HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION HITS TESTING METHODS:

Tells D. M. - Eliminate Job Bias

N. C. Klan Threatens New Robeson C. Rally

Marion, S. C.—The North Carolina Klansmen are apparently planning to come back for another dose of Indian "buckshot." The Rev. James Cole, South Carolina preacher and self-styled leader of the Klan in his neighboring state, said Sunday that the Klan will hold another rally soon in Robeson County, and "this time there will be more Klansmen than Indians."

The Klan's last meeting in that county was broken up Jan. 17 by gunfire from more than 1,000 angry Lumbee Indians.

Glenn Gallagher, Bystander Poet, Honored at Solar

Glenn A. Gallagher, 202 Euclid Avenue, poet who has been writing for the Bystander for more than 10 years, was awarded honorary porter for 1956-57 at Solar Aircraft plant here in Des Moines. His name was permanently inscribed on a bronze plaque at the plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher also are sponsoring a 10 year-old girl Doris Gorman, at the Woodward State Hospital for mentally retarded children. They made a trip to Woodward Sunday to visit her.

Campanella Fractures Neck In Auto Crash; Paralyzed Brilliant Catcher Critical

Glen Cove, N. Y.—An ominous gloom hovers over the baseball future of the Los Angeles Dodger's brilliant catcher Roy Campanella as a result of a fractured neck suffered early Tuesday when his car skidded, overturned and crashed into a utility pole.

Campy is reported in critical condition. He is conscious but paralyzed from the shoulders down from a pinched nerve in his spinal cord. Doctors say Campanella missed death by inches. The spinal cord might have been severed.

Seven surgeons performed a four-hour and twenty minute laminectomy operation on Campanella which was a procedure to relieve pressure from the fracture on the spinal cord. The operation was termed a success. Paralysis prevails but doctors say complete recovery is expected. The duration of recovery is indefinite, and doctors say Campy might never play baseball again.

Campanella's auto accident occurred at 3:30 a.m. on a Glen Cove street not far from his home. He was pinned in the wreckage for half an hour before workers could free him. The crash made noise so great that a number of persons rushed from their homes in the vicinity to investigate. Among them was a physician, Dr. W. S. Gurnee, who gave Campy an injection and later said Campy felt no sensation from the needle.

Campanella was returning alone to his home here following a New York television appearance when the accident occurred.

Local NAACP Backs Rights Com. On City Job Bias

The Des Moines branch of the NAACP voted unanimously Tuesday evening to "concur with the action of the Des Moines Commission on Human Rights and Job Discrimination in its recommendations to the City Council for improving the procedures of the Civil Service Commission where application blanks and oral examinations are concerned."

Negro Homes

Immediately following the business session held at Willkie House, 900 17th street, Edward Harris, Foster Care Director, and Robert Bull, Public Relations director, of the Iowa Children's Home Society, outlined the functions and activities of the Children's Home Society which was organized 70 years ago as a non-profit, non-sectarian agency operating without regard to race, color, or creed for the adoption and foster care of Iowa children.

Cite Needs

Both speakers cited the urgent need for homes to place Negro children. SEE PAGE TWO

Expect Defeat to Ala. Proposal to Keep Negroes from Office

Montgomery, Ala.—A newly proposed segregation oath that would require all candidates for public office to support the doctrine of racial separation before they could run in the Democratic primary is expected not to succeed. It has been aimed to keep Negro candidates from the Democratic primaries in Alabama and was proposed by national committeeman, Charles W. McKay. It appeared destined for defeat at a meeting of party members.

Only 50 Negroes on City Payroll; Seven Policemen, No Firemen in 40 Years

In a letter to the city council signed by all nine members, the Des Moines Commission on Human Rights and Job Discrimination asked the city to eliminate its "unfair employment practices."

Specifically the commission pointed out methods of oral testing and securing information which the group interprets to be "unlawful and undesirable since they create suspicion."

NEWS In A Nutshell

Washington, D. C.—Bishop C. M. (Daddy) Grace emerged from the District Court victorious when the maintenance suit was dismissed on the grounds that Mrs. Louvenia Royster, who brought the suit against Bishop Grace, had failed to produce sufficient evidence to prove that the evangelist is the same man who married her in 1924 under the name of John H. Royster.

Atlanta, Ga.—Mrs. Lee Ingram and her two sons who have been imprisoned since 1949 for the self-defense slaying of a white tenant farmer, were denied parole for the third time in three years by the State Board of Pardons and Paroles in Georgia recently.

Columbus, Ohio.—Mrs. Betsy Hall, 121, believed to have been the oldest person in America, died last week at a local rest home.

Detroit, Mich.—Three prominent doctors and two nurses employed by physicians were convicted last week on charges of conspiracy to commit abortions. Their names are Dr. Edgar Keemer, 43, Dr. Gilbert Edwards, 50, Dr. Allison B. Henderson, 44, Mrs. Lalloretta Swanson, 35, and Mrs. Labrentia Hurley, 34.

Bessemer, Ala.—Two Negroes dropped an integration suit in Bessemer's Federal district court when the city council promised to build a $60,000 park equal to the white one for members of the Negro race.

Tells How Mixed Housing Projects Can Profit, Succeed

A pioneer in the development of interracial housing said here Friday that the unwritten law in northern cities restricting all new housing to white residents exists also in Des Moines.

Morris Milgram, 41, developer of two open-occupancy housing projects in Philadelphia, Penna., said as a result no "new housing is available to Negroes."

$16,000 Homes

In two speaking engagements at meetings of the Des Moines Commission on Human Rights and Job Discriminations, Milgram related his 10 year success story of his Concord Parks Homes and Greenbelt Knoll, Inc. He revealed that the homes range from $12,000 to $16,000 and there have been no racial incidents since the projects opened in August 1955.

Destroyed Myths

Milgram said his projects success has destroyed a lot of popular beliefs about mixed housing namely: That such projects do not hurt real estate values, disclosing that and discrimination and engender ill will toward the city.

50 Negro Employees

The results of such "practices" are that only "at least 50" Negroes are employed by the city, most of whom are in garbage collection and street cleaning, construction and maintenance work. No Negroes are among the 263 members employed by the fire department . . . and have not been for 35 to 40 years. In addition there are only 7 Negro policemen—three detectives and four patrolmen—among the 228 men and women on the police force.

Exams Methods

Civil Service claim that no Negro has ever been denied a job application, adding that only one Negro has applied for the job of fireman and his test score fell far below necessary qualification.

However, the commission pointed out that "personal" questions and demand for photographs reveal the race of most applicants or his nationality. Too, the commission said, it has received numerous complaints about examination methods, in which applicants charged they were not

Mrs. Georgine Morris Tells of NAACP Origin, History in Leon, Ia.

Mrs. Georgine Morris, 955-17th Street, was guest speaker at the dinner meeting of the annual Family Day held at the Methodist Church in Leon, Ia., Wednesday, Jan. 22.

Mrs. Morris related to her audience some of the origin, historical background and activities of the NAACP coinciding with current civil rights problems.

Prior to the dinner meeting, Mrs. Morris, who is an honorary life member of both the state and local NAACP organizations in Iowa, was taken on a tour of the town, where she was presented to the Mayor, newspaper editor and other business and professional persons in the community. Leon is one of the oldest towns in the state, and has no Negro residents.

resale of his houses had brought up to $1,000 above original costs.

Negroes and whites can live together in a friendly social atmosphere.

And interracial projects can be built at a profit by privately-financed builders.

Milgram said his projects are occupied by about 45 per cent Negro and 55 per cent whites.

Journalist-Author Rowan Speaks to Ft. Dodge Jaycees

By C. L. House

Carl T. Rowan, widely known Minneapolis Tribune newspaper reporter and author was the principal speaker at the Fort Dodge Jaycees' annual award dinner held at the Hotel Warden, Wednesday, Jan. 22.

Winner of three Sigma Delta Chi fraternity awards, journalistic honorary society, for outstanding reporting, Rowan spoke on the subject, "What Little Rock Means to You." Rowan struck sharply at the "cult of moderation" in the field of race relation and at the theory that you can't change conditions "overnight."

He charged that too many Americans are half-hearted about the fight to improve race relations. He quoted a prominent American in his closing remarks:

"No nation can prosper and endure unless it has the golden thread of exact and universal justice."

Rowan, 32, has had a distinguished career as a journalist and author since joining the Minneapolis daily shortly after service in World War II.

BY C. L. HOOSE

Tommy Seals, 2 1/2 year-old-son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Seals, was found dead in his bed at the Seals Home, 824 9th Avenue S. W., Wednesday, Jan. 22 during the afternoon. An autopsy was performed to determine the cause of the child's death according to Dr. Paul L. Stitt, deputy Webster County coroner.

Reports disclosed that Tommy had taken nearly a full bottle of cough syrup. Dr. Stitt said the medicant contained a narcotic and that half a teaspoonful is considered a maximum dosage for a child of Tommy's age. The empty bottle was found near his body. He apparently drank the syrup without his parent's knowledge. Tommy had been suffering from a cold. A fire department rescuer squad was unable to revive the boy.

Tommy is survived by his parents and several brothers and sisters. He was born in Fort Dodge April 23, 1955.

Funeral Rites were held Saturday in the chapel of the Lauffersweller funeral home with the Rev. LeRoy Patterson, associate pastor of Copin Chapel AME Church, officiating.

Ideal Snack

Prune Oat Bread and Cottage Cheese

"You never outgrow your need for cereal and milk." This is the theme of the Fourth Annual Spring Cereal and Milk Festival sponsored jointly by the Cereal Institute and the American Dairy Association to promote the food value of cereal and milk.

Is the cereal and milk serving a nutritional bargain? Yes, an average serving of cereal and milk costs less than five cents. The cereal and milk serving provides top-quality protein, quickly available food energy, essential B-complex vitamins, and important minerals.

A bowl of cereal and milk need not be limited to breakfast. A snack, Prune Oat Bread with cottage cheese is another way to include the nutritious goodness of cereal and milk in the daily diet.

Prune Oat Bread

2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 1/2 cups coarsely ground
1/2 cup sugar
1 1/4 cups buttermilk or sour milk
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
2 tablespoons melted fat
1 teaspoon soda
1 cup dried, drained cooked prunes
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup chopped nuts

Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder, soda, and salt. Add ready-to-eat oat cereal and mix thoroughly. Combine buttermilk with slightly cooled fat. (To make sweet milk sour, add 1 tablespoon of vinegar to 1 1/4 cups of sweet milk.) Add to flour mixture ingredients. (Batter should be lumpy.) Put into well-greased loaf pan, 9 x 5 x 3 inches. Place extra halves of prunes and whole nut meats on top. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 1 hour, or until done. Turn out on rack to cool. Yield: 1 loaf.

*Three cups of ready-to-eat oat cereal (about) makes 1 1/2 cups of coarsely ground cereal. If grinder does not have a coarse plate, crush cereal with bottom of metal measuring cup. Do not use a rolling pin—the crumbs obtained are too fine.

Congressman Diggs Questions Post Office Closing in Negro Town

Washington, D. C.,—Congressman Charles C. Diggs, Jr. (D-Mich.) asked Postmaster General Summerfield today for an immediate investigation of the scheduled closing of the Post Office branch serving all-Negro community of Magazine, Alabama. The text of his telegram read:

Has been brought to my attention that Post Office at Magazine, Alabama scheduled to be closed February 1st. Since last white family including the Postmistress has recently moved out of Magazine making it now an all-Negro community, suspect that decision to close has racial implications. Respectfully urge immediate investigation and report of your findings and suspension of scheduled closing until matter is cleared.

asked pertinent questions or given a chance to outline their qualifications."

High Scores

"In some cases, candidates have ranked very high on the written examinations, yet their names have not appeared on the certification list," the commission said.

The commission pointed out that oral examinations, even for technical and professional positions, are administered "solely and exclusively" by the three civil service commissioners, and not by specially trained and professional men as is the practice in other cities the size of Des Moines.

Recommendations

To combat these "unfair practices" the commission recommended in the letter which was written earlier this month:

That the use of photographs on job application forms be eliminated.

That instead of questions on an applicant's plate of birth and whether he was foreign born, a prospective employee merely be asked whether he is a United States citizen.

That the civil service commission stop asking applicants whether they claimed exemption from military service because they were conscientious objectors.

Special Board

That the civil service commission have oral interviews conducted by a special board made up of trained personnel men and experienced members of the skill, trade or profession involved in the test.

Standard Exam

That oral examinations be standardized and given a specific weight in relation to other parts of the total examination and that "all applicants be graded on the same factors are in the written and performance tests."

Members who signed the letter were Chairman Sam S. Turk, Joseph LaCava, Harold A. Goldman, Edith Webber, Luther Glanton, Jr., Carol S. Fox, Mose Waldinger A. L. Sarccone and James T. Caffrey.

Howard U Embarks on Last Leg of Games; Boasts 6-5 Record

Washington, D. C. — Howard University embarks on the last leg of its 1957-58 basketball schedule Wednesday (Feb. 5) when it meets the Massachusetts Institute of Technology at Capital Arena. Game time is 8:30 p.m.

The game with M.I.T. will be the first of six contests remaining on this year's Howard schedule. The Bisons meet Virginia State, the first of four remaining Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association opponents, at Capital Friday night, and close out their conference slate in games with Delaware State, Morgan State and Hampton next week.

Although they boast an 11-6 record on the season, Coach Tom Hart's boys are only 6-5 in C.I.A.A. play. With four conference games remaining, Hart figures his team will have to win three to qualify for a berth in the conference tournament at Durham, N. C. later this month. Only eight of the league's 18 teams are eligible for tournament competition.

Infielder Charlie Neal Gets 3rd Dodger Pact

Los Angeles, Calif. — Twenty-six-year-old Texas born Charlie Neal has signed his 1958 contract with the Los Angeles Dodgers, and is among the few Dodgers regulars who earned pay increases by their improved play during the 1957 season.

St. Paul AME Sunday School Observes Third Annual "Homecoming" with Demonstrations, Costumed Presentations, Pantomimed Skits

The St. Paul AME Sunday School observed its 3rd annual "Homecoming" Sunday, Jan. 26 at 5:30 p. m., following a potluck supper held in the church's basement.

The unique program was in the form of brief demonstrations of class activities, and pantomimed skits showing some of the school projects, and opened with a worship service conducted by the superintendent, Mrs. Jeannie Morris.

son, Neal moves into his third season as a Dodger next spring but he was used sparingly in his rookie year of 1956.

Second Base?

Infielder Neal probably will be shifted back to second base duties in 1958 with Altadena's Bob Lillis given a chance at shortstop when spring training gets underway at Vero Beach Florida.

Power Hitter

Last year when injuries sidelined several Dodger infielders including Captain Pee Wee Reese, Neal moved over to short. But Charlie's lightning-fast pivot on the double play was missed at second and Skipper Walt Alston hopes to return him to his old post.

Neal hit .270 as a regular last year and Alston looks for him to become one of the power hitters in the league. His stolen base average of .733 (11 steals in 15 attempts) was the best in the league.

Mrs. Morris gave a brief explanation of the materials used, and the goals of the Sunday School before presenting the teachers who outlined the specific work and presented their classes in the demonstrations.

Characters "stepped from the pages of the Bible" as costumed pupils of the 8th grade gave short stories of them. The "Good Samaritan" was enacted by the 9th grade and the young people's class held a panel.

As Mrs. Morris told the missionary studies and projects, colorfully costumed pupils assisted by Miss Frances Scales, pantomimed the events. Other classes were presented typical class scenes. Teaching materials and handiwork of the pupils were on display.

Greetings and contributions were received from former pastors and pupils.

Bomb was Firecracker Bundle in Little Rock

Little Rock, Ark. — Still beset by minor annoyances, School Superintendent Virgil Blossom of the now famous Central High School, found that the "bomb" planted in the school was only six 1 1/2 inch firecrackers tied in a bundle.

The "bomb" was located in an unused locker and beside it was a cigaret which had been lighted but had gone out. The firecrackers were turned over to the FBI agents who had been investigating the finding of dynamite in another locker earlier in the week.

Reinstated to the school was David Sontage, a 17 year old white student who had been suspended for spilling soup on one of the school's nine Negro students.

Claims Republican Congress Will Insure Continued Gain In Civil Rights Legislation

Washington, D. C. — Republican National Committee Chairman Meade Alcorn Jan. 17 called for the election of a Republican Congress in November to insure continued progress in civil rights legislation.

His remarks came in an address to the Capital Press Club, an organization of Negro newsmen working in the Nation's Capital. On hand for the occasion were more than 100 newsmen and guests, including some 20 publishers of Negro papers from throughout the country.

Civil Rights
Declaring that there would have been no civil rights legislation in 1957 had it not been for the Republicans, Mr. Alcorn urged the group to help elect a Congress which would work with the President. He said that it is not possible to push stronger legislation through the present Democrat-controlled Congress.

Replacement

"Negroes in the North must help replace incumbent Democrat Senators and Congressmen with Republicans . . . "A vote for any Democrat candidate for either the Senate or the House is a vote to continue control of most of the powerful Committees of Congress in the hands of anti-civil rights members from the South. Every individual citizen should be aware of the full implications of the decision he registers at the polling place," he added.

Rights Progress

Mr. Alcorn also took the Democrats to task for what he called their claims to responsibility for all progress in the field of human rights. "There has been more solid progress in the field of civil rights during the five years of the Eisenhower Administration than there was in all of the intervening years between the Emancipation Proclamation of 1863 and 1953," he said.

"Shameful" Record

The Committee chairman called the civil rights record of the Democrat party "shameful," declaring that during the "20 golden years of Roosevelt and Truman 33 test votes on anti-discrimination, anti-poll tax and anti-lynching bills came before the House and Senate and that none were enacted into legislation. He said the record shows that 81 per cent of the Republicans in Congress voted for these bills; while 59 per cent of the Democrats voted against them.

Cold Cash
New York City, (CNS) — HAVE YOU $500 TO SPARE? ... We ran across a girl who's a very talented singer—sophisticated style—and who just finished almost two years of playing small spots in Canada ... She's in New York to round up contacts which she hopes will shape her future into a bright one—and so far—she's run up against the first and foremost obstacle: cash ... Seems New York just isn't the place anymore where a talented girl can get a break ... where a scout pops from nowhere and discovers her (as in the movies) ... New York has become quite hard to its aspiring youngsters and the agent is just a little too much on cash ...

Arrangements

Her first idea was to make a list of the top agents in the business (and the best are here) and send in her resume complete with photos and a list of assets ... This done, she next was able to make an appointment with one of the really top guys—one who recommends (and is usually accepted) talent to television shows like Ed Sullivan, Jack Parr and others ... The agent auditioned her—and went wild ... Next step was business: he told her she could well command anywhere from $500 a week up soon as she had the necessary material ... and that meant new arrangements ... And the price of arrangements, he said, would be $1,500 ... When our singer frowned at this figure, he agreed to lower it to $500.

Frustration

But this young kid, just 22, and with 2 years playing small cafes with small salary—her problem was to find $500 ... From where? Her family—her friends? ... Her problem is like hundreds of others here in New York—long on talent and short on cash ... Many become so frustrated with being so close to success, yet not within its reach, they can't continually take bitter disappointments and eventually fold up and go home ... Many are too proud and stick it out, only to become old and embittered with not

ROSS

Comes now the month of February—the time for remembering the birthdays of many great Americans—and the observances of Brotherhood Month, and Week, Race Relations Sunday, and Negro History Week.

Thinking of noted Negroes in American history, I wrote to Mrs. Roy A. Todd, 1051-Seventeenth Street, to learn if she had found any of the late Dr. George Washington Carver's letters in the personal possessions of her late mother. The famed scientist had, at one time, lived at her mother's home during his school days at Simpson College in Indianola, Ia.

Mrs. Todd informed us that last spring a Mr. Robert Fuller, sent out by the government, was in Des Moines and Ames for about two weeks looking up everything he could about G. W. Carver. He contacted her, obtained some material, made a photostatic copy of the letters and pictures of her mother and grandmother.

The material, she said, was for the Dr. G. W. Carver National Monument or memorial in Diamond, Mo.

About other activities, Mrs. Todd added:

"We are planning on going to the Chicago Ballet Feb. 3, at KRNT Theater. I love ballet.

"Suppose you heard about the game dinner the Roosevelt Club had out to the airport shelter house the first week in January. Had loads of food.

"I'm still reading a lot. Have Frank Yerby's new book, 'Fair Oaks'. He is one of my favorite authors, you know. 'Peyton Place' and 'Sayonara' have been the theaters here for over three weeks. I did not see them but have read both books," Mrs. Todd said, adding that she "missed seeing you on the bus."

Born during slavery days, the world renowned scientist, Dr. Car-having met success ... Here in New York, the acting schools, which charge $500 to $600 a semester—are full of youngsters struggling to stay here—to hold on to their careers ... At the end of the season, many drop out and just as many new ones come in ...

Investment

In a case like this—where a $500 investment could, perhaps, bring in a $5,000 return in a matter of months—as the salary of showbusiness people is high when you know the right ones—One shot on Sullivan's show or Tonight's TV show or any of the smaller ones could make a nobody a bright newcomer overnight ... It's been proven time and time again ... But, in the meantime, look at the hundreds of GOOD talent we lose—those who haven't the initial fee ...

Stiff Competition

With single arrangements costing from $125 each—and a featured performer needing at least 25 minutes' worth, this is a business for investors like backing a Broadway show ... For the competition is so stiff these days, even a seasoned performer like Louis Jordan spent a small fortune on new arrangements for his group, which incidentally recently did the Sullivan Show ...

Not All Glory

You people who think showbusiness is all glory—well, this is just one small phase of it ... Really the beginning you might say—for without $500, and up these days—there just isn't any career for you here ...

Another great American, whose birthday is celebrated in February is Frederick Douglass, who believed that he was born the early part of February. He was a noted orator, writer and traveler in the interest of the freedom of Negro slaves.

An interesting note arrived during the weekend from a former Iowan, Miss Esther Saunders, who is a resident now of Brooklyn, N. Y. ... After leaving Des Moines where she was graduated from East High School, Miss Saunders studied dancing, worked at a bank in New York City, then joined the Women's Army Corps. Last winter, for a while, she was stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Now she comments: "Military life was wonderful, but civilian life is nice, too."

She added: "I'm a little tired of planning on marriage, but I'm doing it once again." If you want to know more about Esther's plans, write her: C/O YWCA, Room 959, 30 Third Avenue, Brooklyn, 17, N. Y.

A note about Iowa's weather was mentioned in a letter from Mrs. Beatrice Bailey, 825 Tenth Street, who said: "We had a big snow here last Sunday."

"Mrs. Ruby Cooper and I went to Perry, Ia., with Rev. E. Peavy to worship at both churches ... Mrs. Ida Green called me up early Sunday, and told me to stay home. I told her I was going to Perry, Ia., in Jesus' name and I knew everything would be all right. I mean the highway was really slippery. The car began to slide; and, of course, our minds were on God, so nothing happened. Came back home about five o'clock after a spiritual time there."

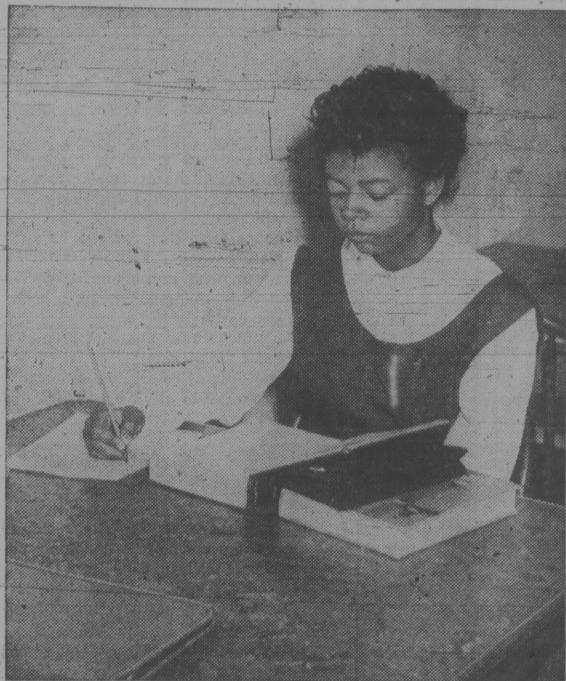

Mrs. Bailey added that the Rev. J. H. Ross who had a stroke on Jan. 12, is in Dallas County Hospital—feeling better.

Mattiwilda Dobbs, New Met Star to Sing At Bennett College

Greensboro, N. C. — Mattiwilda Dobbs, one of the most widely-hailed new singers of the past two decades, is scheduled to make a concert appearance at Bennett College on Feb. 4 at 8 p.m.

The Atlanta-born coloratura soprano, who in Nov., 1956, made her widely-hailed debut at the Metropolitan Opera, has starred both in Milan's La Scala and London's Royal Opera, Covent Garden, as well as at the Edinburgh, Glyndebourne and Holland Festivals.

Atlanta Born

The fifth of six daughters of an Atlanta railway mail clerk, Miss Dobbs, in her career, was helped by scholarships from Marian Anderson and John Hay Whitney. Her winning of First Prize at the 1951 International Music Competition in Geneva, Switzerland, first brought her to the world's attention.

Critics' Acclaims

The soprano's European triumphs and her recordings for Angel and other companies had already established her reputation in the U. S. when she returned to her native land in 1954. Reporting on her first New York appearance, critic Olin Downes of The New York Times wrote, "Miss Dobbs excited and astonished us!" And Louis Biancolli, in the World-Telegram and Sun, said, "A sensational new talent, a singing artist who is a credit to the country who bore her!"

TABLE TRICKS: Tea for the Bride-To-Be

Pot holders come to the tea table without blushing when the occasion is an informal tea and shower for the bride-to-be. Willing hands will make short work of finishing the pot holders, when you place them on the table, along with needles and thread, tape or rickrack edgings that will be sewn on while the guests chatter.

An informal tea table can be just as pretty as a formal one," according to Catherine Gray, Fosteria Glass consultant on table settings. "And of course, every woman appreciates the ease with which such a table can be prepared."

Tall tapers on the tea table reflect the glow from a polished table top and prettily etched glassware. A large oval cut from pastel-colored linen (or a lace doily) is the only cloth that is used on the table—a different and effective touch.

To make the floral arrangement, place roses, an assortment of broad green leaves, and tall white tapers in a glass garden set. This usable piece consists of a low bowl with removable flower block and individual candle holders which are also removable. You'll bring the bowl to your table often, to serve cookies, cake, salad, canapés or berries.

"Modern Child Rearing" Does Not Mean Offspring to Have Own Way All The Time for Happy Adjustments

UNDERSTANDING IOWA CHILDREN

SPONSORED BY THE IOWA CHILD WELFARE RESEARCH STATION

Written by May P. Youtz, SUI Associate Professor

DRAWING THE LINE

"Well, if that's modern child rearing, I don't want any of it!" Mrs. Adams was talking to her husband after a two-hour visit from their friends, the Bradburgs. "Honestly, the way they let those children interrupt, show off, and generally raise hell—well, I couldn't stand it. That's not my idea of pleasure for anybody."

Of course, this kind of evening isn't pleasant for anyone. But Mrs. Adams' friends had apparently gotten the idea that "modern child rearing" meant letting the child have his own way all the time.

A PROGRAM WELL WORTH SUPPORT

The Des Moines Commission on Human Rights and Job Discrimination has attacked a problem right in its back yard and which history shows has been one of the most flagrant violators of interracial employment; namely, the city of Des Moines.

Practically all city jobs are under civil service requiring written and oral examinations. And since there has been a civil service commission, not one Negro has ever passed the examination for the fire department, and the police department has been able to maintain a strict quota of Negroes. None has ever passed a promotion examination even though there have been and are now men on the force who have ample training to do so.

In very few offices are to be found any Negroes while the garbage and street repair and cleaning departments have hired many in the past and still retain several on the payroll.

In the post office and other offices where the federal civil service commission gives the entrance and promotional examinations, are to be found Negro employees in goodly numbers.

These things did not just happen. Fair reasoning will produce the conclusion that somehow, the system of selecting city employees has enabled somebody or some bodies to maneuver the examination to fit their idea of what should be done.

Of course, when the commission's proposals for change are presented to the council, there will be protests from those in authority that everything is open and above board. But they are not. It will need the help and backing of those who can back their efforts either by examples or mere civic interest in securing from the city what it is asking business men to do.

This shortcoming in the Des Moines city government must not be allowed to go on. It adopted the council-city manager form of government in an effort to clean up the apparent misgovernment which has gone on for years. Here is a problem which the manager and council should tackle and clean up. The record here is most unsatisfactory.

WOMEN PRAISE THE WRONG PERSON

It is sometimes difficult to reason why people do things especially when they are so inconsistent with what they supposedly stand for.

The New England Society of Women has voted a commendation to Senator Eastland of Mississippi for his faithful efforts to uphold constitutional government. This was a distinct honor given to one who least deserves it.

It is generally known that Senator Eastland has done everything within his power to deny the Negro his constitutional rights. And in view of America's efforts to demonstrate to the world its belief in democracy and orderly government, to honor one who has done everything possible to negative it makes other people suspicious.

The people of New England have done a tremendous job of education over the years and support of human rights and for its women to honor one so unworthy of the honor is ridiculous to the highest degree.

The publicity about America's effort to launch a missile should be stopped until one has actually been launched.

A CORRECTION

Last week, the Bystander published an editorial stating that the entire night maintenance crew has been discharged by the Polk County Board of Supervisors because of misconduct of one of its members and that a private firm, which paid less wages than Polk County, had been hired to do the work.

Since that time, the Bystander has learned that only the crew member guilty of misconduct had been fired and that no private firm has been hired to do their work.

The Bystander is glad to make this correction.

Moore Has Easy Time With Brazilian Foe; Chuck Speiser Retires

Rio De Janeiro — Money-hungry light-heavyweight champion, Archie Moore, easily defeated Brazilian champion, Luis Ignacio, in a ten-round non-title bout earlier this month.

Moore weighed in at a heavy 190 and one-half and pounded the Brazilian almost at will. Archie had him bleeding from the fifth to the final round, Ignacio weighed in at 178 and three-fourth pounds. Moore received at least a $10,000 guarantee for his night's work.

Opponent Retires

But on his return home sadder news greeted the champion. Moore learned that Chuck Speiser, his next opponent, had abruptly retired from the ring. Moore started court action demanding $11,000 in damages because of Speiser's failure to go through with a scheduled championship bout.

Fall Signing

Speiser and Moore signed last fall for a title bout, but the fight has never gone past the talking stage, chiefly because of the failure of Chuck's supporters in Detroit to sell the bout to national television.

No Backers

A disgusted and disgruntled Speiser, stymied in his bid to line up adequate financial backing for the bout with Moore announced his retirement from the ring. Moore seems oblivious to his opponents' dilemma for aside from his suing him he is gayly going his way seeking the lime light. Moore was recently made an honorary member of the Varsity "F" in a presentation made by President George W. Gore, Jr., of Florida A & M University.

SPORTS

BY ALLEN ASHBY

The pennant hopes of the Brooklyn Dodgers will suffer a severe jolt if the baseball career of Catcher Roy Campanella is really finished. The big guy was the spark of the team and particularly so after Jackie Robinson left. Baseball will suffer a hard blow, for the hard fighting Dodger receiver was liked and respected by everyone in both major leagues. We really hope he gets over it, but don't see how he can.

Coaching

Just about everyone we can think of has gained extra publicity by lambasting Iowa State Coach Jim Myers. Coaches at best don't have it too easy. They may get a five or ten year contract. Then three or a couple of good years and they are the best and the greatest. Then follows a couple of lean years and everyone from the president of the alumni association to the college freshman want his scalp. About the middle of the third bad season he is paid off and told to go elsewhere.

"The coach is no good." He is the same coach who was all right before the bad times set in. So we don't know just what to say about a coach who jumps his contract. Maybe he was justified. Until the NCCA comes up with a better solution of the problem for all there will be two widely different ideas on the subject.

High Schools

The latest proposals to hold high school contests in the afternoons to avoid trouble seem to be gaining steam. Those who talk about it forget a thing or two. We used to go to schools when all the games

Hamptonians Rally After Losing 4 Games

Hampton, Va.—Working to overcome a burdensome series of defeats, four out of five games played this month, Hampton Institute basketball Coach Frank Enty is rallying his forces, determined to stay in the running for CIAA tournament play.

were played in the afternoon. Well there used to be a lot of fights and trouble then. We recall when the West High boys playing at what is now Tech painted East High with letters. That caused a small gang war and a red hot ball game. On Friday nights before the city series games the groups of supporters of the rival schools would meet downtown and have it out with fists or what have you. Then there was always a big scrap at one of the schools after a city series football game. Sure the police broke them up, but we went someplace else, and fought it out.

MY UNION

By John M. Wells

To the sweating, grimy, denim-clad workers in the smoldering foundry. And to the exploited, spotlessly clean white-collar employees, Who perform their service in a picture-window setting, I recommend my union. For it is the guiding spirit behind the battle To provide fair and equal employment to all men, Regardless of color, race or creed. As the Statue of Liberty holds high her torch of freedom

To welcome the oppressed refugee, So my Union heralds this message of hope To all working men everywhere. My Union is not like the Industrial Giant of ill fame With conquering heel astride your shoulders bent, But at its door new strength to you is lent. A mighty Union with a force, whose And passion is to help a man lay claim To his inalienable rights: to cross the span

Of servitude—to break the ban That binds him to a life of jobless shame. Try, guilty men, your slaving modes to keep, But with each waking hour and breath will we Cry out against your wrongs, and when we sleep We'll dream of days when we shall see Our fellow man, whose faith and trust we keep Of all religions, race and color—FREE.

Aggies in 1st Place In CIAA Flag Race

Greensboro, N. C.—The A T College Aggies whipped Winston-Salem Teachers College, 63-54, in a thrilling basketball game played here last Monday night at the Charles Moore Gymnasium.

Little Joe Howell, the Aggies' candidate for all CIAA selection, busted the nip-and-tuck battle wide open in the last 10 minutes of play, as he dropped long outside shots along with easy lay-ups. He scored 15 points in the last stanza, nine in the first period for a total of 24 for the evening. This ran his total for the 11 games to 220, an even 20-point average per game. His ball-handling was equally superb as he passed off many easy shots to his teammate, Herbert Grey, who dropped 15-points himself.

Sugar Ray Gets Held Up... by Train

Albany, New York, (CNS)—Sugar Ray Robinson was on his way to New York after signing up to meet Carmen Basilio again in a championship bout in Chicago, when his train—the crack luxury 20th Century Limited was held up. The Conductors staged a wild-cat strike and paralyzed five Chicago to New York streamliners for hours. Robinson was one of the outstanding passengers on the 20th Century.
