SCHOOL DESEGREGATION IN 1959:

Saw End of 'Massive Resistance'

Bateses Face New Year with Renewed Spirit

NEWS In A Nutshell

Birmingham, Ala.—A dramatic call from the Rev. Martin Luther King has challenged American Negroes to promote a massive frontal attack upon the portals of segregation. He declared, "We must be willing to go to jail en masse. That way we may be able to arouse the dozing consciences of the South."

Leopoldville, Belgian Congo—More than 2,000,000 Congolese men, some dressed in leopard skins and carrying spears, and others attired in made-to-measure suits with tightly rolled umbrellas got their first taste of democracy as they marched to the polls last week.

Jackson, Miss.—Robert Lee Goldsby, 33, whose impending trial for the murder of a white woman, is said to have triggered in the twisted mind of Mississippi racists, the lynching of Mack Charles Parker, was convicted of first degree murder for a second time here last week and speedily sentenced to die in the gas chamber on Jan. 22.

Los Angeles, Cal.—Clennon King, who fled Mississippi after attempting to enroll in an all-white college there, to seek asylum in Los Angeles a few months ago, is now in Mexico City, Mex., where he says he "seeks safety" because "Negroes just disappear in the U. S."

Los Angeles—Hosea Atkins, fatally beat Theodas Blake, 34, because Atkins claimed Blake stepped on his newly shined shoes.

Accra, Ghana—Provisions have been made for 10 women to become members of Parliament through electoral college without having to contest elections.

Beaufort, N. C.—A white tugboat captain, Louis Edward Willis, is being held for Superior court on charges of forcing four young colored boys to engage in sexual intimacies with his wife.

Detroit, Mich.—Dr. Jacob M. Knox, 56, who was convicted last month of accepting $850 from a mother of a 16-year-old girl to perform an abortion, was sentenced to 2-4 years in Jackson Prison. Attorneys say they will file motion for a new trial.

Los Angeles—Bernard Jefferson, president of the Safety Savings and Loan association and practicing lawyer, has been appointed to the coveted judgeship on the Los Angeles municipal court bench.

Daisy Bates and Faubus Shake Hands!

Little Rock—Although Mrs. Daisy Bates and Gov. Orval Faubus have said many harsh things about each other, they met recently and shook hands.

Mrs. Bates, state president of the NAACP, was guiding a visitor from the West Indies around Little Rock and he wanted to meet the governor.

It was the first time Gov. Faubus, key figure in the school integration crisis, and Mrs. Bates had met since the fall of 1957 when national guardsmen, ordered out by Faubus, blocked the entry of Negro students into Central high school.

First Check for $1,000 Comes In; IA. Citizens Among Contributors

BY MARIE ROSS

Kansas City, Kas.—Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Bates of Little Rock, Ark., are facing the new year with a "renewed spirit, faith in mankind, and an outlook for a better world," a letter from Mrs. Daisy Bates, school integration leader, revealed this week.

Addressed to H. W. Sewing, president of Douglass State bank, 1314 North Fifth street, Kansas City, Kas., and treasurer of the Dollars-For-Daisy Bates Trust Fund, Inc., which has its national headquarters at the bank, Mrs. Bates had this to say after getting their first gift, a cashier's check for $1,000, just before Christmas:

"When Mr. Bates and I received the check from you, we both stood ready to refute the denial of an existing Santa Claus; we knew better. He may not have a long beard or a pot-bellied stomach, but he does exist, and, exists in the hearts of people . . .

"You have given us a renewed spirit, faith in mankind; and, an outlook for a better world. We shall strive to prove to the people that their efforts in our behalf are not in vain."

Suspend Publication

As a result of their participation in the school integration fight in Little Rock, Mr. Bates, newspaper publisher, was forced to suspend publication and make plans for the disposal of his plant equipment to pay bills.

Citizens interested in the fight for a "new birth of freedom" for the Negro citizens of America, reading in newspapers and magazines of the plight of the Bateses and their financial crisis in Little Rock, are sending contributions to aid them.

Contributions

Wrote W. D. Jones, Jr., principal of Anna T. Jeanes school, Kilmarnock, Va., with his contribution of ten dollars: "I wish I could send more . . . we should not let her down when she needs us."

William Pulce, who said he was an unemployed restaurant cook in New York City, commented with his five-dollar gift:

"I hope you will expand your

250 Leaders March on So. Carolina Airport

Greenville, S. C.—"We will no longer make a pretense of being satisfied with the crumbs of citizenship while others enjoy the whole loaf only by the right of a white-skinned birth." Those were the words of Rev. C. D. McCullough of Orangeburg, S. C. as he read the resolution in a segregated white waiting room at the airport. Then he and others of his group prayed and left.

Only 15 of the protesters were permitted into the white waiting room, as 150 whites, mostly police, surrounded them to make sure there was no trouble. The Negro delegation was protesting a prejudiced incident against Jackie Robinson, of baseball fame, who, last March, was asked to leave the white waiting room.

About 250 Negro citizens marched from Greenville's Springfield Baptist Church to the airport demanding an end to segregation. They were led by their pastor, Rev. McCullough. Completely orderly, it was an effective silent protest.

Judge Glanton Attends Rites of Sister in Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Judge and Mrs. Luther T. Glanton, Jr., and son, of 818 15th Street returned to the city Monday from Murfreesboro, Tenn., where they attended the funeral services for Judge Glanton's sister, Mrs. Cindy Glanton Hodge. She was the widow of the late Gratz C. Hodge who passed last March.

Mrs. Hodge died in Chicago, Ill. Dec. 27 and last rites were held Thursday, Dec. 31 at 2 p.m. at Killgo Funeral parlor.

Surviving are her father, Luther, Sr., of Murfreesboro; one sister, Mrs. Myrtle G. Lord; five brothers, Simon H. James, Robert, all of Murfreesboro, Tyree, naval base in Jacksonville, Fla., and Luther Jr., Des Moines; also an aunt, Mrs. Mollie Jones, of Murfreesboro.

Powell Can't Avoid Trial Any Longer

New York—Having received all of the delays he can expect, Congressman Adam Clayton Powell, pastor of New York's famed Abyssinian Baptist church, goes to trial in Federal Court here Jan. 7 on charges of income tax evasion.

The 50-year-old Harlem Democrat was scheduled to go to trial on the year-old complaint Oct. 5, but the case was postponed when Powell entered the Bethesda Naval hospital in late September for a "possible hernia operation."

While in the hospital, a growth on his esophagus was discovered, the flashy congressman underwent a chest operation, and a non-malignant cyst was removed.

He was discharged from the hospital last month, with instructions to rest a month.

Reportedly, his attorney, Edward Bennett Williams, who is also the attorney for James R. Hoffa, and Chief Assistant U. S. Attorney Morton S. Robson have reached an agreement on the beginning date of the trial.

Bystander Launches Drive for Subscriptions; Will Offer Picture-Magazine Section

1960 starts a new decade. Many people are looking forward to new and better things. The Iowa Bystander is no exception.

The beginning of 1960 will mark two notable things for this community weekly which has published without fail for 65 years in Des Moines. The first two months, January and February will be given over to an intensive subscription drive. In connection with this drive, the Bystander will offer to its readers, and prospective readers, a new color picture magazine section, once a month beginning in January. This will mark the first time in the 133 year-history of the Negro press, that a nationally circulated picture-news magazine section will be published for Negro weekly newspapers. The magazine will be called TONE.

Published in Chicago, the printing center of America, the first issue of Tone, a monthly magazine section for newspapers, will appear in 18 Negro weeklies within a few days, and guaranteed publication has al-

Wilkins and King Announce Coordinated Vote Drive For 2,500,000 in 1960

Atlanta—A coordinated cooperative south-wide drive to register an additional 1,100,000 Negro voters during the first 10 months of 1960 will be conducted by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

Announcement of the joint effort was made here on Dec. 28 by NAACP Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins and the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., SCLC president, following an all-day conference of ready topped 80,000 even before publication.

Don W. McIlvaine, President of Tone publications, Inc., publishers of the magazine section, said plans are already being formulated to publish the magazine on a weekly basis soon as possible.

First Time

For the first time, McIlvaine said, Negro newspapers will now have a magazine section that can not only utilize the attractive four-color printing process, but attract some of the nation's ranking Negro reporters, writers, and columnists. "We're already negotiating with two New York writers, authors in Mexico, Africa, the Middle East, Paris, France, and an award-winning reporter-magazine writer in Chicago."

Four Color

According to McIlvaine, a number of Negro publishers who have not contracted to insert the new magazine section in their papers have entered negotiations.

23 representatives of the two organizations. In a news conference after the meeting, Mr. Wilkins explained that the drive was an extension and acceleration of voter registration campaigns already initiated by the two organizations.

Seek 2,500,000

The meeting, Wilkins said, had been called by Dr. King and himself "to make plans for coordinating cooperative activity to raise the registration of Negro voters prior

Replaced by South's Token Compliance; Reports More Court Cases, Public Support

New York, N. Y.—In an abbreviated report for the year 1959, Thurgood Marshall, Director-Counsel of the N.A.A.C.P. Legal Defense and Educational Fund, summed up the year's activities as a marked step forward toward ending enforced racial segregation. Of primary importance is the fact that, despite the best combined efforts of the southern states, the year showed the end of the program of "massive resistance" and a reluctant acceptance of at least token compliance in the more obstinate states.

Elected NAACP Vice President for 10th Yr.

Ike Smalls returned to the city Tuesday afternoon from New York City where he attended the annual board meeting of the National Association for the Advancement of Col-

Defies Laughing Dare And Shoots Husband

New York—Hell hath no fury! McKinley Bright, 31, may be slightly wiser as the result of an experience of instructing his irate wife, Mary, 32, on the finer points of loading and firing a gun.

It seems that Mary objected strenuously to the ardor displayed by McKinley toward another member of the female species.

"If I had a gun," Mary allegedly said, "I'd shoot you!" "Well," police say McKinley snickered in reply, "there's one in my closet and some shells in my top drawer."

Mary easily found both. Here McKinley patiently showed her how to load the gun. Then he laughed, "You ain't got the guts to shoot."

Mary showed him. She squeezed off a shot and the husband toppled with a bullet wound in the chest.

Then Mary went into real hysterics and was still blubbering she didn't mean to hurt her errant mate, as police led her to the station for booking.

As for McKinley, doctors at the Fordham hospital say his condition is still serious.

to the 1960 elections."

Dr. King told reporters that the two organizations had agreed to conduct "an intensified campaign throughout the South" designed to raise the present number of registered Negro voters from 1,400,000 to 2,500,000. This figure was selected as an attainable and realistic goal.

Non-Partisan

The campaign, Wilkins asserted, will be non-partisan and will be conducted on a neighborhood basis with door-to-door canvassing block by block. Neither organization, he said, attempts to tell voters for whom to cast their ballots. He expressed the anticipation that the new voters will support candidates

Little Rock

In Little Rock we saw the federal courts declare unconstitutional the latest efforts of Governor Faubus to keep public schools closed in opposition to integration. Little Rock also demonstrated that the religious and business leaders of the city, when pushed to the wall and faced with the choice of integration or no schools, would themselves choose token integration and insist that the schools be reopened. Likewise, in areas of Virginia and other southern states, religious and business leaders have taken heart and are now planning to keep their schools open even in the face of integration. This significant movement seems to insure at least token integration in practically every southern state within the next year.

Good Faith

Marshall pointed out further that neither Negro parents nor their lawyers would settle for mere token integration. They are determined that the southern states must comply with the Supreme Courts decision, which means integration in good faith throughout the school system. Therefore, the year of 1960 should see an increase in the tempo of school litigation testing both the stair-step plan of integrating grade by grade and the pupil assignment plan aimed at keeping integration at the barest minimum.

We also can expect the dying struggle in the truly recalcitrant areas to prevent any integration.

State Legislatures

Marshall also noted the efforts of state legislative bodies, governors, SEE PAGE THREE

Slate 66 Scholarships For Negro Colleges From Reader's Digest

New York—The creation of 66 scholarships for Negro college students during the next three years was announced today by the Reader's Digest Foundation. They will be provided through a grant to the United Negro College Fund, which will administer the scholarships.

The Digest Foundation announced that two scholarships a year will be awarded in each of 11 member colleges of the U.N.C.F. Thus in the three-year cycle of the grant all of the Fund's 33 member colleges will be covered. Individual recipients of the scholarships will be selected by the executive staff of the U.N.C.F. from recommendations made by the colleges.

Foundation

The United Negro College Fund was founded in 1944 by Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, then President of Tuskegee Institute. It seeks $2,250,000 annually for apportionment among 33 private accredited Negro colleges, located in the twelve states having the largest populations. John D. Rockefeller III is Chairman of the Fund's National Council.

The Reader's Digest Foundation was established in 1949. Among its stated objectives is "to help youth make the most of its educational opportunities."

Handy Jim's EXIN-UP-TIPS For Farm and Home Hanging Shelf

SINCE students usually are interested in novelties, a hanging bookshelf over the desk will strike their fancy and be functional, too. Simple to make, the bookshelf consists of a framework of 1 by 2-inch lumber, of the desired length and about one foot wide, covered with Masonite 1/2" Tempered Presswood that is glued to the top and bottom.

As shown in the illustration, the shelf is suspended over the desk by means of heavy cord looped through screw-eyes. The shelf's front edge should tilt slightly. Edges of the hardwood should be rounded slightly with sandpaper.

The surfaces of Tempered Presswood may be left in the natural dark brown color, with the exposed framework stained or painted, or they may be waxed, stained, varnished, painted or enameled.

By using Masonite Pressdry, three-fourths of an inch thick, the same type of shelf may be produced with even less effort. Wood moulding glued to the edges is suggested when using Pressdry, which has a core of plywood and surfaces of Tempered Presswood.

Mrs. John Page returned home from St. Paul, Minn., where she was caring for her daughter, Mrs. Hank Jones until she was able to be up and around.

Mrs. Henry Johnson with son, Eddie returned home from Kansas City, Mo., where they visited with relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left Saturday for Belton, Tex., to attend the funeral of Mr. Johnson's father.

SPRINKLE SHAVED CRAYON Here's how to model a snowman from suds. Start by heating soap on a detergent with a little water until it reaches a dough-like consistency. Then mold three balls for the head and body, and stack one on top of the other. For some interesting extra effects, add crayon shavings while the snowman is still wet. These will adhere when dry. You can give him golden hair, blue or brown eyes, a red mouth, and black buttons down his vest. Just shave the crayon into a dish and use it to sprinkle on as you choose.

A wallet designed to hold favorite snapshots is an excellent Mother's Day gift. Let the whole family join in helping her pick out just the right pictures for it.

Focusing on Mother

Mother's Day is one dear to the hearts of all families, and one which just naturally makes everybody think about pictures pictures to take and pictures to give shots of the family. And so will a locket or one of the new watch bands with place for tiny pictures of those she holds dear. An enlargement of an especially good picture of Dad and the children—framed appropriately for her desk or dresser is another gift that says "I remember Mama" in a way that's sure to please any mother. Or perhaps you might want to take a series of small snapshots one of each member of the family—and arrange them in a long narrow frame to grace her dressing table. As you can see, the day set aside to honor Mother is one on which pictures really have their day, too! —John Van Guilder

WITH DELORES CALVIN

New York City—Ella Fitzgerald's manager, Norman Granz, was so steamed up about the fact that Bell Telephone Co. refused to use a white guitarist with Ella when she did their spectacular recently on TV, that he wrote an open letter to Bell and NBC . . . When told that Bell didn't allow mixed groups, he said "I can't for the life of me, even as a practical matter, understand why the Bell Telephone Company doesn't want a mixed group consisting of Negro and white artists to appear on its television show, because I'm positive no person in the south is sufficiently prejudiced to take his telephone out because he saw a non-segregated group on a TV show under the sponsorship of Bell" . . . Granz says they finally gave in and allowed the white guitarist—but at no time did the camera focus on him . . . which brought to mind the recent TV show where Frank Sinatra put his arm around Ella in a duet—and where Dinah Shore joined Ella for a duet . . .

Lena Horne

Lena Horne has come alive again on records with an album like the oldies—"Sons By Burke & Van Heusen" . . . Singing many of the favorites—such as "It Could Happen To You", "Polka Dots and Moonbeams", "Like Someone in Love", Lena does these in a romantic mood which few stars can equal.

Albums

Of the top fifty albums which were best sellers in 1959, "Porgy and Bess" rates high—it took four votes of the 50 . . . (Horne-Bela-fonte; Miles Davis; TV soundtrack and Armstrong & Fitzgerald versions) . . . Nat King Cole's "Welcome To The Club" won one vote . . . Ahmad Jamal's "But Not For Me"—1 vote . . . And four votes for a great performer, Johnny Mathis—who excelled with "Johnny's Greatest Hits" . . . "More Johnny's Greatest Hits", "Open Fire, Two Guitars" and his latest "Heavenly".

Aliens Must Report Addresses This Month

Omaha, Nebr.—Robert C. Wilson, District Director of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service, Omaha, Nebr., stated that the period within which aliens must report their address is almost at hand.

The month of January has been set for the address reporting period. All aliens in the United States, with few exceptions, must report their address to the Government during that period. Wilson said that forms with which to make the report will be available at all Post Offices and offices of the Immigration and Naturalization Service during the month of January.

Wilson urges all aliens to comply with the reporting requirements, as willful failure to do so may lead to serious consequences.

NEW VOLVO AUTOMOBILE WON BY ELBERT REED

Elbert Reed, of 629 Oak Park Ave., Monday won the new Volvo automobile offered by United Federal Savings and Loan Association, Locust at Fourth, as the grand prize of its year-long 25th Anniversary celebration.

About 30,000 persons registered at United Federal during the past year for the drawing, which was held during a noon television newscast. The Swedish-made Volvo was from Dave Ostrem Imports, 12th and Locust. Over $2,500 in silver dollars, six major Westinghouse home appliances and thousands of 6-piece sets of silverware also were given away during the anniversary celebration.

DESEGREGATION

attorneys general and even some state bar associations to prevent the N.A.A.C.P. Legal Defense and Educational Fund from continuing to render financial aid and legal services to Negro parents seeking to obtain their rights. The record during the past year shows almost conclusively that, despite the time and money needed to defend against such actions, we have been able to do that and at the same time continue to render aid to the Negro parents and others seeking their rights.

Legal Help

Marshall pointed out the litigation during the past year aimed at removing segregation in recreational facilities, eating facilities in bus terminals, train stations and airports, as well as cases such as the one in Greenville, South Carolina, to remove segregated waiting rooms in airports. These kinds of cases will, of course, be of continued interest in the forthcoming year.

It was also stressed that the year 1959 saw a resurgence of requests for legal help in ending segregation in northern areas and it is expected in the year 1960 that there will be a stepped-up program to eliminate segregation in housing, education and other facilities in the North as well as the South.

Public Support

All in all, the most significant factor during the past year is that because of the sustained drive against segregated facilities we are getting more support from the general public than ever before. Each year it becomes clearer to the average American in the South that delay is proving too costly, that desegregation is inevitable, and that this is something he can work out rather than to follow will-o'-the-wisp schemes in the hope for some miracle to end the litigation.

"We have more cases in court today than ever before. We are receiving more requests for aid than ever before; and, with the renewed assurance of more integration and less governmentally imposed segregation year by year, we are fortunate in being able to continue at the heightened tempo," he concluded.

Reviews 10-Yr. Trend in Race Relations as NAACP Holds Its Fiftieth Annual Meeting

New York, — "The judgment of great numbers of Negro voters next November undoubtedly will rest on what the Republican and Democratic parties do, or fail to do, on civil rights legislation, with special emphasis upon protecting the right to vote and upon school desegregation."

This political reaction was forecast by Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, at the Association's 50th annual meeting here today.

Wilkins' report reviewed trends and developments in race relations and civil rights in the United States during the ten-year period of the 1950s.

"The overriding issue during the decade," he asserted, "was desegregation of public education. The ruling of the United States Supreme Court on May 17, 1954, that racial segregation in the public schools is unconstitutional marked a turning point in the long struggle of Negro Americans to overturn the iniquitous 'separate but equal' doctrine."

Decade Opened

The decade opened, he recalled, with the NAACP-initiated Emergency Civil Rights Mobilization which brought nearly 4,500 delegates to Washington representing 60 national organizations in January, 1950.

Growing Strength

Other highlights of the decade cited by Wilkins included the growing strength and flexibility of the Negro vote; the 1959 Supreme Court decision banning exclusion of Negroes from tax-supported universities; the courage of southern Negroes in pursuit of civil rights despite intimidations, threats and reprisals; and the persistence of the lynching

A brother, Edward, of Clarinda, survives him.

Whenever four generations of the family get together—it's picture time!

Don't Put Family Snapshots Off Until Tomorrow

TOMORROW is definitely too late for picturing people as they are today. There are some varieties of family snapshots that you definitely shouldn't put off taking.

Among these are the family groups, the four generation snapshots. Sometimes in our concentration on picturing the small fry and how they grow, we tend to forget about the grown-ups in the family. They belong in the family picture record, too.

Picturing the oldsters and the youngsters together is something that can be fun, and at the same time produce snapshots that will become family treasures.

Of course, when it comes to picturing a family group, it is always important to have a center of interest—something that all of your subjects can focus their attention on and not look at the camera.

In taking the three or four generation pictures that should be a part of every family record, the representative of the youngest generation makes an excellent center of interest.

Group the adults in a comfortable manner and let them be admiring the baby. Nothing could be more natural—and because of that it ought to be a sure-fire means of getting good expressions on the faces.

When you have a group like that together, don't take just one picture—the subject is too important to take any chances. Shoot several and you are bound to have at least one exceptionally good picture, and you'll probably have a whole series.

UNDERSTANDING IOWA CHILDREN

SPONSORED BY THE IOWA CHILD WELFARE RESEARCH STATION

By May P. Youtz, SUI Associate Professor

YOUR CHILD NEEDS EXPERIENCE "ON HIS OWN"

Junior, 3, was visiting his maternal grandmother. One day while entertaining a friend, the grandmother remarked: "Junior knows just 'niceness' and being waited on."

Asked what she meant she said, "Billy, his playmate, came in here the other day when he and Junior had been playing outdoors. Billy wanted a drink of water; so he shoved a chair over to the kitchen sink, climbed on the chair, took the cup from the shelf and got a drink. He wasn't as clean as Junior is, but he could do so many things Junior cannot do and never tries to do."

She might have added "so many things that Junior is never allowed to try." His shrewd Scotch grandmother knew that all was not well.

Self-Confidence

Self-confidence, which eventually means self-reliance—how can we help our children develop this important feeling? Many consider it an almost insurmountable task, for much of life in modern America is ordered by pushing a button. Children live in a world so mechanized that it is well nigh impossible to find "chores" or duties that need to be done.

Actually parents still can find many ways to put a child "on his own." Self-reliance may start developing when the 6-months-old baby is left alone in a room to amuse himself. The 4-year-old is proud he can dress himself. Little daughter at 8 is pleased to make a Christmas gift for her mother.

Recognition

Mothers have told how proud their 10-year-olds were to learn simple cookery. Brownies, Cub Scouts and the older groups in the Scouts make a fine contribution toward building self-reliance. Something into which the child puts efforts and for which he receives recognition contributes definitely to self-reliance and even-

Personally Yours by Frances Hawthorne.

The holiday is ended but the melody lingers on. That just about sums up very neatly the past two weeks. The bubbling frenzy of holiday parties, get-togethers and entertainments is over and a lot of us are slowly settling back to survey the financial damage and try to recoup some of the physical stamina. This is the time really when we look back and wonder in earnest where the year went and look in awe as the first days of the new year are already whizzing by at a dizzy pace.

Those who predicted that this month would make up for the unusually mild weather of December, can set back in gleeful remindful, I told you so; I just knew it."

Actually, if the same temperature had occurred a few days before and during the holidays there would have been far fewer complaints because the high feeling and good cheer would have done much to warm the atmosphere. Now we have nothing much to do but go back to the old routine of work and more work and get through the long wait for the next long holiday weekend which will not occur until Memorial day. Of course, for Midday, there is Easter which comes rather late this year, April 17. For the younger co-eds and young misses there is an added attraction this year in which they can have loads of fun with the opposite sex. This year is Leap Year and therefore they can have some fun making young male eligibles wonder who is chasing who. There'll probably be an influx of Sadie Hawkins day parties, not to exclude the usual St. Valentine, St. Patrick Day events and others.

We did our share of looking back, both personal and as a news reporter. After all there are many important events that stand out during the year that a reporter covers and records. Some may slip the mind but a casual perusal of the files readily recalls them to memory. Usually we list them as the 10 most important stories of the past year, etc., but this time we would just like to recall them for you and take you back over the past twelve months with us.

For instance, looking at our first issue of the 1959 editions, we came across the pictures and story of the appointment of Judge Luther Glanton, jr., to the Municipal bench; ten months later we read that he was elected to the same position; both events were milestones in Iowa history. At the same time that Judge Glanton was named to the bench the Harold Carrs and the Rev. Ian McCraes were having trouble with housing bigots as Des Moines made headlines around the nation—that a cross was burned on the yard of a minister!

Then came the Provincial Council meeting of the AKAs and Kappas in Des Moines followed by the Midwest Regional meeting of the NAACP with Roy Wilkins headlining the banquet which was attended by a large gathering of civic officials and civil rights leaders. Simultaneously, the national headlines were recording that history had been set back almost 50 years with the brutal kidnapping-slating of Mack Parker from a Mississippi jail.

Locally, too, there was the third appearance of the incomparable Marian Anderson at KRNT Theater and later another well-acclaimed lyric soprano artist, Adele Addison; also, the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the Hawkeye Elks Lodge No. 160 and its auxiliary, Rose Temple No. 33. Another outstanding organization which celebrated its 57th anniversary last year, made announcement for bigger achievements, the acquisition of a clubhouse—the Iowa Association of Club Women which officially changed its name at its annual convention in Council Bluffs last June.

Also, came the excitement as Des Moines once again shared the spotlight, with the coming of Nikita Khrushchev, boss of the Russian Kremlin, with local and state dignitaries paying him ambassadorial honors.

In addition, Crescent Beauty School celebrated its 20th year and brought the president of National Beauty Culturist League, Mrs. Katie Whickam, to the city for the occasion. Later in the fall they were hosts to their annual educational clinic and style show.

Just before the season closed there was the unbelievable production of Ebony Fashion Fair which was sponsored locally by the far-seeing club, the Olympians. Shortly, before there was the appearance of the noted civil rights leader and his dynamic speech of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King who was compared to the late Mohatma Ghandi, in his credo of non-violence.

On the debit side also were the loss to the community through death of the eminent physician, Dr. E. Thomas Scales, and the going to a new job of Malcolm Higgins, ardent executive secretary of the Des Moines Human Rights commission.

As you can see there were many things that happened but we can not mention them all. However, before we close we must mention the most far-reaching completion of plans for the Urban renewal and the projected Des Moines freeway which will make Des Moines a new city in the next decade or two.

So here's looking forward for better things and socio-economic, health and educational achievements in 1960. But most of all we look forward to a more solid and lasting peace. These we naturally hope for, more for our children, who will be the leaders of tomorrow, in 1965-1970-1975 and on until in turn, their children will be the leaders.

YOUNGSTERS SHOW WHAT CAN BE DONE

A group of students meeting in an Ohio university last week suggest projects the delegates would take home to which their attention should be directed during the coming year.

Interesting enough—and these were white students—those from North Carolina, Alabama and Tennessee decided to work for orderly integration in the public schools. Of these states, Tennessee is the most advanced in its program of integration, North Carolina has done some while Alabama none.

Thus, while the politicians and their ignorant followers are howling and shouting against integration, improved racial cooperation, fighting the Civil war over again and full equality for all Americans in keeping with our professed democracy, intelligent youngsters are leading the way.

These youngsters have far more foresight than their older neighbors. They have come to realize that except in Congress where seniority rather than merit places a member on top, race haters get nowhere in national affairs. True many decent southerners have learned this to the extent that Majority leader Senator Lyndon Johnson and a few others take little and at times no part in the antibelleu program pursued by some of their neighboring fellow congressmen.

Intelligent southerners realize that the youngsters are going to be rubbing shoulders with Negroes in the armed forces, in colleges—in the South more and more, on professional athletic teams where chances to make money prevail. And of course they must get along with all their neighbors if they and their teams are to win games.

There are those people—backward of course—North and South who have found all kinds of excuses to caution the NAACP and those working for prompt recognition of the dignity of ALL to go slow on its program or abandon it for the sake of harmony among the American people. But they are simply hitting their heads against a stone wall.

And the quicker men learn that this is true, the more united we in America will be.

SOME LABOR UNIONS CONTINUE SQUEEZE

Predictions are that 1960 will be a good business year. And while most large concerns shared in reasonably good business in 1959, many small ones made little or went in the red.

Should 1960 come up to expectations, employment will increase and thus the average man will make more money, provided of course, he gets into the stream where money flows.

Here in Des Moines, Negroes have improved there lot immeasurably. They have more money to spend, better homes in better areas, too many cars (this goes for the fellow who would rather drive a fine car than own a home). But after all he likes the show and it takes all kinds of people to make up the cast.

In many areas, employment has been good for women and those men working on jobs where the CIO wing of labor is the bargaining agents. On the other hand, while their laws don't forbid it, the bricklayers, plasterers, plumbers, machinists, electricians, automobile mechanics and a few more have not seen fit to offer any opportunities for Negro youngsters to get an apprenticeship or older men to work as journeymen. And this in spite of the efforts of many of the heads of the labor movement to do otherwise. The carpenters union is an exception—they have done a fine job.

While the position of the unions is ridiculous and most unfair, the Negro himself must plan an intelligent campaign to change this situation. It is going to require planning by them, money and intelligent consistent work with the labor unions to drop the unfair practices.

The Bystander has confidence that there are men in these unions who do not subscribe to this policy of exclusion; that there are members who have worked with Negroes and as good American citizens want them to get the full benefit of the expanded economy we are enjoying today.

These coupled with housing are projects which we in Des Moines must improve in 1960. And WE with intelligence and persistency must lead in getting the job done.

PATIENT AID ROLLS

Polio epidemics and outbreaks occurred in 1959 in Des Moines, Kansas City, New Haven and in scattered areas across the country. They have added new patients so that 50,000 are still on the patient aid with the best civil rights records. The NAACP leader said that the campaign seeks to stimulate voting in local and state elections as well as national elections. Dr. King announced that his organization planned to increase its staff in order to carry out the intensified voter registration program. "We will need new field secretaries to work with local groups," he said.

YW Schedules Coed Ski Safari Feb. 5-7

Registrations are being taken for the Des Moines Y.W.C.A. fifth annual Coed Ski Safari, which is scheduled to Mt. Telemark, Wis. for the week-end of Feb. 5 to 7. Traveling via chartered buses, the tour originates at Des Moines and picks up participants from other Iowa locations enroute. Buses leave the Des Moines "Y" at 7 p.m. on Friday and return late on Sunday night.

Luxurious Lodge

The all expense trip includes housing at the luxurious Kroehler Lodge, Hayward, Wisc., transportation to and from the ski area at Cable, Wisc., use of the area, ski equipment, T-Bar and instruction if desired. Four meals and a Saturday evening Lodge Party are also included. Other relaxing activities are planned for between-ski intervals; the tour is open to both novices and experienced skiers. The annual event is sponsored by the young adult committee of the Y.W.C.A. Mrs. Simon Casady is chairman; Mrs. Marjorie Eakley, Program director. For further information, call the Des Moines Y.W.C.A.

PRE-FREEZE FOR ANGEL PIE

When the freezer is put to use the best of the season's crops can be preserved for later enjoyment. One of the most eagerly awaited is the strawberry. Home frozen strawberries retain the fresh, juicy taste of newly picked ones for months when packed in approved freezing containers like Vapocans, square, waxed-board containers with rigid plastic lids.

Strawberries to use later in dessert recipes should be prepared in a dry, sweetened pack before freezing. This is all you have to do. After they are washed, drained, and hulled, tumble berries in sugar, 1/2 cup per quart. Pack in square, waxed-board containers and freeze immediately.

STRAWBERRY ANGEL PIE
Here is a way to put a container of home frozen strawberries to mouth-watering use. Add 1/4 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar to 4 egg whites. Beat until stiff. Beat in 1 cup granulated sugar. Beat in 1/2 teaspoon vanilla. Spread in well-buttered, 9-inch pie plate, having mixture higher around the edge to make a rim. Bake 1 hour at 275°, then cool. Spread with 1/2 cup whipped cream.

HEALTH FOR ALL

The Child Killer

More than 10,000 children from one to fourteen years of age die as a result of accidents every year. And for each child who dies, approximately 200 are injured, five of them permanently crippled.

Even a tiny infant moves about enough to get into life-threatening danger. Crawlers and toddlers are exposed to increasing hazards as the scope of their activities widens.

A four-month-old baby can roll over on its own. That means that it must not be left alone for a second in the bathtub, on a bed, table, or bathinette. At six months an infant can crawl, rapidly and all over the place. A little later it tries to haul itself upright by pulling on electric appliance cords, table cloths, and pieces of furniture. Everything possible and some things seemingly impossible will be put in the mouth.

Second Year

During the second year, a child

How did you like the Bowl games? Friend of ours, looking at the headlines which read, "Washington stuns Badgers", added "They didn't only stun 'em; they beat the heck out of them." If one read the Pacific coast papers, he would have known more about Fleming and that tough fullback. Oh, well, the Big Ten couldn't hope to win forever. We were surprised when not one Negro showed up in the Wisconsin starting lineup. So we pulled for Washington. Sounds kinda silly to say that Wisconsin is the only Big Ten team to lose in the entire Bowl series. When one thinks of the times when both Michigan State and Northwestern had to come from behind, aided by a series of breaks to win, it is possible to realize that there could have been other losers, but for the funny bounces that a football sometimes takes.

Syracuse-Texas

That Syracuse-Texas game was about as rough as you will see them on television between two college teams. That fight could have set the whole program of intercollegiate football back 10 years or more. We heard it remarked that if the game officials had realized that Baker was going to score on that long pass, they would have come up with something wrong, and nullified it. It just happened so fast they didn't have time to think of any rules violations. The same speaker said that in his opinion, the last Orange Bowl TD was called back by quick thinking on the part of the official just as would have been the first one.

Southern Tournery

Now we are not arguing that the officials in that game were the least bit prejudiced, but we have the word of one of the players that they thought they got the worst of the calls. But, as we always say, when you play in the other fellow's back yard, you expect to see him get the breaks. Just check and see how many good Negro basketball players finish games when they play in these Southern tournaments. We were glad that the Negroes on the various Bowl teams came through and all played important parts in their team wins. And do you know we figure that the reason why teams with Negro players have such a hard time winning in Bowl games like the Orange and Cotton Bowls is because those Southern boys just hate to let the home crowd see them lose to a team like that. So, since football is about 50 percent emotional spirit, the boys from below the line really let go. It should work both ways, except there are always too few Negroes to do any good.

Basketball

While the Bowl gridiron games were being fought out, Iowa's Hawkeye cage team was battling Cincinnati, can climb on chairs and window sills, negotiate the stairs, reach up to the top of stove or table, poke into electric outlets. Even more things go into the mouth.

The three and four-year-old is no longer baffled by closed closets and drawers, only by those securely locked and completely out of reach. Children of this age have been known to sample furniture polish, laundry bleach, shampoo, insecticides, cleaning fluid. No container is too far back in the closet to be found.

After this age and on into the early teens, a child is adventurous, willing to try anything, with little idea of what danger means or what is likely to be dangerous. So it's up to parents to be ever watchful, to install all possible safeguards, and to teach children the elements of safety as they grow old enough to understand.

nati, Big Oscar Robinson and all to a "fare thee well", even if they did lose. The Hawks didn't do their national rating any harm. They will be up there until next week when the Minnesota game counts. It will be interesting to see what sort of a rating Iowa State gets after winning the Big Eight title at Kansas City. Vinnie Brewer was the big man down there along with Henry Whitney. Every team in that meet had at least one Negro. And to think that just a few years ago, these same Negroes would have had to go to court in order to get into the schools. But today, if your team doesn't have some Negro talent, you ain't gonna win too often.

But we have to go on record here and now as saying that we don't think Cincinnati will win the national championship, even with Oscar. They depend on him too much. The national championship teams have to be well balanced, and that is what may trip up Big O and his mates.

NEW YEAR DITTIES

Here's to 1960 and may it gild with light
Every darkened corner—removing every blight;
And may that Blessed peace, descend from up above
Reaching into every heart, displacing fear with love.

Now say—"A Happy New Year"
And with each word and deed
Give, as He would have you do

Sugar Ray Wants Fighters "Union"

Washington, D. C.—Is Sugar Ray Robinson trying to organize a "union" of ring gladiators?

He says yes. But George Meany, president, AFL-CIO, claims that he and Sugar Ray have never discussed the matter.

However, he claims that, pursuant to the "unfavorable" publicity which Hoffa had received he had decided against approaching him again. He stated that George Meany had evinced much interest in the matter.

But, right now, Mr. Meany says, "Tain't so!"

Willie Mays Denies Rift

New York, N. Y.—Willie Mays, stellar outfielder of the San Francisco Giants, denied to reporters this week that he and his pretty wife, Marguerite, had separated.

The only reason they would be apart from each other at Christmas he said emphatically, was because

Where ever there is NEED.
O. K., it's 1960—so now's the time to start
Sharing with your neighbor
Giving with your heart.

MY NEW YEAR'S WISH FOR YOU

May Faith go with you through the year
That realizes God is near.
May Hope go with you through the year

To light your way and give you cheer.

May love go with you through the year—

The love that casteth out all fear.
May Christ Himself be near to bless
With peace and joy and true success.
This is my greetings and my prayer—
God give you all a glad New Year!
—Dr. William J. Thompson.

TELEPHONE BOOTHS

New York City's outdoor telephone booths—all 3,000 of them—are washed with soap and water twice a month. This helps to protect public health—and many additional dimes doubtlessly cling into the Telephone Company coffers because clean booths looks more inviting!

CLEAN BODY

We sometimes think of the peoples of ancient times as being "uncivilized." But how wrong we are! Strict habits of personal cleanliness were required of the Jews more than 3000 years ago, according to the laws of their religion. They were taught that a clean body is essential to a clean mind and a pure spirit.
