Rescuer of 'Boy in Well' Disheartened by Boss's Criticism, Quits His Job

Manorville, L. I. (CNS)—Sam Woodson, Negro construction worker who last month was the first to reach 7-year-old Benny Hooper at the bottom of a 25 foot well, and acclaimed a real hero for doing it, has quit his job. An employee of the Mike Storz Contracting Company which used its equipment in the rescue work—Woodson reports that owner Storz did not agree that he should be the hero when others from his company worked on the rescue.

It was Woodson's faith and courage which kept him digging for the child long after hope had vanished and all had given him up as dead. As Woodson explained on television, radio and in the newspapers—when he heard a faint cry, his only thought was to get the child out safely—not of himself. He re-enacted many times the slow, patient way he dug for little Benny, who had been in the well for 24 hours. When the boss kept insisting others did "much more of the work" and should have received more or all the credit, Woodson became so disheartened—he quit.

Meanwhile, the Hooper family had its own problems. Dr. Joseph Kris, physician who attended Benny in the hospital following the miraculous saving—presented the family with a bill for $1,500 for "professional services." The Medical Society, senators and private citizens protested.

U.S.—Bulwark of Freedom

BIRTHDAY OF A FREE NATION as the Declaration of Independence was presented to Congress in 1776. Contrary to popular belief, this historic document was not signed by Congress on July 4th. Instead, the Act by which the original 13 states broke colonial allegiance to Great Britain was approved by Congress July 2, proclaimed on July 4th, and signed at various times up to Nov. 4.

SYMBOL OF HUMAN RIGHTS and freedom, the Liberty Bell in Independence Hall rang out at every festival and anniversary of Independence until it cracked in 1855.

BIRTHPLACE OF OUR NATION was Independence Hall, Philadelphia, where Continental Congress met, Declaration of Independence adopted and proclaimed, Washington appointed Commander-in-Chief, and U. S. Constitution framed.

OUR NATION'S CAPITOL, moved from Philadelphia to banks of the Potomac in 1800, today is a majestic city, nerve center of a great country, and the hope of freedom-loving people everywhere. The capitol dome, sprawling office buildings, monuments, memorials, and 7,000 acres of public parks including the Mall shown here, are familiar sights to countless Washington visitors.

Ordered to End Jimerow or Have Charter Lifted

Cleveland, Ohio — Faced with an ultimatum from A.F.L.-C.I.O. President George Meany, all-white Local 38 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers has started processing the application for membership of Theodore Pinkston, 30, a Negro electrician.

Meany and I.B.E.W. President Gordon Freeman ordered Local 38 to end racial discrimination by next Monday or have its charter lifted.

Hold Rites for Frank B. Kaiser, Resident 57 Years

Services for Frank B. Kaiser, 60, of 1224 E. Seventeenth court, were held Friday, June 29, at the Maple Street Baptist Church. Burial was in Glendale Cemetery.

Mr. Kaiser died of cancer Tuesday, June 25, at Iowa Lutheran Hospital.

Born in Mount Pleasant, he had lived here 57 years. He was a maintenance employee at Mercy Hospital; a member of Maple Street Baptist Church and a former member of the church board.

Surviving are six sons, Frank, Jr., Carl, LeRoy, Fred and Raymond, all of Des Moines, and Reginald of Seattle, Wash.; two daughters, Mrs. Harriet Champion of San Diego, Cal., and Mrs. Rosalie Dodd of St. Paul, Minn.; a brother, William of Des Moines; two sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Rudd of Chicago, Ill., and Mrs. Sadie Allen of Gary, Ind., and 14 grandchildren.

New Laws Become Effective July 4

New laws governing horsepower of motor boats on artificial lakes of the state and new requirements for fishing and hunting licenses take effect July 4, the Conservation Commission reminded Iowans today.

Motor boats operating on artificial lakes of 100 or more acres may have a maximum motor output of six horsepower on July 4. The new law supercedes the five horsepower maximum that has been in effect.

Women Anglers

Women anglers 16 years of age and over are required to have licenses to fish in any water of the state on and after July 4. Heretofore, women were required to have licenses only when fishing in state-owned lakes.

Also beginning July 4, Iowa resident fishing and hunting licenses will be increased to $2 each, or $3.50 when purchased in combination. Also increased, effective July 4, is the six-day non-resident license fee which goes to $3. No license will be required for non-residents under 14 years of age.

All other license requirements and fees are unchanged.

White Members Quit Church When Negro Appointed

Los Angeles, Cal.—The entire active membership of the Normandie Avenue Methodist Church resigned in a body Sunday night over the appointment of a Negro pastor.

All of those who quit—36 persons—were white. The church has no Negro members, but does have 25 Negro children in Sunday school.

The pastor, the Rev. Nelson B. Higgins, was appointed by Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy recently because the church is in a neighborhood that has changed from all white to 40 to 50 per cent Negro.

Says 'We Could Use Few Strong, Straight Words From the White House'

Detroit, Mich.—Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), said Sunday "we could use a few strong, strong, straight words from the White House" on the issue of desegregation.

In a speech at a mass meeting in Olympia Stadium, Wilkins said the nation faced a "great desegregation crisis."

Feeling of Delegates

"If I sense correctly the feeling of delegates, it is that in good will, but with firm determination, we continue in the NAACP tradition of attacking evils and attacking again, until victory is won.

"We will keep up the fight, on crutches, on one leg, with one arm or with one eye, as long as we can see, think, act and breathe—as long as we are alive."

Convention Climax

The meeting climaxed a weeklong convention of the NAACP. Speaking with Wilkins were Jackie Robinson, former Brooklyn baseball star who heads the NAACP fund raising drive, and Thurgood Marshall, special counsel who has argued NAACP cases before the supreme court.

Recounting what he termed oppressive measures taken against Negroes in the South, Wilkins said: "When Hungarians resist oppression they are called heroes; when American Negroes legally and peacefully resist oppression they are called agitators.

Observers Sent

"Our government sends observers to Hungary, organizes airlifts, sets up refugee camps, and opens immigration doors; but it does not say a mumbling word to the deep South states about persecution, nor does it

Social Action Group to Meet

NAACP Branches Awarded Prizes for Very Important Civil Rights Work in '56

Detroit—NAACP branches in Detroit, the District of Columbia, Philadelphia, Miami, Montgomery County (Md.) and Palo Alto (Calif.) were awarded prizes here June 27 for outstanding civil rights work on the local level in 1956.

The seven branches as well as three state units of the NAACP received Thalheimer Awards, presented each year by the Association's national office. The state units awarded prizes were those in Kentucky, Virginia and West Virginia.

Presentation of the awards took place during the NAACP's 48th annual convention, which closed on June 30.

First prizes went to the Washington, D. C. and Detroit branches and the Kentucky State NAACP. The Washington unit won first place in the category of branches without paid personnel and the Detroit unit in the category of branches which have paid personnel.

Detroit Unit

The Washington branch was cited for a variety of accomplishments. These included raising its membership from 3,953 in 1955 to 9,656 in 1956, winning a legal case which resulted in a municipal order opening amusement places in the District of Columbia to persons of all races, obtaining changes in employment policies in the Civil Service Commission, uncovering discrimination in the General Services Administration and presenting these findings to the President's Committee on Government Employment Policy, and conducting a year-long institute for parents, teachers and students on scholastic achievement and other matters arising from school desegregation.

The Detroit unit was cited among other activities for obtaining a mem-

Negro Publishers Told American Business Now 'Partner in Fourth Estate'

Columbus, Ohio—Members of the National Newspaper Publishers Association, meeting here last week, heard American business termed a "partner in the Fourth Estate" and a "vital member of 'our-way-of-life' team."

Speaking before the opening dinner session of the NNPA's annual convention at the Seneca Hotel, Moss H. Kendrick, Washington, D. C., public relations man, declared that "due to the vast and dynamic advertising programs engaged in by American business, our-way-of-life is better known, worldwide, than any other system of civilization."

Opens Windows

"Through the pages of our newspapers and magazines, business opens windows which display to all of the free world what Americans eat, wear, ride and live in and otherwise enjoy," stated Mr. Kendrick, "while in the United States, this advertising activity fosters a keen competitive spirit among the producers and distributors of goods and services."

This "competitive spirit" was defined by the speaker as being "wholesome and, in essence, a protector of the American ideal of free enterprise, the backbone of our economy." Going further, Mr. Kendrick credited advertising with enabling publications to sell at prices within the reach of every American,

Alabama House Votes On Bias Bus Bill

Montgomery, Ala.—The Alabama house Tuesday passed and sent to the senate a bill aimed at relieving racial tension on integrated transportation facilities.

The measure would require a male passenger to obtain permission of a female passenger before he could sit next to her.

In effect, it gives white women the option of refusing to permit Negro men to sit beside them.

Independence Cupcakes

These spicy Independence Cupcakes topped with Browned Butter Frosting mean wholesome eating to giant-size picnic appetites.

As a climax to a hearty picnic "get together," these golden spice cupcakes are the answer to hungry diners of all ages. Wholesome food and easily prepared meals are a "must" for picnics.

Plan picnics often this summer. Everyone enjoys relaxing out of doors whether the site be ocean front, woods, park or just the wide, open spaces. Homemakers enjoy the outing too when they let these lightning-quick cupcakes with their Browned Butter Frosting take their place at the picnic table. Lazy appetites come alive as everything tastes special when you're eating out of doors.

If it's a Fourth of July outing you're planning, individual cakes are good company to sandwiches, potato salad, crisp relishes and tall glasses of cold milk, iced tea or lemonade. It's fun to take an extra minute to top the cakes with a bit of decoration. When the picnic is one of those "spur-of-the-moment" things, pick up some cakes from the bake shop.

There will be added food energy, essential B-vitamins and iron in store for your family in these cakes when enriched flour is used in the baking. All this is offered to you for no extra cost and the family needs extra energy as activities and appetites increase.

Plan on seconds of these tempting cakes because picnic appetites are king-size. The children will want extras for the mid-afternoon snack, too.

New Upside Down Cherry Bran Bread

Cherry Bran Bread is no ordinary quick bread. It's chock-full of red maraschino cherries, fine 100 per cent whole bran and pecans. But, its delicious caramel-like cherry nut upside down topping makes it a truly distinctive bread.

A mixture of cherries, nuts, butter and brown sugar is spread in the bottom of the baking pan and covered with cherry bran batter. When the bread is baked, it is turned from the pan and cooled upside down so the cherry-nut mixture becomes a tempting topping.

To prevent quick breads from cracking on the top, try this trick of food experts. Be careful not to overmix the batter and cover the loaf pan with an inverted bread pan or cover with aluminum foil. At the end of 20 minutes of baking, remove pan or foil and continue baking.

Cherry Bran Bread

Topping:
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1/4 cup light brown sugar
Melt butter or margarine in bottom of loaf pan and sprinkle brown sugar, cherries and nuts evenly over bottom of pan. Let stand while mixing the bread.

Batter:
2 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 egg, beaten
1 1/2 cups milk
Sift together flour, baking powder, sugar and salt. Combine egg and milk and stir into dry ingredients. Add melted butter or margarine, whole bran, cherries and nuts and mix until well blended. Pour into the prepared pan and bake in moderate oven (350°F.) for 1 hour to 1 hour and 10 minutes. Remove at once from pan onto rack. Cool before slicing. Yield: 1 loaf.

"As we call the roll of the states we wonder if there ever was a Civil War, if the Constitution ever made us citizens, if indeed, slavery does not still exist."

Marshall told the meeting, "While we have heard much about the rebellious action of the White Citizens many individuals, the courts have moved steadily toward full implementation of the supreme court decisions in 1954 and 1955."

"It is but a matter of time," he said, "until the legislative and executive government will use their authority to bring about desegregation."

Rev. King Speaks

The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King told a mass meeting Friday night that "close adherence" to the passive resistance method he used in Montgomery, Ala., "might even mean going to jail."

"If this is the case," he said, "we must with dignity and love fill up the jails of the South."

Calling for an immediate end of segregation, the Rev. Mr. King said: "In the midst of all the pleas for gradualism and slowing up, we must courageously keep moving."

Walk in Dignity

Accepting an achievement award from the NAACP convention, the Rev. Mr. King said, "you are really honoring the 50,000 Negro citizens of Montgomery, Ala., who more than a year ago came to see that it is ultimately more honorable to walk in dignity than ride in humiliation."

The NAACP gave the Baptist minister its Spingarn medal for leading Negroes in a boycott against segregated bus service in the Southern city.

In presenting the medal, Bishop Richard S. Emrich of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Michigan, said: "In giving him the Spingarn medal we are applauding his courage, his struggle for justice, and the wise, gentle, effective, unifying method which he has used."

Hear Housing Director

The housing director for the NAACP said Thursday "We are beginning to see slight improvements" in the housing situation of Negroes. Madison S. Jones of New York, who is in charge of the group's housing program, outlined the organization's policy in regional meetings.

Jones advised NAACP leaders to find out what city officials are planning. He said practically every city has slum clearance, urban redevelopment and renewal projects.

Building Cities

"We are building cities of the future and it is incumbent that we get our car in," he said.

Jones reported the housing picture is slightly brighter for Negroes because "some builders have started to build for a free market." He said some financial institutions—not too many of them—are interested in financing such housing.

"There are some indications," he said, "of a change in the trend in public housing in many northern and western areas where housing has been segregated."

Case Pending

Mrs. Constance Motley of New York, special counsel for the NAACP reported the association is challenging the right of the government to use federal funds for segregated housing in a project at Atlanta, Ga. The case is pending in federal court.

She said that if the NAACP wins the case "we shall have gone a long way toward ending racial segregation itself."

Reuther Speaks

Walter P. Reuther said "The people in congress have been on the longest sitdown strike in America—80 long years—" in not enacting full civil rights legislation.

"We think it is about time for them to terminate the sitdown strike," the United Auto Workers president told the convention Wednesday night.

"We need the courage to tell both political parties they should be ashamed of their shoddy efforts on civil rights," he said.

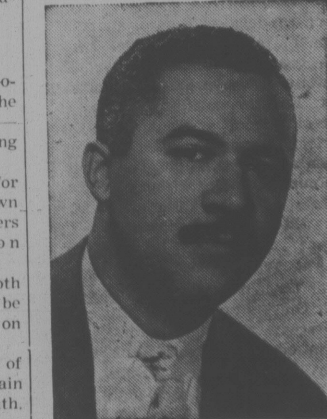

Reuther pledged the support of his union to help the NAACP obtain civil rights for Negroes in the south. The union's Washington attorney, Joseph L. Rauh, Jr., national vice-chairman of Americans for Democratic Action, drew applause with his declaration that the White House should throw its weight behind the association to halt "the current efforts in many southern states to put the NAACP out of business."

He suggested that Vice-President Nixon "address public meetings in the heart of the south" in support of NAACP. He also called on the attorney general to bring test suits on behalf of the association.

The month of July is a busy one for Independence Day Week end and summer vacationers coming from and going on trips about the country.

In Des Moines last week end, making her first visit in eleven years, was Miss Vondalee Carr of Boston, Mass. While here she was house guest of her aunt, Miss Minnie Wray; and she visited her father, Mr. Melvin Carr; attended her former church, St. Paul A.M.E., and left Sunday by plane for her home. She had visited in Kansas City before coming here.

Mrs. Fred Allen, 1162 Seventeenth Street, is home on a month's vacation from her work at Younkers Store—"all with pay," she revealed, since she now is a member of the store's Twenty-Year Club. She phoned for me to come by to meet her house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burroughs of Birmingham, Ala.

Mrs. Burroughs is an art teacher in special classes in the elementary schools in Birmingham, and Mr. Burroughs is employed as a machinist at the American Cast Iron Pipe Company there.

While here the Burroughs were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel McCowan, 1156 Seventeenth Street; theater guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Wilcots, 1104 Seventeenth Street.

Mr. Burroughs went on a fishing trip to Twin Lakes, Ia., with Messrs. Allen, Otis James and Michael Wilcots.

The couple was honored at a picnic at Good Park by Mrs. Wilcots, Mr. and Mrs. James and Mr. and

MEANEY ACTS TO CLEAN UP EXCLUSION POLICY

A great many unions include provisions in their constitutions that membership shall not be denied on the basis of race or color. Still, few locals obey. Officers are quick to point out this provision to anyone who challenges the undemocratic practices of excluding minorities from membership and yet look at what is all around most communities and it can be readily seen that nothing of the kind prevails.

Of course, many unions have gotten away with the practice of excluding minorities for years, even when the New Deal and the powerful influence wielded by labor in government were in full control. This has been due, in part, to the failure of anyone to make a strong attack on it and the apparent wink at the practice given by responsible public officials.

This practice is similar to the Iowa Civil Rights law which has been on the statute books for over fifty years but not until men stood up and demanded its enforcement did minorities benefit materially.

Last week, George Meaney, president of the AFL-CIO union, directed the International Brotherhood of the Electrical Workers in Cleveland, Ohio to either admit Negroes to union membership or turn in its charter. It takes this kind of action to get obedience to law and order and fortunately Meaney is a man of high principles and is willing to act to clean up a union in more ways than one.

This order is one of the most important steps to make democracy work in unions ever issued.

In Des Moines, and other Iowa towns, many unions are guilty of the practice of excluding minorities from membership even though their constitutions forbid the practice, and while none will admit the charge, the very fact that none has worked on union jobs for many years is definite proof of the charge.

This poses a problem for providing apprenticeships for youngsters who qualify for without having opportunity as a beginner, they never become journeymen.

A big hand goes to President Meaney for his bold leadership. It is up to local citizens to follow through.

NAACP SPEAKERS MINCE NO WORDS

Speakers at the NAACP convention in Detroit last week minced no words in criticizing the administration in Washington for its failure to give moral support to the U. S. Supreme Court decision against segregation, for its oversolicitation to help Hungarian refugees when nothing is being done for Negro refugees, for its failure to speak out against lawlessness against Negroes who are being punished simply because they insist on their rights as American citizens.

The Bystander has spoken in these same tones for months for no nation which fails to protect the rights of its citizens deserves to be called a democracy and can long maintain its position of world leadership.

The association went further and warned both Republican and Democratic parties that they had failed for years to carry out the pledges of equal justice to all citizens by refusing or failing to pass civil rights legislation to accomplish that end. Democratic Representative A. Clayton Powell of New York gave members of his party a sound lacing for failing to carry out their responsibility to the Negro. And while several members criticized Powell for his utterances, he was a hundred per cent right. And Republicans have been guilty of the same tactics also.

Last week five liberal Democrat senators teamed up with southern forces by voting to send the civil rights bill to committee apparently in return for the support of southerners to pass a public power bill, which would have permitted endless delay and probable defeat, and yet these same senators are first to criticize others for placing property rights above human rights.

The NAACP is strong enough to cut where cutting is needed. And that is why its leaders are mincing no words in putting its program before the people and getting the job done.

This program has caused many blocks to be thrown in the way of its progress because its enemies find themselves backed in the corner of lawlessness. But come what may they will be defeated. It becomes clearer day by day.

Awards Presented

bership of 18,316 and setting an all-time high record for branch fund-raising with a gross income of $197,707.60, and for bringing about a policy change in the local police department so that mobs no longer are permitted to congregate around the property of Negro families who have moved into formerly all-white neighborhoods.

Accomplishments for which Kentucky State NAACP was singled out included sustained work for public school desegregation in many districts which played an important part in initiating integrated classrooms in many districts of the state; legal action which resulted in decisions that Webster County must of a school desegregation plan effective this September and that a 12-year desegregation plan proposed by the Hopkins County school board was not suitable; success in opening to Negro stores throughout the state and hotels in Louisville; and employment of Negroes by General Electric plants in Owensboro and Lexington.

Montgomery County, Philadelphia, Virginia State

Second prizes were awarded to the Montgomery County, Md. and Philadelphia branches and the Virginia State unit.

The Montgomery County group obtained police protection for a Negro family when attempts were made to burn their home, discovered that signatures to a petition protesting assignment of Negro students to a formerly all-white school were not those of parents of school-age children, succeeded in having the school board employ several Negro teachers, and obtained the opening to Negro patrons of several theatres and a lunch counter.

Philadelphia Branch

Among activities of the Philadelphia branch were legal cases preventing extradition of a couple to Florida, opening a restaurant to Negro patrons, clearing the record of a worker who had been suspended and refused his back pay, and obtaining warrants against three policemen for brutality; bringing the first Negro players to the Philadelphia Ball Club; and giving financial assistance to a needy student of the University of Pennsylvania.

The Virginia State NAACP carried on a state-wide program to increase registration and voting; raised $40,000; secured 23,000 members; and took additional legal action in the Prince Edward County, Arlington and Charlottesville school desegregation cases, as well as legal action in school cases in Norfolk and Newport News.

West Virginia State, Atlanta

The only third prize awarded was given to the West Virginia State NAACP. The unit was cited for accomplishments which included work "without fanfare" for school desegregation throughout the state, legal suits desegregating schools in seven counties, success in obtaining considerable teacher integration, and a legal judgment on behalf of Negroes employed by the C & O Railroad resulting in a $30,000 award to adjust wage differentials resulting from 40 years of non-promotion and other discriminatory practices against Negro employees.

Honorable Mention

Honorable mention awards were bestowed upon the Atlanta, Miami and Palo Alto branches.

Among activities for which the Atlanta branch was cited were increasing its membership; defending the Association from attacks by the Georgia State Department of Revenue as a result of contempt charges brought by the state attorney general against the branch and national NAACP officers; and obtaining agreement by Lockheed Aircraft Corporation to start an apprentice program, upgrade Negro women on clerical jobs.

Miami and Palo Alto

The Miami unit increased its membership, took action which resulted in police capture of cross burners, instituted a legal suit for desegregation of schools in Dade County, aided in a recreation suit, sponsored a suit to end segregation in buses which was resolved in a verbal opinion by a federal judge declaring city and state transportation segregation unconstitutional, and conducted a successful community action program.

The Palo Alto branch conducted a registration and voting campaign, arranged meetings with candidates for public office on civil rights issues, investigated employment discrimination in the community, work-

HEALTH FOR ALL

THE LIVING IS EASY!

"Summertime—and the living is easy . . ." So says the Gershwin song. But the statistics don't agree.

Vacation time which should give us new life, actually takes the lives of nearly 20,000 people every summer. Automobile accidents kill 10,000; drownings, 2,650; accidental falls, 5,000; excessive heat, 1,000; boating accidents, 600. A far greater number are either temporarily or permanently injured by these causes as well as by fire works, sunburn, hunting and mountain climbing accidents, and a dozen others.

Tired Driver

Much of this misery and massacre can be prevented. Before setting out on your vacation trip, have the car thoroughly checked, particularly brakes and headlights. Plan your driving schedule so that you don't have to cover too many miles in a day. The tired driver is an inefficient driver. The driver who falls asleep at the wheel is a potential killer. Obey all traffic regulations. They were made to protect your life.

Once you're arrived at your vacation destination, remember that even though the scenery is different, you're not. If you've been sitting at a desk or the past 50 weeks, don't try to be Tarzan overnight. Too much exercise can be far worse than none, bringing with it anything from sore muscles to death by heart attack. Even if you're a topnotch swimmer, don't swim alone in unfamiliar waters. Unexpected currents have taken the lives of the strongest and most expert.

Wear a Hat

The sun is good for you, but too much can cause painful, disfiguring burns. In extreme cases of exposure, it can even kill. So take it in small doses at first, using good suntan oil and wearing a hat in the mid-day heat.

All this shouldn't mean that you set out on your vacation full of fear and foreboding. Obviously, millions of vacationists have fun without risking sickness or death. But whether they're at the mountains or the shore, camping out in a tent or staying in a luxury hotel, they all have one thing in common: common sense. Let's try it even commoner this summer. Then we can really mean it when we write home "Having wonderful time." "Wish you were here."

Letters from Our Readers

A bit of prose . . . a line or two of poetry . . . a letter now and then to express thoughts in the minds of our many readers.

Send Yours Today

ON THE FOURTH

The brilliant flash of rockets
And bombs high in the air;
Are tokens of our joyfulness
To say how much we care.

On every Fourth that rolls around
We pledge our life and love,
And make a lot of happy sound:
Give thanks to God above . . .

THIS IS OUR FLAG

This is our flag—that proudly flies,
Where free men live, beneath free skies.

This is our flag—and o'er the earth,
All true men cherish, know its worth.

Have mercy upon me, O Lord,
for I am weak; O Lord, heal me . . . —(Psalm 6, 2.)

The great Abraham Lincoln spoke often of the many times he had fallen to his knees because he had no place else to go. The realization of our human weakness and insufficiency is the first step toward God's mercy and help—so freely granted to heal us and save us, through devout prayer and faith.

Others appearing as speakers were heads of newspapers in Columbus; Jefferson A. Brewer, president, American Savings and Loan Association, San Francisco, and James H. Tichenor, administrator, Ohio State Employment Service.

A number of experts in marketing, advertising, promotions and areas of interest to the Negro press also appeared on the program of the convention.

Beneath its folds are food and care, and millions find safe haven there.

This flag, all brutal foes defame;
while they keep at their dirty game.
Wake up my country, can't you see,
their plan to bind humanity?

Their alien concept we must meet,
to fail means chaos and defeat.
It is (live?) exist as driven cattle—or—no-holds-barred, rise up, do battle!

Don't let your will nor dollars lag,
let's hold it high—This is our flag.
All Christians know the show-down's nigh—

strange ships are flying through our sky.

The torch of freedom—keep alight join hands with Him who keeps things right.

This is our flag, shall it be lowered?

What do you say—or are you bored?
Some day they'll come, that brutal horde,
to impale us all upon their sword.

We'll choose to (live?) in durance vile to slave in hunger all our while, or fight out of this creeping fog;
lest we be lured into their bog!

All moral concepts that we use those evil ones despoil, abuse;
While we exist as strong, free men.
They can not win, unless we sink,
like them, in sin.

They have set their spares, for you and me,
and all who value liberty . . .
Our vigilance must never lag,
Where freedom rings, This is our flag.

'Island In The Sun' Heating New York; Film Expected to Invade South

New York City (CNS)—Despite the terrific heat (90 degrees—which kept most at the beaches)—"Island In The Sun," controversial film starring Harry Belafonte, Dorothy Dandridge, James, Mason, Joan Fontaine and others—is doing terrific business at the Roxy Theatre. For the first four days it did $117,000, which is considered a good figure. In addition, the good news is that this film is already breaking into movie houses where this type of picture has been strictly forbidden—all of which makes Darryl F. Zanuck, the producer who looks to "Island" as his pet project—a most happy fella.

Topping even "The King and I," which drew a record crowd last summer at the same theatre, "Island" has opened also at the Rialto in Louisville with no ill effects. It next goes into Florida, 20th Century Fox is hopeful the entire south will open its doors for the good airing "Island" brings.

Running 123 minutes in gorgeous colors, cinemascopes and filled to the brim with top stars, "Island In The Sun" has met with various praise and criticism. It is admitted to be beautifully photographed—showing an island anyone would jump and take the first plane to—yet it reveals many ugly customs, the strongest of all—prejudice. Though not completely presenting the problem, it touches off on it many ties as if afraid to offend either race and all critics agree: neither Dorothy Dandridge nor Harry Belafonte (the current rage) turn in top performances.

The film, with its story of conflicts, taken from the novel by the same name, leaves much to be desired, but is a definite must-see for it strives, and succeeds, in pulling a few punches and making a few steps forward in the film industry among race relations.
