'Meet Frustration and Heartache'

Mrs. Spencer Gets Degree From Drake;
To Teach in Des Moines School System

MRS. MABEL SPENCER

Mrs. Mabel Spencer, wife of John I. Spencer, and mother of a 19-year-old son, Jerry, received her Bachelor of Science in Education Degree Monday, June 3, in the Drake University Commencement exercises. She has signed, already, a contract to teach elementary education in the Des Moines public school system, beginning this fall.

Realizes Desire

From her early childhood, she has held a desire to become a public school teacher. She was married and began to rear her family.

When World War II broke, Mrs. Spencer's husband had begun his four-year military services in the army. Mrs. Spencer joined him in 1942 at Fort Sill, Okla., where she spent two years, working in the U. S. O.

The American Institute of Business began its War Secretaries and Typists classes for the government and Mrs. Spencer became a student, made the honor roll, and, was sent to Dayton, Ohio, where she worked as a clerk-typist and bookkeeper at Wright and Patterson Air Fields. She returned to Des Moines in 1946 when she secured a position at the State Employment Service as a claims taker, receptionist and PBX operator.

It was during her service at the employment office that she decided to begin her college work in 1950, attending the Drake Community College in the evenings, and Saturday classes, for two years.

'Not Happy'

"I was not happy at this arrangement. It seemed that getting a degree was so far off," Mrs. Spencer recalled.

"My husband kept asking me—'why don't you quit your job?' I finally got around to it and began as a full-time student at Drake during the summer of 1955."

Work on Masters

Mrs. Spencer began summer classes this week at Drake. She already has completed some hours on her Master's Degree.

Her son, Jerry, who was graduated from high school in 1956, attended Simpson College at Indianola last fall. Her husband is employed at Marquette Cement Co.; and, her mother, Mrs. Minnie Potter, resides with them.

"To all of them, I am grateful," Mrs. Spencer said.

She is a member of Corinthian Baptist Church, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Mary Church Terrell Club No. 2, and is a former member of the entertainment committee of the NAACP.

Mr. Walter Griffin Dies in California

Word was received here Monday of the death of Mr. Walter Griffin in Los Angeles, Cal., who died June 8. He is a former Osceola and Des Moines, Ia., resident, and was active in St. Paul AME Church when here. Services will be held there Saturday, June 15. Among his survivors is his wife, Mrs. Anna Griffin.

Hits Manner in Which Civil Right's Chairman Defended Tavern Operator

The legal redress committee of the Des Moines Branch of NAACP, Attys. James James B. Morris, Jr., Gene Bridges, Robert A. Wright and James B. Morris, Sr., presented to the city council Monday a resolution "condemning the manner in which the chairman of the Civil Rights Committee, Sam Turk, defended the 'manner in which the Class 'B' beer permit was granted James McCoy, Des Moines tavern owner and operator."

The resolution pointed out that McCoy, operator of Mac's Whistle Stop, 301 East Fourth Street, was convicted in Municipal Court last November 28 of violating a civil rights law by refusing to serve a Negro and fined $25 by the court.

Inconsistent

The resolution further stated that McCoy was granted a Class "B" beer permit by the City Council subsequent to his approval by Turk; and that "said defense of McCoy in view of his conviction by the court is untenable and inconsistent with the position that should be maintained by a member of the Committee appointed to eliminate discrimination within our city."

It was further resolved: "that we of the Des Moines Branch of NAACP hold with specific disdain the statements with reference to McCoy's innocence and attitude toward Negroes—an attempt to discredit the court—and we maintain that those who defended him be censured and admonished for said statements and acts which are inconsistent with facts and court findings."

Gets Service Award For 21 Years of 'Faithful' Work

Mr. Commodore Hendricks, 1700 Crocker Street, received a Service Award from the Veterans Administration here in "recognition of twenty-one years of faithful service to the United States Government."

The award, signed May 31, 1957, by W. B. Nugent, manager of Veterans Administration here, was sent to Mr. Hendricks who is convalescing at his home. He was an employee in the kitchen.

IACW Ends 55th Convention Elect Officers; Hears Talk On Frederick Douglass Home

The status of the Frederick Douglass Memorial Home in Anacostia, (D. C.), and the million-dollar housing project adjoining it on the land which once was owned by the great abolitionist, Frederick Douglass, were discussed Monday night at the annual banquet of the Iowa Association of Colored Women, held at St. Paul AME Church.

Guest speaker was A. A. Alexander, Des Moines-Washington, D. C. contractor, whose company erected two years ago the Douglass housing project which includes ten three and four-story apartment buildings with a total of 152 modern, fire-proof apartments valued at $1,321,000.

Leases Ground

Mr. Alexander revealed that his contracting company leased six and one-half acres of ground which was owned by the National Association of Colored Women (NACW) who have in their charge the Douglass Memorial Home.

Mr. Alexander revealed that the NACW not only sanctioned the proposition that the contracting company pay $3,000 a year for the rental of the ground—but that at the end of thirty years, when the property, which was financed on a Federal Housing Association Loan, out of Des Moines, Ia., will be paid for.

A. A. ALEXANDER

It will become the property of the National Association of Colored Women.

'Good Some Day'

"It is something that will be good some day for this organization," he said as he advised the federated clubs to "begin now" to give scholarships to train women in the field of apartment house management and other fields of apartment housekeeping.

Regarding the condition of the Frederick Douglass Memorial Home, Mr. Alexander said: "I can vision a

Existing Racial Practices In Housing Cause Trouble For Negro - White Tenants

Baltimore, Md.—Existing practices of racial segregation in housing cause trouble for both Negro and white home seekers. White persons flee to cracker-box, suburban housing which is built with monotonous uniformity and which frequently has sewer water in the basement. Negro property-owners discover that their new neighborhoods are manipulated by absentee exploiters who want to "open a poolroom on the corner, a tavern across the street from a church, and a junk shop in any vacant garage."

These views were expressed here on May 25 by Clarence Mitchell, director of the NAACP's Washington Bureau, at the annual banquet of Real Estate Brokers of Baltimore, Inc. Mr. Mitchell was guest of honor at the affair.

Call for End

Calling for an end to governmental support of racial restrictions in housing, the NAACP official charged that 14 leading institutions which control assets of 55 billion dollars have the full cooperation of the federal government in building entire communities for whites only.

She was a member of Bethel Church and had served as a Gray Lady for the Red Cross.

Mr. Copeland is presiding elder of the Des Moines District of the AME Church.

Hit Rep. Powell For 'Final Word' to House Democrats

Washington, D. C.—An Ohio Democrat charged Friday that "no person is doing more to divide the Negro citizens of this country from the rest of our citizens" than Representative Powell (Dem., N. Y.).

Representative Hays (Dem., Ohio), interrupted house debate on the civil rights bill to deliver the bitter attack on the congressman and minister, hospitalized after he collapsed last Sunday in his Harlem pulpit.

Hays was supported by Representative Walter (Dem., Penn.), who charged that Powell would be "the most disappointed man in America" if the civil rights bill is enacted into law.

Letter to House

The attack, which prompted a roar of applause from southern Democrats, was based on a letter to house members from Powell, who is now recovering at Bethesda Naval Hospital.

Powell said in the letter: "As a final word to Democrats, let me say that the colored voters of the north are fed up with weak platforms and watered-down legislation. They are increasingly asking the question, why send Pennsylvania and Ohio Democrats to congress if they take orders from middlemen who serve the White Citizens Councils in Mississippi and Alabama?"

Cites Vote

Hays replied that all Democrats from his state of Ohio, and probably all of those from Pennsylvania, voted for the civil rights bill that passed the house last year.

Hays noted caustically that Powell was on a "vacation trip" to

Wilkins Tells Council Bill Will Permit Development Of Free Market in Housing

New York—No matter how high their level of education, technical skill or professional standing, Negro Americans "meet only frustration and heartache when they seek to purchase a home," Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary, told the Committee on General Welfare of the New York City Council at a hearing here June 7.

Mr. Wilkins testified on behalf of the Sharkey-Brown-Isaacs bill, which would prohibit racial discrimination in rentals in all apartment houses and in the sale of single family homes sold in developments of 10 or more dwellings in New York City.

Economic Terms

The NAACP official described the bill as one which "would permit the development of a free market in housing," he contended.

"Real estate transactions are generally thought of in coldly economic terms, although it is sought always to invest the purchase of a home with the warm aura of family life, with children and with progress in business or a profession," Mr. Wilkins said.

But, he asked, "why should parents rear children to be ambitious and industrious and well-behaved, with aspiration to achieve success in this great country of ours, when at the very outset of adult life no suitable home can be found in which to live?"

The NAACP leader also pointed out that forced residential segregation has brought about a lack of public school integration.

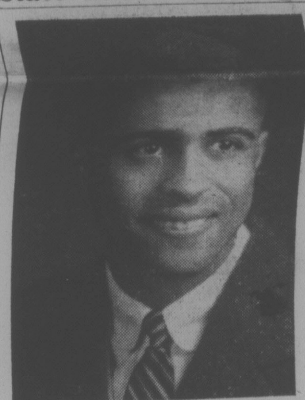

Many White and Negroes Are Friendly Neighbors

New York—Undeniable proof that white and Negro families are living as friendly neighbors in many American communities was presented here by Dr. John A. Morsell of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Dr. Morsell, who is assistant to the NAACP executive secretary, presented a study on open occupancy

Cheese and Bacon Rice Salad

Rice salads are a new idea alert homemakers are going for in a big way. A rice salad is easier to fix than potato or combination salad as the rice doesn't need washing, scraping, peeling or cutting up. It's perfect for a picnic or as a last minute salad because it's just as good not too cold. Since rice is an excellent food buy, it makes today's most inexpensive salad.

This salad uses bacon, sharp cheese, sweet pickles and radishes. A rice salad can be made with almost any meat, vegetable and seasoning. In this one, green peppers could substitute for the radishes. Diced luncheon meat could replace the bacon. And sliced hard-cooked eggs would be a nice addition. For a more flavorful salad add the mayonnaise and some of the seasonings while the rice is hot. The limit with a rice salad so use your own imagination and artistic touch when it comes to a garnish.

INGREDIENTS:

2 cups water
1 1/4 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon black pepper
1 cup uncooked white rice
6 strips bacon
1/4 cup mayonnaise

1 1/2 cup chopped sweet pickles
1/2 pound sharp cheese, cut in 1/2" cubes
1 cup thinly sliced radishes
Salad greens

METHOD: Put the water, salt, black pepper and rice in a 2-quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil over a high heat. Turn the heat down low. Cover with a lid and simmer over this low heat 14 minutes. Remove the saucepan from the heat but leave the lid on 10 minutes. While the rice cooks, place the bacon in a cold skillet. Cook slowly until crisp, pouring off the fat as the bacon cooks. After the rice cooks, stir in the mayonnaise, 2 tablespoons of the bacon fat and the pickles. Coarsely chop the bacon and stir in. After the rice cools, stir in the cheese and radishes. Cover well and store in the refrigerator until time to serve. This salad is excellent served either at room temperature or chilled.

Serve with mayonnaise or French dressing. Serve on salad greens and garnish with radish roses, sliced radishes, hard-cooked eggs, green pepper rings or bacon curls. This recipe makes 8 to 10 servings.

Boy, 13, Slays Girl On School's Stairs

Brooklyn, N. Y. (CNS)—A gruesome tragedy involving two Negro youths occurred on the stairs of the Stephen Decatur Junior High School when both of them should have been in class. 13 year old Walter Groves killed 15 year old Lois Jones because, he said, she had called him a "dirty name."

Walter was two inches shorter than Lois and of slighter build. But he said she had been picking on him for seven months. Finally while he was coming from a Spanish class from which he had been excused and she was coming from an English class from which she had been excused—oddly enough at the same time—they clashed on the stairs.

His confession came after police picked him up at home when another student told of him running with blood stained clothing.

Cautions Graduates Against 'Fatal Money Germ'

"Never before was the opportunity of the educated man or woman so great as today," Rev. Jesse Hawkins spoke Sunday afternoon as he addressed the graduates' banquet at St. Paul A.M.E. Church. "In spite of the fact that there are millions out of work today, the world is crying for men and women who can do things. On all sides we see men and women with small minds, half-trained, half-educated, holding positions merely because there are not enough well-prepared people.

A Curse

The speaker warned the graduates that "all education which does not elevate, refine and ennoble its recipient, is a curse instead of a blessing."

He cautioned the graduate against the "money madness."

"This fatal money germ will knock you from your tiptoes on the threshold of active life, destroying your high ideals and glorious visions. It will spread through your whole nature, inoculating your ambition with its vicious virus, and, in a few years your fair college vision will fade, your yearnings for something higher will gradually die and be replaced by material, sordid, selfish ideals.

"You must choose that vocation which focuses the largest amount of your experience and tastes," he advised.

Miss Romona Dell Houston presided. The banquet was given by the Sunday School of St. Paul A.M.E. Church for its high school and college graduates. Greetings were given by honor graduate of East High School, James Thomas of the January 1957 class.

Ugres Support of DuBois Report on Integration

Lake Metcong, N. Y.—The report of the New York City Board of Education's committee on integration deserves the support of all citizens who have the welfare of our children at heart, Dr. Channing H. Tobias, chairman of the Board of Directors of the NAACP, told teachers and parents attending a week-end conference here.

The conference held at the Hudson Guild Farm was sponsored by the Board of Education under the direction of Miss Truda T. Weil, assistant superintendent of Districts 12, 13 and 14 comprising the Harlem area in New York City.

Running Away

Addressing the morning session on June 2, Dr. Tobias warned that "no problem is ever solved by running away. We all have a responsibility to take a stand and support efforts to eliminate racial segregation."

He cited the work of the NAACP which "set in motion the machinery for elimination of segregation in this nation." President Eisenhower, he said, has succeeded in cleaning up racial discrimination in the District of Columbia thus setting an example for other southern communities to follow.

"The attack on the NAACP in the South is really an attack upon the United States Supreme Court," he declared. This attack is doomed to failure. It cannot succeed, he asserted.

LET'S NOT BE TOO QUICK TO JUDGE

The decision by the Eisenhower administration to permit SP/3C Garrard, the American soldier who killed a Japanese woman, to be tried by a Japanese court, was somewhat of a difficult position to take. Undoubtedly, every angle of the occupation status of our troops in Japan was examined carefully for they realized that sentiment at home would rise up while to fail to recognize the terms of the agreement would place Americans in the position of failing to respect the sovereignty of those conquered people.

Unfortunately the average person, who is registering strong protest, does not realize that thousands of American soldiers have been tried by Japanese courts without any miscarriage of justice. To have done otherwise would have incurred ill feeling between the citizens of the occupied territory and renig on treaty obligations.

These same objectors complained that the soldier's rights have been violated because America yielded to the pressure of Japan. Of course that pressure came because Japanese official felt they were on un-sound legal grounds.

The job of maintaining our troops in foreign lands is a ticklish one. This was emphasized by the rioting on Formosa when an American soldier was acquitted by a court martial of killing a native charged with window peeping. And this among soldiers with whom they fought, the communists.

Unfortunate as this situation is, Americans cannot be other than willing to abide by the rules which they helped to make, and in the end undoubtedly this soldier will be given a fair trial.

DR. BILLY GRAHAM'S LIBERAL VIEWS

Last week Evangelist Billy Graham, who is conducting a series of meetings at Madison Square Garden in New York, stated some of his beliefs on race prejudice. Dr. Graham, a southerner would naturally be asked about his views on the subject partly because of his implicit faith in the bible as a very definite guide for Christians.

In the course of this statement he said that all men were created by God and that it was un-Christian to hate a person because of his race or color.

Sunday, he was guest panelist on NBC's Meet the Press program and was asked whether he believed in integration and was opposed to segregation. His reply to each was unequivocally favorable taking the position that one could not be a Christian and hate his fellowman.

These were encouraging remarks for all to often some clergymen have shied away from taking a position on the race question rather preferring to stand on neutral ground. Dr. Graham's messages have much more sound Christian touch as the result of his straight forward statement.

Accuse Powell

Europe during last year's civil rights debate and will "apparently" remain at Bethesda hospital "until this debate is over."

The Ohio Democrat said the Powell letter was an attempt to "threaten" his colleagues, but his "almost convinced" him to vote for a jury trial amendment supported by the south.

Hays described Powell's action as a "small political trick" and agreed with Walter that if the bill is passed Powell would have nothing left to "talk about."

Hays took Powell to task for what he said was a 1944 appearance at a Communist Party rally in New York along with Red leaders William Z. Foster and Earl Browder.

"Praised" Russia

He also charged that Powell had once said that "the death" of Representative Martin Dies (Dem., Tex.) "is as important as the death of Hitler," and that he had praised the Soviet Union on several occasions.

Representative Celler (Dem., N. Y.) interrupted to say Hays' attack "would have come with better grace" if Powell were present. Hays said he would be glad to repeat his charges before Powell, but that "any refutation has to be now."

cautious on the segregation issue that in some instances they will not permit speech-making subordinates to quote anti-segregation statements made by President Eisenhower, Mr. Mitchell said.

He further charged that when slum areas are cleared for urban housing, which he had helped to prepare, before a meeting at the New York School of Social Work. The meeting, on June 5, was sponsored by the Committee on Civil Rights in Manhattan.

Nationwide Study

The results of the nationwide housing study clearly indicated that Negroes can move into formerly all-white neighborhoods without the unfortunate consequences so often predicted: panic selling, an exodus of white residents, depreciation of market values, deterioration of property, or mob violence.

The study was conducted in 73 communities by means of a questionnaire submitted to 275 informed persons in localities where open occupancy housing was known or believed to exist. Both old and new neighborhoods were surveyed. Some areas were made up of multiple dwellings while others consisted of single-family homes. The proportion of Negro residents varied from small to large.

Keokuk, Iowa

Honor Graduate

Keokuk, Ia. — The Keokuk High School and College Alumni Association held its annual dinner on June 8 in the beautiful banquet room of the Grand Hotel. Approximately 85 guests were present including out of town guests from Fort Madison, Ia., Burlington, Ia., and Galesburg, Ill.

Prayer was given by Mrs. Alma Johnson, preceding an enjoyable dinner, at the conclusion of which Mrs. Virginia Parson, mistress of ceremonies called upon the two graduates who were being honored. Mr. Arthur R. Baker read a poem entitled "The Conqueror," by Emil Carl Aurin. Mr. Bennie W. Bradley read "Casey at the Bat" by Ernest Lawrence Thayer.

Mrs. Mildred Mills Hawkins, the president of the organization for 1957, was presented to the group by the mistress of ceremonies and gave the annual address.

The theme of her address was bearing upon the youth of today. She brought out the fact that all youth are not delinquent, such fact being proven by the large roster of graduates from schools all over the country. She made mention of the fact that youth need encouragement and praise for their efforts in reaching this plateau in their lives which is such a turning point.

As mistress of ceremonies, Mrs. Parsons proved quite adequate and eloquent in her address before numbers on the program. Most of her philosophizing was directed to the honored graduates.

Mrs. Parsons told the boys that she would like very much for them to remember the nice things our president had said in her address, but also said, "I doubt if you will. It has been sixteen years since I stood where you now stand, and I can't remember a word of what our president that year said."

Mrs. Myrtle Ashby was called upon to present a gift to each of the graduates, after which the parents of the boys were asked for a few words. Mr. John Baker spoke of his happiness at seeing this milestone being passed and Mr. William Bradley said how proud both he and Mrs. Baker, as parents, were of their children. He said it was unusual that there were only two graduates to join the organization this year.

Mrs. Mildred Hawkins, retiring president, presented Mrs. Norma Bunton to the group as incoming president for 1958. Mrs. Bunton congratulated the co-workers of this year, and expressed the hope that she could get the same type of cooperation next year.

At the close of the program the group disbanded, to reassemble at the Masonic Hall, 12th at Johnson for dancing, and to complete an enjoyable evening. Shunninghouse band provided music for dancing.

HEALTH FOR ALL

TO THE JUNE BRIDE

One of the saddest Cinderella stories ever told was the one about the struggling young actress who won the heart of a millionaire.

Her family who had practically disowned her for seeking a stage career now opened their arms. They killed the fatted calf when she came home to prepare for her wedding. (Quite a change from living on malted milks in a Broadway drug store.) "Friends" who had laughed at her struggles were now only too glad to prove their undying affection.

Party followed party. Showers Showers rained. In between, there were fittings, arrangements to be made, changed, and made all over again, thank-yous to write as the gifts poured in. If Cinderella got four hours sleep out of the 24 she was lucky. Plenty of chicken in party shells and fancy desserts were set in front of her, but she was too excited to eat much. Between parties she lived on sandwiches and black coffee.

Sights of Europe

The wedding went off as scheduled: the biggest town had seen for years. At last Cinderella found herself with the Prince in the first class cabin on the Queen Mary setting out on their honeymoon trip to Europe. She was sick the first day out, and the next, and so on. The sights of Europe were doctors' offices, hotel bedrooms, and medicine bottles.

This sad tale is not an unusual one. Too many brides start out on their honeymoons completely worn out by the wedding preparations. The first weeks of marriage are difficult enough without the added complication of a bride suffering from indigestion, exhaustion, and frayed nerves.

If you want a real wedding and a happy honeymoon, pay a visit to the family doctor before the festivities shift into high gear. He'll give you a thorough check-up and words of wisdom. You'll do well to follow his advice. Remember that the wedding, is after all, only the prelude to the main event.

SPORTS

BY ALLEN ASHBY

Every so often, one picks up a paper and sees a story about professional athletes, baseball, football players and such fighting. Some people want to know why fellows who are supposed to be models of deportment and who know that when one gets angry he has two strikes against him, will lose their tempers and engage in these fairly common brawls.

So we talked to an old pro-campaigner. He said the fellows were really keyed up for important games. Just as high as any school team because winning meant so much more money. So don't let anybody kid you that they are playing a cool relaxed game just for the pay. Then there is the knowledge that any injury could end a career which means a living. So the guys get awfully mad when they figure an opponent is deliberately trying to hurt them. The other fellow is equally angry if he has been unjustly accused; so you have a scuffle.

Then nothing makes a fellow madder than to have some opponent grab him or use some of the little tricks to keep one from doing his best in a game. Like holding in a football or basketball game or other little stunts to impair one's efficiency. This prevents one from doing his best and might cost a player a job.

So add to all this the fact that professional athletes are human beings and you have the reasons why they sometimes become embattled.

They played the finals of the junior tennis meet at Good Park last week. At last the park is coming into its place as a recreation center. The tennis setup in the city is at the park. Our finals of our own club meet with our loud speaker setup never failed to bring expressions of admiration from other tennis players.

Maybe we can get some kids to take the game real serious and bring up a winner. But that isn't so important as getting a lot of kids to play tennis. Oh yes, our chips are on Althea Gibson to win both the Wimbledon and American titles.

PRECIOUS GIFT

The gift of common sense will rule—and is a priceless, ductile tool, and is coupled with a keen, quick brain, that grabs at every chance to train. Then trains so it can quick discern what sometime may be prime concern,

No hopeless, helpless, drone is this, that sits and waits for death's cold kiss.
This one prepares for every need—and when it comes, denies no creed, nor does one ask, of color, race, all rank the same in God's embrace.

Deny no one, beneath His sun—and then you'll know His will is done.
Give everyone who needs a lift—and you'll possess His precious gift.

Columbus NAACP Posts Award for Information on Cross Burners

NAACP branch has posted a $100 reward for information resulting in the arrest of the person or persons guilty of recent cross burnings in a quiet residential area of Columbus.

This was announced here last week by Rev. John B. Quick, branch president.

Two crosses have been burned in recent weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warren, a Negro couple. Also, the front window of the Warren's residence has been smashed. In the latest incident, witnesses reported having seen three young men, possibly teen-agers, leave the scene in an automobile.

The Warrens live in a neighborhood described by its residents as "quiet and peaceful." The area comprises both white and Negro families. Police officers have indicated that the cross burnings are an attempt by persons outside the neighborhood to stir up racial trouble.

The NAACP had their final meeting June 2 before closing for the summer with a delightful affair with Miss Mary Jane Palmer pouring the coffee at the heavy laden table. Mrs. W. H. Harper, Jr., president, reported a substantial gain of new members.
