ONE Magazine Tops 200,000 Reader

Tone, the monthly magazine section for Negro weekly newspapers has gained a remarkable 200,000 circulation in less than four months, according to its publisher, Don W. McIvaine. Twenty-five newspapers in 17 states now subscribe to the publication, making Tone the fastest growing Negro publication in the country today.

More than 70 other Negro newspapers, McIvaine says, are negotiating for the colorful magazine insert, taking advantage of Tone's cost-free policy during the next several months.

Contributors

Tone, "an informative, educational and entertaining supplement," is distributed to Negro newspapers on a similar basis as magazine sections now servicing many of the country's metropolitan dailies. Many of the nation's best writers and photographers are contributing pictures and feature articles on fashions, sports, entertainment, foreign affairs and national news.

Chicago Headquarters

With editorial and advertising offices in Chicago, some of the country's best-trained Negro journalists are combining their efforts in the project. Among them are Publisher, McIvaine, 30, former Howard University student; Managing Editor Carl Smith, Jr. and Associate Editor Charles Leonard, both graduates of the University of Illinois, and Edgar Harris, Advertising Director, former Howard University student.

Among contributors to Tone are award winning novelist Frank London Brown, former editor-war correspondent Vincent Tubbs, Dan Burley, Barbara Gardner and photographer David Jackson.

The April issue of Tone will be increased from eight to 12 pages for the first time, to utilize expanding coverage.

Cape Town Tense, as Police Attempt to Club Natives to Surrender

Cape Town, South Africa—A heavily armed and mechanized police force on orders from a desperate government moved in on the big Nyanga Negro settlement east of Cape Town Tuesday and attempted to club into submission hundreds of natives with brute force.

Casualties, by the hundreds, streamed into hospital suffering mostly from head wounds inflicted by gun butts, clubs and other weapons. The outbreak came as police with armored cars, an armored troop carrier and several riot trucks ranged through Nyanga, beating up African Negroes in an effort to get them to go back to work.

Second Day

It marked the second straight day that the Capetown area had been the center of trouble, although scattered outbreaks of violence of Negroes opposing South Africa's white supremacy also were reported at Johannesburg and Durban. About 100 Negroes who were on their way back to their native reserves to await the racial blowover, were besieged by knife carrying Africans Monday night but were later rescued by police.

Natives Beaten

However, Africans in Nyanga claimed police smashed windows and doors of houses Tuesday and ordered

The Student 'Sit-In' Picture

Baton Rouge, La.—Nine students from Southern University remain in jail while more than 5400 others and boycott classes in protest against the suspension of these and other sit-in leaders.

Southern University President, Felton G. Clark, has ordered the suspension of 16 students arrested while participating in sit-ins at the S. H. Kress store in Baton Rouge. The students have not been allowed to set foot on the campus since.

The student leaders communicate with the students still on campus by means of a loudspeaker set up just across the railroad tracks from the University.

More than 4,000 students have attempted to withdraw from the University. However, officials will not accept withdrawals unless accompanied by a note from the parents.

Iowa State, Drake Students "Bury" Jim Crow

About 125 students from Iowa State University at Ames and Drake University participated in a civil rights demonstration Saturday afternoon on the steps of the statehouse. A spokesman for the groups said the meeting was staged to show sympathy for the "sit-in" demonstrations at segregated lunch counters in the South.

The demonstration took the form of a mock funeral, with a wreath and a casket, labeled "discrimination." However, according to plans, the "burial" was halted when an Ames Presbyterian minister told the group "white discrimination is week creating a new the same city this. Many Negroes on the campuses of Iowa colleges are closed to Negroes by the color bar. She fell asleep while holding the candle and had to be rushed to the hospital with severe body burns. The fire also did $5,000 damage to her home.

Chicago, Ill.—Chicago's only Negro police captain, Kinzie Bluit, was ousted from command of the city's busiest police district last week and given no new assignment.

"SHOOT" PRETTY COOKIES

Every woman should have a gun—that is, an aluminum cookie decorating gun. The "barrel" holds the cookie batter, and interchangeable discs offer a choice of nine assorted shapes just by squeezing the trigger. After a shooting session, the gun and all its parts should be washed promptly in hot soap or detergent suds, before the batter hardens.

Washington, D. C.—The senate civil rights battles which have raged—impotently but hopefully—against Southern filibustering during the past eight weeks, virtually died of strangulation Monday. It all appeared over but the official and final as voting the Republican leader, Everett Dirksen of Illinois, and southern protagonist, Lyndon Johnson (Dem.) of Texas, joined forces to steam roll the weak bill, which remains but a skeleton of the Administration's proposals.

Polk Republicans Endorse Nixon and Civil Rights Proposals

At its presidential convention Friday evening the Polk county Republicans endorsed nomination of Vice President Richard M. Nixon for president and adopted a resolution on civil rights requesting the Iowa delegation in congress to support the house civil rights bill which has been undergoing amendment in the senate.

Amended Rules

Author of the resolution was J. B. Morris, Sr., veteran publisher and civil rights leader, who succeeded in amending the rules to permit submission of his resolution from the floor, if need be.

The resolution, which incorporated the exact wording of the Morris proposal and identified as his, was adopted unanimously. It reads as follows:

Resolved that this convention urge the Iowa delegation in Congress to support and vote for the civil rights measure endorsed by the administration which has been passed by the house and is now pending in the senate.

White House Youth Confab Dissatisfied with Talks on School Integration Issues

Washington—The frustration experienced by the youth delegates to the White House Conference on Children and Youth because of neglect of the segregation issue was expressed at a news conference here Thursday by NAACP youth leaders attending the White House assembly.

Delegates Return From White House Meeting

More than 7,500 delegates attending the week-long 50th Anniversary White House conference on Children and Youth in Washington, D. C., returned to their homes last weekend. Three Negroes in the Iowa delegation were Miss Charlene Wharton, executive director of Willkie House, Mrs. Marguerite Cothorn, recreation division secretary of the Council of Social Agencies, both of Des Moines and James Jackson, youth delegate from Waterloo.

Among the delegates were 500 international participants from 73 countries.

There was nothing left of the school aid provision with its proposed endorsement of the 1954 Supreme court decision which deals with school integration. Amendments to strengthen the voting rights bill which permit the attorney general to intervene in school desegregation suits if they were first brought to light by private citizens, were sacked.

Voting Rights

All that remained after the steam roller pressure was a voting rights measure and two general statutes that makes it a federal crime to bomb and obstruct court orders.

Final senate passage of the weak civil rights bill was expected sometime later this week. Some speculated that it might come Tuesday night, even though some other amendments remained to be offered.

A new move to curtail debate and pocket legislation, was hit upon by Dirksen and Johnson with the use of a tabling motion. The technique is for one of the leaders to hold the floor while an amendment is being offered, then announce that he will move to table it.

NAACP Membership Meeting Set for Monday

SEE FRONT PAGE many of the young people and some adults representing various organizations and official bodies. A petition was circulated among the 7,000 delegates attending the conference calling upon the conference to declare "its full support for the southern Negro students in their fight for freedom," and to support the Supreme Court's anti-segregation ruling of May 17, 1954. The petition further called "upon all appropriate branches of the federal, state and local governments to insure the full and immediate implementation of that decision."

Dissatisfaction A group of students representing the NAACP, National Students Association, Students for Democratic Action, North American Students Cooperative League and other youth organizations issued a joint statement expressing dissatisfaction "with the manner in which the issues involved in the Supreme Court decision regarding racial discrimination and the sit-in protests which stemmed from the inequality which persists in many parts of the country have been handled at the 1960 White House Conference on Children and Youth."

These students organized a picket line on March 31 in front of a nearby Kresge variety store in Washington. South Africa

SEE FRONT PAGE Negroes into the streets. If they refused, they were dragged out and beaten, they said.

"Even those who obeyed the order were beaten up," one witness said.

Policeman Hacked In Tuesday's rioting two South African white policemen were injured when they were beaten over the head with clubs and a Negro policeman was hacked to death when attacked by a mob, which he attempted to hold off by shooting his revolver into the crowd. A military cordon, clamped around Nyanga since Monday was lifted at dawn Tuesday, but after police moved in and began their raids, it was closed again.

Tense Spot The big Nyanga settlement, along with the Langa settlement has been a tense spot since Mar. 21, gone down in modern history as "Bloody Monday," when nearly a hundred natives were killed when police opened fire on a mass gathering of Africans who invited jailing for burning their passbooks. The Negro stay home campaign had hit this big port city hardest of all South Africa's major population centers.

Dan Figgins Bids for Republican Seat as County Supervisor

Dan W. Figgins, an insurance man, announces he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for the first district member of the Polk County board of supervisors.

FIGGINS

This district is bounded on the south by Watrous and on the North by Aurora. It runs from S.E. 5th, the river, and North Union St. west to 63rd st. It also includes Valley Township in West Des Moines.

In announcing his candidacy, Figgins said: "I believe in economy, efficiency, and business like methods in government. If elected I am prepared to devote all the time necessary to carrying on the duties of a county supervisor."

Figgins has held one public office—serving on the board of trustees of Broadlawn General Hospital from 1955 to 1958. He was a member of the Polk County grand jury in 1959, acting as foreman for two court terms. Figgins, who attended Iowa State University, has lived in Des Moines since 1934. He was general agent in Iowa for the Massachusetts Protective Association, Inc. and the Paul Revere Life Insurance Co. until retiring from that position in 1948. He continues as a special insurance agent.

Eastland Changes

New York—The Senate Judiciary Committee's amendments to the civil rights bill make "it harder, rather than easier, for Negro citizens in the South to register to vote," Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, charges in identical telegrams sent Friday to 76 Senators of both parties.

Local Units

In addition to the wires to the Senate civil rights leaders, Wilkins sent telegrams to 105 local units of the Association in 28 states urging them to call upon their Senators to support "a strong civil rights bill including a voting section that will make it easier not harder for Negro citizens to register and vote in the South." The bill, as amended by the Judiciary Committee, "will be practically useless to Negro citizens seeking to vote," Wilkins asserted.

New York City — Hazel Scott Makes Return Debut in Chicago . . . With all the tax problems her ex-husband, Adam Clayton Powell, is having, Hazel Scott is proving she is every bit as dynamic and talented as ever—in a return debut at Mister Kelly's, a small club in Chicago where modern jazz reigns supreme . . . She's on a 3 week date and though it's not a mammoth victory as Powell usually makes, Hazel holds her own . . . Those who remember the smooth-skinned copper-colored girl in the 40s and loved her then, will be thrilled to know she's back—and in good shape . . . Hazel now does more singing than playing . . . She always had a deep, throaty voice, and after 3 years in Paris, she's even more international and cultured.

Lena Horne

Our Lena Horne is really some woman—she opened at Eden Roc at Miami Beach to a full house with $10 minimum plus a $6. pre-fixed dinner rate and the audience loved every minute though their tabs were anywhere from $25 up . . . She's wearing some fabulous outfits these days and the customers spend so much time admiring how she looks they forget what a good stylist she is . . . Surely, Miss Horne is tops in her league—and she rates among the finest performers.

Peters Sisters

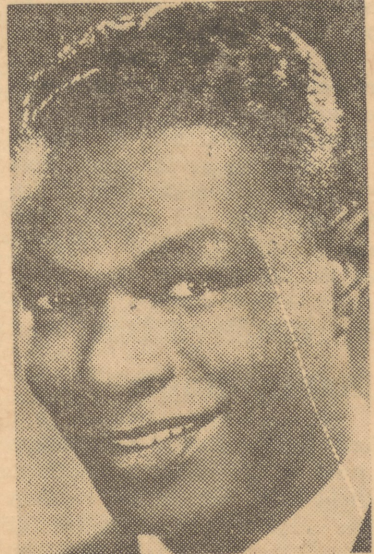

The Peters Sisters—Ann, Mattie and Virginia, are at it again . . . Still hefty and fun-loving—the girls are in Madrid now, after spending much time abroad, and do hilarious versions of "Rhumba Cha Cha Cha", "Peters Can-Can Rock and Roll" . . . Playing the Rendezvous Room in the Castellana-Hilton Hotel, the Peters Sisters are a definite change of pace from the fabulous slim singers usually performing there.

Brook Benton

A backwoods singer named Jimmy Edwards is rising to fame on a name usually associated with James Edwards, the actor . . . Brook Benton has a new one out for Mercury called "Hither, Thither and Yon" and is much about nothing though the deejays classify it as a sure hit.

Mahalia Jackson

Mahalia Jackson has a new Columbia recording contract which clearly states that practically all her earnings go towards a Mahalia Jackson Temple in Chicago, a project she is most interested in . . . Meanwhile, Miss Jackson does a concert at Constitution Hall sponsored by the Interdenominational Church Ushers Assn.

Nat King Cole

Nat King Cole is so fabulous—he has a 30 minute trailer in color on his life playing the neighborhood theatres and a press agent who sends a scout to Europe to roll out the red carpet for his coming tour over there . . . Incidentally, it would be a good thing if Nat, Billy Eckstine and Sammy Davis, Jr. really come to terms and buy the Roberts Show Lounge in Chicago, which has been roughing rocky weather for quite awhile . . . Sammy stepped in and saved the day around Thanksgiving and Billy just finished a date there to capacity audiences—but the club cannot seem to get out of the red . . . A favorite place for showfolk because it's on Chicago's southside and all the celebs from the good old days drop in often—the Show Lounge would make an ideal investment . . . Plus, the trio plan to each play the spot separately at least four weeks of the year—and that alone would ring up the register.

Slates "Coffee Day" to Aid Crippled Children

The fourth annual Coffee Day for Crippled Children will be held throughout Iowa on Friday, April 15, it was announced today by Thomas Teas, president of the Iowa Society for Crippled Children and Adults and Harold Enquist of the Breeze House, Ankeny, who is serving as state-wide Coffee Day Chairman.

Funds raised on Coffee Day go toward the special residential summer camp for Iowa's crippled children now under construction near Ankeny in Central Iowa. It is the newest of the projects by the Iowa Society for Crippled Children and Adults in the interest of expanding services to help rehabilitate Iowa's crippled children.

Northwestern Bell Deliver First Half Payment Of $303,000 Property Taxes to Co. Treasurer

A check for $151,990.53 has been delivered to the Polk County Treasurer for payment of the first half of the 1959 operating property taxes of the Northwestern Bell Telephone Company in Polk County, according to M. W. Sandvig, district manager of the telephone company here. The total for the year in Polk County will be $303,980.72. That is 87% greater than for 1954, only five years ago, he added.

All Tax Total

Sandvig pointed out that Northwestern Bell's total tax bill for all kinds of taxes in Iowa was more than $16,850,000, well over two millions more than a year ago. In addition, its telephone customers paid $7,346,000 in telephone federal excise and state sales taxes, making a total of over $24,200,000. This is an average of $2.87 per telephone per month, more than four times the amount in 1940. The 1959 tax bill equalled the total amount all users paid for service in three months and 13 days. It represented twenty-eight and one-half cents of every dollar collected from its customers by the company in 1959, Sandvig said.

Excise Tax

"No other comparable essential local utility service carries so heavy and discriminatory a tax bill," Sandvig pointed out. "Other essential public services such as electricity, gas, water and local transportation do not have any federal excise tax. If the excise tax on local service is terminated on July 1, 1960 as recommended by Congress, our customers will get the benefit of this savings, which amounts to more than the cost of one month's local service per year. However, this termination is subject to review and already has been recommended for extension for another year.

The Negro should behave himself and show he's a good citizen. Common sense and goodwill can solve this whole thing."

POISON ANTIDOTE

Children will be curious, and accidents will happen. So, be ready for both by storing this tip with your emergency information: if your child eats or drinks anything poisonous, phone the doctor. Then, instead of panicking, give the child several glasses of soapy water, mixed with baking soda or mustard. This serves as an antidote by helping to induce vomiting, thus eliminating the hazardous substance.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

Bath-time and nap-time for baby offers excellent subject material for a picture story.

Pictures in a Series Tell a Story

One picture is always good—but there are many snapshot situations in which it is a shame not to take a whole series. Pictures in a series can tell a heartwarming story of family life that will be a treasured part of the snapshot album.

The small try of the household are always good subject material for a picture story. The day in the life of a baby is so worth recording. Flash on camera makes such pictures easy to take. You can follow baby's activities wherever they normally take place—from nursery to bath to the kitchen. And, if that is baby's day to go out, perhaps for a visit to grandmother, it's a wise mother indeed who takes the flash camera along to include this part of the day in the picture story.

In addition to making up an interesting section for your family album, these picture stories can bring pleasure to other people as well. Out-of-town friends and relatives would be delighted to receive a note from you enclosing a set of snapshots like those shown above. Fond grandparents would be pleased as punch to receive a small album which traces in pictures the activities of a favorite grandchild in a typical day.

It's always a good idea to share your snapshots. Extra prints from your negatives are inexpensive and are bound to be welcomed by others who share your interest in the subject. We all like to find letters in our mailboxes—but a letter with a snapshot, or a series of snapshots, is something extra special. —John Van Gulder

Films Give Variety to Club Programs

Many clubs and organizations have heard their first "meeting come to order" for the season, and program chairmen are looking for good material.

That's why we feel it's a good time to talk about the vast fund of program material that's currently available in professionally-made movies—and at prices well within the budget of even the smallest club group. We think you'll be pleasantly surprised to learn that it's possible to provide an interesting program for as small a rental fee as $1.25 to $2 per film!

Movies are really hard to beat as program material. For they not only offer fine fare for a tiny price, but present a wide enough choice of subject matter to fit any type of program you may be planning.

General interest, pure entertainment, special interest, educational—dramatic or documentary—you can have what you want strictly à la carte! If yours is a literary group, look into the classics of literature available on film. A Mothers' Club and the Parent-Teachers Association will be interested in films on child care and development. The garden club

UNDERSTANDING IOWA CHILDREN

SPONSORED BY THE IOWA CHILD WELFARE RESEARCH STATION

Written by May P. Youtz, SUI Associate Professor

PARENT-CHILD RELATIONSHIP

There's hardly a parent anywhere who hasn't become angry or dismayed because of his child's behavior. However, the occasional bad day or the moments of irritation need not be of great concern when the parent's basic relationship with his child is a good one.

"But just what is a good relationship?" asks the parent. This question may best be answered by asking three further questions. Does your child feel that he is loved? Does he feel that he belongs? Does he feel that he amounts to something?

Unconditional Love

A parent may be confident that bulletin issued this week. Applications are being accepted for Laborer and Custodial and Janitor positions, which have a starting pay rate of $3,405.00 a year and $1.69 an hour respectively, and are open only to persons entitled to veteran preference who reside in the delivery area, or are bona fide patrons of the post office named above.

Further information and blanks may be obtained at the main Post Office; or from the Director, Ninth U. S. Civil Service Region, New Federal Building, 1114 Market Street, St. Louis 1, Mo.

Rev. Humbred Dies in Marshalltown

Word was received in Des Moines this week of the death of the Rev. Whitfield Humbred, former resident of Des Moines and associate of Corinthian Baptist church. The Rev. Mr. Humbred had been pastoring a Baptist church in Marshalltown for the past six years.

Mrs. Robert LaMay Enters Mercy Hospital

Mrs. Robert LaMay of 1214 15th street is a patient at Mercy hospital. She entered the hospital Saturday.

his relationship with his child is a good one when he can answer "yes" to each of these questions. Children need a special kind of love called "unconditional love." This doesn't mean loving every single thing a child does, for there are many times when it is necessary for a parent to warn or restrict his child. In doing so, it is very important that the child feels that his mother and father love him even though they don't like what he is doing at that particular moment.

Sense of Belonging

A child needs a sense of belonging. He needs to feel that his family wants him and that his home is a nice place to be. This doesn't mean necessarily a place where there are never any emotional outbursts or unhappinesses. However, continuous family tension disturbs a child and threatens his sense of security.

Children need to feel that they amount to something. Praising a child's achievements and demanding only what he is capable of doing are important ways in which parents may recognize and appreciate his accomplishments.

There is little doubt that children who feel they are loved, belong, and amount to something are and will continue to be well-adjusted individuals.

Jule Kaga

A fruit and nut-laden loaf of Jule Kaga served with frosty fruit juice evokes a gay holiday mood for an early morning breakfast.

Warm buttery slices of Jule Kaga will surely delight Christmas callers. This Norwegian Christmas bread has an unusually good flavor created by ground cardamom, candied citron, raisins and chopped almonds.

Few things can compare with the fragrance of freshly baked bread. Especially at Christmas time, baking becomes a part of the gay holiday festivities.

The ingredients for this oven-fresh bread make their own contribution in nutritional value. Milk, sugar and eggs skillfully supplement the food value of the enriched flour. Many of us don't realize that enriched flour offers three B-vitamins, food iron, plant protein and food energy.

Serve Jule Kaga just fresh and warm from the oven with mugs of hot chocolate. Perhaps you will want to feature it at a holiday brunch. Or, slice it thin and spread with cream cheese making dainty sandwiches to serve with hot spiced tea to holiday callers. The family will eat generously when slices of this bread are toasted for an early morning breakfast.

The baker helps make your task of feeding the family a nourishing breakfast an easy one. When there is no time for baking, select a coffee cake from the bake shop. The baker has fashioned both traditional and new coffee cakes with tempting fillings and toppings. Wrap aluminum foil around the coffee cake and warm in the oven. This will give it a "fresh-from-the-oven" goodness.

JULE KAGA

Links Ask President For Appointment of Negroes to FCC

Washington, D. C.—Pauline F. Weeden, president of the Links, Inc. revealed last week that her organization had wired President Eisenhower, urging him to appoint a Negro to fill the unexpired term of John C. Doerfer who recently resigned as chairman of the Federal Communications Commission under a cloud of unfavorable public pressure.

Broke News

"The fact that he did not appoint a Negro does not weaken my own belief that our people are entitled to high government office," she said.

Mrs. Weeden broke the news as she addressed a group attending the "kick-off" luncheon of the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA Annual Membership Drive. Last December she appeared before the Commissioners to urge them to use their authority in ridding the broadcast industry of practices which excludes Negroes.

Use Telegrams

Speaking on "Women and Leadership," Mrs. Weeden told the group "We must continue voicing our determination to play a significant role in all phases of American life."

She told her listeners to use telegrams, letters and personal contacts in informing the President and other officials that Negroes, too, can serve as commissioners, cabinet officers and administrators as well as clerks and assistants to assistants.

Only one more week 'til Easter and women the nation over will burst out in all their colorful Easter finery. Those who have conscientiously stood by their Lenten abstentions, will be able to return to it and again, indulge in their favorite recreation, dessert, or whatever. For many Easter is the line of demarcation between winter and spring . . . and old winter clothes are shed for spring togs.

The Iowa Buxton Club No. 2 ushered in the social portion of spring with an unusual idea—but not original—for this time of year in this part of the country . . . A Mardi Gras party. Parties are always welcomed in the spring but a masquerade event left plenty of room for imagination and change of costume. Costumes ranged from Wyatt Earps, Chesters, Matt Dillions, Indian maidens, Indian chiefs, Chinese, Hindus, clowns, rabbits, beatniks and others. One lady dressed as a man had most of her friends fooled until she told them her identity.

Mrs. Margaret Williams of 1229 10th street was the lucky winner of a week's street car pass recently. She is quite active in the Rose Temple No. 33, auxiliary of the Hawkeye Elks No. 160. Speaking of the Hawkeye Elks, their Drum and Bugle corps created a little stir Sunday afternoon on the corner of 10th and University. The sudden, booming blast of drums brought people out of their homes for a six block radius, wondering where was the parade.

Mrs. E. A. Gaiters of 1135 10th street had an unfortunate minor but painful accident last Wednesday when she fell as she was descending from a local transit bus. The bus driver delayed his run to call an ambulance to have her taken to a hospital so she could be checked and treated.

A series of public service programs based on informal discussions of local current problems, mainly housing as pertaining to minority groups, was sponsored by Radio Station KWKY at 10:30 p.m. last week. Among the first citizens to appear on the program were Judge and Mrs. Luther Glanton, Jr., and Dr. Robert M. Johnson. In the middle of the week, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wimberly were guests, and cited the problems of widows affected by the freeway as the hardest citizens hit in the city.

The only Negro among the eight youth delegates from Iowa attending the recent White House Conference on Children and Youth was a young man from Waterloo, James Jackson. He is married and is a student at Iowa State Teachers College in Cedar Rapids. He is employed at Rath Packing company. His wife also attends college. They are parents of a little daughter.

Because of an omission in printing the announcement that door prizes will be given at the Cavalcade of Beauty, Monday evening, was left off. That left prospective patrons wondering what the numbers on their tickets signified.

Displays Missile on Behalf of Easter Seals

An SM-75 THOR surface-to-surface strategic missile will be displayed at 5th and Mulberry in down-town Des Moines, April 7-10, in connection with the current Easter Seal Campaign.

The exhibit is sponsored by the Polk County Society for Crippled Children and Adults and the United States Air Force Recruiting Detachment 503. The THOR is an intermediate range ballistic missile produced for the Air Force by the Douglas Aircraft Company. It is powered by a North American Aviation Company liquid fuel engine which develops 165,000 pounds of thrust.

BATHE A TURTLE!

Does your youngster have one of those little turtles sold in dime stores? If so, teach him how to wash the turtle's shell where scum tends to develop. Just dip a finger into thick soap or detergent suds. Next, hold the turtle in one hand and rotate the suds gently all over his back—and only his back! Then rinse carefully and return him to his bowl.

DEVILED EGGS—GLORIFIED.

A GOLDEN GLOW FROM A SMOOTH CHEESE SAUCE makes this deviled egg dish extra special fare. Zestfully seasoned Underwood Deviled Ham, added to stuffed eggs, gives a tangy and hearty flare to a family favorite. Whole-ham goodness with deep down flavor is the deviled ham secret to cooking success. Try this dish on your family:

DEVILED EGGS IN CHEESE SAUCE

- 6 hard-cooked eggs
 - 1 Family Size (4 1/2 oz.) Underwood Deviled Ham
 - 1 tablespoon minced parsley
 - 1 teaspoon prepared mustard
 - 2 cups cheese sauce
- Shell eggs and cut in lengthwise halves. Remove and mash yolks. Mix in deviled ham, parsley and mustard. Refill egg halves with deviled mixture and arrange in a shallow, baking dish. Pour cheese sauce over eggs. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) about 10 minutes, or until very hot. Makes 3-4 servings. (ANS)

BLOCKING URBAN RENEWAL PROGRESS

Clearing out residents of one slum area and pushing them into another but smaller area, does not solve the problem for low cost housing.

Last week, some members of the Des Moines Urban Renewal board suggested that the group support an enabling act which would permit Des Moines to construct low cost housing with federal help. Iowa has no such law and thus such projects have not been built.

The sponsors of the idea realize that in other states, urban renewal projects have not gone forward without federal help. Here, on its own board are men who have helped defeat an enabling act in our legislature time and again and who now are charged with the responsibility of building a project which needs it.

True, private capital has been set up to provide a small project on the east side with a measly subsidy by the city. But the Bystander feels that the local urban renewal project will not be able to accomplish what the people expect hedged in by lack of homes for those who are to be dispossessed and promoted by many people who don't believe in it.

SUPPORT STUDENTS IN SIT-DOWN STRIKES

Speaking before a Civil Liberties meeting in Des Moines, Norman Thomas, many times candidate president on the Socialist ticket, gave his unqualified endorsement of the protest strikes now being carried on against stores denying Negroes equal accommodations.

Going further, Mr. Thomas said the students are in a much better position to carry on this program because few, if any, economic sanctions can or will be visited upon them. On the other hand, should their parents be involved, denial of jobs and other economic hardship could be visited upon them.

As the whole program sinks in, many people who disapproved of the project when it began are changing their minds. They realize that America won its freedom by similar projects such as the Boston Tea Party. To deny the Negroes right to do so is unfair and shortsighted.

INTEGRATION MAKING HEADWAY IN SOUTH

In spite of all the bad publicity racial strife in the South gets, recent reports indicate that school integration is making progress.

Southern School News, a group which has tabulated the school attendance in the South, states that Negroes attend integrated schools in all the southern states except South Carolina, Mississippi, Louisiana, Georgia and Alabama; that the District of Columbia and West Virginia are completely integrated.

These results show that in addition to the job being done by the NAACP, a great many southern white people who believe in law and order have gone about the job in a quiet way moving integration ahead slowly yet definitely.

These results don't compliment the rabble rousers, White Citizens Councils or low brow politicians many of whom are in high places.

SOUTH AFRICA LOSING ITS HEAD

Well, South Africa is now attempting to force Negroes back on their jobs, many of whom boycotted employment because of injustices to their leaders and to the group as a whole.

South Africa is like a mad dog running wild with no regard for the rights of anybody.

But South Africa cannot do this indefinitely for their tactics have been so reprehensible that our state department sent an official protest going far beyond its former actions against that country when heretofore it had been questioned by UN. Others are doing likewise.

BABY CAR CARRIAGE

Taking the baby on a trip is much easier with a "car carriage." One model can be converted into a bed— or used as a stroller—and then collapses for storage. This lightweight carriage is also completely washable, an important factor for any multi-purpose equipment.

JAPANESE HEALTH

Cleanliness education is being stepped up in Japan. If you go to the Orient today, you'll hear American-type jingles set to Japanese melodies encouraging personal cleanliness—frequent washing of hands, face, body, and clothes in the interest of national health.

Waterloo's Hoosman Does 6-4 High Jump

Cedar Falls, Ia.—Emmit Hoosman of Waterloo East turned in the state's second highest high school high jump this season here Thursday in a dual meet. He did 6 feet 4 inches as Waterloo East beat Cedar Falls, 75-65.

Gayle Hopkins of Davenport jumped 6-5½ in the state meet last week at Iowa City for the season's best and tied the Iowa school record. Hoosman tried 6-5 three times, but failed.

We recall when we were in high school. One of our athletic pals reminded us that Negroes were tough in boxing, football and track; that some were good baseball players. But, he argued we as a group would never master basketball. It just wasn't our game he said. Oh, as time went on, we might produce a good player now and then but we would never be able to really play the game in large numbers.

We don't know why we thought of this but wherever that fellow is now, we wonder what he thinks of the way in which Negroes have practically taken over basketball. Just about all of our leading college teams north of the Mason-Dixon line have one or more Negroes and down in Dixie the Negro schools there are taking their place among the nation's top teams.

Grade Schools, Too

The trend runs from grade schools into colleges. Marshall High of Chicago fielded an all Negro team to win the Illinois State high school title and then beat another really all Negro outfit to win the Chicago city honor. You see the Catholic schools in Chicago have their league and the public schools have a league. Then the two winning, meet to decide the city titleholder. We have seen as many as 85,000 people at one of these play-off football games and we were in a crowd of 10,000 in a cage play-off one year.

At Home

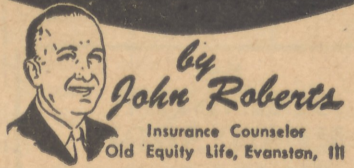

To get back to our subject, Negro boys in Indiana, Ohio and everywhere but Iowa helped their team win state high school crowns.

At home our nearly all-tan East Waterloo ran into luck and couldn't make it. Then we know you have noticed all the Negro talent in the National Basketball league. There are so many guys out there that even watching the game on television, one sometimes wishes for a score card. We sure would like to meet that guy now, but we can't even remember his name.

If you plan to move this month, or any month, run down this handy checklist to save yourself some money:

- Compare basic rates—not estimates—of two or more movers. Make sure what the charges include—removing drapes, taking down the TV antenna?
- Don't ship everything. Throw out old magazines, broken furniture and half-full cans of paint you won't use at your new location. Ship your books ahead at the post office's special book rate.

- If you are moving because of a job transfer, ask how much your company will pay—including hotel bills, long-distance calls, advance scouting trips?
- Check your household insurance; see how much your mover is liable for, and get full coverage if necessary.

- Collect all your prescriptions for eye glasses, vitamins and medicines if you are moving any distance.
- Be on hand when the moving van arrives at the new location. Write any damages on the delivery receipt.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Montezuma Strikes Again!

In India it's called Delhi belly. In Egypt, it's gippy tummy. In Mexico it's known as Montezuma's revenge. The medical profession calls it the diarrhea of city-bred travelers. The unhappy victim is likely to call it a heck of a way to spend a vacation.

If you're taking off for unfamiliar places, your first precaution should be a visit to your doctor. He can give you a medicine to be taken regularly while you're away. Follow his directions and you stand an 80 per cent chance of avoiding any trouble. If Montezuma's revenge strikes anyway, you'll have only a mild attack and get over it much faster.

Drinking Water

While you're away, be particularly careful about the water you drink. Some motels and inns have a notice in the American league and the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League. And this time we are gonna be there!!

Jones Breaks Dillard's World Mark

Cleveland, Ohio—Hayes Jones, the streaking jet from Eastern Michigan college, added another gem to his glistening string of victories when he broke the world record of six seconds flat set by Harrison Dillard in 1953 by winning the 50 yard high hurdles event in 5.9 seconds here Friday night.

Jones established the new world mark when beating Lee Calhoun, 1956 Olympic winner, for the seventh straight time this season in the 20th Knights of Columbus game here.

The Dillard mark was twice tied but never excelled until Jones shattered it Friday. Afterwards, Jones was presented the winner's medal by Dillard, the man whose record he shattered. There were no hard feelings on Dillard's part, however.

over the bathroom basin warning that water from the faucets should not be used for drinking. You'll be supplied with a carafe of water that is safe to drink. If the warning is missing, just imagine it's there. It should be.

While you're sight-seeing or in transit, stick to bottled drinks. We've had no trouble remembering this one, ever since we saw a large fly splashing happily around in an open bowl of lemonade on the counter of a backwoods diner.

Anything made with cream, custard, or mayonnaise should be kept refrigerated right up to the minute before it's used. Some eating places aren't sold on the need for refrigerating such perishable goodies. So if you're not sure, pass them up.

I AM NEAR

I am near, so do not sorrow We shall meet again, tomorrow: When the days on earth are finished We'll be living far away. I am near; do not be lonely For my soul knows you're my only. Just close your eyes, and realize: Life goes beyond this clay. I am near; when you're receiving Blessings called, by souls' believing: For, in faith; life is eternal God will tell you, if you pray. I am near, the husk is buried While my spirit has been carried: To that great and holy city

With its' everlasting day. I am near, if thy desire Is a flame, from heavens' fire: Pure in heart, and without fear We shall meet, along the way. —Glenn A. Gallagher

The business world does not want specialists, but broad men sharpened to a point.—Nicholas Murray Butler.

Laugh Lines

"What is the principal of this town?" inquired the stranger of a man holding down the curb.

"Well," the man answered, yawning, "in winter we set on the east side of the house and follow the sun around to the west, and in summer, we set on the west side and follow the shade around to the east."
