NAACP BOARD HOLDS SESSION ON FREEWAY:

Plans to Alert Property Owners Says Troop Issue Decisive in Faubus Victory

Claims Use of Force Outweigh Integration

St. Louis.—The crucial factor in the landslide renomination of Gov. Orval E. Faubus in Arkansas was not the issue of school integration but the "inflammatory" campaign against the use of federal troops in Little Rock, NAACP Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins declared in a television interview here.

Television Interview

Interviewed by a panel of lawyers on a popular program over KMOX-TV on August 2, Wilkins expressed the opinion that "the turning force was the magic federal troops idea."

Two hundred thousand qualified voters in the state "didn't feel it was necessary to come out and vote" in the primary despite the injection of "pure racism" in the campaign, the NAACP leader pointed out.

In response to a question as to whether a delay in Little Rock might not provide a needed "cooling-off" period, the NAACP leader flatly rejected the proposal. "I wouldn't delay two and a half months, to say nothing of two and a half years. I would never agree to it voluntarily," Wilkins asserted.

Embarrassing

The Faubus victory, he said, may well prove embarrassing to the national Democratic party which will have to take a stand on this issue. "A good many Negro Democrats in the northern states are a SEE PAGE TWO

Powell Uses Civil Rights Plea to Aid in Re-Election

BULLETIN

(Rep. Adam Clayton was nominated on the Democratic ticket Tuesday defeating his opponent, Earl Brown.)

New York City.—(CNS) Fighting feverishly in an attempt to prove to voters that he is the most capable man to handle such situations, Rep. Adam Clayton Powell made a great effort to erupt a floor fight over civil rights.

It all began when Rep. Elliott—a Democrat from Alabama—introduced a measure known as "National Defense Education Act of 1958." It asked for 10,000 federal scholarships at $500 each plus books and aid to deserving student.

Anti-Bias Clause

Powell immediately cited the bill should include an anti-bias clause. In addition, the White House had originally asked for 23,000 scholarships and Powell thought the number should not have been cut.

Scholarships

"I am opposed to lowering the number of scholarships to 10,000 and $500, isn't enough for scholarships these days—I'd put each scholarship at $2,000," he said.

"We appropriated $40,000,000,000 for defense which should have been appropriated for education," he continued.

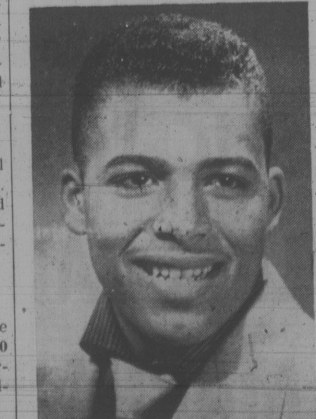

SHERIFF FREED

Water Valley, Miss.—(CNS)—Citing "it was the only thing the jury could do—the Niggers were getting out of hand around here, talking smart to you right on the street," Sheriff Buster Treloar, who beat Woodrow Wilson Daniels, a Negro, to death, was acquitted after less than 30 minutes of trial. There were 4 eye-witnesses.

continued, "there should be a total marshalling of the nation's total brainpower in the cold war. Powell faced a crisis this week when Primaries for the Democratic Congressional designation was held.

Auto Accident Fatal To Baby; Parents Critically Injured

Fremont, Ia.—An automobile accident near Ottumwa early Monday morning was fatal to a 6-month-old baby and critically injured its parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Locke, both 20, of 1117 West 10th Street, in Des Moines. The couple were enroute home from Arkansas when the accident occurred just north of the junction of Highways U. S. 63 and Iowa 49.

Mr. and Mrs. Locke were taken to Mahaska County hospital at Okaloosa where they still were reported in critical condition early Wednesday.

Cause of the accident was not definite, but the car in which they were driving went off the highway, turned upside down and burst into flames. Mrs. Locke and the baby, Tommy, Jr., were pulled from the burning vehicle by William Stewart, 48, of Rose Hill. Mr. Locke was thrown from the car. The baby was killed instantly.

Federal Judge Rules Negro Pupils Should Submit to Tests

Harrisburg, Va.—A federal district judge ruled Monday that achievement tests are legal. In the opinion of Federal District Judge John Paul, the Negro students of Charlottesville, Va., seeking to enter white schools would have to take the tests and submit to interviews that they refused to do under advice of attorneys last month.

Judge Paul warned however, that if he found any discrimination in the tests, he would supplant the school board and assign the pupils himself.

Attorneys for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People argued that any tests were discriminatory unless they also were given to the white children.

To Prevent Panic Buying In Housing Ghettoes by Organizing Unit Meetings

Twenty-one members of the Executive Board of the Des Moines N.A.A.C.P. met in a special session Tuesday evening at the home of the President, Mrs. Clara Bayles, 951 17th Street. The meeting was called for the purpose of giving consideration to how the local branch could be of service in helping to eliminate racial discrimination in housing and helping Negro families being displaced by the freeway to relocate in decent, desirable housing.

DR. SCALES

Dr. E. T. Scales, a member of the Urban Renewal Board, cited an urgent need for guidance on the part of the N.A.A.C.P., and others interested in integrated housing, in helping to alleviate tension and fears on the part of Negro families who are faced with relocating and who may become panicky in view of the fact that housing opportunities for them are very limited in Des Moines.

The Executive Board of the N.A.A.C.P. recognized these pertinent facts:

1. That there are approximately 400 Negro families to be displaced by the freeway project; approximately 175 of these live in the first area to be constructed.

2. That real estate agents and other forces in the community are encouraging white home owners in fringe areas to put their houses on the market to Negroes, thus maintaining the Negro ghettoes.

3. That in practically every instance, realtors are offering to show Negroes only those houses that are located in predominantly Negro neighborhoods or in surrounding fringe areas.

4. That well established Negro home owners are being forced to vacate their comfortable, well kept homes in good neighborhoods because of the freeway, but because of the segregated housing patterns in our City, are forced to pay exorbitant prices for old homes formerly occupied by whites. These Negro families could afford to live in some of the new and better houses that are for sale in the City, but are not being shown these houses because of the practice of discriminating against Negroes who attempt to buy houses outside of certain areas.

In view of the above factors, the N.A.A.C.P. Executive Board, in cooperation with its Housing Committee, began immediate plans for organizing area or unit meetings of these Negro families being displaced SEE PAGE TWO

Mrs. Rebecca Gaiter, 102, Celebrates Birthday Monday At Home of 73-Year-old Son

This is the 26th in a series of articles featuring Negro firsts, leaders, and outstanding personalities in Iowa who are excelling in civic, professional, business, religious, educational, fraternal and entertainment fields.)

By Mrs. Frances Hawthorne

Although modern science and easy living are guaranteeing longer life to 20th Century man, few people live to be 100 or beyond.

But Mrs. Rebecca Gaiter is one of those few. She celebrated her 102nd birthday Monday, Aug. 11.

Born of slave parents in Marion, Ala., in 1856 she has lived through the Civil War, two World Wars, the Korean war and skirmishes of a possible third global conflict. She has come through the turbulent times of post-reconstruction days, the great depression and intermittent inflation. . . and through it all she has worked . . . mostly in homes of white people as a domestic or pastry cook.

When people ask "Mrs. Gaiter, how she has managed to live so long," she replies simply: "By taking life easy."

Quiet Celebration

She celebrated her 102nd year quietly with ice cream and cake at the home of her 73-year-old son, Edward Gaiter, at 131 56th Street.

In West Des Moines. She didn't want a lot of fuss made over her. Her daughter-in-law, Wilma, who spent the day fishing in Adel, planned to be back in time for the party.

Physically, Mrs. Gaiter looks better than some at 80. There are few wrinkles in her face, her hair is still partly black, her voice is strong and clear. Her hearing is good because normal speaking voices do not have to be raised. Although she walks with a cane her main physical handicap is failing eyesight. When she greets neighbors and friends her quiet dignity and courteousness is very apparent.

"Don't Worry"

"It was even more apparent when she said, 'I don't worry none. I have been around for a long time and seen many things. I don't expect to see much more'."

"We don't let her get out of the yard much anymore," her son put in "But, we still on occasions, walk her across the street to visit the neighbors."

"She used to go to Mt. Hebron Baptist church where we are all members," he added, "but she hasn't been in the last three or four years."

little uneasy wondering if the Fauhis philosophy is going to be condoned by the party as a whole."

Obligation

Questioned about the role of the federal government in the NAACP appeal against a two-and-a-half year suspension of integration in Little Rock, Wilkins declared that "the federal government has an obligation to act in these matters, and it has failed to act, except to call out troops." The President, he pointed out, "has more power than merely the power to call out troops. He has vast powers of persuasion."

Hot Spiced Tea and Sportsmen

Always welcome to a group of winter sports enthusiasts is a hot cup of tea, especially Hot Spiced Tea, "solid" sandwiches and an assortment of cakes or cookies.

If you know anything about the reactions of outdoor sportsfolks, you know that once they're home, and relaxed, fatigue is likely to take over. So, just in case you've a few chores in mind for them to do, have plenty of that Hot Spiced Tea around. Why? Simply because tea supplies a quick pick-up followed by a steady "lift" without any let down. At the same time, in its own mysterious fashion, tea relaxes nervous tensions. Here's the recipe for the Hot Spiced Tea. If you learn to make this right, you'll automatically learn the basic rules for making a good pot of everyday tea.

HOT SPICED AFTERNOON TEA

4 quarts water 1/2 cup loose tea or 15 teabags
1 teaspoon whole cloves 1 1/2 cups sugar
1 stick cinnamon 1/2 cup fresh lemon juice
1 cup brown sugar 1 cup orange juice

Add spices to water. Bring water to full rolling boil. Remove from heat. Immediately add tea. Brew 4 minutes. Strain and add sugar; stir till dissolved. Add fruit juices. To reheat for serving place over low heat. Do not boil. Makes 25-30 servings.

CRUNCHY FRUIT SQUARES

(Makes 48 squares)
1 cup flour 2 teaspoons vanilla
1 teaspoon baking powder 1 cup chopped filberts
1/2 teaspoon salt 1 cup candied fruits, chopped
2 eggs, beaten 1 cup dates, chopped
1 cup brown sugar

Sift flour, measure and sift again with baking powder and salt. Beat eggs until they start to thicken. Continue beating and add sugar gradually, then vanilla. Stir in dry ingredients. Fold in filberts, candied fruits, and dates. Bake in an 8 x 8-inch lined and greased pan in a 350° F. oven for 40 minutes. Cool. Cut into squares and remove from pan.

FILBERT MACAROONS

(Makes about 2 dozen)
1/4 cup shortening 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup sugar 1/2 teaspoon salt
1 egg, well beaten 2 1/2 cups ready-to-serve flake cereal, crumbled
1 cup chopped filberts

Cream shortening. Add sugar gradually. Beat in egg, and add chopped filberts, vanilla, salt and cereal. Mix thoroughly; press mixture into rounded bowl of tablespoon. Drop on greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven 350° F. for 10 minutes.

Mr. Gaiter said her appetite is very good and she likes strawberry shortcake and milk, all vegetables, roast beef, but no fish because "she can't see to get the bones out."

His mother doesn't remember anything of the wars and conflicts, or when her husband died. "Everything just goes blank then," she said.

Father Passed

However, her son said his father died when he was a baby. "I was raised by another lady until I was about 12. My real mother came and got me when she died. Mother lived in Union Town, Ala., then."

Of his childhood, Mr. Gaiter, who is nearly 6 feet tall and walks very very straight, doesn't remember much except that he worked.

Worked at 12

"I went to work when I was 12 years," he revealed. "I have worked in coal mines in Alabama, for the Southern railroad, in ammunition plant during World War I and after we came to Des Moines in 1919, for the Rock Island 36 years."

"About 17 years ago, Mother came to live with us, until then she had lived in Union Town, Ala."

Long life is not unusual for this family, you see, Mrs. Gaiter had a grandfather who lived to be 116 years old."

You Can Make Meringue Cookies

By Betty Barclay

"MAKE 'EM Yourself!" You can. These glamorous meringue cookies that you used to have to buy from a fancy bakery, you can now make yourself in less than half an hour!

Three dozen of them, too; enough to serve with elegance at an evening card party.

Chocolate Meringue Cookies

1 cup chocolate chips; 3 egg whites; 2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar; 1/4 cup saltine cracker crumbs; 1/2 cup chopped pecans; 1 teaspoon vanilla. Melt chocolate over hot water. Cool. Beat egg whites until stiff. Add sugar gradually, beating after each addition until blended. Then fold in cracker crumbs, nuts, vanilla, and melted chips. Drop from teaspoon on lightly greased baking sheet and spread slightly. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) about 10 minutes. Makes about 3 dozen 2-inch cookies. Store in tightly covered container.

Jule Kaga

A fruit and nut-laden loaf of Jule Kaga served with frothy fruit juice evokes a gay holiday mood for an early morning breakfast.

Warm buttery slices of Jule Kaga will surely delight Christmas callers. This Norwegian Christmas bread has an unusually good flavor created by ground cardamom, candied citron, raisins and chopped almonds.

Few things can compare with the fragrance of freshly baked bread. Especially at Christmas time, baking becomes a part of the gay holiday festivities.

The ingredients for this oven-fresh bread make their own contribution in nutritional value. Milk, sugar and eggs skillfully supplement the food value of the enriched flour. Many of us don't realize that enriched flour offers three B-vitamins, food iron, plant protein and food energy.

Serve Jule Kaga just fresh and warm from the oven with mugs of hot chocolate. Perhaps you will want to feature it at a holiday brunch. Or, slice it thin and spread with cream cheese making dainty sandwiches to serve with hot spiced tea to holiday callers. The family will eat generously when slices of this bread are toasted for an early morning breakfast.

The baker helps make your task of feeding the family a nourishing breakfast an easy one. When there is no time for baking, select a coffee cake from the bake shop. The baker has fashioned both traditional and new coffee cakes with tempting fillings and toppings. Wrap aluminum foil around the coffee cake and warm in the oven. This will give it a "fresh-from-the-oven" goodness.

JULE KAGA

(Norwegian Christmas Bread)

2 packages yeast, compressed or dry 1/2 cup shortening
1/4 cup water (lukewarm for compressed yeast, warm for dry) 3/4 cups sifted enriched flour (about) 2 eggs
1 cup milk 1/2 cups ground cardamom
1 cup sugar 1/2 cup chopped candied citron
2 teaspoons salt 1/2 cup seedless raisins

Soften yeast in water. Scald milk. Add sugar, salt and shortening and cool to lukewarm. Add 2 cups flour and mix well. Add softened yeast and eggs and beat well. Stir in cardamom, citron, raisins and almonds. Add enough more flour to make a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead until smooth and satiny. Place in greased bowl. Cover and let rise in warm place until doubled (about 1 1/2 hours). When light, punch down and divide into 2 equal portions. Let rest 10 minutes. Shape each portion into loaf and place in greased bread pans. Let rise until doubled (about 1 hour). Bake in moderately hot oven (400° F.) 10 minutes. Reduce heat to moderate (350° F.) and bake about 45 minutes longer. Makes 2 loaves.

Such meetings will be planned to encourage these families to be calm and take their time in buying a new house and insist upon their right to be shown decent and desirable housing in neighborhoods of their choice.

The Executive Board also began immediate preparation of pamphlets of Negro families in the path of the Freeway which will spell out the proper procedure to follow in relocating; and also the danger points to watch when approached by real estate agents who are willing to show them only homes in predominantly Negro neighborhoods.

BIAS COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST CALIF. FIRM

San Francisco. — A complaint against the Frigidair Sales Corporation of Emeryville, Calif., charging racial discrimination in employment, has been filed with the President's Committee on Government Contracts.

Miss Bernice L. Dohm of Berkeley, Calif., in whose behalf the complaint was filed, alleges that she was refused employment by the company solely because of her race, when she applied for a job for which she was qualified and for which there was a vacancy. She appealed to the NAACP in San Francisco for assistance in filing her complaint.

Franklin H. Williams, NAACP West Coast regional secretary-counsel, together with Garfield Steward and William C. Nixon, chairman of the legal redress committees, respectively, of the San Francisco and Oakland NAACP branches, signed the complaint.

Richard Allen Choir Give Weekend Concerts in Chicago, Ill., and Gary, Indiana

Following gruelling rehearsals under the direction of Mrs. Loretta Reeves, the 33-voice Richard Allen Choir of St. Paul A.M.E. church left the city for Chicago, Ill., and Gary, Ind., where they gave several concerts.

After leaving Des Moines Friday evening by chartered bus the group was intercepted early Saturday morning at the city limits in the Windy City by Chicago police and escorted to the Hotel Pershing where they had reservations.

At approximately 10:00 a.m., once again, Chicago Police escorted the choir to the Washington Park where they participated in the Famous Bud Billiken Parade. After the parade the group had the rest of the day off, some taking in the ball game, others visiting friends and relatives and sight seeing.

Sunday morning August 10th, the Richard Allen Choir was in a concert at Gregg A.M.E. Church, pastored by the notable Rev. Paul Turner, who has been in this city on many occasions as Concert Organist. Immediately following the Chicago Concert the choir motored to Gary Indiana and St. Paul A.M.E. Church pastored by the Rev. John E. Hunter, formerly of St. Paul A.M.E. Church here in Des Moines. Shortly after the Gary Concert, the Richard Allen Choir returned to Des Moines.

Nation's Top Home Economists Applaud New 'Hostess' Costume at Fashion Show

Slim, trim and chic were the words to describe lovely young Sylvia Everett as she modeled this new 'hostess' costume before an admiring audience of more than 600 leading home economists attending the recent national convention of the American Home Economics Association in St. Louis. All fashions presented at the show, a feature of the popular pre-convention "brandy brunch", were worn by top Negro models from New York and St. Louis.

This Spanish-inspired matador ensemble, made entirely on a standard home sewing machine, offers dramatic proof of the smart using inexpensive printed patterns, a bit of imagination and the attachments on her sewing machine.

Combining three different McCall's patterns into a charming "at home" costume, it was made by seamstresses of the Grist Manufacturing Company, world's largest maker of home sewing machine attachments, for easy duplication by fashion-wise young marrieds and career women like Mrs. Everett. The important Spanish designer influence is shown in the tight-fitting slim pants and short bolero of creamy white corduroy, with richly decorated green and gold braid trim in a continuous "doodle" design. The braid "doodle" can readily be applied from any free-hand sketch, by using either the top braider or underbraider on the machine. Perfect Spanish accent appears again in the finely ruffled shirt front, made by using the ruffler on the machine.

Top stylists point out that smart fashions to sew like this ensemble are easy and fun to make—and to wear!

White Woman Leaves Property to Negro

Midlothian, Va., "Be thou faithful unto death" might well have been the motto of a trusted, long-time employee of a white family. And it paid off. The 75-year-old Negro was remembered in his mistress' will.

The will of the late Miss Mildred Walker revealed last week that she left her farm in trust for the lifetime benefit of James L. Canady who had worked for her family for 43 years. After Canady's death, the farm will go to Miss Walker's nephew and niece.

She left an estate of $29,000, including $19,000 in real estate and $10,000 in personal property. She died July 18 at the age of 84.

Free Will Baptist Church Organized Here; Evangelist Perry Ordained as Elder

A new page for history was made on March 18, 1957 when Evangelist A. M. Perry filed Articles of Incorporation with the Secretary of State's Office, which were drawn up and notarized by Rev. Orzealya M. Roberson, and issued her incorporate charter which gave her legal authority to operate a new Mission under the name of the Gospel Youth Center.

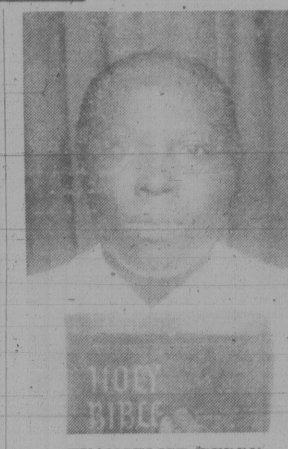

From a small beginning of three members, Evangelist Perry's church membership has grown to twenty-six members within one year. So significant and influential has been her work that she has been responsible for the increase of church membership to other churches throughout the city as a result of her evangelistic endeavors.

Organized Church

So fruitful has been the Christian service rendered by Evangelist Perry in her ability as a church leader, that the officials of her denomination came to Des Moines Wednesday, July 30, 1958 and formally organized her church and accepted it into their denominational connection. The Presiding Officer who was in charge of this special ceremonial service which was held in the presence of a full house of members and friends was Rev. R. A. Lewis, Marshall No. 1, Moderator of the Progressive Quarterly Conference of the Free Will Baptist Denomination. Other ministers who participated in this service were: Rev. M. H. Williams, and Rev. J. R. Mitchell. Other out-of-town guests were: Mrs. R. A. Lewis, wife of Moderator Lewis.

Ordination

The conclusion of the ceremonies which were in relationship to the founding of Evangelist Perry's church terminated on Sunday, August 10, 1958 during the 88th Annual Free Will Baptist Association Meeting at Bethel Church, Blackwater.

EVANGELIST PERRY

Mo., when Evangelist Perry was ordained an Elder at the hand of Rev. J. Y. Jackson, Moderator of the Western Missouri Association. Other Elders who took part in this ceremony of the laying on of hands were: Rev. Mr. Lewis, Rev. M. H. Williams, Marshall, Mo., Rev. F. D. Brown, Booneville, Mo., Rev. J. R. Mitchell, Sedalia, Mo., and Rev. George Ray.

New Name

This new church which was formally known as The Gospel Youth Center will now be known as The Free Will Baptist Gospel Tabernacle, 10th and Crocker St., this being the only Free Will Baptist Church known in the State of Iowa.

Game for Young or Old

IT'S FUN for youngsters and grown-ups alike—the tumble-bug game. For the bugs, get some capsules from your drugist. Drop a ball bearing into each, close the capsule and mark it with a colored tape, so that each player will know his own bug.

The only other equipment needed for the game is a playing board. Cut a piece of Presdwood about one foot square and nail it to a block of one-inch lumber four inches wide and as long as the playing board, to form a ramp. You'll need to plane the block of wood to the proper angle to make the Presdwood fit evenly.

Up to four players can participate with a board the size of the one described. Each player holds his capsule in an upright position at the top edge of the playing board. At the signal to "go," the bugs are released to tumble end over end down the ramp. The one reaching bottom first is the winner.

Youth Of The Week

This is the 21st in a series featuring youth, 13 to 21 years, in the community and in Iowa who are setting a good example in wholesome living and achievements in their homes, schools, churches, sports and civic activities.

We are again saluting another teenage lady who is our second guest for "Youth of the Week." Gwendolyn Peeples, who did rather be called Gwen is a 17-year senior with a contagious, pleasing personality from New York City. She, too, was among the group of out-of-state high school seniors who spent nearly two months in Des Moines taking freeway surveys for the American Friends Service committee.

She likes the job and experience so much that it was influential in her decision to become a social worker following graduation from George Washington High school next spring. And all of that happened on her first trip West.

She came directly to Des Moines from New York City when she was unable to make the camp at Boone, during the second week in June.

At the Church of the Master in New York City where she is a member, Gwen taught Sunday School one year and belongs to the Youth choir. She also holds membership in the Westminster Fellowship.

Besides being active in school organization her scholastic achievements have won her a place in "honor school" a special section in school for those with high academic averages. She has been there since

Robeson's Book in Third Printing

New York.—Like "Ol' Man River," sales of Paul Robeson's book, "Here I Stand," just keep rolling along.

A third printing of 15,000 copies of the best-selling book by the noted actor and singer has been announced here by the publishers, Othello Associates, Inc., who report that sales have passed the 25,000 mark.

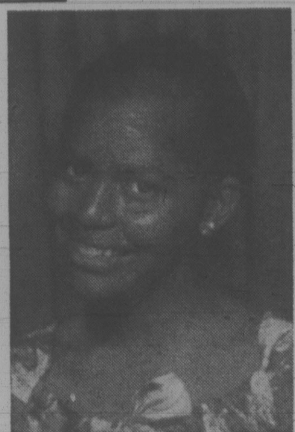

Robeson's current appearances in Britain in a series of TV concerts and at Albert Hall have spurred world-wide interest in his book. A Berlin publisher is bringing out a German-language edition of 30,000 copies this fall.

the 10th grade. In addition she is a member of the student council.

In the community she spends much of her spare time at the Morning-side Community center when she is not baby-sitting for the family next door. She is also a member of the NAACP.

A lover of all sports she likes baseball and basketball best, but also likes to dance and listen to jazz recordings especially those of vocalists Chris Conner and Ella Fitzgerald. She is not exactly eager to rock 'n' roll and though Johnny Mathis is not strictly rock 'n' roll class, she likes his records.

She is the only daughter among three children of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Peeples of New York City.

There Are Many Things Parents Can do to Help Children Overcome Their Fright

UNDERSTANDING IOWA CHILDREN

SPONSORED BY THE IOWA CHILD WELFARE RESEARCH STATION

Written by Lloyd Lovell, SUI Assistant Professor

Parents are quick to notice that their children are more easily frightened when they are tired, sick or upset, and when they are in unfamiliar surroundings.

Some fears that children may have, though, concern us because they are frequently aroused and because they trouble the child a great deal. Fear of lightning or of the possibility of a tornado, or fear of a particular dog may disturb a child, or fear of an experience like learning to swim may trouble him.

Treating Seriously

We can do several things to help our children cope with such fears. Treating them seriously is one of these aids. Belittling fears may only make the problem worse (how embarrassed do we get ourselves when someone asks us why we don't visit the dentist as often as we afterwards. A sightseeing tour to Belle Isle and a buffet supper was given them by Mr. and Mrs. Charley Watson. The Charley Watsons are cousins of Mrs. Beverly.

Something to Do

Children often are helped to deal with their fears when they have something to do during the events that scare them. Being read to during a frightening storm may help the young child; older children can be encouraged to engage in activities that permit movement of some kind. The more enjoyable these activities are, the more effective.

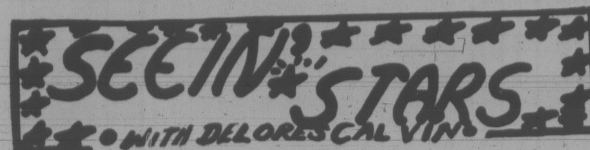

Re-Introduction

Gradually re-introducing a child to a previously scary experience can help him learn that he really can cope with the situation, too. If a child was frightened the first time he tried to learn to swim, he can be helped to engage in water play at a safe level of involvement. Slowly he can be encouraged to try bolder and bolder activities in the water.

Preparing Ahead

Preparing the child ahead of time for things that are likely to happen can help, too. He may get a bit of water up his nose when he is learning to swim, for example. If he expects this and knows that it is not serious, he can deal with it better when it happens. Often the child can help make preparations for safety that will help decrease his fear of the event, too. For the family living in a tornado region, the children can be assigned things to do to ready the house and to protect possessions. These preparations help the child feel that he himself is working constructively to minimize the danger.

READ THE BYSTANDER EVERY WEEK

New York City. (CNS)—Even though the weather is sweltering in New York—Broadway and its producers and backers are looking forward to a busy season come Fall.

And news has leaked out that one of the top dramatic plays to debut will be one so far named "Jolly's Progress." This is a story the Theatre Guild has taken over—and it is a known fact—anything they do is usually the best. Though none of the leads have been officially cast—it is known they are searching high and low for a bright, ingenue type to play Jolly, the Negro girl from the back woods of the south who is educated and made into a fine lady by a white benefactress. So far the story sounds like many on the old-fashioned theme—but this story is supposed to have a new twist. The girl does a little fighting for her own rights.

Della Reese

Della Reese, who's doing beer commercials on radio—as a star—goes into the El Morocco in Montreal the end of September. The Negro Actor's Guild put out a call for actresses with pleasing voices to try narrating job on tape which paid $50—and so many applied they had to test them all first to choose one.

Pearl Bailey

Pearl Bailey had a fit when husband Louis Bollson came down with an acute case of appendix and had to leave his date at the Chez Parée where he and Pearl are appearing.

ROBESON DOING FINE IN LONDON WITH CONCERTS AND TELEVISION PROGRAMS

London, England, (CNS)—After finally realizing his dream to tour abroad, equipped with an American passport and sanction of the government, Paul Robeson is creating crowds and doing big business wherever he goes.

His British concert tour opens with a recital at famous Albert Hall August 10th and from then on—it's a completely booked itinerary until Mid-December.

Television Show

He's already done a TV show—a 30 min. program called "Paul Robeson Sings"—the next will be as star of "Sunday Night At the Palladium", a top TV commercial production.

Cops Merion Title

Althea Gibson of New York has won the Pennsylvania women's lawn tennis championship for the second time, defeating Sally Moore of Bakersfield, California, 7-5, 2-6, 6-4, at the Merion Cricket Club courts Saturday.

Miss Gibson, who is the Wimbledon and United States champion, displayed brilliant forecourt power, but the victory did not come easily.

Miss Moore trailed 0-4 in the final set, then narrowed the deficit to 4-5, but Miss Gibson rallied to win the next game and the title.

couple of days. To top it all, his wife, who answered the fine, had to pay $31 to gram here.

Pianist

Meanwhile, Robeson's agent, Harold Holt, is trying to get pianist Lawrence Brown to join the singer for concerts. It will be a grand reunion for the three, as Mr. Holt arranged previous concerts for Robeson abroad where Brown acted as accompanist.

So happy is Robeson over his current success, he wishes now to play his famous role in "Othello" which he did in London in 1930 and more recently on Broadway.

Diahann Carroll

Diahann Carroll—currently guesting on "Tonight's show," is all thrilled over her new deal with United Artists. She'll do two LP's and four single sides. She's got two to her credit already: one LP for RCA Victor (Diahann Carroll Sings Harold Arlen) and one for Vik (Best Beat Forward). Besides this—she's a very busy little lady—opening at the Riverside Hotel in Reno the end of August—and going on from there to Hollywood for a role in "Porgy and Bess." You'll remember her in the film "Carmen Jones."

Lena Horne

Lena Horne sunned so much on the Riviera in Italy—she's shining like a copper penny. Nat King Cole's Album "Cole Espanol", where he sings Spanish like a tourist but you get the idea, sold 65,000 in two weeks the records show.

Although the 31st biennial convention of the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs, Inc., is history now, delegates and visitors from Des Moines and other Iowa cities reported they had such an enjoyable and inspiring time, that they are already planning to attend the next convention to be held in New York in 1960. They are planning no. who save to finance their trip.

Mrs. Fannie Danforth's name was not included in the initial list of pre-convention delegates because she did not know she was going until last Friday, after the Bystander was off the press and in the homes of readers.

Mrs. Helen Wimberly, retiring president of the IACW, had been scheduled on the program as one of the coordinators of the workshops which was held Wednesday afternoon, July 30.

In the National Association of Colored Girls convention which was held concurrently with the NACWC, Miss Barbara Garrett made quite an impressive record. Local delegates reported she came close to getting first prize in the model show. She established another record when she became the Fourth Des Moines girl to be elected to a national office in the NACG and the second named historian.

In 1935 when the Iowa Association of Colored Girls was organized by Mrs. Gertrude North, first state advisor, the former Doris Bailey of Des Moines was elected historian at the national meeting in Cleveland, Ohio, at the same convention the Iowa Junior State Association clubs won three second prizes for entry of Scrap book, making state flowers, wild roses, and for a painting of the National meeting of the NACG.

Two years later at the national convention in Texas in 1937 two other local girls were elected to national offices. They were the former Ada Graham, national corresponding secretary and George Edmonds, national music director, and son of the late Mrs. Lillian Edmonds, former director of Willkie House.

When these last two served office, the IACG was under the leadership of Mrs. Mary Hardaway (1936-1938). Shortly after that the activity of the state organization lapsed and did not revive until this past spring when Mrs. North was again asked by the IACW to take over the girls. She agreed. And once again, in her first year, actually after a few months, she had so groomed her girls and their chosen delegate, Miss Barbara Garrett, that she was elected to a national office.

Another young Iowa lady who has distinguished herself under the sponsorship of another organization is Maxine Baker, 17-year-old Sioux City high school student, who won the Iowa Hawk-eye Lodge Elks oratorical contest in Des Moines last April 28. Last month she won a $1,000 first prize in the regional Elks oratorical contest which was held at Stowe College, in St. Louis, Mo. This made her eligible to enter the national contest.

A week from Saturday (Aug. 23) after traveling to Philadelphia, Penna., site for the national competition, she will pit her skill against other regional and international winners. The event is being sponsored by the Protective Order of Elks of the World.

I don't know whether you got the impression from the "Youth of the Week" articles, or not, but the two young ladies we had as guests are just like ordinary wholesome nice ladies that we know in our city, although they are from some large places like New York City and Talladega, Ala. Youths themselves are noted for their frankness and almost embarrassing honesty, and I heard local youth expressing the same things about their not being stuck up or anything.

Our guest this week, Miss Gwen Peoples has a brother in the air force stationed at Offutt base in Omaha, Nebr. And although she was here for over six weeks, she was not unable to get to see him as she had planned.

Memphis, Tenn.,—Thousands of people crowded Boulevard Christian church and lined Mississippi Boulevard last Friday during final rites for Dr. J. E. Walker, banker and insurance magnate. Dr. Walker was shot July 28 by a mentally de-

LEARNING MORE ABOUT IOWA

Iowa boasts several vacation spots and much scenery which make excellent places to visit from time to time. There are the natural lakes in the northwest, several man-made lakes in many counties, caves, the Mississippi and Missouri rivers with all their beauty, the picturesque grotto, in Kossouth County, the Troppist Monastery in Dubuque County offer visits that one seldom forgets.

A few years ago, the Dilettante Club of Des Moines sponsored a bus trip to northeast Iowa where the caves at Decorah, the natural scenery down the Mississippi and a stop over at the Troppist Monastery in Dubuque County made up the itinerary. This year, the club sponsored a bus trip to the Grotto in Kossouth County.

Both outings provided excellent entertainment, as well as factual information as to what Iowa has to offer the vacationer and the sight-seer.

These projects were well worth the effort, for many people found that Iowa is more beautiful and picturesque than they thought.

NEIGHBORS BECOME PANICKY TOO QUICK

Recently, a Negro family bought a home in East Des Moines in a block where whites only lived. Within ten days a dozen "for sale" signs appeared in the block indicating those owners want to move.

This Negro family has a well-kept house, both husband and wife are employed, have maintained good reputations in the community.

And yet this attempted wholesale exodus makes it plain that those people don't wish to live by these new neighbors.

On the other hand, instances may be cited when professional white gamblers or criminals move in a neighborhood, they are tolerated without consternation and are known to these neighbors "as businessmen". Of course, a party should live where he chooses, but it is manifestly an injustice that people should consider every Negro family undesirable.

A family which measures up to the standards of a good neighbor should not be run from because of the color of the skin.

Maybe some of these people hope to make a grand sale to those disposed by the freeway.

THE CIVIL WAR CAMPAIGN GOES ON

For years, it has been the practice of most authors who write Civil War history to tell everything bad about the terrible carpetbaggers and about the terrible carpetbagger and everything good about the Southern armies.

Pick up the average history or political science text book used in the schools today and this same pattern prevails.

On the other hand, few of these histories or text books tell about the thousands of teachers who came down from the North and practically took over the job of educating the recently freed slaves.

Last Sunday George A. Hanrahan reviewed one of these new books on the Civil War in the Des Moines Register. Of "Death of a Nation" by Clifford Dowdey, he said:

"Gettysburg has been well documented in scores of books. However, Clifford Dowdey has managed to put together an interesting story, chiefly by trying to probe into the minds of the Southern generals involved.

"And he finds that most of them, even General Lee, must bear some of the blame for the defeat.

"One fault that may be found with Dowdey's book. The Rebels were always the gentlemanly 'good guys'; the Yanks the 'bad guys' who looted Southern homes."

Hats off to George Hanrahan! This book, of course, runs true to form and is a part of the campaign being waged against the Negro by anti-segregationists and those who have never quit fighting the Civil War.

BY ALLEN ASHBY

There have been no predictions as to the outcome of the heavyweight title bout between Champion Floyd Patterson and the guy from that Bad town in Texas. Maybe the experts don't want to go out on a limb and then maybe everybody who has seen Harris work out realize that he doesn't have a chance with Patterson. The writers can't say that in so many words but sometimes they imply it. We have to hold up our judgement on Patterson until we see how he reacts to trouble. Sports writer after sports writer painted Joe Louis as having a glare and unable to take a punch. But nobody ever really knocked Joe out when he was in his prime. Max Schmeling wore him out and then knocked him out through exhaustion. Then the big fellow was staggered and even floored a few times but when he came back his opponent was in trouble. We would like to see Patterson in trouble before we pass our judgement on him as one of the greatest. About the fight Monday? Our guess is Patterson.

Softball

The Hotentots always manage to find some way to lose at the state softball tournament in Boone. The latest was about tops in zanyness. The score was nothing to nothing. Boone got a couple of runners on base. Then the next man hit a long fly that the Tots' outfielder caught after a great try. Well, the runner on second tagged up, they think and went to third. The runner on first stayed there. The batter who hit the long fly kept on going, passing his teammate on first and going into second. The Hotentots without thinking played for the man going to second and the guy on third scored the only run of the game. We don't know if the umpire should have allowed the play, but we do question the wisdom of the Tots who played for the man going to second with a runner on third. And Bud Colloer pitched a beautiful game. Boy, was he mad.

Tennis

Just about everyone who could find time got into the city playground meet. There were so many we can't get them all this time.

Baseball Week in D. M. Aug. 19-30

Mayor Charles Des released a statement designating Baseball week in Des Moines to be observed Aug. 19 through Aug. 30.

During this time double headers will be held every night, with the initial game between the Des Moines Dodgers and another Western league team and the second game between inter-city teams. Whole families are urged to attend. Children under 12 will be admitted free.

Among special events planned will be a drawing Aug. 30 at Pioneer Stadium for a round trip to Chicago for two, including train fare, one night in a hotel and two tickets to the Chicago Cubs ballgame. People may register at the ball park or places where tickets are on sale. Purchase of a ticket to a ball game is not necessary.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Warning to Popeye

Dear Popeye, Before the word gets around to your enemies, we want to warn you that spinach is not the best source of iron to make you strong. Next time you're in a tight spot, try potatoes, squash or carrots.

One of our earliest memories is the sound of Mother's voice saying, "Eat your spinach, dear. It's full of iron." It tasted like iron, too—gritty iron fillings. We resisted valiantly, until we saw our first Popeye cartoon. The miracles performed by our hero convinced us. We ate our spinach.

Source of Iron

And now science tells us that spinach is not better a source of iron than many other foods. The disillusion is almost more than we can bear. By now we've learned to like the stuff. When properly cleaned, cooked, and dressed up with cheese sauce, it's a very tasty dish.

Low Calorie Content

If that horrid Bluto had only known! While Popeye was consuming a can of spinach, he could have eaten a bunch of carrots, a helping of squash, or a pile of mashed potatoes. He would have been able to outpoint Popeye—at least in iron. As a matter of fact, if Popeye switches to carrots, the bloated Bluto might well take up spinach. Even if it isn't a miracle food, it is a fine dish for dieters. It's a filling food with a low calorie content.

Balanced Diet

Nutrition experts may have changed their minds about spinach, but the lesson all children learn from Popeye still holds good. The importance of what we eat can't be overestimated. Good nutrition helps protect us from tuberculosis and other diseases. Young or old, we need a balanced diet for a long and healthy life.

Baltimore's Bob Boyd Promised Wife Mink Stole If He'd Hit .310 This Season—

Baltimore.—Bob Boyd, the spray-hitting first baseman for the Baltimore Orioles, promised his wife a mink stole if he hit .310 this season. A month ago, Mrs. Boyd didn't figure her chances for reaping the prize fur piece very good.

But right now, she must be smiling. Against the Chicago White Sox recently her husband passed the .310 mark when he collected two hits in four trips. But that's only part of the story.

Red Hot Hitter

In the last month, Boyd was one of the hottest hitters in the majors. He started his surge June 24 in Detroit. In the next 27 games, he hit safely in 24 (46-for-115) for a 400 average. Before he embarked on the spree Boyd was batting an anemic .179.

Not only was he getting his base hits in his drive above the coveted .300 level. Bob was delivering when it counted—when a base hit meant a key to a ball game.

He whacked an eighth inning home run off Herb Mofford to give the Orioles a 2-1 victory. Against the Cleveland Indians, he lashed a triple in the 10th inning, which eventually led to the tie-breaking run in a 3-2 victory.

Boyd has earned a reputation for hitting line drives. But he can generate power at the plate on occasion. In Detroit, as he started on his hitting spurge, he walloped a home run high in the second deck at Briggs Stadium.

Joe Brown Named Fighter of the Month

New York.—Lightweight champion Joe Brown was named "fighter of the month" in the Ring magazine ratings because of the heroic closing rally that kept his title in last week's sensational fight with southpaw Kenny Lane at Houston, Texas.

The ratings also designated Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., undisputed top contender among heavyweights, and boosted Gaspar Ortega of Mexico and Leo Espinosa of the Philippines into the number one posts among welterweight and bantamweight aspirants, respectively.

In the lightweight division, Lane of Muskegon, Mich., kept his number two spot among contenders despite his close defeat by champion Brown. Dullio Loi of Italy is still

DEAR EDITOR:

We, the officers and members of Valley Golf Club, Des Moines, Iowa, are requesting that you have your sports writer, Allen Ashby, retract the article written about our club in the July 17 issue of the Bystander. In that article, Mr. Ashby made some very untrue remarks about our Club. This makes the second time Mr. Ashby has attacked our Club through the Bystander.

Attached hereto you will find that we have listed the true facts about our Club that we would like Mr. Ashby to print. Also, we want him to admit his error and apologize to the Valley Golf Club in the Bystander for the false statements he made about our Club.

Mr. Ashby stated in his article that we, the Valley Golf Club, had done nothing about integration. That is not true. Valley Golf Club was integrated in 1954 and since then, we have had four open tournaments held on or near Memorial Day and all won by white golfers.

1955—Harlan Benshoff, Des Moines
1956—Sarge Fontanini, Des Moines
1957—Sarge Fontanini, Des Moines
1958—Larry Ramsey, Des Moines

Mr. Ashby stated that we have done nothing because we were afraid of a little work.

We have our Memorial Day Tournament each year. It is a two day affair held at Woodside Golf Course. The same integrated Tournament in which I previously mentioned the winners. We give away close to $300.00 in merchandise prizes and low medalist Trophies each year.

Some of our members play in all the various open Tournaments in the City of Des Moines such as the City Tournament, the Fort Des Moines Tournament, the Herman Sani, the Ankeny Monthly Tournament, the Woodside Tournament and all others where their time and job permits them to participate.

Cleo Johnson has won prizes in both the City and Herman Sani Tournaments. Attorney Oscar Jones and John Estes, Sr. have won prizes in both the City and Fort Des Moines Tournaments. Cleo Johnson and Oscar Jones have teamed up ranked number one. Among the heavies, Folley broke out of a top tie with Eddie Machen of San Francisco because of last week's easy knockout victory over Pete Rademacher at Los Angeles. Machen dropped to second place.
