Violence Erupts in Nashville after Lunch Counter Picketing

Greensboro, N. C.—The "sit down" movement against segregated lunch counters in variety stores started by a group of A&T College students on Feb. 1 and suspended one week later was resumed at the site of its birth on last Friday, April 1.

Immediately following the announcement on Friday morning by the Mayor's Committee on Human Relations that it had failed to get an agreement from the variety stores to open their lunch counters on an unsegregated basis, the students moved in again. Several took seats at the lunch counters and others began picketing operations on the outside of the F. W. Woolworth and S. H. Kress Stores, main targets in the Greensboro campaign.

Stores Blamed

These stores were blamed by the Committee and the City Council for failure to reach a solution to the lunch counter problem.

The Committee reported that in answer to its request it had received letters from 2,063 persons. More than 1,500 or 72.8% of them favored equality of service on some basis, regardless of race. The Chairman, E. R. Zane, said 27.2% or 562 of them were opposed to any change.

Mayor

George H. Roach, Greensboro mayor, disappointed over the failure of negotiations said, "I am calling on the management of the stores to place the safety and good of this community above their own personal desires and to operate these business establishments in such manner as to eliminate racial tensions."

Developments

These developments followed: 1. After the students sat at the lunch counters on Friday, the counters remained closed on Saturday; 2. The Greensboro police appeared operating on the same policy as was followed

The door to door campaign will be conducted in all sections of the city in an effort to get 1000 members.

heard on the coast to coast N.B.C. radio network. (The program appears at 4 p.m. Iowa time.)

Dr. King, spiritual leader of the student sit-in demonstrations, will discuss the struggle for freedom in the South. In arranging the program, Mr. Lawrence Spivack indicated that in order to have a serious discussion, he would see that all the questions that disturb some of the Southern white people are squarely placed before Dr. King.

Wins a Station Wagon

A former Des Moines resident and student at Iowa State university, was declared winner of the first prize in the Des Moines Sunday Register Family Fun contest last week. He is Kirby L. McGuire, of 1368 Hawthorne Apts., Ames, Ia., who is a junior majoring in journalism. Last Thursday his prize, a brand new station wagon was delivered to his door.

Johnson's Civil Rights Role Blasted by John A. Morsell

St. Paul, Minn.—"If Senator Lyndon Johnson could have enacted the first 20 pages of the Washington phone book with a civil rights title at the head, he would have been happy to do so."

So spoke Dr. John A. Morsell, assistant to the NAACP executive secretary, here on April 3 at a spring membership kickoff meeting of the local NAACP unit. Goal is 3,000 members.

"There is no doubt that Senator Johnson temporarily fooled a lot of people," Dr. Morsell asserted. "He manned his personal staff with bright academic northerners and for a while made a convincing showing as a liberal on racial matters.

Spiked Move

"The word was consistently spread that Senator Johnson was not a Southerner: he was a Westerner."

Dr. Morsell said that no other interpretation was possible since it was Senator Johnson who "spiked the move to introduce democratic procedure into the Senate by permitting a majority vote to cut off debate."

"This watery and worthless change was Senator Johnson's creation and laid the ground work for this year's fiasco," Dr. Morsell concluded.

White House Conf. on Youth Endorse Student Protests

Washington—Civil rights, which originally had been rated No. 23 on a 25-item agenda of the White House Conference on Children and Youth, emerged as No. 1 issue before the close of the final session of the week-long conference here on April 1.

The reversal was the achievement of the 1,800 youth and young adult delegates to the Conference which enrolled a total of 7,000 adult and youth representatives from all sections of the country. In response to a call issued by Herbert L. Wright, NAACP youth secretary, delegates of the various youth organizations represented at the conference joined NAACP youth delegates in the formation of a civil rights coalition to press for full consideration of the issue.

Desegregation

As a result of their activity the Conference adopted a resolution calling for "the substantial completion of school desegregation by 1970, the provision of equal access to housing for all individuals, and the elimination of discrimination in employment and advancement practices throughout the United States." The resolution further affirmed "the right of all citizens to peaceful protest and non-violent resistance against all forms of social injustice."

Joining the NAACP representatives in the civil rights coalition were representatives of the Young Adult Council of the National Social Welfare Assembly, U. S. National Students Association, World Student Christian Federation, Students for Democratic Society, and several other smaller organizations.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Monrovia, Liberia—President William V. Tubman bestowed the Grand Band Human Order of African Redemption upon Dr. and Mrs. George Way Harley, at official ceremonies last week in recognition of the couple's 35 years of medical missionary work in Liberia at the Ganta (Methodist) Medical mission.

Birmingham, Ala.—Rev. F. L. Shuttleworth was convicted of giving false information to city police and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 plus costs and to serve 180 days in jail.

Vatican City, Italy—In addition to inducting the first Negro in the Roman Catholic College of Cardinals here recently, Pope John XXIII has promoted Auxiliary John Kodwo Amisshah of Cape Coast, Ghana to the archbishopric.

Chicago, Ill.—A Negro jurist, Henry C. Ferguson, of Municipal court, was freed along with a white judge of conspiracy to defraud the city when presiding Judge John Gurknecht dismissed the charge of a plea in bar. The plea in bar means that a judge may not be held criminally liable for a judicial act done in good faith.

Nairobi, Kenya—African nationalist leader Tom Mboya has said he has turned down an offer to become Kenya's Labor Minister because it would conflict with his work for the labor movement and his political efforts for representative government in Kenya.

Houston, Tex.—Atty. Joe Reynolds, counsel for the Houston school board last week informed that body that the city's public schools must be integrated when the fall term starts in September.

Knoxville, Tenn.—Elwood Davis, acting as his own attorney wriggled off the hook in court by showing that the officer who arrested him for fishing without a license could not prove that Davis' hook was baited.

Jackson, Miss.—Gov. Ross Barnett is expected to sign a bill, passed by the legislature by which local congregations on a two-thirds vote could retain church properties if they secede from their national denominations as a means of heading off racial integration.

Los Angeles, Cal.—The Los Angeles Tribune, Negro weekly, and its editor-publisher, Almena Lomax were served with papers last week demanding retraction and "correction" of its headline story and editorial of Mar. 18 relative to the slaying of the latest of six Negroes by police officers this year. The demand was made by the Newton Division Police Officers.

little recreational value. The best example of successful fishing that we know of is the small boy or the man who sits happily dangling a hook from a country bridge or a shady bank. They may not have boats and fine tackle, they may not catch any fish, but their relaxed attitude is right, and they're having fun. The secret of successful fishing is not catching fish, but taking it easy."

300 Arrested by Police In Raid after Attempted Assassination of Premier

Johannesburg, South Africa—The state of emergency and racial unrest in this southernmost country of Africa climaxed Saturday in the attempted assassination of its Prime Minister, Hendrik F. Verwoerd by a wealthy white farmer. In an effort to quell high tension and possible new outbreaks that the shooting could precipitate, the Nationalist government sent more than 1600 security force troops for a shack-to-shack search of the troubled Cato Manor settlement. More than 300 South African natives were arrested, but only 143 were held after police seized a truckload of spears, knives and axes and seven sticks of dynamite.

No Change

Verwoerd, who was shot by David Pratt, 52, in the face with a small caliber pistol, was reported improved and was able to be moved Monday to a hospital in Johannesburg. The man who succeeded him, announced that there would be no change in policy of white supremacy in South Africa.

Immigration Laws

Tuesday the South African government announced that the strict anti-immigration laws which had heretofore prevented immigrants from entering the country in large numbers, would be revised in an effort to rectify the apparent discrepancy in numbers of 3 million whites to 10 millions African natives.

LAS VEGAS HOTELS DROP COLOR BAR

Las Vegas, Nev.—Removal of the ban against Negro guests at this 5-BYSTANDER resort city's plush hotels and casinos was hailed this week by NAACP leaders locally and nationally. The change in policy was announced after the Las Vegas NAACP said it would stage "sit-in" demonstrations in the opulent hostelrys and gambling houses.

Disclosure that Negro guests can now expect equal treatment caused Dr. James McMillan, Las Vegas NAACP president, to comment:

Red Letter Day

"This is a red-letter day for Las Vegas. This city should be the cosmopolitan center of the country."

Until the local NAACP brought greater pressure, the Las Vegas situation for Negroes was anomalous. In nearby Southern California, mainly Los Angeles, there is a large and well-integrated Negro com-

Urges Support of Citizens; Easter Seals Drive Falling Short of Goal Due to Floods

The current Easter Seal Campaign is falling so short of its goal that the present comprehensive services offered to the handicapped may have to be curtailed this year, announced Donald H. Gerdum, executive director of the Polk County Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

In a plea for contributions, Gerdum has urged all Polk County residents to give the Easter Seal Drive their full support.

No Duplication

"More than 1,000 handicapped children and adults services by the Society depend upon public generosity for funds," he stated. "The purpose of the Society is not to duplicate the program of any existing organization. The 1960 Easter Seal Campaign closes Easter Sunday, April 17, and we are hoping that last minute contributions will help elimi-

Booker T. Alexander, Visits Shriners Here

Booker T. Alexander, Imperial Potentate of the Ancient Egyptian Arabic Order of the Noble Mystic Shrine, North and South America, Inc., stopped on his annual spring tour to visit Zeid Temple No. 90. He arrived in the city Friday and stayed at the Hotel Fort Des Moines.

On Saturday he held a one-day session for all officers. He addressed the temple on integration problems, drive for unregistered voters, TB fund, United campaign and member participation in community activities. He also explained the forthcoming convocation which will be held in Boston, Mass., and invited the temple to participate in the Gala Day celebration in Kansas City, Mo., May 8-10.

Zeid Court

Following the close of the meeting Mr. Alexander was introduced to the Daughters of Isis, Zeid Court No. 50, who sponsored a social hour and refreshments.

He left the city Saturday for his home in Detroit, Mich.

Attending the meeting was officers of Bashir Temple of Waterloo. William Sharp is illustrious potentate of the host temple and Mrs. Edith Sharp is illustrious commandress of Zeid court.

The Los Angeles Negro community alone ranks third in size behind New York City and Chicago with a population of 470,000. Yet the many Los Angeles Negroes who could afford the luxury accommodations found they were not welcome at this desert playground.

Negro Performers

An even more curious situation existed until the NAACP stepped up its protests in that Negro performers for years have furnished the Las Vegas strip with its most applauded entertainment. But with the exception of a few top headliners such as Nat (King) Cole and Eartha Kitt, Negro performers were denied integrated service at the establishments where they were working. Thy and Negro visitors were referred to West Las Vegas, this city's Negro sector.

Floods

"The drive is lagging," he explained, "because of flood conditions during the Society's recent 'Easter Seal Parade' last week. As a result of high waters and mud-soaked streets, many of our volunteers were not able to get from their own homes, or to the homes of neighbors and friends, to pick up donations for Easter Seals as had been planned."

Gerdum is asking that those families not visited by volunteers during the Easter Seal Parade please mail in their contributions for Easter Seals directly to the Polk County Society, 2920 30th Street, Des Moines. He adds that anyone who has not yet received their Easter Seals can send their donations now and the seals will be mailed immediately.

Fable: Boy With Sticks A FABLE about a boy with a bundle of sticks he wanted to break has its meaning for today's home craftsman. Unable to draw bottoms to even bend the bundle, he asked for advice. His father told him to break each stick separately.

The beginning home handyman too often feels he should buy numerous tools and much material. Doing so often is frustrating, so the experts advise him to "take it easy," buying just essential tools and materials and learning their use and application in simple projects.

Lumber dealers are good sources of tools needed in the home workshop, and they can advise the beginner which ones he should obtain first. They can tell him also about basic materials to have on hand. Among these is Masonite Tempered Presdwood, an all-around panel that wears like iron, is free of splinters, knots and grain, and is low in cost.

Getting back to the fable, the handyman needn't buy even a 4 by 8-foot panel for his beginner's project, for his dealer usually has short lengths available, and their price usually is a bargain. Gaining confidence in the use of a few fundamental hand or power tools, the home craftsman can make a success of his initial undertakings and then branch out to build an under-stairs project, line the old coal bin, and build some basement or kitchen cabinets.

"SIT DOWN"

SEE FRONT PAGE in the original campaign—no A&T students have been arrested; 3. One white male was arrested on Saturday and charged with exploding a "stink bomb" among some of the picketers; 4. Picketing was conducted during the early week, and student leaders announced that the campaign would continue; and 5. The F. W. Woolworth Store on Monday evening announced that the lunch counter would be closed indefinitely.

Nashville, Tenn.—Violence broke here during lunch counter sit-down demonstrations as hundreds looked on at the picketing and a prayer meeting held beneath the window of the Mayor's office. Dozens of police mingled with the crowd but only two arrests were reported.

Violence erupted when a picketing white divinity student was struck by a truck driver, two Negroes hit by white youths and when a Negro and a white youth drew knives on each other but were separated.

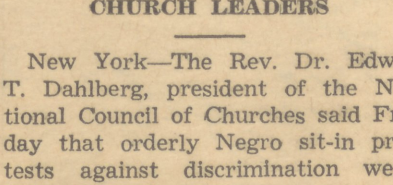

New York—The National Board of the Young Women's Christian Association endorsed Sunday the objectives of the Negro sit-in lunch counter demonstrations in the South aimed at ending segregated facilities.

Montreal, Canada — More than 1,500 students and faculty members at McGill and Sir George Williams universities here this week expressed support of southern sit-in protest demonstrations. They signed a petition expressing their "awareness of the struggle of Negro students in southern United States for political and social rights."

CHURCH LEADERS New York—The Rev. Dr. Edwin T. Dahlberg, president of the National Council of Churches said Friday that orderly Negro sit-in protests against discrimination were "an expression of just and righteous indignation . . . the refusal of service in public dining rooms and other indignities, is an offense to human dignity . . . and it is only to be expected that self-respecting young people will protest against such discrimination." The letter was sent to leaders of 33 Protestant and Eastern Orthodox denominations in 50 states.

Scottie for House Number A TIME TRIED method of displaying a house number in an attractive manner is illustrated. Either the Scottie-dog cutout or some other animal will serve the purpose. Set in a parkway, on the lawn or at the curb, the jaunty puppy, with its sparkling eyes, will prove to be an attractive addition.

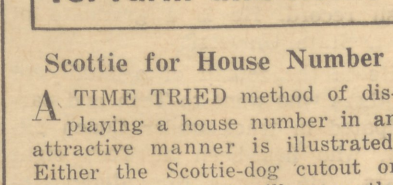

Scottie is 15 inches long. Cut him from two pieces of Masonite 3/16"

TEMPERED PRESWOOD, holding the panels, screen sides together, with C-clamps and following a pattern with a coping, keyhole or band saw. Slightly round the edges with a file or sandblock.

Reflector-type bolts used for car licensees serve as eyes and reflect the light from passing cars. The numbers are saved from the Tempered Preswood and glued to each side of the cutout.

Two wooden stakes, shaped from 1 by 2-inch lumber, are laid between the two cutouts and fastened with screws applied through holes drilled in the hardboard. Paint Scottie in appropriate colors, first using a primer. Push the stakes into the ground, and your new house number will be in service. All the materials needed are available at lumber yards.

WITH DELORES CALVIN

New York City—Out in San Francisco they haven't forgotten yet how perfectly beautiful Diahann Carroll was in her gorgeous white gowns, all very tight-fitting when she appeared at the famous Fairmont at their huge Venetian Room . . . Diahann has some "mad" arrangements of old classics and one of them is "I Wish I Were In Love Again"—where she adds some lyrics never heard before . . . The whole show is about one hour and the time is so carefully planned that each moment is anticipated . . . She does a scene wearing an old shawl and looking so forlorn singing folksongs to a guitar accompaniment . . . Later on, she goes into an Ethel Waters medley—singing hits from "Cabin In The Sky" and "Stormy Weather" . . . All in all, this lass has a complete repertoire and what's more—knows what the public wants and pleases them.

Della Reese

Della Reese, who gets much praise from Ed Sullivan, has gone into the Cloister in Chicago and has taken Harlem comic Nipsey Russell with her . . . At $1.50 cover charge, the clientele is pleased to get Nipsey as it's one of the first times a comic has played the Cloister . . . The criticism of Negro comics here has been that most cater to the Negro public and few "outsiders" understand . . . But with Nipsey, he's international . . . He ad libs in Yiddish too and made just small references to Little Rock and racial situations . . . As far as Della goes, her crowd rates her as a "thoroughbred" and treats her as a Queen.

Billy Daniels

Meanwhile—Billy Daniels came on at the Riverside in Reno and according to reports—he did whopper business . . . As does Diahann Carroll, Billy uses "Everything's Coming Up Roses" as his opener—and the pace of the song plus the exuberance paves the way for an exciting half hour . . . Relying on his old favorites which the public still demands, Billy continues to do oldies like "Them There Eyes", "If I Loved You", "Night and Day" and the world-famous "Old Black Magic".

Brook Benton

Brook Benton opened at the Cloister in Los Angeles with a rather cool reception as the management was rather expecting an avalanche depending on Benton's past records.

Cab Calloway, after a long rest, starts this week at the Colonial Inn in St. Petersburg, Fla. . . . And guess who's returning to the Apollo after a too-long absence???. Platters

The Platters were hired to play the Olympia in Paris in an all-American show when promoters found the people were tired of Parisian entertainment and longed for something different.

Earl Grant

Erroll Garner goes into the Fairmont in Frisco for 3 weeks beginning May 19th and that's a real first . . . It's the first time the hotel ever had a jazz pianist as headliner and the first time for Erroll as such . . . Earl Grant goes into that place July 21st after Lena Horne does the June 30th session . . . Earl has been doing so well in the East—he goes into the Revlon revue for television on their next trip around when the camera tours famous New York nightspots and lets you meet the entertainers who make them so.

OVEN FRIED CHICKEN
A LA CREOLE
Buttered Spinach
Mexican Corn

Fruit Compote Cookies

INGREDIENTS:

- 1/4 cup butter or margarine
- 1/3 cup all-purpose flour
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1 teaspoon paprika
- 1/4 teaspoon poultry seasoning
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper
- 1 ready-to-cook young chicken, 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 pounds, cut up.
- 1 cup uncooked white rice
- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 teaspoon black pepper
- 3 cups hot chicken broth made by cooking backs and neck in water
- 2 large tomatoes, cut into wedges

METHOD: Light the oven and set at 400°F. Place the butter or margarine in a large all metal skillet, baking pan or baking-serving dish about 12"x9"x2". Place this in the oven until the butter or margarine melts. While the butter or margarine is melting, wash the chicken in cold water. Pat dry. Put the flour, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, paprika, poultry seasoning and 1/4 teaspoon black pepper in a paper bag. Add one piece of chicken at a time. Shake bag to thoroughly coat each piece of chicken with the flour mixture. Place the chicken in the hot melted butter or margarine, skin side down. Bake, uncovered, 25 minutes at 400°F.

Arrange rice, green pepper and onion under the chicken, turning the chicken so the skin side is up. Sprinkle the rice with the 1 1/2 teaspoons salt and 1/4 teaspoon black pepper. Slowly pour the hot chicken broth over the rice. Make certain all the rice is under the broth. Arrange the tomato wedges over the chicken and rice.

Return to the 400°F. oven and bake, uncovered, 45 minutes or until the rice is tender. If the mixture becomes too dry, add a small amount of chicken broth or water.

If desired, serve from the dish in which the chicken-rice bakes. This recipe makes 8 servings.

NEWSPAPERS

Terre Haute, Ind., Tribune: "Occasionally a reader wants to know why newspapers, including this one, keep pouring out 'heavy' news about such things as the tedious course of disarmament efforts, the problems of underdeveloped nations half a world away, the urgent need of improvement in our educational system . . . The answer is that in these times of swift change and imminent peril the people of a democracy need all the information they can get."

POPULATION

Clarissa, Minn., Independent: " . . . the swelling population will be needing new buildings, new roads, new products, new services—more of everything. And it will take more workers to supply these needs. But it will also take more money, much more money, to pay for them. The best way to provide growth money without inflation is through a combination of individual savings and prudent government spending."

committees have been instructed to "plan joint city-wide mass services on the afternoon of Sunday, May 15." This commemorates the N. S. Supreme Court school integration ruling of May 17, 1954. However, 2,500,000 Negro youngsters are still forced to attend separate and unequal schools in many southern states flouting the law of the land.

"FREEDOM TAG DAY" PLANNED FOR MAY 17TH ANNIVERSARY

New York—Local units of the NAACP outside the Deep South have been asked to participate in "Freedom Tag" day Saturday, May 14, it was announced here this week. The occasion will commemorate the sixth anniversary of the May 17, 1954, U. S. Supreme Court ruling outlawing discrimination in public education.

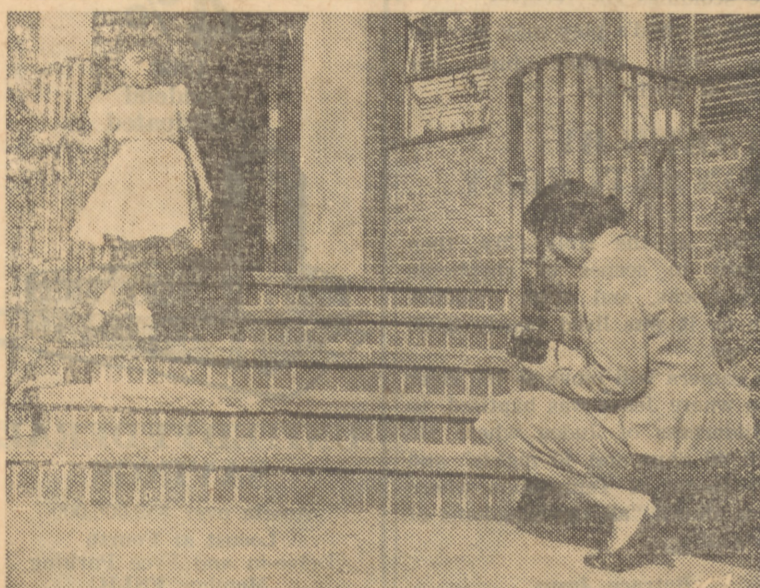

It will also focus attention on the fact that 2,500,000 Negro youngsters are still forced to attend separate and unequal schools because many southern states still refuse compliance with the law of the land.

SKIN MAKE-UP

Make-up foundation should be matched exactly to your skin tone or be slightly darker. A lighter-than-skin foundation would give a theatrical look. Apply either pancake or liquid foundation with a water-moistened Coet quilted cotton square for a clean, smooth finish.

Mother snaps a picture that will keep her memory ever-fresh of the little girl starting off on that big adventure—the first day of school.

It's School Time!

For the past few days we've been hearing bells ringing in our ears—and you know what kind, don't you? That's right—school bells! Practically everywhere across the country summer vacation is drawing to a close, and very soon now hoards of youngsters will be reluctantly setting forth for their annual battle with the 3R's.

School is a word that covers many activities and people. At your house, school days may mean a well-scrubbed, neatly combed six-year-old who's entering Class 1-A. Or it may refer to a daughter who's on her way back to high school or a son setting off to college. And to a teacher—if there's one in your family—it will mean readying the classroom for a new group of youngsters.

But no matter what new activities school days bring to your home, one thing is certain: It's no time to put away your camera just because vacation has ended. The school year brings with it many moments when you'll be awfully glad you had a camera handy. And remember, something as simple as a snoot of the children poring over their homework projects or perhaps dressing up for the school pageant may turn out to be the most cherished picture of your collection in years to come.

The opening of school spells "camera" in another important way, too. It marks a time when junior members of the family especially appreciate having a camera of their own. Friends and classmates, school activities and events belong in any youngster's pictorial record—and he'll enjoy taking those snapshots himself, recording his own impressions just as he wants to remember them.

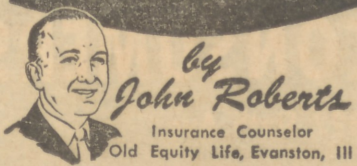

It won't require expensive equipment either for a simple box-type camera is all that's necessary. With a flash attachment and a supply of flash bulbs, Junior can take pictures under almost any conditions—indoors, day or night, in clear weather or cloudy, in early morning or after the sun goes down. In fact, don't be surprised if he's named official photographer for his class in school as well as for his Scout troop!

Family Finances

The cost of dry cleaning comes to you in two ways—the bill itself and any additional cost from missing items, ruined materials and extra fees. Here's how to cut your cleaning bills:

- Buy your clothing with an eye toward cleaning costs. Read the tags to identify the material as being suitable for dry cleaning and select a garment with the fewest attachments so it will wear longer.
- Keep a duplicate list of items you send to the cleaner. It will cut loss of clothing.
- Point out and identify any stains to the cleaner.
- Give your cleaner a week, if possible, to do your order. It helps him, saves you worry, and stops you from paying 15 or 25 cents for "specials".
- Shop first for quality when deciding on a dry cleaner. A few extra cents more charge from a quality shop will save you money in the long-run.

UNDERSTANDING IOWA CHILDREN

SPONSORED BY THE IOWA CHILD WELFARE RESEARCH STATION

Written by May P. Youtz, SUI Associate Professor

WHY IS A CHILD'S PLAY IMPORTANT?

The importance of a child's play is often overlooked by the parent. A parent hesitates little in asking Johnny to stop playing immediately and get ready for supper or go to bed. Although it is important for Johnny to eat his food and get his sleep, it is just as important that he be allowed to fulfill his need for play.

Occupation

The importance of play is, simply, that it is a child's life. A child's play is his occupation, just as driving a truck or operating a steam shovel is his father's occupation. Children are tired at the end of a busy day because play uses every ounce of their energy.

The functions of play are many and varied. Of course, play helps to develop physical skills and provides physical activity as vital to growth as food and sleep. It also develops mental skills and stimulates a child's imagination. Understanding, warmth and sympathy toward others are encouraged by play. Competition, success and failure are all experienced through play and it helps to heal hurts and sadness. Finally, play offers avenues for self-expression.

Reflect Feeling

The attitudes and feelings that a child reveals in his play can help parents to better understand their child. Billy, who plays unfairly, may be reflecting his feeling of having been treated in such a way. Susie, playing with dolls, may act out undercurrents of jealousy of her baby sister which are not expressed in any other way. Jane, scolding her doll or teddy bear, may be passing on the scoldings she receives.

Lastly, a child's play may provide mother with insight into her methods of discipline.

NBC TV TO SHOW ROAD TAKEN BY JESUS TO THE CRUCIFIXION SATURDAY

New York—The National Broadcasting Company will retrace the steps of Jesus as He walked to His crucifixion, in "The Way of the Cross," an Easter Eve colorcast on the "World Wide 60" series Saturday, April 16, on the NBC-TV Network (9:30-10:30 P.M. EST). Alexander Scourby will be the narrator. The program will use new documentary techniques to visit the scenes of Jesus' life, starting with his birthplace in Bethlehem and culminating in His last moments on earth as he bore the Cross through Jerusalem to Calvary.

Jerusalem as the Holy City, then will turn to scenes of shepherds tending flocks, and other evidence of life as it was lived nearly 2,000 years ago.

The camera will move to the river Jordan where Jesus was baptized, to the wilderness of Judea where He "fasted 40 days and 40 nights" and to the Mount of Temptation where He was shown "all the kingdoms of the world."

Retrace Jesus

The course of the film will retrace Jesus' path from the Mount of Olives to Jerusalem and along the Via Dolorosa, stopping to examine the places where He fell under the weight of the Cross, where He saw His mother and where Veronica stepped forward to wipe his brow. The program will conclude at Calvary with the symbolic portrayal of Jesus' crucifixion, His entombment and His resurrection.

No Actors

Produced by Louis Hazam, the program was filmed without the use of actors. It will show modern

M-m-m-m! Strawberry Time!

Ever feel as if you want to eat strawberries three times a day? Even if you aren't that crazy about strawberries, here is one recipe that you will decide is worthy of frequent repetitions.

Make the filling in advance—in the morning, or the day before... chill thoroughly. Assemble the pie just before serving—then whip up the fluffy topping, spread it over the pie and garnish with fresh strawberries nestled in coconut as snowy white as the meringue itself. But no need to start the oven for this meringue... and remember room temperature for egg whites makes for higher meringues.

Coconut Cream Strawberry Pie

- | | |
|---|------------------------------|
| 1/2 cup sugar | 2 egg yolks, slightly beaten |
| 1/2 cup sifted flour | 2 teaspoons vanilla |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | 1 tablespoon butter |
| 3 cups milk | 1 pint strawberries |
| 1 cup shredded coconut, cut, if desired | 1 baked 9-inch pie shell |
| 2 egg whites, unbeaten | 3 tablespoons water |
| 1/2 cup sugar | 1/2 teaspoon vanilla |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | 1/2 cup shredded coconut |

Combine 1/2 cup sugar, flour, and salt in top of double boiler; add milk gradually, stirring until smooth. Add 1 cup coconut. Cook over rapidly boiling water 15 minutes, stirring constantly. Mix small amount of mixture with egg yolks, return to double boiler, and cook 2 minutes longer. Remove from heat. Add vanilla and butter. Cool. Slice 1 cup of berries and place in pie shell; then add filling.

Place egg whites, sugar, salt, and water in top of double boiler; beat with egg beater until thoroughly mixed. Place over rapidly boiling water and beat 1 minute; then remove from heat and continue heating 2 minutes, or until mixture will stand in peaks. Add vanilla. Pile lightly on filling. Sprinkle with 1/2 cup coconut and garnish with remaining strawberries. Serve at once.

Personally Yours by Frances Hawthorne.

Easter marks a beginning for mankind—symbolically and literally. It's the annual rejuvenation of spirits, of aims and retropection. There is the bustle for a rebirth to achieve and attempt something not heretofore attempted or accomplished. As nature resurrects life from the dreary deadwood of winter, so do we rise from our inertia and self-imposed hibernation of the cold days, full of energy to do things. It is true that there is a silver lining behind every dark cloud. So it is with spring, for what more glorious lining can there be after winter?

And so Easter comes along with its deep Biblical history and natural rebirth of life. No wonder man stirs himself and looks eagerly ahead.

In America a part of our Easter customs is the Easter egg hunt, primarily for children, but grown-ups get quite a kick out of it too. Usually the annual hunts are held on Easter Sunday, but many of them fall on the Saturday before Easter.

In the Arabian world there is a similar custom but is held the day (Monday) following Easter. The occasion will be the observance of Shan-El-Nessim, or Breathing the Breeze, Both Christians and Moslems throughout the Arab world will join together in merrymaking.

Traditionally marking the beginning of spring, the celebration dates far back to ancient Egypt, when the people celebrated with a feast, or wheat harvest festival, offering some of their harvest to the Gods in thanksgiving.

Even now, Egyptians rise very early on April 18 and go to the countryside for picnics of traditional foods such as colored eggs, salt fish, scallions, and a variety of foods that are in season.

For anyone wishing to view and hear a pictorial Easter story on the life of Jesus as it was when he lived in Jerusalem, there is a program scheduled for NBC-TV Saturday evening from 9:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m.

Several weeks ago Miss Mamie Simmons, Drake student and member of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority rushed into the office with a news story, and announced with chagrin that she had left her purse on the bus. A phone call to the bus company informed her that she would have to wait until the bus returns from the end of the line. After a brief discussion with "helpful" advisors at the office she departed. Curious as we are, we wondered whether she had been able to get her purse back. So we rang her up. She told us she got in a cab and went on the trail of the bus. The cab driver, with kindly intent, stopped the meter after she had used up $1.00. When the bus came back on its return trip they stopped the driver and he handed her purse to her. However, arriving back downtown, she opened it to pay the cabbie, but discovered that all her money had been taken even though everything else was intact.

So then she took the cab home, to get some money, then back again downtown so she could get the bus for Lincoln school.

Miss Simmons also recalled another time when she lost her purse—to a purse snatcher during a visit in Chicago, Ill.

"When the man grabbed my purse, I screamed bloody-murder but it didn't help much. He got away," she recalled.

"However, several days later he mailed all my credentials back to me but kept my purse, billfold and money," she said.

At the meeting of the Public Affairs committee of the Y.M.C.A., Monday morning a brief discussion was held on the news item about the National Y.W.C.A. Council endorsing the student sit-in demonstrations in the South. One member, pointed out that many of the students are members of YW or YM organizations. She then remarked that one of the local Y club's which had been all Negro and in existence for 30 years was integrating the other way. That is, it was taking on white members. The club is the Book Lovers club of which Mrs. Marshall Smith, Sr., is president. Yours truly first heard of this club through one of its members and a longtime volunteer worker of the Y, Mrs. Fred Johnson.

The recent rummage sale of the Hilltop Tennis club was quite successful. However, according to Mrs. Esther S. Myers, secretary of the club, "there are still some very nice things left. Many of the clothes would be perfect for any man, woman or child for Easter."

Formal Fund Drive to Be Launched for Residence for Iowa Club Women June 3-4

BY HELEN WIMBERLY
At the 57th annual meeting of the Iowa Association of Club Women in 1959 a momentous decision was made—to purchase a clubhouse to be located in the capitol city.

An appointed committee made a survey of the many needs and purposes for such a residence. The group noted that lacking in Iowa among the Negroes is recognition of the need for comfortable residence for retired persons.

Formal Drive

A formal drive for funds will be launched among the club women at the 58th annual meeting to be held in Des Moines June 3-4. The association will be fulfilling—not only a long cherished dream, to provide headquarters for the club women of Iowa and meeting place for others who would avail themselves of the residence's facilities—but also providing an unmet need for many women in Iowa. Many living in Iowa on limited incomes or burdened with a large house, which they occupy alone, will have an opportunity to live in comfort and companionship at a reasonable rate.

The women of Iowa have accepted this idea with enthusiasm and are correlating their efforts toward the fulfillment of their dreams.

SOUTH AFRICA'S CONDUCT SHOCKS MOST NATIONS

Most civilized nations condemned Nazi Germany for killing thousands of Jews and placing untold numbers in concentration camps. This is likewise true of Russia and communist China. Like South Africa, they resisted criticism from "outsiders" arguing that these were internal problems about which their critics had no concern.

By such conduct helps to breed wars. It puts into the minds of some citizens of the free nations bad notions which, once given freedom, thrive even in them. So that when a nation mistreats a portion of its citizens without just cause it becomes the concern of other nations.

The Union of South Africa is a far advanced country. It has untold wealth. It has a large Negro population which is depended upon as a major source of cheap labor. These people are denied the simplest rights because South Africa wants to keep them ignorant and backward.

During these latest flareups, the government has demonstrated that it will go the limit—legal or illegal—to keep these people under its thumbs. It created the condition which makes for backwardness and on the other hand brands that nation as unfit except to make money for its employees.

Recently, South Africa's conduct has been before the United Nations. Several nations were strong for a vote of censure but in the end a mild slap on the wrist was voted by the security council.

America has opposed the admission of Red China into U.N. because its leaders gained their status by war. Eventually Red China will be admitted to that body. It will have learned that intelligent cooperation between other nations means that a nation must act the part of a free nation to remain among free nations.

Most people abhor South Africa's treatment of its Negro people. They realize that all people have rights and a nation which disregards them, even for its own people, is not welcome in an association of civilized countries.

SUFFICIENT HOUSES BUT WHAT KIND?

Last week, the Apartment House Owners Association passed a resolution expressing opposition to federal low cost housing in Des Moines. It stated further that already sufficient housing was available to take care of those people displaced by the freeway and urban renewal.

The resolution emphasized that private capital was available to help those who are unable financially to pay the higher rental or property payments.

This is the same old gag which the real estate lobby has carried on since the advent of federal low cost housing. Sure, sufficient houses are available but what kind?

Private capital financed a low cost housing project in southeast Des Moines several years ago. It does not compare favorably with many hog or sheep houses found on good farms in Iowa.

Ride through some of these federal projects in other towns and it does one good to see them. No doubt, the sponsors of the low cost housing project in Des Moines are ashamed to have their out-of-town friends see it.

It is unfortunate that too many selfish people have edged their way into boards and commissions charged with raising the status of the people and the beauty of the city. They are interested in places for themselves and shacks for the other fellow.

CONGRESS PASSES A CIVIL RIGHTS BILL

Both houses of Congress have passed a civil rights bill. Undoubtedly, it will be put into final form and signed by the President during the next ten days. The bill would

1. Authorize appointment of voting referees by federal courts to insure voting and registering of Negroes when denied because of race.

2. Makes it a crime to interfere by threats or force with orders of federal courts in desegregation, labor or other cases.

3. Makes it a crime to escape into other states to prevent prosecution for bombings.

4. Requires voting records be kept for 22 months in order to check violations.

5. Provides schools for military personnel when closed because of integration.

Extremists for and against the bill don't like it. The South wanted none at all while some from the North wanted a strong bill. The middle of the road group won by selling the liberal wing that it was this or nothing.

Weak or strong, the bill represents some progress. Its practical application will be watched closely and if it does not do what the sponsors claim for it, there will be clamour in Congress to revise the measure.

This is the hardest part of the year to write sports for a weekly. Track and baseball are just getting under way; basketball is over and this is that long lull between seasons. The climax here really comes too soon. The Drake Relays people say when you have seen one you have seen them all. Maybe so, but to an old Relays fan, one never gets tired of seeing what is one of the greatest track shows in the country.

This year will be number 52 we think and we just don't see too many records; some of the marks are national or world records and you just don't see them every day. So we might be in for a rather dull afternoon of near marks or fine performances but not records. Then people will say the meet was bad. They didn't make a single record. But records or not we shall be there to see what happens and try to get a shot or two of the action.

Baseball

The National league race gets under way with everyone picking San Francisco to win. Well our guess is the Los Angeles Dodgers and we can't change yet. The American league is a week later and we had to go with the White Sox. Here we may have another interesting season and we intend to see a few of the local games.

Basketball

The Olympic squad for next summer is picked and includes its share of Negroes headed by the Big O. Some guy argued that the team wasn't picked right but they will get our 100 points a game and that we'll win a lot of games.

Oh, yes the Biddy Cage league similar to Little League baseball had their National meet and Gary, Ind., won the thing. Yes, they had four Negroes in the starting lineup.

Handy Incinerator

FOR burning household rubbish, an incinerator built of concrete blocks on a concrete foundation is excellent. The base is 4 by 5 feet, and the concrete should be reinforced with chicken wire, according to Family Handyman.

Use standard size building blocks, setting the first course on a thin layer of mortar and leaving two 8"x8" spaces at the front to provide ample draft for complete incineration.

The cover is turkey wire, 1"x2" mesh, with welded joints so the wires won't separate due to the heat. Eye-bolts may be inserted in the joints between two of the top building blocks, if you want to hinge the mesh cover by looping down two pieces of the wire into the metal eyes.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Overweight but . . .

In our younger days we used to go to the opera mostly for laughs. That was the time of heavyweight sopranos, when it was a brisk five-minute walk around Madame Diva's waistline. We found it especially comical when the mammoth singer languished in bed, coughing pathetically until she died of "consumption."

Those days are gone. The singers are svelte now. And the notion that someone can be stout and "consumptive" is not at all funny, because it is true.

Nowadays

We call the illness tuberculosis nowadays. We don't use the term "consumption," partly because our ideas about the disease have undergone quite a shift. We no longer think of TB victims as being "consumed" by their illness, so that they become mere shadows. It is possible County Tuberculosis & Health Assn. to be overweight and still have tuberculosis.

Looks Healthy

It is impossible to tell just by looking at somebody whether he has tuberculosis. Many TB patients don't cough at all. Some are husky-looking, fat, with good color in their cheeks. TB germs can be active and doing damage without giving any outward signs whatever. That's why controlling tuberculosis is such a complicated problem. TB's victims often don't know that they have it and are infecting others.

The only way of being sure about tuberculosis is to have a tuberculin test and, if the result is positive, a chest X-ray. Ask your doctor about it at your next check-up.

Rates Mays, Banks, Aaron As Million Dollar Baseball Players in Any League

Vero Beach, Fla.—In the view of Al Campanis, a former major leaguer and now director of the Los Angeles Dodgers scouting system, there are five players in the game today who are worth a million dollars in the open market, and three of them are Negroes.

The awesome three, opined Campanis in a recent interview here, are Willie Mays, the San Francisco sensational "Say-Hey" kid; "Hammering" Hank Aaron, the Milwaukee Braves mainstay and the 1959 National League batting champion, and Ernie Banks, the record-breaking Chicago Cubs shortstop and the NL Most Valuable Player last year.

The other two "million dollar" players listed by Campanis were Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees and a surprise entry, Frank Howard, a rookie in the Dodgers training camp whom Al said is big and strong and powerful with great potential. (However, Howard was shipped back to the minors earlier this week.)

Rates Mays First

Campanis said a "million dollar" player is rated on the basis of five outstanding features, hitting, fielding, throwing, running, and hitting with power. A player who scores 70 per cent on all five factors is a truly major leaguer, the director said.

But Mays scored 80 per cent in all these departments and is rated tops among those selected, in Campanis' book. Next to him is Mantle, Aaron and Banks, each of whom are a point or two off, he said.

Also mentioned in another group just below the "million dollar" class were Frank Robinson of Cincinnati, Vada Pinson, also of the Red Legs, and Orlando Cepeda, Mays Giants teammate.

Ernie Banks Grateful for good fortune

sional basketball.

Oscar, the nation's leading college scorer and an All-American for the third straight year, told reporters questioning him about his future plans that basketball was not uppermost in his mind at present.

"I don't think I want to play pro basketball," he said point blank. "Right now I'm just thinking about the Olympics. After college I'm going into insurance and real estates; I'm a marketing major in school. I do enjoy basketball; I enjoy competition, but business comes first."

Robertson's statement followed the headlining-making announcement by Wilt Chamberlain of the Philadelphia Warriors and the National Basketball Association's Most Valuable Player and Rookie of the Year for 1960, that he was quitting pro basketball.

Also stating he has no wish to enter pro basketball, was Bob Boozer, former Kansas State All-American, who led the Peoria Cats to the national AAU, recently.

BATHROOM SHELF

To dress up your bathroom shelf, add a feminine touch, buy a glass candy jar, fill with Coets quilted cotton squares and paste a bright artificial flower on the front of the jar. If you're artistic, a border of hand-painted flowers will add further charm.

THIS BE THE TIME

(A prayer)

I pray, "Dear Lord, real soon," I pray,
May we join hands, some sunny day
In peace and love, across each sea
May everyone, a brother be . . .
Let there be health and happiness
And all the world share in success.
May fear be gone, all hunger cease
An end to want, war and disease . . .
Let every human realize
That each is equal; in God's eyes!
The truth must soon be understood
That man's last hope is brotherhood!
Bring mankind into light today
This be the time, Dear Lord, I pray.

ONLY THEN

Somewhere out there, beyond
This place on which I stand,
I know somehow, there is a bond:
A filament, reached out and touched my hand.

Now tendrils bind me to a stream
Thought that thrills the heart of me,
A flow of beauty: like unto a dream:
That surely comes, from heaven's canopy.

Bards, sages, and the prophets wrote
There was, above this common, tortured clay:
Eternal life, undying peace, and this
I quote
For all of thee in faith believing:
if you pray.

Thoughts for Today

Opportunity is looking for the man with initiative; she needs him more than he needs her.—J. Ogden Armour.

I would swap a whole cart load of precedents for one brand-new idea.—Luther Burbank.

Every citizen must assume the responsibilities essential to the preservation of the American way of life, and do everything in his power to advance the cause of equal opportunity for all.

Laugh Lines

Jones came back from his fortnight's holiday, proud of his bulging muscles. "Look at these arms," he bragged. His colleagues admired his muscles, and asked if he got them rowing.

Jones withered them with his scorn, "Rowing be blowed," he snorted. "I got them pulling fish into the boat."

Thy prayer—A peace that will endure

A brotherhood of man, across the land and sea:
ONLY THEN can mankind live secure,

And hope to reach, The place He has, for thee and me.

A Fine Treat For After School Appetites

After school appetites often turn out to be real "corkers." Usually though, Mom doesn't have too much time to plan for this hour of the day. Nevertheless, she can give her youngsters a real treat in practically no time at all . . . that is, of course, if she has plenty of milk on hand along with a supply of "Children's Delight" which can be prepared before they arrive.

"Children's Delight" is a real youngsters' treat, made with the same cereal that is such an outstanding "hit" at breakfast served with milk . . . Toasties Corn Flakes.

To make this "delightful" snack, only one bowl and one baking pan is necessary, promising Mom much ease and speed.

CHILDREN'S DELIGHT

- 1 cup finely crushed Post Toasties Corn Flakes
- 3 tablespoons flour
- ¼ cup brown sugar, firmly packed
- 3 tablespoons butter, melted
- ½ cup raspberry or strawberry jam

Combine cereal, flour, sugar, and melted butter. Pack half of mixture firmly in bottom of greased 8x8x2-inch pan. Then spread with the jam and top with remaining cereal mixture. Press down lightly. Bake in moderate oven (375°F.) 15 minutes. Cool. Cut in squares. Makes 36 pieces.
