CAMERA-VIEW OF NAACP REGIONAL CONFERENCE IN DES MOINES

Some of the highlights of the NAACP Regional convention held April 24-25 in Des Moines were recorded by camera shots for posterity. In first picture (top left) Roy Wilkins (right), executive secretary of the NAACP, congratulates James Rhodes, 1959 chairman of the local branch's membership drive, on the efficient organization of the campaign. Looking on in smiling approval is Mrs. Clara Bayles, president of the Des Moines branch.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Dallas, Tex.—Dr. Caesar Clark, pastor of Good Street Baptist church, past president of the city's branch of the NAACP, editor of the National Baptist Voice, magazine for the N.B.C., is the first Negro to run for the Board of Education here.

Ann Arbor, Mich.—"Africans will not be content to live in mud huts when some nations are planning plots on the moon," the Hon. Tom Mboya of the Kenya said last week at the University of Michigan.

Norwich, Conn.—Stewart First Class Woodrow W. Jones, was a member of the crew on board the submarine Skate which recently returned from an arctic Scientific exploration voyage.

Chicago, Ill.—Appointment of a Negro, Alderman Kenneth Campbell, last week to the powerful Chicago city council committee on committees, is expected to have far reaching implications on redistricting.

Cincinnati, Ohio—Ducky Castelle of Schenectady, N. Y., has been elected captain of the Xavier university 1959-60 basketball team.

Los Angeles, Calif.—Since 1882, 4,735 people have been lynched in the United States. Of them, 3,440 were Negroes. Mississippi holds the record with 577. All but 40 were Negroes.

Los Angeles, Cal.—Atty. Paul Sweeney, son of a prominent New York minister, was convicted of two counts of furnishing narcotics to a prisoner and of bribing an officer. Facing prison terms of from one to 14 years pending appeal, Sweeney could be disbarred even if a higher court reverses the decision.

Robert L. Weeks Granted Divorce

Robert L. Weeks, of 1045 9th street was granted a divorce Thursday, Apr. 30 by District Judge Don L. Tidrick from Mrs. Muriel J. Weeks, now of Baltimore, Md. Weeks, a Register and Tribune printer, accused his wife of cruel and inhuman treatment. Mrs. Weeks

4 Men Assault Florida A.&M. Coed as Mob Rule Threatens Southern States

Tallahassee, Fla.—Hardly had the news of kidnapping and suspected lynching of Mack Parker died in Mississippi, when four men seized a Florida A.&M. coed and criminally assaulted her, thus threatening to instigate mob rule in the southern states.

Shortly after the abduction, the young student was found hysterical in the car of her attackers, who later signed statements confessing rape and kidnapping. The coed was being treated for shock at a hospital on the campus where medical authorities confirmed her story.

Near Campus
According to the girl, two Negro couples were parked in a car near the campus about 1:30 p.m. Saturday when four white men drove up, pointed a shotgun at them, and ordered the girls to get into their car. One of the girls broke away, and succeeded in escaping.

Forced into Car
The other girl was forced into the car of her abductors and they drove to a nearby woods and all four proceeded to assault her. The two young Negro men called local police officers who came upon the car a short time later.

All four were from Tallahassee, ranging in ages from 16 to 24.

7-State Housing Conference Held In Chicago Tuesday

Chicago, Ill.—Members from seven-state advisory committees to the Commission on Civil Rights attended a housing conference here Tuesday and Wednesday morning.

Among special officials attending were Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, Father Theodore M. Hesburgh and Commissioner John S. Battle. States represented were Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, and Wisconsin.

was awarded custody of the couple's four children, Robert, 9, Lynn, 7, Vicki, 6, and Michael, 4. She was also awarded $40 a week child support and the household furnishings. The couple was married on Mar. 11, 1949. A cross-petition by Mrs. Weeks was dismissed.

Popularville, Miss.—After a week-long intensive search by F.B.I. agents and local law officers, a badly deteriorated, water bleached body was dragged from the Pearl River about 20 miles from here Monday and through fingerprints "was" positively identified as that of Mack Charles Parker, 23, abducted from jail by a masked mob April 25.

Since Parker was beaten and dragged from the jail here by a mob of eight to ten men, suspicion had been strong that he would not be found alive. That suspicion became fact Monday.

Coroner
A coroner's examination revealed two bullet wounds in the badly mutilated body and death was attributed to them.

Officers reported that when the body was dragged from the Mississippi side of the Pearl River, it was so badly deteriorated that it was

Life of Accused Negro Guarded in La.

Alexandria, La.—Ora Lee Rogers, 23-year-old Negro "accused of rape and murder, was being held for safe-keeping in what law officers claimed was a "mob-proof" jail.

Rogers, who was arrested Friday shortly after the slaying of 36-year-old white woman, Mrs. Lumley Guillory, 36, was locked in a jail cell on the seventh floor of the thick-walled courthouse here. Officers locked the ground floor door and armed deputies inside kept watch over the locked elevator—only way to get to the top seventh floor.

Who's Who in Iowa Mrs. Helen Wimberly, Polk Co. Probation Officer, Has Served Youths All Her Life

This is the 60th in a series of articles featuring Negro firsts, leaders and outstanding personalities in Iowa who are excelling in civic, professional, business, religious, educational, fraternal and entertainment fields.

By Mrs. Frances Hawthorne
Mrs. Helen Wimberly, probation officer at the Polk County Juvenile court, has been closely associated with children and young people most of her life in her professional career as well as in her home. Her varied career has included teaching, social casework, YWCA directing and she is currently serving her second appointment as probation officer.

Following graduation from the State University of Iowa in her hometown, Mrs. Wimberly did graduate work in education at Drake university and at her alma mater for three summers and completed her studies in social work at the University of Chicago.

First Job
However, her first employment was as academic director of the Piney Woods, school in Piney Woods, Miss., for a year before she left to teach social sciences at Douglas High School in Columbia, Mo. for four years.

Her initial appointment to the Polk county juvenile court came in 1933 after she came to Des Moines. For 10 years she served as probation officer and at the same time did voluntary work with the YWCA. Her interest in "Y" work prompted her to channel her abilities professionally in the field so she applied for a position in the East and decided on the Germantown branch of the Philadelphia, Penna. Three years she held the position of executive-director and set a record campaign for member-

Market Developers to Convene for Meeting In Chicago May 15-16

Detroit—The National Association of Market Developers is scheduled to hold its sixth annual marketing clinic and convention at Hotel Gotham, May 15-16, it has been announced by LeRoy Jeffries, NAMD president and Johnson Publishing Company vice-president, Chicago, Ill. On Friday, May 15, workshops will be devoted to the theme, "Market Potentials and Consumer Motivations." Featured speakers will be Dr. Frank Davis, director of research, Johnson Publishing Company, and Dr. H. Webster Johnson, professor of Marketing, Wayne University, Detroit. H. Naylor Fitzhugh, professor of Marketing, Howard University, and research associate, The Moss H. Kendrick Organization, Washington, D. C., will serve as moderator.

Old Door Becomes Table

AN OLD door may be converted into a sturdy play table for youngsters.

First select some old water or gas pipes that will serve as legs of the right height for the youngsters who will use the table. Fittings that screw on the door, at the corners, and into which the threaded end of the pipes will fit can be obtained at a hardware store. Similar fittings will protect the floor.

All hardware on the door should be removed.

Provide a smooth, splinter-free surface by attaching a panel of Masonite 1/4" tempered plywood with 1" brads. Protect the children's fingers further by applying strips of this material to all edges. By putting on the strips first, the top panel will cover the edges and make a neat job.

The legs may be painted, and the new table top likewise primed and painted or given three coats of waterproof varnish. With a table like this, children can have fun, indoors or out, for years, as the sturdy construction and durable surface will allow all sorts of rough treatment. As the children grow, the table can grow with them—simply by increasing the length of the pipe legs.

Hot Weather Canapes

Canapes, attractively arranged on a large plate or tray, are designed to delight the eye and whet the appetite. In hot weather, appetizers made with sardines, anchovies and other salty foods, besides being perfect accompaniments to long, cooling drinks, have the added advantage of replenishing the salt lost in the body. Here are some suggestions for simple, but delicious, hot weather canapes. For the base, use toasted bread squares, crackers or small rye slices.

ANCHOVIES: Cut around a redish, a stuffed olive or a ball of cream cheese.

ANCHOVY PASTE: Blend with cream cheese, season with chopped pickled onion, salted with sour cream and top with chopped parsley.

SARDINES: Place under thinly sliced cucumbers; garnish with an olive. Hold fast with a toothpick.

GUACAMOLE: Mix of any summer party when Avocado pears are reasonable. Four Avocado pears, peeled and mashed; add a peeled and chopped tomato. Add a teaspoon onion juice, dash of cayenne, salt and pepper and beat smooth with two tablespoons oil and one tablespoon vinegar. (To keep from darkening when made in advance, bury two pits in mixture.)

MERINGUE: Meringued. Chop, mix smooth and dilute with marinating sauce if necessary. Decorate with parsley.

Hard boiled halves of eggs, radish roses, scalloped lemon halves and bits of parsley add color to your canape tray.

The ideal refreshing beverage mates for these would be:

GINGER JACK: Combine 1/4 cup apple juice; slice of lime; two tablespoons simple syrup over ice in tall glass. Fill with pale dry ginger ale.

SHRIMP: A gin 'n' tonic favorite. Add Quinine (quinine water) and ice to 1 1/2 oz. sealed bottle golden gin. Garnish with lime or lemon slice.

COOLER: In a tall glass place 1 teaspoon lemon juice, 2 dashes angostura, and ice. Fill with club soda. Garnish with a slice of lemon or lime.

LEMONADE: Squeeze juice of 1 lime in a tall glass; sweeten to taste. Add crushed ice and water. Stir well; garnish with lime slices.

Are these facts about your home

TRUE or FALSE?

1 You put electricity to work in at least 25 different ways in your home. It's at your service at all hours, in every room.

TRUE FALSE

2 Your electric service takes less than 3% of your household budget—less than cigarettes in many families.

TRUE FALSE

3 Every single dollar in your electric bill buys twice as much of this helpful electricity today as it did 25 years ago.

TRUE FALSE

ANSWERS: All these statements are true for the average home. They are probably true for yours as well. Can you think of anything else besides electricity that gives you so much convenience, pleasure and value for your money?

Chi NAACP Backs Union In Non-Communist Denials

Chicago, Ill.—The United Packinghouse Workers of America, AFL-CIO, Monday made public a unique review of its history, philosophy and success in developing civil liberties and a militant economic program which have defeated all efforts at Communist infiltration.

Appearing just before the House Committee on Un-American Activities opens hearings in Chicago (May 5-7) at which a number of members of the union are being called to testify, the 11-page union statement declared, "is not dominated" by Communists or Communist sympathizers; its officers "are not Communists;" there are no Communists on the executive board, or "to the best of our knowledge, on our staff;" Communists "do not now have and will not gain positions of responsibility and trust in this union."

The UPWA, the statement pointed out, will continue, as it has been in the past, to be "an outspoken union, a militant union, a democratic union, a non-conformist union, a frequently controversial 'maverick' union, a union devoted to our American principles and traditions, a union proud of the enemies it has, or, it is of the vastly greater number of its friends—it has won."

The Chicago Branch, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People expressed by resolution its confidence in the integrity and loyalty of the incumbent officers and directors of the United Packinghouse Workers of America.

"The UPWA not only preaches adherence to human rights principles but practices them within its own organization. Three members of its International Board are Negro. One of its Vice Presidents is a Negro. Two of its District Directors, with jurisdiction over mid western and south western states, are Negro. All of its contracts with employers contain anti-discrimination clauses," branch president, Theodore A. Jones, stated.

Plan Your Cleaning Closet

from SMALL HOMES GUIDE

A closet engineered to fit your assortment of cleaning supplies and odds-and-ends will save you time, energy and temper. Properly planned, it need take up little space.

First, plan what you want to store in the closet: vacuum cleaner, pail, mops, brooms, ironing board, table linens, or whatever. Perhaps you will also want to use the closet for sports equipment such as fishing rods, golf clubs and guns.

Next, measure the tallest and widest item you want to store in the closet. Your vacuum cleaner will probably be the most awkward. That should fit in without any skew-hawing. Above it you can place a shelf to hold cleaning equipment—cloths, newspapers, paper bags and dust bag filters for the cleaner.

Shelves of special shapes like the L, U and the half-shelf might be the answer to how best to use the space available. The U-shaped shelves shown above hold small items; the center leaves space for tall bottles. Vertical dividers nailed below the lower shelf will keep everything in its place.

An important point is plan to store what is most frequently used at finger-tip length with no reaching and no stretching. Adequate ventilation at top and bottom is also a must, for safety reasons. Only mops and rags can be dangerous otherwise.

Finish the interior of the closet with a grease and dustproof finish. Gloss or semigloss paint, linoleum or oil cloth fill the order.

Youth Of The Week

This is the 38th in a series featuring youth, 13 to 21 years, in the community and in Iowa who are setting a good example in wholesome civic activities.

Our bouquet of commendations go to Miss Rhoda Miller, who is enthusiastically looking toward a career of teaching small children. The 19-year old lass with a very pleasing personality, known as "Ginger" to close friends, is a graduate of Des Moines Technical High school where she pursued the Clerical co-op area.

During her last year at Tech she worked on Co-op for the Des Moines School board in the office at May Goodrell Junior high. Rhoda says she "enjoyed it very much" as she is very much interested in children.

At Grand View

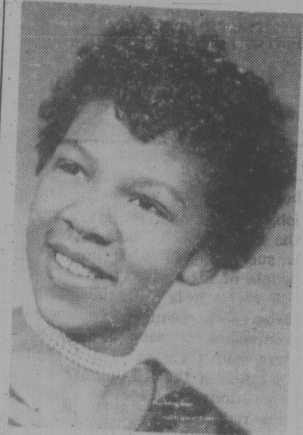

A sophomore at Grand View Junior college, she has entered into her student teaching phase of her education, and is teaching the third grade at Woodlawn elementary school.

"I find this task very rewarding and uplifting to me as a person and also as a future teacher," she smiled.

Following graduation at Grand View, she plans to enter Drake for further academic study toward a degree.

Church Work

At Union Baptist church where she is a member, Rhoda is the assistant superintendent of Sunday School, vice president of the Junior Usher board, member of the Willing Workers and the Junior Choir. She recently represented her church by participating in the annual St. Paul

RHODA MILLER

A.M.E. Usher board queen contest and won first prize, and was crowned "Miss Des Moines."

Social Club

Rhoda is active in social organizations in the community also. She is a member of the Pyramids, pledge club of Delta Sigma Theta sorority and the Les Bridges social club. In addition she is active in the Des Moines Federation of Young Negro Women's club under the supervision of Mrs. Gertrude North.

She is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Miller of 1349 Fremont street. She has a sister, Jennifer, 13, who attends Amos Hiatt junior high school.

been awaiting trial in the jail on a charge of criminally assaulting a pregnant woman in nearby Lumberton.

The incident elicited national protest from various organizations and leaders and has been the springboard for increasing international skepticism concerning U.S. race relations.

ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR NATIONAL YOUTH "TAG DAY" MAY 15

New York—NAACP Youth and College units will conduct a nationwide "Tag Day" May 15-17, it was announced here this week by Herbert L. Wright, youth secretary.

"Tag Day" will serve as a commemoration of the historic Supreme Court decision against public school segregation, May 17, 1954. Mr. Wright also announced that a $25,000 goal has been set for this effort. Monies will help finance the Association's Career Guidance and general work.

postoffice, Mrs. Wimberly worked as social worker with the Chicago Department of Welfare in the children's division.

Husband

Her husband retired three years later and they returned to Des Moines where he became supervisor of mails at the Iowa State Tax commission.

In 1957 Mrs. Wimberly's services were called upon again in Polk county and she resumed her former position as probation officer with the juvenile court—thus completing a professional circle in less than two decades.

Civic Activities

Equally active in civic and club affairs, Mrs. Wimberly was the second woman and the first Negro woman chairman of the Des Moines Interracial commission. A member of St. Paul A.M.E. church, she serves on the board of directors of the Woman's club and is president of the Altar Guild.

Active in social clubs, she is immediate past-president of the Iowa Association of Colored Women and is presently serving as public relations chairman, state organizer and chairman of the IACW club house project. In addition she is a member of the Parliamentary Law and Culture and Delta Sigma Theta sorority. A NAACP member for a number of years, she is currently publicity chairman of the Des Moines branch.

Family

Mrs. Wimberly has a son, William Beashears, Jr., a Los Angeles, Calif., postal clerk, by a former marriage. Two foster daughters graduated from high school while under the care of Mrs. Wimberly and her mother. They are Mrs. Ann Palmer Toney of Davenport, Iowa, and Mrs. Lola Ware of Los Angeles. Mrs. Lorraine Jackmer Mady of Chicago, Ill., lived with Mrs. Wimberly from fifth grade through her junior years, and graduated from high school at her home in Columbia, Mo.

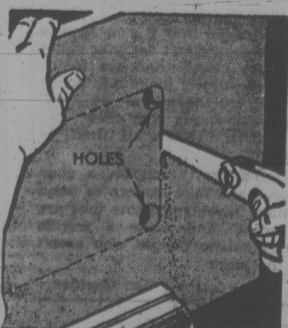

Hobbies

Despite her full schedule of home, community and professional activities, Mrs. Wimberly still finds time to devote to her hobbies of designing and making hats and formal. She likes to relax with detective and western stories and loves to cook and try out new recipes.

How to Cut Square Opening

TO CUT a square or rectangular opening with round corners in a piece of wood or similar board, holes of the proper radius should be drilled at the corners. Then you can saw straight down from one hole to the next. This will assure that the opening will be of the dimensions wanted and that the corners will have the correct radius. To cut a similar opening with square shoulders, use a similar technique, drilling small-diameter holes at the corners with their outer edges tangent to the sides of the rectangle. Proceed as above. Then square off the small arc in each corner with a file. — Illustration, courtesy of Popular Mechanics.

Mrs. Roosevelt: Mississippi Mob Similar to Hitler Tactics; Other Leaders Attack Deed

Washington—"I am sick at heart and ashamed that I belong to a race that can commit the same kind of cruelty that made us shudder when it came to the fore in Nazi Germany. We shudder when we hear of it today in Communist Russia and in Communist China. What has happened to us that we do not see in this kind of action the seeds that will bring destruction upon us all in the future?" These are the words of Eleanor Roosevelt and how she felt after reading of the Mack Parker lynching.

Not Shrugged Off

"We have not yet," she continued, "reached the point, Thank God, when mass murders of people in gas chambers are going on, but when a mob does not wait for the action of the law, then you are no longer a law-abiding nation."

"This occurrence in Mississippi was not something that could be shrugged off by the rest of the country by saying: 'Well, this is unfortunate but it did not happen in our community.' Nor can it be explained that it happened in a particular area where people are so conditioned by their past that their emotions have led them to forget their obligations as law-abiding citizens."

"This was something about which we all have some responsibility. If we in other parts of the country do not express our feelings of shock at such conduct, then we are as guilty as the men who actually were in the kidnapping group."

Self-Righteousness

"When you begin to allow yourself to override the law you do not know where it will end. When you begin to allow yourself a kind of self-righteous prejudice against another race or religion, you do not know

New York—In a telegram to the White House, dispatched on April 27, Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said, the NAACP "urges the government of the United States to exhibit as much concern over oppression in Mississippi, U.S.A., as it has over brutality and oppression in Hungary and Tibet. On many occasions," the NAACP leader reminded the President, "you have stressed the necessity for obedience to law. The Poplarville crime is evidence that your eloquent statements of principle will be flouted unless supported by strong civil rights legislation in Congress and is clear indication that your personal leadership is required in efforts to safeguard the very lives of citizens in every village of our country."

New York City—"If a strong bill is not passed in the present session of Congress, America will lose her soul—lost the respect of the world," stated Rev. Luther Martin King who spoke forcefully at two Harlem rallies this week in an effort to lead the people in the right direction after the disturbing news of the Mack Parker lynching had gotten the people up in arms.

What the end may be, and in the end you may suffer as did those who sowed the seeds of World War II.

"There is nothing that concerns only the people of one section of our country. This unspeakable behavior in Mississippi concerns all of us. And if we feel strongly enough no one will dare defy a real moral reaction over what happens to our own citizens who may be of another race and color but who are American citizens and entitled to equal justice before the law."

THE folding screen in the illustration is made of Masonite Tempered Preswood over frameworks of lumber. Side frame pieces, bottoms and braces are 1 by 2-inch lumber, respectively 57 1/4" and 12 1/2" long.

The top piece can be cut to shape. Before assembling the framework, with a scroll or jig saw, cut square 1/4" vent slots in the center braces and bottoms to prevent warping.

ing caused by changes in humidity. After the lumber is cut, check the lengths to make sure there is no variation. Nail and glue the frames together, checking to see that all parts are square.

Then lay the frames on the Tempered 1/4" Preswood and trace the outline. Cut the Preswood slightly larger than the outlines so that it can be trimmed to exact size when the units are completed. Glue and brad the panels to the frames. When the glue has set thoroughly, trim the panels to size with a plane and file.

Hinge the finished panels with double-acting hinges or leather straps if you cannot obtain metal ones. Decorate the panels with paint, enamel, lacquer, varnish or wallpaper.

Supreme Court calling for surrender of the Miami NAACP membership list. NAACP attorneys filed a petition for writ of certiorari April 28 on behalf of Rev. Theodore Gibson, Mrs. Ruth Perry, Mrs. Vernell Albury and G. E. Graves, Jr. All are members of the Miami branch of the NAACP.

Conflict arose in February of 1958 when the four petitioners were subpoenaed to testify before the Florida Legislative Investigation Committee. Alleged purpose of the hearing was to determine the extent of subversive penetration and infiltration into the NAACP.

Membership Withheld

All petitioners appeared but did not produce the NAACP membership list, as was asked. Mrs. Perry and Mr. Graves refused to answer various questions on grounds that they were not pertinent and violated their right of freedom of speech.

Mrs. Perry was then subjected to bitter and scathing denunciation by two members of the Committee. They cast aspersions upon her character and integrity as well as the character and integrity of all the witnesses. Father Gibson and Mrs. Albury, who were subsequently called, refused to testify before the Committee. The pair asserted that the Committee lacked jurisdiction to require anyone to testify, after having shown its bias and prejudice by endorsing the outbursts of two of its members.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

Bath time and nap-time for baby offers excellent subject material for a picture story.

Pictures in a Series Tell a Story

One picture is always good but there are many snapshot situations in which it is a shame not to take a whole series. Pictures in a series can tell a heartwarming story of family life that will be a treasured part of the snapshot album.

The small try of the household are always good subject material for a picture story. The day in the life of a baby is so worth recording. Flash on camera makes such pictures easy to take. You can follow baby's activities wherever nursery to bath to the kitchen. And, if that is baby's day to go out, perhaps for a visit to grandmother, it's a wise mother indeed who takes the flash camera along to include this part of the day in the picture story.

In addition to making up an interesting section for your family album, these picture stories can bring pleasure to other people as well. Out-of-town friends and relatives would be delighted to receive a note from you enclosing a set of snapshots like those shown above. Fond grandparents would be pleased as punch to receive a small album which traces in pictures the activities of a favorite grandchild in a typical day.

It's always a good idea to share your snapshots. Extra prints from your negatives are inexpensive and are bound to be welcomed by others who share your interest in the subject. We all like to find letters in our mailboxes—but a letter with a snapshot, or a series of snapshots, is something extra special. —John Van Guilder

The pair asserted that the Committee lacked jurisdiction to require anyone to testify, after having shown its bias and prejudice by endorsing the outbursts of two of its members.

Committee Upheld

Contempt proceedings were then instituted in the Circuit Court of Dade County, Florida, and the court upheld the Committee. NAACP attorneys then carried an appeal to the Supreme Court of Florida and this court upheld the Committee's actions on all essential points of difference. While the Florida Supreme Court did not require physical delivery of the NAACP membership list, it held that the custodian of the list be required to bring it to the hearings and refer to it in answering questions about various person's memberships. The Florida high court also ruled that everyone called would be expected to answer questions on their own membership and that of others suspected of subversive activities.

Science and Your Health

Medicine and Old Age

by Science Features

More people are reaching old age than ever before—some 14 million today as compared to three million in 1900. These elder citizens present new problems, economic, sociological and medical, many of which are interrelated.

Over-65s suffer the same ills as younger persons, but they are more susceptible to them. High blood pressure, diabetes, cancer, arthritis, heart diseases, hardening of the arteries, and even pneumonia, a disease that is on its way out in younger age groups, thanks to antibiotics, exact a heavy toll among our senior citizens.

Many of the new drugs have helped old and young alike. Anti-coagulants prevent the dangerous blood clots which so often appear in old age. Several new drugs have helped cut down high blood pressure, which hits more than 80% of our senior citizens. Much has been done to combat heart disease—the greatest killer—which strikes more frequently both in the winter of the year and in the winter of life.

Important as these advances are, at best they only cure—they do not prevent. The real challenge to medicine is to build up the human machine that begins to wear down as old age advances. Vigor must be improved, tissues revitalized, outlook brightened and strength regained, lest vital organs fail in their functions.

Two types of agents—vitamins and hormones—offer the best chance of building up energy and resistance. Male and female hormones—androgens and estrogens—have been used with considerable success in brightening the outlook and increasing the vigor of old men and women. Often they are used interchangeably to fight a specific malfunction or waning strength. They have even been combined into a single drug, as in the case of Combamin, to revitalize tired tissues and improve general well-being of male and female alike.

Vitamins, too, are playing a more important role in old-age therapy. Tests on animals have shown that vitamin A increased life span 10%, and that B complex vitamins lengthened life 10-25%. If the outlook for over-65s looks better today than before it is due in large part to the gains made in hormone and vitamin therapy.

UNDERSTANDING IOWA CHILDREN

ADULTS, TEEN-AGERS DIFFER ON JOB VALUES

Recently a group of couples discussed their adolescent children's jobs. Several of the parents seemed baffled by their children's insistence on working after school and on weekends. The parents made it clear that their children had no objective need for the income; the families could easily have given the youngsters more money than they were earning. A number of the mothers agreed that their children used the job as an excuse for not doing other things — church activities, home chores or school projects, which the parents felt were too valuable to drop.

Values Attacked

The importance of the job as seen by the youth may be, like the value he attaches to having a car, or going steady, very different from the importance assigned by the parent. The job (or the car or the steady date) may represent a socially approved means of showing his independence and an avenue to new experiences that would otherwise be hard to obtain.

He "Belongs"

It may greatly expand the youngster's range of activities in ways that seem exciting to him though sometimes worrisome to his parents. It may represent a clear sign of growing up that is accepted as such a sign by the other teen-agers. (The income from a part-time job may seem almost incidental to the adolescent when he thinks about what the Camera Guild

Mirror pictures are easy to make, nice to have, and fun to show and impress your friends.

It's Almost Like Seeing Double

Yes, when you picture your subject reflected in a mirror, it's almost like seeing double but it also can give you a very striking and effective snapshot.

Mirror pictures are for the most amateur photographers—using the simplest of equipment, as well as for the professionals who are well aware of the effectiveness of this technique.

A simple camera with flash attachment enables you to take these pictures. There are only two things which you have to keep in mind that don't apply to other pictures.

First of all, be sure that neither your camera nor the flash is reflected in the mirror. Secondly, when you figure the distance, you add that between camera and mirror to that between subject and mirror.

This means that if you have a camera that won't let you shoot a picture closer than six feet—and your subject looks best posed a foot from the mirror, you will keep the camera five feet from the mirror. That's all there is to it.

Find a pretty mirror, a good subject, and take camera in hand to make some snapshots that are "different" and make a terrific impression on people who aren't "in the know."

Here's Way to Mix Paint

AN EASY way to mix paint or enamel in small cans is to use an old egg beater. Simply cut down the revolving vane so that the center rod remains a little longer. In this way, the vane will be kept off the bottom of the can. Wind a piece of wire around the vane stems to hold them. This device will mix the contents more thoroughly than a paddle or stick. (Illustration courtesy Popular Mechanics.)

To Lubricate a Lock

A LOCK becomes stiff and hard to operate, a temporary cure is available in any home in the form of a soft lead pencil. Simply rub the key until it is heavily coated with the graphite, and then turn it in the lock a few times. This treatment should make the lock work like new. Of course, you can use powdered graphite, which is available in most hardware stores. This lubricant is blown into the lock through the keyhole by squeezing the tube. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wimberly of 1127 11th street made a business trip to Sioux City, Iowa, over the weekend, and were the house guests of Mrs. Etta Grider. Saturday evening they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith.

While there Mrs. Wimberly met with the planning committee of the city for Iowa Club Woman's day of which Mrs. Smith is chairman.

Center Plan Arts and Ends Sale

An Arts and Ends Sale for the benefit of the Art Reference Library will be held Friday and Saturday, May 8 and 9 in the Lobby of the Des Moines Art Center, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Fine and decorative arts will be represented, paintings and sculpture, furniture, ceramics, silver, crystal, books, jewelry, and bric-a-brac. The ends department will include lamps, cameras, radios, and various other items.

Sunday is the day dedicated to Mothers. It would be facetious to say what age child gets the most anticipated thrills and enjoyment out of the days leading up to that particular day and the day itself. But I'm sure you will agree with us that the beginner in school between kindergarten and second or third grade get about the biggest bang.

If your house is like ours small fry have been hinting of things they are making for Mother, hardly able to contain themselves with their secret. About a month ago our first grader mysteriously asked for old plastic or tin containers and from time to time hinted, "Mama, I bet you don't know what I'm going to bring home for Mother's day."

Naturally, we smile and say no. Even though we have an inkling we don't want to spoil it for him by guessing partly right.

Behind any special event are people who work and give their all—sometimes without the general public knowing it. During the NAACP regional banquet here several weeks ago, the name of Mrs. Roberta Frazier of 328 E. Creston Avenue, was unintentionally omitted from the list of acknowledged committee members.

Mrs. Frazier was responsible for the very appropriate decorations depicting a golden theme centering around the national organization's 50th anniversary. The speakers table centerpiece was a huge banquet of yellow glads with a gold symbol '50th', in its midst and large NAACP letters in gold in front.

She arranged for individual tables seating 8 to 10 to accommodate some 300 guests in Youngers tearoom. On each individual table—and there were about 30—there were little gold bud vases with a long stemmed yellow tulip in each.

Days prior to the banquet, Mrs. Frazier had painted each of the vases gold in her own basement at night—in between church and other organizational and NAACP meetings and work.

Earlier this week she received a personal letter of commendation from Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary in New York.

Here we are less than a month away from school closing. We got out our annual letters to high school and college grads informing them of our anniversary picture page—were sent out last week. We urge all students not to wait until the deadline please—the sooner we get the pictures and writings—the better our schedule will go.

While we are on the subject of graduates a job clinic is being conducted at Willkie House Saturday, May 16 from 2 to 5 p.m., aimed at the high school grads, their parents and other interested students and persons.

With only a few hours spent, grads can gain invaluable information about many varied fields. But, in these days when college finances are increasing like everything else, they will be able to get knowledge about scholarships or other financial assistance—by just coming to the clinic.

There are few things more inspiring than a young high school graduate who says emphatically, "I'm going to college in the fall."

Yet, just three months later many of them say, "I have decided against it. I'm going to work."

Although they don't admit it—they decide against going because of lack of encouragement from the right places and fall back on the security of an average paying average job or realizing the finances college requires, think it is impossible. But it isn't!

So if you are a parent of a teenager, especially a graduating teenager who now aspires to gain higher education and training—go with him and spend three hours at this job clinic at Willkie House May 16. It will be worth while for you and your daughter or son.

Sponsors are Phi chapter of Delta Sigma Theta sorority.

We had a long conversation with Mrs. Theodore Martin, Jr., who is a new neighbor at 3590 27th Street.

MISS MARTIN

We talked at length about flowers and yard care and about her daughter, Coleen, who is a teacher at one of the largest schools in Gary, Ind. Mrs. Martin said her daughter had been told 'everything' before she accepted the teaching position there.

The fifth grade class she was to be assigned to was known for its unruly behavior and rowdiness toward its teacher, bordering on the brink of mild delinquency.

However, Coleen accepted it as a challenge and went in fortified with confidence coupled with her liking for children. Almost from the start she had the class under control—and there are 40 in the class.

When the list of students graduating at Des Moines Tech was mailed to us on request several days ago there was not the usual marked indications of Negro students.

When we called we were informed that the school has done away with such listing of students according to

Mattie Dameron Plaque To Be Presented for Iowa Club Women Day

A plaque to be known and distributed as the "Mattie Dameron award" will be presented to the Iowa Association of Colored Women by

MRS. MATTIE DAMERON

Mrs. Joseph Wimberly, 1127 11th street, at the 57th annual meeting of the IACW in Council Bluffs, Iowa June 6-7.

The plaque is being given as a memorial to Mrs. Wimberly's mother, Mrs. Mattie Dameron, "for her many years as an active and dedicated worker in the state association and as an incentive toward the success of the Iowa Club Woman's day to be celebrated annually on the anniversary of the association."

The threefold purpose of Iowa Club Woman's Day: (1) to interest women, who are non-members of federated clubs, in the program of the association; (2) to highlight its major project—the purchase and maintenance of an IACW club house; (3) and to celebrate annually the organization of the association.

Funds raised on this day will be set aside for the club house project and to the club reporting the largest amount, the Mattie Dameron Award will be given. Name of the club and the date will be inscribed on the plaque and presented to the winning club who will hold it until the next annual meeting.

WINNER TWELFTH NATIONAL SAFETY POSTER CONTEST

New York City—Pearl Bailey and a heavy cast of 50, led by husband drummer Louis Bellson, at the Chase Club in St. Louis—and the Missourians are loving every minute... With a $2.50 cover, and a 17 piece band, Miss Bailey & Co. are the type of fast-paced show everyone likes—and wants to see again and again... Never a dull moment here... Pearl is a real gem—teasing the cast, clowning with the audience—ad-libbing here and there... And she's roped in brother Bill who wails as a dancer... Special to the audience: Bellson has a solo and there's an interracial chorus which sings and dances—and as we said, the St. Louis clubbers really went for this... Proof: they stayed for two shows, even when management charged another minimum trying to clear the club for space...

Mercury Records for Roulette... The 4th International Religious Film Week was so impressed with "The Defiant Ones", they wired the men in Hollywood who decide who's to get an Oscar—and complained that they felt this picture had more to offer—spiritually—than "Gigi", the winner...

Integrated Cast

Everyone was happy with the idea of an integrated cast—except the producers—and they're the ones who get the backers—so it seems the project will be shelved for awhile as being just plain premature...

Debuting at the Majestic Theatre under the title of "Integrated Showcase"—drama, comedy, light opera—every phase of the American theatre was portrayed—with a mixed cast...

It showed that the Negro player can do ANY part—not just those allotted to Negro characters... But the producers felt that audiences have not yet been educated to the fact that a Negro could be cast opposite the leading lady or be a leading lady too—and not be particularly a Negro character in the play...

They feel the audience especially watches a player of another race and therefore too much emphasis is put on race, not his talent... Until the American public is educated to accept people as they are, not for the color they are, then producers feel they cannot risk backing plays with mixed casts... It's a sad state—but an understandable one—and in the next decade perhaps this dream will be a reality... It's not as far off as you may think: this week an 18 year old Negro girl was chosen Miss Sacramento—someday one will compete in the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City—and win...

Billy Eckstine

For our money, Billy Eckstine could have played Sportin' Life in "Porgy and Bess"—as it is we have to be content to see him in his nightclub act, donning a straw hat and playing the part of the scoundrel in Gershwin's opera... Now in Frisco at the Fairmont Hotel, he was lucky enough to sub for French chanteuse Edith Piaf, who's on the sick list... The management is pleased with the outcome, although they had a pins-and-needles opening night with a partially crowded room after word got around that Piaf wouldn't appear... But soon as Mr. B. came on—and left the crowd after 4 encores—it was smooth sailing afterwards... A great balladeer—in fact one of the best—he did his old favorites, "Prisoner of Love", "Caravan" and "I Apologize"—and he's added more exciting ones: a repertoire from "Gigi", the film which won 9 Academy Awards...

Josephine Premice, she was the adorable supporting star of "Jamaica", arrives soon for her opening date May 7th at the Fairmont...

Arthur L. Simpkins

Arthur Lee Simpkins, at the Barclay Hotel in Toronto, is singing in Italian and Yiddish—in addition to his usual "Grenada" and "Begin The Beguine" etc... A relic of the Latin Quarter on Broadway, Simpkins is a strange singer—as a Negro he sings every type of foreign song but does little or no Negro material...

Paul Robeson

Backers of "Raisin" have already been repaid $20,000 of the $100,000 investment... St. Martin's Church got Staf Nees, the world famous carillonneur from Belgium to give his first American concert on their bells—a real honor... Paul Robeson doing "Othello" in London at the Shakespeare Memorial Theatre and receiving big nightly ovations for this performance... as one critic says: "Othello has much to hold and excite in this production but it is Robeson's performance that is memorable"... And of course Robeson's happiness is complete being where he is loved—and wanted...

WAVE OF LYNCHINGS
LOOKS SUSPICIOUS

Up until last month, this country had not recorded a lynching since 1955. And contrary to the bugaboo—raping women—this had subsided with lynchings. However, recently there seems to have sprung up several cases in widely separated areas, the latest involving a Negro college girl in Florida by four white men.

Nobody, who engages in such practices, should have any sympathy except to see that the perpetrators get a fair trial. There is no excuse for it and these criminals should be punished no matter who they may be.

There was a time when many Negroes were lynched on trumped up charges. It served as an excuse for opponents of equality to deny them their rights claiming that all Negroes were rapists. But that fallacy was exploded both by the NAACP and the southern white women against whom these crimes were alleged to be committed.

In view of the all out attack on the NAACP and the rise of the fortunes of Negroes in the enjoyment of their civil rights, it would appear that these recent charges are low body blows seeking to undermine the progress in the achievement of first class citizenship.

Undoubtedly, public officials, in the areas where these crimes are committed and the after affects occur, are being placed in an awkward position before the world for they complain about outside interference and that they are capable of protecting the rights of their citizens when the outsider attempts to help those who cannot help themselves.

LOOKS LIKE
WITCH HUNTING

The un-American activities committee of the House (US) of Representatives conducted hearings in Chicago this week in order to determine whether communists have infiltrated in the United Packinghouse Workers Union. It appears that some disgruntled persons have made the charge which prompted the hearing.

So far, the McClelland senate committee has not delved into the activities of the UPWA. In fact, by and large, its officers have conducted the affairs of the union in such fashion as has generally met the approval of the members, management and the public generally. Of course, like any large organization, a few errors have been made, a few men have gotten out of line, a few may belong to the communist organization. But this is one of the prices of bigness. What organization does not have all classes, breeds, and opinions within its ranks?

It is one of the few labor unions in which its announced policy of non-racial discrimination squares in practice, both at the top level of its officers down to local activities.

Of course subversive activities must be kept down as much as possible. They can never be eliminated altogether. On the other hand, some areas in this country are reeking with un-American activities if disrespect for law and order is so classified. The committee could do a real service to the country if some of its activities were directed toward just how well law, order and respect for the courts are observed.

JUDGE POTTER
CONFIRMED—FINALLY

The Senate has finally conferred Potter Stewart of Ohio as an associate justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. The vote was 70 to 17 with all opposing coming from the South. On the other hand, five from the South voted with the majority.

Considerable opposition developed over the nomination. Confirmation had already been delayed unduly. The opposition was based on his refusal to differ with the U.S. Supreme court school decision and other civil rights cases which have come before that body.

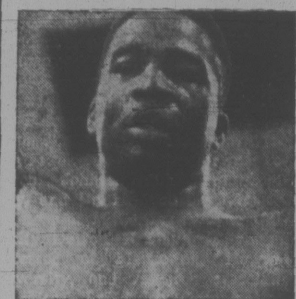

These southerners have stood pretty firm in their opposition to anything which helps to improve the civil rights of the Negro. And it is partly because of this attitude, and the weak opposition, that their constituents feel that they can violate the law against Negroes without being punished for their crimes.

Speaking of the Mack Parker lynching, Russia Radio broadcast to African listeners "It is perfectly clear that none of the criminals concerned will be punished, for in the U.S. those who murder Negroes are not punished."

Somehow the whole country must help the South prove that this statement, even though true in many instances, will be combatted by definite action against perpetrators of crimes against Negroes as well as whites.

Rematch Scheduled

A rematch between Frank Davis, Jr., state amateur heavyweight champion from Iowa City and Gerald Gaines of Des Moines, has been scheduled for Thursday, May 14 at the Jewish Community Center. Davis won a TKO decision over Gaines several weeks ago at the same site.

Patterson Still Champ
Gets K-O in Eleventh;
Fights Again June 25

Indianapolis, Indiana — After a continuous 10-round bombardment by heavyweight boxing champion, Floyd Patterson, "the fastest man on two feet", "London Bridge came tumbling down" on tough Briton, Brian London—of London, England, in the early seconds of the 11th round.

PATTERSON

The winner and still champion described this bout with London as a "tune-up" . . . and it proved to be just that as he launched an offensive attack against the almost defenseless Briton. This smooth, methodical offense encompassed the champions entire pugilist repertory. Patterson concluded after his eleven-round "experiment" with London that he was 55 per cent better than when he successfully defended the crown against Cut and Shoot, Texas, Roy Harris. He predicts he'll be 100-per cent better for the ensuing June 25 defense against Ingemar Johansson at Yankee Stadium. It's good that he will be too, because Johansson said he saw "something" when he watched the London-Patterson fight . . . said he "saw plenty."

SPORTS

BY ALLEN ASHBY

Boxing or fist fighting championships are won or lost in the ring. At least, they were. This was the first time the court ever backed up a boxing body and made the taking of Ray Robinson's middleweight title legal. Now what would happen if Sugar Ray decides to fight a challenger? We shall see what the New York commission does.

While this was going on Heavyweight champ Floyd Patterson was defending his honor by slapping to sleep an ambitious Briton after what the critics called a poor showing. But, the guy won, so he fights the Johansson guy next month.

These same critics say Floyd isn't a great champion, but as long as he wins, he will have to do.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Your Best Foot Forward

Nothing is calculated to put you in a bad temper and get you in trouble with friends, sweetheart, and family more quickly than aching feet. Even a saint can get irritable and mean when his feet hurt. All the same, most people "abuse their feet unmercifully," a foot expert said recently.

Yet the quick and easy ways to avoid foot trouble are many. Take the time of day you buy your shoes, for instance. Never thought it was important? But your feet swell considerably during an active day; if you buy footwear in the cool and rested morning, by afternoon your feet will be slightly larger and shoes are likely to pinch unmercifully. Better do your footwear shopping late in the day.

Poor Circulation

Your feet may ache occasionally because of poor circulation. Prop them up on a table or desk for a few minutes and see if that doesn't help.

Corns are the result of constant rubbing by tight shoes. A simple and safe home treatment is mole-skin plaster. Don't cut corns and be wary of magic corn removers bought at the drug counter. Cut your nails straight across to avoid ingrown toenails.

Reports are that Carmen Basilio and Gene Fullmer will compete for the crown within 90 days and the winner will defend the title against third ranking middleweight, Spider Webb.

Wylie said Robinson had the crown taken away because "he failed to keep his agreement with N.B.A. to defend his title."

Robinson, reached at his office by reporters, remained calm when first hearing the news, but later, bitterly, attacked N.B.A. by saying, "They are trying to force me into retirement, but I won't be forced."

Thoughts for Today

Only the truly conscientious man can tell the difference between when he's really tired and when he's just lazy.—Advertiser's Digest.

Will Rogers once suggested a cure for the traffic problem. He wanted the highways open only to cars that were paid for.—Printopics.

God hath not promised skies always blue, flower-strewn pathways all our lives through; but God hath promised strength for the day. Rest for the labor, light for the way.—A. J. Flint.

ist with the New York Post.

Robinson, who left the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1957 and became a vice-president of a New York restaurant chain, will write a nationally syndicated column on subjects he will select, according to a release by the Post office last week.

This new feature, said James A. Wechsler, editor of the Post, will be strictly Robinson's opinion. He may write on any subject and employ any length he desires. The editor said present plans call for the articles to appear on or near the sports page, but the content may range from anything to general news to baseball, a subject which it is hoped Jackie will write about.

Junior Gilliam
Weds In St. Louis

St. Louis—Junior Gilliam, baseball player with the Los Angeles Dodgers, was married here Saturday to Miss Edwina Fields, a St. Louis graduate and librarian at the Veteran's hospital.

LAUGH LANE

Overheard—an ex-singer now a waitress, talking to a producer in a restaurant:

"Remember me?" she asked, "I sang in one of your shows. I'll bet you're surprised to find me waiting on tables."

"Not at all," replied the producer. "I remember hearing you sing."

THE ONE I LOST

The one I lost—is gone I know, yet lives within my heart today. Enshrined are precious memories, food for my soul—since he's away. In every blossom's face I see—the one who is a part of me. No one can take away the days, we shared as one together;

The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents. Present for the ceremony, was Walter Alston, manager of the Dodgers, and several of Gilliam's baseball friends.

New Football
Coach at Fisk

Nashville, Tenn. — Eugene D. Stevenson, 33, is the new head football coach at Fisk university.

Coach H. B. "Bus" Thompson will continue as athletic director and head basketball coach.

Stevenson is a former Fisk grid-iron great star.

He was co-captain of the Fisk football team of 1951, and is a former Canadian professional football player.

AMVETS Bowling

The AMVETS Bowling team won top honors in their league, receiving the big trophy and each player reand somewhere in the great we'll cruise in sunny weather. Away from all the storms of life . . . our galleon trimmed in gold, will find that have the bluest— with all the saints of old. Somehow I know—this is the grief—that is one phase of life. A debt that has to be assuaged— this sad world's price for strife. The crucible must try the steel, to draw it pure and fine, temper your soul to meet the test. I tell this heart of mine . . . When He has made His final call, All those who paid the cost; together they will live again, and I'll find the one I lost.
