chairmanship of Chiori Chiori of Nigeria, a last June graduate of Drake University, who is in training at Iowa Methodist Hospital here.

Speaking on the independence of the Gold Coast at the tea were: Mahmood Adansi, a botany and education major at Iowa State College, Ames, where he has a teaching assistantship in botany; and Ed Thompson, a student in agronomy also at Iowa State College. Both are natives of the Gold Coast and stressed a hope for the "unity of Africa."

Colorful Fiesta

The most colorful and spectacular event of the week end activities was the international fiesta which drew a crowd of about 2,000 persons to KRNT Theater Saturday night.

Social customs of some of the ninety different nationalities represented by the foreign students who came to Des Moines, were revealed in costumed dances, plaintive folk melodies and chants.

Folk dances of the Balkans, Denmark, Greece, Latvia, Yugoslavia and Italy were in the opening group representing Europe.

In the Western Asia grouping, a young man and woman, played songs of shepherds on delicate pipes and harmonica, and danced "by the sea of Galilee" and the "hills of Jordan." Men from Arab lands stamped their dances and a dark-haired siren performed to the music of Baghdad. A Turkish lad sang of one of his country's heroes.

Rhythm and Beauty

As the program moved to the customs of the warm countries—India, Africa and some of the Islands, the colors of the costumes were more beautiful, the dances more rhythmic, and the melodies more harmonious.

Girls from India in richly woven saris of many colors and their companions in all black or all white suits, did some of the ancient dances of their lands. Representing his native land, Africa, Chiori O. Chiori of Nigeria, did a spirited war dance, the only number of Africa.

In the America group, a Canadian chorus sang its national anthem; a couple representing the Virgin Islands danced and then appeared with students from Brazil, Cuba, Panama and Bolivia in a Pan-American Night Club scene from Panama.

The Eastern Asia part showed students from Thailand, Philippines, Japan, Korea, Hawaii, China and New Zealand.

Dances during the rice festival in the Philippines, a Japanese girl by her lantern-decorated tree, Hawaiian girls in their glistening skirts, a Korean girl and her songs and handkerchief dance featured this group.

The festival came to a riotous end when a group of New Zealanders came shouting down the aisles, leaping onto the stage to chant and execute their war dances.

Social Dancing

For the social dance session that followed the fiesta, visiting students of many colors, races and creeds assembled on the stage of KRNT Theater and enjoyed the music of Bill Haley and His Comets.

Asked what kind of dance music and dances they preferred, the students voted for sambas and waltzes with rock 'n roll, jitterbug and Elvis Presley getting little attention.

The master of ceremonies who presided during the social dance session, asked for "twenty or thirty" couples to participate in jitterbug and rock 'n roll contests. The most he could get was five couples to compete.

Rising Vote

Senator George E. O'Malley (Dem., Des Moines) the chairman, welcomed the visitors. Gov. Herschel C. Loveless, honorary chairman, was present.

Mrs. Elinor D. Robson, Des Moines, who originated the weekend program and who has remained active in the planning, was given arising vote of appreciation. William L. Brown, Des Moines, is Iowa board president.

Daher Rabi, Lebanese student attending Still College of Osteopathy and Surgery here and chairman of the foreign students, has organized the 800 students now attending Iowa colleges. It is said to be the first such group in the United States.

Commenting that Iowa's foreign students represent 90 countries, Rabi said they feel it was a wise decision to come here for education, not only because the people are friendly, hospitable and congenial, but that Iowa demonstrates the democracy "which characterizes the American way of life."

The students were guests in Des Moines homes until Sunday afternoon when their buses left for their respective schools.

LEGISLATURE MOVES IN ANCIENT TWILIGHT

Last week, a sub-committee of the labor committee of the legislature conducted a hearing on the pending fair employment practices measure.

Armed with facts gathered by a committee, speakers made the points that State action is necessary to deal with fair employment practices.

Such a measure would work hardships on no one who obeys the law.

Other states and cities have operated FEP laws successfully.

A progressive state should not be progressive in one line of advancement and reactionary in another.

Whether the arguments convinced any legislators in problematical. But judging from the questions answered by them and off the record remarks made by some, generally speaking, they move in the twilight of the early 1920's rather than the 1950's.

It is a rather strange coalition which has succeeded in blocking this legislation during each session since the war. In fact, it has succeeded in blocking public housing and look askance at any progressive legislation except that designed to help the farmer. Maybe one is a trade for the other but however the combination, it has been successful.

Just what the outcome will be is hard to predict. But one thing is certain: if FEP fails this time a new approach must be found in 1959.

INSTANCES OF BREAKING DOWN PREJUDICE

For the first time, a Negro played in the high school basketball tournament in Tennessee this year. He was a member of the Oak Ridge team, located at the atomic energy plant.

The young man received a hearty applause from the audience and no unusual incident occurred. The tournament was held in Clinton, scene of much unpleasant conduct when Negro students entered high schools there last fall.

The Oak Ridge high school is operated by the automatic commission and since the government tolerates no foolishness, the people know and act accordingly. This is the history all over. But when local citizens are in charge the story is different in most communities.

The Oak Ridge community school demonstrates that integration can and does work where an honest effort is made to have it succeed. And this one, like many others, about which nothing is heard is convincing proof of what can be done.

At the western end of the South comes an announcement that Negroes will participate in the Texas Relays this year. This will enable some schools with Negro players on their squad to participate which have refused to do so in the past because of this exclusion rule.

This, of course, was inevitable in view of the contacts which Texas school students have had over the years at northern relays where Negroes have appeared in ever increasing numbers. These Texas boys have been good sports whether a Negro or white boy won in a race as has been shown by slapping winners on the back.

Then, too, championships of the U.S.A. mean much more to a participant and his school than the championships of the Texas Relays. And championships of the U.S.A. cannot be had by competing with a restricted segment of the population.

And all this in spite of Governor Shivers and his ilk who, for political demagoguery, appeal to the ignorant, the narrow constituents to gather votes.

Timid folks may say "this thing is being pushed too fast". The average thinker will not agree for this "push" is getting overdue results.

VOTE IN THE SCHOOL ELECTION MONDAY

Voters of the independent school district comprising Des Moines and a few surrounding areas go to the polls Monday to elect their candidates to the board of education; one, unopposed will be elected to fill an unexpired term while two will serve 6 year terms.

It is seldom possible to generate interest in school elections because nothing at stake appears on the surface. No salary is connected with the job. So only those run who do so out of civic pride.

Of course, civic pride is fine but there is too much of a disposition to place public service on that basis and thus lessen voter participation.

However, in spite of the system, the Bystander hopes that the voters will turn out and show their interest in the election of those who spend most of their tax dollars; who hire the teachers and carry on the buildtheir children get most of their training projects where next to the home ing.

Indian Families

Rowan points out, the Midwest's 75,000 Indians (who got U. S. citizenship only 33 years ago) have been encouraged by the Federal Government in recent years to quit the "rural slums" of the reservations.

Says Rowan: "Most of the younger generation sees that the arrow is broken, the tribe is dead." But, poorly educated, lacking technical skills and elementary economic judgment, they enter the white man's world with "handicaps that burden no other group of Americans."

Good and Dead

"When local whites criticize the South for racial segregation," asks Rowan, "is it a case of the pot calling the kettle black?" Rowan says he found "almost no citizen who will say directly that he considers the Indian racially inferior, or inherently a loafer or a drunkard."

Yet the director of an Indian hospital at White Earth, Minn., told him "The feeling in some communities is that the only good Indians are dead Indians." In many areas Indians are denied admission to hospitals, refused police protection, turned down when they apply for social-welfare aid.

Commented Series

The two-week series had hardly begun in the Tribune last week when Rowan was forced to "unplug my phone to get any sleep." At least 85% of the calls and letters to the paper commended the series, but government officials at all levels greeted the opening articles with silence. Pressed for comment, Minneapolis Mayor Eric Hoyer shrugged: "Who are we to tell the Indian he should go to work? I hope Mr. Rowan carries the series through to an investigation of the same problem in all metropolitan areas of the country."

Ghana on Freedom

shadow the independence of the rest of Africa.

"Credit for Gold Coast independence goes primarily to one man, the present Prime Minister, Nkrumah," the editorial asserts.

"Undisturbed by the fog of compromise, Mr. Nkrumah looked into the heart of the colonial problem and resolved to free his people. To imagine," he says, "that these colonial powers (Britain and France) will hand freedom and independence to their colonies on a silver platter without compulsion is the height of folly."

The editorial concludes: "There is hope for all Africa when this heaven of Ghana is at work throughout the continent."

NAACP annual national convention, which formulate the Association's policy, repeatedly have expressed opposition to colonialism.

Methodist Bishops

Indianapolis, in an address here on Feb. 26.

He was the principal speaker at the closing session of the three-day annual meeting of the Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service in the denomination's Southeastern Jurisdiction of nine states and Cuba.

"We Methodists have too frequently failed to take a positive, indeed any stand on such issues as integration," Bishop Raines said.

"The resulting vacuum of leadership in creating public sentiment has permitted the hoodlum and ultra conservative elements in many communities to take over and set the stage in action and attitude."

HEALTH FOR ALL

WORLD HEALTH DAY

The United States is joining with other nations in the observance of World Health Day, April 7, Dr. LeRoy E. Burney, Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, announced today.

Federal agencies this year will observe the theme, "Food and Health," in programs dealing with nutrition, food production and distribution, and food protection and sanitation, Dr. Burney said. The theme will also be used to recruit young Americans for careers in nutritional and other food health program. Agencies participating include the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, the Department of Agriculture, and the Department of State.

In cooperation with the National Citizens Committee for the World Health Organization, the government committee for World Health Day will also meet requests for material from industries and voluntary groups that plan to observe the day. Special Kits of material will be prepared for this purpose. Dr. H. van Zile Hyde, Chief of the Public Health Service's Division of International Health, is chairman of the interagency committee.

The World Health Day there was selected by the World Health Organization, Dr. Hyde explained, to commemorate the anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution of the World Health Organization. A different theme is chosen each year to encourage countries to improve various types of health programs. Because of the emphasis this year is on food, another United Nations' agency, the Food and Agriculture Organization, is co-sponsor of the Day.

Themes of previous years which have been widely used by governmental groups, industries and voluntary organizations throughout the U. S. are: "Destroy Disease Carrying Insects" (1956), "Clean Water Means Better Health" (1955), and "Health is Wealth" (1954)

Boston Observes Crispus Attucks Day and Massacre

BY ALLEN ASHBY

The biggest news to come this week is the announcement that Negroes may compete in the Texas Relays. This never happened before and will open the way for some real competition in those relays. These things just have to happen in the face of the fact that kids are playing together all over the country. That is wherever the old folks will let them.

Too bad Iowa doesn't have the gang they had last year backed by some of the prominent men who won the Big Ten track championship. Jones will likely set some two-mile mark before he finishes school.

Basketball

If we had to pick a team to give Kansas and Wilt Chamberlain a battle for the Big Seven basketball title next year it would be Kansas State. With Bob Boozer and pass, they have a combination that can match most two-man efforts.

Then you better watch Iowa next year. They won't finish as far down as they have this year. The Hawks will likely have a host of Negroes. Gentry John Lewis Wardlaw and possibly one or two others. Illinois still maintains the color line. But we don't think it is that. It is simply that there are too many good basketball players for anyone school to handle them all.

A friend of ours said he risked mayhem last week by suggesting seeing a basketball game to Willie Cerf, Cerf, former Drake star has just about seen all the cage games he wants as a member of the Globe Trotters. Here again there are enough good Negro players around the country so no one outfit pro-league or traveling team can keep them all. So they will continue to show up around the country.

Boxing

Kid Gavalan had better call it quits while he can. He is just a shell of his former self and it seems too bad to see him lose to guys who couldn't even carry his trunks. But we guess he won't. They never do.

will carry the salute to Iowa at 5:05 p.m., Central Standard Time, along with nearly 200 other NBC Network stations.

The new program, called "Man on the Go—for the Van on the Go," salutes one state each week with appropriate music, a greeting from the governor, and a ten-minute talk by Alex Dreier, consisting of colorful, dramatic facts about the state's history, famous sons, recreations, attractions, scenery and industrial progress. It is sponsored by North American Van Lines, Inc., world-wide moving organization.

Governor Herschel C. Loveless will open the broadcast with a brief message of welcome. In his talk, Governor Loveless will say, "The tall corn isn't growing in Iowa right now, but we're happy to have this tribute from Alex Dreier, Monitor's Man on the Go. This great agricultural, industrial, home-loving state extends a cordial welcome to you radio listeners from coast to coast. We'll feel right at home, out Iowa way."

IOWA WEATHER REPORT

Our weather man, as best he can Doth figure, plot, chart and plan. Reports, he gets from far and wide. No angle does he leave untried. From every source within his ken He takes a final check, and then:

2,000 YEAR OLD SKYSCRAPER

Long before Manhattan Island was purchased from the Indians — at a time when the word "skyscraper" had not yet been coined — a magnificent twenty-story palace dominated the skyline of Yemen's capital city of San'a.

This regal structure, known as the Palace of Ghamdan, was as great a tourist attraction two thousand years ago as New York's Empire State Building is today. Many historians have described the wonders of the famed palace, which had a ceiling of transparent alabaster so clear that its inhabitants reportedly could distinguish the species of different birds as they alighted on the roof or flew overhead.

Because of Ghamdan and other places which once towered twenty to thirty stories in the air, the Yemenites can fairly claim that they were the first people to erect skyscrapers. Only traces of the palace of Ghamdan remain in present-day San'a, but the capital contains many seven- and eight-storied buildings with the same type of original architecture. Even today the upper windows of some Yemenite palaces are made of translucent alabaster instead of glass, and the lower stained-glass windows beam forth at night in multi-colored splendor.

Although San'a is situated on a flat plateau, some of its buildings are so tall that from a distance it seems as though the city is built on elevated land. The average Yemenite, accustomed to climbing his country's rugged mountains, is undaunted by long flights of stairs and instinctively seems to prefer tall buildings. Foreign visitors have noted with amazement that the Yemenite of the plains, when unable to live on high ground, erects a tall house—and chooses the top floor to live on!

Police arrived and spoke with him. "I have a right to sit here and listen quietly," he shouted.

Backyard Meeting

Jones occupied a front seat as Fred B. Hockett addressed the Seaboard White Citizens Council's new Miami chapter in a member's backyard.

Hockett described the late Booker T. Washington as "a credit to the Negro race, but raised by a white man—the only kind that amounts to anything."

"What about Ralph Bunche (United Nations official)?" Jones asked. "You keep quiet!" Hockett said. "You'll get your chance to speak."

Shouts and hoots broke out from the crowd.

There were cries of "get him out of here before he gets hurt."

The minister sat down, saying "I'll sit here and be quiet."

Cross Incident

More boos and hoots broke out. Two officers picked the minister up by the shoulders and carried him into a police car.

Hockett, 51, and three other men face arraignment later this month on unlawful assembly charges in an attempt to raise a fuel-soaked cross Saturday night on the lawn of a Miami Negro who moved into the white neighborhood.
