Ark. Children Refusing Scholarships To Wait For School Reopening

Little Rock, Ark. (CNS)—Mrs. Daisy Bates and her gallant little band are all standing fast despite the fact that the six Negro children remaining have been offered all kinds of scholarships from all over the world.

"All of them," commented Mrs. Bates, "preferred to wait for the reopening of Central High."

She herself with her husband has had to take watch over their home which has been stoned upon many times during the last few weeks. "Together with my husband, I've stood watch with a gun... We've had to take shifts guarding our home."

The last time vandals came up they sent over a note: "Rocks this time, but dynamite the next." Of course, police complain that they can't keep a man there all the time.

5th Annual Pancake Day Will Benefit Retarded Children

Plans are completed for the fifth Annual Pancake Day, sponsored by the Northwest and Highland Park Kiwanis Clubs, Saturday, Nov. 1, at the Veteran's Memorial Auditorium, from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Pancakes, sausage and coffee, all you can eat for $1.00.

Tickets are now being sold by the various members of the Kiwanis club, headed by Vern Helfenstein as chairman. Will Dube is general chairman. Don Satron, is chairman of the Festival of the Highland Park.

Announce Recruitment of Xmas Postal Help

The Iowa state employment service and the Des Moines post-office announced Saturday that extra postal employees for the holiday rush season will be recruited by the employment service.

Between 600 and 800 extra employees probably will be needed for the holidays, postal officials said. Applicants must be at least 18 years old. Veterans and unemployed persons will be given preference, they said.

NEWS In A Nutshell

San Francisco.—Mrs. Herbert Henderson is not only demanding $1500-a-month alimony and child support but succeeded in last week's hearing in persuading the court to make her doctor husband pay her $150 per month "walking around money" plus $500 lawyers fees while the divorce is pending. The couple have two children, Herbert Lewis, two years old, and 18-year-old Eddie Jackson, Mrs. Henderson's son by a former marriage, who the doctor adopted last year.

Oakland.—Attorneys for 9-year-old LeRoy Johnson, Jr., of Oakland, who was arrested, and later freed, for a theft involving one dollar, have levelled a $100,000 suit against Alameda County Chief Probation Officer Lorenzo S. Buckley, Deputy Probation officer A. C. Smith, and M. W. Tuell, from whose son the dollar was stolen. While being held, without right of counsel, Johnson was slugged by an older boy, and suffered a broken jaw.

Houston.—Mrs. Charles E. White, 42, is the first Negro candidate for the Houston School Board in the November race. Mrs. White, an experienced teacher, public worker and wife of an optometrist, says Negroes, with one-fourth of the school children in Houston, should have representation on the 7-member board.

New Orleans.—The South's largest all-Negro union, Local 1419, International Longshoremen's Association, Independent, has begun work on a $500,000 union hall and office building. The building will occupy an entire block and a total of 20,000 square feet.

Atlanta, Ga.—Dr. Clarence A. Bacote, one of the first two Negroes in history to be elected to serve on the Fulton County Democratic Executive committee, is the brother of Mrs. Lucille Bacote Blair, Los Angeles pianist and music teacher. They are originally from Kansas City, Mo., where their father, Dr. Samuel W. Bacote, was pastor of Second Baptist church for more than 50 years.

The younger Dr. Bacote defeated the white incumbent in the Third Ward, where Negro registered voters outnumbered whites 10,504 to 8,071. The other Negro elected was Atty. J. C. Daugherty.

Eleanor Roosevelt Will be UN Day Speaker Here Oct. 21

Eleanor Roosevelt, internationally known writer, speaker and wife of former president, Franklin D. Roosevelt, will be guest speaker at a United Nations dinner here at 7 p.m., Oct. 21 at Younkers tearoom. Admission is $5 per plate which also carries membership in the A.A.U.N., and will be given in honor of new members in the organization, and is being sponsored by the Governor's committee for the United Nations and United Nations Leaders of Iowa.

In the afternoon preceding the speech Mrs. Roosevelt and the UN group will be honored at an invitational reception and tea from 3:30 to 5 p.m. at the Governor's mansion, 2900 Grand Avenue.

At 8 p.m. she will make a public speech on the statehouse grounds. An informal coffee will follow.

Dr. Martin L. King Leaves N.Y. Hospital

New York.—The Rev. Martin Luther King, leader of the Montgomery (Ala.) bus boycott, checked out of Harlem hospital Friday amid the cheers of hospital workers and a crowd of 500 gathered outside.

The Rev. Mr. King, 29-year-old Baptist minister, was recovering from a chest stab wound inflicted Sept. 20 by a crazed woman in a Harlem department store. He said he would remain in the metropolitan area for about three weeks.

Hospital officials said Dr. King will spend the next three weeks of convalescence at an undisclosed place "within one hour of the hospital," but they added that they did not think he would have to return for treatment before the end of that period.

Scotch Rumors of Youth March Cancellation--65 N.Y. Buses Pledged to Make Trip

New York.—A recent report that the Youth March for Integrated Schools would be called off was declared yesterday to be without basis.

"I wish to state categorically that these reports are totally false," declared A. Philip Randolph, a chairman of the March in a special statement read to the Steering Committee. "The March will be held on schedule on Saturday, Oct. 25."

"Jackie Robinson, who will lead the March, joins me in sincerely urging that the people of our community, Negro and white, do all possible to have their children meet us in Washington on Oct. 25."

Great Headway
"We have a duty to encourage young people to add their weight to the great struggle for integrated schools. We are making great headway in enlisting support from white youth and their parents which is a demonstration of the fact that Negro youth and their parents in this crisis are not marching down the path to freedom alone. I am extremely pleased with the enthusiastic response from every segment of the community."

"The enthusiasm of the young people has communicated itself to the adults and it is sweeping through communities beyond the Eastern seaboard to cities in the middle west," the Committee states.

Little Rock Attorney Says Reporters Took Statements Out-of-Context in Speech

Little Rock, Ark.—Following his return to Little Rock Attorney Wiley Branton, NAACP integration lawyer, denied reported statements in which he allegedly claimed in a West Virginia speech, that the Faubus administration offered him a bribe to intervene in the integration controversy.

Branton told a press association in Little Rock "someone has apparently taken some statements out of context. I have not received any offers for any deal from the Faubus administration or from Attorney General Bruce Bennett, whatsoever, though certain offers have been made to me by other parties."

Charleston, W. Va.—Wiley A. Branton, Little Rock integration lawyer who has featured in the NAACP school struggle, disclosed Sunday how he was offered the chance to become the first Negro assistant attorney general in Arkansas history by the Faubus administration, in exchange for intervention to a cessation of integration battles.

Local NAACP Sets Renewal Campaign

In compliance with the national NAACP request, the Des Moines branch began a two week membership renewal campaign Tuesday, Oct. 14 which will continue through Oct. 28. Chairman of the drive will be Mrs. Guy E. Greene.

The National office of the NAACP sent letters to thousands of local branches in an effort to gain additional financial support of its budget which has been heavily dipped into by the organization's financing of integration cases in the South.

Supreme Court Refuses to Review Injunction Against Gov. Faubus

Washington, D. C.—The U. S. Supreme Court Monday refused to review an injunction issued against Gov. Orval Faubus by a lower court in the integration struggle... and in effect let the lower court order stand.

The injunction, issued by U. S. District Judge Ronald E. Davies, halted Faubus' use of national

He blamed most of the trouble in Arkansas as stemming from one man, Governor Faubus.

In his speech the Arkansas NAACP counselor also hit at "an unholy alliance" which he said exists between some Northern politicians and businessmen, and Southern segregationists.

"The same people who're against foreign aid and federal aid to education and support of right-to-work laws also want segregation in the South," he added.

Who's Who in Iowa

Byron Hayter, 44, Works as Shipping and Receiving Clerk At Meredith Publishing Co.

This is the 35th in a series of articles featuring Negro firsts, leaders and outstanding personalities in Iowa who are excelling in civic, professional, business, religious, educational, fraternal and entertainment fields.)

By Mrs. Frances Hawthorne

Byron Hayter, 44, 1155 W. 13th St. doesn't believe in resigning to the age old rumor, "They don't hire colored there." He had been washing windows at Meredith Publishing company for four years and had taken particular notice of the fact employees of the majority race had been hired and promoted, but never members of his own race who mere mostly janitors and caretakers and several night watchmen.

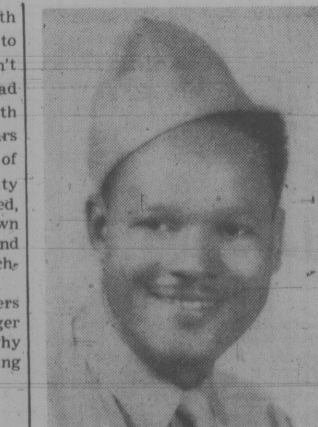

So one day he and three others went to see the personnel manager (two years ago) and asked why Negroes "were not given anything better at the company."

Personnel Manager

The personnel manager returned a straightforward answer: No Negroes had applied for anything else nor asked for promotions after employment. He admitted frankly he had no reason for not advancing them.

Two weeks later Mr. Hayter was called in for a personal interview. He got the job of shipping and receiving clerk.

He is the only Negro not only in his department, but in the entire plant with a responsible job.

BYRON HAYTER

Pressman's Union

Mr. Hayter recalled rumors he would not be accepted in the Pressman's union which members of his department must belong to.

"I had no trouble at all," he stated. "After the usual 30 day trial period, I was contacted the next day informing me I had been admitted."

Indicted on Charges of $170,000 Shortage

Philadelphia.—A grand jury returned an indictment in absentia here Oct. 3 against Bishop D. Ward Nichols, former head of the First Episcopal district of the African Methodist church, on charges of fraudulent conversion and embezzlement loss of $170,000.

The indictment was returned at ter a hearing of 10 ministers and lay officials of the Philadelphia Conference which charged that the money disappeared from three different accounts maintained at the Broad Street Trust Co. from 1948 until April 31, 1956, the period during which Bishop Nichols headed the AME district.

Bishop Denies Charges

The charges were denied by the Bishop through his attorney here in this city, Samuel Dash, who said that his client would be back in Philadelphia to defend himself next month.

The Bishop has been on a tour of Japan and Europe for the past few weeks with Mrs. Nichols, and at

HAILSTONES... BASEBALL SIZE

Westley Burrell of Ankeny displays a handful of baseball sized hailstones which he picked up following a severe storm in the little community seven miles north of Des Moines last Wednesday, Oct. 8. The huge chunks of ice ripped through roofs, shattered thousands of window panes, dented cars... leaving behind hardly a building undamaged. Ankeny Elementary School which had all its windows broken on the north side, was closed all day Thursday, after sustaining damage of $3,500. Photo Courtesy of Des Moines Register.

Integration Kaleidoscope

Dallas, Tex.—Thirteen public schools have been closed and about 16,000 students idled in the South's "last-ditch" fight against integration of the races in schools supported by public funds.

The idle schools and students are all in Arkansas and Virginia. But other southern states are standing by with legislative and administrative powers also to close down their schools either on a local or even a statewide basis.

Four of these states—North Carolina, Alabama, Louisiana, and Mississippi—have passed such laws since 1954 segregation edict of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Two states—South Carolina and Georgia—have been ready since before 1954, in anticipation of the decision. Two other states—Florida and Texas—provide for the closing of schools that are policed by federal forces trying to enforce federal court integration orders.

tended a religious conference in Japan.)

On Saturday the witnesses were taken before the grand jury by Assistant District Atty. Charles L. Durham, and Judge Curtis Book later approved a petition to authorize the indictments in the absence of the accused.

Richmond, Va. (CNS)—Virginia's Governor Lindsay Almond is saying "it will be perfectly fine with me" if the NAACP names him as a defendant in its motion to reopen Norfolk's six integration-closed schools.

Attorneys for the 17 Negro pupils withdrew their motion to reopen the schools when Federal Judge Walter E. Hoffman told them he would have to dismiss it because the proper

SEE IN STARS

WITH DELORES CALVIN

New York, (CNS)—RACE FILMS GETTING THE NOD ALL OVER: With the school crisis still at the top of the news, race films are cashing in by getting the nod all over. And they are good box office draws, too.

In Washington, D. C., the Sidney Poitier-Tony Curtis flicker "The Defiant Ones" got off to a flying start. Billed as "One of the Great Ones", this taut, dramatic film of two convicts on white and one Negro who have to stick together because they are chained together, was hailed by reviewers in Washington. It's drawing crowds there just as in New York, Chicago and elsewhere.

Dorothy Dandridge

Dorothy Dandridge's new film, "The Decks Ran Red" is called an unusual film and she has top billing along with Broderick Crawford and James Mason. The picture is a good mystery—so it is drawing in, including the race angle. It's doing good business in Philadelphia and other major cities. Negro news-papers are even getting good advertising copy on it—very smart as it plays up Miss Dandridge over other stars. Both of these films are being rushed in every major area.

as sympathy and interest goes with the Negro—so much so that if the picture is good, it has good box-office.

It's been a long time we could claim credit for several pictures rotating at the same time. But then times have changed. And let's hope it stays that way.

Sammy Davis Jr.

On television, it's the same story. Sammy Davis, Jr. outdid himself and proved that he was as fine a dramatic actor in the same vein as Sinatra. Sammy may have opened a new door for himself and his friends will certainly back him up in the industry. Of course in passing we must mention his co-star—the kid who insisted he was his "Poppa" for his talent is sure to take him a long way.

Harry Belafonte

Harry Belafonte came home from Europe this week—to a problem. With all of his money and talent, he and his wife couldn't find a class apartment in downtown Manhattan. They'd been living in a two

JONAH JONES QUARTET TO BE FEATURED ON ASTAIRE TV DEBUT

Jonah Jones will be featured with his Quartet on the Fred Astaire Show, "An Evening with Fred Astaire," to be presented "live" from Hollywood on NBC-TV Friday, Oct. 17, at 9 P.M. (EDT). Chrysler Corporation is sponsor for the hour-long Special marking Astaire's dancing debut as star of his own TV show.

The Jonah Jones Quartet, top musical recording group, includes George Foster, drummer; Teddy Brennan, pianist; and John Brown, bass. Noted for his trumpet style, Jones has played with a number of "name" bands. He has received honors from jazz publications.

Miss Barrie Chase will be introduced as Astaire's dancing partner on the show. David Rose and his Orchestra will also be featured.

Pope Pius Abhorred Racism, Tobias Says

New York, (Pope Pius XII) "abhorred racism and rebuked the advocates of racial discrimination and segregation in any country," Dr. Channing H. Tobias, chairman of the Board of Directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said here Thursday in a statement mourning the passing of the Pope.

The full text of Dr. Tobias' statement said: "When I was a member of the United States delegation to the United Nations in 1951, my wife and I lived in a rooming house in the seventies, but the bigger family—with their youngsters plus so many personal collections from Europe and America—demanded bigger quarters."

Harry tells the story very quietly but cuttingly. He's insisting on going in a place with no subterfuge. Even buying an apartment building is giving him difficulties. Owners offer one for sale for $35,000 to his wife, who is white, but to Harry it's $70,000. After all his preaching about justice in America, he's just wondering how liberal is the biggest city in America.

Extradition Hearing Held for Man Accused of Fla. Murder

New York, (Frank Peterson, accused of the double axe murder of a Florida farmer and his two-year-old daughter, today awaited a ruling by Governor Averell Harriman on his plea for denial of extradition to Florida to stand trial. A hearing on the Florida extradition request was held before Daniel Gutman, counsel to Gov. Harriman, at the State Office Building here on Oct. 15.

Peterson who is being held in the Erie County jail in Buffalo was represented at the hearing by NAACP attorneys William Sims, president of the NAACP Buffalo branch, and Jeff Greenup and William J. Lake, members of the New York State NAACP legal redress committee. Florida sent up a delegation of half-a-dozen lawyers and law enforcement officers headed by the state's assistant attorney general, Odys M. Henderson and including Sheriff Cletus Andrews of Holmes County of which Bonifay is the county seat.

Crime Report

The Floridians sought the return of Peterson who has been indicted for a crime committed at Bonifay, Fla., between midnight and dawn of June 11. Ira Gene Carnley and a two-year-old daughter were killed. Mrs. Carnley was beaten and allegedly raped. Two other of their small children were also beaten. When word of the crime got out in the community, a mob gathered and there was talk of a lynching. Mrs. Carnley is reported to have described her assailant as a "light-skinned red-headed Negro with a mustache." Peterson does not answer that description. Later Sheriff Andrews is reported to have expressed the opinion that the crime and I went to Rome for the Christmas holidays. We were received by Pope Pius XII in a private hearing. We found him most gracious and pleasing in manner, recognizing that we were Protestants, thus showing his breadth of spirit. Our conference was facilitated by his easy command of the English language.

His understanding of our racial problem in this country was remarkable. He was sympathetic with our struggle for equality of citizenship. His public utterances indicated that he recognized no color line in humanity. He abhorred racism and rebuked the advocates of racial discrimination and segregation in any country. Non-Catholics, as well as Catholics have sustained a grievous loss and join in mourning his passing. We pray that his successor may be possessed of similar qualities.

How many telephone calls will Iowans make today?

ANSWER: About 3,150,000. Some people are talking business; many are making social plans; others are talking just for the fun of it. No doubt a few are calling the doctor or the fire department or the police.

In any case, isn't it good to know that your telephone service is the most dependable in the world—at the lowest possible rates. Northwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Plan Harvest Night Services Oct. 23

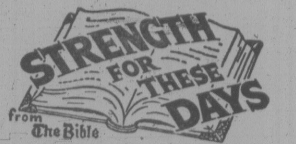

Harvest Night, sponsored by the East Side Union Mission Society will be held at 7:30 p.m., Oct. 23 at the Christ Holy Sanctified Church, with the Rev. H. R. Fields of Mt. Olive Baptist church as guest speaker. He will be assisted by the Mt. Olive choir.

Rites Held Wednesday For Mrs. G. Johnson

Funeral rites for Mrs. Georgia M. Johnson, 85, of 1414 Carpenter Avenue, were held at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 15 at the Hammitt-Robinson Funeral chapel with burial in Glendale Cemetery. She died of cancer Sunday in her home following a one-year illness.

Born in Nashville, Tenn., she had been a resident of Des Moines 45 years and was a member of Burns Methodist church.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Lulu Jenkins, of Nashville.

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help... My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.—(Psalm 121:1, 2.)

What a glorious, uplifting feeling it is to look out upon another new day and realize that Almighty God, who made the shining sun to rise and stay true on its course, also is Our Father—merciful, loving each of us, His children, ever willing to forgive us our sins, to help and sustain us.

OVER 100,000 NEGROES REGISTERED IN BALTIMORE

Baltimore.—As a result of an intensive drive by the Baltimore branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, a total of 101,771 Negroes in this city have registered to vote in the Nov. 4 election. Mrs. Lillie M. Jackson, president of the Baltimore NAACP, reported today.

Also, the leader of the NAACP in Baltimore said, a drive is under way to elect five other Negroes to serve with Senator Harry Cole in the Maryland State Legislature.

"When we started this drive a year ago," Mrs. Jackson said, "we set a goal of 100,000. We are more than happy that we have reached that goal and gone over it."

ANAMOSA TRIP

Several names were omitted from the stories of citizens attending a special program at Anamosa State Reformatory on Sept. 19. They are Mesdames Mercedes Smith, Lessie Williams, Mary Martin, Cecil Lewis and Ada Jefferson.

When you are looking for a good Halloween idea? Why not decorate your house with goblins, pumpkins, and skulls. Just beat soap or detergent and a little water to a meringue-like consistency. Then "paint" the skulls on the mirror, windows or door with fingers, brush or pastry tube.

The house will look appropriately festive for trick-or-treat visits and, best of all, the suds-decorations will wipe off with the sweep of a damp cloth, leaving the surface perfectly clean and unsmudged.

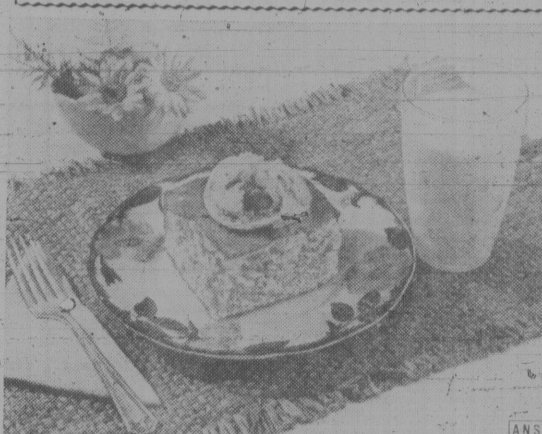

That's one way to "do" the fall cleaning. Besides, it's a good project especially for the younger set.

And now may we leave these parting words with you from an unknown author:

"The greater part of the courage that is needed in the world is not of an heroic kind. The common need is for courage to be honest, courage to resist temptation, courage to speak the truth, courage to be what we really are and not to pretend to be what we are not, courage to live honestly within our means and not dishonestly upon the means of others."

Now to turn to another forthcoming annual October event . . . Hal-

Bounty For The Bride

HAPPY THE BRIDE THE SUN SHINES ON—and to improve an old adage—happier still the bride who brings sunshine into her first and all-important attempts at meal planning.

Sugar Information, Inc. has developed a delicious Sunburst Cake recipe that's simple to make and as tasty as anything one could ask for. Although June has always been associated with weddings, it's also the time we celebrate National Dairy Month. So, in honor of the occasion we've topped this cake with ice cream. Ideal to serve at showers and parties as well as after a light summer snack, the Sunburst Cake, topped with a generous scoop of his favorite ice cream, is sure to make as big a hit with the man in your life on his fifth anniversary as it will the first time it is served to him.

SUNBURST CAKE

1/2 cup butter
1 cup sugar
3 egg yolks, beaten until very thick
2 cups sifted cake flour
Cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy; add egg yolks and blend thoroughly.
Sift together flour, baking powder and salt.
Add flour mixture alternately with milk to butter and sugar. Beat well.
Stir in orange juice and rind.

2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup milk
1/4 cup orange juice
rind of 1 orange

Pour into greased and floured 8x8x2 pan.
Bake in pre-heated (350° F.) oven for 55 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean.

Parents Can Help Prevent Warping Experience by Showing Children How to Meet Fears

UNDERSTANDING IOWA CHILDREN

SPONSORED BY THE IOWA CHILD WELFARE RESEARCH STATION

Written by Eleanore Luckey, SU Assistant Professor

A silver passenger plane sparkled on the runway. Steps had been rolled up to the rectangular hole of darkness leading to the monster's innards, the flight had been called, and waiting to board was a family of four—mother and a prim little innards, the ETTINSHRDLUCMFW girl of eight, father and a "rigged-out cowhand" of four.

As they approached the plane, the little boy clutching his father's hand suddenly pulled back and cried out, "Daddy, I'm afraid I'm afraid!"

Daddy could have pulled him on, told him he was a big boy and that cowhands aren't ever afraid of airplanes. Or he could have simply pointed out that it's silly to be afraid. But this daddy didn't.

He stopped, lifted the little guy to his shoulders and said, "Tom, just look at that plane. It looks like a beautiful, strong, powerful bird, doesn't it?"

Fisk Prexy, Football Team to Be Honored at Dillard Homecoming

New Orleans.—Both Fisk University's president and its football team will be honored guests of Dillard University here, for the Oct. 18 weekend when Dillard celebrates Homecoming and observes its Founders' Day.

The Dillard Blue Devils will meet the Fisk Bulldogs for the traditional homecoming gridiron contest on Oct. 18. The following day Dr. Stephen J. Wright, president of Fisk, will be the principal speaker at Founders' Day exercises.

The two schools are traditional football rivals and sister institutions related to the American Missionary Association.

Tom looked, nodded assent, and almost considered not being afraid, but then reiterated, "But I am afraid."

Dad held the boy securely and confided, "You know, Tom, I'm a little afraid, too. It's because we aren't used to flying like birds, I guess."

Tom was clearly puzzled. "You're afraid too, Daddy?"

Daddy didn't sound afraid. He didn't act afraid.

"Yes, Tom, inside me I feel a little afraid, but with my head I know there's no real reason to be afraid. When what my head knows and what I feel aren't the same thing, I know that the feeling must not be the right one. And then I'm not so afraid anymore and I don't act afraid. I just say to myself, even if you feel shaky there's nothing really to shake about, and then I just march right on in like this."

By this time they were entering the plane and Daddy put Tom down on his own two feet. Tom didn't even wait for Dad's hand. He ran up the aisle and found a seat by the window.

After the plane had roared off the ground and the trees and houses below became toy-like, Tom called out to his Dad, "I'm not afraid. It's fun." Tom had met what might have been a warping and fearful experience because he had for a dad a brave man who could admit he was afraid so that Tom, too, could learn to be brave.
