Davenport, Ia. Police Chief Orders Necessary Force in Future Arrests

Command Follows 3 Negroes' Arrest In Dance Fracas

Davenport, Ia.—In the aftermath of the arrests of three Negroes by 14 policemen in a fracas early Sunday morning, Nov. 17, at the Danceland Ballroom in the Eagle's building here, Police Chief Ray Schieser ordered officers to use all necessary force to withstand assaults on their persons while involved in the performance of their duty.

3 Davenporters

According to Davenport police records, the three identified as Milton Robinson, 22, of 1308 Spring street; Herbert D. Twyner, 27, of 1616 Judson street; and James R. Cooper, 27, of 1111 Ripley street were arrested by officers on duty at the dance. They appeared in police court Monday charged with intoxication and resisting arrest. Their bonds were set at $600 each and their hearing continued until next Monday, Nov. 25.

Crowd Forms

The 2 a.m. fight, which started when a crowd attempted to block the departure of the arresting officers and their prisoners, prompted the calling of four police cars and the sheriff's night patrol to the scene. Chief Schieser said two officers were injured in the incident as a result of kicks and blows.

"We will not tolerate any incidents of this kind in the future," Chief Schieser added.

Drop Charges Against D. C. Police Chief; Lack Evidence Of Brutality in Arrest Cases

Washington, D. C.—Citing the NAACP failed to produce "any evidence upon which reasonable men could conclude that Chief of Police Robert V. Murray should be removed from office," three District Commissioners dropped racial discrimination charges against Chief Murray in a lengthy hearing where the case was aired in detail to the public.

"I am gratified by the finding of the Commissioners that the charges against me were groundless, and especially pleased that the Commissioners have reaffirmed their confidence in me and in the Metropolitan Police Dept."

Not Surprised

"I have always believed that this would be the inevitable result of a full and fair hearing at which all the facts were presented to the Commissioners and to the public."

However, Eugene Davidson, President of the Washington Chapter of the NAACP, stated he was "not surprised" at the outcome. The NAACP had submitted a set of proposals to the Commissioners for administrative changes in the department.

Most of the charges against Murray by the NAACP were for police brutality in arrests of Negroes. This submitted to the FBI was returned with findings of insufficient evidence.

Confessions

Davidson, in a statement, said "In its unseemly and unjust haste to reach a decision favorable to Chief Murray, the Commissioners have overlooked not only evidence but confessions of the Chief of

The Felix Dickersons, Four Grandchildren Overcome By Fumes

The Rev. and Mrs. Felix Dickerson, 1315 University avenue and four grandchildren were overcome by carbon-monoxide fumes from what officials said was a defective gas furnace Monday morning about 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Dickerson reports she began feeling "very sick" then she heard her 4-month-old grandson crying and Lemar fall upstairs.

"I tried to go up the stairs to see what was wrong with them but I was too weak," she said. "My husband was sick, too, in the basement, but we didn't know what was causing it."

Calls Friend

She then called a neighboring friend, Mrs. Sam Miller, 4140 14th street, who came over to investigate.

All were given first aid treatment by the fire department emergency crew and then taken to Broadlains General hospital where they were held several hours for observation.

Mrs. Dickerson identified the grandchildren as Thomas Bond, 14, 7-year-old twins Lemar and Eulalee Dell Henry and great-grandson, Joseph Steele, Jr.

The Rev. Mr. Dickerson is an assistant pastor at St. Paul AME church, 12th and Crocker streets.

There were four off-duty officers at the dance, which was organized by David Booker, of Kansas City, according to Chief Schieser. Officials of the Eagle's Lodge said they will permit no more dances by Booker in their building.

Police under oath (a) that he had not implemented the Commissioners' order against discrimination; (b) that he had defied the Supreme Court in ordering his officers to continue the practices outlawed by that court; and (c) that he abided by a philosophy of segregation if needed for efficiency. In addition, he exhibited time and time again naivete on the role of a police department in the capitol of democracy.

Major Abjective

"It is further incredible and significant that the Commissioners have reaffirmed their confidence in me and in the Metropolitan Police Dept."

Second Student Attacked at Little Rock, Ark.

Little Rock, Ark.—Choosing an opportune time, when the tough soldiers of the 101st Airborne Division were not watching, Little Rock segregationists struck another blow in the beating of another Negro student of Central High School. The newest victim, Jefferson Thomas, a 15 year old, and one of the "brave nine," told his story.

"Dog Bites"

"It was just like a dog who runs up behind you and bites you," Jeff said. "The pain is so great that you don't have a chance to think about it until it's too late and when you finally try to find out what happened, he's gone. He came up behind me in the locker room when I wasn't looking—I never knew what hit me or who hit me, but it knocked me down. I got up and went to the office and reported it to Mr. Jess Mathews, the principal, and they kept me there for about 45 minutes questioning me about it. I don't know what happened after that. I don't know if they got the guy, because I never knew who it was. He just hit me and knocked me out and that was that."

"But I'm afraid Mrs. Bates (Mrs. L. C. Bates, state NAACP leader) pushed too far too fast," he said.

He added, he believes the federal government will have to keep troops guarding Central High until the end of this school year because "opposition is stronger than when they came in."

Ask U.S. Court of Appeals To Reaffirm Desegregation Date for Dallas Schools

Dallas, Texas—The U.S. Court of Appeals was asked last Saturday to affirm a district court ruling which ordered the Dallas public schools to admit Negro students beginning with the 1957-58 mid-winter term.

The district court on September 9, ordered the Dallas School Board to admit the Negro students as of the mid-winter 1957-58 term "on the same terms and conditions as though they were members of the white race." The order was issued after the Court of Appeals had on two previous occasions overruled the district court's findings and sent the case back for further consideration.

Drop Charges Against D. C. Police Chief; Lack Evidence Of Brutality in Arrest Cases

Washington, D. C.—Citing the NAACP failed to produce "any evidence upon which reasonable men could conclude that Chief of Police Robert V. Murray should be removed from office," three District Commissioners dropped racial discrimination charges against Chief Murray in a lengthy hearing where the case was aired in detail to the public.

"I am gratified by the finding of the Commissioners that the charges against me were groundless, and especially pleased that the Commissioners have reaffirmed their confidence in me and in the Metropolitan Police Dept."

Not Surprised

"I have always believed that this would be the inevitable result of a full and fair hearing at which all the facts were presented to the Commissioners and to the public."

However, Eugene Davidson, President of the Washington Chapter of the NAACP, stated he was "not surprised" at the outcome. The NAACP had submitted a set of proposals to the Commissioners for administrative changes in the department.

Most of the charges against Murray by the NAACP were for police brutality in arrests of Negroes. This submitted to the FBI was returned with findings of insufficient evidence.

Confessions

Davidson, in a statement, said "in its unseemly and unjudicial haste to reach a decision favorable to Chief Murray, the Commissioners have overlooked not only evidence but confessions of the Chief of

Police under oath (a) that he had not implemented the Commissioners' order against discrimination; (b) that he had defied the Supreme Court in ordering his officers to continue the practices outlawed by that court and (c) that he abided by a philosophy of segregation if needed for efficiency. Davenport, Ia. Police Chief Orders Necessary Force in Future Arrests

Command Follows 3 Negroes' Arrest In Dance Fracas

Davenport, Ia.—In the aftermath of the arrests of three Negroes by 14 policemen in a fracas early Sunday morning, Nov. 17, at the Danceland Ballroom in the Eagle's building here, Police Chief Ray Schieser ordered officers to use all necessary force to withstand assaults on their persons while involved in the performance of their duty.

3 Davenporters

According to Davenport police records, the three identified as Milton Robinson, 22, of 1308 Spring street; Herbert D. Twyner, 27, of 1616 Judson street; and James R. Cooper, 27, of 1111 Ripley street were arrested by officers on duty at the dance. They appeared in police court Monday charged with intoxication and resisting arrest. Their bonds were set at $500 each and their hearing continued until next Monday, Nov. 25.

Crowd Forms

The 2 a.m. fight, which started when a crowd attempted to block the departure of the arresting officers and their prisoners, prompted the calling of four police cars and the sheriff's night patrol to the scene. Chief Schieser said two officers were injured in the incident as a result of kicks and blows.

"We will not tolerate any incidents of this kind in the future," Chief Schieser added.

Drop Charges Against D. C. Police Chief; Lack Evidence Of Brutality in Arrest Cases

Washington, D. C.—Citing the NAACP failed to produce "any evidence upon which reasonable men could conclude that Chief of Police Robert V. Murray should be removed from office," three District Commissioners dropped racial discrimination charges against Chief Murray in a lengthy hearing where the case was aired in detail to the public.

"I am gratified by the finding of the Commissioners that the charges against me were groundless, and especially pleased that the Commissioners have reaffirmed their confidence in me and in the Metropolitan Police Dept.

Not Surprised

"I have always believed that this would be the inevitable result of a full and fair hearing at which all the facts were presented to the Commissioners and to the public."

However, Eugene Davidson, President of the Washington Chapter of the NAACP, stated he was "not surprised" at the outcome. The NAACP had submitted a set of proposals to the Commissioners for administrative changes in the department.

Most of the charges against Murray by the NAACP were for police brutality in arrests of Negroes. This submitted to the FBI was returned with findings of insufficient evidence.

Confessions

Davidson, in a statement, said "in its unseemly and unjudicial haste to reach a decision favorable to Chief Murray, the Commissioners have overlooked not only evidence but confessions of the Chief of

The Felix Dickersons, Four Grandchildren Overcome By Fumes

The Rev. and Mrs. Felix Dickerson, 1315 University avenue and four grandchildren were overcome by carbon-monoxide fumes from what officials said was a defective gas furnace Monday morning about 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Dickerson reports she began feeling "very sick" then she heard her 4-month-old grandson crying and Lemar fall upstairs.

"I tried to go up the stairs to see what was wrong with them but I was too weak," she said. "My husband was sick, too, in the basement, but we didn't know what was causing it."

Calls Friend

She then called a neighboring friend, Mrs. Sam Miller, 1140 14th street, who came over to investigate.

All were given first aid treatment by the fire department emergency crew and then taken to Broadways General hospital where they were held several hours for observation.

Mrs. Dickerson identified the grandchildren as Thomas Bond, 14, 7-year-old twins Lemar and Eulalee Dell Henry and great-grandson, Joseph Steele, Jr.

The Rev. Mr. Dickerson is an assistant pastor at St. Paul AME church, 12th and Crocker streets.

There were four off-duty officers at the dance, which was organized by David Booker, of Kansas City, according to Chief Schieser. Officials of the Eagle's Lodge said they will permit no more dances by Booker in their building.

Major Abjctive

"It is further incredible and significant that the Supreme Court in ordering his officers to continue the practices outlawed by court and (c) that he abided by a philosophy of segregation if needed for efficiency. In addition, he exhibited time and time again naivete on the role of a police department in the capital of democracy.

Roy Wilkins Hails Ike's Unity Plea

New York, President Eisenhower's appeal to Americans to put aside "any divisive influence among us of whatever kind," won the prompt support of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Following the President's first address on science and security on Nov. 7, Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary, sent a telegram to the White House affirming the Association's support "because national security requires the full utilization of the country's total potential."

Moreover, Mr. Wilkins told the President, "Negro Americans, as in the past, pledge their cooperation in the national security program, asking only the unrestricted opportunity to secure the education and training necessary to enable them to contribute fully to the defense of their country."

Second Student Attacked at Little Rock, Ark.

Little Rock, Ark.—Choosing an opportune time, when the tough soldiers of the 101st Airborne Division were not watching, Little Rock segregationists struck another blow in the "beating of another Negro student of Central High School. The newest victim, Jefferson Thomas, a 15 year old, and one of the "brave nine," told his story.

"Dog Bites"

"It was just like a dog who runs up behind you and bites you," Jeff said. "The pain is so great that you don't have a chance to think about it until it's too late and when you finally try and find out what happened, he's gone. He came up behind me in the locker room when I wasn't looking—I never knew what hit me or who hit me, but it knocked me down. I got up and went to the office and reported it to Mr. Jess Mathews, the principal, and they kept me there for about 45 minutes questioning me about it. I don't know what happened after that. I don't know if they got the guy, because I never knew who it was. He just hit me and knocked me out and that was that."

Physician

Unlike Terrance Roberts, 15, who earlier had been kicked and knocked down—Jefferson reported the incident, Terrance chose not to tell even his family what had happened for fear they would withdraw him from the school. He was taken to a physician for fear of a fractured jaw, but examination showed there was no damage.

Stinton, pastor of Payne Memorial, and the director Mr. Scott, were among those not injured.

Urges Aid

Noting the unfortunate experience of the Francis Jackson family whose house was destroyed by fire last week, Mrs. Clara Bayles, president of the organization, asks all NAACP members and friends to donate to the needs of the family.

"I understand the Jacksons lost everything in the fire except the clothes they were wearing. Let us all do our part to aid this family," she said.

Mrs. Bayles will make a plea at the regular NAACP meeting which will be preceded by a meeting of the executive board at 7 p.m.

Faubus: 9 Negro Pupils Withdraw To End Deadlock

Hot Spring, Ark.—Gov. Orval Faubus, reiterated Sunday he believes the desegregation deadlock in Little Rock will not be resolved until the nine Negro students are voluntarily withdrawn from Central High school.

Faubus contends that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People picked Little Rock as a place to push integration as "show place" for the rest of Arkansas and the rest of the South.

"But I'm afraid Mrs. Bates (Mrs. L. C. Bates, state NAACP leader) pushed too far too fast," he said.

He added he believes the federal government will have to keep troops guarding Central High until the end of this school year because "opposition is stronger than when they came in."

He said no negotiations are taking place between himself and the White House or the Southern governors committee to settle the dispute. The Arkansas governor is in Hot Springs, a resort city, recuperating from a minor illness.

Heroicly Saves 7 Children From Death; Furniture, House, Clothing Destroyed

Mrs. Madonna Jackson, 41, who suffered second degree burns over one-fourth of her body in heroic efforts rescuing her seven children from their burning house last week, lay in her hospital bed at Lutheran Tuesday, counting not her losses, but her blessings.

Smiling and talking cheerfully despite painfully raw burns on the upper portion of her body aggravated by the circulating air, Mrs. Jackson said, "I thank God, we all got out of there alive."

Outward Spirit

Her next words, a testimonial to her indomitable, outward spirit, "I have nothing to worry about. My children are all well taken care of. And so many people have been so nice in so many ways."

"I could lay here and make myself seriously ill," she went on. "But why worry when I have nothing to worry about except getting these burns healed?"

Ask U.S. Court of Appeals To Reaffirm Desegregation Date for Dallas Schools

Dallas, Texas—The U.S. Court of Appeals was asked last Saturday to affirm a district court ruling which ordered the Dallas public schools to admit Negro students beginning with the 1957-58 mid-winter term.

The district court on September 9, ordered the Dallas School Board to admit the Negro students as of the mid-winter 1957-58 term "on the same terms and conditions as though they were members of the white race." The order was issued after the Court of Appeals had on two previous occasions overruled the district court's findings and sent the case back for further consideration.

Board Objects

The Dallas School Board objected to the order setting forth the date for the end of segregation in its public schools and on October 25, appealed to the U.S. Court of Appeals on the grounds that the lower court abused its discretion.

Attorneys for the Negro students, in a brief filed here Saturday, November 9, with the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, maintained that the district court did not abuse its discretion in setting a date for the beginning of desegregation in the city public schools.

Attorneys for the Negro students are Louis Bedford, C. B. Bunkley, Jr., W. J. Durham and U. S. Tate of Dallas, and Robert L. Carter and Thurgood Marshall of New York.

Children
Their children are presently staying with relatives located on the east and west side of the city, and plans are being made to transfer the three youngest, Keith, 7, Michael, 8 and Gail Frances, 10 to schools on the west side. Mrs. Jackson's children are Marilyn, 19, Nancy, 17, and Darrell, 15.

In the pre-dawn fire which swept their home at 1234 East 19th street, last Wednesday, Nov. 13, at 4:40 a.m., all their clothing, furniture and the 2 story 7 room house were destroyed.

Mrs. Jackson said, "I remember waking up and seeing the light from the kitchen. (The fire is believed to have started from a gas stove there) I got up to see, then ran back and told Francis the house was on fire."

Mass of Flames
She ran up a smoke-filled stairway to tell their four daughters sleeping upstairs that the house was on fire. Returning downstairs, where three boys had been sleeping in another bedroom, Mrs. Jackson searched the first floor, then a mass of flames, in her search for Keith, 7.

Dad Comforts Daughter
She did not know that Keith had been carried out by her husband, and she continued the search even after her nightclothing caught fire. She was led out to an ambulance by firemen.

Daughters
Not knowing of his wife's search, Mr. Jackson had been outside directing the daughters, who became frightened at the smoke filled stairway.

Sweet 'N Sour Pork Chops

"THIS LITTLE PIG WENT TO MARKET"—and to add to the old rhyme we might say that lots of little pigs are going to market right now. This is good news for those of us who enjoy pork chops and other pork cuts. From the test kitchens of Minute Maid-Snow Crop Fresh Frozen Orange Juice comes a timely recipe for Sweet 'N Sour Pork Chops. This is a delicious way of serving this popular meat—and an easy way, too, since all the cooking is done on top of the range to save fuel.

Rice is plentiful now, too, so we suggest a large bowl of fluffy, boiled rice to serve alongside the pork chops. Use the delicious orange-Snow Crop Frozen Green Beans, cooked in a small amount of boiling water, following the package directions, and served with your meat and rice will add up to an extra good meal, for the family as well as guests.

SWEET 'N SOUR PORK CHOPS

6 loin pork chops
6 cloves
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon paprika
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons shortening
1 can (6 oz.) Snow Crop Fresh Frozen Orange Juice—thawed and undiluted
1 tablespoon brown sugar
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon

Insert one clove in the center of each pork chop. Blend salt, paprika and pepper and rub mixture well into both sides of chops. Melt shortening in heavy skillet or Dutch oven, and when hot, place chops in pan and brown on both sides over medium heat (do not crowd in pan, it is frozen orange juice with brown sugar and cinnamon and pour over chops. Cover and simmer about 30 minutes or until tender (Serves 4-6). the edges, it may need dampening in order to smooth it out to perfection.

In regard to bleaching, an easy way involves just soap or detergent suds and a sunshiny day. Put the linens into thick suds, then hang them outside to dry without rinsing.

After the sun has done its work, wash the linens as usual in fresh suds. This is a time-honored method that has been working for many a year.

Mrs. Wimberly Completes 'Circle' in Juvenile Court Duties, Youth Work Here

Meeting challenges and serving young people and their parents always have been an integral part of the life of Mrs. Helen Wimberly.

MRS. WIMBERLY

1127 11th street, who was appointed Polk County probation officer, last week.

For Mrs. Wimberly, YWCA worker and social caseworker, her appointment was the second in the county and the third in the state in a little over two decades.

A native of Iowa City, she is a graduate of the State University of Iowa and a post-graduate social studies student of the University of Chicago. She taught briefly in Douglas High school, Columbia, Mo. before her initial appointment to the juvenile court here in 1933. For a decade she worked with young people and did voluntary work with the YWCA. In 1943 she applied for "YW" work in the East and decided on the Germantown branch in Philadelphia, Penna.

In Germantown

In the Germantown branch she had to overcome the prejudice of membership selectivity based on social status and prestige which excluded the working girl. After initiating a campaign that quadrupled the membership she tackled racial bars which denied Negroes the use of the Central Y swimming pool. After a vigorous campaigning on her part, Mrs. Wimberly finally gained a partial victory and limited use of the pool.

"I never quite overcame the resentment toward democratic membership of the 'Y' there and I finally left after two years and went to Plainsfield, N. J. and had my high hopes dashed when I ran into the same problem."

In New York

Meeting the challenge, Mrs. Wimberly changed them, but made herself unpopular and decided to get out of Y. voluntary work altogether.

She made direct use of her formal education when she accepted a job in 1946 as case worker with the New York Training school for girls.

"Here I had some of my most rewarding and pleasant experiences," she said.

In the early post-war years she says her work with about a dozen nationalities and her particular experience with a family from the rural areas of Alabama taught her that when people are in need and find some one to help, color means nothing.

Family Illness

In 1946 Mrs. Wimberly's plans to join a Negro boy's training school in upper New York were cancelled when family illness brought her back to her home state—Iowa. After securing a position, with the "help of friends," to the State Board of Control in the children division, she worked four years finding foster homes for Negro children.

Following the death of her mother, she married Joseph Wimberly, now a retired postal worker, and went to Chicago. Her previous plans not to work in October 1952 when she started work in the children's division of the Chicago department of Welfare placing children in foster homes. For the second time in seven years, family illness intervened again and brought her home, in 1955. Shortly afterwards her father and aunt died only five days apart.

Official "Idleness"

"Officially" Mrs. Wimberly remains

ed idle until her appointment last week to the Polk county juvenile court where she now helps the children of parents, who themselves were children receiving Mrs. Wimberly's help from 1933-43.

"I have completed the circle: I am back where I started from," she smiled.

"My greatest satisfaction comes from the knowledge of having helped someone when they needed it," she added.

Mrs. Wimberly, who gives credit to her late mother for motivating her career, says she sees no difference in the problems of the youth today than yesterday.

"There is I believe, more laxity in the home; parents are reluctant to sacrifice their personal wants to give more personal attention to their children."

Negro Mothers

Pointing out that the Negro mother has a particular duty, Mrs. Wimberly went on, "She should fortify her child with the ideals of personal worth and integrity to meet and adjust to the social and economic pressures . . . so he'll know he's as good as the next man and will meet all racial conflicts head on."

What is Mrs. Wimberly's philosophy? Be a Christian, giving your best each day, and to go to sleep at peace with yourself and the world.

Sugar Ray's Sister, Evelyn, Emcees at Appollo Rave Notices Pour in for Lena Horne, "Jamaica"

WITH DOLORES CALVIN

SUGAR RAY'S SISTER

New York City. (Calvin-News Service)—A newcomer to our midst is Miss Evelyn Robinson, sister of Ray Sugar Robinson—and quite a disc jockey of renown. . . . Now Evelyn has moved into larger circles—namely as emcee of the Appollo Theatre show, which was a new experience to her. . . . Widely known as Sugar Ray's sister, newsmen confused the issue by printing that she was sister to Jackie—which tickled Evelyn no end.

LINDA HOPKINS

Apparently nervous, though looking like a peach, Evelyn carried off the show with great flair after she warmed up. . . . However, in introducing each act, she called them all such grand, endearing terms we felt she could have been a little more discriminating in her choice of words. . . . The plum of the show was the Arnett Cobb Band—and it was a pleasure to hear him back in business after so much bad luck. . . . His tenor sax is difficult to equal. . . . And his singer, Linda Hopkins, is terrific and a good find. . . . Too many fem vocalists are just ornaments to dress up the spot and fill a vacancy. . . . But here is a girl with a good voice. . . .

LITTLE WILLIE JOHN

Jockey Jocko Henderson, a rage in Harlem, was also on the bill—as were the Heartbeats—the Sentimentals, Donny Elbert, the Dubs, The Channels and Little Willie John. . . . Working with many not-too-well knowns, Evelyn smoothly rounded out

Telephone Company Announces Increase in Rates in Des Moines

To help meet higher costs, rates for local telephone service will be increased, according to M. J. Heldridge, District manager for the Northwestern Bell Telephone Company.

"The level of rates for local service in Iowa has not been raised since 1951. During the six years since then, our costs of operation and construction, including wages, have increased greatly. In addition, taxes continue at a high level. We are unable to absorb all of these higher costs, although every reasonable effort has been made to offset them," the manager stated.

Wage Increase

"Wage costs, which are about two-thirds of the cost of providing service, have increased more than 30 per cent in the past six years due to wage increases. Wage payments in Iowa for 1957 will be more than $30,000,000 and 1958 will be higher. This compares to wage payments of $20,000,000 in 1951," the manager continued.

Average Cost

"Almost everything needed to build and maintain a telephone system costs much more. Higher costs have pushed the average investment per telephone from $209 in 1951 to $275 today. The higher costs show up

Goal of Vote Drive In South—3 Million In 11 States by 1960

Atlanta, Ga.—Southern NAACP leaders in a two-day conference here Nov. 16-17, set a registration goal for three million Negro voters in 11 states by 1960.

A committee on implementation was appointed to see that the program reached every Negro household in the area. The plan was worked out at the conference under the direction of Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the national NAACP and Clarence Mitchell, head of the NAACP's national legislative office in Washington, D. C.

Dedicates New Medical Research Center at SUI

Iowa City, Iowa.—The State University of Iowa's new Medical Research Center will be officially dedicated today Nov. 21, with programs being planned for the public, for physicians and scientists in Iowa and for legislators, regents and other state and federal officials.

The finale of the three-day event will be a public open house in the $1½-million structure on Saturday morning, Nov. 23, from 9 a.m. to noon.

Okla. NAACP Meets In Tulsa, Nov. 21-23

Idabel, Okla.—The Oklahoma State NAACP will hold its 27th annual convention in Tulsa, Nov. 21 to 23, it was announced here today by Dr. H. W. Williamson of this city, president of the state group.

Slated to appear on the three-day program, in addition to Dr. Williamson, who will deliver the president's annual address, are Mrs. L. C. Bates of Little Rock, Ark., president of the Arkansas State NAACP and a key figure in the school controversy at Little Rock, whose arrest recently was ordered by city authorities; Gloster B. Current, the Association's director of branches; and U. Simpson Tate of Dallas, Tex., Southwest regional counsel for the NAACP.

Dr. Williamson noted that Oklahoma State NAACP was the first organization to have NAACP branches in the Association's Southwest region, which incorporates Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico and Texas.

Congressman Dawson, Others Get Awards From Fisk University

Washington, D. C.—Five past graduates of Fisk University (Nashville, Tenn.), were awarded citations of merit here at the National Housing Center in conjunction with the Eastern Regional Conference of the Fisk Alumni Association which began their two day conference at the Shoreham Hotel.

The honored five were: Dr. Sadie Daniel St. Clair, Representative William L. Rawson, James A. Cobb, a show which needed something else to put it together.

SAMMY DAVIS

Sammy Davis, Jr. into the Sands at Las Vegas with the Copa Girls. . . . Geoffrey Holder holding down at the Music Hall, Radio City, where he's become a byword. . . . Erroll Garner at the Blue Note in Chicago. . . . and Pearl Bailey and the Ink Spots at the Flamingo in Vegas. . . . Also in Vegas is Eartha Kitt and Sammy Davis, Jr. caught her show.

ELLA FITZGERALD

No matter what the weather, Ella Fitzgerald always brings 'em in. . . . and she does it again for the Mocambo in Hollywood where every big name in motion pictures turned out to marvel at the great Ella. . . . Singing all the old favorites, particularly "Hard Hearted Hanna," Ella hurls the audience into a sort of semi-trance and they only snap out of it when she decends the stage. . . . The first class spot demands, first class entertainment and here again, Ella scores as tops. . . .

"JAMAICA"

Now that all those wonderful rave notices are in and we've settled down to the fact that Lena Horne and "Jamaica" will be among us for more than a year—we'd like to say that this is more than a success story for Lena. . . . It's a personal triumph for the girl who wanted more than anything else to do a Broadway show. . . . Where else could such a talent explode but on the Broadway stage? . . . surely Lena would never have such a magnificent chance to show her wares in films. . . . And, as fate would have it, Lena's album, namely the one recorded right on stage of her Waldorf date, have boomed. . . . It's just wonderful to know—the day after the opening of "Jamaica", every critic hailed and heralded a new Broadway star. . . . In these days of struggle for integration in many fields, such knowledge is most inspirational. . . .

BILLY ECKSTINE

Billy Eckstine is making such a terrific comeback with new material, there is nothing to stop him now from soaring to the top again. . . .

Colds

If you have a cold, don't go off half cocked with home remedies. This advice comes from your Des Moines-Polk County Departments of Public Health. If the best minds in medicine don't know a sure cure for colds, it's unlikely your next-door neighbor does. Alcoholic drinks don't help. Aspirin and other medication may help you feel less miserable, but may also hide the warning signals of a more serious illness. How about calling an expert, your family doctor?

Willie Mays, Wife Forget Trouble Over House Buying

San Francisco, Calif.—The game's the thing; and one cannot think with too many outside problems, feels Willie Mays, center fielder for the Giants, who took time out to speak out as a Negro in a short fracas over whether he would get a home here. After signing the papers and putting a $500 retainer on a $37,500 three-bedroom house, Willie Mays stated he isn't worried.

"I'm sure the neighbors won't make any trouble. They'll calm down now that it's over."

Changed Mind

After the Mayor of Frisco and other embarrassed city officials intervened on Mays' behalf, Walter Gnesdloff, owner of the house, suddenly changed his mind. He had previously stated he was under "tremendous pressure from the neighborhood not to sell to Negroes." Gnesdloff, in changing his mind, phoned Mays saying "I want to tell you my decision personally. I am very happy to have you buy my home. The majority of the people of San Francisco want it that way and I want it, too." In an effort to block Mays from moving into the neighborhood, two white property owners offered to buy the house for cash.

Move In—Jan.

Willie said "Man, I'm glad this is over. I sure didn't want any trouble in the first place; all I wanted was a nice house in this town where I'll be playing ball." Willie and wife move into the new house in January after spending Thanksgiving and Christmas in New York.

Resolve Tension After Election of Negro Girl As Football Queen

Toledo, Ohio.—Tension and "battling" rumors that grew out of the election of a Negro football queen at Scott High School dissolved in an assembly of 700 junior and senior students in which they apologized to each other for the things they had said.

Janet Quinn, 17, the elected queen, said she was "taken back at first, then mad" when she learned of the hanging of her in effigy.

Scott's enrollment of 1,650 is about half Negro and half white, with the senior class about 60 per cent Negro. A Negro student was elected as council president last year.

Why It Is Necessary to Reprice Some Telephone Services

Increasing costs of furnishing telephone service make it necessary to reprice some of the services.

Since the present level of rates for local services was established in Iowa in 1951, the costs of doing business have increased greatly. We no longer are able to absorb the rising costs although every reasonable effort has been made to offset them.

All Costs Are Up

In common with other businesses, we have experienced higher costs of construction and operation, including wages, while taxes continue at a high level. Wage costs, which make up about two-thirds of the cost of providing service, have increased more than 30 per cent in the past six years due to wage increases. Higher costs have increased our average investment per telephone from $209 in 1951 to $275 today. Considering only the past six years, the investment increase amounts to $502 per telephone added.

Good Service Depends On Adequate Rates

Good telephone service—which plays a big part in the progress of the community—can continue to improve and grow only when rates for the service are adequate. Only a few cents a day per telephone will assure good service in the future, and the telephone will continue to be one of your best bargains. The new rates become effective with bills dated after November 21.

If you have any questions about this repricing—details of which are covered in a letter to all our customers—please call our business office.

Columbia U. Frat Gives Up on Bias Clause After 10 Yrs.

New York City.—After more than 10 years of trying to remove a bias clause in the fraternity constitution, the Columbia University chapter of the Theta Tau has withdrawn from the professional engineering society.

The chapter will now "organize as a local professional fraternity," stated John Adams, regent of the local chapter. Members of Theta Chapter believe that membership in a professional fraternity should be determined solely by the merit of the individual. Theta, therefore, voted to completely sever its membership in and affiliation with the national group.

Mr. Adams explained that under university policy the chapter has until 1964 to prohibit segregation in its membership. However, the members felt that with the present integration situation, they didn't wait to wait until 1964 for such progress. They cited it as "morally intolerable."

SILVERWARE

When polishing silver, experts advise rubbing it up and down in long horizontal strokes rather than in circles.

After polishing, always wash silver with hot soap or detergent suds and rinses, and dry with a soft towel.

CRANBERRY DIXIE

To give your meals holiday flavor throughout the year, try adding color and flavor with this tempting sauce. Your guests will forever appreciate the festivity and glamour this dish will bring to the occasion. Your family will thrill to the flavorful goodness of fresh cranberries blended with a popular beverage food (Dr. Pepper).

1 1/2 cups sugar
2 bottles Dr. Pepper

Wash and pick over cranberries, then combine in 1 large kettle with sugar and Dr. Pepper. Cook over moderate heat until all the berries have popped.

To make Dixie Cranberry Jelly from this same recipe, just use the same process, doubling the amount of sugar and putting the sauce through a sieve before allowing to set.

Prepare Your Own Easy "Master Mix" for Wide Variety of Bakery Goods, Budget Economy

Iowa City, Iowa—Food classes at the State University of Iowa have been experimenting with a "Master Mix" which can be used in making biscuits, waffles, muffins, cakes, cookies and numerous other bakery goods, developed under the direction of Gertrude Sunderlin, now an Iowa City resident, while she was a professor of foods and nutrition at Purdue University. It's easy to prepare and once it's made, you can produce a wide variety of bakery goods simply and quickly. You'll also save money by making your own mix.

Here are the ingredients you'll need to produce about 13 cups of Master Mix:

1/3 cup baking powder
9 cups sifted all-purpose flour or 10 cups sifted cake flour

1 tablespoon salt
1 teaspoon cream of tartar
1/4 cup sugar

2 cups shortening — if lard is used, decrease to 1 2/3 cups

Stir the other dry ingredients into the flour and sift together three times into large mixing bowl or onto large square of plain paper. Cut in shortening until mix is consistency of corn meal.

If you use a shortening which doesn't need refrigeration, the mix can be stored in a covered container at room temperature and will keep six weeks or more. If all-purpose flour is used, the mix is best for quick breads such as biscuits, waffles, pancakes and muffins. Cake flour produces lighter and finer cakes. When measuring the Master Mix, pile lightly in cup and level off with spatula.

Donut Muffins

Dr. Sunderlin is the author of a handy, spiral-bound, booklet which gives more than 100 variations of recipes using the Master Mix. One of the favorites of the SUI-coeds is one for donut muffins. To make 18 small muffins you'll need:

2 cups Master Mix, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1/3 cup milk and 1 egg. Stir

10 Ministers Sue to Unseat National Baptist President

Washington, D. C.—The United States Attorney for the District of Columbia today authorized a suit in the name of the United States by a group of 10 ministers, challenging the right of Reverend Joseph H. Jackson of Chicago to hold office as President of the National Baptist Convention of America, made up of 25,000 Negro churches in the United States and its territories, with 4,500,000 members.

"Quo Warranto"

The action came in a petition to the U. S. District Court for the District of Columbia. The petition stated, in part, that Rev. Jackson has "usurped, intruded into, or unlawfully holds or exercises" his office. Having been chartered in the District of Columbia, the Baptist Convention and its affairs come under Federal jurisdiction.

The petitioners brought the seldom used action of "Quo Warranto" in which the United States may authorize the suit to be brought in the name of the Government. The petition has been authorized U. S. Attorney for the District of Columbia.

Petitioners

The petitioners include the following ministers: William Holmes Borders of Wheat Street Baptist Church, Atlanta; T. M. Chambers of Zion Hill Baptist Church, Los Angeles; J. F. Hayes, all of Washington. A. T. Walden of Atlanta, Georgia, is associate counsel. According to Mr. Nabrit, chief counsel for the protestants, the petitioners represent some 1160 church with an estimated 43,000 members.

5th Term

Rev. Jackson, who is pastor of Chicago's Olivet Baptist Church is currently serving his fifth consecutive term as president of the 4,500,000 member Convention. It was his election to a fifth term at the group's annual meeting in Louisville last September that brought about the petition.

The protesting ministers are asking the court to rule that Rev. Jackson holds his position unlawfully and that he be "ousted and excluded therefrom" forthwith.

looked forward to his Thanksgiving dinner. He raises chickens, ducks, rabbits and hogs, also.

Ducks are generally popular with small families—but now with the quacking-up of turkeys, the public can buy one turkey drumstick or a dozen of them; or all backs or breasts in many of the poultry places.

Stuffings in some fowls this year will be made of mashed potatoes with chopped onions and thyme. Housewives are finding that putting the potatoes in the fowl, cuts down some calories. The bread dressing is not needed.

Something different in stuffing for the goose is kraut. After filling the goose with kraut, it is roasted, and served on a bed of boiled kraut.

After talking with Mrs. W. M. Blount, a Kansan who has visited in Des Moines on several occasions but was unable to come for the recent organizations of the Links' chapter, she revealed a tasty salad that she will serve for her Thanksgiving dinner.

Instead of serving plain cranberry sauce, Mrs. Blount shops pecans or English Walnuts and with orange peel, adds them to the sauce and has a very pretty cranberry salad which she serves on lettuce leaf.

Pre-School Age Acquaintance with Books in Home Helps Child to Read Earlier in Classrooms

Written by May P. Youtz, SUI Associate Professor

CHILDREN AND BOOKS

Children's Book Week is November 17-23. Years ago Thomas Carlyle said: "All that mankind has done, thought, gained, or been: it is lying as in magic preservation in the pages of books."

Children get their first knowledge and keen enjoyment of books at home. Their love and delight in beauty comes from good literature; joy in rhythm and the alliterative sequence in, for instance, "The House That Jack Built" or "The Old Woman and the Pig" can come to the very young child. Such joy opens a new world to him.

Parents' Interest

Sometimes parents say, "My ten-year-old never reads." On questioning, it appears that the parents did not begin early to read to the child or to interest him in picture books and stories.

Folk tales that have been handed down by story tellers and that are so old that their origin is lost in the mists of time are avenues by which the child becomes identified with the human race.

The reading habit will have much to do with a child's success, while lack of it will limit the education he will acquire, not to mention the limiting of his enjoyment in "the magic preservation in the pages of books."

Libraries

The choice of books is difficult since there are so many. Both the children's section and the adults' section of libraries will give parents their greatest help.

If you do not have a library in your town, consult the library in a larger town in your county—many libraries have services for the county.

TYPEWRITER

A convenient location for your portable typewriter is near your automatic washing machine. Since machine laundry doesn't require attention once it's started, washing time can be used to type shopping lists, pay bills, and catch up on correspondence.

Sp. 3 c. Ray Gore Returns from Army Duty in Germany

Sp. 3 c. Ray Gore, 1426 Maryland Avenue, a former employee of the Bystander, arrived in Des Moines recently after serving nearly 2 1/2 years overseas in Germany with the 264th Field Artillery, 7th Army. Gore, who traveled in Italy, Switzerland, Holland, France, Austria and all over Germany during his overseas stay, says of Europe, "Life is slower paced, and the customs are different."

Picking up his knowledge of German in a three-month Army course Gore added, "The people are O.K. if you know their language."

"The peace time army is rough, and you're always ready for actual combat," he went on, "but there's just the slightest racial tension and that is caused by the soldiers."

A Des Moines Tech graduate in printing, he says he plans to switch civilian careers and enter the field of electronics by attending a radio and TV school here.

While at Tech, Gore was captain of cross-country team and a member of the track team, receiving letters in both.

COURTS ARE AVAILABLE FOR CITIZENS' PROTECTION

In 1954, the Texas and New Orleans Railroad ordered its working force cut by forty-five men as an economy measure. Four dismissed Negro employees complained that the company acting in cahoot with the Brotherhood of Railroad and Steamship Clerks, and Freight Handlers, Express and Station employees, only those jobs held by Negroes were abolished; many white men were hired to fill the jobs and that later some Negroes were rehired but without seniority.

Opposing these contentions in an action brought by those men the union locals said the Houston court lacked authority to act because Congress had given the National Railroad Adjustment Board jurisdiction over cases involving application of working agreements.

The lower court dismissed the case, on the ground it had no jurisdiction.

Not to be outdone, these men appealed to the United States Supreme Court. The case was reinstated.

Rejecting the union contentions, Justice Black said the Supreme Court in earlier decisions "has emphatically and repeatedly ruled that an exclusive bargaining agent under the railway act is obligated to represent all employees in the bargaining unit fairly and without discrimination because of race."

Further, Black said, the high tribunal has held that lower federal courts have power to protect employees "against such invidious discriminations."

This type of jockeying is done often by companies working in conjunction with unions who as bargaining agents for the employees in a plant are obligated to bargain for all employees.

These men are entitled to credit for refusing to take low when their rights are at stake. After all the courts are available for the protection of the right of all citizens. Nobody should fail to exercise their rights even at the expense of money and time.

GOOD LEADERSHIP GETS RESULTS

It is generally agreed that most people are inclined to do the right thing, but too often nobody takes the leadership for a cause and thus the voiceless minority moves in the play takes. A community often gets a bad name for just that reason.

This is well illustrated by the difficulty Willie Mays ran into in San Francisco, California when he attempted to buy a home. The New York Giants baseball team, of which Willie is a valuable player, has located there after a big war between those who wanted the team to stay in New York and those who wanted it to move to San Francisco. The latter won out.

And when Mays was turned down in an effort to buy a home, the good people just could not permit this to happen. They included the Mayor and other fine people—and they were in the majority. It is important they came to the front and saw that the decent thing was done. Mays was able to buy the house.

The action by the good people of San Francisco serves as an excellent example for other communities; don't let the undesirables run the community.

Negro College Fund Distributes $450,000 To Its 31 Members

New York.—The United Negro College Fund is distributing $450,000 to its 31 member colleges and universities today, according to W. J. Trent, Jr., Fund executive director. Today's allocation is the second distribution of money raised in the College Fund's 1957 appeal. It brings the total amount received this year by the participating colleges to $1,365,388. Final grants will be made after the official closing of the 1957 campaign Dec. 31.

10 Per Cent

"Since it was established in 1944, the College Fund has annually raised approximately 10 per cent of the combined operating budgets of its member institutions," Mr. Trent said. "The unrestricted nature of Fund grants has increased their usefulness tremendously. They may be used to meet any current need, from engaging a Ph.D. to repairing a boiler."

Scholarships

During the current year, UNCF allocations will be used principally to provide scholarship and work aid for exceptional students who could not otherwise continue their education.

SPORTS

BY ALLEN ASHBY

Is there anyone in Iowa who doesn't know that Ohio State beat Iowa Saturday and spoiled the Hawkeyes' perfect mark? Everyone has his version of why Iowa lost but our explanation is just that the Buckeyes got seventeen points to Iowa's thirteen.

The polls are saying Ohio State ranked sixth beats Iowa ranked fifth, so what happens, Ohio goes up to third and Iowa drops down to eighth. You figure it out.

Negroes

Three Negroes have made the first All-Western Team. Thomas of Ohio State, Clark of the Buckeyes and Pace of Michigan. Kaiser of Michigan state made the second team as well.

Listed among the unbeaten college teams of the year are Lincoln University of Jefferson City, Mo., and Tennessee A. & T. is right up there with the best of them. An idea of the caliber of football played in the major Negro schools may be gathered by watching the pro-teams that have boys that graduated from these schools. The boys are right with the best in the league.

Notre Dame

Hats are off to Notre Dame for their stunning win over Oklahoma. We have always argued that the Sooners are leaders of their conference because they have only two or three games a year. Would like to see them in the Big Ten or Southwest conference. They wouldn't be lost but they would lose their share of games.

Speaking of Negro signal callers. Southern California has hot one in Willie Green, rated the best on the Coast.

High Schools

There wasn't much to the East-Roosevelt game last week. The Lee townshippers could have done little worse if they had played the game as scheduled. But you can't win them all. Wait 'til next year. Don't know if East has any promising sophomores or not. They will need them. Books like Roosevelt and Tech will be tough for awhile.

Sports Magazine Poses Query: Will Jackie Robinson Make the Baseball Hall of Fame?

Will Jackie Robinson make the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown? Do his ten years with the Dodgers, in which he played in six World Series and six All-Star games, make him eligible? Or is he entitled to baseball immortality on the sole basis of being the pioneer, the trail-blazer for his race in organized baseball?

Poll

The current issue of Sports Magazine gives the results of a poll the magazine has taken of baseball people themselves. A cross-section inquiry was conducted ranging from umpires. The answers are unanimous in their final conclusions. Jackie Robinson belongs in the Hall of Fame.

Joe Garagiola, a National League catcher for nine seasons who now assists Harry Carey with the broadcasts of St. Louis games, told Sport: "I don't see how he can be kept out on his baseball talent alone. But he is also entitled to Hall of Fame selection because of the obstacles he had to overcome to become the star he eventually was."

Dodger V. P.

Buzzy Bavasi, vice president of the Dodgers who was firing angry broadsides at Jackie Robinson when he announced his retirement, makes no attempt to hide his admiration. "Robinson belongs in the Hall of Fame. He was one of the greatest of the post-war ballplayers because he could beat you in so many ways, by his hitting, his skill on the bases and his fielding."

Commissioner

players I have ever seen."

Frankie Frisch, himself a Hall of Famer and not known as an admirer of Robinson, says: "I thought Jackie always popped off a bit too much, but if popping off was going to bar guys from the Hall of Fame, I guess Cooperstown would be pretty empty. For ten years, Robinson was a pretty darn good ballplayer. When the time comes, he's entitled to a shot at the Hall of Fame."

HEALTH FOR ALL

URGES FLU SHOTS

The Iowa health department warned that flu cases may be more severe in a second outbreak expected in February or March.

The department urged anti-flu vaccinations now for Iowans who have not received them, and in January for those who have had one flu shot.

Pattern

"If the second outbreak follows previous patterns, flu cases will be more serious because of more severe complications, such as pneumonia and other infections," said Dr. Ralph Heeren, director of the preventable diseases division of the health department.

"Immunity from first flu shots probably will not last through the second expected outbreak," he explained.

Demand Off

Dr. Heeren said doctors report the demand for vaccine has fallen off and there is now plenty of flu vaccine available. He estimated that at least one of four Iowans has had flu, but he said the outbreak appears to be receding in every county.

All of the flu cases tested have been of the Asian variety.

Another Crown to Hammering Hank Aaron—National's Most Valuable Player of 1957

New York.—Hammering Hank Aaron, Milwaukee's World Series hero, has added another crown to his collection. The 23-year-old outfielder was voted the National League's Most Valuable Player of 1957 last Thursday. The National League's home run (44) and run-batted-in (132), Hank won the Baseball Writers Association award with a total of 239 points. He was named on every ballot and edged out such baseball greats as Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals by 9 points and one of his teammates, Red Schoendienst by 18 points.

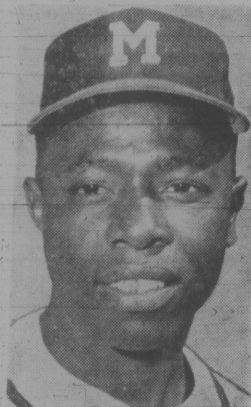

Year of Thrills

Aaron seemed surprised upon learning that he had won though he said he thought he had had a "pretty good year." He said that he just didn't think that anybody could beat out Stan The Man.

The ball-pounding centerfielder said "this was a year of big thrills for me . . . hitting that homerun that gave us the pennant against the Cardinals and having the Braves win the World Series. But I guess this award is the biggest thrill of all."

But an even bigger thrill is yet to come to Hank. His wife says they are expecting twins soon.

TEN LITTLE SOUTHERN STATES

Paraphrased with Apologies to an Unknown Bard

Ten little southern states,
All steeped in crime,
One quit lynching,
And then there were nine.

Chorus

One little, two little, three little,
four little,
Five little, southern states,
Six little, seven, eight little,
nine little.

Ten little southern states,
Nine little southern states,
Would not integrate,
One started mixing it's schools,

And then there were eight.
Eight little southern states,
Talking about going to heaven;
One blew up and went to hell,
And then there were seven.
Seven little southern states,
Heard about two sputniks;
One became frightened to death,
And then there were six.
Six little southern states,
Striving hard to survive,
One kicked-out the Ku Klux Klan,
And then there were five.
Five little southern states,
Fighting on the Senate floor;
One voted for a civil rights bill,
And then there were four.
Four little southern states,
Boasting about being free;
One got occupied with Federal troops,

And then there were three.
Three little southern states,
Into the Federal courts they flew;
One ran out when it spied the NAACP,
And then there were two.
Two little southern states,
Both now on the run,
One bought some guns to fight Uncle Sam,
And then there was one.
One little southern state,
Standing all alone,
A satellite dropped a missile,
And then there was none.

Title Bout to Machen? Will Jackson Retire?

San Francisco, Cal.—As a result of Eddie Machen's decisive beating of Tommy Hurricane Jackson last week it follows that Machen wants a crack at Floyd Patterson heavyweight crown and Hurricane should either rest a long time or retire.

The 195-pound Machen, 25, from Redding, Calif., has a talking point since his televised bout with Jackson last week goes into the record books as a 10-round T.K.O. (Jackson didn't answer the bell for the 11th. The same as Patterson scored over Hurricane last July.

Rest or Retire?

In contrast boxing fans and officials are calling for Jackson's retirement from the ring. Jackson's manager, Lippe Briedbart said that Jackson would have to take a long rest but the retirement part would be up to him.

Sid Flaherty, Machen's manager said: "Our next move is up to him."

nificant that the Commissioners concluded that there are no weaknesses in the police department and ignored reasonable recommendation of the NAACP for improvements. Since our major objective, undertaken as good citizens, was to help our police department become a model in a democratic society, we shall continue our efforts with vigor. We believe that eventually will come reforms which will make all citizens, white and colored, proud of the efficiency of our police department, of its protection of the civil rights of citizens, and of its role of making Washington a true symbol to the world of our avowed way of life. We believe President Eisenhower still wants removed in the Nation's Capitol every vestige of discrimination and segregation."

If Patterson wants to fight Eddie we're ready to talk business. If not maybe we'll go to Europe for some bouts."
