Hold Rites for Herschel E. Hubbard,
Retired Municipal Court Bailiff 22 Years

HERSCHEL E. HUBBARD

Services for Herschel E. Hubbard, 54, of 1130 Eleventh Street, were held last Saturday afternoon at Burns Methodist Church. The Rev. H. R. M. Hardiman of Kansas City, former Burns' pastor, delivered the eulogy. Burial was in Glendale Cemetery.

Mr. Hubbard died Tuesday night, July 23, of cerebral hemorrhage at University of Iowa Hospitals. He had been ill about 2 years.

Bailiff 22 Years

Mr. Hubbard had been a municipal court bailiff in Des Moines for 22 years, and retired in 1956.

A native of Chandler, Okla., he came to Des Moines in 1926 and entered the restaurant business. He was appointed to general court bailiff in 1934, and later became criminal court arraignment bailiff, serving that office for 14 years.

Mr. Hubbard was a member of Doric Lodge 30, the Monarch Club, the Valley Golf Club, the Iowa Association of Chiefs of Police and Peace Officers, and the Burns Methodist Church, where he was president of the usher board and a member of the men's chorus and commission of finance.

Hardiman, Mrs. Pauline Haygood, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Haygood, Mr. Curtis Haygood, Mrs. Louise Wilfong, Miss Goldie Richardson, Mrs. Georgia James, Mr. and Mrs. James Osborne and son, Tyrone, of Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas.

American Council on Human Rights Urges 72 Senators To Back Civil Rights Bill

Washington, D. C.—The American Council on Human Rights urged seventy-two United States Senators to support the civil rights legislation. The Council specifically urged each Senator (a) to oppose the trial-by-jury amendment, (b) to support a civil rights bill to cover rights other than voting, and (c) to vote for cloture when the call to end debate is issued.

John T. Blue, Jr., ACHR Director, in letters written individually to all Northern, Western and border states Senators, strongly supported the present bill providing for the trial for contempt by the Federal court judges.

Mr. Blue declared, "The patience, forbearance, and judiciousness of Southern judges is clearly established if one but reviews their actions on the school cases."

Follow Course

On the other hand the Council director pointed out that many "jury trials will end with malefactors escaping the consequences of defiance of the Federal courts." Mr. Blue cited the Montgomery violence trial when confessed bombers were acquitted.

The Council, whose constituent membership includes thousands of college graduates in national franchise.

Neighbor Who Cared for White Children, Beaten

Greenville, S. C.—A white, partly disabled truck driver spoke sorrowfully but sternly last Wednesday about the beating of a Negro neighbor who took care of the white man's children during an emergency this week.

"These people never bothered anybody," said Sherwood Turner, 34, of Greenville County.

He spoke of Negro farmer Claude Cruell, 58, and his wife, who were entrusted with Turner's seven small children Sunday night while the trucker took his wife, stricken with a kidney ailment, to a hospital.

Cruell said a band of about 15 white men broke into his house later that night, chained him by one arm and beat him with blackjacks and sticks.

His wife reported the intruders "said they did it because we were taking care of those white children."

NAACP Head Says, Defeat Of Part III 'Handcuffs' Law Enforcement Agency

Washington—The Senate, by voting to eliminate the effective provisions of Part III of the pending civil rights bill, has, in effect, "voted to handcuff the national law enforcement agency in enforcing equal protection of the laws," Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary, charged here July 25.

Mr. Wilkins' statement followed a 52 to 38 vote in the Senate on July 24 to strip the civil rights bill of provision which would have empowered the Attorney General to initiate action to secure school desegregation and protect other civil rights guaranteed by the Constitution.

"By this action," Mr. Wilkins asserted, "the Senate has acted to prohibit the use of equal protection methods by the Attorney General in securing the equal protection of the laws... The adoption of this motion says plainly to Negro Americans that, so far as the Senate is concerned, they can expect little, if any, assistance from the federal government to win enjoyment of their constitutional rights."

Further, he charged, the action by the Senate "gives aid and comfort to those who would nullify the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment."

A similar charge against Devan, for receiving a movie projector and film taken Feb. 6 from Logan School, was dismissed on the county attorney's recommendation.

Boycott in 8th Week; Vow To Guard All Who Trade With White Merchants

Tuskegee, Ala.—Investigators from the Alabama attorney general's office raided offices of the Tuskegee Civic Association (T.C.A.) again Monday night, confiscating membership records of the Negro group.

MacDonald Gallion, chief assistant to Attorney General John Patterson, who is in charge of an investigation into the boycott of white merchants, said a "current membership list" of T.C.A. was obtained in the raid.

Eighth Week

Gallion said more "documentary evidence" also was obtained. This possibly may be used in a lawsuit striking at the boycott, now in its eighth week, he said.

The investigators questioned about a dozen more witnesses in seeking evidence of violations of Alabama's anti-boycott law.

More Questioned

Gallion warned Negroes against violating the law and promised protection for any who want to trade with white merchants. He also called

Nashville Segregationist Warns Northerner J. Kasper To 'Stay Out of Our City'

Knoxville, Tenn.—A leading Nashville segregationist said last Thursday he wants northerner John Kasper to "stay out of our city."

Jack Kershaw, vice-chairman of the Tennessee Federation for Constitutional Government, warned Kasper, who was convicted Tuesday of conspiring to interfere with court-ordered school integration in Clinton (Tenn.) High School, to cancel plans to visit Nashville.

But Kasper, of Washington, D. C., said he will head for Nashville in 10 days to "oppose" scheduled integration there.

To Nashville

The Nashville school board has decided to integrate the first grade when school opens in September.

Pro-segregation leaders in that city have branded Kasper, 27, an "interloper."

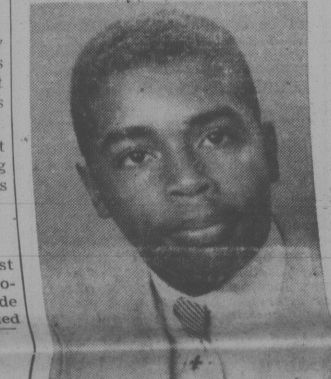

a meeting of all white merchants today.

Negroes for several weeks have withheld their patronage from Tuskegee stores in protest against passage of a legislative act which deprives most Negro voters of a voice in city elections.

To Start a Hot Day Right—Eat a Cool Refreshing Breakfast

A cool, refreshing breakfast can do so much to lift the spirits of your family at the start of another hot, summer day. Serve them fresh fruit atop crisp shredded wheat, with chilled milk and just see if they do not feel better and work better, especially in the late morning hours.

Is it really worth while to take ten minutes of your time each day to ensure that your family has an adequate morning meal? Research at a leading Midwestern university on the importance of breakfast has demonstrated that the physical and mental well-being of the subjects improved if they ate an adequate morning meal. In just ten minutes you can prepare a basic breakfast of fruit, cereal, milk, bread and butter. This is a basic breakfast pattern recommended by leading doctors and dietitians to provide an adequate morning meal.

In hot weather, it is especially important to think up ways to make the morning meal as cool and attractive as possible. The many fresh fruits, varieties of ready-to-eat breakfast cereals and breadstuffs available on today's market make variety easy. Have you given any thought to your table setting? Are you using cool-looking place mats, such as straw, bamboo, or pastel plastic? Do you always serve breakfast in the kitchen or dining room? What about serving breakfast on the porch or patio? Sometimes setting breakfast on a tray adds interest and variety. Then each one in the family can carry his tray to the coolest spot possible.

A little extra care and planning to make the morning meal as cool, attractive, and refreshing as possible will pay large dividends if it encourages the family to start the day right—by eating breakfast. A cereal and milk breakfast is a light, modern, nutritious breakfast that can be served with a minimum of effort yet provides the family with an adequate morning meal.

Hot Weather Menu

To glorify a hot weather menu is our cool, tinted, refreshing Limeade Sherbet. This comes under the "make it yourself" division—but easy does it. No more cooking than heating a kettle of water. That's the kind of cooking we like on a warm day. Economical too, because you get so many servings. This will keep a couple of days or more in your freezing compartment if you don't eat it all right away. Our recipe comes from the Test Kitchens of Minute Maid Frozen Juices.

LIMEADE SHERBET
1/2 cup sugar
1 package lime flavored gelatin
2 cups hot water
1 can (6 oz.) Minute Maid Fresh-Frozen Limeade (undiluted)
2 egg whites, beaten stiff frozen, turn into mixing bowl and break with a fork. Whip with rotary beater but do not let it reliquify. Carefully fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour back in trays and place in freezing compartment. When Sherbet is frozen, return dial to normal. Serves 6-8.

World-Famous Track Star J. Owens to Address Tenth Annual Regional 4-H Camp

Washington, D. C.—Jesse Owens, world-famous track star and a member of the Illinois State Youth Commission, will address the 10th Annual Regional 4-H Club Camp here at Howard University on August 17. P. H. Stone, camp director, announced this week.

Other speakers who will appear on the seven-day encampment program, which begins on August 11, are Under Secretary of Agriculture True D. Morse; Dr. E. B. Evans, president of Prairie View A. & M. College; Edward W. Alton, national director of 4-H and Young Men and Women's Work of the Federal Extension Service; and Miss Roberta Church, chief of minorities section, U. S. Department of Labor.

Awards Dinner

Mr. Owens will address the 4-H awards dinner in Howard University's Baldwin Hall where four persons will be cited for their contribution to 4-H club work.

In addition to the speeches, the 4-H club boys and girls will do a good bit of talking themselves, says Mr. Stone. They will take part in a number of group discussions of rural life and community problems.

The youths making up the delegation to the encampment will come from the 17 States of the South. They will be representing 359,000 fellow 4-H'ers. The name of the organization grows out of their 4-H pledge: "I pledge my Head to clearer thinking, my Heart to greater loyalty, my Hands to larger service, and my Health to better living for my club, my community, and my country."

Delegates are selected on the basis of their achievements in farm and

Tennessean's Home Damaged by Blast

Chattanooga, Tenn.—An explosion, believed to have been dynamite, early last Wednesday damaged the front porch at the home of R. H. Craig, a leading Negro attorney here, his wife reported.

Craig recently appeared before the county council urging that more Negroes be hired for county jobs. No one was injured, Mrs. Craig said, adding that she and her husband were not at home at the time. Police said the house is in a predominantly white section.

William Bostic Is Sentenced A Day For Each Slap

William E. Bostic, of 1329 Center street, accused of slapping his wife, was sentenced to three days in jail by Municipal Judge Harry B. Grund Wednesday—at the rate of one day per slap.

Bostic was found guilty of assault and battery after his wife testified he slapped her "in a jealous rage" July 16 when he found her sitting on the front porch with a male boarder.

Judge Grund suspended the sentence after Bostic promised to do no more slapping.

W. C. Handy's Brother Is Big Enthusiast For Popular Product; Earl Hyman in 'Othello' Langston Hughes' Play to Broadway

WITH DOLORES CALVIN

New York City (CNS)—In what was a hot time in the old town, La Verne Baker and Georgia Gibbs, who should hate each other and probably do, were booted in the same town, same night . . . and in what seemed like a sure catastrophe turned out fairly smooth, taking all in consideration . . . After all, Baker's songs seem to mysteriously get over into Gibbs' camp—and even Gibbs' manager boasts his star can do them better . . . Therefore, Baker has been on the lookout for such an auspicious occasion of the two meeting face to face . . . According to reports, La Baker let out some remarks held in before for diplomatic reasons, and Gibbs took them on the chin, never faltering from her position as "Her Nibs" . . . The city incidentally was Wildwood, N. J. where Baker did the Club Bolero while Gibbs held down the Manor Hotel Supper Club . . . Both played to packed audiences even if they did similar songs . . .

W. C. Handy's younger brother, Charles, who has been associated with the Handy Bros. Music Publishing Firm for many years, is a big enthusiast for a popular product Neutrolite and spends every spare minute gathering new prospects. So far he hasn't been able to convince his brother, who seems to have the secret of long-living well at hand, although he himself looks younger and says he feels much better since taking the vitamin form . . .

With the hot weather, a good way to beat the heat is visit the Theatre Under The Stars in Central Park . . .

With Cab Calloway recently there with his troupe, bookers expect a huge success with "Jazz Under The Stars" . . . This unique attraction features Billie Holiday, Lester Young, George Shearing Sextet and most of all, Erroll Garner who really steals the show . . .

Earle Hyman is doing a marvelous job in "Othello," currently playing at the American Shakespeare Festival at Stratford, Conn. . . . With Alfred Drake in the lead, Earle is well liked by not only the cast but critics too . . . This is a big break for him after knocking around Broadway for many seasons in bit roles since his first and only love is the theatre . . . The mere fact of playing Shakespeare is a great thing for any actor—and to Earle Hyman—having a chance to do "Othello" is a real dream come true . . . A handsome guy, a sort of dream-man himself, Earle Hyman can now write his own ticket from here on . . .

The fact that Hurricane Jackson's mother gets so nervous when he fights bring us back to the interview we did with Ezzard Charles' mother when her son was heavyweight champ . . . She was so nervous she could never listen—but used to run water in the bathroom to drown out the radio blasts . . . Hurricane's mother, who does the cooking at camp for a reported $100 a week has asked for seven $30 ring-side tickets free—and threatened to quit if she didn't get them . . .

Nat King Cole, who is the hottest thing around, clicks at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles, his home town, where he can work for 4 weeks and enjoy friends and neighbors at the same time . . . Harlem movie houses are preparing the welcome mats for "Island In The Sun" hitting the circuit this week—with marque signs featuring Belafonte and Dandridge . . .

Though Lionel Hampton gets rave notices at the Waldorf Astoria, his first date here at the elite hotel, singer Diahann Carroll is still on the skeptical list as a gal not quite as Lena Horne, or a "Dot Dandridge" and yet struggling to equal them. Diahann, unfortunately, is forever classed with greats in fem singers—Pearl Bailey and the like—and not given a chance to be herself . . . As a Lena Horne, she cannot compare as Lena has the looks where this girl is definitely the unsophisticated ingenue—but here she forces the comparison by giving out with gestures very much like those of the leading ladies we mentioned . . . Diahann has a distinctive voice—but not a distinctive way of putting it over . . . Until she gets one, she may always be cast in the shadow of reigning greats . . .

Maestro Fred Waring and his gallant Pennsylvanians are doing a beautiful job of replacing Gary Moore on TV each morning—originating from Shawnee on the Delaware in Pennsylvania—a most scenic spot . . . As Waring explains, they are auditioning for new Pennsylvanians—and the Negro contestants we are proud of . . .

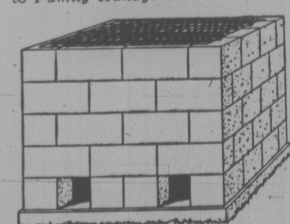

Many of the Harlem delegations made the Billy Graham Crusade so sensational, it was held over . . . Jane White, who is doing more and more TV work—is interviewing celebrities on racial and social problems—and quite effectively too . . . Jane has grown into a mature actress, proving herself on a recent hour long TV story where she portrayed a South American doctor, speaking Spanish beautifully . . . She now deserves larger parts . . .

We're happy to know that Langston Hughes' play, all about his favorite character "Simple" comes to Broadway from an off-Broadway theatre and the cast is pleased too as they're a hard-working crew who deserve the breaks . . .

Handy Incinerator

FOR burning household rubbish, an incinerator built of concrete blocks on a concrete foundation is excellent. The base is 4 by 5 feet, and the concrete should be reinforced with chicken wire, according to Family Handyman.

Use standard size building blocks, setting the first course on a thin layer of mortar and leaving two 8"x8" spaces at the front to provide ample draft for complete incineration. The cover is turkey wire, 1"x2" mesh, with welded joints so the wires won't separate due to the heat. Eye-bolts may be inserted in the joints between two of the top building blocks, if you want to hinge the mesh cover by looping down two pieces of the wire into the metal eyes.

That the names and residence of the unknown defendants and the unknown claimants, and each and all of them, are unknown to these plaintiffs, and that plaintiffs have sought diligently to learn the same.

Plaintiffs pray that the title to the real estate above described, be quieted in them, as against the adverse claims of each and all of the defendants, and that all of said defendants be forever barred and estopped from having or claiming any right, title or interest in or to said real estate, adverse to the plaintiffs herein, and that plaintiffs be decreed to be the absolute owners in fee simple of said real estate and for general equitable relief.

Upset Sweet Daddy Grace's Baptising Services

Detroit, Mich.—Sweet Daddy Grace is having legal trouble with his neighbors. One hundred thirty-seven of them claim his baptism services at the United House of Prayer for All People are too boisterous. Residents of the westside Detroit neighborhood where Sweet Daddy's church is located object to services conducted over loudspeakers mounted on trucks, midnight bugle blasts, drum beating, mass hand-clapping—and firehose baptisms outside.

The 78-year-old Sweet Daddy was ordered to appear in court July 26 to defend himself on a nuisance charge.

BTU was held at 6:30 p.m. with Ronald Williams in charge.

For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.—(I Timothy 1:7.)

When we come to realize that our fears and anxieties cannot come from God but only from our lack of trust in Him and love of Him—that naught but good and power for good come from Him—then we will find His presence through Christ Jesus, and glory in new-found joy and strength.

Some Children Confused About Honesty and Virtue Because Often Use Conflicting and Contradictory Definitions of Honesty

BY LLOYD LOVELL, USI ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

While delivering papers one day, Johnny found a purse containing $247. The owners name and address were in it, so he took the purse to the lady who lost it. "She was obviously relieved at getting it back. 'You're a very nice boy,' she said. 'Here's a dollar for your trouble.'"

Johnny disgustedly told his friends about the event. "The old cheap-stake!" he exclaimed. "Boy, if I had kept it, she'd really be hurting. A lousy buck!"

"Yeah, but what if you had been caught? You'd have a hard time being that rich," a friend commented.

Virtue may be its own reward, but many seem to feel that it is not a sufficient reward—at least when their own virtue is being considered. Why should John expect a large reward for being honest? Why should his friend believe that one is honest only because the risk of "getting caught" being dishonest, is great?

Perhaps some children are confused about honesty and virtue because we adults sometimes use conflicting and contradictory definitions of honesty. Is it dishonest to keep the extra change the clerk gives you by mistake? Does the clerk deserve a lesson for being so careless? Would you ever consider taking the same amount from your neighbor or your own children? Is stealing from an institution really different from stealing an individual's property? Is it "finders keepers" when we find but not when we lose? Was a given statement a lie, or just "tact"?

"A summer luncheon can be excitingly different... and without a lot of fuss," says Miss Catherine Gray, Fortiora Glass consultant on correct table settings. She suggests a salad smorgasbord made up of several different kinds of salads so your guests can take their choice of one or several. On a large torte plate, arrange molded fruit salads, tuna and chicken salads in individual lettuce cups. A big bowl of tossed salad sits in the middle of the torte plate, saving space. Serve your salad smorgasbord on the porch... a card table will do the trick. Serve dressings in individual cruets to bite different tastes (and diets). Complete the picture with a big basket of hot rolls and a tray of iced tea or coffee in thin crystal tumblers. The salad looks cool, the tinkle of ice cubes in crystal glasses sounds cool. "It's all part of successful summer entertaining," says Miss Gray.

Ella Fitzgerald And Norwegian Reported Married

ELLA FITZGERALD

Oslo, Norway—A Norwegian newspaper Monday quoted American singer Ella Fitzgerald, 39, as saying she has been married secretly for two years to a Norwegian, Thor Einar Larsen, 29.

Larsen was quoted as having told friends earlier that he might wed the singer but did not say he was married to her.

The newspaper Verdens Gang quoted Miss Fitzgerald, who arrived here Saturday for a brief vacation en route to a night club engagement in Monte Carlo, as saying she met Larsen six years ago and now is staying at his home in the Oslo suburb of Stabekk.

TACTICS OF SOME SENATORS DISPEL RESPECT

It is bad enough that special legislation must be enacted by congress to insure equal justice for Negroes. It is more ridiculous that opponents of equal justice for Negroes should constantly use such ridiculous tactics and resort to deliberately lying in an attempt to prove their position is right and fair.

As a matter of fact, at times it is not easy to respect the congress, for even men who come from sections where the undemocratic tactics are not carried on against Negroes, dip in and out of the area in which there diehards roam.

Back in the thirties there were those who belittled our constitution and the Supreme Court, but with the cowardice displayed by some of our senators, Negroes would not have made the great progress which has come in recent years without them. The court has been the bulwark of the constant ever encroachment on the rights of the Negro.

Undoubtedly, Russia is enjoying the ridiculous show which is going on in the senate. Many other nations are wondering just what American democracy means when a large segment of the population is using every effort to deny a portion of its citizens simple justice.

It is not easy to predict what the senate will do with the civil rights measure for entirely too many senators are unpredictable on the question.

SCHOOL BILL DESERVED DEFEAT

Congress has defeated the so-called school bill. This measure would have appropriated 1½ billion dollars to the states on the basis of need in order to relieve the pinch being felt by some schools.

The Bystander is fully in accord with the defeat of this measure even though many good people, including the National Education Association, approved it.

An amendment which would withhold the funds from states or school districts which fail to make a good faith move toward integration, was added to the measure which aided in the defeat.

There are those who think this amendment should not have been included in the measure. They forget that neither the states nor the federal government would tolerate a contemptuous disregard of the law by Negroes. And Negroes and their friends know it.

They have a fair lever to work with in the amendment. Why Not Use It?

DOLLAR SPENT FOR NAACP GOES FAR

The NAACP is carrying on a gallant fight to aid in the passage of the civil rights bill. Thousands of letters and telegrams have gone out to individuals and its local branches urging that they use their influence with senators and President Eisenhower to aid in the passage of the bill.

The funds used in this campaign have come from donations and membership fees voluntarily given by thousands of people who are interested in fair play for all American citizens and are willing to help finance efforts to ensure it.

In contrast, funds supplied by taxpayers—and this includes Negroes—are being used by southern states to finance the opposition to a equal treatment and to first class citizenship for Negroes.

Local branches have spent funds also to help the cause. It is just one of the many valuable contributions the NAACP makes to American's effort to attain full democracy for all of its citizens.

Rev. King Blames Ike's Weakness On Weak Bill

Washington, D. C.—(CNS)—The weakness of the Civil Rights Bill is being blamed on Pres. Eisenhower's weak stand, according to Rev. Martin Luther King.

"If Eisenhower had taken a stronger stand on the bill, no matter how sincere his doubts, the bill would have had a good chance to pass without change. If we don't get a strong positive stand from him on the jury trial amendment, this fight will be lost too," said King in determined words.

King stated "there is a possibility that the Tuskegee boycott could spread but I don't think so," he added. "Conditions and circumstances must be right for a boycott to succeed."

Grave Marker For Dred Scott

St. Louis, Mo.—The granddaughter of the man who owned Dred Scott, slave who figured in a controversial U. S. Supreme court decision before the Civil War, had a granite marker placed on Scott's grave here Wednesday.

It is the first time the grave has been officially marked. Mrs. Charles Harrison of Villa Nova, Penn., donated the stone. She is a granddaughter of Taylor Blow, who owned and freed Scott. There will be a ceremony at the grave Sept. 17, the ninety-ninth anniversary of Scott's death.

Eleven of the 12 members of the Clinton trial jury said Thursday at Knoxville that they are opposed to racial integration.

In a poll of the jurors by the Knoxville News-Sentinel, one said he was neutral on the controversial issue. But he said the jury "didn't let integration or segregation come into our discussion" of the case.

"We merely decided whether Judge (Robert L.) Taylor's order (against interference with integration) was violated," he said.

Defeat of Part III

Amendment. It remains in the Constitution and may be invoked occasionally by a private citizen. It may be upheld in judicial decisions, but the Senate, unless it reconsiders, has voted to handoff the national law enforcement agency in enforcing equal protection of the laws.

"It remains to be seen what will be done with Part IV of the bill dealing with voting. It would be bitter irony, indeed, if the first civil rights legislation enacted in 80 years should repudiate both the Fourteenth and fifteenth Amendments," Mr. Wilkins asserted.

Following the southern victory in eliminating Part III, attention in Washington was again focused on Part IV and efforts of southern Democrats to weaken it by providing for jury trials in contempt cases growing out of violations of federal court orders against interfering with the right to vote.

Role of President

President Eisenhower has expressed a desire to see this section of the bill enacted without any crippling amendments such as the proposed jury trial clause. However, the President has not made any remarks in support of the bill since he issued his statement on July 16 after the Senate had voted to take up the measure.

The defeat of Part II followed failure of the President to support it forthrightly when questioned about it in his press conference of July 17. Southerners, encouraged by the President's uncertainty, renewed their efforts to eliminate the section of the bill which would have provided protection of a wide range of civil rights.

Concern Expressed

Having succeeded in gutting Part III of its effectiveness, southern Democrats are now concentrating on tacking a jury trial amendment on to the right to vote section of the bill. Concern is being expressed in Washington that they may succeed unless the White House speaks out unequivocally against the move which has already gained the support of some non-southern senators.

Efforts to get the President to come out with a strong statement in support of Part IV and against the crippling jury trial amendment were being initiated in Washington in the hope of holding Republican senators firmly in line on this crucial issue. Hope was expressed that he would make his position clear.

HEALTH FOR ALL

LATE SUMMER VACATIONS

Here are some thoughts on late summer vacations:

An employer's and an employee's conception of a vacation differ considerably. The employer emphasizes rest and relaxation for the vacationers. The employee thinks in terms of fun and activity.

Possibly more attention should be given to rest in connection with vacations. Too many people returning to work after their two weeks off sigh wearily and say "I'm glad to get back to the office for a rest."

The annual vacation in the United States has become an actual necessity for health and well-being. But for maximum benefits it should be restful above all.

Rest the mind, rest the eyes, rest the body, is good advice to the late summer and early fall vacationists.

The annual "rest period" should be spent so that you return refreshed rather than fatigued.

Some Tips

Here are some tips on taking vacations for rest and relaxation:

Don't get into a cross-country driving marathon. Realize that you can't see the whole United States in two weeks. Settle for a leisurely sightseeing trip if you spend the time in travel. Rest the mind with books if you are going to settle down somewhere; if traveling visit historical places on the way. This kind of visiting will take your mind off present-day worries and troubles.

You use your eyes more on vacation than you do normally. They are also subjected to unusual strain. For tired eyes use sun glasses that are most restful. It is also a good idea to carry a bottle of Murine in the car dashboard compartment. Move off the road when you feel tired and take a nap.

Body Relaxed

Keep the body relaxed by mild exercise. Don't attempt a strenuous athletic program. If you are going to do a lot of walking, do it in easy stages. Unless you are in really good condition—and few vacationers are—start your sports activities in mild doses until your muscles are limbered up.

And, finally, remember that the sun will burn the pale city dweller's skin. Use sun tan lotions and don't stay out too long. A sunburn isn't relaxing.

Remember, let the word "rest" rule your vacation at all times.

PATTERSON-JACKSON FIGHT
New York, N. Y.—Before a crowd of 18,000 spectators at Polo Grounds Monday night, Floyd Patterson retained his heavyweight title by beating Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, and gaining a 10-round technical knockout in their scheduled 15-round bout.

Referee Ruby Goldstein stopped the one-sided fight after 1 minute 52 seconds of the tenth following one of the titleholders many flustered sallies in which he staggered Jackson with lefts and rights.

Jackson was taken to the hospital early Tuesday morning by his mother, Mrs. Georgia Jackson.

Jackson told hospital attendants he "felt bad." His condition was listed as "fair" at mid-morning. Patterson, Tuesday, waived his $175,000 guarantee for Monday night's bout and took 40 percent of the total receipts instead—a move that cost him $51,140.38.

Patterson's action slashed his total of $123,859.62 but permitted Emil Lence, Brooklyn dressmaker who promoted the bout, to make a profit of about $20,000.

Lence said the profit would be used to sponsor small fight clubs and that he would open Eastern Parkway Arena in Brooklyn immediately after Labor Day.

Jackson's share came to $61,929.81.

The champion said that he intended to remain in the New York area until about August 10 before leaving for Seattle, and that he hoped to have "another fight for Mr. Lence and in New York this year."

for a 30 day tour of California and neighboring areas. Cited as a clean cut show, promoter Manny Schwartz says there were no incidents on the tour.

"It could have been a Sunday School group," he commented. Domino received a guarantee of $1,000 against 50% for for every night of the week.

However, new reports are different. A bloody knife and gun fight

Carter and Sharp Play in Cedar Rapids Tournament

BY ESTHER S. MEYERS

Walter Carter and Bruce Sharp left Des Moines July 25, to play in the Iowa State Open Tournament.

Carter played in the 15 and under boys' singles and was defeated, 6-0, 6-0. His opponent wasn't exceptional but for Carter's first out-of-town tournament, he did well.

Sharp played in both boys' 13 and 15-and-under singles. His 15-and-under opponent was Jimmy Parker, one of the top players in the middle-west. So the score of 6-0, 6-0, was no surprise. Sharp was the better player in his 13-and-under event, though he lost 10-0. For just having played about 5 weeks, he did well.

Marion and Esther S. Myers drove the boys to Cedar Rapids. The women's singles, Esther lost 6-2, 8-2, to a junior player seeded third in junior girls' division.

In Dallas, Texas, following one of Domino's performances, reported 6 persons stabbed or beaten. The fights occurred when patrons were leaving the auditorium. Police have not determined the cause.

INCONSTANT WIND

Inconstant wind—unstable be and blow your breath across the sea, to lick the fisher at his work or blast the crown off some wee kirk.

You could not be a pattern slave but you smash, howl, crush and rave. While the trade winds help perform the toil they battle you with brawn and oil. As the Devil's path—you always take and chaos marks your drunken wake, against all the rules or right you've sinned, where ever you blow, inconstant wind. —Glenn A. Gallagher (First American Serial Rights Only)

North Carolina Schools to Seek Enlarged Integration

Charlotte, N. C.—Parents of 36 school children whose applications for admission to previously all-white schools were turned down by the Charlotte school board met here July 25 to prepare an appeal to the school board for reconsideration of the rejected applications.

On July 23 the school board voted to assign to white schools five of the 41 children who applied. Similar action was taken by school boards in Winston-Salem and Greensboro in accordance with the state's pupil assignment act permitting local action to integrate the schools. Winston-Salem reassigned one child and Greensboro, six. A total of 51 pupils made application for reassignment in the three cities.

The decision to admit 12 of the applicants to "white" schools was the first voluntary step towards integration of the elementary and secondary public schools in North Carolina and the first break in the hitherto solid defiance of the Supreme Court's ban on segregated education by authorities in eight southern states. In addition to North Carolina, these include Virginia, South Carolina, Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana.

Commenting on the action of the three school boards, Kelly Alexander, president of the North Carolina Conference of NAACP branches, said: "It is encouraging to see North Carolina move into the class of responsibility as to implementation of the Supreme Court decision in the field of public education. The school boards of Charlotte, Winston-Salem and Greensboro are to be commended for... approving the admission of Negro pupils to previously all-white schools. The NAACP in North Carolina had predicted that school boards in the larger cities of western North Carolina would take the leadership in the desegregation of the public schools of the state."

ternities and sororities, advised each Senator that it "follows the course of this piece of legislation with intensive interest, fully cognizant that your vote is shaping the course of history."

ACHR, whose president is Dr. Nancy B. McGhee of Hampton, Virginia, followed closely the civil rights debate in the House; the council has written letters of appreciation to 298 Members of Congress who supported the Civil Rights bill in the House of Representatives. Many representatives, in answer to the ACHR letter have pledged continued support of civil rights and also of the Powell amendment.

Gallion especially is seeking evidence of any threats or intimidation aimed at keeping Negroes from patronizing white merchants. City officials reported earlier in the boycott that they received numerous complaints of "pressure" to make the Negro protest effective.

The anti-boycott warning and promise of protection were contained in a statement recorded by Gallion and broadcast periodically during the day over a radio station.
