5,000 'Mild' Flu Cases Reported in D.M. Schools; Lab to Test If Asian Type

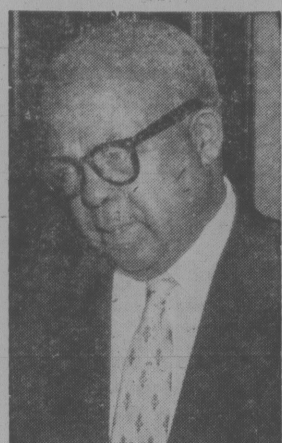

As the current flu outbreak raged in Des Moines 15 junior and senior high schools reported a composite absenteeism of more than 5,000 students, Tuesday. Leading the list was Lincoln high with 1,000 of its 1,700 enrollment absent for the second day. Hardest hit in West Des Moines was Sacred Heart School, which was closed down Monday when 220 of its 380 reported "flu" illnesses. The parochial school was scheduled to reopen yesterday.

Elementary Schools

Dr. Lester D. Powell, director of school health services, said the percentage of flu cases in the elementary schools is much lower than in secondary schools.

He attributed the greater incidence of flu in the upper grades to "dating, football games, movies and dances."

"The higher the grade in school,

Thurgood Marshall Declares School Row Is in its Last Phase

Charlotte, N. C.—Thurgood Marshall, chief legal counsel of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said here Sunday in his opinion school desegregation is almost completed.

"The other side is frantic for two reasons only," Marshall said. "It is sure it is losing and it is running out of delaying tactics."

Marshall observed, "the last gimmick is physical violence." Addressing some 1,300 persons at the North Carolina NAACP convention, he indicated the NAACP may next move for integration of Southern national guard units.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Albany, N. Y.—The appellate division of state supreme court, New York's second highest tribunal, will have its first Negro member at the end of the year. Gov. Averell Harriman said Oct. 8, he would appoint Justice Harold A. Stevens of Manhattan to the $34,500-a-year post to succeed presiding Justice David W. Peck.

Crestview, Fla.—An estimated 100 white persons gathered in front of the all-white Crestview High school when word swept the town last week that Negroes would attempt to integrate the school. No integration attempt was made and officers said the report was a hoax.

Hollywood, Cal.—Negro trumpet player Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong, who recently called President Eisenhower "two-faced" in the integration question, said that Mr. Eisenhower "has done as much as Lincoln and more than any other president between them." Said Armstrong, in discussing the president and integration troubles at Little Rock:

"That man has a soul."

Minneapolis, Minn.—Mrs. L. C. Bates, militant state leader of the NAACP of Arkansas, spoke at a mass NAACP meeting here Sunday, Oct. 13.

Law Keeps 12-Year Old Negro Girl From Singing in Concert

New Orleans, La.—The New Orleans Symphony Orchestra Friday, Oct. 11, said a 12-year-old Negro girl will not sing with the orchestra because of a 1956 law banning interracial activities.

Although she was chosen through state-wide auditions, Barbara Ann Remo will not be able to take part in the Louisiana Youth Concerts as planned. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andes Remo, of Baton Rouge. Her father is a native of Manila, Philippines, and formerly played with a U.S. Navy band there.

The 1956 law bans interracial athletics and all racial mixing in public events. Miss Remo was scheduled to appear next Jan. 23 with the symphony in a radio broadcast until she received a letter from Dr. J. C. Morris, president of the Louisiana Youth Concerts, advising her otherwise. Instead, she received a $50 prize.

In the past, Negro music students have taken part in the concerts.

Tacoma, Wash.—Jack E. Tanner, a Tacoma attorney, was elected president of the Northwest Area NAACP at an NAACP conference held here Oct. 5 and 6. The Northwest area consists of the states of

Half of Troops Leave Little Rock; Faubus Still Hints He Will Call Legislature

Little Rock, Ark.—Although the federal-state deadlock over integration at Central High school, still prevailed, the Army announced plans to dismiss half the Arkansas national guard and Orval Faubus, governor of Arkansas continued to hint of his "probable plans" to call a special session of the state legislature.

According to Secretary of the army Wilber Brueckner Monday, about 8,500 of the troops will be released and only 1,800 of the guardsmen and 500 of the 101st Airborne division will remain on duty. The action will reduce the $100,000-a-day cost of maintaining troops in Little Rock. He gave no indication when all federal troops will be withdrawn.

President Eisenhower ordered the army to take control at Little Rock on Sept. 24 to enforce a court order for admittance of nine Negro pupils to the school. At the same time he ordered the Arkansas national guard into federal service.

Idaho, Oregon, Washington and the Territory of Alaska.

Greenville, Miss.—Charles H. Burton, outstanding Negro county agent of Greenville, will return to his post here on Nov. 1 after two years in agricultural work in Liberia, Africa for the International Cooperation Administration.

Marshall, Tex.—E. N. Power bid $10,500 and was awarded sale of the city swimming pool Oct. 8 in an anti-integration move. The city offered the pool and other facilities for sale after Titus Edwards, 21, a Negro, sought an injunction against the ban of Negroes at the pool.

Minneapolis, Minn.—Mrs. L. C. Bates, militant state leader of the NAACP of Arkansas, spoke at a mass NAACP meeting here Sunday, Oct. 13.

Edward LaVerne Barber, Jr., 32, of 1701 Maple Street, was being held for questioning here Saturday, Oct. 12, in connection with an early-morning shooting at S. E. Sixth Street and Sixth Avenue.

Shot was Robert Lee Martin, 21, of 611 S. E. Seventh Street. He suffered wounds on the left side of his neck and left shoulder and is in Broadlawn General hospital. His condition is reported good. Martin told police he gave an unknown man a $10 bill to buy him a package of cigarettes and that a few minutes later Barber walked up and handed him the cigarettes.

Asked For Change—When he asked for change from the $10 bill, Martin told police, Barber replied that he didn't know about the change. Barber said to police that another man had given him Martin's package of cigarettes and had asked him to take them to Martin, who was standing near S. E. Sixth and Scott.

Shotgun—Detective Chief Robert E. O'Brien reported that Martin said he picked up a club and started after Barber, but that Barber went to a car, pulled out a shotgun and shot Martin. The shooting was reported at 4:45 a.m.

Milwaukee Bricklayers Admit First Negro

New York.—Herbert Hill, NAACP labor secretary, said today he has been informed that Negroes have been admitted, for the first time, into Local 8 of the Milwaukee Bricklayers Union.

Mr. Hill hailed the development, pointing out that he had worked for more than a year with the Wisconsin Industrial Commission and with local and national AFL-CIO officials to secure the admission of Negro workers into the Milwaukee union.

He called the Milwaukee action "significant because it is a successful attack against the discriminatory practices which are widespread in building trades unions."

Two Negro mechanics, Randolph Ross and James Harris, had initiated action before the Wisconsin Industrial Commission, which administers the Wisconsin fair employment practices act. The Commission had ordered the union to admit the Negro workers but had been defied by

Invitation to Breakfast Follows Racial Incident In Delaware Restaurant

Washington, D. C.—In an extraordinary invitation prompted by a racial incident involving an African statesman, President Eisenhower personally extended America's apology to K. A. Gbedemah, finance minister of Ghana, new Negro republic.

Considered the most powerful man in Ghana next to Prime Minister Kwame Nkrumah, the finance minister reported he was told by a waitress at a restaurant in Dover, Del., that "colored people are not allowed to eat here."

Learning of the incident from newspapers and White House officials, the President invited Gbedemah to the executive mansion for breakfast, Thursday, Oct. 10. Afterwards Washington newsmen reported that the African statesman emerged all smiles, stating, that the breakfast, "makes up for everything—all I went through the other day."

Ghana Accepts

Although Ghana did not officially protest the Dover incident the state department took the unusual step of issuing a statement saying it "greatly regrets that this incident has occurred involving a great friend and a distinguished visitor."

Ghana's foreign ministry announced in Accra it has accepted the U.S. apology.

Prior to the breakfast date, the minister got another apology from Howard Johnson, head of the restaurant chain. Johnson came down from his suite in the Waldorf Astoria in New York City to apologize to Gbedemah, who was staying on a lower floor of the hotel.

Vice President

Vice-President Nixon, who entertained Gbedemah at his home recently, said he plans to write Gbedemah a note expressing his regrets over the Dover incident. The vice-president was returning an honor previously extended to him by Gbedemah, when the 45-year-old former newspaper editor entertained Nixon at his home in Ghana last March when he was touring Africa.

The Ghana official has been in the United States since Sept. 20 for meetings of the World Bank in Washington. Ghana, because of its recent independence, wields much influence among African and Asian nations.

Only Private Adoption, Foster-Home Society Giving Care To Negro Children

BY MRS. FRANCES HAWTHORNE
(This is the first in a series of three articles about the Iowa Children's Home Society—a private child-caring, child-placing agency)

For 69 years, a private child-caring, child-placing agency known as the Iowa Children's Home Society has been helping children in Iowa from infancy to legal adulthood. More important it is the only society, privately controlled, in the state known to provide adoptive and foster-home care for Negro children.

Children from homes broken by death, divorce, and neglect; adolescents disturbed by personality problems and personal crises; unwed mothers desperately seeking a solution to past mistakes; parents torn by financial difficulties or long term illnesses—are some of the people the Iowa Children's Home Society has helped—without profit, without catering to one sect, race or creed.

God's Institution

With state headquarters at 2203 Grand Avenue, the society operates day-to-day on the precept on which it was founded in 1888 that "the home is God's institution and far superior to any orphanage or man-made institution as a place to rear children."

Challenges Virginia Anti-NAACP Laws in U. S. District Court

Richmond, Va.—Briefs were filed and arguments heard in the federal district court here in a case in which the NAACP is challenging the constitutionality of seven Virginia laws designed to cripple the activities of the NAACP in Virginia, passed by the state legislature in October, 1956.

Representing the NAACP in the argument heard on Oct. 10 were Robert L. Carter, the Association's general counsel, and Oliver W. Hill. The NAACP Legal Defense Fund was represented by Thurgood Marshall, director-counsel, and Spottswood W. Robinson, III.

Prohibitions

The Virginia anti-NAACP statutes prohibit:

1. Prohibit the solicitation of funds to defray the costs of litigation in anti-discrimination suits without listing with the secretary of state the names and addresses of members and contributors.

2. Ban public advocacy of desegregation of the public schools without listing with the secretary of state the names and addresses of members and contributors.

3. Penalize attorneys who accept fees raised by persons or organizations not directly involved in the litigation.

4. Restrict organizations from encouraging citizens to secure their rights in the courts.

5. Forbid giving financial assistance to persons involved in lawsuits against the State of Virginia.

6. Require a public listing of the NAACP membership in the state.

7. Demand a filing of all monies raised and expended by the NAACP in Virginia for any purpose.

Resistance Keystone
The Virginia statutes are termed in the NAACP brief "the keystone of the state's program of 'massive resistance' to the public school decisions of the Supreme Court."

"Seldom has a group of statutes suffered from as many constitutional infirmities as these under consideration," the NAACP document declares. "Their purpose and scope strike at such federally protected rights as freedom of speech and assembly, as well as the right to pool resources and seek relief in courts such as this Court. Through-out runs the unconstitutional classification aimed solely at groups such as plaintiffs NAACP and NAACP Legal Defense Fund, Inc., while expressly excluding all other groups exercising freedom of expression or joint action in the courts."

The brief charges that in seeking to forestall any attempts to bring about desegregation, Virginia has "struck at the main bulwark of relief against governmental oppression—free access to the courts."

Take notice that at a special meeting of the stockholders of National Loan Plan of Pima, held at its principal place of business in Des Moines, Iowa, on October 4, 1957, ARTICLE I of the Articles of Incorporation of said company was amended to read as follows:

"The name of this corporation shall be DIAL FINANCE COMPANY OF PHOENIX, and its principal place of business shall be in the City of Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa."

Printed and published in the Iowa Bystander October 17, 24, 31 and November 7, 1957.

Personal Touch
By
MARIE ROSS

Still writing letters and thank-you notes to the many persons who were so very kind and generous with their shower of cards, breakfasts, gifts, luncheons and dinners given on the occasion of my recent moving from Des Moines.

Among the messages was a note from Mrs. Nicie C. Edwards, 1939 West Blvd., Los Angeles, Calif., who penned:

"I do not live in Des Moines anymore, but ever you come to California, I shall have you to dinner, too." She added: "I have learned to love you even though I have never seen you. The spirit of God runs from heart to heart. I would love to see your mother. The twenty-first day of September was my birthday. I can scarcely believe it myself."

From Des Moines, came a note from Mr. and Mrs. Essie B. Holt, 1608 Lyon Street, who said in part: "Sorry you are leaving; but, happy you are continuing your column."

Mrs. Lalah Morris, 1331 E. Seventeenth Street Court, Des Moines, said, "Will look to hear from you through your column, 'Personal Touch.' Guess I had better get on with the column news."

Vacationing

By now, Mrs. Ida Green, 1313 Fremont Street, should be home, after months of vacationing parts of the South and East. Her last travel note said: "I am in Columbus, Ohio, with my two sons-in-law. On my way towards home. See you a few days later." Sorry I could not remain until she returned home—for I am sure she picked up a few Virginia dishes which would be well worth the sampling.

From Europe, arrived a note from Mrs. Maurice (Evans) Paterson of Omaha, Neb., who with her mother, Mrs. J. Q. Evans, 1106 Seventeenth Street, brother, Dr. L. A. Whitfield of Chicago, Ill., and her daughter, Pamela Patterson, should be home-ward bound.

Mrs. Patterson penned: "All day we have been in the Alpine Range going from Switzerland into Austria. It is extremely beautiful and varies from our Rockies in the fact that they (the Swiss) live in quaint chalets and farms—all up and down the mountain side. I had no idea Europe was so beautiful."

In Omaha

Mentioning Omaha calls my attention to last Sunday when I went to the morning service of the thirty-seventh annual Kansas - Nebraska

These Baked Apples Go Glamorous!

In the time it takes to say to unexpected guests, "Stay for supper," you can change plain baked apples to a glamorous dessert with a quick 'n' easy topping! This same simple flaked coconut and cream mixture would be equally delicious on applesauce, or on a wedge of apple pie. The topping can be added just before serving; or, if there's time, chilled in advance, as the recipe suggests.

Coconut Baked Apples

6 tart apples, cored
1/2 cup water
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 cup Baker's Angel Flake Coconut
2 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon orange extract
or grated orange rind
1/2 cup cream, whipped
Place apples in baking dish, add water, and sprinkle with 1/4 cup sugar. Bake in hot oven (400°F.) 45 minutes, or until done. Cool.
Fold 1/2 cup of the coconut, 2 tablespoons sugar, and orange extract into whipped cream. Top apples with the mixture. Garnish with remaining coconut. Chill before serving. Makes 6 servings.

Visits in Home of James Newsome

Mrs. Mabel Higgins who had been a recent house guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Newsome, 1305 Laurel avenue, returned to Chicago, Ill. While here in the city she visited with other relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Greene and the Rev. and Mrs. Luther Smith.

Note From Editor:

When you phone in or write news to the Office of the Bystander will you please (whenever possible) include full names of persons (first and last) and street addresses? This is important for full identification of hosts, hostesses and church leaders. Thank you.

Conference of the AME Church which convened at Trinity Church in Kansas City, Kan.

A choir from St. John AME Church was featured at the closing day's session. The church was packed with delegates, members and visitors. An usher found a seat for me near the front and I sat besides a woman who shortly tapped me on the arm.

"I saw in the Bystander that you had moved back to Kansas," Mrs. Annie Jones said. "I'm Mrs. Gladys Brown's aunt," she added and then I remembered that I had seen her several weeks ago in Des Moines where she and her niece were attending services at St. Paul AME Church.

Presiding at the organ during the Omaha choir's numbers was another fact I recognized. I had seen her in Des Moines recently, just last month when the Brotherhood Chorus of Zion Baptist Church of Omaha gave a concert at Corinthian Baptist Church.

After Services, I went to the organist, Mrs. Ruth Downing and said: "When I saw you in Des Moines with the Baptist men's group, I thought you were a Baptist."

She laughed and informed me that she is a Methodist.
Enroute to Kansas City early Sunday morning, Mrs. Downing said her choir's chartered bus met a caravan of Kansas City choristers heading for Omaha to give a program, and a busload of Des Moines church singers, also going there. The old saying: "If you want to see the world, join the navy," may be reworded to: "If you want to travel and sing and get free turkey dinners, join a church choir." They are going places in chartered buses.

A little Des Moines resident who has been convalescing in Douglass Hospital in Kansas City, Kan., is Miss Rose Marie Galters, who was scheduled to leave the hospital this week for the home of an aunt.

Rose Marie, a popular young pianist and vocalist, left Des Moines in August to fill an engagement in Minneapolis, Tulsa and Kansas City. Her parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. A.

The Ten Keys met at the home of Elizabeth Kinchloir. The next meeting will be with Christine Martin, 1125 10th street.

Why is there so much emphasis on personality today? Because the fate of our democratic way of life depends in large measure on the individual persons who make up our country.

Children need to be rated according to their individual ability to do things, then helped to grow and make the most of that ability, not to be compared to older brothers or sisters who may make better grades or are more gifted in other ways.

Mickey and Sylvia

New York City. (CNS) Mickey and Sylvia, embarking on another singing tour, are currently making $3,500 a week—and it wasn't so long ago that Mickey was a guitar teacher at a meager salary. It's the breaks that count, he says. A member of the Interracial Club at Fordham University went personally to Levittown, Pa.—got a first hand picture of the situation and did a report to the club. The turnout was terrific.

Lena Horne

Lena Horne is 'deliriously happy over the huge success of her musical "Jamaica" as it is a dream come true for this girl who started big time many years ago in Cafe Society Downtown as Helena Horne and along the way, became one of the toasted celebrities of our day. Though her co-star, Ricardo Montalban, who's wonderful in his role opposite her, has received many letters against his love-making to Lena, the show booms as one of the brightest of the season with sellouts each eve. Now still doing their tryout in Philadelphia, they'll head soon to New York for the grand opening Halloween night. Lena is also proud of the first Negro stagehands being used in "Jamaica"—at least five will be employed.

The Brooklyn chapter of the NAACP got together and sent loads of get-well cards to their friend and buddy, Harry Belafonte, recuperating at Harkness Pavilion. Big sale of last year's records (45s) at 25c ea. and only those few of King Cole included were grabbed.

VOTE IN THE CITY
PRIMARIES TUESDAY

Tuesday, October 22, the voters of Des Moines are called upon to nominate six candidates for council seats, two for judge and two for clerk of the municipal court.

By far the largest number of candidates vying for council seats has qualified. Ordinarily, it is a good sign to have a large selection from which to pick. And while some of these candidates have done nothing to qualify themselves to serve in those parts, if elected, there are some whose qualifications measure up to very high standards.

For some reasons, very little interest has been shown in city elections in recent years. And so far, little has been shown in this one. No longer are there political meetings that attract crowds. In fact, voters don't come out. And thus candidates get little of their views before the public. So not only does the average voter have little idea about who to vote for but they have no clue to what their views are.

And since there is little interest shown before election day, the total vote is far below what might be expected. People come out to vote when the issues have been interesting to them; when candidates carry on a good well fought campaign, nothing else will do the job.

The salary of a city councilman is so low that it deters many good people from running; it tends to cheapen the job which has about resolved itself into simply a membership on a committee. It is a defect in the system which ought to be remedied.

This is one job the new council might look into; they might well look into the police and fireman's bureau organization which, for years, surreptitiously seemed to block many a worthy candidate for admission and/or promotion in these departments. They might follow through the proposed state clearance and free way projects so as to assure early beginning, complete justice to property holders and a side bonus to be enjoyed and which will be a credit to Des Moines.

In any event voters should go to the polls Tuesday and nominate the best candidates for the offices to be filled.

STATES RIGHTS VS.
EQUAL PROTECTION

Indications are that a fat political campaign will be conducted next fall with issues, among others, whether the federal government should stand idly by while the civil rights of its citizens are being violated when a state refuses or fails to carry out its responsibility.

There are those in the North as well as South who are deploring the use of troops to compel compliance with court orders in Arkansas. And yet these same people express no concern in the use of national guard troops to prevent obedience to court orders.

In the former, law and order prevails; in the latter mob violence and anarchy.

Bad as it seems, this situation brings to a focus the complaint minorities have made over the years that in spite of the fact that all states have laws, which if enforced, would protect its citizens, they have not been enforced when it comes to the rights of Negroes. And this is true of some of the Northern states also. An excellent example is the civil rights law of Iowa which, prior to a few years ago, was ignored with impunity.

And if the rights of one group can be so treated it is unsafe for another to escape similar fates.

This problem may cut across party lines for there are supporters on both sides of the question. However, there can be but one right side. Certainly, the clamor for states rights, which permits citizens to live within its border without protection, must give way to the rights guaranteed by the U. S. constitution that are citizens are entitled to the equal protection of the law.

It is no stretch of imagination that President Eisenhower and other decent people in America would have been spared the embarrassment caused by the refusal of a restaurant in Delaware to serve a foreign diplomat, the finance minister of Ghana, simply because of his race, had the rule of decency prevailed.

Of course, this was the general practice of the restaurant, but nobody did anything about it. It was not important that a Negro should be insulted. But where such acts embarrass America with its friends the situation becomes different.

The time must come, if America is to survive, that there shall be one rule for everybody and one standard of law enforcement; otherwise good relations with our friends and peace among our own people can not prevail.

Mike Hagler, Rugged,
Versatile Iowa Back

One of Iowa's most versatile and stalwart backs in 163-pound half-back Mike Hagler. He has performed admirably for the Hawks so far this year.

In Iowa's tumultuous 47-7 victory over Indiana last week Mike contributed a 16-yard touchdown run and an average of 7.5 yards for eight carries.

He is said to be the fastest man of all Hawkeyes in covering on kicks, a rugged blocker and a good pass defender.

BY ALLEN ASHBY

Guess we have to admit that Iowa University has a pretty fair football club. Probably one of the best in recent years. The strength of the 1957 Hawkeyes seems to be in their depth. Reserves make in rough on opponents. The coach says they have not been tested yet. Well, maybe Wisconsin can provide a test. The Badgers have one of the few Negroes to ever play quarterback (Sidney Williams) in the Big Ten and they say he is good.

Next, after Iowa, everyone is wondering what kind of hurricane Michigan State has. We saw them on television against someone and it looked as if half the squad were Negroes. Don't know how you are going to keep them out of the Rose Bowl. Maybe the Hawks can get even with Michigan this year?

Iowa State continues to prove that condition is about fifty per cent of football. With just a handful of well conditioned who want to play the Cyclones have racked up their best showing in years no matter what they do the rest of the season.

Lets not raise our hopes too high, but Drake could have an unbeaten season. Seems as if all they have to do is get past Iowa State and they are in, maybe.

High School

East continues to be the big gun of the local high schools. The Lee Township lads are getting tougher each week and will give anybody a busy fifty minutes before ending on the short end of the score.

North has a set of the astest backs in the city. There is only one other back who might catch off of the North speedsters and that is Tech's Jim Hutchinson and he'd better hurry.

The Polar Bears are going to waylay someone yet. Hope it isn't East.

Baseball

Did the world series suit you? We were Braves rooters and Yankee bettors, so we didn't fare too well. But it was some series for Wes Covington, Hank Aaron and Felix Man-

Now second guessers are saying the great Casey Stengel handled his men wrong. To us he handled them as he has in every series past, but the key players just didn't come through as they usually did. Oh well, it was good the series honors got back west for a change even if we may have to shoot Eddie Perkins, an avid Milwaukee fan. Why shoot him; Then we won't have to pay our bet!

Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from Thy holy presence. — (Psalm 51, 10-11.)

It is only when we have gained, through devout prayer, Our Father's everlasting mercy, that we can gain also a clean heart and a right spirit. Then we will know His presence, enveloping and filling us, and find therein a strength superhuman, a peace beyond description.

HEALTH FOR ALL

VIRUS JAPAN 507

That's the official name for the bug that may cause us a lot of trouble now, that the influenza season begins. Cases of this new import from Asia were relatively few in the summer months, but we can expect them to increase in fall and winter. Whether or not Asian flu will be as rampant in this country as in the Far East we can't yet tell, but it's possible that 15 to 20 per cent of us will be hit.

The disease itself can be expected to be rather mild—so there's no occasion for hysteria. However, the effect on any community, if large numbers are sick at one time even or a few days, can be serious. Fortunately, vaccine will be available at least for those in essential occupations such as medical, fire and police, but there may not be enough for everybody.

If you do catch Asian flu, it will come suddenly after a one or two day incubation period. At first it may seem just like a common cold with a runny nose and sore throat. But there will also be fever, headache, aching muscles and joints, and that feeling of being "tired all over." There's no specific treatment, but aspirin and rest will help you get through the three to five day course of the disease with the least possible suffering. Rest, too is important to prevent "hitch hikers"—more serious secondary illnesses such as pneumonia. You can help slow down spread of the disease as well as avoid secondary infections by taking yourself out of circulation as soon as you notice any symptoms.

Watch for advice and instructions from public health officials in your community. If an epidemic should strike, they'll tell you what to do.

that it would not be in the interest of justice.

Bonds of $10,000 were set for all but Bell, Gilmore and Miss Hudson, whose bail was fixed at $5,000 each. Miss Hudson, Miss Chandler, and Parks have made bond. The others are being held in Polk county jail in lieu of bond.

Officials said the raids smashed a ring that sold as much as $2,500 worth of dope a week to addicts in Iowa.

Integration—

SEE FRONT PAGE but he is not certain—yet. One solution the legislature may consider, he said, is action similar to that of the Florida legislature in setting up legal machinery for the closing of any school which is integrated by the force of federal troops.

Fourth Week

The fourth week of integration at Central High began quietly Monday with the Negro students entering the building under protection of the soldiers. Before classes opened late last week school authorities reported that 46 of the 74 white students who have been under suspension have been reinstated or will be soon. Many of those barred had taken part in a walkout or in other disturbances.

Changes Mind

One of the most vehement student segregationists at the school—Sammie Dean Parker, 16—said Monday she has decided not to fight any longer against the presence of the Negro students at the school. Miss Parker said a panel discussion of the problem with six other students, in-

Pawnee, Okla.—Residents of this north-central Oklahoma town Monday were backing a big Negro high school football player's fight to recover from a severe injury.

Abe Abbington, 18, suffered a ruptured intestine two weeks ago in a game with Hominy, Okla., last week he underwent a five-hour operation. Since then, six white teammates have given blood for transfusions. The Pawnee High School girl's pep club held a prayer meeting to pray for Abbington's recovery.

"At one time at least 250 people—whites, Negroes and Indians—were lined up to assist Abe in any way they could," said football coach Max McKenzie. "I believe he's over the hump now." Abbington has been attending Pawnee High since the school was integrated two years ago.

When the afterglow is fading
In that canopy on high,
'Tis the time for serenading:
When the stars light up the sky.
In a little whitewashed cottage
Down a road of cobblestone,
There's a darlin' waiting for me
And a love that calls me home.
When my roamin' days are over
Then I'll bed down in the clover,
In that earthbound bit of heaven
I am proud to call my own.
With the soft-toned parlor organ
We will sing away the blues:
While the young ones are a-dancin'
In their shiny dancing shoes.

BOOSTING FARM INCOME

Iowa farmers have a steady and dependable customer in the brewing industry.

Quality grain is a basic requirement in brewing . . . and as it happens, Iowa's No. 1 crop, corn, is also the No. 1 cereal adjunct used in making beer. In addition, the industry also requires large quantities of soybeans, wheat, barley, and other grains, adding further to our farm income. In the last year alone America's brewing companies spent over $250,000,000.00 for grains of this type. And our farmers benefit even further because many of these brewers' grains later become vitamin-enriched cattle feed.

In truth, Iowa prosperity gains in many ways from the brewing industry . . . and not the least of these is the steady boost given to our farm income.
