President's Bias Committee To Report on Pending Cases

Washington—The President's Committee on Government Contracts has agreed to submit to the NAACP a comprehensive report on all complaints of job discrimination filed by the Association a year or more ago.

Agreement to make these reports available was reached after Herbert Hill, NAACP labor secretary, urged members of the committee to take such action during a conference here on April 15. The conference was arranged in response to a request by Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary, to the committee chairman, Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

In an appearance before the subcommittee on review, Mr. Hill stated that in some instances more than three years have elapsed since the original complaint was filed during which period neither the aggrieved person nor the NAACP received any report from the committee.

The committee promised to make a report on the older pending cases available to the NAACP during the week of May 20. The cases will be reviewed and further discussed on the basis of the report. Cooperation

Your Des Moines-Polk County Health Department suggests that too many people seem to feel that if they have a good doctor, their life is in good hands without giving him the cooperation he deserves to keep them well. When they leave his office, their attitude seems to be, "Goodbye Doc, take care of my health till I see you again." How about giving that man some cooperation?

Councilman McGowan Candidate for Congress

Frank W. McGowan, Des Moines small businessman and member of the Des Moines City Council, has announced that he is a candidate for Congress, Fifth District, on the Democratic ticket in the June Primaries.

Councilman McGowan initiated the City Ordinance which resulted in the adopting of the City's Fair Employment Practices; initiated the establishment of the present Human Rights Commission, and has brought every amendment to the above two ordinances.

His program in Washington would be to protect people—with their welfare in mind at all times; the preservation of natural resources; added job opportunities through the promotion of industry in Iowa.

One other aim of McGowan's would be to assure an equal opportunity for rich and poor alike to attend college, through a series of government loans to students.

SCENE FROM "ST. LOUIS BLUES"

"St. Louis Blues," the star-packed story of the man and the songs that began America's rhythm-and-blues age, will arrive May 9—at the Paramount theatre, with an unprecedented array of top artists performing in the Paramount Vista Vision filmization of the life and career of the fabulous W. C. Handy, creator of the blues.

Portraying Handy is Nat "King" Cole and starring with him are Eartha Kitt, Pearl Bailey, Cab Calloway, Ella Fitzgerald and world-famed gospel singer Mahalia Jackson, Ruby Dee and Juano Hernandez are featured along with noted instrumentalists Barney Bigard, Teddy Buckner, George "Red" Callender, George Washington and Lee Young. Set mostly in Memphis, cradle of the blues, "St. Louis Blues" is the music-and-drama-filled story of the man who fought the stern dictates of his religious father, deep personal misfortune and the pitfalls of the wild world of the honky-tonks to become America's foremost blues song-writer. To his credit along with the immortal "St. Louis Blues," are such classics as "Beale Street Blues," "Careless Love," "Memphis Blues," and "Yellow Dog Blues," and 14 of his songs, instrumentals and spirituals are performed by the film's great cast.

With Nat "King" Cole at the piano, Eartha Kitt warbling and Cab Calloway listening speculatively, the song that began America's rhythm-and-blues age gets its first hearing, in scene from Paramount's St. Louis Blues," Vista Vision musical drama arriving May 9 at the Paramount theater in Des Moines. Pearl Bailey, Ella Fitzgerald and gospel singer, Mahalia Jackson also star.

The Late Mike Todd and a Mothers' Club Account for Unusual Gifts to UNCF

New York — Two unusual and interesting gifts are included among the hundreds of contributions already received by the United Negro College Fund in the current campaign, according to W. J. Trent, jr., Fund executive director.

"One of these contributions — amounting to $130—comes from the employees of the late Mike Todd," Mr. Trent said. "As the world knows, the great showman was killed while flying to New York to attend a Friars club dinner in his honor.

Precedent

"According to precedent, the proceeds of Friars' affairs are donated to a philanthropy or civic cause designated by the guest of honor. Mike Todd had informed the Friars that he wished the proceeds of his dinner—an expected $5,000—to be given to the United Negro College Fund.

"The Friars expect to hold the tragically cancelled dinner at a future date as a memorial to Mr. Todd. They hope to make it an annual affair."

The second unusual gift was reported in The Cleveland Press, of which Louis B. Seltzer, UNCF Cleveland chairman, is editor. The contribution of $500 comes to the College Fund from the Mt. Pleasant Mothers' Civic Club. The club members, 12 elderly little ladies, are disbarring their organization after 31 years of service to the community.

At their "Farewell Civic Tea" April 13, they announced the liquidation of their treasury. The Mt. Pleasant Community Council, the Phillis Wheatley Foundation and the United Negro College Fund were the recipients of their largess.

The 15th annual campaign of the United Negro College Fund on behalf of its 33 independent, accredited member colleges and universities, is now under way. The 1958 goal is $2,250,000.

Ask Certification of Teen Agers Accused of Rape

President Eisenhower calls French criticism of the United States unjustified, referring to the recent debate in the French parliament which gave voice to charges that the U.S. is attempting to foster action hostile to the French position in North Africa. Eisenhower stated in a news conference that America's foreign policy is crystal-clear and that the United States seeks to preserve France's economic-cultural ties with North Africa because such ties can serve as the basis of great economic and political relations between the two countries.

A paragraph in the story on Des Moines district of the Northwestern Conference of AME church published on this page last week should have read correctly:

Marshall, Texas — Bishop College is planning its Twenty-Eighth Annual Session of the Lacy Kirk Williams Ministers' Institute. According to President M. K. Curry, Junior, the Williams' Institute will be held April 29-May 2.

Memorial

The Lacy Kirk Williams Institute is a memorial to the late, worldly-prominent religious and civic leader after which the Institute is named. Reverend Williams was an alumnus of Bishop College. Each year, the Institute attracts the nation's leading ministers and other religious leaders. The Institute's agenda calls for provocative and inspiring sermons, informative seminars, lively workshops, and music and devotionals. The Reverend Richard A. Rollins, General Institute Director, says the principal speakers for the Institute have been contacted, and will be announced later.

International Baha'i Conference Convenes

The third Baha'i International Conference to be held in 1958 will open at the Eighth Street Theatre in Chicago on May 2nd immediately following the close of the fiftieth annual Baha'i National Convention in suburban Wilmette, Ill.

Representatives from every country in the western hemisphere, estimated at one thousand persons, will attend the Chicago Conference, May 2 through May 4, according to plans now being made by the National Spiritual Assembly of the Baha'is of the United States, host body of the conference. Distinguished Baha'i visitors from Europe, Asia and Africa are expected. Delegates from every state in the United States and Hawaii and Puerto Rico will gather from April 29 to May 1 at the Baha'i House of Worship in Wilmette for the national convention.

From Des Moines

Representatives who will attend both the convention and the International Conference from Des Moines are, Mrs. Robert Lee Moffett, and Miss Coranne Willis of 3939 Cottage Grove Ave., and Mrs. Lyle Munson of 252 51st St. Mrs. Verner Anderson of 4006 Cottage Grove Ave. will attend the International Conference. Many from various cities in Iowa will attend both the National Convention and the International Conference.

Chicago Named

Chicago was selected by the late Guardian, Shoghi Effendi Rabbani, as the place for the international conference, not alone because it is the heart of the North American continent and adjacent to the national headquarters in Wilmette, but also because it is the city where the name of Baha'u'llah, Founder of the Baha'i World Faith, was first publicly mentioned in the western world in 1893.

Other Conferences

Of the five intercontinental conferences to meet this year, two have already been held, namely in Kampala, Uganda, Africa, and in Sydney, Australia. The other two will be in Frankfurt, Germany, and Djakarta, Indonesia, in July and September, respectively.

20 Nations will Rise Out of Political, Economic Ferment

FOREIGN MISSION BOARD, N. B. C., U. S. A., INC..

Fourth Of A Series Of Articles
By Dr. C. C. Adams, Secretary

Sierra Leone: This seventh trip to Africa which I have made in the missionary interest of our Baptist Foreign Mission Board has revealed many other things, and one cannot close one's eyes to the economic and political trends as well as the religious. Even the most casual observer must come to know that all business is born of economic necessities, and the positions and approaches men make to these give rise to politics.

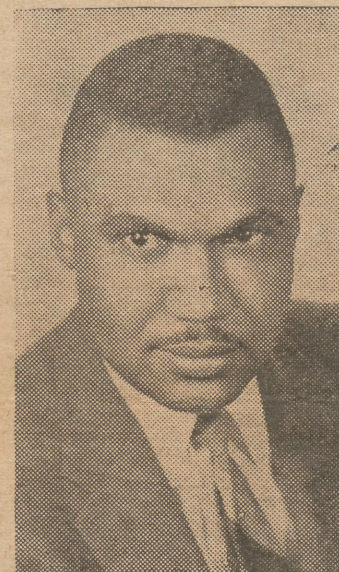

These things have to do with life and the different ways men think of it, both in Africa and the world over. Religion and, yes, even Jesus Himself have always been a storm center of politics. However, there can be no escape from observing these matters and their trends.

Frame of Mind

The frame of mind, the determined will and attitude of spirit that Africans have, all point the way Africa is set to go, and the things to which she has set herself. Her leaders are not kidding themselves. They know that the pull will be hard and must be tested in the acid of Twentieth Century Standards.

FAMU PUBLICITY DIRECTOR RECEIVES APPOINTMENT

Tallahassee Fla.—Charles J. Smith, III, director of public relations at Florida A & M University, has been appointed to a special sub-committee of the American Association of Land-Grant Colleges and State Universities.

He has been named to assist the association's Centennial Steering Committee (Chancellor Clifford M. Harding, University of Nebraska, chairman) in planning for the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the passage of the Morrill Act in 1862.

Smith is a 1948 alumni of the graduate school of Journalism at the State University of Iowa.

20 Free Nations

Out of this world fermentation will emerge at least twenty independent nations in Africa. They will range from the West to the far away south-east Africa. These nations will control and own the balance in the world's resources including oil, gold, copper, zinc, iron, coal and many other minerals not to mention the cotton, grain, fruit and livestock such as goats, sheep, hogs and cattle.

Many Resources

The fact is, Africa has too many resources which demanded the world's economy to attempt to catalog them. But it is general knowledge that the nations in possession of this strategic territory under subject will hold the key to economic freedom, and, finally, the balance wheel of the world's wealth and economy. Africans know this, they have a determined spirit to hold, develop, use and control this as a member of the world's family of free nations.

African Bonanza

The western nations of Europe have fought two world wars over this African bonanza since they discovered it. Out of the first war came mandates and protectorates. Out of the second has come independent nations. And still there is to stream forth more free nations out of Africa. France's great struggle to hold North Africa is economic and political. A nation cannot live by politics alone, only as it can control economic resources by politics.

Going Places

France has been driven out of North Africa except in Algeria. Her colonies in Central Africa are demanding freedom. The Africans are really going places and in many instances, they have already arrived. They are coming "home" to set up permanent housekeeping in their own, God-given right, and under their own vine and fig tree.

Hail bounteous May—the flowery May—"who from her green lap, throws the yellow cowslip, and the pale primrose." (Milton).

The month of May is a busy one for spring activities, anniversaries and celebrations. Maypole dances, wherever the weather permits, and May baskets are colorful sights in the schools. Child Health Day is fittingly observed.

As the month arrived, Mrs. Henrietta Arnold, 1143 Thirteenth street, had the occasion to give thanks for another birthday. If you planned to send her a greeting—it is not too late for the belated cards. For many years she has been active in the Brotherhood and Sisterhood, Inc.

When Mrs. Osceola Sims, 937 Fifteenth Street, goes to her church, St. Paul AME Sunday, friends will be wishing her "Happy Birthday." Other birthdays during the week listed on a birthday calendar from St. Paul are:

May 7—Miss Alberta Bates; May 8—Rev. Thomas L. Lighon; May 9—Rev. Orzealyea Roberson, Mrs. Fannie Danforth, Mrs. Thelma Harrison.

One of the noteworthy celebrations during the month of May is Mothers' Day, Sunday, May 11. It is a good opportunity for some of the mission societies and charitable groups to remember the aged and shut-in mothers, some of whom are

In nursing homes and homes for the aged. For a number of years, the East Side Union Mission Society has been including in its list of mothers-to-remember—many of these women, who otherwise would have been forgotten.

Should you want a few historical anniversaries of the month—to use for current event periods at club or organization meetings—here are a few:

May 5—Napoleon died at St. Helena 1821; May 6—Corregidor surrendered. Some of the World War II veterans around Des Moines now, who went to the South Pacific the early part of the war, might have some information on the subject.

On May 7—the sinking of the Lusitania—the British-owned liner, carrying Canadian troops was sunk by German submarine in 1915, with the loss of 1,198 crew and passenger members including 124 Americans. Or, May 9, when Christopher Columbus made his fourth voyage to America in 1532.

So much for the anniversaries to observe. Many more are waiting.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. William C. Brown, 1162 Thirteenth Street, who celebrated at their home, April 27, their fortieth wedding anniversary. They are active members of Burns Methodist church.

A note arrived recently from LeRoy P. Bird, 2042 Lafayette Street, Denver, Colo., one of the staunch supporters of the Bystander, who will be happy to hear from his Des Moines friends.

Danforth, Russell Reeves, and Lauretta Reeves; for Miss Johnson—Ezra Ewing, Sam Jordan, Marsh Houston, and Ira Wyatt; for Miss McCarroll—Donald Platter, Marguerite Platter, Clark Yeager, and Chauncey Bailey; for Miss Carey—Archie A. Your city and county health department suggests that wider cars and clothes may be proper styling, but that new wider look is not for your figure. That widening process may have taken place during the winter months of high caloric intake. There is a reason for it. SEEIN' STARS....

WITH DELORES CALVIN

New York City . . . (CNS)—Mary Lou Williams, the temperamental pianist whose genius is forever going unrecognized because of her personality—has a trio now and is headed for a date at The Composer. A former Andy Kirk keyboard girl, Mary Lou is one of the few really real artists with records to prove it . . . If her smiles were but sincere, or better still, if she would only give out a whole smile instead of a smirk, she'd win over her audiences so much faster . . .

Diahann Carroll

Jack Parr, who has proven himself a match for Walter Winchell, could have ended the feud with a polite and retracting "I'm sorry" but he chose to uphold Elsa Maxwell and his beliefs . . . If more stars put more faith in their individual beliefs and back them to the hilt, we'd have a better, cleaner industry . . . Parr is also to be commended on asking singer Diahann Carroll over and over to his show . . . Diahann gets a big buildup—all the scenery she wants and the most beautiful gowns to wear . . . and she's one girl who when singing you'd never know what race she is . . . She's just a singer—period—and a good one . . . This effort on Parr's part to show her off at her best has done more for race relations than anything we know of in TV . . . just another of Jack's stubborn ideas . . .

Pearl Bailey

Pearl Bailey wearing a smart tailored grey suit, walking with hubbly Louis Bellson down Broadway . . . and Louis Jordan, at the Apollo, complaining of throat trouble . . . Former Pres. Harry Truman was honored at a dinner in the Waldorf Astoria—and on hand were actor Ralph Bellamy and singer Muriel Rahn, who'll always be remembered for her "Carmen Jones" role on Broadway . . .

Sammy Davis Jr.

Friends of Sammy Davis Jr. are not surprised at the temporary breakup of Sammy and his bride, Lory . . . They watched the little guy with the great big heart who's never idle, never refusing to sing or dance for charity—and wondered how any woman could make him happy—except one who would just go where he went and devote her entire life to the things he does . . . Lory has a career of her own—she's a dancer—and Sammy's friends sort of feel she doesn't want to spend enough time being with him . . . Sammy says this is just a temporary state—only time will tell that . . .

A TERRIBLE INDICTMENT

The April 21 issue of Time Magazine contains a rather startling article "The Problem of Negro Crime" which is fortified by figures from FBI files. The article states that in 1,551 cities Negroes making up 10% of the population account for 30% of all arrests and 60% of the arrests for the crimes involving violence or threat of bodily harm.

Quoting further the article states: "New York (14% Negro). Of the prisoners confined in houses of detention last year to await court disposition of their cases, 44% of the males and 65% of the females were Negroes.

Chicago (15% Negro). In 1956 twice as many Negroes as whites—1,366 to 679—were arrested on charges of murder, non-negligent manslaughter, rape and robbery.

Detroit (25% Negro). Two out of three prisoners held in the Wayne County jail are Negroes. Last month 62% of the defendants presented for trial in Recorder's Court were Negroes. Of last year's 25,216 arrests resulting in prosecution, excluding traffic cases, Negroes accounted for 12,919.

Los Angeles (13% Negro). In 1956 Negroes accounted for 28% of all arrests, and 48% of the arrests for homicide, rape, aggravated assault, robbery, burglary, larceny and auto theft.

San Francisco (7% Negro). The victims in 896 of last year's 1,564 recorded robbery cases reported that the assailants were Negroes."

Figures just don't lie and intelligent men must accept them. Admittedly this is a terrible situation and one which Negroes themselves should take the lead in helping to correct.

Further quoting, this paragraph does not ring true by any means.

"Shocking Pattern"

"In many cities," Time says, "Negro leaders and organizations such as the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People put pressure on politicians, city officials and newspapers to play down the subject. Fearing loss of Negro votes, few elected officials dare to resist the pressures. Abetting the concealment campaign is the feeling shared by many whites that it is unfair, inflammatory and even un-American to talk about Negro crime."

Negroes have protested pinning crimes upon Negroes which they do not commit and or insisted upon a fair trial neither of which is done to condone or hide crime.

And while the author attempts to blame integration for the dilemma, Negroes themselves cannot brush the problem off lightly.

The Bystander would suggest some contributory factors which Time completely ignores.

1. Courts and law enforcing officers are inclined to let one Negro off easy if the crime he commits is against another Negro. Thus the fear of severe punishment does not haunt a probable offender.

2. Concentrating Negroes in districts where they may do anything they are big enough to do as long as it is among or against Negroes is a great contributory factor.

3. The general moral let down as evidenced by the horrible crimes being committed today in high places takes a heavy toll among Negroes who have come recently from backward areas, where some restrictions were severe but morals loose, to large cities where they find almost complete freedom to do as they please for the first time.

4. The failure or refusal of parents to rear their children with the moral example which characterized mothers and fathers prior to World War I.

5. The poor example of leadership displayed by the church where too much emphasis is placed upon death, heaven and hell and not enough on daily living; where it's emphasis stops at the door on Sunday and thus little leadership for better living is provided on other days.

6. Courts sometimes find it difficult to get Negroes to testify against each other, a trait which has its background in slavery; and the desire to help another Negro whose lot he feels is already unfortunate.

7. The low economic standard, and lack of education which produces restraint, takes a large toll of crime among Negroes in blighted areas.

The Bystander lists these causes as no excuses but points from which some start should be made to improve the situation. Surely, no community can sit idly by and do nothing in the light of this terrible record.

What about it—Ministerial alliances—YMCA—YWCA and leaders of the moral forces in the communities?

SENATE SIDESTEPS UNION REPRESENTATION

Last week the Senate had before it a bill to regulate labor unions Senator Knowland of California introduced an amendment which would require unions to admit to membership all employees they represented as bargaining agents except for causes applicable to all other employees—obviously an FEP amendment which is long past due.

It was defeated 27 to 53 with both Iowa Senators favoring the amendment. It seems ridiculous that such little consideration was given a situation, where a group elects to represent another who had no part in choosing that representation.

The majority promises legislation on the subject later.

SPORTS

BY ALLEN ASHBY

Just about everyone who thought he knew anything about track picked Murchison to win the 100-yard dash, in the Drake Relays. As we watched the little guy race over the cinders we recalled the year he came to the Relays with Iowa U.

The Hilltop Tennis Club had a dance and we happened to be on the door; just then Murchison showed up and we thought he was some little squirt trying to crash the dance. It took a lot of talking by Illinois Abe Woodson to get Ira in.

Nebraska's Gardner was a stand-out in the university relays and he had help from Wheeler. Those two guys could really leg it. Just name your distance and Gardner and Wheeler ran it and ran it well. Tennessee A and I, Texas Southern and Lincoln U had the hottest rivalry seen around these parts in years. It didn't matter who else was in the race they may as well have stayed home. Those teams were out to beat each other and they simply ran away from everyone else in their mad race against one another, Lincoln probably had the faster sprinters but poor baton passing cost them at least one race. A & I won the half mile and quarter mile relays and Lincoln the sprint medley.

We had quite a chat with high jumper Taylor of Lincoln about those athlete scholarship set up. They have a better one than a lot of bigger schools have and get boys all over the country. A & I has the same set up.

We were mildly surprised at Jim Hutchinson 100 yard dash win in the high school section. They made it a grand slam. Hutchinson, the guy from Newton and Collier of North. Hutch has to run too hard to catch the Ames man in the anchor leg of the half mile relay and could not quite make it.

Champ Floyd Patterson Receives Fight Offer

Denver, Colo.—Heavyweight Champion, Floyd Patterson, who hasn't had a fistic payday in the last eight months may soon get a chance to pick up some loose money.

A local promoter, backed up by a couple of businessmen, offered the champion $250,000 to defend his title in November against Don Hodge, a fistic nonentity outside of the Golden Gloves rank. Dodge, who hails from Wichita, Kans., is the 1957 Golden Gloves champ.

The offer was disclosed by Arthur Freeman, Wichita oil operator, who said William Colbert, Wichita matchmaker, telegraphed the proposal to Cus D'Amato, Patterson's arbitrary manager.

If Patterson takes the match, it will be his second defense against an amateur. He scored a sixth round KO over Pete Rademacher in his last title fight.

Campy is Regaining Strength in His Arms

Glen Cove, N. Y.—Roy Campanella, injured Los Angeles Dodgers catcher, is reported gaining ground in his battle against the paralysis that has hospitalized him since last January when he broke his neck in an auto accident.

The Glen Cove hospital where Campy is confined reported that he is slowly regaining strength in his arms. However, he is not yet able to pick up an object, and is still paralyzed from his waist down. Attendants roll him over every three or four hours, as he is not able to do that himself.

The hospital is expected to issue a more optimistic bulletin on Campy's condition soon.

Meanwhile, the Dodgers, in a sentimental gesture last week, delivered

HEALTH FOR ALL

THE PICKETS ARE GONE — BUT POLIO REMAINS

A long line of women picketed noisily in front of the mayor's office in a large American city. Many of them pushed baby carriages or held youngsters in their arms. They were mothers, and they were angry because they felt that their children were in needless danger.

Some carried signs, crudely lettered, which read: "WE DEMAND POLIO VACCINE!"

"OUR CHILDREN MUST BE PROTECTED AGAINST POLIO."

Other slogans, more bitter, denounced the city government for failure to make enough vaccine available. Desperately, these mothers sought action.

Intense Reaction

That was just a few short years ago, during the brief period when Salk vaccine was in short supply, its distribution regulated under strict priority systems. There was intense public reaction then, because the fear of polio was still fresh in the minds of the people.

Humans Forget

But people, being human, forget. They forget the panic that swept whole communities when polio epidemics descended upon the nation each summer. They forget the crowded polio wards, the streets empty of children, the closed schools and playgrounds. They forget how viciously polio strikes, leaving crippled bodies and ruined lives. They forget that the threat of polio is just as great today as it ever was, for those who are not protected.

Protection Needed

There are no picket lines of mothers, today, demanding vaccine. Any one who wants protection can get it—quickly, safely and cheaply. Every man, woman and child should have that protection before polio strikes among us. American doctors enthusiastically endorse the Salk vaccine. Yet, millions of people have not yet been vaccinated, neglecting to take advantage of the blessed protection which can be had with so little effort.

If you have not started your Salk shots, start now. Don't wait until it is too late.

Forty Ninth Annual Drake Relays Like Spring—New, Exciting Despite Chilling Temperatures

By Staff Writer

Like the season of spring, the 49th annual Drake Relays classic again brought new life and excitement to a mass of Des Moines citizens and fans here last Friday and Saturday at Drake Field House.

The aura of excitement was kindled by a gala parade Saturday at 10 p.m. from west to east down Walnut street with its pageantry of bands and colorful spectacle of floats designed according to the plan of "Around the World in Eighty Minutes." The chill of the morning did not hinder the large number of on-lookers who kept comfortable with warm wraps.

Satisfied Fans

And at the Relays itself, held under generally cloudy skies and chilly temperatures, wraps were again present along with the ever-present hot cup of coffee. Fans seemed to be satisfied and fascinated by the graceful beauty of the runners, their overwhelming endurance, their competitive spirit and delighted in seeing their favorite performer in action.

Jim Hutchinson

For instance Jim Hutchinson of Tech won the 100-yard dash easily Friday morning in preliminaries in a :10.3 seconds and came back in the finals to win in :10.1 seconds.

Ted Wheeler

Running in the invitational mile was Iowa's Ted Wheeler, an A.A.U. event, who ran his usual style playing along with the winners until the last yards of the lap and then zoomed the playing gear of Campanella to a locker assigned to him at the club's Los Angeles dressing room.

SOLITUDE

I stood alone in the deepness of night,
Surrounded by the stars and radiant moonlight;

As I gazed at the beauty of the heavens above,
I realized the eternalness of our creator's love.

Because of His love for you and me,
He gave us a wealth of beauty to see;
We need not be rich with silver or gold,
The heavenly beauty is for all to behold.

HIS LEGACY

How frequently, some fantasy
Becomes full-grown: reality.
From embryo of probing thought
Is born, full-grown a fully-wrought;
The marvels of our modern age;
For which the Master set the stage,
Across this universe, that He:
Has built for all eternity.
Genes that formed the human race
On all the worlds that spin in space

Must be the same, beneath the skin:
And all of mankind be our kin!
For every human surely knows
The sameness in the blood that flows:
In every shade and shape of man,
Must be according to Gods' plan.
The Master meant for men to find
All answers that would lift mankind.
Shake off minds' shackles slaves and be:

—Awake to claim, His legacy!
